SHAREHOLDERS

- Green Bay Packers, Inc., has been a publicly owned, nonprofit corporation since Aug. 18, 1923, when original articles of incorporation were filed with Wisconsin's secretary of state.
- A total of 4,750,940 shares are owned by 112,205 stockholders — none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment.
- The corporation is governed by a board of directors and a seven-member executive committee.
- One of the more remarkable business stories in American history, the team is kept viable by its shareholders — its unselfish fans. Even more incredible, the Packers have survived during the current era, permeated by free agency and the NFL salary cap. And, thanks in large part to Brown County's passage of the 2000 Lambeau Field referendum, the club will remain solvent and highly competitive well into the future due to its redeveloped stadium.
- Fans have come to the team's financial rescue on several occasions, including four previous stock sales: 1923, 1935, 1950 and 1997.
- To protect against someone taking control of the team, the articles of incorporation prohibit any person from owning more than 200,000 shares.

IN THE COMMUNITY

FOOTBALL AND COMMUNITY

The Green Bay Packers organization is dedicated to enriching the lives of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan residents by donating time and talents, along with providing diverse community outreach programs. Our programs are designed to assist nonprofit organizations, mentor youth, encourage volunteerism and gain an awareness of the unique needs of our communities. We are committed to taking an active role in leading by example to encourage, inspire and build unity within the communities that have consistently supported us for more than 90 years.

The Green Bay Packers are founded on two principles: football and a commitment to the community. Fulfilling the Packers' mission requires focus and dedication – seven days a week, 52 weeks a year. These efforts have resulted in a 92-year legacy of excellence both on and off the field.

Each day of the week is important to the team in terms of creating a game plan and preparing for the next opponent. Similarly, each day of the week represents an essential component in the organization's efforts to support its fans and its community. The Packers' commitment to their fans, and their fans' commitment to the team, come together to form a mutually beneficial relationship that has no rival.

THE FOUNDATION & 1265 LOMBARDI AVE.DONATIONS

The Packers are proud to help nonprofit groups in the state of Wisconsin with their fundraising efforts. In 2010, more than 9,000 requests were submitted for consideration, which in turn raised over $2.5 million to help nonprofit groups providing services to state residents. Separate cash donations to local nonprofit groups exceeded $1.2 million during this same time period.

Those interested in acquiring a donation to benefit a nonprofit organization in Wisconsin can apply at www.packers.com/community/donations.html.

FOUNDATION GRANTS

The Packers Foundation was proud to make a difference in Wisconsin by contributing over $205,000 in annual grant money to worthy civic and charitable groups throughout the state. Of the 80 recipient organizations, 35 are located within Brown County, while the others are located in other areas throughout the state.

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARDS

For the 11th year, the Packers requested and received numerous nominations of outstanding volunteers from throughout the state of Wisconsin for consideration in the organization's Community Quarterback Award program. Twenty winners were selected, with each winner receiving a $1,000 grant in the name of the nonprofit organization for which they volunteer.

COMMUNITY EVENTS GRANTS

Each year, the Packers award four grants to non-profit organizations in Brown County that are interested in holding a charity event at Lambeau Field. This year's recipients were the 426th Regiment Regional Training Institute, Wisconsin Youth Soccer Association, Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin, Inc., and Freedom House Ministries, Inc.

WISH GRANTING

Last season, the Packers were honored to grant the wishes of seven children and young adults through the Make-A-Wish Foundation. During a visit, the guests of honor have the opportunity to tour Lambeau Field, watch practice, dine with the team and share some very special one-on-one time with their favorite players. The Packers players, coaches and staff work diligently to make certain each visit is a positive and memorable experience for their special guests.

MILITARY SUPPORT

The Packers remain committed to honoring the men and women of the United States military who have or are currently serving their country. In an effort to do so, the Packers send hundreds of military care packages and messages of support each year. Throughout the season, the team also honors servicemen and women through Operation Fan Mail, a gameday activity in which members of the armed services are recognized for their outstanding contributions.

PLAYERS, COACHES & ALUMNI OUTREACHAPPEARANCES BY PLAYERS AND COACHES

Members of the organization – players, coaches and staff – are committed to supporting the community. Throughout 2010, the Packers were granted the opportunity to make over 500 appearances. Appearances included nonprofit fundraisers, school visits, athletic banquets and many other events and programs.

APPEARANCES BY ALUMNI

The season featured numerous homecomings at Lambeau Field. During home-game weekends, the Packers and their fans welcomed 22 alumni for a return to the stadium. The visits provided the fans a chance to fondly relive Packers history, as well as obtain autographs from some of their favorite former players.

PLAYERS' FOUNDATIONS

Many Packers players take their dedication to the community to another level by creating foundations to impact the lives of those around them.

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR PROGRAM

Each season, the Packers nominate a player for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. The honor recognizes NFL players for their commitment to the community. The Packers' nominee for 2010 was safety Nick Collins. Collins was recognized for his commitment to a large number of community programs such as Big Brothers Big Sisters, United Way, Golden House and Families of Children with Cancer.

EDUCATIONFIT KIDS!

Currently in its seventh year, the Fit Kids! program has been adopted by over 315 public school districts across the state of Wisconsin. The program, designed to improve children's physical, mental and social health through the instruction of teachers, has made a difference in the lives of thousands of students.

PLAY 60 CHALLENGE

Ten Wisconsin schools participated in this season's "Play 60 Challenge," a program that attempts to get students active for at least 60 minutes a day. The 1,800 middle-school students who participated logged 6.8 million active minutes in a 28-day-span, averaging 130 minutes per student, per day. Brodhead Public Middle School proved victorious in the challenge with a daily average of 195 minutes per student, per day.

PLAY 60 BACK TO FOOTBALL FRIDAY

Butte des Morts Elementary School in Menasha was selected as an NFL Play 60 Super School. Along with the title, the school was given a $10,000 grant for health and wellness programming and equipment, and was treated to a special visit from linebacker A.J. Hawk.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Packers have forged an educational partnership with Scholarships, Inc. and Northeast Wisconsin Technical College, funding several scholarships for students who are residents of Brown County and entering four-year colleges or two-year technical or apprenticeship trade programs. The scholarships are awarded based on community service, involvement in athletic activities, academic achievement and financial need.

INTERNSHIPS

In addition to the numerous full-time and part-time personnel the Packers employ, there are several internships available throughout the organization. Departments such as accounting, athletic training, community outreach, fields, information technology, marketing, media group, public relations and ticketing provide young adults with valuable experience in their academic and professional careers.

PACKERS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Packers Women's Association (PWA) is a great supporter of ASPIRO, an organization devoted to creating opportunities for people with disabilities to reach goals, connect in the community and achieve independence. In addition to participating in the group's Awareness Walk, the PWA also served as judges for the chili-contest fundraiser.

MAKING STRIDES AGAINST BREAST CANCER RUN/WALK

Twenty members of the PWA participated in the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Awareness Run/Walk, with all proceeds going to benefit the American Cancer Society.

PAUL'S PANTRY FOOD DRIVE

The PWA teamed up with Festival Foods for the 24th Annual Food Drive for Paul's Pantry. The drive was quite successful, netting over 13,000 food items and $16,462 in the hours leading up to a Packers home game.

PWA CARE FOR KIDS PROJECT

PWA continued its work on a program started in 2009, the PWA Care for Kids project, designed to support pediatric patients at local hospitals. Over 1,000 arts and crafts projects, games and movies were donated to the hospitals for distribution to young patients during their extended and often overwhelming stays in the hospital.

FOOTBALL 101 CLINIC

The Packers served as host for an interactive and entertaining event geared toward educating women about football. The event, arranged by several members of the PWA, featured guest speakers, drills and skills sessions with players inside the Don Hutson Center, the Packers' practice facility.

SALVATION ARMY'S ADOPT-A-FAMILY PROGRAM

The PWA adopted 19 families for the holiday season. Each family anonymously submits a list of their basic needs and interests, which the PWA members and their families do their best to fulfill, bringing cheer to both those giving and receiving.

HOUSE OF HOPE ADOPT-A-ROOM PROJECT & CHARITY NIGHT

The members of the PWA adopted and updated three bedrooms at the House of Hope, a shelter serving homeless, single mothers and their children. Occupants of the rooms were offered the opportunity to take the donated items with them when their stay at the facility was complete.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

NFL GRASSROOTS PROGRAM

As part of the NFL Grassroots program, the Journey House, a community organization located in Milwaukee, received a $200,000 grant from the Packers to help refurbish their football field. The funds were put toward the installation of a synthetic-turf playing field that was donated by the Packers. The surface had previously belonged to Ray Nitschke Field before the location became the team's primary training camp practice field in 2009.

NFL PLAYER MATCHING YOUTH/HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL GRANT PROGRAM

Through the Player Matching Youth/High School Football Grant Program, the NFL matches financial contributions made by current or former players to youth and high school football programs throughout the country. During the 2010 season, three matching grants totaling $30,000 and six camp grants totaling $21,500 were awarded to members of the Packers.

YOUTH FOOTBALL ON LAMBEAU FIELD

For the past 11 years, the Packers have invited local Pop Warner teams to run plays on the field during halftime of preseason games, as they are cheered on by the thousands of fans in attendance. This experience is undoubtedly one the youth football players will never forget.

NFL PUNT, PASS & KICK COMPETITION

Each year, the Packers host the annual Punt, Pass & Kick Competition prior to a regular-season game at Lambeau Field. Thirty-four youngsters, ages 8-15, advanced from across the state for the opportunity to compete for the title of Packers Punt, Pass & Kick Team Champion, with four participants scoring high enough to place them in competition at the Punt, Pass & Kick National Finals.

GREEN BAY PACKERS 7-ON-7 REGIONAL PASSING TOURNAMENT

In June, the Packers hosted their second annual 7-on-7 Regional Passing Tournament. Six high school football teams and two high school player-development teams were invited to the Don Hutson Center, the Packers practice facility, to compete in a passing tournament for the chance to advance to the NFL 7-on-7 National Tournament as representatives of the Packers. Ashwaubenon High School defeated Edgar High School in overtime to win the tournament.

NFL 7-ON-7 NATIONAL PASSING TOURNAMENT

The Packers were one of 22 NFL teams selected to send a team of high school athletes to represent them in the NFL 7-on-7 National Passing Tournament. The competition was held in Florida and hosted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in July. Eleven NFC and 11 AFC teams competed for the championship. The Ashwaubenon High School football team proudly represented the Packers.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL COACH OF THE WEEK PROGRAM

Each week during the football season, the Packers honor a Wisconsin high school football coach who demonstrates outstanding leadership on and off the field. Each winner receives $1,000 to be used for the school's football program. One coach, named the Packers High School Football Coach of the Year, is given a $2,000 donation for his football program and is recognized at Lambeau Field during one of the Packers' final home games.

GREEN BAY PACKERS YOUTH FOOTBALL OUTREACH CAMPS

Created and unveiled in the fall of 2010, the Packers Youth Football Outreach Camps provide boys and girls in second through fifth grade the opportunity to test their football skills by way of various drills and obstacle courses. The stations give the participants an opportunity to take part in a relay race, kick a ball, throw a pass, leap for a catch and dive for a touchdown.

NFL HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CAMP

Using Lambeau Field as its base, the Wisconsin National Guard presented the NFL High School Player Development Camp, a three-day event that focused on both football skills and character development. The goal of the camp is to provide awareness of the skills necessary to becoming a successful collegiate student-athlete.

USA FOOTBALL COACHING SCHOOL

The Packers work with USA Football to host a coaching school with the goal of developing and sharpening the approach to youth football in the state. The curriculum, aimed at middle-school and Pop Warner levels, focused on the strategies of the game, as well as the life lessons that young players learn from the game. The event featured multiple classroom sessions at Lambeau Field as well as drill demonstrations inside the Don Hutson Center.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVES

The Packers partner with the American Red Cross several times each year to host blood drives for both staff and community members. A blood drive held during training camp collected more than 200 donations, and a Packers vs. Vikings challenge that was held the week leading up to the rivalry game had fans in both states coming out in large numbers to compete.

CAMPBELL'S CHUNKY SOUP "CLICK FOR CANS" COMPETITION

Green Bay fans once again rose to the occasion and helped the team win its incredible ninth straight "Click for Cans" title. The competition, hosted by Campbell's Chunky Soup, provides the winning team with 18,000 cans of soup for distribution to food banks. Associated Bank also contributed nearly 12,000 additional cans of soup for donation to pantries across the state of Wisconsin.

PROJECT LEAP!

Project LEAP! is an event designed to get children and their families out of the house, participating in fun, non-strenuous activity in the midst of harsh Wisconsin winters. Among the activities offered at the event are inflatables, climbing walls, bungee trampolines, face painting and entertainment.

TAILGATE TOUR

Several players and staff departed in May on a four-day journey through Wisconsin for the organization's annual "Tailgate Tour." President Mark Murphy and players Chad Clifton, Nick Collins, John Kuhn and James Jones made stops in Rhinelander, Chippewa Falls, Milwaukee and Reedsburg before returning to Green Bay. In addition to impromptu stops throughout the state, the group made nightly appearances at a tailgate party in each city, with all proceeds benefitting a designated nonprofit organization.

65 ROSES CELEBRITY GOLF TOURNAMENT

As part of a long-standing tradition in Green Bay, Head Coach Mike McCarthy served as the honorary chairman for the 65 Roses Celebrity Golf Tournament. Over the past 20 years, the organization has teamed up with Humana to raise well over $500,000 to fight cystic fibrosis.

EDGAR BENNETT CELEBRITY BOWL-A-THON

In June, the Ashwaubenon Bowling Alley served as host for the seventh annual Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon. Numerous Packers traded in their cleats for bowling shoes to act as celebrity guest bowlers for the event. The event served as a fundraiser for The Angel Fund for Children with Cancer.

JERRY PARINS CRUISE FOR CANCER

Jerry Parins, senior security advisor for the Packers, hosts the annual Jerry Parins Cruise for Cancer each summer. The event, a 60-mile motorcycle ride, has raised in excess of $450,000 over the past seven years for various local cancer-related organizations. The ride was created by Parins a mere 16 months after he was diagnosed with cancer.

EVENING WITH LOMBARDI BENEFIT

In preparation for the opening of the theatrical play "Lombardi" on Broadway, Lambeau Field served as the setting for an event celebrating the production focused on the life and times of legendary coach Vince Lombardi. Fans had the opportunity to meet the producer, director and lead actor of the play, as well as others who were integral in getting the piece ready for Broadway. Proceeds from the evening went to benefit local theatre groups.

TRAINING CAMP

Each summer, the Packers hold their annual training camp at Ray Nitschke Field. The newly renovated field, which seats 1,500 fans, holds over 20 practices each year, with an estimated attendance of close to 100,000 fans throughout camp, including the annual Family Night scrimmage at Lambeau Field. Practices are viewed free of charge. The field is located directly across the street from Lambeau Field, which allows players the opportunity to keep alive the long-standing tradition of riding the bikes of young fans to practice, providing the kids a memory and a story to last a lifetime.

MOVIE NIGHT

Lambeau Field turned into the city's biggest movie theater during the opening weekend of training camp, when the movie "Diary of a Wimpy Kid" was shown in the bowl of the stadium. The evening's festivities, which were free of admission costs, also featured music, giveaways and a fireworks show.

WELCOME BACK LUNCHEON

Each year, in the midst of training camp, the Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce hosts the Welcome Back Luncheon. The event welcomes the players and coaches back to the area for the upcoming season, and serves as an opportunity for members of the community to interact with the team, as a player or coach is assigned to each table to mingle and dine with guests.

BROWN COUNTY CHILDREN'S CHARITY GOLF CLASSIC

On an annual basis, the Packers team up with Brown County to host the Children's Charity Golf Classic, with proceeds from the event going to benefit at-risk and needy children through the Community Partnership for Children. Through the support of Packers President Mark Murphy and other administrative staff who attended the event, over $42,000 was raised for the fund.

GREEN AND GOLD GALA

The 22nd annual Green and Gold Gala was once again held at Lambeau Field in 2010. With the strong support of the Packers organization, crucial funds were raised for Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin, an organization aimed at offering services to families in crisis and need.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

The Packers and United Way teamed up in the fall to build a new playground at Tank Elementary School in Green Bay as part of the NFL Hometown Huddle project. Not only was the school provided with new playground equipment, but several students were invited to work side by side with some of their favorite players to construct the playground.

PRO VS. G.I. JOE PROGRAM

As a part of the Pro vs. G.I. Joe program, several Packers players connected with active Wisconsin National Guard members in a friendly battle of video games. Soldiers who were stationed in Basra and Baghdad, Iraq, were able to compete against the players via a video-conference setup, playing games such as "Rock Band" and "Call of Duty."

SPOOKTACULAR FUN AT LAMBEAU FIELD

For two days each October, Lambeau Field is transformed for a celebration of all things Halloween. The eighth annual Spooktacular Fun event featured interactive musicians, magicians, and stilt walkers. In addition to the kids' event, the Packers opened the doors to the Haunted Concourse, a spookhouse designed for area teens.

ECUMENICAL THANKSGIVING DAY DINNER

For the eighth consecutive year, Lambeau Field opened its doors to local people in need looking to partake in fellowship and a freshly prepared Thanksgiving meal. Nearly 500 volunteers from the community gathered at Lambeau Field and served a sit-down meal to approximately 900 guests. An additional 900 meals were delivered directly to the doors of those who were homebound.

SALVATION ARMY BELL RINGING CAMPAIGN

Numerous Packers players and staff lent a hand to The Salvation Army during the holiday season, as they could be seen and heard throughout the area, ringing bells in an effort to raise funds for the organization and make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate.

FAMILIES OF CHILDREN WITH CANCER HOLIDAY PARTY

Ten Packers players teamed up with the Families of Children with Cancer group to make the holidays a bit brighter for young cancer patients and their families at the group's annual holiday party. Guests enjoyed talking to the players and competing in various games against them, and were thoroughly entertained as they all took to the stage to sing some holiday classics.

AWAY GAME PEP RALLIES

While the Packers travel across the nation to compete in away games, the team's alumni participate in pep rallies at various establishments in some of the cities in which the team is playing. These rallies help gather Packers fans from across the nation and build excitement for the team when they are playing away from home.

Adding to the excitement of gameday are programs and events designed to support and enhance the community that the team calls home.

GAMEDAYMIDWEST SHRINE GAME

For over 60 years, the Packers have designated one preseason game as the Midwest Shrine Game. At the game, the Packers present a donation to the Shrine Tripoli Temple, which operates Shriners Hospitals for Children. The total donated to the organization over the years currently stands at $3.2 million.

BISHOP'S CHARITIES GAME

Since 1961, the Packers have designated one preseason game as the Bishop's Charities Game, with a donation being made to the Catholic Diocese of Green Bay. Approximately $3.5 million has been donated to the diocese over the past 50 years.

COATS FOR KIDS COLLECTION

For the last 10 years, the Packers have hosted a Salvation Army Coats for Kids collection prior to a regular-season home game. In September, the team collected $10,000 and 480 coats from giving fans, bringing the total for the decade to approximately 2,775 coats.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH RECOGNITION

In recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October, the team took to the field wearing their traditional green-and-gold uniforms, but donning various pieces of pink equipment. Zeta Tau Alpha handed out complimentary pink ribbons, while Kohl's Corporation provided pink towels that were distributed to fans.

MILITARY APPRECIATION GAME

A November game served as the 2010 Military Appreciation Game at Lambeau Field. The team recognized more than 100 members of the Wisconsin National Guard's 951st Engineer Company on the field at halftime. In addition, the Packers partnered with Oshkosh Defense to raise funds by way of a signature wall. All of the proceeds benefited the Fisher House Foundation, which provides free or low-cost lodging to veterans and military families receiving treatment at military medical centers.

TOYS FOR TOTS COLLECTION

The Packers and the U.S. Marine Corps worked together to host the yearly Toys for Tots collection at Lambeau Field prior to a game in December. Fans attending the game generously donated 1,300 toys and over $4,500.

LEVY RESTAURANTS CONCESSION-STAND EFFORTS

Area nonprofit groups volunteer their time and energy to staff concession stands for each and every home game. In turn, donations totaling over $780,000 were given to the 70 nonprofit organizations who volunteered during the 2010 season.

SARGENTO TOUCHDOWNS FOR CHARITY PROGRAM

For seven seasons, Sargento has teamed up with the Packers to coordinate the Touchdowns for Charity program. With the aid of the team's 2010 Super Bowl run, the partnership yielded $117,500, with Paul's Pantry in Green Bay and the Wisconsin Hunger Task Force in Milwaukee being selected as the recipients of the funds.

PROTECTION IS THE NAME OF THE GAME CAMPAIGN

The Packers partnered with Verizon Wireless to execute a campaign entitled Protection is the Name of the Game. The project focused on a season-long cell phone drive, with Verizon Wireless making a $10 donation to its HopeLine program for each used cell phone donated. The program benefits victims of domestic violence in Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

FIRST DOWN FOR TREES

The Packers kicked off the eco-friendly "First Down for Trees" program in 2010. With every first down the team gained during the season, the organization planted a tree in Brown County as part of its Green Team Initiative.

GREEN BAY PACKERS FOUNDATION

The Green Bay Packers organization has enjoyed tremendous fan support through its long and storied history. The community supported the team in times of need by "passing the hat" at games and by buying stock in 1923, 1935, 1950 and 1997, among other ways. To give back to the community, the team created the Green Bay Packers Foundation in December 1986. The Foundation assists in a wide variety of activities and programs that benefit education, civic affairs, health services, human services and youth-related programs.

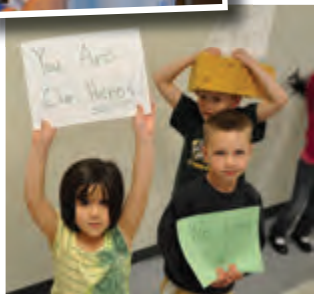

Last year, in its annual distribution of funds, the foundation awarded $205,000 to 78 civic and charitable groups throughout the state of Wisconsin. Casey Cuene, chairman of the Foundation committee, announced Feb. 21, 2011. With these disbursements, the Foundation has distributed more than $2.2 million for charitable purposes since it was established in 1986 by Judge Robert J. Parins, then president of the Packers Corporation, "as a vehicle to assure continued contributions to charity."

The financial breakdown of the Foundation's contributions discloses that 35 grants — aggregating $120,000 — were awarded to Brown County organizations.

Additional grants, totaling $85,000, were made to 43 other groups around the state.

Under the Packers Scholarship Program, established in 2002, an additional $15,000 is being awarded — $7,500 to Scholarships, Inc., for distribution to students in four-year colleges and $7,500 to Northeast Wisconsin Technical College (NWT) for distribution to students in two-year associate degree or apprenticeship trades programs. The scholarship funds come from National Football League Properties which, at the Packers' request, returns to the Foundation royalty fees paid for using the Packers logo on Wisconsin automobile license plates.

In the past year, the Packers Foundation also has distributed an additional $57,375 on behalf of National Football League Charities — $20,000 in "Community Quarterback" awards to civic leaders for contributions to the community, $12,375 in the NFL's "Coach of the Week" program which honors successful Wisconsin high school coaches on a weekly basis throughout the season, $20,000 through the "Hometown Huddle/Youth Fitness Zone" program, and $5,000 to the "Play 60 Challenge" to encourage healthy lifestyles among young people.

ADMINISTRATION & COACHES

MARK MURPHY

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Mark Murphy, possessor of extensive experience in professional football and sports administration, is in his fourth year as the Packers' President and CEO.

Under Murphy's guidance, the organization reached the pinnacle of success on the field in 2010 with a victory in Super Bowl XLV. Off the field, the club continues to perform well in its business operations, which allows the organization to support football operations. The fan experience at Lambeau Field, a top priority for the organization, continues to be ranked among the best in sports.

It was a direction both Murphy and the organization envisioned when Murphy was elected by the Packers Board of Directors as the franchise's 10th Chief Executive Officer Dec. 3, 2007. He began his work with the organization as president-elect Jan. 1, 2008, and then formally took over Jan. 28, 2008.

"I am honored to have been selected and very appreciative of this tremendous opportunity," Murphy said the day of his election. "The Packers are one of the great franchises in all of professional sports, with a rich history and incredible fan support. These are successful times for the Packers. On the field they're performing well, and off the field, they're in great shape, too. I look forward to being a part of that continued success."

Murphy, who holds a law degree and an M.B.A. in finance, brought a unique and highly qualified background to his role as head of one of the NFL's flagship franchises, first drawing from a deep understanding and appreciation of the game that comes from an eight-year playing career with the Washington Redskins. Later, he served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Colgate University and Northwestern University, and was an assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association and a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice.

In addition to his playing career and work with the NFL Players Association, Murphy had maintained his ties to the NFL through his work on the Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) as well as the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-present). Additionally, his NFL experience now includes Super Bowl wins as a player (XVII, 1982) and as a CEO (XLV, 2010), believed to be the first such occurrence in NFL history.

NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, recognizing the unique experience and skills Murphy brought to the NFL as the Packers' CEO, in 2008 appointed him to the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee, the NFL owners' committee whose responsibility is to serve as the bargaining team during negotiations with the NFL Players Association for a new Collective Bargaining Agreement. The position has allowed Murphy to increase his involvement and contributions at the league level, ensuring the organization has a voice in NFL matters.

"Mark's rare blend of experiences makes him integral to the future of the Packers and the NFL," said Goodell. "His accomplishments as an NFL player, his work with the NFLPA, and now his leadership of the Packers, provide a unique perspective to the league and also to the players. He's very effective in discussions with NFLPA executives. Mark is a bright and thoughtful individual who understands what needs to get done to create a system that benefits all sides for years to come. He is very reasonable and wants what's best for fans, the game and players, as we all do."

AT A GLANCE

- Named Packers President/CEO Dec. 3, 2007, by Packers Board of Directors; formally assumed position Jan. 28, 2008.
- Served on the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee.
- Served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Northwestern University (2003-07) and Colgate University (1992-2003) prior to joining Packers.
- Enjoyed an eight-year NFL playing career with the Washington Redskins (1977-84); served as co-captain from 1980-84, including Super Bowl championship team of 1982. Earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1983.
- Is believed to be the first person to earn a Super Bowl ring as a player (XVII, 1982) and as a team chief executive (XLV, 2010).
- Served as Redskins' player representative to the NFL Players Association from 1980-84, including position of vice president of players union (1983-84).
- Holds law degree from Georgetown University (1988) and M.B.A. in finance from American University (1983).
- Served as assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association (1985-88) and as a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice (1989-92).
- Served on NFL Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) and currently serves on the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-present).
- While a player with the Redskins, participated in the highest-scoring game in Monday Night Football and Green Bay Packers history, a 48-47 defeat to the Packers on Oct. 17, 1983, at Lambeau Field.

In his first year in Green Bay, Murphy broadened his knowledge of the franchise, its operations and its standing in the community by meeting with employees, shareholders, fans and members of the Board of Directors, as well as many community groups.

Among his first initiatives was to update the organization's strategic plan, a process involving all the leadership positions of the organization, including the Executive Committee and football operations. The process created core objectives to serve as a backdrop for all key business decisions. In a move to enhance those objectives, Murphy restructured the management of the organization, which included creating a new senior-leadership staff consisting of vice-president positions overseeing administration, finance, football operations, sales and marketing, and organizational/staff development, with the latter two positions new to the organization. The new structure reflects the growth the organization has experienced in recent years and gives broader coverage across all operations with more people involved on a senior-management level.

Murphy also is directing the organization's master plan involving Lambeau Field, the Lambeau Field Atrium, the practice facilities and property the team owns adjacent to the stadium. The most recent project was the development of the new Ray Nitschke Field, the practice field on the east side of the Don Hutson Center. The new facility, completed for 2009 training camp, features many improvements over previous fields and greatly enhanced the fans' experience at training camp while opening to rave reviews from the players. In Lambeau Field, a new distributed-audio sound system, designed to deliver sound more consistently and evenly throughout the stadium bowl, was installed for the 2011 season, and for 2012, new video boards and a new north gate are planned. An expansion of the south end zone, with approximately 7,500 additional seats, will be completed for the 2013 season.

Among the other initiatives Murphy has directed is the enhancement of the organization's retail operations, including the purchase of a new warehouse for the Packers Pro Shop and the establishment of a customer relationship management (CRM) program, with both efforts upgrading customer service to Packers fans. Also in the fan-experience realm, the team created a new department, the Packers Media Group, whose charge is to provide Packers.com with innovative and enhanced content to engage fans in new and entertaining ways.

Murphy also has worked to increase the number of outside events utilizing Lambeau Field, including a Kenny Chesney concert in June 2011, the venue's first major concert since its redevelopment; LZ Lambeau in May 2010, a welcome back for Wisconsin Vietnam Veterans; expansion of the Green Bay Marathon to two days; and "Kids Day," an event held in June with Green Bay's mayor to celebrate Green Bay's kids.

Inside the organization, Murphy continues to grow and develop the team's human resources, with new programs for employees such as leadership development.

The 56-year-old Murphy joined the Packers after 4½ years (2003-07) as director of athletics at Northwestern University. At the Big Ten Conference school, Murphy oversaw a 19-sport program with a $40 million budget and 160 full-time employees. During his tenure, the school won eight individual national championships and three NCAA team titles. Additionally, the university won nine conference team championships and 34 individual Big Ten titles. A total of 49 Wildcats earned first-team All-America distinction. On the football field, the Wildcats participated in two bowl games during Murphy's tenure after playing in just four previous such contests in the program's history. In 2006-07, Northwestern finished 30th in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings with a school-best 626.5 points. The Wildcats ranked among the top 30 in the standings for the last three years of Murphy's tenure and in 2007 finished sixth among Big Ten schools for the third straight year after previously not placing higher than ninth.

The school's athletic success under Murphy was achieved while its student-athletes continued to excel off the field. The NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) data released in October 2007 reported Northwestern's rate at 98 percent, tying it with Notre Dame and Navy for tops in the nation.

Prior to his tenure at Northwestern, Murphy served as director of athletics at Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. (1992-2003), the school from which he graduated in 1977. During his 11 years at the helm, the university experienced a renaissance of its football program, going from 0-11 in 1995 to three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In 2003, the year after Murphy's departure to Northwestern, the team made it to the championship game; the achievement of that squad – a non-scholarship program – remains one of Murphy's proudest moments.

"The accomplishment of that team, to go from winless to eventually the championship game, was outstanding," recalls Murphy. "We had to fight to just get teams from the Patriot League in the I-AA playoffs, as well as convince certain

THE GREEN BAY PACKERS ORGANIZATION

NO. 1 ACROSS ALL OF SPORTS: Each year since 2003, ESPN The Magazine has ranked all 122 franchises in the four major sports based on eight major categories: bang for the buck, ownership, stadium experience, on-field leadership, fan relations, affordability, players' effort and likability, and championships won/expected to win. The Packers finished first in the inaugural rankings in 2003 and also the most recent rankings released in June 2011, joining the NBA's San Antonio Spurs (2004, 2006) as the only team to have garnered the distinction more than once. The franchise also placed in the top 10 in 2004 (third), '05 (eighth) and '08 (fourth). Lambeau Field has ranked as the top NFL venue in each of the seven rankings and landed in the top overall spot across all sports four times, including each of the last three years (2008-10).

PLAYERS NAME PACKERS CLASSIEST ORGANIZATION:

In October 2004, Sports Illustrated published results of a poll in which the majority of NFL players chose the Packers as the classiest organization in the league. Featured in the magazine's SI Players section, the poll surveyed 354 players. Results:

Green Bay Packers	18 percent
San Francisco 49ers	15 percent
Dallas Cowboys	10 percent
New England Patriots	10 percent

MOST POPULAR FRANCHISES: In March 2009, the NFL and ESPN Sports Poll released a study in which it aimed to determine the nation's most popular individual pro sports franchises across all sports. The Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, always among the top vote-getters in the annual Harris Interactive Poll determining America's favorite football team, finished Nos. 1 and 2 across all franchises. NFL teams held six of the top 10 spots in the poll.

LAMBEAU FIELD RANKED NO. 1 GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE:

In a November 2007 Sports Illustrated poll on SI.com rating the gameday atmosphere for each NFL team, the experience of seeing the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field ranked first.

Lambeau Field topped the rankings for a second consecutive season in 2008, according to the SI.com poll. It was the only stadium to achieve a top-five ranking in each of the five categories: affordability & food, tailgating, team quality, atmosphere and accessibility.

"For all the glitz and money the NFL exudes nowadays," the poll summarized, "football's heart is still on that 'frozen tundra,' where tough guys grapple with each other while fans warm themselves on cold bleachers with hot chocolate and full-throated cheering. And that is still the essence of Lambeau."

people at the NCAA that we fielded legitimate football teams – there was a belief that the non-scholarship teams were on a different tier. When our club advanced to that game, it was a great source of pride for our school, the community, and all the schools in the Patriot League.”

Colgate's other teams experienced success as well, with men's basketball, women's soccer, women's volleyball, women's softball and men's ice hockey teams making NCAA Tournament appearances. The school also achieved graduation rates among the highest for student-athletes in Division I during Murphy's tenure.

A former All-Pro safety for the Washington Redskins, Murphy enjoyed an eight-year (1977-84) career after originally signing with the team as a non-drafted free agent in 1977. He was a co-captain from 1980-84, a period that included two Super Bowl teams (1982-83). He enjoyed his finest season in 1983, leading the NFL with nine interceptions and earning consensus All-Pro honors as well as a trip to the Pro Bowl. Murphy was named as one of the Redskins' "70 Greatest Players" and also is a member of the club's 50th Anniversary Team.

Joe Gibbs, the Hall of Fame former coach of the Redskins who led the team during Murphy's 1981-84 seasons, was appreciative of the player's contributions and lauded the Packers' hiring of Murphy.

“Mark meant a lot to the Redskins organization the years he was here and played,” Gibbs said. “He was a great person along with being one of the brightest and most competitive people we've had here at the Redskins.”

Gibbs had an influence on Murphy as well, as the Packers' CEO attributes much of his leadership style to what he learned from the successful Redskins coach.

“He had many leadership traits that I admired and tried to incorporate into my own leadership style,” said Murphy. “He had a very natural way about him with the way he related to people, and he tried to be accessible. He was a very effective communicator, too, as most great leaders are. And when he worked with you, he was very fair and sincere. All those skills and traits fueled his awesome ability to motivate his teams.”

A natural leader among his teammates, Murphy served as the Redskins' player representative to the NFL Players Association from 1980-84, including the position of vice president of the players union (1983-84). While a representative, he served on the players' bargaining committee during the 1982 players' strike. Those experiences have served him well in his role on the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee.

During his days with the Redskins, Murphy earned an M.B.A. in finance from American University in Washington, D.C., attending classes full-time in the offseason and evening classes in-season. Upon completion of his playing career in 1985, he joined the NFL Players Association as assistant executive director. While with the NFLPA, Murphy served on the bargaining team, including during the 1987 players' strike, developed the agent-certification system and strengthened the PA's degree-completion and career-counseling programs.

While with the NFLPA, he started work on a law degree from Georgetown University and ultimately finished his studies full-time after leaving the Players Association. Upon receiving his law degree in 1988, he worked at a Washington, D.C., law firm (Bredhoff and Kaiser) before becoming a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice in 1989.

During a four-year career with the Department of Justice, he primarily represented government agencies in trials. Then, in 1992, his alma mater called and he returned to the sports realm.

At ease in public settings and with the media, Murphy enjoyed hosting a weekly radio show during his playing days and later became a sports commentator for National Public Radio (1983-92) and the Anheuser-Busch Radio Network (1986-88), offering his insights into football and sports-related legal issues in general.

Born July 13, 1955, in Fulton, N.Y., Murphy spent some of his formative years in the Houston area before moving back to the Buffalo-area community of Clarence. He was a three-sport star (football, baseball and basketball) at Clarence Central High School and was named the best all-around athlete in Western New York during his senior year. His baseball talents drew attention from Major League scouts. In 2002, he was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his achievements both on and off the field.

Murphy and his wife, Laurie, who also is a Colgate graduate, have been involved in the communities in which they've lived. Over the years the couple has donated their time to numerous organizations, including local schools, the United Methodist Church in Hamilton, N.Y., and the First Congregational Church of Evanston, Ill. Also while in Chicago, Murphy served on the bid committee for the 2016 Olympics which eventually was awarded to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. While at Colgate University, Murphy formed the Hamilton Youth Basketball League and served as its commissioner. Heavily involved in the community while with the Redskins, Murphy was named the team's "Miller Man of the Year" in 1984 in honor of his work off the field.

In Green Bay, Murphy has engaged in a busy schedule of meeting with fans and shareholders, as well as speaking to a variety of business and community groups, all in the process of learning about the area in which he now lives. He also has given his time to several community organizations in the area to help their causes, including Big Brothers Big Sisters. Additionally, he serves on the board of directors of the Positive Coaching Alliance, an organization created to transform the culture of youth sports to give all young athletes the opportunity for a positive, character-building experience. Mark and Laurie are also active supporters of foster-care services in Brown County.

Mark and Laurie have four children: Katie, 28, a graduate of Harvard who played basketball for the Crimson and now works at Credit Suisse in New York City; Emily, 26, a 2008 graduate of Middlebury (Vt.) College with a Chinese degree who now lives and works in Shanghai, China; Brian, 22, a 2011 graduate of Amherst (Mass.) College; and Anna, 20, a junior at Northwestern University.

Way from work, Mark enjoys playing golf, fishing and participating in various forms of exercise, including bicycling, cross-country skiing and jogging.

TED THOMPSON

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL MANAGER
& DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Ted Thompson firmly believes that the best way to build a successful team is by drafting and developing players, with free agency playing a complementary role in addressing specific needs.

Now six-plus years into his tenure as Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations, Thompson's philosophy was further validated last season with a win in Super Bowl XLV over the Pittsburgh Steelers, Green Bay's fourth Super Bowl title and 13th world championship.

A look at the Packers' roster for Super Bowl XLV indicates a team truly built by Thompson. Nineteen of 22 starters and 49 of 53 players on the roster were acquired by Thompson via the draft, free agency, trades or the waiver wire during his six seasons in Green Bay.

In 2010, the Packers posted a 10-6 mark and qualified for the postseason for the third time under Thompson. Winners of three straight playoff games on the road, Green Bay became just the second No. 6 seed (2005 Steelers) to win a Super Bowl since the NFL went to a 12-team playoff format in 1990.

The Packers featured eight Pro Bowl selections in 2010, the most by a Green Bay team since 1967. Four of those players – S Nick Collins, LB A.J. Hawk, WR Greg Jennings and LB Clay Matthews – were draft picks of Thompson's. Two more, CBs Tramon Williams and Charles Woodson, were signed by Thompson as free agents. It was the third straight Pro Bowl selection for Woodson, the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2009 who was signed by Thompson in '06. QB Aaron Rodgers, who was named to the Pro Bowl in 2009 and earned MVP honors for Super Bowl XLV, was Thompson's first draft selection as Green Bay's GM in 2005.

What made the Packers' championship season in 2010 even more notable was the adversity the team faced due to injuries. Green Bay finished the year with 15 players on injured reserve, and eight of them had started at least one game on the season. Six starters from the opening-day depth chart sustained season-ending injuries in the first seven games.

Because of those injuries, the roster depth that Thompson had built during his tenure came to the fore. Rookies such as T Bryan Bulaga, a first-round draft pick in 2010, and CB Sam Shields and LB Frank Zombo, both non-drafted free agents, were called upon to step into prominent roles. A pair of fourth-year players, LB Desmond Bishop and S Charlie Peprah, moved into the starting lineup and became key cogs on defense after contributing primarily on special teams earlier in their careers. RB James Starks, a sixth-round pick in 2010 who was limited to just three games during the regular season because of an injury, led the NFL with 315 rushing yards in the postseason, third most in league annals by a rookie RB in the playoffs.

Thompson also made two midseason acquisitions that played vital roles in Green Bay's success down the stretch. The Packers signed free agent OLB Erik Walden on Oct. 27, and that same day, claimed veteran DE Howard Green off waivers from the N.Y. Jets. Walden played in nine games with two starts, and also opened three contests in the postseason. Green appeared in nine games as well, starting three contests in the regular season and three more in the playoffs.

of the philosophy that Thompson has held true to throughout his Green Bay tenure, one that should put the franchise in good position to contend for championships on an annual basis.

Since taking over as GM in 2005, Thompson has focused on rebuilding and improving the bulk of the roster, mostly through the draft.

In his first four drafts from 2005-08, Thompson utilized 14 trades, all but one of them down, to turn 31 picks into 43 selections, plus an extra choice in '09. In 2009-10, however, his trades went in the other direction as the improved roster core allowed him to focus less on the overall quantity of picks. Those two years, Thompson traded up for specific players he had targeted in certain rounds.

In '09, after selecting Boston College NT B.J. Raji with the No. 9 overall selection in the first round, Thompson traded a second-round pick and two third-round selections – Nos. 41, 73 and 83 overall – to New England to get another crack at a first-round talent. He moved up 15 spots to No. 26 overall and nabbed Matthews out of USC, while also receiving a fifth-round pick in return from the Patriots.

Just like that, not only did Thompson give the Packers two first-round draft choices for the first time in 16 years, he added highly touted prospects at the two linchpin positions in the 3-4 defense – a middle anchor and outside pass rusher.

In addition to Matthews earning a Pro Bowl bid as a rookie, both he and Raji made the prestigious Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team. Matthews took another step in 2010, becoming the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-72) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first two seasons while also finishing as the runner-up to Steelers S

Troy Polamalu for Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press. Raji posted 6½ sacks last season, the most by an NFL nose tackle since 1990, on his way to being named a Pro Bowl alternate.

Bulaga, the No. 23 overall pick in 2010, went on to start the final 12 regular-season contests at RT in place of injured veteran Mark Tauscher, and also opened all four playoff games. Bulaga was named to the All-Rookie team by PFW, joining Raji and Matthews as three straight first-round picks by Thompson to be honored by the publication. Combining the drafts he has run in Seattle and Green Bay, 18 of Thompson's selections have earned Pro Bowl, All-Pro or All-Rookie honors.

Thompson also traded up in the third round in 2010, surrendering a fourth-round choice to Philadelphia to move up 15 spots to No. 71 overall and take S Morgan Burnett of Georgia Tech. Burnett became only the second Packers safety to open the season as a starter since 1988 before his rookie campaign was cut short by a knee injury in Week 4.

In the 2011 NFL Draft, Thompson added 10 more players to a talented roster, highlighted by T Derek Sherrod out of Mississippi State in the first round and WR Randall Cobb from Kentucky in the second.

Thompson followed in the footsteps of his mentor, Ron Wolf, in becoming Green Bay's GM, and in 2008 he joined Wolf in becoming only the second person in the history of the organization to be recognized as the best in his field.

Honored in March 2008 in a vote of his peers as the George Young NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News, Thompson left an undeniable stamp on the Packers' successful 2007 season. In just his third campaign as GM, he assembled a roster that was the youngest yet one of the most talented in the NFL, and the Packers went 13-3, won the NFC North Division title, and advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the first time in a decade.

"I'm honored to receive this award on behalf of the Green Bay Packers," the humble Thompson said. "We view this as a team honor and feel the coaches, players and staff should all be very proud of the job they've done in helping this franchise succeed."

The prestigious award acknowledged Thompson for his diligence and success as the team came within an overtime field goal of advancing to the Super Bowl. But it also served as recognition for Thompson's overall body of work since taking his current position in 2005.

One of the biggest additions to the playoff-bound team came from a key trade. Thompson acquired RB Ryan Grant from the New York Giants at the end of training camp for a sixth-round draft choice, adding the former Notre Dame standout to a crowded but banged-up backfield.

Grant eventually took over as the feature back midway through the season and proceeded to rush for nearly 1,000 yards, adding 201 yards and three TDs in the NFC Divisional playoff victory over Seattle, both Green Bay postseason records. He added back-to-back 1,200-yard campaigns in 2008-09 before missing every game but one last season due to an ankle injury.

Surprising many with the hiring of Mike McCarthy as head coach in January 2006, Thompson embarked on turning around a 4-12 team beset by injuries and salary-cap concerns in his first season. The improvement to an 8-8 mark in 2006, followed by the playoff run in 2007, netted McCarthy the Motorola NFL Coach of the Year award and placed both Thompson and his chief hire at the top of their professions.

Thompson's career as a football executive came full circle on Jan. 14, 2005. That day, former Green Bay Packers CEO Bob Harlan gave him full authority over all aspects of football operations for the storied franchise.

In becoming the 10th general manager in club history, Thompson rejoined the team with which he received his start under Wolf in 1992. After working for the legendary general manager through the 1999 season, Thompson spent five years as vice president of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

"It's almost a dream come true-type job," Thompson said. "You think about, when you're a young kid, some of the things you'd like to do when you grow up and you think maybe manager of the New York Yankees or maybe the general manager of the Green Bay Packers. So it's a thrill, it's an honor."

For Harlan, the selection of Thompson to lead Green Bay's football fortunes was an easy choice, and Thompson has validated that confidence in his selection by successfully remaking the roster into one he and the organization believe is built for long-term success.

"I feel Ted is a perfect fit for the Packers," Harlan said, introducing Thompson in 2005. "He is a respected National Football League veteran who is a proven talent evaluator and an efficient administrator. He knows the people in our personnel department and he is familiar with how we run our football operation. He embraces the Packers' championship tradition, and he was very anxious to have other direction, his fingerprints were all over the Seahawks' road to Super Bowl XL during the 2005 season. NFL MVP Shaun Alexander, Thompson's first draft pick in Seattle, in 2000, captured the 2005 league rushing title and established a then-single-season NFL record with 28 touchdowns. the opportunity to return to Green Bay."

Now in his 30th NFL season, including 10 years as a player, Thompson knows and respects the position the Packers hold in the hearts of the fans, and around the league.

"The history and tradition of this place is unrivaled in professional sports," Thompson said. "I understand the passion the people here have for their team. Ron (Wolf) told me this is the best job in the National Football League. I never forgot that."

The 58-year-old Thompson not only joined an organization with which he was familiar, but also oversees a respected staff that includes Reggie McKenzie, who holds the title of director-football operations, and John Dorsey, director of college scouting, each of whom worked under Thompson during his first tenure in Green Bay.

Almost immediately upon taking over, Thompson made a crucial choice for the long-term benefit of the club. In the 2005 NFL Draft, Rodgers had been projected as high as the No. 1 overall pick, but he wasn't taken there and ended up sliding all the way down to the Packers at No. 24. One year later, Thompson handed Rodgers to an accomplished quarterback mentor in McCarthy to mold him into the team's signal caller of the future.

In 2008-09, following the retirement and subsequent trade of Brett Favre, Rodgers became the first quarterback in league history to eclipse 4,000 yards passing in each of his first two seasons as a starter. His career passer rating of 98.4 entering 2011 ranks No. 1 in NFL history, and his 12,394 passing yards from 2008-10 rank No. 2 in league annals behind only Kurt Warner (12,612, 1999-2001) for the most passing yards by a QB in his first three seasons as a starter.

Although Thompson prefers to shift the spotlight in an-his 10 NFL seasons.

Seattle could've gone in another direction in the 2000 draft. With perennial 1,000-yard rusher Ricky Watters on the roster, the club didn't need a running back in the first round. But with the Seahawks on the clock holding the 19th overall choice, Alexander was the best player available. One year later, in the 2001 draft, Thompson wanted Hutchinson in a similar situation.

"You have to do what you think is best for the organization," Thompson said before the 2006 draft, when he chose Hawk with the fifth overall selection. "A draft is an investment in a player that's going to be here for a number of years."

Thompson's philosophy on building a successful team relies heavily on drafted players as a foundation. In today's NFL, teams can't win consistently with free agency as their primary tool. And in building through the draft, the Packers place a premium on character.

But despite how much value he places on the draft, Thompson also will use the free-agent market as another tool to build the roster. In Green Bay, he has brought in players like Woodson, DE Ryan Pickett and LB Brandon Chillar, among others, to either take over starting jobs or provide valuable, experienced depth at their positions.

"I think free agency is a very interesting tool to use to help you patch some holes and do some things," said Thompson, who signed five unrestricted free agents in 2006, the Packers' most since 1998. "There's no reluctance on our part. We do try to make certain that what we do is not just fantasy football. We're investing in a player that's got to come in and play a particular role. If we don't think that player can perform to that contract, then it doesn't make sense for us to do it just to say, 'Look what we've spent.'"

In Green Bay annals, Thompson is only the fourth general manager to serve exclusively from the front office, joining Verne Lewellen (1954-58), Vince Lombardi (1968) and Wolf (1992-2000).

The low-profile Thompson has a proven track record as an evaluator. Overseeing Seattle's draft board from 2000 through '04, Thompson provided the Seahawks a solid foundation which they used to make three straight playoff appearances (2003-05). His 2003 draft saw Thompson land three players – Brown, CB Marcus Trufant and S Ken Hamlin – who not only made immediate front-line contributions as rookies, but who also became cornerstone players for years to come.

Just one year later, those three were instrumental in Seattle's 2004 NFC West championship. In the Seahawks' playoff game that year, 11 of 22 starters were acquired through Thompson's drafts.

In his first two Green Bay drafts, Thompson selected Collins in 2005 and Hawk, Jennings and G Daryn Colledge in 2006. All four were named to the PFW All-Rookie Team. In 2007, he also drafted K Mason Crosby, whose 509 career points are the second most in NFL history by a player in his first four seasons.

Prior to 2009, Thompson selected 43 players in his first four drafts as GM, signaling the rebuilding of the roster core that had seen only 27 draft picks in the four years (2001-04) before Thompson returned to Green Bay.

As a result, offseason competition for positions on Green Bay's 53-man roster has been fierce since Thompson took over, and should only become more intense in training camp in 2011. The goal is to improve the team's play through competition, just as it was when Bum Phillips annually brought in younger talent to try to take Thompson's job during the former linebacker's 10-year playing career with the Houston Oilers.

A former Oilers teammate, Mike Reinfeldt, helped to launch Thompson's second football career. In 1992, Reinfeldt, then the Packers' vice president of administration, recommended that Wolf take a look at Thompson as a potential pro scout for his staff. Wolf subsequently brought Thompson in to audition as a personnel evaluator, and Thompson always has felt he learned a lot from Wolf.

"He taught me passion, he taught me work ethic, he taught me believing in yourself, to have confidence, to write down what you see, not what other people see, and to trust yourself."

During his first tenure in Green Bay, Thompson was instrumental in providing talent that produced an 83-45 record, six straight playoff berths, two Super Bowl appearances and the 1996 world championship. With his help, the team acquired free agents Reggie White, Sean Jones, Don Beebe, Santana Dotson and Desmond Howard.

Through the draft, Green Bay added Darren Sharper, Vonnie Holliday and Donald Driver, one of the franchise's lowest-drafted Pro Bowlers.

A possessor of strong football credentials and keen knowledge of the game gleaned from his decade-long playing career, Thompson credits Wolf with deepening his understanding of the scouting process and cites his experience in Seattle working with Mike Holmgren as very valuable in terms of his growth as a football person, running an organization and making decisions that affect the team in the present and in the future.

A versatile linebacker during his 10-year NFL playing career with the Oilers (1975-84), Thompson also was one of the most durable players in team annals, missing just one of 147 contests due to injury. He started eight games over the course of his career and also played in seven postseason contests (1978-80), with the Oilers going 4-3 in those games, losing the AFC Championship to the Steelers in both 1978 and '79. He originally was signed by Phillips as a non-drafted free agent.

Thompson's Oilers teammates included Pro Football Hall of Famers Earl Campbell, Mike Munchak, Elvin Bethea, Warren Moon and Bruce Matthews, current Packer Clay's uncle. Thompson also served as a reserve kicker and converted all four PATs he attempted in an emergency situation vs. the New York Jets in a 1981 contest.

Collegiately, Thompson was a three-year starter (1972-74) at linebacker and team captain ('74) for SMU. As a sophomore, he played under head coach Hayden Fry, and Phillips, his eventual pro coach, was defensive coordinator. He also served as the team's placekicker as a senior. Following his football career, in the spring of '75, he lettered as an outfielder for the Mustangs' baseball team. Thompson gained Academic All-Southwest Conference honors and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

Born Jan. 17, 1953, in Atlanta, Texas, Thompson was an all-region player at the city's high school, lining up at running back, linebacker and placekicker. He also lettered in basketball, baseball, track and golf. He is single and enjoys an occasional round of golf in times of leisure.

Russ Ball, entering his 23rd season in the NFL, begins his fourth season in Green Bay as the organization's vice president of football administration/player finance.

Named to the position Feb. 13, 2008, Ball brings a vast array of experience to the Packers' front office and is highly involved in all team decisions both on and off the playing field. He is responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap, in addition to the daily supervision of football-administration departments including athletic training, equipment, video, corporate travel, player development and family programs.

"The first thing that needs to be said is that Russ Ball is a good man," said Ted Thompson, Packers Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations. "He is a tremendous help to all of us here with the Packers, and his influence is felt throughout the organization. He does a lot of valuable work that often goes unnoticed by many. Russ is also a steady hand and a valued friend that we all come to for advice. He represents the Packers proudly, and we are fortunate to have him with us."

Before coming to Green Bay, Ball spent six seasons (2002-07) with the New Orleans Saints, the final two as vice president of football administration and the first four as senior football administrator. His responsibilities with the Saints included monitoring the salary cap, contract negotiations and roster management, as well as maintaining the team's compliance with NFL and Management Council regulations. Ball also coordinated different areas of the football operations, and was involved in several other administrative functions with the club. During his time in New Orleans, he also served in a similar capacity with the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League from 2004-07. Ball was selected by the Saints to attend the 2005 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

Ball, 52, spent the 2001 season as director of football administration for the Washington Redskins, where his duties included managing the salary cap as well as team operations, as he oversaw the video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

- Entering his 23rd season in the NFL, having previously worked for the New Orleans Saints, Washington Redskins, Minnesota Vikings and Kansas City Chiefs.
- Was selected by the Saints to attend the 2005 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.
- Began his NFL career with the Chiefs in 1989 as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Ball served as senior football administrator for the Minnesota Vikings from 1999-2000, where he assisted with salary-cap management and player contracts. He began working in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and spent 10 seasons (1989-98) there, the final two in football operations as administrative assistant to then-head coach Marty Schottenheimer. Ball began his career with the Chiefs as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

A 1981 graduate of the University of Central Missouri, Ball was a four-year letterman at center for the Mules. He served as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Missouri from 1982-89 and earned his master's degree in human performance from Missouri in 1990.

Ball was born Aug. 28, 1959, in Moberly, Mo. He and his wife, Diana, reside in Green Bay and have two children, Joe, 25, and Andrea, 13. Away from work, Ball enjoys spending time with his family.

SHOVELING SNOW AT LAMBEAU

In a gesture symbolic of a community-owned team, the Packers for more than 40 years have asked citizens to shovel snow off the Lambeau Field bleachers.

Today, if the team needs help, it will issue a press release alerting the locals, reminding fans not to forget to bring their own shovels.

During the 2010 season, the Packers activated the plan to clear off the seats on two different days prior to the team's Dec. 26 home game against the New York Giants. Additionally, the organization summoned the shovelers' assistance on both Feb. 7 and 8 to help prepare the stadium bowl for the team's "Return To Tittletown" celebration following its victory in Super Bowl XLV.

Citizens at least 15 years old who arrive early enough often shovel for several hours. Each participant receives $8/hour at the end of the day.

PAUL BANIEL

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE

Paul Baniel is in his third year as the Packers' vice president of finance.

Named to his position July 30, 2009, Baniel's main responsibilities involve leading the daily operation of the club's finance, facility, information technology and ticket departments. He also works on NFL economic issues and strategic initiatives of the organization. A certified public accountant, Baniel oversees the audit process and works closely with the organization's treasurer, the Board of Directors' audit and investment committees, and the stadium district.

"Paul has been a great addition to the Packers and is a valuable member of our senior staff," said Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy. "His experience in professional sports has been an important asset to the organization as both the team and the league work through some challenging economic times. We count on his continued strong leadership for the Packers and the impact he has on team and league financial matters."

Baniel (pronounced BAN-yel) moved to Green Bay from Milwaukee, where he had spent more than six years (2003-09) as the chief financial officer of Potawatomi Bingo Casino. At Potawatomi, he played a significant role in the planning and construction of a $240 million expansion of the facility, which opened in 2008.

Prior to that, Baniel worked 16 years for the Milwaukee Brewers from 1986 through 2002. He served as the team's vice president of finance as well as treasurer and secretary for the final seven years of his tenure (1995-2002), coordinating the financing for the construction of Miller Park.

Baniel, 49, also worked for three years (1983-86) as an auditor for the Milwaukee office of Price Waterhouse, a national public accounting firm, before joining the Brewers.

TIM CONNOLLY

VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND MARKETING

Tim Connolly, possessor of significant experience in sales and marketing, including a combined 17 years with three NFL teams, is in his second year as the Packers' vice president of sales and marketing.

Connolly, who joined the team May 10, 2010, provides strategic leadership for the organization's overall marketing efforts and spearheads the Packers' revenue-generating operations that include marketing and sponsorships, retail operations, restaurants, concessions, and premium sales and guest services.

"Tim has been a great addition to the Packers," said Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy. "He has brought a wealth of knowledge of the NFL with his vast experience and understanding of the league's marketing operations, and is highly respected within the league. His understanding of the rich history of the organization and what the Packers' unique brand represents to our fans and to our partners is a great benefit in helping us enhance our fans' experiences with the team."

Among Connolly's first initiatives with the club has been the development of the Packers Media Group, the new team dedicated to providing Packers.com with innovative and enhanced content. The effort, which will continue to evolve, has resulted in a highly engaged experience for fans and has increased visits and time spent on the team's website.

Connolly joined the Packers from the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he spent seven years (2003-10), serving the final six years as senior vice president for business development, a position that saw him direct the club's marketing operations, including ticket sales, customer service and special events, in addition to developing and sustaining new branding and business opportunities. He initially joined the club as vice president of development in 2003 and was responsible for the Jaguars' Super Bowl XXXIX project, an effort to help fund the capital improvements to Jacksonville Municipal Stadium for the 2005 Super Bowl.

AT A GLANCE

- Joined Packers organization as vice president of sales and marketing May 10, 2010.
- Has a combined 17 years of NFL experience with three teams — Jacksonville (2003-10), Minnesota (1998-99) and Kansas City (1989-95).
- Sales and marketing background includes significant experience and positions with IBM and Bell Atlantic (now Verizon).
- Native of San Diego and a graduate of George Washington University.

Prior to his work in Jacksonville, Connolly's other NFL experience included two years with the Minnesota Vikings (1998-99, executive vice president and general manager) and seven years with the Kansas City Chiefs (1989-95, executive vice president and chief operating officer). With each team, Connolly's work greatly enhanced stadium revenues and delivered significant gains in the number of season-ticket holders.

Connolly began his business career with the IBM Corporation and frequently was recognized as a top sales performer and manager. In January 1986 he was named president and CEO of Bell Atlantic's Cellular Phone Company, and in 1987, Bell Atlantic (now Verizon) became the first major cellular company in the world to achieve profitability.

The George Washington University graduate has been very active in the community through work on several boards, including the Ronald McDonald House (Jacksonville and Washington, D.C.) and the Governor's Small Business Advisory Board (New Jersey).

Connolly, a San Diego native, has three grown children. He and his wife, Nyunok, live in Green Bay.

THE GREEN BAY PACKERS BRAND

Created in 2007, the Turnkey Team Brand Index serves as the first-ever brand report card of all professional sports teams throughout the four major sports.

It aims to better understand team brands, including their strengths and weaknesses as well as the attributes most closely associated with the team. Results are based upon fan polls in a team's home market.

After finishing 10th in 2007, the Green Bay Packers took the top overall spot in the 2008 standings, finishing ahead of the Boston Red Sox (second) and Pittsburgh Steelers (third). The Packers finished second in the out-of-market rankings behind the New York Yankees, indicating the strength of the Packers brand across the country.

Betsy Mitchell, a 19-year member of the Green Bay Packers, is in her fourth year as the organization's vice president of organizational/staff development.

Named to the then-newly created position by Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy on July 23, 2008, Mitchell is responsible for all employee relations, professional development, strategic planning and deployment, leadership and management development, as well as the human resources department. The bulk of her previous experience with the Packers was as the staff/player development consultant.

"Betsy has served the Packers very well through the years and I have been impressed with her work since I joined the organization," Murphy said. "She continues to be a great resource and leader for everyone in the organization. I look forward to her ongoing contributions."

Mitchell has a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and is a state-licensed mental health professional with more than 25 years of experience in private practice.

In her first role with the team as the staff/player development consultant, which began in 1993, Mitchell utilized her counseling and leadership-development skills to better the organization by providing players, coaches, other Packers staff and their families with consultation services on issues of performance, life circumstances and leadership. She worked to develop optimal relationships between members of the team and the organization.

Through her career with the Packers and prior experience in private practice, she has had the opportunity to present for and consult with the NFL on all areas of player development, conduct policies and leadership initiatives. In addition to her work with the NFL, Mitchell's seminar and presentation experience includes the American Medical Association, American Psychological Association, Wisconsin Bureau of Training and Standards, American Nurses Association, Wisconsin Nurses Association and Wisconsin County Police Association.

She previously owned Mitchell Management Consulting, which specialized in performance and organizational development, program design and performance enhancement for small businesses. She also designed and developed behavioral medicine programs and previously owned and managed a private behavioral care practice.

BETSY MITCHELL

VICE PRESIDENT OF ORGANIZATIONAL/STAFF DEVELOPMENT

AT A GLANCE

- Originally began serving the Packers in 1993 as staff/player development consultant.
- Named vice president of organizational/staff development on July 23, 2008.
- Has a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and is a state-licensed mental health professional with more than 25 years of experience in private practice.
- Is an experienced regional and national presenter with over 500 seminars and presentations to groups including the NFL, American Medical Association, American Psychological Association, and many organizations and companies with a focus on leadership.
- A singer for most of her adult life, she's performed with many local choruses, including Dudley Bird's "Collegiate Chorale" and the WPS Community Chorus.

In the community, Mitchell is a member of the First United Methodist Church and is a board member for the Greater Green Bay Community Foundation, Cerebral Palsy Inc., New North, Green Bay Botanical Gardens, and Woodlawn Cemetery. In February 2010, she was recognized by Green Bay's Bay Business Journal as one of its "People You Should Know" for her significant impact in her field, as well as her exemplary representation of the greater Green Bay community. She also was a finalist for the American Foundation of Counseling Services' Ethics in Business Award for 2009, and received the Women in Management Professional Achievement Award in 2007.

Born Oct. 13, 1951, Mitchell grew up in Minocqua, Wis. She was married for 20 years to Pete Mitchell, a lieutenant with the Brown County Sheriff's Department, until his death in 2003 from colon cancer.

Mitchell has two children: a son, Aaron, 28, a graduate of UW-Madison law school who practices intellectual properties law in Chicago; and a daughter, Emily, 26, a graduate of UW-Madison who currently is in her third year at Marquette University Law School. In her spare time, Mitchell enjoys traveling, hiking, fishing, reading ("everything and anything"), word games, music (mostly vocal) and spending time with family and friends.

PACKERS SPRING MINI-CAMP HISTORY

Dan Devine coached collegiately for 16 years before Green Bay hired him in 1971. Shortly after his arrival, he implemented a college tradition: spring practice. That April, Devine took his new players to the University of Texas at Arlington and the Packers' first mini-camp, where he got his first look at No. 1 draft choice John Brockington. In 1977, the Packers' revolutionary indoor facility allowed spring practice in Green Bay. However, the team migrated to Arizona in '94, so the Don Hutson Center could be finished.

Jason Wied, the Packers' corporate counsel since 2001, in 2011 begins his fifth year as the organization's vice president of administration/general counsel.

Wied's responsibilities include representing the Packers at NFL meetings, as well as the day-to-day management of the team's administrative operations, community outreach, public relations and security. He also is responsible for Packers Board of Directors and Executive Committee affairs, as well as public affairs and shareholder relations. He oversees the organization's long-term development plans, and works with local officials regarding development concepts for the area around the stadium, with an eye toward increasing visitation for tourism and business that will benefit the entire area. Additionally, he negotiates all contracts with the personnel and coaching staffs, and continues to oversee the team's legal department.

"Jason is a very valuable member of our organization and has contributed greatly to its success," said Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy. "His knowledge and insight of the Packers, and the NFL, has been extremely beneficial to the organization. Jason continues to provide valuable leadership on many key issues for the Packers, particularly with our long-term development plans."

Wied (pronounced WEED) joined the Packers Sept. 18, 2000, as staff counsel after practicing civil litigation and business law for two years (1998-2000) at the law firm of Liebmann, Conway, Olejniczak & Jerry, S.C., in Green Bay. He was promoted to corporate counsel a year later.

A Green Bay native, Wied, 39, graduated from Green Bay Premontre High School (1990), where he played football and hockey. He then graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison (1995, B.A. psychology) and from Marquette University Law School (1998).

His early work with the team included coordination of the construction and lease negotiations involving the redevelopment of Lambeau Field as well as the team's public affairs effort with state and local officials and labor unions. In addition to managing the team's corporate legal matters, he also guided strategic media and sponsorship agreements associated with the redeveloped stadium.

- A Green Bay native, graduated from Green Bay Premontre High School (1990), where he played football and hockey.

Continuing his professional development, Wied has participated in the NFL's business development program at Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Wied continues to be involved in Wisconsin's legal community as a licensed member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. He previously served on the state of Wisconsin's Sports Agent Advisory Committee.

Active in the community, Wied is a member of the boards of directors of the Business Bank and the Heritage Hill Foundation, and also is a member of the executive committee of the Green Bay Chamber of Commerce. He serves as a consultant to the Packers Mentor-Protégé Program and formerly was a member of the Green Bay Gamblers (USHL) advisory board and boards of directors of the Boys and Girls Club and the Green Bay Marathon.

Born Dec. 24, 1971, Wied and his wife, Melissa, live in Green Bay with their three children: two sons, Jack, 14, and Henry, 10, and a daughter, Rae, 8. Away from work, he coaches youth hockey and baseball, and also enjoys reading and playing golf, hockey and racquetball, as well as spending time with his family.

NAMES ON THE FACADE

The names gracing the east and west facades, one of the more awe-inspiring features of Lambeau Field's bowl, are often misidentified as the Green Bay "Ring of Fame" or "Ring of Honor."

It's an honest mistake. Most franchises induct former players, coaches and contributors into an exclusive club, usually called a Ring of Honor and containing on average 15-20 individuals. In Green Bay, though, the equivalent to that group is the Packers Hall of Fame, which this summer inducted three more members (Mark Chmura, Marv Fleming and Greg Koch).

And unlike most other stadiums that display names on their facade, most of the Packers' individuals (13) actually played/coached on the field in front of them.

The bowl also lists the years of the Packers' NFL-record 13 world championships and, since 2003, the team's five retired numbers. Plus, in 2006, the Packers honored the architect of the Super Bowl XXXI champions, former Executive Vice President & General Manager Ron Wolf, adding the retired executive's name to the northeast corner.

JOHN DORSEY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

John Dorsey, now in his 21st year in NFL player personnel, this season enjoys his 12th year as the Packers' director of college scouting — his third tenure in Green Bay.

An effective player for the Packers during the 1980s, Dorsey oversees the college side of Green Bay's scouting operations, and also is actively involved in the area of pro personnel.

Brought back to the team as director of college scouting on May 8, 2000, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf, Dorsey earlier had been a key component in Green Bay's personnel operations for nine highly successful years. First hired as a college scout in May 1991 with a focus on linebackers, he was retained by Wolf the following year and, ultimately, was promoted to head up the Packers' college scouting department on Feb. 27, 1997, succeeding John Math, who retired.

Hired as director of player personnel for the Seattle Seahawks on Jan. 26, 1999, as he followed former Packers coach Mike Holmgren to the West Coast, Dorsey resigned that position just over a year later, leaving shortly after the 2000 NFL Draft.

The 51-year-old Dorsey earlier had scouted the Midlands and Southwest territories for Green Bay before focusing on the all-important Southeast region in the final years of his second Packers tenure.

Selected by Green Bay in the fourth round of the 1984 draft, beginning his initial Packers employment, Dorsey played five seasons for the team (1984-88) at linebacker and on special teams before spending a final year on injured reserve in 1989. He totaled 130 tackles as a pro, in addition to two fumble recoveries and one pass defended. Dorsey led Green Bay's special teams in solo tackles in three of his first four seasons, a level of play which helped earn him selection as the Packers' special teams captain. His 35 special teams tackles in 1984 are still a club record. Possessor of a streak of 76 consecutive non-strike games played, Dorsey saw that string end when he suffered a freak knee injury in pregame warmups of the team's '89 season opener.

A four-year starter at the University of Connecticut (1980-83), Dorsey was named Defensive Player of the Year in the

He also earned Division I-AA All-America recognition as a senior and, in 1998, he was selected to the school's 100th Anniversary All-Time Football Team. In 2002, Dorsey was inducted into the Anne Arundel (Md.) County Sports Hall of Fame. He graduated with bachelor's degrees in economics and political science.

Heavily involved in the community throughout his playing career, especially with the Wisconsin Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Dorsey currently serves on the board of "65 Roses." He was voted as the Packers' Man of the Year in 1987 for his civic contributions. At the professional level, Dorsey is on the board of directors for National Football Scouting and is a former member of the NFL College Advisory Committee. He is also a member of the NFL Scouting Combine selection committee, and is a voting member of the collegiate Butkus Award (given to the nation's top linebacker). Dorsey is one of two NFL voting members of the Harris Interactive College Football Poll.

Dorsey was born Aug. 30, 1960, in Leonardtown, Md. He and his wife, Patricia A. Sexton-Dorsey, reside in De Pere, Wis. He also is the father of three sons, Bryant, 24, Austin, 20, and infant, Jack, and a daughter, Catherine, 2.

In his spare time, Dorsey enjoys playing golf, reading and running — having completed two marathons.

NFL'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

The National Football League included six players who played for Green Bay on its 75th Anniversary Team, announced in 1994: offensive tackle Forrest Gregg, linebacker Ray Nitschke, linebacker Ted Hendricks, end Don Hutson, placekicker Jan Stenerud and defensive end Reggie White. In 1994, the league also named three Packers players — Hutson, back Clarke Hinkle and tackle Cal Hubbard — to its all-time Two-Way Team.

Reggie McKenzie enters his 25th year in the NFL and his 18th season as a member of the Packers' personnel department. Since he joined the team's front office in 1994, Green Bay's 170 regular-season wins over that period rank tied for third most with Indianapolis, trailing only Pittsburgh (172) and New England (180). Also in McKenzie's tenure, the Packers have captured seven division titles, three conference championships and Super Bowls XXXI and XLV.

A former player, coach and now personnel executive, McKenzie oversees Green Bay's scouting efforts of all professional football leagues, including the NFL, CFL and Arena Football League, as well as all other pro leagues and international players. He also plays an integral role in judging the Packers' current players and evaluating potential free agents across the league. McKenzie is heavily involved in all of the team's moves on a daily basis, including all tryouts and transactions.

During the season, McKenzie provides advance scouting reports on upcoming opponents, working closely with Head Coach Mike McCarthy and his staff. He also contributes to the scouting of college prospects, making school visits in both the fall and spring, and works in conjunction with General Manager Ted Thompson in preparation for the annual draft.

He was promoted to director – football operations in 2008 after serving 10 years as the Packers' director of pro personnel. A former NFL linebacker for seven seasons (1985-90, 1992), the 48-year-old McKenzie had been promoted to director of pro personnel by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf in May 1997 after originally joining the Packers as a pro personnel assistant in 1994.

Chosen by Wolf as a 10th-round selection out of the University of Tennessee in 1985 by the then-Los Angeles Raiders, McKenzie became an immediate starter on defense and went on to win all-rookie honors. After four years (1985-88) with the Raiders, McKenzie spent two injury-plagued seasons (1989-90) with the then-Phoenix Cardinals and one year (1992) with the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to signing with the 49ers, he played with the World League's Montreal Machine in the spring of 1992. While out

GREEN BAY PACKERS, INC.

Now in their 93rd season of professional football (their 91st in the National Football League), the Green Bay Packers are a team and an organization unique in both structure and accomplishment. They represent – from an organizational standpoint – the only publicly owned franchise in the 32-team NFL. On the field, they have won more world championships – 13 – than any other team in the league's history.

Green Bay Packers, Inc., was founded as a nonprofit corporation in 1922 under the leadership of A.B. Turnbull, then publisher of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who became the organization's first president. There are 4,750,940 shares of stock owned by 112,205 stockholders. The corporation is governed by a seven-member Executive Committee, elected from a board of directors. The committee directs corporate management, approves major capital expenditures, establishes broad policy and monitors management's performance in conducting the business and affairs of the corporation.

MIKE MCCARTHY

HEAD COACH

19th NFL Season • Seventh Packers Season • Sixth as Head Coach

When Mike McCarthy was named Head Coach of the Green Bay Packers in January 2006, he said the goal for the franchise would be to win a Super Bowl, and that would never change. In 2010, McCarthy led the Packers back to the pinnacle of the sport.

Having guided Green Bay to the playoffs in three of his five seasons at the helm, McCarthy joined Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren as the only coaches in team history to lead the Packers to a Super Bowl title with a 31-25 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

The path to that world championship was not an easy one as McCarthy joined Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (2005) as the only Super Bowl-winning coaches to lead their respective teams to three road victories as the No. 6 seed in the playoffs en route to a title.

Since taking over as head coach in '06, McCarthy has a 53-34 overall record (.609), including a 5-2 mark (.714) in the postseason. That playoff winning percentage is tied for first among active NFL coaches, matching the mark of New England's Bill Belichick (15-6) and Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin (5-2). McCarthy is the only coach in the NFL to lead his team to two conference championship games in the past four seasons.

Including playoffs, Green Bay has posted a 25-12 record (.676) over the past two seasons under McCarthy. Those 25 victories rank No. 3 in the NFL since '09 behind only New Orleans (27) and Indianapolis (26), and that is the most by the Packers over a two-year span since they posted the same number from 2001-02.

McCarthy guided the Packers to a 10-6 campaign in 2010, highlighted by seven wins in the final 10 games. What made the Packers' championship season even more impressive was the adversity the team faced due to injuries. Green Bay finished the year with 15 players on injured reserve, and eight of them had started at least one game during the season. Six starters from the opening-day depth chart sustained season-ending injuries in the first seven games.

The Packers became just the third 10-6 team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl, and their six losses on the season came by a combined 20 points. Green Bay never lost a game by more than four points, but even more impressive, it never trailed by more than seven points at any point in a game all season. The Packers became the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to never trail by more than seven points at any point during the regular season, and became the first championship-winning franchise to do so since the 1942 Washington Redskins.

It was a shining example of the steady, consistent approach that McCarthy has taken in leading the Packers throughout his tenure, one that culminated with the organization's fourth Super Bowl title and 13th world championship last season.

PROLIFIC OFFENSES

Prior to coming to Green Bay in 2006, McCarthy was known in NFL circles for his innovative offensive mind and his ability to develop young quarterbacks.

Five seasons into his tenure with the Packers, that reputation has become firmly entrenched, if not enhanced, by the Packers' offensive prowess before and during the transition to Aaron Rodgers as the team's starting quarterback.

McCarthy's five Packers teams all have ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total yardage – checking in at ninth in 2006, second in '07, eighth in '08, sixth in '09 and ninth in '10 – one of only two teams (New Orleans) to finish in the top 10 each of the last five years. In his first two seasons, McCarthy simultaneously oversaw a mini-renaissance of future Hall of Fame quarterback Brett Favre's career

AT A GLANCE

- Named the Packers' 14th head coach on Jan. 12, 2006.
- Joined Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (2005) as the only Super Bowl-winning coaches to lead their respective teams to three road victories as the No. 6 seed in the playoffs en route to a world title.
- His .714 career winning percentage in the postseason (5-2) is tied for first among active NFL coaches with New England's Bill Belichick (15-6) and Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin (5-2).
- Has led the Packers to a top-10 ranking in total offense each of his five seasons, joining New Orleans as the only teams to accomplish that from 2006-10.
- Has guided the Packers to top-10 finishes in scoring each of the past four seasons (2007-10), highlighted by a franchise-record 461 points in 2009. The team's 1,703 points from 2007-10 were the most in franchise history over a four-year span.
- Became the first Packers coach since Vince Lombardi to lead the team to a championship game in his second season (2007), and tied Mike Sherman for the most regular-season wins by a Packers coach in his first two years (21).
- Has worked with a stable of quarterbacks that has combined for 36 Pro Bowl selections, 10 Super Bowl starts, and six Most Valuable Player awards.
- Prior to Green Bay, had never been a head coach at any level, breaking into the NFL as a quality-control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1993, his first of 13 years as an NFL assistant, which included six seasons as an offensive coordinator calling plays in New Orleans (2000-04) and San Francisco (2005).
- Was inducted into the Baker University (Kan.) athletic hall of fame in October 2007.
- Born and raised in Pittsburgh, one of five children. His father, Joe, was a longtime firefighter and police officer.

and the development of Rodgers as his backup, and since then, the reins have been turned over to Rodgers.

The former Cal standout hasn't disappointed his primary tutor or his team, posting 12,394 passing yards since taking over as the starter in '08. That total ranks No. 2 in NFL history behind only Kurt Warner (12,612, 1999-2001) for the most passing yards by a QB in his first three seasons as a starter. Rodgers' career passer rating of 98.4 ranks No. 1 in NFL history, and he became the first QB in franchise annals to post a 100-plus passer rating in back-to-back seasons (2009-10). Rodgers set an NFL record with 10 passing TDs in his first three postseason starts, and he became only the fourth signal-caller to throw for 300 yards and three TDs in a Super Bowl on his way to earning game MVP honors for Super Bowl XLV.

In 2008-09, Rodgers became the first quarterback in league history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter. The Packers were also the first team in NFL history to produce a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver), and a 1,200-yard rusher (Ryan Grant) in two consecutive years (2008-09).

franchise-record 461 points in 2009. The team's 1,703 points over the past four seasons were the most in franchise history over a four-year span, while their 83 turnovers were the fewest over a four-year period. In '09, Green Bay set a franchise record for fewest giveaways in a season with 16.

In the team's 2010 Divisional playoff win at Atlanta, the Packers set a franchise playoff scoring record with 48 points, which combined with Green Bay's 45 points at Arizona in a 2009 Wild Card playoff loss, made them the first team in NFL history to register 45-point games in back-to-back postseasons. The performance against the Falcons was the Packers' third 45-point game on the season (45 vs. Dallas, Week 9; 45 vs. N.Y. Giants, Week 16), the first time a Green Bay team had accomplished that feat since the 1962 NFL Championship team.

All three of the Packers' top single-game postseason point totals have come during McCarthy's tenure, with a 42-20 win over Seattle in a 2007 Divisional contest checking in third in the franchise record books behind the Atlanta and Arizona games. Green Bay is 28-2 in McCarthy's five seasons (31-3 including playoffs) when scoring at least 30 points.

MAJOR CHANGE

In 2009, McCarthy embarked upon the first major alterations to his coaching staff since his arrival, hiring Dom Capers to be his new defensive coordinator and change the unit from a 4-3 base alignment to the 3-4 scheme that has been the staple of Capers' career.

The results have been incredibly impactful. With a No. 2 ranking in 2009 and a No. 5 ranking in '10, the Packers finished in the top five in the league in overall defense in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1968-69. Since '09, Green Bay ranks first in the NFL in opponent passer rating (68.0), first in interceptions (54) and tied for second in sacks (84).

In 2010, the Packers ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game, the team's best mark since leading the league in the category in 1996 (13.1). Green Bay tied for No. 2 in the league with 47 sacks in '10, its highest ranking since sacks began to be recorded as a team statistic in 1963.

The defense improved from 20th in total yards allowed in '08 to second in '09, and from 26th in run defense to the top spot, becoming the first Green Bay defense to lead the league against the run and setting a franchise record by allowing just 83.3 yards rushing per contest. The defense also led the league in interceptions (30) and total takeaways (40) in '09. Green Bay has finished in the top five in points off of takeaways each of the past three seasons, the only team in the league to do so.

The '09 season was not a smooth road back to playoff contention, however. Back-to-back losses in early November to division rival Minnesota and previously winless Tampa Bay dropped the Packers to 4-4, and a promising season suddenly appeared in doubt.

But McCarthy kept building on the identity that was forming – a team that could attack with multiple threats offensively, stop the run defensively and win the turnover battle – and led the Packers out of the adverse stretch to three straight victories in 12 days, culminating on Thanksgiving at Detroit. The winning streak was stretched to five games and included home triumphs over eventual playoff teams Dallas and Baltimore.

The team also overcame considerable adversity, in the form of season-ending injuries to defensive starters Al Harris and Aaron Kampman, to ultimately go 7-1 over the second half of the schedule. Meanwhile, Rodgers earned his first Pro Bowl berth, nearly

TOP 10 AGAIN

For the fifth consecutive season under Mike McCarthy, the offensive play-caller, the Green Bay offense ranked in the NFL's top 10. New Orleans, which enlists head coach Sean Payton as its offensive play-caller, is the only other club to finish in the top 10 in overall offense each of the last five seasons.

In 2010...

Despite the loss of critical playmakers to various injuries, the offense still managed a top-10 finish, averaging just over 358 yards per game during the regular season.

- Green Bay was one of four teams in the NFL to have both the offense (No. 9) and defense (No. 5) rank among the league's top 10. It was the first time the Packers accomplished the feat in back-to-back seasons since 1997-98.
- QB Aaron Rodgers narrowly missed his third consecutive season of surpassing the 4,000-yard passing plateau, falling just 78 yards short (3,922) after missing 1½ late-season games due to injury. Rodgers still finished the season ranked in the top 10 in nearly every major passing category.
- The offense featured a particularly balanced passing attack throughout the season that included three WRs (Greg Jennings - 76, Donald Driver - 51, James Jones - 50) posting 50-plus catches for the first time in franchise history.
- The unit maintained its prolific pace throughout the team's extended postseason run, averaging 30.3 points per game and scoring 121 points in the four playoff contests, the third-highest total for a single postseason in NFL history.

In 2009...

Averaging over 379 yards per game, the highest total in McCarthy's four seasons, the Packers' offense finished the year No. 6 in the NFL.

- Green Bay scored 461 points, marking a new franchise record.
- For the third time in franchise history, the club surpassed 6,000 total net yards, finishing No. 3 in team annals with 6,065.
- Green Bay became the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons.
- The Packers established another franchise record with just 16 giveaways, fewest in the NFL.
- Rodgers threw for 4,434 yards, finishing just shy of Lynn Dickey's team record (4,458, 1983). RB Ryan Grant also had a career-high 1,253 yards, sixth most in team history.

In 2008...

The Packers finished the season ranked No. 8 in the NFL in total offense, averaging over 351 yards per contest.

- Green Bay's 419 points was the fifth-highest total in the league.
- For the first time in franchise history, the club had a 4,000-yard passer (Rodgers), 1,200-yard rusher (Grant), and two 1,000-yard receivers (Driver and Jennings).
- Some players etched their names among the greats in Packers history, establishing some of the top single-season marks in passing yards (Rodgers, 4,038, ninth), rushing yards (Grant, 1,203, eighth) and receiving yards (Jennings, 1,292, 10th) in team history.
- The Packers had just 21 giveaways, tying the '95 team for the third fewest in club history.

The Packers had their highest finish since 1983, ranking as the No. 2 offense in the NFL. The unit produced over 370 yards per game.

- Green Bay scored 435 points, fourth on the Packers' all-time single-season list. The total ranked fourth in the NFL.
- The Packers produced 5,931 total net yards (1,597 rushing, 4,334 passing), which also ranked fourth in club history.
- McCarthy designed an offense to highlight his receivers' ability after the catch. The league's No. 2 passing offense amassed 2,294 yards after the catch, tops in the league. The NFL average in 2007 was 1,596 yards.
- The Packers finished with 67 plays of 20 yards or more, second only to Dallas (68). Fifteen of those big plays came on the ground, and 52 were through the air.

Green Bay finished No. 9 in total offense, averaging over 341 yards per contest.

- The Packers were 4-0 when reaching 30 points. They were 9-0 when reaching 30 points in '07, 4-1 in '08, 6-1 in '09 and 5-0 in '10, making the club 28-2 in regular-season games under McCarthy when reaching the 30-point mark.
- In its first year in McCarthy's West Coast offense, Green Bay began to show some of its big-strike capability. Its skill players produced 2,161 yards after the catch, second most in the NFL.
- The Packers had just 77 negative plays all season, the third fewest in the NFL and the least under McCarthy.

breaking the franchise's single-season record for passing yards, and veteran cornerback Charles Woodson was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Unfortunately, the late-season surge ended abruptly with a sudden-death overtime loss at Arizona in the NFC Wild Card contest, but McCarthy had gotten the Packers back on track toward the goal they would reach just a year later.

ON THE BRINK

McCarthy brought the Packers to the brink of accomplishing that Super Bowl goal in just two years. Coming off an 8-8 rookie season that ended with a momentum-building, four-game winning streak, McCarthy led the Packers to a 13-3 mark in 2007 that was groundbreaking in many respects.

The Packers tied the franchise record for victories in the regular season and won the club's first NFC North Division title since 2004. They also captured an NFC playoff bye and advanced to the conference championship game for the first time in a decade. It all earned McCarthy 2007 NFL Coach of the Year awards from Motorola and NFL Alumni, and he also was runner-up in The Associated Press Coach of the Year voting.

The championship he had set as the goal was within reach, as the Packers hosted the New York Giants in the NFC title game on a frigid January day at Lambeau Field. The hard-fought, 23-20 overtime defeat was an opportunity missed, but one McCarthy vowed his team would learn from.

On its way to 13-3, Green Bay secured the team's first playoff bye since 1997, and McCarthy tied Mike Sherman for the most wins by a Green Bay coach in his first two seasons with 21.

Behind Favre's superb final year in Green Bay and the emergence of Grant as the feature back, the Packers with McCarthy as the play-caller finished with the league's second-ranked offense, their highest ranking since 1983. They also compiled season totals in points (435) and net yards (5,931) that rank fourth on the franchise's all-time list.

The postseason began in startling fashion, with Grant fumbling twice in the first minute of the game, setting up two Seattle scores for a 14-0 Seahawks lead in the NFC Divisional playoff. Drawing on a steadfastness that served the team well during some rough spots the previous year, McCarthy and the Packers never panicked and rallied for a dominant 42-20 victory in the snowy "winter wonderland" of Lambeau.

In advancing to the NFC Championship Game, McCarthy became the first Packers coach since Lombardi to lead the team to a title game in his second season at the helm.

Though the quest for that championship came up short, McCarthy had returned the Packers to playoff prominence just two years after the 4-12 season that preceded his arrival.

A LEADER OF QUARTERBACKS

Green Bay's quarterbacks coach in 1999, McCarthy spent his first two years as head coach renewing his relationship with Favre, and the reunion helped rejuvenate the future Hall of Famer's play.

Charged with learning McCarthy's version of the West Coast offense and given more latitude in making decisions at the line of scrimmage, Favre concluded his brilliant Green Bay career with a 95.7 passer rating in 2007, his best in 11 years and fourth best in his career, while completing a (then) career-high 66.5 percent of his passes.

Buying into McCarthy's aggressive but controlled approach, Favre's interceptions dropped from 29 in 2005 to 18 in 2006 to 15 in 2007. He finished second in the voting for what then would have been an unprecedented fourth NFL MVP award, and he subsequently passed the torch to Rodgers, his understudy for his final three years in Green Bay and McCarthy's prime pupil for the last three.

Rodgers twice has topped 4,000 yards passing (2008-09), which in '08, combined with Favre's total in '07, marked the first time in league history a team had two different quarterbacks throw for 4,000 yards in consecutive years.

The three-year span from 2007-09 marked the first time ever the Packers had a 4,000-yard passer three straight seasons. McCarthy has been on the coaching staff for four of the nine 4,000-yard passing seasons (1999, 2007-2009) in franchise history.

SOLID FIRST YEAR

Blending a mix of young players with seasoned veterans at key positions, McCarthy fostered a strong team dynamic in his maiden season that helped the team battle back from a slow start.

McCarthy stuck to his plan and his vision as his team stood 1-4 at the bye week and 4-8 with one-quarter of the season to play. By turning the team's fortunes around to finish 8-8, he had laid the foundation for the success to come.

McCarthy got his team to bounce back from tough circumstances to remain in the NFC playoff hunt until the final week. The .500 record tied for third best among the seven rookie coaches in the NFL in 2006.

Close losses early to eventual NFC runner-up New Orleans and St. Louis put the Packers at 1-4. But the team used the bye week for extra preparation as well as rest, traveling to Miami to beat the Dolphins in oppressive south Florida heat and, three weeks later, posting another impressive road win at Minnesota's Metrodome to improve to 4-5.

Three straight losses to eventual playoff qualifiers dropped the Packers to 4-8, but again McCarthy used a long road trip to get the team back on track. This one was to San Francisco, where McCarthy had served as offensive coordinator the previous year, and a big win that coincided with a key personnel change provided the springboard to a strong final month.

McCarthy moved defensive tackle Cullen Jenkins to end early in the 49ers game, and the defense quickly improved. The Packers' run defense got a boost on early downs and allowed for a better situational pass rush, and the defense climbed to 12th overall by season's end.

The strong defensive play and Favre's veteran leadership fueled a season-ending, four-game winning streak, the final three wins coming over NFC North opponents. A 26-7 win at Chicago in the season finale over the eventual NFC champion Bears put the Packers at 5-1 in the division and barely out of the playoffs, losing a tiebreaker with the Giants, who also finished 8-8.

That impressive early showing within the division was a sign of things to come for McCarthy, who is now 21-9 (.700) in five seasons against NFC North foes, first in the conference over that span. Green Bay has posted a 4-2 record or better in the division each season under McCarthy, joining New England as the only teams in the NFL to accomplish that feat from 2006-10.

THE RIGHT FIT

With a personality to match his blue-collar hometown, McCarthy landed his first NFL head-coaching job in his kind of place.

A Pittsburgh native, McCarthy was named the 14th Head Coach of the Green Bay Packers on Jan. 12, 2006, the only step left to take after 13 years as an NFL assistant.

But while he previously had traveled through NFL cities such as Kansas City, New Orleans and San Francisco, it may be Green Bay that most resembles his native Pittsburgh. And if there was one word used to describe McCarthy's hiring in his first days with the Packers, it was that he was the right "fit," both for a town and a team looking to turn around a disappointing 4-12 season in 2005.

The way McCarthy fits Green Bay, however, goes beyond the toughness in his personality, down-to-earth demeanor, and pride in his upbringing.

He not only spent one of those 13 previous years in the NFL with Green Bay, but he took over the Packers already well-versed in the West Coast offense with a reputation for developing offensive talent, particularly at the quarterback position.

McCarthy is known for taking a hands-on teaching approach with young players and has been well-respected around the league, in part because he had called plays for six seasons as an offensive coordinator before becoming a head coach. Plus, he has tutored an impressive roster of NFL quarterbacks.

While two of the biggest names he has worked with, Favre in Green Bay and Joe Montana in Kansas City, were at or beyond their peak years at the time, McCarthy has played at least a part in the development of signal callers Aaron Brooks, Jake Delhomme, Matt Hasselbeck, Marc Bulger, Rich Gannon and Elvis Grbac.

The entire stable of quarterbacks that McCarthy has worked with, which also includes Jeff Blake, Steve Bono and Dave Krieg, has combined for 36 career Pro Bowl selections, 10 Super Bowl starts, and six Most Valuable Player awards.

McCarthy's newest protégé to rise to a starting role is Rodgers, who was drafted in the first round in 2005. General Manager Ted Thompson heavily weighed McCarthy's track record with quarterbacks when he hired him the following year, knowing that since the post-Favre era was inevitable, the right tutelage at the game's most important position would be key to a smooth and successful transition.

PAYING HIS DUES

Much like those players he worked with who rose to prominence, McCarthy paid plenty of dues along the way to his first head-coaching job.

He learned a disciplined and no-nonsense approach to life at an early age. His father, Joe, was a longtime firefighter and police officer who also owned a bar near a Pittsburgh steel mill. McCarthy worked odd jobs at the bar as a teen. It was interacting with the hard-working tavern clientele while also watching a father in uniform dedicated to public service that helped make McCarthy proud of where he came from.

After his playing career as a tight end at Baker University (Kan.) ended, his 23-year coaching career began as a linebackers coach at Fort Hays State (Kan.) in 1987. He cracked the Division I ranks two years later as a volunteer assistant at the University of Pittsburgh.

It was there he displayed the will and determination to make it in the coaching profession, working for free on the football field by day and collecting tolls along the Pennsylvania turnpike during the graveyard shift to make ends meet.

He soon moved into a paid position at Pitt assisting with the quarterbacks, and then coaching the wide receivers, before Panthers head coach Paul Hackett recommended him to the Kansas City Chiefs when they hired Hackett as offensive coordinator in 1993. McCarthy joined Hackett on the Chiefs' staff as a quality-control assistant.

McCarthy considers Hackett the biggest influence in his coaching career, having learned the West Coast offense from him and then installing it himself as offensive coordinator in New Orleans.

It was under Hackett's wing that McCarthy developed the attention to detail, scouting and game-planning skills that would help him move up the NFL ranks.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

The third-youngest head coach in the NFL when he was hired at age 42 (the Saints' Sean Payton was seven weeks younger and the Jets' Eric Mangini was 35), McCarthy took over a team coming off its first losing season since 1991, before Favre arrived as quarterback.

Thompson made it clear when he hired McCarthy he wasn't looking for just an X's and O's guy. He was looking for someone who would impress him with a variety of qualities, including leadership ability, toughness, football knowledge, and an awareness of the Green Bay organization and the team's unique place within the NFL and the local community.

McCarthy, who had interviewed for the Cleveland Browns' head-coaching job five years earlier but admits he wasn't necessarily ready then, fit the bill. In his introductory news conference, he spoke of how taking over the Packers was like buying his "dream house," with the foundation, tradition and resources to help him make the team a championship contender once again.

McCarthy emphasized he didn't feel the Packers were in a rebuilding mode at all, but there was work to be done right away.

He wasted no time constructing the environment he wanted for his team, implementing free weights as the foundation for the players' strength and conditioning.

He also installed an offseason workout program, and a then-record attendance at those sessions spoke volumes about the level of respect he quickly commanded as a head coach.

CAREER AS NFL ASSISTANT

McCarthy broke into the NFL as a quality-control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1993. It was then he worked with Montana before moving up to quarterbacks coach from 1995-98, working with starters Gannon, Grbac and Bono. The trio's total of 52 interceptions marked the lowest total in the AFC over that four-year span.

After working with McCarthy from 1995-98, Gannon went on to earn all four of his Pro Bowl selections, the 2002 league MVP award and a start in Super Bowl XXXVII with the Raiders. Gannon credits McCarthy with helping him take the quarterback's game to a higher level.

"He's the guy that really helped catapult my career," Gannon said. "He was the guy who really taught me the West Coast system of football. He really taught me how to prepare for a game, taught me how to watch film, how to break down an opponent, how to study. It was really those things I took with me to Oakland.

"There was never a doubt in my mind he'd be a head coach. He's a great play-caller, great working with the quarterbacks. He's a tough guy, a guy willing to do the work, and he's a leader."

When Gannon left the Chiefs for Oakland in 1999, McCarthy departed Kansas City to become Green Bay's quarterbacks coach. That year, the Packers ranked seventh in the NFL in passing and ninth in total offense. Favre threw for 4,091 yards, then the third-highest total in his career.

The following year, McCarthy began a successful five-year stint as the offensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints. It became the most prolific offensive era to that point in the team's four decades, as the Saints set 10 offensive team records and 25 individual marks.

Among the more notable accomplishments, the Saints led the NFC with 432 points and 49 touchdowns in 2002, both team records at the time. In his first season in 2000, McCarthy was chosen NFC Assistant Coach of the Year by USA Today.

That year the Saints produced their first 1,000-yard receiver in eight years in Joe Horn, and their first 1,000-yard rusher in 10 years in Ricky Williams. After that decade-long drought of 1,000-yard rushers, the Saints had one (either Williams or Deuce McCalister) in each of McCarthy's five seasons running the offense.

In 2005, McCarthy served as offensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers.

COLLEGE COACHING & PLAYING CAREER

McCarthy began his six-year collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fort Hays State in Hays, Kan., in 1987, just after completing his playing career at nearby Baker University in Baldwin City, Kan.

At Baker, McCarthy earned a degree in business administration and was an all-conference tight end and senior captain in 1986, helping lead the Wildcats to an NAIA Division II national runner-up finish. He was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in October 2007.

At Fort Hays under head coach John Vincent, McCarthy coached linebackers for two years while earning a master's degree in sports administration.

The return to his hometown came in 1989 under Pittsburgh head coach Mike Gottfried, now an ESPN college football analyst, followed by three years under Hackett with the Panthers.

As quarterbacks coach, McCarthy worked with Alex Van Pelt as he topped the school's career and single-season records for passing yards established by Dan Marino.

PERSONAL

Born Michael John McCarthy on Nov. 10, 1963, in Pittsburgh, he grew up one of five children in the Irish-Catholic family of father Joe and mother Ellen in Greenfield, a Pittsburgh neighborhood just a couple of miles from downtown. He graduated from Bishop Boyle High School in Homestead, Pa.

McCarthy's family includes wife Jessica and children Alexandra, Jack, George and Gabrielle.

In Green Bay, McCarthy has immersed himself in several community events, including the Mike McCarthy Celebrity Golf Open, a fundraiser for local and statewide cystic fibrosis organizations that has had a longstanding relationship with the Packers. In June 2010, he also started the Mike & Jessica McCarthy Golf Tournament to benefit American Family Children's Hospital in Madison, an event they hosted again this year. In 2011, the proceeds from the event supported the Greatest Need Fund and helped to assist the hospital in its mission to provide the best care for every child and family who enters its doors.

In addition, McCarthy has served as honorary chairperson for the local Cerebral Palsy Telethon and worked with the American Heart Association on its Red Cap campaign to recognize heart disease and stroke survivors and to raise awareness of those conditions.

On an annual basis, he visits cancer patients at Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center in Milwaukee, participates in the Lombardi Award of Excellence Dinner Ball, which supports the Vince Lombardi Charitable Funds in the fight against cancer, and serves as host of the Green & Gold Gala, a fundraiser for Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin.

In 2010, McCarthy partnered with the Packers to make donations of $100,000 each to the Seven Loaves Project of Green Bay, Baker University's football program, and a group of organizations (St. Rosalia Academy, the Greenfield Baseball Association and the Greenfield Organization) in his native Greenfield Neighborhood of Pittsburgh. McCarthy and the Packers teamed up to make $100,000 donations to Baker's football program and the same group of organizations in the Greenfield Neighborhood in 2008-09, along with $100,000 donations to the Autism Society of Northeast Wisconsin in '09 and the Boys & Girls Club of Green Bay in '08.

Among several other events, McCarthy has participated in Jerry Parins' Cure for Cancer Motorcycle Ride, the team's regular Make-A-Wish Foundation practice and game visits, and various local Get Motivated seminars.

McCarthy also was honored with the Distinguished Service Award at the Lee Remmel Sports Awards Banquet in April 2008, and then in the fall as the 2008 Person of the Year from his native Greenfield Neighborhood.

Entering his 24th season in the NFL and sixth with the Packers, Winston Moss begins his fourth year in the role of assistant head coach, with inside linebacker responsibilities for the third season.

Named to the current post by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Jan. 15, 2007, Moss impressed McCarthy with his leadership skills when the two worked together for five seasons in New Orleans and again in 2006 in Green Bay. Moss continues to coach linebackers as well, his original duty upon joining the Packers. His position responsibility was modified to inside linebackers in '09 with the switch to a 3-4 defense and the addition of outside linebackers coach Kevin Greene to the staff.

In 2010, Moss was a member of a staff that helped Green Bay finish No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game, the team's best mark since 1996 (13.1). The Packers finished No. 5 in overall defense, the team's second straight top-five ranking. It was the first time since 1968-69 that Green Bay accomplished that feat in consecutive seasons.

After veteran LB Nick Barnett was lost for the season in Week 4 due to a wrist injury, fourth-year LB Desmond Bishop stepped into the starting role at "Mack" LB for the remainder of the season and flourished under Moss' tutelage. Bishop finished second on the team with a career-high 121 tackles, while posting a career-best three sacks. His career-high 10 passes defended were the most by a Packers LB since John Anderson recorded 15 in 1981.

A.J. Hawk played in all 16 contests with 15 starts at the other inside-linebacker spot, the "Buck" position, and assumed more of an every-down role with nickel LB Brandon Chillar limited to just eight games due to a shoulder injury. Hawk paced the team with 134 tackles, his fifth straight season either leading the team or finishing second in the category. He added a career-high three interceptions, which tied for the lead among NFL linebackers, and matched his career best with nine passes defended to earn Pro Bowl recognition for the first time in his career.

In '09, Moss was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense. Green Bay led the NFL in rushing defense for the first time in franchise history, and the average of 83.3 rushing yards allowed per game set a team record for any season.

Barnett returned from a serious knee injury to start all 16 games at MLB and lead the team in tackles with 122 in '09, a franchise-record fifth time in his career that he led the squad in tackles. Barnett also registered a career-high four sacks and led the linebackers with eight passes defended.

Hawk started 14 games at BLB and finished second on the team to Barnett with 87 tackles. Hawk was one of only 10 linebackers in the league to record at least 85 tackles, two interceptions and a sack in '09, and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.

In 2008, with the addition of free-agent signee Chillar and the continued development of Bishop, Moss had a deep linebacking corps, and it was needed when Barnett was lost for the season to a torn ACL in Week 10. Hawk made a rather seamless transition to middle linebacker to fill Barnett's spot, while Bishop and Chillar both contributed at Hawk's former weak-side position.

- Helped guide Green Bay's defense to top-five overall finishes each of the past two seasons, the first time the Packers had accomplished that feat since 1968-69.
- A standout NFL linebacker for 11 seasons, played 155 games (146 starts) with three clubs: the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-90), Los Angeles Raiders (1991-94) and Seattle Seahawks (1995-97).
- Selected by Tampa Bay as the second of two second-round picks in the 1987 draft, shortly after the Buc took college teammate Vinny Testaverde No. 1 overall.
- Lettered four years at the University of Miami (Fla.).

The previous year, Moss helped Barnett continue his progression from steady performer to true team leader with a Pro Bowl-caliber year. Barnett was named second-team All-Pro after leading the Packers in tackles for the fourth time in five seasons and posting a (then) career-high 3½ sacks along with two interceptions and numerous big plays late in games.

Moss spent a total of six seasons with the Saints, where he also coached linebackers. Originally hired by the Saints in 2000 as defensive assistant/quality control, he was promoted to linebackers coach near the end of that season to replace John Bunting, who departed to become head coach at the University of North Carolina.

Moss began his coaching career in 1998 as a defensive quality-control assistant for the Seattle Seahawks, the club for whom he played his final NFL season.

A veteran of 11 seasons and 155 NFL games (146 starts), the former linebacker played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-90) and the Los Angeles Raiders (1991-94), in addition to the Seahawks (1995-97). Over the course of his career, Moss recorded 768 tackles, 20½ sacks and six interceptions, and recovered one fumble for a TD.

In 1993, when he led the Raiders in tackles on a team that advanced to the AFC Divisional playoffs, he earned the Ed Block Courage Award after a vote of his teammates. Moss also was a three-time defensive captain and received the 1996 NFL Players Association Unsung Hero Award while with the Seahawks.

A four-year letterman at the University of Miami (Fla.), he and current Packers scout Alonzo Highsmith helped the Hurricanes win the national championship after the 1983 season under Howard Schnellenberger.

Born Dec. 24, 1965, in Miami, Fla., Moss attended Miami (Fla.) Southridge High School and was an all-state linebacker.

Moss and his wife, Zoila, have three sons, Winston Jr., 17, Robert, 12, and Marcus, 9, and two daughters, Victoria, 16, and Isabella, 3. In his spare time, Moss enjoys spending time with his family and playing golf.

Entering his 26th season in the NFL, Dom Capers begins his third year with the Packers in 2011 as the club's defensive coordinator.

Named to his position on Jan. 19, 2009, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Capers is one of the most experienced coaches in the league, spending time with seven different franchises before coming to Green Bay.

In his two seasons here, he has turned the Packers into one of the league's most formidable defenses. From 2009-10, the Packers ranked first in the league in rushing TDs allowed (11), first in opponent passer rating (68.0), first in interceptions (54), second in points allowed (16.8) and tied for second in sacks (84).

In 2010, Capers coordinated a unit that finished No. 2 in the league in scoring defense, allowing just 15.0 points per game. That was the team's best ranking since finishing No. 1 in 1996 (13.1 ppg), and the 24 TDs allowed were the team's fewest since '96 as well (19).

The Packers also finished No. 5 in overall defense (309.1 yards per game), which, coupled with the team's No. 2 ranking in 2009, gave the Packers a top-five overall defense in consecutive years for the first time since 1968-69.

That No. 2 ranking in Capers' first season, when he guided the transition to the 3-4 scheme, highlighted one of the biggest statistical turnarounds in franchise history, as the Packers improved from the No. 20 spot in 2008. They also ranked No. 1 against the run in 2009 after a No. 26 ranking in that category before Capers' arrival. That top ranking in rushing defense was a first in franchise history, and the average of 83.3 rushing yards per game set a team record.

In '09, the Packers also led the NFL with 40 takeaways and 30 INTs, the first time Green Bay led the league in INTs since 1965.

Under Capers' tutelage, veteran CB Charles Woodson posted perhaps his finest all-around season in '09 as he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press and was selected to virtually every All-Pro team. It was the third time in Capers' career as a defensive coordinator that one of his players earned the top defensive honor from AP, as Woodson joined Miami DE Jason Taylor (2006) and Pittsburgh CB Rod Woodson (1993). Capers nearly had a fourth protégé win the award this past season, as LB Clay Matthews finished runner-up in the voting to Pittsburgh S Troy Polamalu.

Capers was honored with an award of his own in '09 as he was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News in a vote conducted by 53 current NFL head coaches and league executives.

Capers joined the Packers after one season with the New England Patriots as special assistant – secondary. Prior to that, he had defensive-coordinator responsibilities for two seasons with the Miami Dolphins, holding the titles of special assistant to the head coach (2006) and defensive coordinator (2007). After inheriting a defense that had allowed 317.0 total yards per game (No. 18) in 2005, Capers made an immediate impact as Miami finished fourth in overall defense (289.1 ypg) in '06.

Capers served as the head coach of the expansion Houston Texans for the first five seasons of the franchise's history. He was hired in January 2001, more than a year before Houston's inaugural season in 2002.

From 1999-2000, Capers was the defensive coordinator in Jacksonville, where under his guidance the Jaguars improved from 25th in the NFL in total defense in 1998 to fourth in 1999. Jacksonville also allowed the fewest points (217) in the NFL in '99, and Capers was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/PPWA and USA Today.

Capers served as a head coach for the first time in his career from 1995-98 with the expansion Carolina Panthers, guiding that team from its origin to the NFC title game in just two seasons. In 1996, Carolina won its last seven games en route to a 12-4 record and the NFC West title. The Panthers defeated the defending Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys in the divisional playoffs before falling to the Packers at Lambeau Field in the NFC Championship. Capers was honored with all of the major Coach of the Year awards in '96, including the AP's honor.

Prior to taking over in Carolina, Capers served as a defensive coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1992-94, the first time in his coaching career that he ran a defense. His unit ranked third in the NFL in total defense in '93, second in '94, and the Steelers won the AFC Central in '92 and '94.

Capers' first NFL coaching stop came with the New Orleans Saints, where he served as the defensive backs coach for six seasons (1986-91). He helped the Saints earn their first three playoff berths in franchise history, and he worked under head coach Jim Mora, whom he also assisted with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL from 1984-85 as the Stars won the league title both seasons.

Capers began his coaching career by spending 12 seasons at the collegiate level, beginning with a three-year stint as a graduate assistant at Kent State (1972-74). He went on to coach defensive backs at Hawaii (1975-76), San Jose State (1977), California (1978-79), Tennessee (1980-81) and Ohio State (1982-83).

Capers played safety and linebacker for Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, from 1968-71, and graduated with a degree in physical education and a minor in psychology. He also earned his master's degree in administration from Kent State.

Capers grew up in Buffalo, Ohio, where he was a star athlete at Meadowbrook High School. He still hosts an annual charity golf tournament in the area to raise money for the Southeastern Ohio Regional Medical Center's cardiac rehab unit, and for a college scholarship in the name of Dale Dickson, Capers' former high school football coach who died of a heart attack.

Born Aug. 7, 1950, in Cambridge, Ohio, Capers lives in Green Bay with his wife, Karen.

Mark Lovat is now in his 13th year with the Packers and his second as the club's strength and conditioning coordinator. Promoted to his current position on Feb. 15, 2010, Lovat swapped roles with Dave Redding, for whom Lovat served as an assistant in 2009.

Since joining the team full-time on Jan. 25, 1999, Lovat has worked under three Green Bay strength and conditioning coordinators – Barry Rubin (1999-2005), Rock Gullickson (2006-08) and Redding, who retired following the 2010 season. Lovat also previously served two summer internships in the club's weight room.

In 2010, Lovat was honored by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society with the Super Bowl Achievement Award.

An accomplished athlete himself, Lovat earned a Division I baseball scholarship to Butler University in Indianapolis, starting three seasons at shortstop and second base for the Bulldogs. He also received the Helen Tewksbury Award for academic and athletic leadership during the course of his playing career.

After graduating cum laude and with high honors from Butler in 1992 with a B.A. degree in Spanish and international studies, Lovat spent four years at Lake Havasu City (Ariz.) High School, teaching Spanish as well as coaching football and baseball.

The son of former Green Bay offensive line coach Tom Lovat (1980, 1992-98), Mark earlier had graduated from Carmel (Ind.) High School, where he was a member of a state championship football team (1986) and captain of the baseball team (1988). A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), Lovat became a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) in April 2000 and was nominated in 2004 by the association for the Sports Medicine/Rehabilitation Specialist of the Year Award for his work in the successful rehabilitation of injuries to Packers tackles Chad Clifton and Mark Tauscher.

JOE PHILBIN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Ninth NFL Season • Ninth Packers Season

In his ninth year, both with the Packers and in the NFL, Joe Philbin in 2011 begins his fifth season as Green Bay's offensive coordinator.

Named to his current position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Jan. 15, 2007, he continued a rapid ascent up the professional coaching ladder. Philbin originally joined the Packers on Feb. 10, 2003, as assistant offensive line coach, then spent 2004 and '05 as tight ends/assistant offensive line coach, and was promoted to offensive line coach on Jan. 17, 2006.

In his four seasons at the offensive helm, Philbin has directed both a productive and sound unit. The team's 1,703 points from 2007-10 were the most in franchise history over a four-year period, while the 83 turnovers were the fewest in a four-year span. The Packers' 83 giveaways since '07 rank No. 1 in the NFC and No. 2 in the NFL behind only New England.

League-wide, the offense has ranked in the top 10 in total yards and total points each year, one of only two teams in the league (New England) to accomplish that feat during that period. Green Bay's point total is fourth in the league over that span, trailing only New England (1,944), San Diego (1,746) and New Orleans (1,736).

In 2010, the Packers finished with the No. 5 passing offense at 257.8 yards per contest, following up an average of 261.3 yards per game in 2009. It was the first time in franchise history that the Packers averaged 250.0 net passing yards in back-to-back seasons. QB Aaron Rodgers finished in the top 10 in nearly every passing category, falling just 78 yards short of his third straight 4,000-yard season despite missing 1½ games due to a concussion. The Packers posted two 45-point games during the regular season, the first time Green Bay had done so since 1983.

Green Bay has reached the playoffs in three of Philbin's four seasons as offensive coordinator. In each of those appearances, the Packers set team postseason records for most points in a game, with 42 vs. Seattle in '07, 45 at Arizona in '09, and 48 at Atlanta in '10.

In 2008-'09, the Packers became the first team in league history to have a 4,000-yard passer (Rodgers), a 1,200-yard rusher (Ryan Grant) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver) in back-to-back seasons. The 2009 unit was particularly prolific, compiling a franchise-record 461 points and gaining 6,065 total net yards, the No. 3 mark in team history. The '09 offense also led the league in time of possession (33:03) and in fewest turnovers (16), both franchise bests.

In 2007, behind QB Brett Favre's MVP-caliber season, the offense ranked second in the NFL in total yards. That ranking was Green Bay's highest since 1983, while the 5,931 net yards and 435 total points both rank fourth on the franchise's single-season list. Favre's 4,155 yards passing that year combined with Rodgers' 4,038 yards in 2008 marked the first time in league history a team had different 4,000-yard passers in consecutive years.

Philbin's move from offensive line coach to offensive coordinator helped maintain continuity with the young offensive linemen and zone-blocking scheme. In 2006, Philbin oversaw a line that had three rookies – Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll – combine for 38 starts. Despite injuries that led to five different starting combinations, the Packers allowed only 24 sacks and improved their run production by a half-yard per carry.

In 2005, Philbin's tight ends contributed to a passing game hampered by injuries. Green Bay joined Tennessee as one of only two NFL teams to have three TE's record at least 25 receptions each, as Philbin effectively blended Donald Lee into the offense despite the tight end's late-preseason arrival.

Philbin's group in 2004 contributed to an offense that racked up more total yards (6,357) and passing yards (4,449) than any team in franchise history. As proved in 2003, the line played an integral role in the NFL's third-ranked offense, including team marks for first downs (354), completions (382) and fewest sacks (14). In 2003, Philbin's teaching played a role in a rushing offense that improved from 12th the year before to third in the NFL, proving to be one of the best lines in team history.

Looking at Philbin's collective eight years with the Packers, he has coached on the offensive staff for four of the five top units in team history in total offense and three of the top four in total points, including two in each category as offensive coordinator.

With 27 years of experience, including 19 in the college ranks, Philbin came to Green Bay after four seasons as offensive line coach at Iowa (1999-2002).

Under Philbin's stewardship, Iowa fielded one of college football's finest offensive lines in 2002, helping the Hawkeyes finish second in the Big Ten Conference in rushing (214.2 yards per game). Philbin pupils Eric Steinbach, Robert Gallery and Bruce Nelson earned three of the five first-team All-Big Ten linemen spots, while Steinbach earned consensus All-America honors. Over the next two years, all three were selected in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Prior to Iowa, Philbin served as assistant coordinator and offensive line coach at Harvard (1997-98). Under his direction in 1997, the Crimson established 15 offensive records. Five members of his offensive squad earned All-Ivy League honors, including Matt Birk, a 1998 draft choice and six-time Pro Bowl selection for the Minnesota Vikings who now plays for the Baltimore Ravens.

Earlier, Philbin was offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Northeastern University (1995-96) and offensive line coach at Ohio University (1994). He also spent four seasons (1990-93) at Allegheny College, highlighted by two undefeated regular seasons and an NCAA Division III national championship in 1990.

Born July 2, 1961, in Springfield, Mass., Philbin is a 1984 graduate of Washington & Jefferson College (Pa.), where he played tight end (1980). He also possesses a master's degree in education from Tulane University (1986).

Philbin and his wife, Diane, live in Green Bay and have six children: sons, Matthew, 23, Michael, 20, John, 19, Kevin, 17, and Timothy, 16, and a daughter, Colleen, 10.

Entering his sixth year in the NFL, Shawn Slocum begins his third season as the Green Bay Packers' special teams coordinator after joining the club in 2006 as assistant special teams coach. Elevated to his current position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, following the retirement of Mike Stock, Slocum brings a total of 20 years of coaching experience to his post, the first 15 at the college level.

Having originally joined the Packers on Feb. 6, 2006, Slocum's background in the college ranks has proven valuable in working with young players at the pro level.

In 2010, Slocum guided first-year man Tim Masthay to one of the finest seasons ever by a Green Bay punter. He finished the season with a 37.6-yard net average, which matched the best mark by a Packers punter since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007). Masthay placed 25 punts inside the 20 during the regular season, the most by a Packers punter since Josh Bidwell recorded 26 in 2002.

Masthay earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his performance at the N.Y. Jets in Week 8 as he became just the second punter in franchise history to win the award (Craig Hentrich, Week 11, 1994). Masthay became the first Green Bay punter (since 1976) to place four-plus punts inside the 20 in two games in a season, and his five placed inside the 20 in the NFC Championship Game at Chicago tied Hentrich for the franchise playoff record.

Slocum also oversaw the development of several young special teams contributors, including first-year TE Tom Crabtree and second-year CB Brandon Underwood, who finished tied for second and third on the team, respectively, in special teams tackles with 12 and 11.

In 2009, Slocum's first year as coordinator, LB Desmond Bishop emerged as the team's leading tackler on special teams after two straight years ranking third in the category. Meanwhile, S Derrick Martin, a newcomer in '09, and TE Spencer Havner, a late-season signee in 2008, grew into reliable coverage players, finishing second and third on the team, respectively. Each of the three recorded at least 20 special teams stops, the first Green Bay trio to accomplish that since 1984.

In his three seasons as Green Bay's special teams assistant, Slocum helped mold young cornerbacks Will Blackmon, Jarrett Bush and Tramon Williams into special-teams assets in their early NFL years. Blackmon tied the franchise record with three punt returns for touchdowns, accomplishing that feat over a two-year span (2007-08).

The continued development of those young special teamers, many of whom were in their second year in Green Bay's system in 2007, helped produce a rise from the bottom to seventh in the Dallas Morning News' annual special teams rankings for that season.

Along with his special teams duties, Slocum also previously assisted Winston Moss in coaching the linebackers.

Slocum joined the Packers from the University of Mississippi, where he served one year as assistant head coach and linebackers coach. Under Slocum's tutelage, LB Patrick Willis led the nation by averaging nine solo tackles per game as a junior, garnered first-team All-America honors from CollegeFootballNews.com and The Associated Press, and was a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, given annually to the nation's outstanding defensive player. One year later, Willis was drafted in the first round by the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to Ole Miss, Slocum took a two-year hiatus from coaching, as owner and president of Slocum Development Group, Inc., a custom home building and commercial development company in Texas.

Slocum was the special teams coordinator and secondary coach at Texas A&M (2000-02) in his third stint with the Aggies.

Slocum's units contributed to a team that appeared in two bowl games during that time.

Before returning to his alma mater, Slocum spent two seasons (1998-99) with the University of Southern California as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. During his tenure, Slocum worked with future NFL players Chris Claiborne, David Gibson, Marcus Steele and Zeke Moreno. In 1998, Claiborne earned both All-America recognition and the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker in leading the Trojans to the Sun Bowl.

Earlier, Slocum spent seven seasons at Texas A&M (1991-97), and assisted the Aggies to five bowl games, including four Cotton Bowl appearances. During that seven-year term, in which the school was 94-28-2, he coached 14 players who went on to play in the NFL. The 94 wins were sixth in the country and marked the most wins by any Texas Division I school in any decade.

While at Texas A&M as special teams and tight ends coach (1991-93), he helped the Aggies to three straight Southwest Conference championships. The following year, he transitioned from coaching tight ends to linebackers while maintaining his special-teams responsibilities. In that role (1994-97), he recruited and coached All-American LB, Lombardi Award winner and future Dallas Cowboy Dat Nguyen. On special teams, Slocum helped mold eventual Pro Bowl punter Shane Lechler, a two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 selection in college. Along with numerous school and conference records, Lechler finished his A&M career with NCAA marks for career punting average (44.7) and career games averaging at least 40 yards (37).

Slocum began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M in 1989. He moved on to the University of Pittsburgh the following season (1990) as a graduate-assistant defensive coach, serving on a Paul Hackett staff that included McCarthy, then a graduate assistant helping with the Panthers' quarterbacks.

A linebacker in college, Slocum earned one letter from Texas A&M in 1984 and was a member of the 12th Man kickoff squad from 1983-84. He earned a B.S. degree in construction management from the school in 1988.

Born Feb. 21, 1965, in Bryan, Texas, Slocum is married to the former Michelle Biehl. He has four children: daughters Tayler, 18, who will be a freshman at Texas A&M in the fall, Jordyn, 16, and Haley, 13, and son Jaxon, 8. His father, R.C., is the winningest head coach in Texas A&M history, having guided the program for 14 years (1989-2002). In his spare time, Slocum enjoys golfing, hunting, fishing and spending time with his family.

EDGAR BENNETT

WIDE RECEIVERS

Seventh Season as NFL Coach • 11th Packers Season

Edgar Bennett begins his 19th NFL season in 2011, his 17th in Green Bay and his first as the Packers' wide receivers coach after six seasons as running backs coach.

Named to his newest position on Feb. 25, 2011, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Bennett originally became a position coach on Jan. 28, 2005, for the running backs. He was re-named to that post on Jan. 17, 2006, for McCarthy's first season at the helm. He continues his "third" Green Bay tour after initially rejoining the club to head player development (2001-04), and after a tenure as one of the most productive running backs in Green Bay history (1992-96).

In recent years, Bennett has overseen the development of several key running backs in Green Bay's stable, as depth was required due to various injuries at the position.

James Starks was a sixth-round draft pick in 2010 who missed all of training camp and the first 11 games of his rookie season recovering from a hamstring injury – this after missing his senior season in college following shoulder surgery. But when Starks was healthy, Bennett got him ready to go. He rushed for 73 yards in his NFL debut vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5) and added a franchise rookie playoff-record 123 yards in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (Jan. 9).

Starks was needed during the team's stretch run because of a season-ending ankle injury to Ryan Grant in Week 1, who became just the third running back in team history to eclipse 1,200 yards in back-to-back seasons in 2008-09. Grant rapidly progressed in 2007, his first season with the Packers, upon coming to the team in a trade at the end of training camp. Quickly brought up to speed under Bennett's tutelage, Grant emerged from a backfield-by-committee to become the starter at midseason, went on to rush for nearly 1,000 yards (including five 100-yard performances), and then set Green Bay postseason records with 21 yards and three touchdowns in a playoff victory over Seattle.

Meanwhile, Brandon Jackson, a 2007 draft choice, developed into the team's most reliable pass protector out of the backfield the last two seasons and has two 100-yard rushing games to his credit. Also the past two seasons, Bennett managed three fullbacks on the roster in John Kuhn, Corey Hall and Quinn Johnson, with Kuhn rotating in and producing as a primary ball-carrier when needed.

In 2006, Bennett oversaw the strong recovery from a torn quadriceps tendon by Ahman Green, whose sixth 1,000-yard season set a franchise record.

In his first season as a full-time coach in 2005, Bennett saw the team start five halfbacks and feature six after season-ending injuries claimed Green and Najeh Davenport (ankle). A rib injury also sidelined No. 3 back Tony Fisher for two games.

Faced with steep adversity, Bennett took Samkon Gado, a non-drafted player fresh off the practice squad, and guided him to the second-most productive season by a rookie running back in franchise history. Gado, who had started only two games at Liberty University, ran for 582 yards, including three 100-yard games.

Initially joining the club as its director of player development April 10, 2001, Bennett for four years helped players become acclimated to their roles as Green Bay Packers, both on and off the field, especially in terms of their expected contributions to their teammates, the community and team chemistry. Bennett's efforts in this area were recognized in 2003 as the Packers' player development department was named the best in the NFC.

Green Bay's fourth-round draft selection in 1992, Bennett is the 10th-ranked rusher in Packers history. The former Florida

He also continues to hold the club single-season record for receptions by a running back with 78, set in 1994. His accomplishments were appropriately honored in 2005 upon his induction into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame.

After a torn Achilles' heel suffered in the Packers' 1997 preseason opener ended his season, a successfully rehabbed Bennett signed with Chicago as an unrestricted free agent in 1998 and led the Bears in rushing that season with 611 yards. After one more season with Chicago, Bennett retired from football in 2000.

A four-year starter at fullback for Florida State (1987, 1989-91), Bennett holds a bachelor's degree in social science, with a primary emphasis in political science and a secondary emphasis in sociology. Previously, he was a first-team all-state back at Robert E. Lee High School in Jacksonville, where he played with former Packers safety LeRoy Butler, who later also would be his teammate at FSU and in Green Bay. Bennett was inducted into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

Bennett and his wife, Mindy, have a son, Edgar IV, 16, and a daughter, Elyse Morgan, 11, and live in Green Bay. In 2003, he created the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon, an event that brings together Packers players, coaches and staff. In recent years, the event has supported Families of Children with Cancer, a foundation that gives financial and social support to local families whose children are receiving treatments for cancer or bone marrow failure. The '06 competition, which raised $58,500, saw a local sponsor roll a perfect game. In its initial year, the Bowl-A-Thon supported the March of Dimes. In May 2006, Bennett received the Nice Guy Award at the Doug Jirschele Sports Awards Banquet in Clintonville, Wis.

James Campen begins his eighth campaign as a Packers coach, his 13th overall with the organization.

Promoted to offensive line coach Jan. 15, 2007, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Campen moved up from his position as assistant offensive line coach in McCarthy's first season at the helm. Prior to that, Campen filled the role of assistant offensive line/quality control coach for two seasons following nine years in the high school ranks.

In each of Campen's four seasons in his current position, the Packers have finished in the top 10 in the league in total offense. A natural teacher, he has frequently taken young linemen and prepared them to be significant contributors in the early stages of their careers. In 2010, rookie Bryan Bulaga started the final 12 regular-season games and all four postseason contests at RT after veteran Mark Tauscher sustained a season-ending shoulder injury in Week 4. Bulaga was selected to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA.

Bulaga wasn't the only Green Bay lineman to be honored in 2010, with veteran LT Chad Clifton earning Pro Bowl recognition for the second time in his career. Clifton started all 16 games, one of four linemen (LG Daryn Colledge, C Scott Wells, RG Josh Sitton) to open every game at the same spot last season. Sitton was named the 2010 Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.

After two-time 1,200-yard rusher Ryan Grant was lost for the season to an ankle injury in Week 1, the line helped pave the way for RBs Brandon Jackson and John Kuhn to post career highs in rushing yards with 703 and 281, respectively, in 2010. Green Bay's line also protected QB Aaron Rodgers on his way to finishing in the top 10 in the NFL in nearly every significant passing category.

In 2009, Sitton started every game at RG in just his second season in the league, while T.J. Lang played three different positions over the course of his rookie year and started games at both tackle spots when needed. Even though injuries contributed to the Packers utilizing six different starting combinations along the line in '09, Grant posted career highs in rushing yards (1,253) and touchdowns (11), and Rodgers was sacked just 10 times over the final seven games.

In the first two years at his current post, Campen also worked hands-on in the development of three linemen – Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll – who ended up starting a combined 103 games from 2006-08. In 2007, the unit allowed only 19 sacks all season, and Clifton earned his first Pro Bowl appearance.

Campen made the transition from assistant offensive line coach smoothly, having worked extensively with Colledge, Spitz and Moll when all three were rookie draft choices in 2006. Alongside Joe Philbin, now the offensive coordinator, Campen helped teach the zone-blocking scheme to the youngsters and the veterans, who all relate well to him as a former player.

In 2005, Campen made his mark tutoring young linemen as Scott Wells, then in just his second year, filled in at center for an injured Mike Flanagan on several occasions and for eight games at guard after coaches altered the lineup. He also helped Clifton be named an alternate for the Pro Bowl, while seventh-round draft pick William Whitticker started 14 games at guard and became the team's lowest-drafted rookie to start the season opener since 1972.

Campen's direction in 2004 helped the Packers' trench men set a team record for fewest sacks allowed (14) and block for a 1,000-yard rusher for a sixth consecutive season, a franchise record. His assistance helped Marco Rivera to be voted to the Pro Bowl, the first Green Bay offensive lineman in 33 years to make three straight all-star appearances.

Formerly a player with the Packers, Campen was a Plan B free agency addition from the New Orleans Saints in 1989. He played in 15 games for Green Bay that season, then took over as the starter at center in 1990, starting all 16 games and grading out as the most consistent member of the offensive line. He also was named to the USA Today All-Pro team following his '90 campaign. Campen went on to play in 13 games in both 1991 and '92, missing three contests in '91 because of a calf injury and three others in '92 with a strained knee.

Green Bay's starting center Sept. 27, 1992, vs. Pittsburgh, Campen literally launched Brett Favre's 285-game starting streak, an NFL record among quarterbacks. His playing career came to an end in 1993 when he suffered a torn hamstring in Week 4 at Dallas (Oct. 3) and later underwent season-ending surgery. Campen played in 61 games overall with the Packers, making 42 of 48 starts from 1990-92.

Campen broke into the NFL by talking his way into a free-agent contract with the Saints in 1986 after going undrafted. Waived during training camp, he made the New Orleans roster in 1987 on his second try and started three games for the Saints. He subsequently was active for 12 games in 1988, playing in three.

A two-year starter at Tulane (1984-85), Campen received the school's Dr. Eamon Kelley Award as a senior, honoring the class' top student-athlete who bettered the campus and community. He was the first football player to serve as a resident advisor in the dormitory. Philbin was a graduate assistant coach for the Green Wave during Campen's two years at Tulane. Campen earlier had begun his collegiate career at Sacramento (Calif.) City Junior College (1982-83).

Campen began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at his prep alma mater, Ponderosa High School in Shingle Springs, Calif. After four seasons, he was named head coach and went 29-20-1 over the next five years, competing in the Sierra Valley Conference, one of the most competitive high school leagues in the state. As a Ponderosa student-athlete, he earned two letters in football and three in wrestling.

Possessor of a B.A. degree in social science with an emphasis in criminal justice, Campen served as a reserve deputy sheriff in New Orleans and volunteered with the Green Bay Police Department in a similar capacity while a Packers player.

Campen was born June 11, 1964, in Sacramento, Calif., and his family make their home in Suamico, Wis. Campen also takes time to be involved in the community, giving talks to local groups.

TOM CLEMENTS

QUARTERBACKS

15th Season as NFL Coach • Sixth Packers Season

Tom Clements, entering his 19th season in the coaching profession, is in his sixth year as Green Bay's quarterbacks coach.

Now in his 15th overall NFL season, Clements was named to his position Jan. 29, 2006, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy. Familiar with the role, Clements also served as quarterbacks coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers (2001-03), Kansas City Chiefs (2000) and New Orleans Saints (1997-99).

In Green Bay, Clements' extensive tutelage of Aaron Rodgers has paid dividends, as Rodgers became the first QB in league history to throw for at least 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter, and he narrowly missed a third straight 4,000-yard season in 2010 with 3,933 yards despite missing 1½ games due to a concussion. In 47 career regular-season starts, Rodgers has topped the 100 mark in passer rating 25 times, thrown for 300 yards or three touchdowns 14 times each, and posted 10 games with three TDs and no interceptions, the most in NFL history by a quarterback within three seasons of his first start.

Rodgers became the first quarterback in franchise history to record a 100-plus passer rating in consecutive seasons, with a 101.2 passer rating in 2010. He had a career-best 65.7 completion percentage last season, finished third in the league in passer rating (101.2) and second in average gain (8.26), and added a trio of three-touchdown outings in the postseason, including one against Pittsburgh that earned him Super Bowl XLV MVP honors.

Clements has also tutored backup QB Matt Flynn, a seventh-round choice of the Packers in 2008. Flynn started his first career game in 2010, opening in place of an injured Rodgers at New England in Week 15, and became the first Green Bay QB to throw three TD passes in his first career start since Anthony Dilweg posted the same number vs. the Los Angeles Rams on Sept. 9, 1990.

In 2009, Rodgers' 4,434 passing yards fell just 25 yards short of topping Lynn Dickey's 1983 franchise record and ranked fourth in the league. He also ranked fourth in the NFL in TD passes (30) and passer rating (103.2), and first in interception percentage (1.29) in earning his first Pro Bowl bid. The passer rating sits second in franchise history to Bart Starr's 105.0 mark in 1966.

Rodgers' first 4,000-yard season in 2008 gave the Packers 4,000-yard passers in consecutive seasons for just the second time in team history, and for the first time in league history those back-to-back 4,000-yard passers were different QBs.

The previous two seasons, in addition to tutoring Rodgers as the backup and heir apparent, Clements oversaw a mini-renaissance of Brett Favre's career. In 2006, Favre reduced his interceptions from a career-high 29 the year before to just 18, setting the stage for a near-MVP season in 2007, when he surpassed 4,000 yards passing for the fifth time. He also posted a then career-best completion percentage of 66.5 and a QB rating of 95.7 that was his third best at that point in leading the Packers back to the playoffs.

Before coming to Green Bay, Clements spent two seasons (2004-05) as offensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills. In 2004, the Bills' offense increased its scoring output by 152 and reduced its number of sacks allowed from 51 to 38, fewest by a Bills team since 1999. The unit was highlighted by RB Willis McGahee, who became the fifth running back in Bills history to register back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons, covering each year of Clements' tenure. In addition, QB Kelly Holcomb set a club record in 2005 with a 67.39 completion percentage, surpassing Jim Kelly's 1991 mark, 64.14 percent.

Prior to joining the Bills, Clements served as Pittsburgh's quarterbacks coach for three seasons (2001-03) under Bill Cowher. In 2002, he helped Tommy Maddox earn the Comeback Player of the Year award from The Associated Press, as Pittsburgh's passing offense ranked seventh in the NFL, its highest finish since 1980 with Terry Bradshaw under center.

- Possesses 19 years of coaching experience, including two seasons as an NFL offensive coordinator.
- Prior to Green Bay, spent 10 seasons coaching quarterbacks under some of the game's most successful coaches, including Bill Cowher, Mike Ditka and Lou Holtz.
- Played 12 years in the Canadian Football League at quarterback and was a seven-time divisional all-star and two-time Grey Cup champion; was inducted into the CFL Hall of Fame in 1994.
- An All-American at Notre Dame in 1974, he finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting that year.
- Practiced law for five years before beginning coaching career.

Clements also worked with Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart (2001) and Kansas City's Elvis Grbac (2000) during each quarterback's best season, both culminating in Pro Bowl berths. Mike Ditka gave Clements his first NFL coaching job, hiring him to coach the Saints' quarterbacks (1997-99), a group that included Jake Delhomme and Kerry Collins.

Prior to his post with the Saints, Clements served under Lou Holtz as quarterbacks coach (1992-94) and wide receivers/assistant head coach (1995) at his alma mater, Notre Dame. While with the Fighting Irish, Clements coached eventual 1993 NFL Rookie of the Year QB Rick Mirer, and WR Derrick Mayes, the Packers' second-round draft pick in 1996. In addition, he tutored QB Ron Powlus, Notre Dame's career passing leader in attempts, completions, yardage and touchdowns at the time of his graduation.

Inducted into the Canadian Football League's Hall of Fame in 1994, Clements played quarterback for Ottawa (1975-78), Saskatchewan/Hamilton (1979), Hamilton (1981-82) and Winnipeg (1983-87) during a 12-year career in the CFL. Selected seven times as a divisional All-Star, Clements guided two teams, Ottawa (1976) and Winnipeg (1984), to Grey Cup Championships, earning the Outstanding Offensive Player award in each game. The league's Rookie of the Year in 1975 and Most Valuable Player in 1987, Clements completed 2,807 of 4,657 passes (60.3 percent) for 39,041 yards and 252 touchdowns during his CFL career.

Clements also spent one season, 1980, as a quarterback for Marv Levy's Kansas City Chiefs.

A three-year starter at Notre Dame (1972-74) under Ara Parseghian, Clements led the Irish to a 29-5 record, including an unblemished national championship season in 1973. An All-American in 1974, he finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting when Archie Griffin earned the award. Clements received his degree in economics from Notre Dame in 1975.

A licensed attorney, Clements worked from 1988-92 for Bell, Boyd & Lloyd, a Chicago-based law firm. He pursued his law degree during his CFL playing career, graduating magna cum laude from Notre Dame's School of Law in 1986. In 1994, while on the Notre Dame coaching staff, Clements was an Adjunct Associate Professor of Law at the university's law school, where he taught "Sports and the Law."

Clements was born June 18, 1953, in McKees Rocks, Pa. He and his wife, Kathe, live in Green Bay. The couple has two grown children: daughter, Stevie, and son, Tom.

Jerry Fontenot begins his sixth season with the Packers and his first as running backs coach in 2011. Promoted to his new post on Feb. 25, 2011, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Fontenot takes over the position from Edgar Bennett, who moved into the role of wide receivers coach.

Fontenot joined the Packers in the summer of 2006 as a coaching intern and remained with the team that season as an offensive assistant, working with the offensive line. He was promoted to assistant offensive line coach by McCarthy on Jan. 15, 2007, and spent the past four seasons in that role.

During his five seasons working with the offensive line, Fontenot contributed to the development of several linemen. Rookie Bryan Bulaga started 12 games at RT after veteran Mark Tauscher was lost for the season due to a shoulder injury, and went on to earn All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly/PFWA. RG Josh Sitton was named the 2010 Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.

In 2009, Sitton started every game at RG in just his second season, while rookie T.J. Lang played three different positions at times and started games at both tackle spots when needed. From 2006-08, the '06 draft trio of Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll combined for 103 starts.

A starting center for the New Orleans Saints during McCarthy's five-year tenure there as offensive coordinator, Fontenot made an indelible impression on McCarthy with his leadership, intelligence, and the respect he commanded in the locker room, qualities he displayed in his first foray into coaching.

Not far removed from his playing days, which concluded after 16 seasons in 2004, Fontenot quickly showed he could relate well to players, prompting McCarthy to retain Fontenot in a full-time capacity in 2007 with the promotion of Joe Philbin to offensive coordinator and James Campen to offensive line coach.

A longtime center, Fontenot played 239 NFL games with the Bears, Saints and Bengals from 1989 through 2004, proving to be extremely durable as a player. Originally a third-round draft choice by Chicago in 1989, Fontenot began a starting streak of 106 games in 1991 with the Bears that continued through his first one-plus seasons with the Saints, whom he joined in 1997 as an unrestricted free agent.

That streak ended with a season-ending knee injury in October 1998. Returning at the start of the 1999 season, Fontenot then started 80 consecutive games for the Saints through the end of the 2003 season before finishing his career with the Bengals in 2004. Fontenot was named a USA Today All-Joe Team selection in 2002 for his excellence without fanfare and his enduring leadership qualities.

In all, Fontenot played on four playoff teams, three with the Bears (1990, '91, '94) and one with the Saints (2000). He spent his first year out of football in 2005 working in broadcasting in the Chicago area, handling various football assignments with both WGN and ESPN, before deciding to give coaching a try, which he feels provides more fuel for his passion for the game.

A standout at Texas A&M and a sociology major, Fontenot played every position on the offensive line in college and helped lead the Aggies to three consecutive Southwest Conference titles from 1985 through 1987. He earned all-conference honors three times and was an honorable mention All-American as a junior and senior.

Born Nov. 21, 1966, in Lafayette, La., Fontenot was a four-sport star at Lafayette High School, earning all-state honors twice in football, finishing as state runner-up twice in the discus, and winning a state championship in baseball.

He and his wife, Stephanie, have three daughters – Gabrielle, Madeleine and Camille.

RIDING BIKES TO PRACTICE

No one is sure exactly when it started, but Packers players have been riding kids' bikes to training-camp practice for nearly half a century.

The tradition is believed to have originated in 1961, when the Packers constructed a new administration building on the stadium's north concourse.

Vince Lombardi was the first coach to ask his players to ride bikes to practice, in an effort to further the Packers' unique relationship with their fans.

Kevin Greene enters his third season with the Packers in 2011 as outside linebackers coach, his first full-time NFL coaching job after 15 years as a standout player.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, Greene brings a wealth of experience at the outside linebacker spot and has played a key role in teaching that position in the Packers' 3-4 defensive scheme the past two seasons.

In 2010, Clay Matthews continued his standout play under Greene as he earned Pro Bowl recognition for the second straight season, the first Packer to be honored in each of his first two years in the NFL since RB John Brockington (1971-72). Matthews led the team with 13½ sacks, including back-to-back three-sack games to start the season, on his way to becoming the first Green Bay linebacker to earn first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press since Tim Harris in 1989.

After opening-day starter Brad Jones and veteran backup Brady Poppinga were lost for the season with injuries sustained in Weeks 7 and 6, respectively, rookie free agent Frank Zombo moved into the starting lineup opposite Matthews. Under Greene's guidance, Zombo started eight contests and registered 67 tackles, four sacks and two forced fumbles.

When Zombo missed the final three regular-season games and three playoff contests with a knee injury, midseason free-agent acquisition Erik Walden stepped into a starting role down the stretch. Walden recorded a career-high three sacks in Green Bay's playoff berth-clinching win over Chicago in Week 17, earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the performance.

In his first season as a coach in 2009, Greene was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense.

Under Greene's direction, Matthews registered 10 sacks, the most by a Packers rookie since the statistic became official in 1982. He was selected to the Pro Bowl, the first Green Bay rookie to earn that honor since WR James Lofton in 1978, and also led all NFL rookies with three forced fumbles.

Veteran Aaron Kampman made the transition from DE to LOLB under Greene, and recorded 3½ sacks and 28 QB hits (second on the team) in nine games before sustaining a season-ending knee injury in Week 11. Greene tutored another rookie, Jones, as he was inserted into Kampman's starting spot for the rest of the season. Jones posted four sacks, all in the final month of the season, to give the Packers their first rookie tandem with four-plus sacks in franchise history.

As a 3-4 outside linebacker, Greene posted 160 career sacks for four different teams, ranking him third on the NFL's all-time list behind Bruce Smith and Reggie White and first all-time among linebackers. In 15 seasons (1985-99), he was a five-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time first-team All-Pro pick by AP. He recorded 10 double-digit sack seasons, which ranks third in league history behind Smith and White. Greene led his team in sacks 11 times and the league twice, and played in six conference championship games and one Super Bowl (XXX). He has been a semifinalist in the Pro Football Hall of Fame balloting each of the past four years.

Greene's pro career began in 1985 with the Los Angeles Rams, where he played his first eight seasons, six under future Packers defensive coordinator Fritz Shurmur (1985-90). He posted back-to-back seasons with a career-best 16½ sacks in 1988 and 1989. The latter year, he made his first Pro Bowl and was an AP second-team All-Pro choice.

In 1993, Greene went to the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he played for current Packers defensive coordinator Dom Capers the first two of his three seasons there. He was named first-team All-Pro and went to the Pro Bowl in 1994 with 14 sacks, tops in the league. In 1995, he went to his third Pro Bowl and helped lead the Steelers to an appearance in Super Bowl XXX.

In 1996, Greene reunited with Capers, who was then the head coach for the Carolina Panthers. He led the league in sacks for the second time, with 14½, and posted five consecutive multi-sack games. He was a first-team All-Pro for the second time and a Pro Bowler for the third straight year and fourth overall in helping the Panthers, a second-year expansion team, reach the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay.

Greene then spent one season with the San Francisco 49ers (1997) before returning to Carolina for his final two years (1998-99). In 1998, Greene tallied 15 sacks and a career-best two interceptions, earning his fifth Pro Bowl nod.

In addition to the 160 sacks, Greene finished his career with 26 fumble recoveries, tied for fourth all-time, and five interceptions. He had three returns for touchdowns (two fumbles, one INT) and also posted three safeties.

A walk-on at Auburn, Greene played two seasons (1983-84) for the Tigers and led the Southeastern Conference in sacks as a senior with 11. He was selected in both the NFL Draft, by the Rams in the fifth round (113th overall), and in the USFL territorial draft, by the Birmingham Stallions.

While earning a degree in criminal justice at Auburn, Greene also completed ROTC training and served as a captain in a 16-year career in the Army Reserve. He served his military commitments during the offseasons while playing in the NFL.

Greene was a two-year starter and honorable mention all-conference selection as a senior at Granite City South High (Ill.). He also played basketball and was a high jumper for the track team.

After his playing career ended, Greene worked in real estate and as a summer NFL coaching intern with five different clubs, including one in 2006 with Miami, where Capers was the Dolphins' defensive coordinator. His most recent coaching internship came in 2008 with the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers.

Greene was born July 31, 1962, in Schenectady, N.Y. He and his wife, Tara, have a son, Gavin, and a daughter, Gabrielle.

JOEL HILGENBERG

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

First Season as NFL Coach • First Packers Season

Joel Hilgenberg enters his first season with the Packers in 2011 as offensive quality control coach, his first full-time coaching job after 10 seasons as an NFL offensive lineman.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 25, 2011, Hilgenberg worked as a coaching intern for the Packers during training camp, mini-camp and a portion of OTAs in 2010, primarily assisting offensive line coach James Campen and (then) assistant offensive line coach Jerry Fontenot.

Hilgenberg spent his entire 10-year playing career with the New Orleans Saints (1984-93), appearing in 142 games as a center/guard. In 1992, he started all 16 contests and was part of a line that allowed an NFL-low 15 sacks on the season on his way to earning Pro Bowl recognition at center.

Hilgenberg played in all 16 games with 14 starts at center in 1991 and yielded just one sack all season, including a streak of 10 consecutive games without allowing one. In addition to playing on the offensive line, he also handled long-snapping duties for the Saints throughout his career. In 2006, he was inducted into the Saints Hall of Fame.

Hilgenberg was selected by New Orleans in the fourth round (94th overall) of the 1984 NFL Draft out of the University of Iowa, where he earned second-team All-America honors in 1983. He was a first-team All-Big Ten selection as a junior and senior as he started every game in 1982-83 for a Hawkeyes team that went 17-7 and played in two bowl games over that span. Hilgenberg earned his degree from Iowa in interdepartmental studies.

AT A GLANCE

- Joined the Packers on Feb. 25, 2011.
- Enters his first season as an NFL coach after working with the Packers last year during the spring and training camp as a coaching intern.
- Played in 142 games as an offensive lineman with New Orleans (1984-93) and was inducted into the Saints Hall of Fame in 2006.
- Was a two-time All-Big Ten choice at the University of Iowa (1982-83) and earned second-team All-America honors in '83.
- Father, Jerry, earned first-team All-America honors at Iowa in 1953, and brother, Jay, was a seven-time Pro Bowler with the Chicago Bears and Cleveland Browns.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Hilgenberg comes from a long line of Iowa centers. His father, Jerry, earned first-team All-America honors at Iowa as a center in 1953 and was drafted in the fourth round by the Cleveland Browns in 1954. His brothers, Jim and Jay, also played center at Iowa. Jay went on to play 13 seasons (1981-93) in the NFL with Chicago (1981-91), Cleveland (1992) and New Orleans (1993), earning Pro Bowl recognition seven times. Hilgenberg's late uncle, Wally, played linebacker in the NFL for 16 seasons with Detroit (1964-66) and Minnesota (1967-79).

Hilgenberg was born July 10, 1962, in Iowa City, Iowa. He and his wife, Jeanie, have a daughter, Anna, 11. Hilgenberg enjoys upland field hunting and golfing.

Ben McAdoo begins his sixth season with the Packers as tight ends coach, his eighth season overall in the NFL.

Named to his position Jan. 17, 2006, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the 34-year-old McAdoo replaced current offensive coordinator Joe Philbin, who had been promoted to offensive line coach at the time. In each of McAdoo's previous two NFL tenures, he has worked with McCarthy.

In 2010, third-year pro Jermichael Finley got off to a torrid start under McAdoo's tutelage, posting 21 catches for 301 yards and a touchdown in the opening four games. That included back-to-back 100-yard receiving performances as Finley joined Paul Coffman (1979) as the only TEs in team annals to accomplish that feat. Finley's three career 100-yard games already rank No. 2 in franchise history behind Coffman (six).

After Finley sustained a season-ending knee injury on the opening series at Washington in Week 5, a pair of young tight ends, rookie Andrew Quarless and first-year man Tom Crabtree, moved into more significant roles under McAdoo's guidance. Quarless went on to post 21 receptions for 238 yards, the best marks by a Green Bay rookie TE in both categories since Bubba Franks (34-363) in 2000. Quarless' 62 receiving yards at Detroit in Week 14 were the most by a Packers rookie TE in a game since Ron Kramer posted 68 at Detroit on Nov. 28, 1957.

In 2009, McAdoo oversaw one of the most productive seasons in team history by the tight ends. With the emergence of youngsters Finley and Spencer Havner, along with another year of steady production from veteran Donald Lee, Green Bay's tight ends posted a collective 99 receptions for 1,048 yards, franchise records in both categories.

Finley (55 receptions) and Lee (37) became the first tight-end duo in franchise history to each post 35-plus receptions in the same season, and they were one of only two tandems in the league to do so in 2009, along with New Orleans' Jeremy Shockey and David Thomas. Meanwhile, with Finley (five TDs) and Havner (four), the Packers were the only team in the NFL to have two tight ends catch at least four touchdown passes apiece.

The emergence of Finley, a third-round draft choice in 2008, was not a surprise after seeing the marked improvement he made in his first season. McAdoo helped Finley steadily learn the pro game as a rookie, and Finley flashed his tremendous potential over the final two games of the season, posting three receptions for 64 yards and his first NFL touchdown.

In 2007, it was former backup Lee enjoying a breakout year as he moved into a starting role. Lee posted career highs with 48 catches for 575 yards and six touchdowns, and he followed that up with consistent production in 2008-09 to become the first Packers tight end since Coffman (1981-83) to catch at least 35 passes in three consecutive seasons.

Upon arriving in Green Bay in 2006, McAdoo helped the Packers' tight ends adapt successfully to additional blocking and pass-protection duties they hadn't previously been assigned. The added assistance helped a young offensive line, with as many as three rookie starters at times, allow just 24 sacks all season.

- Last name is pronounced MACK-ah-dew.
- Has tutored Jermichael Finley, who tied a single-season team record with two 100-yard receiving games in 2010 despite playing in only five games due to a knee injury and posted the second-most catches (55) ever by a Packers TE in 2009.
- Packers' tight ends posted a collective 99 receptions for 1,048 yards in 2009, franchise records in both categories.
- Joined Packers Jan. 17, 2006.
- Has worked with Head Coach Mike McCarthy in each of previous two NFL tenures, with New Orleans and San Francisco.

*—Named assistant head coach following 2002 season before football program disbanded.

McAdoo came to Green Bay from the San Francisco 49ers, where he served as assistant offensive line/quality control coach in 2005. In that role, he assisted the offensive line and tight ends.

Prior to joining the 49ers, he had a brief stint at Stanford University as tackles and tight ends coach. He resigned after the '05 recruiting season to take the 49ers position and reunite with McCarthy, then the San Francisco offensive coordinator, with whom he worked in New Orleans the previous season.

McAdoo, pronounced (MACK-ah-dew), entered the NFL coaching ranks in 2004 with the New Orleans Saints as an offensive assistant/quality control. He worked directly with McCarthy and assisted the offensive line and tight ends.

Prior to working in the NFL, McAdoo spent 2003 as an offensive assistant at the University of Pittsburgh, helping the Panthers earn a trip to the Continental Tire Bowl after an 8-5 season. At season's end, the University of Akron hired him as an assistant coach, but he stayed only through the '04 recruiting period before joining the Saints staff.

Earlier, he served as offensive line/tight ends coach at Fairfield (Conn.) University in 2002. After that campaign, the head coach left the team and McAdoo was appointed assistant head coach before the program was disbanded.

He began his college coaching career at Michigan State (2001) as a special teams/offensive assistant, on the heels of coaching four years at the high school level. He spent two years in the Homer Center school district in Pennsylvania and two years in the Indiana (Pa.) area.

McAdoo attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP) and earned a degree in health and physical education. Later, he received his master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan State.

Born July 9, 1977, in Homer City, Pa., McAdoo lives with his family in Oneida.

Scott McCurley enters his sixth season with the Packers and third as defensive quality control coach. He was hired by Mike McCarthy in April 2006 as a coaching administrative intern, promoted to coaching administrator in January 2007, and promoted again to defensive quality control coach on Feb. 3, 2009.

In his current role, McCurley's duties include breaking down opponent game film and analyzing their offensive tendencies. He also provides assistance with the outside linebackers.

As the coaching administrator, McCurley assisted in preparing the team's weekly game plan, preparing game film, and compiling player statistics and grades. His practice responsibilities included working with the scout team and assisting Winston Moss with coaching linebackers. During games, McCurley assisted the defensive coordinator.

Before coming to Green Bay, McCurley enjoyed a lengthy playing and coaching career at the University of Pittsburgh. Initially a walk-on athlete who redshirted his first year, he earned a scholarship after his freshman season and lettered all four years at linebacker (1999-2002).

McCurley holds the distinction of having the last interception and field-goal block in Pitt Stadium, which closed after the '99 season, both achievements recorded in a 37-27 victory against Notre Dame. That same season, he earned a spot on the Big East All-Academic football team and graduated in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in movement science with a coaching minor.

Chad Morton, a seven-year NFL veteran as a player, enters his third season with the Packers and second as special teams assistant coach.

Named to his current position on Feb. 15, 2010, Morton originally joined the Packers as the team's coaching administrator in 2009, where part of his duties included assisting with the defensive and special teams units, before he moved into the role of special teams assistant.

In Morton's debut season assisting the special teams in 2010, first-year P Tim Masthay finished the season with a 37.6-yard net punting average, which matched the best mark posted by a Green Bay punter since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007). Masthay also placed 25 punts inside the 20, the most by a Packer since Josh Bidwell's 26 in 2002.

Morton helped tutor several young special teams contributors, including first-year TE Tom Crabtree and second-year CB Brandon Underwood, who finished tied for second and third on the team in special teams tackles with 12 and 11, respectively.

Morton was a running back and kick/punt returner who began his career with New Orleans in 2000 as a fifth-round draft pick. Packers Head Coach Mike McCarthy served as the Saints' offensive coordinator at that time. Morton went on to play two seasons with the New York Jets (2001-02), two with Washington (2003-04) and two with the New York Giants (2005-06).

Serving primarily as a returner as a pro, Morton tallied 5,401 career kickoff-return yards and three kick-return scores, as well as 1,431 career punt-return yards and one score, in 93 career games. He was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate as a returner in '02 and '05.

While with the Jets in 2002, Morton returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in a contest at Buffalo, making him the fifth player in NFL history to return two kickoffs for scores in the same game. He is the only player in NFL history to return a kickoff for a TD in regulation and overtime in the same game and joins Chicago's Dave Williams (at Detroit, Nov. 27, 1980) as the only players in NFL history to return a kickoff for a TD in overtime. In 2000 with the Saints, Morton tied the NFL single-game playoff record with 13 receptions, against the Minnesota Vikings.

Morton was an All-Pac-10 selection at Southern California, where he served as the team's primary running back his final two seasons. He led the team with 1,141 yards and 15 touchdowns on 262 carries as a senior, and he ranks 11th on the Trojans' all-time rushing list with 2,511 career yards. He graduated from USC with a degree in sociology.

Born April 4, 1977, in Torrance, Calif., Morton attended South High School in Torrance, where he played running back and also ran track. His older brother, Johnnie, played wide receiver for 12 seasons (1994-2005) in the NFL, including eight with the Detroit Lions.

Morton and his wife, Tamra, reside in Green Bay. They have two sons, Avery and Aiden and a daughter, Alexis. Morton enjoys spending time with his wife and playing with his children.

PACKERS HELMETS

- The Packers added their first and only helmet logo in 1961, the Lombardi G emblem. Since, the club has made no significant changes to his helmet.
- Only two other teams have made no significant changes (including color alterations) since the G first went on the Packers helmet in '61. The Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts have sported their blue horseshoe since 1959. The Cleveland Browns shifted to "bald" helmets in 1960. The Pittsburgh Steelers introduced their unique helmets, with one bald side, the year after the Packers added the G, in 1962.
- Designed for Lombardi by equipment manager Dad Braisher, the G is one of the most recognizable team marks in sports, borrowed by several colleges and high schools, including Grambling State and the University of Georgia.
- The actual raised helmet G oval measures 3.125 inches at its tallest point, and 5 inches at its widest point. The thick decal is applied to each Riddell helmet by current equipment manager Red Batty and his staff.
- The middle white stripe is exactly 1 inch wide; the two green stripes are each 11/16 of an inch.

Darren Perry begins his third season with the Packers in 2011 as secondary – safeties coach, his 10th season coaching in the NFL.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, Perry has coached defensive backs in the NFL for the past nine years and has tutored a Pro Bowl player in six of the last seven seasons.

In 2010, FS Nick Collins earned Pro Bowl recognition for the third straight season, becoming the first Green Bay safety since LeRoy Butler (1996-98) to accomplish that feat. After rookie SS Morgan Burnett went down with a season-ending knee injury in Week 4, veteran safety Charlie Peprah moved into the starting lineup and put together the finest season of his career under Perry's guidance, registering career highs in tackles (64), interceptions (two) and passes defended (seven). He also finished second on the team with 26 tackles in the postseason.

Collins and Peprah were members of a secondary that helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the league in opponent passer rating (67.2), the best mark by a Green Bay defense since 1997 (59.0). The Packers ranked No. 5 in the league in pass defense, allowing their opponents just 194.2 yards per game in 2010.

In 2009, Collins was named to the Pro Bowl and earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press after finishing third among NFL safeties with six interceptions. SS Atari Bigby picked off four passes in '09 despite missing three games due to injury, giving the Packers their first safety tandem with four-plus interceptions each since 2002 (Darren Sharper, Marques Anderson).

Collins and Bigby helped the Packers lead the NFL in both takeaways (40) and interceptions (30), the first time since 1965 that Green Bay led the league in interceptions. Perry was a member of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense.

Perry came to Green Bay from Oakland, where he coached the Raiders' defensive backs for two seasons (2007-08). Cornerback Nnamdi Asomugha earned his second Pro Bowl selection and All-Pro honors from AP under Perry's tutelage, as the Raiders ranked in the top 10 each of those years in passing yards allowed. In 2008, Oakland allowed opponents to complete only 56.5 percent of their passes, tied for fourth best in the league.

Perry spent the previous four seasons coaching defensive backs in Pittsburgh under Bill Cowher, the team and coach for whom he played the majority of his career. Perry was the Steelers' assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and was promoted to defensive backs coach in 2004, when the Steelers finished fourth in the league in both passing yards allowed (177.2 per game) and opponents' completion percentage (55.6). In 2005, Pittsburgh won Super Bowl XL.

Perry was credited for helping the rapid development of Pittsburgh safety Troy Polamalu, who earned the first of five straight Pro Bowl selections in 2004, just his second season. The versatile Polamalu also was an AP All-Pro pick twice (2004, 2005) with Perry as his position coach.

Perry broke into the NFL coaching ranks in 2002, coaching safeties for the Cincinnati Bengals under head coach Dick LeBeau, one of the most respected defensive minds in the game, who also coached defensive backs for the Packers for four seasons (1976-79).

Drafted by the Steelers in the eighth round (203rd overall) of the 1992 NFL Draft – the team's first draft under Cowher – Perry became an immediate starter at free safety for current Packers defensive coordinator Dom Capers. Paired with Pro Bowler Rod Woodson much of his time there, Perry played seven seasons in Pittsburgh (1992-98) and started the first 110 games of his career, including postseason. He missed only two of a possible 123 games with the Steelers, both in 1998 due to a groin injury.

Perry was the Steelers' starting free safety in Super Bowl XXX and posted 32 career interceptions, tied for seventh in team history. His seven interceptions in 1994 marked his career high.

Perry went on to sign with the San Diego Chargers in 1999 but did not play due to a neck injury, and he concluded his playing career as the starting free safety for the New Orleans Saints in 2000, McCarthy's first season as the offensive coordinator there. Playing in all 16 games plus two postseason contests, he had three interceptions that season, giving him 35 for his career.

A standout in college at Penn State, Perry intercepted 15 passes in his career, tying him for second in school history. He returned three interceptions for touchdowns and compiled 299 return yards, both school records. As a junior in 1990, Perry intercepted seven passes and returned one for a TD. His senior year, he had six interceptions and two scores.

Perry was an all-district and second-team all-state selection at quarterback for Deep Creek (Va.) High, where he threw for 2,790 yards and 23 touchdowns in his career, and rushed for 1,167 yards and 14 scores. He was a team captain for the football, basketball and tennis teams.

Born Dec. 29, 1968, in Norfolk, Va., Perry lives in Green Bay with his wife, Errika, and their four children: Danielle, Dominique, Dedriana, and Devan. He also enjoys playing golf and bass guitar, and he is on the board of directors of the Chesapeake Care Free Clinic in Virginia, which provides health care to individuals without insurance or the necessary resources. Through the clinic, Perry sponsors the Intercept for Care program, which raises donations based on the number of interceptions recorded by Perry's team in a given season.

John Rushing begins his first season as the Packers' assistant wide receivers/special teams coach after two years as offensive quality control coach, continuing his first venture into the NFL after 13 years in the college coaching ranks.

Named to his new post on Feb. 25, 2011 by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Rushing originally joined the Packers on Feb. 3, 2009, after spending the 2008 training camp with the Packers through the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship Program.

Rushing came to Green Bay from Utah State, where he spent six seasons (2003-08) coaching defensive backs. During his tenure there, Rushing coached current Packers defensive back and special teamer Jarrett Bush, who ranked sixth in the NCAA in passes defended in 2005 with 1.36 per game.

Additionally, Rushing coached the Aggies' punt return unit. In 2007, Kevin Robinson led the nation with an 18.9-yard average on punt returns, and he was selected in the sixth round (No. 182 overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Robinson, who is Rushing's younger brother, returned 19 kickoffs for 420 yards (22.1 avg.) and 11 punts for 94 yards (8.5 avg.) in eight games with the Chiefs in '08.

Prior to his time at Utah State, Rushing coached the secondary at Montana State for three seasons (2000-02), where he worked with Joey Thomas, a third-round draft choice of the Packers in 2004.

Rushing's first Division I job was as a graduate assistant coach for the secondary at Boise State for two years (1998-99), where he coached current Philadelphia Eagles S Quintin Mikell, who was named to the Pro Bowl in 2009. He began his coaching career at Merced Union (Calif.) High School in 1995, his alma mater, before moving on to the college game at Willamette University in Salem, Ore., for two years (1996-97). He coached the secondary there and was a part of Willamette's Division III national runner-up squad in 1997.

As a player, Rushing started all four years as a defensive back at Washington State (1991-94) and set a school record by starting 46 games. He earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 Conference honors as a freshman and sophomore, and in 1991, he also was named to Sporting News' Freshman All-America team.

During his senior season of 1994, Washington State ranked second in the NCAA in both total defense (229 yards per game) and scoring defense (12.1 points per game).

As a prep, Rushing was a two-sport standout at Merced Union. He started at running back and safety on a 14-0 section championship team that was nationally ranked in USA Today. In track and field, he also qualified for the state championships in the 100- and 200-meter dashes.

Born Feb. 26, 1972, in Merced, Calif., Rushing earned his degree in sociology from Washington State in 1995 and a master's degree in education from Boise State in 2005.

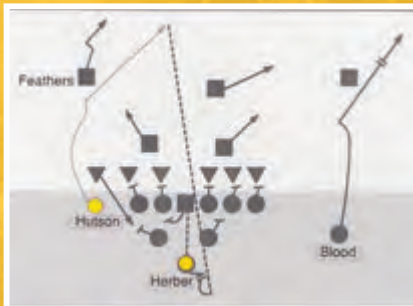

Rushing and his wife, Angela, have three daughters, Nattaya, Tatiana and Kamiah, and a son, DaShir. He enjoys bowling and playing golf.

DON HUTSON'S FIRST NFL RECEPTION, 1935

On the day's first play, vs. the Bears Sept. 22, 1935, at City Stadium, Don Hutson caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber.

Bears safety Beattie Feathers bought Herber's fake to Johnny (Blood) McNally, springing Hutson, who was making his first NFL start after his debut the previous week.

True Sport said Herber's pass covered 66 yards in the air. Green Bay won, 7-0.

Mike Trgovac (pronounced TER-guh-vack) begins his fourth season with the Packers, his second stint with the team, and his 17th season overall in the NFL.

Named to his current position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, Trgovac was also the Packers' defensive line coach in 1999, the same year McCarthy was the team's quarterbacks coach.

In 2010, Trgovac oversaw the development of NT B.J. Raji, who started all 16 games in his second season and posted career highs in every statistical category on the way to being named a Pro Bowl alternate. Raji's 6½ sacks were the most by an NFL nose tackle since Minnesota's Ken Clarke recorded seven in 1990, and his 66 tackles led all Green Bay linemen.

Veteran DE Cullen Jenkins posted a career high in sacks as well under Trgovac's direction, recording seven despite missing five contests due to injury. Raji and Jenkins helped the Packers finish No. 2 in the league in sacks with 47, the highest league ranking in franchise history. Trgovac also tutored veteran DE Howard Green, a midseason waiver-wire pickup, as well as young ends C.J. Wilson and Jarius Wynn as the three all made contributions to a line affected by injuries.

In 2009, Trgovac directed a line that made the transition to the 3-4 defense and helped the Packers lead the NFL in rushing defense for the first time in franchise history. The average of 83.3 rushing yards allowed per game set a team record for any season, and the defense also set a team record by holding opponents to under 90 net yards rushing in 12 games. The Packers moved up 25 spots in the league rushing defense rankings from '08, the biggest one-year improvement in the history of the franchise.

DE Johnny Jolly set a team record for defensive linemen with 11 passes defended, the most since the statistic began to be recorded in 1980, and Jenkins posted career highs in both tackles (50) and forced fumbles (three). The pair each posted interceptions on the season to become the first defensive-line duo since 2002 (Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila and Vonnie Holliday) to each register an INT in the same season.

Trgovac came to Green Bay from Carolina, where he was the Panthers' defensive coordinator for six seasons. In that time, Trgovac directed a defense that produced 10 Pro Bowl selections and ranked in the NFL's top 10 in both yards and points allowed three times.

Most recently, that was in 2006, when the Panthers ranked seventh in the league in yards allowed (296.1) and eighth in points allowed (305). The previous year was statistically the Panthers' best under Trgovac, as in 2005 they ranked third in yards (282.6), fifth in points (259) and first in takeaways (a team-record 42) in helping Carolina advance to its second NFC Championship Game in three seasons.

His unit's ability to create turnovers had begun to show up in the second half of 2004, when the Panthers had 29 takeaways in the season's final eight games. The 38 total takeaways ranked second in the league and tied the club record at the time, and the defense's 26 interceptions were a league high and team record.

Trgovac's inaugural season as a defensive coordinator featured his first top-10 unit. After promoting him from his post as the Panthers' defensive line coach, Carolina ranked eighth in the league in yards (295.3) and 10th in points (304) in 2003, and held top-10 rankings in a handful of other categories.

That defense also forced four turnovers and held the Eagles to a field goal in Carolina's 14-3 victory in the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia, earning the Panthers their first Super Bowl berth.

As defensive line coach in 2002, Trgovac oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Panthers' front four that made a strong case for him taking over as coordinator. Carolina ranked third in the league with 39 sacks and first in rushing yards per attempt.

AT A GLANCE

- Last name is pronounced TER-guh-vack.
- Is in his second stint with the Packers, having coached Green Bay's defensive line in 1999, the same year Mike McCarthy was quarterbacks coach.
- Was the Carolina Panthers' defensive coordinator for six seasons (2003-08), directing a defense that ranked in the top 10 three times.
- Has been on the staff of two teams that advanced to the Super Bowl, the Packers last season and the Panthers in 2003.
- Played in three Rose Bowls as a defensive lineman at Michigan for Bo Schembechler.
- Has coached for five college programs and four NFL teams.

2000-01	Washington Redskins	Defensive Line
2002	Carolina Panthers	Defensive Line
2003-08	Carolina Panthers	Defensive Coordinator
2009-11	Green Bay Packers	Defensive Line

Under Trgovac's tutelage, DE Julius Peppers was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while DT Kris Jenkins (older brother of Green Bay's Jenkins) earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press.

Prior to his tenure in Carolina, Trgovac coached the defensive line of the Washington Redskins for two seasons (2000-01). Ends Marco Coleman (12) and Hall of Famer Bruce Smith (10) both reached double digits in sacks in 2000, with Coleman being selected to the Pro Bowl.

Trgovac's first stop in Green Bay, in 1999, was the Packers' first season in seven years without Reggie White leading the defensive line. That year, DE Keith McKenzie matched his career high in sacks with eight in a part-time specialist role.

Trgovac broke into the NFL as the defensive line coach of the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-98. In 1995, the Eagles' line led the NFL in sacks with 42.5 (of the team's 48). DE William Fuller topped the squad with 13 and made the Pro Bowl for the first of two straight years.

Trgovac's career working with defensive linemen in the college coaching ranks spanned 11 seasons and five schools, beginning with his alma mater, Michigan, as a graduate assistant in 1984. After two seasons there, he moved on to Ball State (1986-88), Navy (1989), Colorado State (1990-91) and Notre Dame (1992-94).

With the Fighting Irish under Lou Holtz, Trgovac saw two of his protégés become early selections in the 1994 NFL Draft, as the San Francisco 49ers took Bryant Young seventh overall and the Chicago Bears picked Jim Flanigan in the third round.

Trgovac's playing career at Michigan from 1977-80 under Bo Schembechler featured three seasons as a starter at middle guard on the defensive line. He was a two-time All-Big Ten honoree and a second-team All-America selection as a senior. He played in three Rose Bowls for the Wolverines and received his degree in education from Michigan in 1982.

Born Feb. 27, 1959, in Youngstown, Ohio, Trgovac was an all-state football player and wrestler at Fitch High School in Austintown, Ohio. He was named Ohio's Defensive Lineman of the Year and also captured the state heavyweight wrestling title as a senior.

Trgovac and his wife, Angela, have two children, daughter Jordan, 17, and son Michael, 12. He enjoys spending time with his family and boating.

Entering his fifth season in the NFL, Joe Whitt Jr. begins his fourth with the Green Bay Packers and third in his position of secondary – cornerbacks coach.

Originally named defensive quality control coach on March 7, 2008, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the 33-year-old Whitt was promoted to cornerbacks coach on Feb. 3, 2009.

He came to Green Bay after one year with the Atlanta Falcons as assistant defensive backs coach. Whitt coached the previous five years in the college ranks, beginning with the 2002 season as wide receivers coach at The Citadel, followed by a four-year stint as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisville.

In 2010, Whitt's work with up-and-coming CB Tramon Williams culminated in the former non-drafted free agent's first Pro Bowl bid. Williams posted team bests and career highs in both interceptions (six) and passes defended (23), and added three more interceptions in the playoffs, which tied the franchise single-postseason record. Whitt also was instrumental in the rapid development of rookie Sam Shields, another undrafted prospect who became the team's nickel back by the season opener – despite playing the corner position only one season in college – and helped the Packers advance to the Super Bowl with two interceptions in the NFC title game at Chicago.

Veteran Charles Woodson also posted career highs in tackles (105) and forced fumbles (five) and earned a Pro Bowl bid and second-team All-Pro honors this past season, when the Packers led the league in opponent passer rating (67.2) and finished second in interceptions (24). Since Whitt was promoted to cornerbacks coach in '09, Green Bay ranks No. 1 in the NFL in interceptions (54) and opponent passer rating (68.0) and No. 2 in opponent completion percentage (55.3).

In 2009, Whitt was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense. Green Bay led the league with 40 takeaways and 30 interceptions, the first time the Packers led the league in interceptions since 1965 (tied with Washington that season with 27).

Also in '09, Woodson posted a career-high nine interceptions as part of perhaps his finest all-around season on his way to earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year Honors from The Associated Press as well as All-Pro honors from virtually every publication. Then 33, Woodson became the oldest defensive back to win the player of the year award and just the fifth cornerback to do so since the award's inception in 1971.

Meanwhile, Williams, who took over as the starting RCB after veteran Al Harris suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 11, posted a (then) career-high and team-leading 22 passes defended along with four interceptions under Whitt's tutelage.

In Whitt's first season with the Packers, his duties included breaking down opponent game film and analyzing their offensive tendencies while also assisting with the defensive backs and special teams.

In 2007 with Atlanta, Whitt worked alongside veteran coach and former Packers defensive coordinator Emmitt Thomas in tutoring the Falcons' defensive backs.

- Joined Packers March 7, 2008, as defensive quality control coach. Promoted to cornerbacks coach on Feb. 3, 2009.
- Tutored CB Tramon Williams as he earned his first Pro Bowl nod in 2010 and veteran CB Charles Woodson on his way to earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year and All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in 2009. Woodson also has earned two Pro Bowl bids under Whitt.
- Under Whitt's guidance, both Woodson and Williams have produced single-season career highs in all major categories.
- Has five years of college coaching experience.
- Played collegiately and coached as a student assistant at Auburn, where his father, Joe Sr., was on the coaching staff.

COACHING BACKGROUND

2002	The Citadel	Wide Receivers
2003-06	University of Louisville	Cornerbacks/ Recruiting Coordinator
2007	Atlanta Falcons	Assistant Defensive Backs
2008	Green Bay Packers	Defensive Quality Control
2009-11	Green Bay Packers	Secondary – Cornerbacks

During his time in Louisville, Whitt's recruiting efforts helped bring the program into national prominence as the Cardinals went 41-9 over that four-year stretch. After joining the staff in 2003, Whitt worked diligently to improve the Cardinals' recruiting efforts, and the program landed its first top-25 recruiting class in 2005.

On the field, he coached All-Big East first-team selection William Gay, who led the team with six interceptions and was a fifth-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2007. Whitt also had a hand in helping safety Kerry Rhodes, currently with the Arizona Cardinals, and Antoine Harris, most recently with the Philadelphia Eagles, make it to the NFL.

Whitt broke into the collegiate coaching ranks in 2002 as wide receivers coach at The Citadel. In his only season there, the Bulldogs saw their passing attack increase by 81.3 yards per game over 2001, averaging 219.8 yards in 2002. Under Whitt's guidance, all of the team's receivers produced career highs in 2002, most notably Scooter Johnson, who improved on his six catches for 104 yards as a junior to bring in 69 passes for 950 yards and seven touchdowns to earn first-team All-Southern Conference honors as a senior.

A native of Auburn, Ala., and a walk-on as a player at Auburn University, Whitt eventually earned a scholarship and played for a coaching staff that included his father, Joe Sr., an Auburn assistant since 1981.

Whitt worked his way into Auburn's rotation at wide receiver and contributed on special teams, battling several injuries along the way. After four shoulder surgeries and reconstructive knee surgery, he was granted a medical hardship waiver and became a student assistant at Auburn for two seasons, coaching alongside his dad.

Born July 19, 1978, Whitt graduated from Auburn in 2001 with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Ericka, have two children, a son, Joseph Barrington, and a daughter, Ava Jeneé.

ELIOT WOLF

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Eliot Wolf in 2011 enters his eighth season with the Packers and first as assistant director of player personnel, spending the past three seasons as assistant director of pro personnel and his first four years with the Packers as pro personnel assistant. He works primarily at Lambeau Field under Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations Ted Thompson. Wolf originally joined the Packers on Feb. 26, 2004.

His primary duties include scouting teams in the NFL and in-season advance scouting of upcoming Packers opponents. Wolf also is involved with college scouting during the offseason and is very active in the Packers draft.

The son of former Packers general manager Ron Wolf, Eliot's scouting career unofficially began at age 10, when he joined his father in film sessions at Lambeau Field.

He's also worked 19 consecutive Packers drafts (since 1993), and nine NFL scouting internships — five with the Packers, three with the Atlanta Falcons and one with the Seattle Seahawks. Wolf has attended 19 consecutive NFL scouting combines.

Those internships and prior "unofficial" experiences have provided significant knowledge. Wolf, for example, is familiar with the history of every NFL player, having prepared Packers' details for every draft since 1993.

The 29-year-old Wolf filed his first report at age 14 for the Falcons, and has provided valuable information for the Packers' pro personnel department during previous internships.

Wolf owns a B.A. degree in creative writing from the University of Miami (Fla.), graduating in December 2003 after just 3½ years in order to begin his NFL career before the 2004 NFL Draft. At Miami, he volunteered in the football office's recruiting department. Wolf is a 2000 high school graduate of Green Bay's Notre Dame Academy.

Born March 21, 1982, in Oakland, Calif., Wolf is single and resides in De Pere, Wis. He enjoys traveling and has visited European countries including France, Greece, Italy and Spain, has also been to various destinations in the Caribbean, as well as Israel and Vietnam. When he is stateside, Wolf enjoys spending time with friends and family.

TIM TERRY

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Tim Terry, a former NFL linebacker, enters his seventh season with the Packers' pro personnel department after joining the team on Oct. 11, 2004. Terry's primary duties are scouting professional prospects in the NFL, CFL and Arena Football League, working under Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations Ted Thompson. He also is involved with in-season advance scouting of upcoming Packers opponents.

In 2008, Terry was named assistant director of pro personnel, after serving as a pro personnel assistant the previous three years. During the 2007 season, he continued to work in the personnel department while also serving as the director of player development, helping to maintain locker-room cohesiveness and assisting players in acclimating to their roles, both on and off the field. Former Packers long snapper Rob Davis took over that position in 2008.

The 37-year-old Terry originally entered the NFL as a non-drafted free agent out of Temple with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1997. As a rookie, he saw action in five games, logging three stops and five special teams tackles. Terry spent the 1998 season on the team's practice squad.

In 1999, he went to camp with the Kansas City Chiefs, but was released and subsequently signed with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the CFL, helping that club to a Grey Cup championship.

Terry joined the Seattle Seahawks' practice squad in early 2000 before being elevated to the active roster on Nov. 10, and finished the season by playing in six games, collecting two special teams stops and forcing a fumble on a kickoff return.

Terry saw action in all 16 Seahawks games each of the following two seasons (2001-02), with his best professional campaign coming in 2002, when he took over as a starter for the final eight games after LB Chad Brown (broken foot) was lost to injury. That year, he posted a career-high 42 tackles, including one sack, plus one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

He was released by the Seahawks during training camp in 2003. His NFL career included 43 games played (eight starts), 55 tackles, including 3½ sacks, plus 19 special teams stops.

Collegiately, Terry saw action in all 44 games (43 starts) during his four seasons at Temple, playing as a defensive lineman and finishing his career with 208 tackles. As a senior, he started all 11 games despite a groin pull, and recorded 56 tackles, five sacks and a team-high 11 QB pressures.

Terry holds a B.S. degree in political science with a minor in African-American studies; he is currently working on a master's degree in management at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

An all-state selection at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School, he also lettered in track, basketball and lacrosse.

Born July 26, 1974, in Hempstead, N.Y., Terry resides in Green Bay. He has a daughter, Zoe, 10, and two sons, Timothy II, 7, and Jayden, 3. In his spare time, he enjoys playing pool, golf and basketball.

SHAUN HEROCK

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING (MIDWEST)

Shaun Herock, the Packers' longest-tenured college scout in terms of continuous service, begins his 19th season with Green Bay and his 11th year as the team's assistant director of college scouting.

Herock, who became a full-time scout for the Packers in 1994, was named to his current position on May 14, 2001, taking on additional duties in the management of the club's college scouting operations.

Continuing to serve as the Packers' Midwest region scout, Herock this season embarks upon his 23rd year overall in scouting. Earlier, as a youth, Herock worked summers as a ball boy for both the then-Los Angeles Raiders and the Atlanta Falcons.

The 41-year-old Herock began his NFL scouting career by serving four consecutive internships in the Falcons' scouting department during college (1989-92). He followed that up by working as an intern for the Packers in the summer and fall of 1993, joining Green Bay's scouting staff on a full-time basis on Jan. 1, 1994. His scouting work this season will be in preparation for his 19th college draft.

A four-time letterman (1990-93) who started for 3½ years on the offensive line at the University of Richmond, Herock played center his first two seasons and offensive tackle during his junior and senior years. He graduated from the school in 1993 with a degree in sociology.

Born July 5, 1970, in Pittsburgh, Herock began his prep career at Tarpon Springs (Fla.) High School, where he played two seasons (1986-87) on the offensive and defensive lines. After transferring to Milton High School in Atlanta in 1988 for his junior year, Herock participated in both football and track. During 1988 and '89, Herock played center and offensive tackle, in addition to competing in the shot put during the spring.

Herock and his wife, Mia, live in De Pere, Wis., with their three sons, Shaun, 13, Anthony, 9, and Christopher, 7. In his spare time, Herock enjoys fishing, hunting and spending time with his family.

DANNY MOCK

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Now enjoying his 15th season with the Packers and 32nd in the NFL, Danny Mock is responsible for a variety of scouting services as the team's college scouting coordinator. Mock's duties include tracking Green Bay's scouts who scour the country looking for players, assigning scouting visits to colleges and heading in the computer operations for the team's annual draft preparations.

Mock gained his first NFL experience as a member of the Atlanta Falcons' grounds crew from 1980-85. In addition to his duties on the field, Mock served as a film assistant from 1983-86. Following three seasons in the film department, the NFL moved to video and Mock was promoted to assistant video director by the Falcons in 1986.

After serving two years in that capacity, Mock turned to the player personnel side of football. For the following nine seasons (1988-96), he acted as the administrative assistant in the Falcons' player personnel department.

Having lived in the South his entire life, Mock headed north when he was named the Packers' college scouting coordinator by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf on June 28, 1997.

The 50-year-old Mock attended Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College (1981-82) in Tifton, Ga., majoring in turf management and business.

Mock had earlier attended Gilbert (Ariz.) High School while growing up in the Phoenix area. He graduated from Duluth (Ga.) High School, where he lettered three times for the basketball team. During his sophomore basketball season, Mock was a teammate of 1980 Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers, who later would go on to star in football at the University of South Carolina and play seven seasons in the NFL. Mock also was elected team captain in basketball for his senior season, leading the school to the state quarterfinals.

Mock is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association, acting as the Packers' liaison to the latter organization. In 2008, he was awarded the Dave McClain Distinguished Service Award by the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association for his outstanding service to football in Wisconsin. He also serves as the video cameraman for the De Pere High School football team and has coached a girls' summer basketball team in his spare time.

Mock is a fan of local sports teams, including the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay's women's and men's basketball teams, and the Milwaukee Brewers. He also follows the Atlanta Braves.

Born May 16, 1961, in Statesville, N.C., Mock has two daughters, Elizabeth, 21, and Sarah, 18, and resides in De Pere, Wis.

LEE GISSENDANER

COLLEGE SCOUT (NORTHEAST)

Now in his 11th season as a college scout in the Northeast region, Lee Gissendanar begins his 14th season overall with the Green Bay Packers.

Named to his current position on May 15, 2001, Gissendanar originally joined the Packers in 1998 as the team's representative in the National Scouting Service and authored preliminary evaluations of all prospective seniors in upcoming NFL drafts during his initial three seasons with the club.

The 39-year-old Gissendanar began his post-football career by serving as a graduate assistant coach for Kent State University (1997) while working toward his master's degree. He subsequently was named to a scouting position with the Packers on July 8, 1998, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

A four-year letterman (1990-93) and three-year starter at wide receiver for Northwestern University, Gissendanar led the NCAA in punt return average (21.8 yards) in 1992. That year, he also was named Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten Conference, was a first-team All-Big Ten selection and was voted as Northwestern's team MVP. Gissendanar was named to the Big Ten's 100-Year Anniversary Team during the conference's centennial celebration in 1995.

Gissendanar graduated from Northwestern in 1994 with a degree in organizational management, and earned his master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1998.

Originally chosen in the sixth round of the 1994 NFL Draft by the then-Houston Oilers, Gissendanar was released that year at the conclusion of training camp. He then spent the 1995 season with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL and the summer of 1996 with the Scottish Claymores of the then-World League.

In the fall of 1996, Gissendanar returned to the U.S. and went to training camp with the Vikings, eventually spending parts of the '96 NFL season on Minnesota's practice squad.

A four-year letterman at Stow (Ohio) Monroe Falls High School, Gissendanar was selected All-Summit County, all-metro area and team MVP at wide receiver during his senior season. A two-time all-metro pole vaulter, he earned three additional varsity letters in track. Gissendanar was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2002.

In 1999, Gissendanar's accomplishments and community efforts were recognized as he was inducted into the City of Akron/Summit County Sports Hall of Fame.

Gissendanar was born Oct. 25, 1971, in Akron, Ohio. He and his wife, Jamie, reside in Wilmington, Del., with their daughter, Leah, 3. His hobbies include traveling, drawing, listening to music and reading — mainly biographies and other nonfiction. Gissendanar also works as a motivational speaker for youth, focusing on the importance of setting goals.

BRIAN GUTEKUNST

COLLEGE SCOUT (SOUTHEAST)

Enjoying his 13th season as a college scout with the Green Bay Packers, Brian Gutekunst enters his 11th year scouring the all-important Southeast region. Previously a scout for the East Coast region for two years (1999-2000), Gutekunst was assigned his current responsibilities on May 15, 2001.

Possessor of prior professional scouting and college coaching experience upon joining Green Bay on a full-time basis late in 1998, Gutekunst gained his first NFL experience in the summer of 1995, when he assisted the coaching staff of the New Orleans Saints with the offensive line during training camp. Gutekunst's initial exposure to the Packers came in the summer of 1997, when he worked as an intern in the team's scouting department.

His first full-time appointment in professional scouting was in 1998 as a scouting assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs. After one year with the Chiefs, Gutekunst returned to the Packers when he was named as a college scout for the East Coast on Dec. 30, 1998, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

The 38-year-old Gutekunst earlier had played two years of college football for the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse.

He then became an assistant coach for the team during his final two years at the school (1995-96) after a shoulder injury cut short his playing career. Serving as a linebackers coach during the 1995 season, he helped the school to the Division III national championship as the Eagles finished with an unblemished record of 14-0. Gutekunst majored in sports management.

Gutekunst prepped at Robbinsdale Armstrong High School in Plymouth, Minn., where he lettered four years for the football team as a quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. An all-region and all-conference performer in football during his junior and senior seasons, he also earned two letters as a guard for the basketball team.

His father, John, is a coaching veteran, and is currently the secondary coach at Columbia University. The elder Gutekunst previously was the head coach at the University of Minnesota from 1985-92, taking over the reins of the Golden Gophers program when Lou Holtz left to assume the head coaching position at Notre Dame.

Gutekunst was born July 19, 1973, in Raleigh, N.C. He and his wife, Jen, reside in Raleigh with their daughters, Marley, 6, Joie, 5, infant Kacey, and son, Michael, 2. In his spare time, Gutekunst enjoys playing golf, reading and spending time at the beach.

ALONZO HIGHSMITH

COLLEGE SCOUT (SOUTHWEST)

An NFL player for seven seasons, Alonzo Highsmith is now in his 13th year on the Green Bay Packers' college scouting staff, maintaining primary responsibility for the Southwest region.

Named to his current position by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf on Feb. 1, 1999, Highsmith originally had entered the professional ranks as the third overall pick in the 1987 NFL Draft by the then-Houston Oilers, behind only college teammate Vinny Testaverde (Tampa Bay) and Cornelius Bennett (Indianapolis).

The 46-year-old Highsmith began his pro career by playing three seasons in Houston (1987-89), starting 40 straight games with the Oilers. Following offseason knee surgery, he was traded to the Dallas Cowboys prior to the 1990 campaign.

He was with Dallas for a season-and-a-half before being waived by the Cowboys on Oct. 4, 1991. Claimed by Tampa Bay, Highsmith spent the remainder of his pro career with the Buccaneers. Due to a series of knee injuries, he retired from the NFL at the end of the 1992 season.

Highsmith's NFL totals include 65 games played, 283 rushing attempts for 1,195 yards (4.2 avg.) and seven touchdowns. He also made 42 receptions for 428 yards (10.2 avg.) and three TDs during the course of his pro career. After the conclusion of Highsmith's NFL career in 1992, he turned his sights to boxing. As a professional boxer, he competed as a heavyweight across the country, compiling a 27-1-1 career record over a four-year period.

Earlier a four-time letterman (1983-86) for the University of Miami (Fla.), Highsmith was a member of the 1983 Hurricanes squad that captured the collegiate national championship with a 31-30 triumph over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. As a sophomore in 1984, he led Miami in rushing — 906 yards on 146 carries (6.2 avg.) — and repeated that feat during his senior season, gaining 442 yards on 105 attempts (4.2 avg.). Highsmith graduated in 1987 with a degree in business administration.

Highsmith was the 1982 Florida high school Defensive Player of the Year as a linebacker at Christopher Columbus High School in Miami, where he was a teammate of former Alabama head coach and current Carolina Panthers quarterbacks coach Mike Shula. A three-time letterwinner for the school's basketball team as a guard, Highsmith also competed in the 100- and 200-meter races in track for three years.

Highsmith was born Feb. 26, 1965, in Bartow, Fla. He and his wife, Denise, are the parents of three children, Alonzo, 21, A.J., 20, and Jordan, 17. Highsmith has two other children, Jasmine, 25, and Brandon, 23. Brandon (Thermilus) played collegiately as a running back at the University of Buffalo, Alonzo is a junior linebacker at the University of Arkansas and A.J. is a junior defensive back at the University of Miami. Highsmith resides in Missouri City, Texas, and enjoys playing golf in his spare time.

SAM SEALE

COLLEGE SCOUT (WEST COAST)

Sam Seale, a 10-year NFL veteran as a player, heads into his 16th season scouting college players for the Packers, his first post in player personnel. Hired on July 22, 1995, he maintains primary focus on the West Coast region.

The 48-year-old Seale began his NFL playing career after being picked in the eighth round of the 1984 draft by the then-Los Angeles Raiders. After one year as a wide receiver (1984) and three seasons as a defensive back/kick returner (1985-87) for the Silver and Black, Seale headed south to play for the San Diego Chargers for the next four seasons (1988-91).

After becoming a full-time starter (at cornerback) for the first time in his pro career in 1989, Seale appeared in all 16 games for San Diego in both 1990 and '91. He then returned to the Los Angeles area in 1992 to play one additional season for the Raiders and his final year in the NFL (1993) with the then-Los Angeles Rams.

In 121 career games, he recorded 11 interceptions, returning one for a touchdown in 1985. He also scored once on a fumble recovery (in 1988 with San Diego).

A four-time letterman (1980-83) as a running back for Western State College (Colo.), Seale averaged 5.3 yards per carry as a collegian while leading the team twice each in rushing and receiving. He also earned NAIA All-America honors in track, competing in the 60-, 100- and 200-meter events. The political science major was an All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference pick two seasons in football and four times in track. He was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

While attending Orange (N.J.) High School, Seale was an all-state performer in football his senior year and in track as a junior and senior. He earned four letters as a running back/defensive back for the football team while also lettering twice in track as a sprinter.

Seale was born Oct. 6, 1962, on the island of Barbados in the West Indies. He and his wife, Elizabeth, have two sons, Ricky (Sam Jr.), 19, and Samir, 17, and a daughter, Shi-Ann, 12. Ricky is the all-time leading rusher in San Diego prep history and is entering his sophomore season at Stanford University.

Seale resides in San Diego, and enjoys reading, bowling, playing golf and participating in a variety of other sports.

JON-ERIC SULLIVAN

COLLEGE SCOUT (MIDLANDS)

Jon-Eric Sullivan in 2011 begins his eighth season as a college scout for the Packers, and his fourth as an area scout.

Sullivan previously served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authored evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region, a role since filled by Richmond Williams.

Sullivan joined the team's football operations department on July 12, 2004, having previously served as a scouting intern during the team's 2003 training camp.

The 35-year-old Sullivan played his junior and senior seasons (1998-99) as a wide receiver at Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs, N.C. As a senior, he was named to the all-conference team after leading the Bulldogs with 43 receptions. Previously, he played at the University of South Carolina from 1995-97 before transferring to Gardner-Webb.

Sullivan attended high school at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy, the same institution from which Packers director of college scouting John Dorsey matriculated. Sullivan was an all-state defensive back his junior year, pacing state players with nine interceptions, and then an all-state receiver as a senior. Sullivan lettered twice in football, while also receiving two letters each in indoor and outdoor track. As a senior, he was all-state in track as a member of the state champion 400-meter relay team.

Following his college football career, Sullivan served as a student-assistant receivers coach at Gardner-Webb for one season. Though officially listed as a student-assistant, he actually served as the primary position coach for the receivers.

Sullivan obtained a B.A. degree in social science from Gardner-Webb in December 2000, and then worked three years (2001-04) for GMAC's sales and credit administration departments before joining the Packers' staff.

His father, Jerry Sullivan, retired after the 2010 season following a 20-year career as an NFL assistant coach, serving most recently as the wide receivers coach/senior assistant for the San Francisco 49ers.

Born Aug. 10, 1976, in Columbia, S.C., Sullivan married the former Jennifer Hoener in June 2006. The couple resides in Austin, Texas. His hobbies include traveling and working out.

RICHMOND WILLIAMS

COLLEGE SCOUTING (NATIONAL FOOTBALL SCOUTING)

Richmond Williams in 2011 enters his fourth year with the Packers. Williams serves as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authors evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region. He spent the 2007 training camp as a scouting intern with the Packers.

Also in 2007, Williams volunteered as an assistant in the football office at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. His duties included helping coaches plan their recruiting trips and breaking down defensive game film.

Prior to working in the football office, the 27-year-old Williams lettered two years as a cornerback for Iowa. He earned the Iowa "Team Leader" award all four years of his career, given by the coaching staff to the player who made high contributions on scout and special teams during weekly preparation. Williams was teammates with current Seahawks/former Packers DT Colin Cole, as well as several other NFL players, including S Bob Sanders (Indianapolis) and G Robert Gallery (Oakland). In 2006, Williams earned a B.A. in economics, as well as a certificate of entrepreneurship.

Williams is the brother-in-law of Cole, and is the director of football operations for the Cole Group, an organization formed by Colin and his wife, Kay, that provides consultation services to high school student-athletes. Williams' duties include designing football camps and making preparations for seminars.

Born Nov. 11, 1983, in Aiken, S.C., Williams was a two-sport athlete in football and track and field at North Augusta (S.C.) High School. He played cornerback and wide receiver, and was a state-champion long jumper as a senior, also participating in the 4x100-meter relay. Williams was named to the Who's Who in Scholar Student-Athletes in 2001, and was named North Augusta's Star Student-Athlete of the Week.

Williams has stayed active in the community by coaching a Little League football team, reading to elementary school students, and working at a literacy summer camp.

Nicknamed "Richey," Williams is single and resides in Dallas, Texas. He enjoys playing basketball and watching movies.

CHAD BRINKER

SCOUTING ASSISTANT

Chad Brinker enters his second season with the Packers' pro personnel department after joining the team on Jan. 31, 2010. In his role, Brinker assists player personnel in various areas, including evaluating both college and professional players, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, in-season tryouts, and attending college pro days.

The 30-year old Brinker originally entered the NFL in 2003 as a non-drafted free agent out of Ohio University with the New York Jets. He scored two touchdowns in preseason play before being waived in the team's final roster reduction. Brinker was re-signed by the Jets following the '03 season and was allocated to NFL Europe. He lined up at running back for the Cologne Centurions during the 2004 season, averaging 5.7 yards per carry, before suffering a concussion in his third contest. He was placed on injured reserve and was later released by the Jets.

Brinker was a four-year starter and two-time All-MAC selection at running back for the Ohio Bobcats. As a senior, he ran for a career-best 1,099 yards and remains Ohio's fifth all-time leading rusher with 2,826 career yards. His 30 total touchdowns rank second in school history, and he also remains among the Bobcats' all-time top five in nearly every rushing category in school history despite missing all but the first four games of his junior season after having an arachnoid cyst removed from his skull.

Brinker also competed in track during the spring at Ohio, running the 60-meter indoor and 100-meter outdoor. He received a degree in exercise science, and is currently working toward his master's degree via correspondence through Ohio's nationally renowned sports administration program.

Following his football career, Brinker entered the business world, working for Merck as a pharmaceutical sales representative and then later as an account manager for Stryker Medical. His passion for football never left him as he remained close to the game by also serving as the radio color analyst for Ohio University football from 2006-08. During the 2009 season, he was an assistant football coach at Westerville Central High School in Columbus, Ohio, coaching running backs and defensive backs, as well as assisting with the strength and conditioning program.

A four-year letterman at Martins Ferry (Ohio) High School, Brinker was a finalist for the Mr. Ohio Football Award and USA Today All-American. The two-time first-team all-state selection also lettered multiple times in basketball, baseball, and track.

Brinker was born Nov. 5, 1979, in Wheeling, W.Va. He and his wife, Rachelle, reside in De Pere, Wis. Brinker enjoys strength training, reading and writing, traveling, snowboarding and hiking.

A veteran in his area of expertise, Gordon "Red" Batty is in his 18th season as equipment manager of the Green Bay Packers.

Batty is responsible for properly outfitting players with the safest and most advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel. Immediately prior to joining the Packers, he had spent 13 seasons (1981-93) in the same position with the then-Houston Oilers.

Long regarded as one of the best in the business, Batty was voted the NFL's "Equipment Manager of the Year" by his peers in 2002 at their annual meetings.

A 52-year-old native of Montreal, Batty remarkably is in his 39th season in the equipment field. He began his career in 1973 at age 14 as a ball boy for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. Six years later, he was elevated to the position of equipment manager for the Alouettes. During Batty's tenure in Montreal, the Alouettes won two Grey Cups (1974 and '77).

Batty subsequently joined the Oilers in June 1981, in the process becoming the NFL's youngest equipment manager at age 22. He also purports to be the first native-born Canadian to garner both a Grey Cup and Super Bowl ring, and he now has two of each, the latter distinction earned when the Packers captured Super Bowls XXXI and XLV with Batty in charge of the team's equipment. He has also worked two Pro Bowls, most recently in 2008.

Upon being named to the Packers' staff on Jan. 24, 1994, Batty became only the fifth person in club history to hold the title of equipment manager. He was born Nov. 18, 1958, in Montreal. Batty (pronounced BATT-ee) and his wife, Joanne, have a daughter, Chelsei, 20, and a son, Cameron, 15.

Since 1994, Batty has served as the equipment coordinator for what is now known as the NFL Players Rookie Premiere preseason event. Batty is given the duty of communicating with each rookie invitee's team equipment manager to secure equipment and jerseys utilized for trading-card photo shoots.

A devout hockey fan, Batty has also worked several NHL events over the years. He continues to play hockey himself.

RED BATTY

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

One of the more visible people in the organization, Pepper Burruss embarks upon his 19th season as the club's head trainer, his 35th in the NFL overall. Overseer of the team's medical care on a daily basis, Burruss, a certified athletic trainer and physical therapist, joined Green Bay in 1993 following 16 seasons with the New York Jets as an assistant athletic trainer.

The 57-year-old Burruss was hired by the Jets in 1977 after receiving his B.S. degree in physical therapy from Northwestern University Medical School. One year earlier, he had graduated with honors from Purdue University, where he earned a B.A. degree in health and safety education. At Purdue, Burruss was fortunate to be a student trainer working under a legend in the field, the late William "Pinky" Newell.

The Jets' training staff twice was honored during his stint with the team. In 1985, the unit was the first-ever recipient of the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year award, given by peers. The staff was honored again at the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) clinical symposium in 1994 by former Jets defensive lineman Dennis Byrd, who credited the team's emergency care as a contributing factor in his miraculous recovery from quadriplegia. Byrd had suffered a fractured neck after an on-field collision in a 1992 game against Kansas City at the Meadowlands.

Burruss has been involved in multiple head, neck and spinal-care initiatives. In 2010, he was chosen by the NFL to represent the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) on the league's Head, Neck and Spine Medical Committee, which led to his subsequent serving on both the Equipment Standards and Return to Play Criterion subcommittees.

Professionally, Burruss has served two terms on the executive committee of the PFATS, first as an AFC assistant athletic trainer representative, then as the NFC head athletic trainer representative.

A product of Wappingers Falls, N.Y., where he attended Ketcham High School, Burruss was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2000, and in 2011, he was also inducted into the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers Association (WATA) Hall of Fame.

Born Thomas Pepper Burruss on April 15, 1954, in Beacon, N.Y., he and his wife, Nancy, have a son, Shane, 22, and a daughter, Christina, 17.

Also a medical practitioner, Nancy has her Ph.D. from Indiana University and is a professor at the Bellin College in Green Bay, where she is also the director of the undergraduate nursing program.

Burruss himself currently serves on the corporate board of the Curative Rehabilitation Center in Green Bay and is active in the Packers' annual "Rebuilding Together" (formerly "Christmas in May") house-renovation project, serving as a house co-captain.

ROB DAVIS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Rob Davis, a 12-year NFL veteran, enters his fourth year as the team's director of player development. Before being named to his new position, he had spent the previous 11 seasons as the Packers' long snapper, before retiring in March of '08. He was named director of player development on March 26, 2008, by Ted Thompson, Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations.

As the director of player development, Davis is vital in maintaining locker-room cohesiveness and overall player health. He assists players in acclimating to their roles, both on and off the field and in the Green Bay community.

Davis also oversees the Packers' wide range of programs designed to meet the needs of players and their families in today's NFL. The department provides a framework of assistance within which players and their immediate family members can address the pressures created by daily life and complicated by the demands of playing professional football. The program is also set up to get players prepared for life after football, and helps players seek educational and vocational opportunities. Davis is working on a new program called "Transition After the Game," designed to help current players acquire skills and contacts needed for post-football job placement. He is also developing a mentorship program, aimed to join Packers players with professional mentors in the community.

Davis served as the Packers' long snapper for 11 seasons and played in 167 straight games in a Green Bay uniform, the third-longest streak in team history. Only Brett Favre (255) and Forrest Gregg (187) played in more consecutive games for the Packers than Davis.

He worked three years for an opportunity to play in the NFL, spending two training camps with the N.Y. Jets (1993-94), a year with the CFL's Baltimore Stallions (1995) and a preseason with Kansas City (1996). In 1996, Davis signed with Chicago and played all 16 games as the team's long snapper. Released by the Bears near the end of the '97 training camp, he signed with Green Bay in November and handled all long-snapping duties the last seven regular-season games, as well as all three playoff contests, including Super Bowl XXXII.

The 42-year-old Davis was named the Packers' player representative in 2005, which entails being a liaison between the players and the union and relaying proper information to the players including rights and benefits. Prior to 2005, he was an alternate player representative for five seasons.

Davis became the first player ever from Shippensburg (Pa.) University to play in the NFL and was named to the school's athletic hall of fame in October 2003. Accompanying his induction, he also became the first player to have his jersey retired by Shippensburg in any sport.

MIKE EAYRS

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Now enjoying his 11th year in Green Bay, Mike Eayrs is the Packers' director of research and development.

Named to the newly created position within the Packers' organizational structure on March 9, 2001, Eayrs had spent the previous 16 seasons on the football staff of the Minnesota Vikings.

Eayrs manages databases and develops research reports for coaches, player personnel and management based on the analysis of statistical and tactical trends.

Having developed computer applications within football for 30 years, Eayrs (pronounced A-ers) is in his 27th season working in the NFL, having spent the first 16 as director of research and development for the Vikings. During his Minnesota tenure, the club tallied 201 victories and appeared in three NFC Championship games (1987, '98 and 2000).

Also a 13-year coaching veteran, including 11 seasons at the college level, Eayrs earned a bachelor's degree in social studies and physical education from Augsburg College in Minneapolis, where he participated in football.

The 60-year-old Eayrs began his coaching career in Winnebago, Minn., before becoming an assistant coach at the University of South Dakota two years later in 1974. He subsequently coached at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse (1975-80), Mankato State University (1981-83) and Luther College (1984) before joining the Vikings. During his 11 seasons in the college ranks, Eayrs' teams won five conference championships and he received four teaching excellence awards.

Born Jan. 30, 1951, in West Concord, Minn., Eayrs also holds a master's degree in physical education from the University of South Dakota and an education doctorate in physical education and recreation management from the University of Oregon.

Eayrs and his wife, Mary Jo, reside in Green Bay and have three children: Matthew, 33, Elizabeth, 31, and Brian, 29; the couple has a granddaughter, Ashlyn, 3. In his spare time, Eayrs is an avid reader and enjoys fitness.

Now in his 11th season as Green Bay's video director, Bob Eckberg is enjoying his 30th year with the Packers overall.

In 2001, Eckberg became only the second full-time video director in franchise history.

Having served as Green Bay's assistant video director since 1982, he took over for the retired Al Tremblé, who since 1967 had headed up the club's filming/taping operations.

In his position, Eckberg oversees the production and editing of all game and practice tapes for the coaching and personnel staffs, as well as the regular exchange of video with other teams. In addition, he is in charge of the purchase and maintenance of the team's vast array of video equipment.

The 60-year-old Eckberg also directs the video department's taping of all workouts on prospective players and maintains a video library of all games for the previous three years. Additionally, the video staff compiles college-player profile tapes for use during NFL Draft preparation. Eckberg also attends and shoots video of prospective players at the NFL Scouting Combine, held every February in Indianapolis.

Eckberg began his career with the Packers in the early 1970s while working in the photo department of WBAY-TV in Green Bay. While employed at the station, Eckberg helped process all of the Packers' game film and in 1976 started shooting end-zone angle coaching film for home games played in Green Bay and Milwaukee. In the early 1980s, videotape technology became standard in the television industry, and the Packers purchased the film-lab setup from WBAY and hired Eckberg as assistant video director in 1982.

In addition to almost three decades of NFL games, Eckberg also has shot numerous postseason games, including the 1987 Hula Bowl, the 1982, 1987 and 2001 Senior Bowls, the 2005 Cactus Bowl, the 2008 Pro Bowl, and Super Bowls XXXI, XXXII and XLV. In addition, he served the NFL video directors during the 2000 season as a member of the quality-control committee.

Born Oct. 10, 1950, in Green Bay, Eckberg is a 1969 graduate of the city's Premontre High School. He and his wife, Terri, also a Green Bay native, enjoy spending time with their children and grandchildren at their family cabin in northern Wisconsin.

THADEUS JACKSON

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Hired in advance of the team's offseason training program in 2010 as strength and conditioning assistant,

Thadeus Jackson enters his second year with the Packers. His primary duties include designing, organizing and executing strength and conditioning procedures, as well as assisting with practice and assisting the defensive staff on game days.

Prior to coming to the Packers, Jackson spent 2009 as the head strength and conditioning coach at Hinds Community College (Raymond, Miss.), the same school where he started his career. He developed all strength and conditioning and speed programs for the football team, and also assisted with the on-field coaching of the wide receivers.

Jackson started his career in sports at Hinds as a student athletic trainer from 2000-2001, working with the football, baseball, track and field and basketball teams. He also assisted with the strength and conditioning program, specifically offseason workouts. During his first stint at Hinds, he worked with future Iowa quarterback and 2002 Heisman Trophy runner-up Brad Banks.

Following the completion of his associate's degree at Hinds, Jackson moved on to the University of Alabama, and served as a student athletic trainer from 2002-05. In 2005, he was hired as a strength and conditioning assistant at Alabama, spending the majority of his time with the football program. During his time at the school, Jackson worked with numerous future NFL players, including DeMeco Ryans (Houston), Brodie Croyle (Kansas City) and Packers safety Charlie Peprah.

While still working at Alabama, Jackson got his first NFL experience, serving as an athletic training intern for the New England Patriots during the team's 2003 training camp.

Jackson left Alabama in 2007 to serve as a manager and training coordinator at Young Champions Academy in Waco, Texas. He developed and coordinated programs designed to teach children basic coordination, movement, and sports-specific skills. He also made staff schedules, gave tours and assisted in marketing and advertising for the academy.

The 31-year-old Jackson holds a B.S. in science from the University of Alabama and is currently working toward his M.S. in strength and conditioning, which he started at Jackson State University (Jackson, Miss.).

Jackson attended New Hope High School in Columbus, Miss., starting three years and earning two letters as a defensive back. He was named team captain as a senior.

Born Sept. 1, 1980, in Columbus, Miss., Jackson is single and resides in De Pere, Wis. In his spare time, he enjoys cooking, hunting, fishing, traveling and working out. He is also an avid reader and enjoys books about leadership, health, and strength and conditioning.

MATT KLEIN

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION COORDINATOR

in January 2006, Klein, 35, previously served as assistant director of football administration. He originally joined the Packers as administrative assistant/football in 1999, when he first worked with McCarthy, who was then serving as the team's quarterbacks coach.

Responsible for coordinating all facets of the team's daily operations, including the coaching staff's schedule, Klein serves as a point of communication in administering every Packers practice and team function, including offseason mini-camps, organized team activities and the annual training camp. Additionally, Klein serves as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, equipment, public relations and video departments.

Klein also arranges team travel for the club's away games; his duties include coordinating air and ground transportation, and securing hotel accommodations for the team, coaching staff and traveling support-staff members. In 2010, he served as part of a group of team staffers that helped plan the arrangements needed to move the organization's operations to North Texas for the week leading up to Super Bowl XLV.

Born Aug. 29, 1976, in Clintonville, Wis., Klein spent five seasons working with Barry Alvarez's football staff at the University of Wisconsin. He contributed to a program that earned berths in four bowls, including a victory in the Rose Bowl after the '98 season.

Klein left school early to accept a position with the Packers in 1999. He completed his coursework at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and earned his bachelor's degree in marketing, with a minor in economics.

Klein and his wife, Leah, live in Green Bay with their two sons, Nathan, 9, and Owen, 6.

A friend of fellow Wisconsin native Matt Kenseth, a top-ranked Sprint Cup competitor, Klein enjoys closely following NASCAR. He also devotes much of his spare time to reading and spending time with his family.

ZAC WOODFIN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Hired on Feb. 22, 2011, Zac Woodfin enters his first season with the Packers as strength and conditioning assistant. His primary duties include designing, organizing and implementing strength and conditioning programs as well as speed and agility sessions.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, Woodfin served as a performance specialist at Athletes' Performance in Los Angeles since 2007, where he trained various NFL, NBA, MLB, and Olympic athletes. His main focus was NFL veterans in the offseason as well as college athletes preparing for the NFL Combine. Woodfin also gained experience training tactical athletes of the United States Special Forces while at Athletes' Performance.

Before that, Woodfin worked at his alma mater, the University of Alabama at Birmingham, as well as the University of Alabama, in 2007. At UAB, he assisted with the head football, men's and women's basketball, as well as the track and field programs. Woodfin was a volunteer assistant for Alabama's football team, assisting the head strength coach with the team's in-season program.

Woodfin got his start in the field as an intern at UAB in 2006 when he helped supervise the speed, agility and strength training for the football team. He also interned briefly at Athletes' Performance in '07.

As a player, Woodfin entered the NFL in April 2005 with the Packers as a non-drafted free agent linebacker out of UAB. He was released by Green Bay in the final roster cut-down, but spent the first seven games of the season on the Packers' practice squad. Woodfin also spent time on the practice squads of New Orleans and Baltimore in '05, and was signed to the Ravens' active roster toward the end of the season. He was also with the Houston Texans briefly in the summer of 2007.

Woodfin was selected in the first round of the NFL Europe Draft by Frankfurt in 2007, and started for a Galaxy team that advanced to the World Bowl that season.

Woodfin finished his career at UAB as the school's all-time leading tackler with 372, a mark that still stands today, and earned first-team All-Conference USA honors as a junior and senior. He recorded a school-record 149 tackles in 2003, topping the mark he had set in 2002 (120).

The 28-year-old Woodfin holds a B.S. in exercise science from UAB. He attended Prattville (Ala.) High School, where he earned all-state and all-metro honors as a senior. A four-time letterman, he also played fullback and tight end in high school.

Woodfin was born March 19, 1983, in Montgomery, Ala. He and his wife, Fawn, reside in Green Bay. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking, mountain biking, golf, traveling, reading, working out, and spending time with family and friends.

GREEN BAY'S UNIQUE TRAINING-CAMP EXPERIENCE

The Packers are one of a growing number of teams who do not leave their regular-season practice facility during training camp.

But beyond practice and meetings, the team does use a college setting to sleep, bunking at St. Norbert College in De Pere, a 10-minute drive from Lambeau Field.

The Packers' 54-year training-camp relationship with St. Norbert, launched in 1958 by head coach Scooter McLean, is the longest in league history. The Vikings (Minnesota State-Mankato, 47 years) and Steelers (St. Vincent College, Latrobe, Pa., 44 years) are the only other teams with comparable training-camp tenures. The Packers' full list of training-camp sites, since Curly Lambeau launched the tradition in 1946:

- 1946-49 Rockwood Lodge (Bayshore area, north of Green Bay)
- 1950 Northland Hotel (Green Bay)
- 1951-53 Grand Rapids, Minn.
- 1954-57 University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point
- 1958-present St. Norbert College, De Pere, Wis.

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 238 • Born: July 24, 1984 • NFL Games Played/Started: 56/13 • Acquired: D6b-07

CAREER: A core member of the Packers' special teams in his first three seasons, moved into a starting role at "Mack" linebacker in 2010 for the final 12 games and all four postseason contests following Nick Barnett's season-ending wrist injury...Recorded career highs in nearly every statistical category, finishing second on the team in tackles with 121 (82 solo) while adding three sacks and an interception that he returned for his first career TD...Led the linebackers and finished fourth on the team with a career-high 10 passes defended, the most by a Green Bay LB since John Anderson registered 15 in 1981...Led the team with a career-high 22 tackles on special teams in 2009, and his 50 stops from 2007-10 were tied for the most by a Packer (Jarrett Bush) over that span...Saw limited action on the inside as a backup at "Buck" linebacker in '09, but also got time as the fifth linebacker when the team employed its "Psycho" package...Started to see more extensive action in 2008 as his duties expanded from strictly middle linebacker to include some work at the weak-side spot as well...Got one start at WLB in Week 14 vs. Houston and posted 12 tackles, including eight solo, and two forced fumbles, along with his first career sack...Led the Packers with three forced fumbles in 2008...After battling an Achilles injury during training camp in '08, came on strong in the final two preseason games to keep his roster spot and stayed relatively healthy in his second season, unlike his first when he missed four games because of a shoulder injury...Began coming into his own late in his rookie year, making four special teams tackles in one game at St. Louis (Dec. 16, 2007)...Had a notable rookie preseason, leading the team with 18 tackles and starting once in the middle for Barnett (coach's decision)...Productivity was evident in college at Cal, leading the team in tackles both his seasons there...Also led the Pacific-10 Conference in 2006 with 126 tackles, the most tackles recorded by a Cal player since Jerrott Willard in 1993; was the first Cal player to lead the conference in tackles since then...Most likely fell to the sixth round in the draft because of less-than-ideal speed for his position, but makes up for that with instincts and strength...Did 33 reps of 225 pounds on the bench press at the combine...Started all 25 games he appeared in at Cal (after transferring from junior college), collecting 215 tackles (125 solo), 21 stops for loss, three sacks, three interceptions, four passes defended, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries...Ninth player from Cal drafted by the Packers and second in three-year period, joining QB Aaron Rodgers (D1-05).

2010 SEASON: Played in 15 games with a career-best 12 starts, opening the final 12 games, and also started all four playoff contests...Finished second on the team with a career-high 121 tackles (82 solo) and added career bests in sacks (three) and passes defended (10) while also recording his first career INT (returned for TD)...Led the team with 30 tackles (26 solo) in the postseason and paced the squad with two fumble recoveries...Added a sack, a forced fumble and a pass defended in the playoffs...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Was inactive for the first time since at Tennessee (Nov. 2, 2008) due to a hamstring injury that he originally sustained during the preseason. Aggravated the

- Started the final 12 games of the season in 2010 and finished second on the team with 121 tackles (82 solo), three sacks and an interception, all career highs.
- Led the linebackers with a career-high 10 passes defended in 2010, the most by a Green Bay LB since John Anderson registered 15 in 1981.
- Paced the team with a career-high 22 special teams tackles in 2009, and his 50 tackles on special teams from 2007-10 were tied for the team lead (Jarrett Bush) over that span.
- Led the Pacific-10 in tackles in 2006 with 126, the first Cal player to lead the conference in 13 years.
- Physically strong and powerful, having bench-pressed 225 pounds 33 times at the NFL Scouting Combine.
- Father, Dennis, played football collegiately at Illinois and professionally in the USFL.

injury in the season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12)...At Washington (Oct. 10): Started at "Mack" LB in place of an injured Barnett, the second start of his career and first since vs. Houston (Dec. 7, 2008). Responded with 13 tackles (10 solo), a sack, a tackle for loss, three QB hits and a pass defended. Drilled QB Donovan McNabb for an 8-yard sack on the Redskins' final drive of the first half...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Followed up his strong performance at Washington with a career-best 16 tackles (seven solo), and added a QB hit and a pass defended...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Posted 11 tackles (six solo) and the first INT of his career that he returned 32 yards for a TD. Picked off QB Brett Favre in the third quarter and went untouched into the end zone to give Green Bay a 28-17 lead. Stayed with WR Randy Moss, his coverage assignment, despite a pump fake by Favre. Also put a hit on Moss on the final play of the game to help break up a Favre pass to the back of the end zone, preserving the 28-24 win...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Led the team with 13 tackles (12 solo) and matched his career high with two passes defended...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Sacked QB Jon Kitna for a 9-yard loss in the third quarter, forcing a fumble that was recovered by RB Felix Jones...Vs. Atlanta (Nov. 28): Paced the team with 13 tackles (eight solo)...At New England (Dec. 19): Sacked QB Tom Brady for a 10-yard loss early in the second quarter, forcing a fumble that Brady recovered...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Matched his career high with two passes defended and added eight tackles (four solo)...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Set the tone for the game when he came untouched off the right edge to sack QB Michael Vick for a 9-yard loss on the opening play from scrimmage...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Led the team with nine tackles (seven solo) and added a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. In the fourth quarter, hit WR Michael Jenkins after a 3-yard catch, jarring the ball loose before recovering at the Atlanta 33 to set up a 32-yard Mason Crosby FG...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Finished second on the team with nine tackles (eight solo), including three for a loss while adding a critical fumble recovery. Fumble recovery came on the first play of the fourth quarter with the Steelers driving and the Packers protecting a 21-17 lead. Disengaged from a block by RT Flozell Adams to scoop up RB Rashard Mendenhall's fumble that was forced by LB Clay Matthews. Located the ball behind the line of scrimmage, picking it up in stride to return it 9 yards before being brought down by C Doug Legursky.

2009: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career and led the team with a career-high 22 tackles on special teams...Also played in team's playoff game and was voted one of the special teams captains for the post-season...On the field for more than 76 percent of team's special-teams plays, second most on the squad...Recorded 14 tackles (11 solo) in limited time on defense, backing up A.J. Hawk at "Buck" LB and seeing periodic action as fifth LB in "Psycho" package...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Tied for team lead with two special teams tackles...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Led the team with three stops on special teams...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Saw first action of season on defense and recorded a season-high four tackles (three solo). Brought down FB Mike Karney for a 2-yard loss on a pass early in the fourth quarter. Added two stops on special teams...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Filled in for an injured Brandon Chillar (hand) in nickel for the rest of the game after Chillar left late in the first half. Posted three tackles (all solo) and a pass defended. Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles. Forced a fumble by DE Brian Robison, who was returning a squib kick on third-quarter kickoff; S Nick Collins recovered fumble at the Minnesota 41 to set up a TE Spencer Havner 16-yard TD catch...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Tied for team lead and matched career high with four special teams tackles...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Saw action on defense in team's five-LB "Psycho" package and recorded two tackles (one solo)...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Registered a tackle on special teams and saw limited action on defense in "Psycho" package.

MORE ABOUT THE FROZEN TUNDRA

- The Lambeau Field playing surface underwent an offseason makeover prior to the 2007 season that brought the latest technology to the hallowed ground and made future in-season re-sodding unnecessary.
- In a project that took several months to complete, DD GrassMaster, a natural grass surface reinforced with man-made fibers developed by Desso DLW Sports Systems, was installed on top of a completely new drainage and heating system. The new surface and underlying systems represent the latest developments in field management.
- The new grass surface wasn't entirely new for the players, though. It was identical to the surface on the team's Clarke Hinkle Field. That surface, installed prior to 2005 training camp, had garnered rave reviews from the players. The team again used the surface in 2009 for the new Nitschke Field.
- According to the Packers' field manager, Allen Johnson, the Packers had been following the evolution of the relatively new system for several years, going back to its development on European soccer fields.
- DD GrassMaster's advantage mainly is attributed to the sand-based soil, which allows superior drainage and softer, more consistent footing over the previous clay-based field. Because a sand-based root zone has less stability, the system employs millions of strands of polyethylene and polypropylene materials eight inches below the surface with one inch exposed on the top. This gives the field firm footing and eliminates clumps of sod tearing from the surface. Even after a full season's wear late in the year, the footing remains excellent due to the soil-strengthening strands.
- The Packers and Denver Broncos are the only two NFL teams to use the system in their respective stadiums. However, the 2008: Played in 15 games with one start and made 27 tackles on defense (18 solo) with one sack, taking on work at weak-side LB in addition to his customary duties backing up the middle...Led team with three forced fumbles...Finished third on the team with 15 special teams tackles...On the field for over 71 percent of team's special teams plays, second most on the team...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): On Will Blackmon's 76-yard punt return for a score, took out a Vikings player on the sideline to allow Blackmon to cut back across the field...Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Took some snaps on defense when Barnett left game briefly late in first quarter with elbow injury...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Saw action at WLB when Hawk went out with groin injury, and posted three tackles...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Tied for team lead with two special teams tackles, including one stop of WR Pierre Garçon on a kickoff return at the Indianapolis 14...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Saw extensive action in second half at MLB after Barnett left on the first series of the second half with a knee injury, and recorded nine tackles. Forced RB Adrian Peterson to fumble on a fourth-and-1 run in the fourth quarter that the Vikings recovered, but gave the Packers possession on downs at the Minnesota 41 to set up a Crosby FG. Added a season-high three special teams tackles and made a key block on Nick Collins' 59-yard INT return for a TD to allow him to cut across the field...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started first career game, opening up at WLB in place of an injured Chillar (groin), and posted a career-high 12 tackles and a career-best two forced fumbles. Registered his first career sack when he brought down Matt Schaub for a 6-yard loss in the second quarter, broke into the backfield to stop FB Cecil Sapp for a 3-yard loss on a third-and-1 in the first quarter, forced a fumble early in the second quarter by TE Owen Daniels at the Green Bay 1 that CB Tramon Williams recovered at the 3, and forced another fumble by Daniels in the fourth quarter that went out of bounds...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Matched his season high with three surface has gained increasing popularity overseas and is used by some of Europe's top soccer clubs, including Arsenal, Liverpool and Real Madrid.

- Due to the enhanced drainage capabilities, fans at Lambeau no longer notice a perceptible crown on the field. A slight slope exists, about a half-degree decline, to assist with water and snow removal when the field is covered with a tarp.
- Also included in the '07 project was a new service path encircling the field. Cement was replaced with a rubberized wsurface, similar to the one adjacent to the Hutson Center on the side of Hinkle Field. The rubberized path still allows for equipment use, but is safer for players who run far out of bounds.

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 314 • Born: March 21, 1989 • NFL Games Played/Started: 16/12 • Acquired: D1-10

CAREER: Drafted in 2010 as potentially the left tackle of the future, became the right tackle of the present when veteran Mark Tauscher was lost for the season after four games to a shoulder injury...Started the final 12 games of the regular season and the entire postseason at RT, earning Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association all-rookie honors...Only 21 years old as a rookie, showed maturity in his approach, as well as versatility on the field, battling in training camp for the starting job at left guard before settling in as the top reserve at LG and LT, the position he excelled in as a collegian...Capped his impressive rookie season by becoming the youngest player, according to STATS LLC, to ever start in the Super Bowl (21 years, 322 days) and turned in a commendable performance against Pittsburgh pass rusher LaMarr Woodley...Was drafted by the Packers with the No. 23 overall pick in 2010 as a potential heir to veteran LT Chad Clifton as QB Aaron Rodgers' blind-side protector...An early entry in the draft, played three seasons at Iowa, the last two as the full-time starter at LT after beginning his college career at LG...In 2009, received numerous All-America and All-Big Ten accolades, including the Big Ten Conference's Offensive Lineman of the Year award despite missing three games due to a thyroid condition...A true Midwesterner, grew up in Crystal Lake, Ill., and was a decorated two-way football star who was recruited by other major programs as a defensive lineman...Chose Iowa in part because of the opportunity to play offensive line, and also because Iowa City reminded him the most of his hometown, a trait he also attributed to Green Bay upon seeing the city for the first time...True to his roots, invited his high school football coaches along with his family to New York City's Radio City Music Hall for the 2010 NFL Draft, where some projections had him as a top-10 selection...Was still on the board in the second half of the first round and became the fourth offensive tackle taken at No. 23...Became the first offensive lineman to be selected in the first round by the Packers since Ross Verba in 1997

AT A GLANCE

- Started the final 12 games of 2010 and the entire postseason at right tackle after taking over for veteran Mark Tauscher (shoulder), the most regular-season starts by a Packers rookie tackle since Tauscher's 14 in 2000.
- Named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA all-rookie team.
- In 2009, became sixth Iowa player to be named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, and third this decade.
- Started 23 of 26 games at left tackle over his final two college seasons, missing three games in 2009 due to thyroid condition.
- First offensive lineman selected in the first round by the Packers since 1997 (Ross Verba) and third offensive lineman from Iowa taken in the first round in team history (Verba, Ron Hallstrom in 1982).
- A star two-way player as a prep, was recruited by several major college programs as a defensive lineman.

and the third Iowa offensive lineman to be selected in the first round in team history (Verba, Ron Hallstrom in 1982).

2010 SEASON: Competed in training camp for the starting LG position, began the season as the top reserve at LT and LG, and then took over as the starting RT in Week 5 when Tauscher was lost for the year to a shoulder injury...Went on to start the final 12 games of the regular season and the entire postseason at RT...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Made NFL debut on special teams, blocking on FGs and PATs...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Saw his first regular-season playing time at LT in relief of Clifton (knee), entering the game with just under six minutes left in the second quarter and playing the rest of the way...At Washington (Oct. 10): Made first NFL start, at RT in place of Tauscher...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Held DE Ray Edwards to just two tackles as the offensive line did not allow a sack in the game...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Part of an offensive line that paved the way for an ex-

YOUTH IS SERVED

In Super Bowl XLV, Packers rookie right tackle Bryan Bulaga was part of an offensive line charged with quieting a formidable foe in the Pittsburgh Steelers' defensive front. Led by veteran coordinator Dick LeBeau and noted pass-rushing linebackers James Harrison and LaMarr Woodley, the Pittsburgh defense ranked No. 2 in the NFL in total yardage during the regular season and led the league with 48 sacks.

Bulaga and the offensive line were more than up to the challenge, allowing QB Aaron Rodgers time to throw for 304 yards and three touchdowns en route to garnering Super Bowl MVP honors in the 31-25 Green Bay victory.

Even more impressive was that in opening the game for the Packers, Bulaga became the youngest player to ever start in the 45-year history of the Super Bowl. Bulaga was 21 years, 322 days old on the evening of the game, Feb. 6, 2011.

Ironically, Steelers center Maurkice Pouncey would have laid claim to the distinction at 21 years, 197 days, but was forced to miss the game because of an injury.

A look at the youngest players to have ever started in the Super Bowl, according to STATS LLC:

Player, Team	Position	Years, Days	Game Date	Opponent
Bryan Bulaga, GB	T	21, 322	Feb. 6, 2011	Pit
Ricky Nattiel, Den	WR	22, 6	Jan. 31, 1988	Was

plosive output against the league's No. 2-ranked defense, as the Packers recorded 27 first downs and 515 net yards and allowed only two sacks, one a QB fumble when the ball slipped...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): In his postseason debut, bounced back from four-penalty outing the previous week to help RB James Starks set a franchise rookie playoff record with 123 yards rushing...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Became the youngest player, according to STATS, Inc., to start in the Super Bowl (21 years, 322 days), besting the mark set by Denver WR Ricky Nattiel (22 years, six days) in Super Bowl XXII vs. Washington. Turned in one of his top performances of the season against outside rusher Woodley, who had just one sack. Threw a valuable block on DE Ziggy Hood to create Rodgers' passing lane on a 29-yard TD toss to WR Jordy Nelson in the first quarter, and had a key block on Starks' game-long 14-yard run when he combined with G Josh Sitton to take out DE Nick Eason and then continued to the second level to seal off LB James Farrior...2010 Draft: Selected in the first round at No. 23 overall, the fourth OT taken. Became the first offensive lineman selected in the first round by the Packers since Verba in '97 and the third Iowa offensive lineman selected in the first round in team history (Verba, Hallstrom in '82).

COLLEGE: Played in 30 games for Iowa with 28 starts, 23 of them at LT...Allowed just 3½ sacks and was penalized only five times in his career...Majoried in communication studies...Junior season (2009): Started 10 of 13 games at LT, missing three games following the season opener with a thyroid condition...A cold or flu virus settled into his thyroid, causing weakness and fatigue during any periods of exertion...Even after returning to the lineup, needed another three games to feel back to full strength...Still, was named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the year, becoming the sixth Hawkeye to receive the honor, along with Robert Gallery (2003), Eric Steinbach (2002), Mike Devlin (1992), Dave Croston (1986) and Mike Haight (1985)...Also was a first-team All-America selection by Sporting News, with other All-America honors coming from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and The Associated Press (both second team), CollegeFootballNews.com (third team), and Pro Football Weekly (honorable mention)...Named first-team All-Big Ten by league's coaches and media, Sporting News and Phil Steele's College Football...One of four juniors named to team's 2009 leadership group...Allowed two sacks on 392 pass plays, both coming vs. Michigan DE Brandon Graham (Oct. 10), the No. 13 overall pick in the first round of the 2010 draft by Philadelphia who had 3½ total tackles for loss in the contest...Closed college career at Orange Bowl in Miami vs. Georgia Tech (Jan. 5), limiting DE Derrick Morgan, drafted No. 16 overall in the first round by Tennessee, to just three tackles; key block on Morgan cleared way for RB Brandon Wegher's 32-yard TD run to seal 24-14 win...Sophomore season (2008): Started all 13 games at LT, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors from league's coaches and honorable mention from media...Named first-team All-Big Ten by Phil Steele's College Football and Sophomore All-American by CollegeFootballNews.com...In 835 total snaps, was penalized just twice, and on 320 pass plays allowed only 1½ sacks...Helped rushing offense, led by future N.Y. Jets draft pick RB Shonn Greene, top 200 yards six times...Made first start at LT vs. Maine (Aug. 30)...Aided ground game in churning out season-best 254 rushing yards, including 217 with four TDs from Greene, vs. Wisconsin (Oct. 18)...Helped offense rush for 248 yards vs. Purdue (Nov. 15), and on 14-yard TD run by Greene, threw a block on fellow 2010 Green Bay draftee Mike Neal, though the two did not go head-to-head throughout the game...Freshman season (2007): Played in seven games, with five starts at LG, playing every offensive snap in those five starts to close the season...One of 11 true freshmen to see action for the Hawkeyes...Named to Freshman All-Big Ten team by Sporting News...After coming off the bench to play in season opener vs. Northern Illinois (Sept. 1), missed the next five contests with a shoulder injury...Made first career start, at LG, at Purdue (Oct. 20)...Started at LG vs. Michigan State (Oct. 27) as offense rushed for 230 yards in double-OT win to start a three-game winning streak.

PERSONAL: Given name Bryan Joseph Bulaga...Born in Barrington, Ill. ...Single...High school: As a senior at Marian Central Catholic High (Woodstock, Ill.), earned Parade and PrepStar first-team All-America honors, plus second-team recognition from USA Today...Also earned first-team all-state honors from the Illinois High School Football Coaches Association, the Chicago Tribune and the Champaign News-Gazette, and was named Suburban Catholic Conference and Northwest Herald Area Player of the Year...A two-year varsity captain who did not allow a sack as a LT in his career; also played DE, LB and TE...As a junior, was named first-team all-area by the Chicago Sun-Times...In his career, recorded 261 career tackles, with 46 for loss, 31 sacks and one INT, with 23 of the sacks coming at DE as a senior...As a TE, posted 35 career receptions for 665 yards (19.0 avg.) and 10 TDs, plus three two-point conversions...Also lettered one year each in baseball and basketball...Community involvement: Helped coach kids at the annual Junior Power Pack football clinic...Also supported the Jerry Parins Cruise for Cancer with an autograph signing and attended the local Families of Children with Cancer holiday party...Participated in the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon...In college, participated in an effort to help flood victims in Cedar Rapids, Iowa...Interests/hobbies: Once worked at his uncle's Avis rental-car business...Enjoys watching movies, reading, and playing golf and video games...Lists Family Guy as his favorite TV show and The Dark Knight as his favorite movie...Residence: Crystal Lake, Ill.

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 209 • Born: January 13, 1989 • NFL Games Played/Started: 4/4 • Acquired: D3-10

CAREER: Started the first four games at strong safety before his rookie campaign was cut short by a season-ending knee injury (ACL) sustained in Week 4...Became just the second Packers rookie to open the season as a starter at safety since Chuck Cecil in 1988, joining teammate and three-time Pro Bowl selection Nick Collins (2005)...Claimed the starting spot when 2009 starter Atari Bigby opened the season on reserve/PUP with an ankle injury...Registered 15 tackles (12 solo) and an interception in his four starts...Playmaking safety was among Georgia Tech's leaders in both interceptions and tackles in his three seasons before declaring early for the NFL Draft...Intercepted 14 passes during his collegiate career, tied for second most in school annals behind only the 16 of Willie Clay (1988-91)...That included an impressive seven INTs as a sophomore in 2008, when he earned second-team All-America and first-team All-Atlantic Coast honors from multiple outlets...Compiled 235 career tackles (147 solo), eighth most by a Georgia Tech defensive back and just five tackles shy of cracking top five...Played in 40 career games, starting 28, with all but one coming at S (the other at CB)...A centerfielder of sorts in open space, recorded multiple interceptions in three different contests and double-digit tackles in five games...A highly decorated Georgia prep star who played both ways and returned four INTs for TDs during his final two seasons...Was selected by the Packers in the third round with the No. 71 overall pick...Green Bay traded up 15 spots, from No. 86, to get him by surrendering that selection plus a fourth-round pick (No. 122 overall) to the Philadelphia Eagles, the third straight year GM Ted Thompson moved up in the draft to select a defensive player.

2010 SEASON: Opened the first four games of the season at SS before sustaining a season-ending ACL injury to his left knee in Week 5 vs. Detroit...Recorded 15 tackles (12 solo) and an interception in four games...Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 7...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Joined teammate Collins (2005) as the only Packers rookie safeties to start a season opener since Cecil in 1988. Recorded four tackles (three solo), tied for second among DBs, in his NFL debut.

AT A GLANCE

- Became only the second Packers rookie to open the season as a starter at safety since Chuck Cecil in 1988, joining teammate and three-time Pro Bowl selection Nick Collins (2005).
- Started the first four games of the season at SS before sustaining a season-ending knee injury vs. Detroit in Week 4.
- In just three seasons at Georgia Tech, intercepted 14 passes, two shy of the school's career record.
- Earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore in 2008, when he picked off seven passes and posted career-high 93 tackles.
- Packers traded up 15 spots in the third round to select him, the third straight year GM Ted Thompson traded up to select a defensive player (Jeremy Thompson in 2008, Clay Matthews in 2009).
- Ran back four interceptions for TDs over his final two high school seasons.

Part of a secondary that limited WRs Jeremy Maclin and DeSean Jackson to a combined eight catches for 68 yards. Along with CB Sam Shields, who started at nickel CB, became the first Green Bay rookie defensive-back tandem to start the season opener since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970. They were the first rookie duo to both start a regular-season game in the secondary since Collins and CB Mike Hawkins did so at Baltimore (Dec. 19, 2005)...vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Posted first career interception in the 34-7 win over his former college coach, Bills head coach Chan Gailey. On the Bills' opening drive of the fourth quarter, attacked the line of scrimmage before the snap and met WR Roscoe Parrish immediately as a Trent Edwards pass arrived, wrestling the ball away for his first career INT at the Green Bay 43. The turnover led to a five-play, 52-yard TD drive that put the Packers ahead, 34-7. Added four tackles (three solo) and a pass defended, including a stop of RB Marshawn Lynch for no gain up the middle on the play before his INT...at Chicago (Sept. 27): Registered four tackles (all solo)...vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Posted back to CB Brandon Underwood, who downed it at the Chicago 3...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Had an excellent all-around performance, first in his usual role on special teams and then when he saw significant playing time on defense following injuries in the secondary. Posted two tackles in punt coverage, helping limit WR Antonio Brown to just 5 yards on six returns. Was pressed into extended defensive duty in place of CBs Sam Shields (shoulder) and Charles Woodson (collar bone) after injuries decimated the secondary late in the first half. Finished with three tackles (two solo) and an INT, his first-ever pick in the postseason and second of his career. Picked up a crossing WR Mike Wallace with 4:35 left in the second quarter, reading QB Ben Roethlisberger's pass to beat Wallace to the ball. Came up with the INT at the Green Bay 46 and returned 1 yard to the 47; the Packers would score a TD four plays later to go ahead 21-3.

2009: Played in all 16 games, starting a career-best three contests...Also played in Wild Card game...Worked primarily as dime back and backup safety during the first half of the season, but saw significant action down the stretch as nickel back after veteran starter Harris was lost to a knee injury in Week 11...Williams moved into the starting RCB spot with Bush moving into Williams' nickel role...Posted career-best 26 tackles (22 solo), an INT and seven passes defended...Added 10 tackles on special teams...On the field for 76.6 percent of the team's special teams plays, a team high...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Saw significant time at FS in place of Collins, who left midway through the second quarter with a chest injury and did not return. Posted three tackles (two solo) and added a stop on special teams...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Worked as dime back for third straight game before taking over nickel role in fourth quarter when starter Harris left with a knee injury. Posted two solo tackles and a stop on special teams...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Served as nickel back and registered career-high four tackles (all solo). Matched his career high with two passes defended. Broke up a pass intended for WR Dennis Northcutt on third-and-goal from the 1 in the fourth quarter; QB Matthew Stafford threw the ball away under pressure on fourth down as Packers kept the Lions out of the end zone...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Started only the second game of his career as team opened up in nickel defense. Matched career high with four tackles (all solo)...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Started back-to-back games for the first time in his career, opening again at nickel back, and posted two solo tackles...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Posted the first interception of his career when he came underneath WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh to pick off a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass on the opening drive of the third quarter. Finished with four tackles (three solo), matching a career best, and added a tackle on special teams...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Started as team opened in nickel, and tied for lead in secondary with four tackles (three solo), which matched a career high...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started as nickel back and posted six tackles (three solo) along with a stop on special teams.

2008: Played in every game and ranked second on the team with career-high 17 special teams tackles...Posted two or more special teams tackles in a game five times...Was on the field for 357 of 472 special teams plays (75.6 percent), which led the team...Saw time in the preseason at safety and was both a backup S and CB during the regular season...Saw limited playing time on defense, registering one tackle and one pass defended...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Got a piece of Rob Bironas' 47-yard field goal attempt with his glove as the kick on the final play of regulation went off the right upright, sending the game into overtime...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Made one tackle on special teams but left game early in third quarter after sustaining ankle injury on punt coverage and did not return...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Played on special teams and posted a tackle despite missing two practices during the week because of ankle injury...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Saw limited time as dime back and posted only tackle and pass breakup on the season...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Led team with season-high three special teams tackles.

RON WOLF'S STAMP ON PACKERS HISTORY

Ron Wolf arrived in Green Bay Nov. 27, 1991, with a mandate to rescue the Green and Gold from a quarter-century of mediocrity, an assignment which prompted him to assert, "I was brought here to win."

And win, in the decade to follow, the Packers did – in large part because of his leadership and the "cast" he assembled to execute one of the most electrifying turnarounds in NFL annals...rewardingly punctuated by Green Bay's first Super Bowl victory in nearly three decades and back-to-back appearances in professional football's ultimate game.

During the history-making process, he made a more profound impact upon the Packers organization than anyone since the revered Vince Lombardi, who arrived in Green Bay with a similar mission 32 years earlier. Over Wolf's 1992-2000 tenure, the Packers compiled the NFL's second-best regular-season record, a 92-52 mark for a .639 percentage, recorded seven straight winning seasons and made six consecutive playoff appearances.

He converted the Green and Gold from perennial also-rans into consistent winners, exemplified by the fact they also have mounted the NFL's third-best regular-season won-lost record since the 1993 institution of free agency (179-109-0, .622).

Wolf's aggressive stewardship, launched with the hiring of 49ers offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren as head coach and the acquisition of Brett Favre as a franchise quarterback in 1992, is perhaps no better illustrated than by the Packers' immediate, 9-7 turnaround in 1992 – his first year on the job – after the team had been a dismal 4-12 in 1991 and 6-10 in 1990...a transformation which brought him recognition as "NFL Executive of the Year" by Sporting News.

Wolf, reflecting upon the overall record from his perspective on the day he announced his retirement, observed with pardonable satisfaction: "What people said couldn't happen here...happened here (building a winner in Green Bay)...I'm proud of that."

A statistical glance at some notable team figures, over the nine years before – and after – Wolf took control:

2007: Served as the club's primary nickel back much of the year, playing in 14 games plus two playoff contests... Earned his first NFL start for an injured Charles Woodson at Dallas (Nov. 29), but the following game sustained an injury of his own (calf) and missed two contests... Recorded 23 tackles (18 solo), eight passes defended and 11 special teams tackles... Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Was a major factor on special teams, coming up with a fumble recovery and tying for a team high with three special teams stops. Sprinted downfield after a Jon Ryan punt with 1:09 remaining and pounced on the ball following a muffed catch from J.R. Reed. The recovery gave the Packers possession, leading to a game-winning, 42-yard FG by Mason Crosby with two seconds left. Also provided big hit on earlier muffed punt, by Greg Lewis, that was eventually recovered by Tracy White for a Green Bay TD... Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Posted two special teams tackles and provided a key block on Williams' 94-yard punt return, getting kicker John Kasay out of the way downfield (Kasay punted out of field goal formation)... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Returned from calf injury and downed a 72-yard Ryan punt on the Detroit 1-yard line; the Lions went three-and-out on the subsequent drive... Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Posted a pass defended.

2006: Played in all 16 games during rookie campaign... Saw most of his action on special teams while appearing in six games (15 snaps) as a reserve DB... His 13 tackles on special teams tied for third on the team... At Detroit (Sept. 24): Stopped Eddie Drummond on a key fourth-quarter kickoff return at Detroit's 16-yard line... Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8): Posted an early career-high three special teams tackles (later matched at Miami, Oct. 22)... At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Was the first one down the field on a Ryan punt and pressured returner Mewelde Moore into muffing the catch but inadvertently kicked the ball out of the end zone, resulting in a touchback; later, on kickoff that opened the second half, drew an illegal block-above-the-waist penalty on Artose Pinner, negating a 102-yard TD return by Bethel Johnson... 2006 Draft: Originally signed with Carolina on May 5 as a non-drafted free agent; subsequently waived by the Panthers on Sept. 2 and claimed by the Packers the next day.

COLLEGE: Played in all 22 games during his Utah State career, including 13 starts... Majored in sociology... Senior season (2005): Garnered 2005 All-Western Athletic Conference honors when he recorded 50 tackles and two INTs for the Aggies... His 13 passes broken up ranked sixth in the NCAA... Junior season (2004): Recorded 20 tackles and one INT among four passes defended in 11 games (two starts)... Junior college: Began his collegiate career at American River (Calif.) Junior College... Was all-state, all-region and all-league as a CB and return specialist as a sophomore in 2003... Intercepted four passes while posting an impressive 27-yard average on kickoff returns... Earned all-league status as a WR and return specialist as a freshman... Also competed in track.

PERSONAL: Given name Jarrett Lee Bush... Born in Vacaville, Calif. ... Single... Related through marriage to five-time Pro Bowler and former Eagles WR Mike Quick; Quick, part of the Eagles radio broadcast team, is the father of Bush's sister-in-law... High school: A three-sport athlete at Will C. Wood High School in Vacaville, Calif. ... A three-year letterman on the gridiron, he earned all-league and all-county honors as a WR and DB... Also wrestled and competed in track, where he was a two-time section

TACKLE • TENNESSEE

12th NFL Season
12th Packers Season

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 320 • Born: June 26, 1976 • NFL Games Played/Started: 159/154 • Acquired: D2-00

CAREER: Steady presence at the left tackle position posted one of the finest seasons of his career in 2010... Earned Pro Bowl recognition for the second time in his career as he was voted into the all-star game for the first time, having served as an injury replacement in 2007... Started all 16 games in '10 for the first time since 2007... As an unrestricted free agent, he signed a contract extension with the team March 10... Played in his 150th regular-season game with Green Bay last season, a mark reached by only 18 other players in franchise history and just five other offensive linemen... Has played in 159 games, with 154 starts, plus 12 postseason contests... Has blocked for five of the top eight single-season rushers in franchise history (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Ryan Grant; 2008-09), and has helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in eight of his 11 seasons... Has been part of a top-10 offense in the league in eight of his 11 seasons with the Packers... Following the devastating pelvic injury that prematurely ended his 2002 season, he has successfully returned to the field to start 122 of 128 games (132 of 138 including playoffs) over the past eight seasons... Came off arthroscopic surgery on both knees and both shoulders heading into 2009, but an early-season ankle injury limited him to 12 games, his fewest since '02... From 2008-09, helped the Packers become the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons... Made his first Pro Bowl trip following the 2007 season as an alternate and injury replacement for Seattle's Walter Jones (shoulder), but has been named an alternate on three other occasions as well ('04, '05, '09)... During that Pro Bowl season of '07, solidified his reputation as one who can keep the opponent's premier pass rusher quiet, holding a trio of fellow '07 Pro Bowlers, the New York Giants' Osi Umenyiora, San Diego's Shawne Merriman and Kansas City's Jared Allen (also the league leader in sacks), to a total of a half sack to help the Packers tie for the third-fewest sacks allowed in the league with 19... Is known for his textbook technique and an extensive regimen that gets his bumped and bruised body ready for gameday... Along with fellow veteran T Mark Tauscher, stepped into more of a leadership position along the offensive line in 2005 with the offseason departures of guards Marco Rivera and Mike Wahle... Had a starting streak of 53 consecutive games (56 including playoffs) snapped in 2006 when he became violently ill with the flu the night before the contest at Miami (Oct. 22)... Subsequently missed only one of the next 44 contests (at Tennessee, Nov. 2, 2008, due to an allergic reaction to medication) before sustaining an ankle injury in Week 2 in 2009.

Rewarded with a six-year contract extension through the 2009 season, on March 2, 2004, he certainly showed no signs of complacency the following year, helping the Packers to an all-time franchise-low 14 sacks during the '04 season... A year earlier, in his 2003 return to the field following an arduous offseason of rehabilitation, started all 16 games for the first time as a professional and, as the left tackle, was a key cog in Green Bay allowing but 19 sacks – tied for the second fewest in the NFL and at the time the

- Earned Pro Bowl recognition for the second time in his career as he was voted into the all-star game for the first time, having served as an injury replacement in 2007.
- Has blocked for five of the top eight single-season rushers in franchise history (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Ryan Grant; 2008-09), and has helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in eight of his 11 seasons in Green Bay.
- Reached the 150-game career milestone in 2010, making him only the sixth offensive lineman in franchise history to do so.
- Has started 122 of 128 games (132 of 138 including playoffs) at left tackle since returning to the field in '03 from the serious pelvic injury that ended his 2002 season.
- Had 53-game starting streak snapped in 2006 by a bout with the flu the night before and morning of game at Miami (Oct. 22), and 33-game streak ended in '08 at Tennessee (Nov. 2) because of a pre-game illness due to a reaction to medication.
- As the left tackle, was a major factor in the Packers limiting opponents to an all-time franchise-low 14 sacks in 2004. Green Bay also did not allow a sack in eight games – another club single-season record.
- Played in two national championship games, including Fiesta Bowl victory over Florida State to culminate undefeated 1998 season, while a four-year starter at the University of Tennessee.

franchise low for a 16-game season... Included in that success was the Packers' Nov. 16, 2003, win at Tampa Bay – a game with tremendous personal ramifications for him – when Green Bay snapped the Buccaneers' NFL-record streak of 69 consecutive games with at least one sack... Just less than a year earlier (Nov. 24, 2002), on the same Raymond James Stadium field, his season had come to an untimely end when he suffered a badly sprained pelvis as the result of an unnecessary block on an interception return that he did not see coming (a play that the NFL made illegal in 2005)... Subsequently designated as Green Bay's "franchise" player Feb. 24, 2004, he reached agreement with the Packers on his contract extension on the eve of free agency... Earlier, in 2001, was a large factor in Green Bay allowing the third-fewest sacks in the league (22), a figure that then also qualified as the least by a Packers team in 27 years... Was playing at a similarly high level in 2002 before the abrupt end to his season in Tampa... Had been thrust into the starting lineup seven games into his 2000 rookie campaign, immediately shoring up what had been a trouble spot for Green Bay early in the year... As a rookie starter, was not intimidated by the hostile crowds or noisy dome stadiums – situations he had encountered in the years prior as a standout at the University of Tennessee – while holding his own against some of the game's better pass rushers... A second-round draft choice of the Packers in 2000, joined fellow rookie Tauscher in the lineup that year to give Green Bay its first pair of starting rookie offensive tackles in 48 years.

2010 SEASON: Opened up all 16 games at LT for the first time since 2007 and started all four playoff contests... Earned Pro Bowl recognition for the second time in his career as he was voted into the all-star game for the first time after going as an injury replacement in '07...Helped the Packers finish No. 9 in overall offense, the team's fifth straight season in the top 10, and No. 5 in passing...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Started the game but struggled with a nagging knee injury and left the contest with six minutes remaining in the first half. Was replaced by rookie Bryan Bulaga for the remainder of the contest...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of QB Aaron Rodgers. Was replaced by Bulaga briefly in the first half but returned to the field in the third quarter...At Washington (Oct. 10): Blocked for team's season-high 157 yards on just 17 carries (9.2 avg.), the first time in franchise history that the Packers rushed for more than 150 yards on fewer than 20 attempts in a regular-season game...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): In the 150th game of his NFL career, limited three-time Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen to just one tackle as the line did not allow a sack of Rodgers...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Matched up primarily with LB DeMarcus Ware, who led the NFL with 15½ sacks in 2010, and limited the perennial Pro Bowler to just two tackles...

At New England (Dec. 19): Played in the 157th game of his career, a total that moved him into sole possession of fourth place among offensive lineman in team history as he surpassed T Ken Ruettggers and C/G Frank Winters (156 games each)...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Helped the Packers rack up 515 yards on offense against a New York unit that entered the game ranked No. 2 in the NFL, their most since recording 548 at Oakland on Dec. 22, 2003. Part of a line that was credited with just one sack against a formidable Giants front...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Blocked for RB James Starks, who posted 123 yards on 23 carries (5.3 avg.), the most by a rookie in franchise postseason history...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Part of a stellar day for the offense with the Packers recording a postseason franchise-record 48 points, 28 first downs and 442 net yards...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Missed three series in the first half after sustaining a neck stinger on the opening drive. Primary blocking responsibility was Pro Bowl DE

LOGO HISTORY

1950-53: In their first season after Curly Lambeau's 31-year reign, the "New Packers" introduce their first identifying mark; the logo is also present on 1950 stock certificates. It changes colors over the four years, as the team experiments with several uniform combinations.

1954-61: Looking for a fresh look with new coach Lisle Blackbourn, the team unveils new uniforms and a new mark. The logo locates both Green Bay and Milwaukee on a Wisconsin silhouette. The passer wears No. 41, worn two decades earlier by both Arnie Herber and Clarke Hinkle.

1959-74: Sideline logo, worn on hats, shirts and jackets by coaches, equipment managers and trainers at both games and practice. Coincided with Vince Lombardi's first season, then retained by Phil Bengtson and Dan Devine.

1961-69: The primary logo during the Lombardi era, used on official Packers stationery and publications. The team won five world championships under the mark. Before the '69 season, after Lombardi's departure to Washington, team letterhead shifts to a helmet logo. The mark still sees use into the '70s, though.

1961-present: First and only helmet logo in team history, designed for Lombardi by equipment manager Dad Braisher and first applied to Packers headgear in 1961. After introducing the G, the team immediately won two world titles (1961-62), and five over the mark's first seven years. Borrowed by scores of high schools and colleges.

1993: Commemorative logo, worn on jersey during '93 season, signifying the team's 75th professional season, since its birth in 1919. Wearing logo, team earned first playoff berth in 11 years, kicking off string of six straight postseason trips.

2003: Patch team wore for first two home games of '03 to commemorate rededication of Lambeau Field, following three-year, $295-million renovation.

2007: Emblem celebrating the 50th anniversary of venerable Lambeau Field, worn on home jerseys and painted in the end zones on the world-famous stadium grass.

Julius Peppers, who was limited to just two tackles...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Finished his string of strong postseason performances with perhaps his best as he helped to quiet one of the game's top pass rushers in LB James Harrison. Harrison was credited with just one tackle, a 6-yard sack in the third quarter that was not charged to Clifton. Was excellent in protection throughout the game, helping to create time for Rodgers to throw for 304 yards and three TDs.

2009: Started 12 games at LT, plus the playoff contest, and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate...Had arthroscopic surgeries on both knees and both shoulders during the off-season...Part of line that blocked for Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total yards...Helped Packers become the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons...Inactive at St. Louis (Sept. 27), at Minnesota (Oct. 5) and at Cleveland (Oct. 25) with ankle injury...Active but did not play vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1)...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Sprained his ankle on the first play of the third quarter on a Grant run and did not return, missing the next two contests...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Returned to starting lineup and helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense, but re-injured ankle late in the third quarter and did not return, sitting out the next two games as well...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Returned to starting lineup at LT and helped block for Packers' 170 rushing yards on 32 carries (5.3 avg.), the team's second-best output on the season...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Started and helped block for offense's season-high 484 total yards, including 129 yards rushing from Grant on 21 carries (6.1 avg.). Part of line that did not allow any sacks of Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards, his career high for any half in the regular season...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Injured hamstring on second drive of second half and did not return. Part of line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers in the first half...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Helped limit the Ravens to just one sack of Rodgers as he threw for 263 yards and three TDs...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Helped clear the way for Grant's 137 yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.); it was Grant's career-high average for a game with at least 20 carries. Blocked DE Alex Brown on Grant's 62-yard TD run off left tackle on the Packers' first play...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Part of a line that allowed just one sack as Rodgers threw for 383 yards and three TDs. Limited Pro Bowl OLB Harrison to one assisted tackle and no sacks...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Helped block for team's 153 rushing yards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.), the first time the Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England. Also helped protect Rodgers as he was sacked only one time; didn't play in the fourth quarter (rest)...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Played first three quarters before resting for the fourth as the line didn't allow a sack of Rodgers in his three quarters of play that produced 235 passing yards...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Left game with just under 12 minutes remaining with a right ankle injury. Helped offense post team playoff-record 493 total yards, including franchise-record 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

2008: Started 15 games at LT and helped pave the way for Grant's (then) career-high 1,203 rushing yards...Also protected Rodgers on his way to 4,038 passing yards to give the Packers a 4,000-yard passer and a 1,200-yard rusher in the same season for the first time in team history...Played 88.5 percent of the offensive snaps, missing the Week 9 contest at Tennessee due to illness...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Limited Allen, who finished tied for fifth in the NFL with 14.5 sacks, to no tackles and no sacks. Part of a line that helped pave the way for team's 139 rushing yards on 27 carries and did not allow a sack of Rodgers...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Part of line that blocked for Grant's 105 rushing yards, his first 100-yard game of the season, and did not allow a sack of Rodgers. Limited perennial Pro Bowl DE Freeney to no sacks and just two tackles...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Had streak of 33 games started snapped when he did not play due to pre-game illness caused by a reaction to medication...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Part of line that paved the way for team's 200 rushing yards, including season-best 145 from Grant. Line did not allow a sack or pressure of Rodgers all afternoon. On Grant's game-long 35-yard run in the first quarter, sealed DE Brown to open the hole...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Blocked for Grant's 104 yards on 19 carries. Matched up with DE Williams, who finished tied for seventh in the league with 12 sacks, for much of the afternoon and held him to no sacks and just one tackle...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Blocked for team's 211 rushing yards, a season best. Helped pave the way for Grant and RB DeShawn Wynn to each post 100 yards rushing, only the second time since 1985 that the Packers had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game.

2007: Started all 16 games and both playoff contests and was named to his first Pro Bowl, filling in for Seattle's Jones (shoulder injury)...Played 93.3 percent of the offensive snaps, the fifth straight year he played at least 93 percent...Was ranked as the Packers' top offensive player by Pro Football Weekly and Sporting News in their respective preseason previews, and went on to lead an offensive line that allowed just 19 sacks on the season...At New York Giants (Sept. 16): Held Umenyiora without a sack; suffered an ankle injury in the fourth quarter and missed a series while his ankle was re-taped...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Held Pro Bowler Merriman without a sack...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Held '07 sack leader Allen to a half sack...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Helped Green Bay amass a season-high 488 yards, and held the Vikings without a sack; Grant collected 119 yards rushing...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Was part of an offensive line that assisted Grant to 201 yards and three TDs, both Packers playoff records...Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Held Umenyiora without a sack.

FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED SINCE 2000

Tackle Chad Clifton has been a mainstay along the line since his rookie season in 2000 and is noted as one of the league's finest pass protectors. A look at the team sack numbers since he entered the NFL:

Since Week 7, 2000 (Clifton's first start)

Indianapolis Colts...201
Tennessee Titans...291
Green Bay Packers 292
San Diego Chargers...304
Denver Broncos...316

Since Week 1, 2000

Indianapolis Colts...207
Tennessee Titans...304
Green Bay Packers 309
San Diego Chargers...326
Denver Broncos...330

2006: Started 15 games and played in 93.1 percent of the team's offensive snaps...Continued to work back to his Pro Bowl-caliber form after surgeries on his ankle in January and on his knee in May...Along with Tauscher, was one of two returning full-time starters on Green Bay's offensive line...Played every snap on an offensive line that didn't allow a sack from the fourth quarter vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17) to the second quarter vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8); the streak covered 108 passing plays and included a shutout at Philadelphia (Oct. 2) against the Eagles' attacking defense...At Miami (Oct. 22): Was listed as inactive just before the 90-minute deadline, ending his streak of 53 straight starts, which had been tied with Tauscher and CB Al Harris for the second-longest active streak on the team behind QB Brett Favre; had battled flu-like symptoms the night before and the morning of the game, the first contest he missed since Warren Sapp ended his 2002 season...Vs. Arizona (Oct. 29): Helped the offense amass 203 yards on the ground (383 total) including 100-yard performances from both Green (106) and RB Vernand Morency (101), which was the first time the Packers had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game since Dec. 1, 1985, vs. Tampa Bay (Eddie Lee Ivey, Gerry Ellis)...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Played his 100th career game.

2005: Though nagged by an ankle injury for the final three-fourths of the season, started all 16 games at LT for the third straight year, playing 94.2 percent of the offensive snaps — second among offensive linemen and third among all players on offense...Was voted as an NFC Pro Bowl alternate a second straight year...At Carolina (Oct. 3): Sustained left ankle injury early in Monday night contest, forcing him to sit out quarters 2-4...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Though he missed most of practice in the week leading up to game, still started in 52-3 victory and shut out Saints DE Will Smith, who would go on to tie for eighth in the NFC in sacks...At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Helped to extend the offensive line's streak to 111 consecutive passing plays without a sack in border battle...Vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 6): Blanked Pittsburgh sack specialist Joey Porter (10.5 sacks in '05) in hard-fought loss to eventual Super Bowl champs...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 11): Threw several key blocks for rookie RB Samkon Gado as he rushed for a team record 171 yards...Underwent offseason surgery (Jan. 16, 2006) to alleviate ankle problem.

2004: On the heels of signing a contract extension during the offseason, enjoyed perhaps his finest year as a professional, matter-of-factly shutting down several of the league's top pass rushers as Green Bay allowed an all-time franchise-low 14 sacks...Was a Pro Bowl alternate...Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and played 100 percent of the team's offensive snaps during the regular season a second consecutive year, a feat matched only by linemate Wahle in '04...Was a catalyst in the Packers not allowing half of their regular-season opponents (an all-time high eight of 16) to record a sack...Following the season, was named to the All-Joe team of USA Today as a player who is "overlooked and underappreciated" as well as to FOX Sports analyst Daryl Johnston's All-Lunch Pail Crew for his blue-collar approach to football...At Carolina (Sept. 13): Kept Pro Bowl DE Julius Peppers from recording a sack in season-opening victory...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 19): Made his 50th NFL start (along with Tauscher)...At Indianapolis (Sept. 26): Turned in his top personal performance of the season in noisy, hostile RCA Dome, neutralizing the Colts' cat-quick Freeney, who would go on to lead the NFL with 16 sacks; Indy's Pro Bowl DE could post only one solo tackle in spite of the fact that he was playing on the fast track of his home stadium and the Packers were in catch-up mode for much of the contest...Vs. Minnesota (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Exited playoff game in the third quarter after spraining his left ankle; subsequently underwent arthroscopic surgery on that ankle Feb. 14, 2005.

2003: Returned successfully from the pelvic injury that had ended his 2002 season to start all 16 games for the first time as a professional...Was the only Green Bay lineman to play every offensive snap during the regular season...Also started both playoff contests...As a general rule, practiced only once a day early in training camp as he returned gradually from the pelvic injury that had cut short his '02 season, and he did not see game action until the third preseason contest (Aug. 15 at Cleveland)...His comeback efforts had been hindered by a pair of unrelated offseason operations...Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee Jan. 31, 2003, to address cartilage damage tied to an MCL sprain from the '02 season, then later had his right elbow scoped April 14, 2003, to remove multiple loose bodies...Was personally responsible for only two pressures and a half sack, according to Green Bay coaches...Manned critical LT spot on an offensive line that permitted but 19 sacks — at the time a franchise low for a 16-game season and tied (with Indianapolis) for the second fewest in the NFL...Included in that low sack number was a (then) team-record six games without a sack allowed (since 1963, as far back as the stat can be tracked in team annals), including three straight contests (Sept. 14-21-29) with zero sacks for the first time in franchise history...Also helped the Packers to single-season franchise records for yards rushing (2,558) and yards per carry (5.05), including 1,883 yards by Green to break Jim Taylor's 41-year-old team rushing mark; Green Bay's 2,558 rushing yards ranked third in the NFL, behind only Baltimore (2,669) and Denver (2,629)...Played a part in November stretch in which the Packers rushed for 190 or more yards in four straight games...At St. Louis (Oct. 19): Blanked Rams' Pro Bowl DE Leonard Little (third in the NFC with 12½ sacks)...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 16): Played a pivotal role when Green Bay snapped the Buccaneers' NFL-record streak of 69 consecutive games with at least one sack in 20-13 triumph, shutting out Simeon Rice, the Bucs' Pro Bowl DE who ultimately would finish second in the NFC with 15 sacks.

2002: Turned in several notable performances before his season was ended by a pelvic injury after 11 games... Played in 10 of Green Bay's first 11 games, making nine starts at LT, and was inactive twice... Vs. Carolina (Sept. 29): Shut out Mike Rucker — the league's leading sacker entering the contest and the eventual NFC Defensive Player of the Month — in victory over Panthers... At New England (Oct. 13): Was playing well before he sprained the MCL in his right knee, which made him inactive vs. Washington (Oct. 20)... At Miami (Nov. 4): Did not start as he continued to battle knee injury, but played the final two-and-a-half quarters as he neutralized DE Jason Taylor, who had been named AFC Defensive Player of the Week days earlier and would go on to finish as the NFL sack leader with 18½... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 24): Had his year come to an abrupt end when he was blindsided by an unnecessary block during a third-quarter INT return. Sprained the bones of his pelvis so severely that he was hospitalized for nearly a week (in both Tampa and Green Bay) and was unable to walk on his own for roughly another six weeks before beginning a full offseason of rehabilitation. Was placed on injured reserve Dec. 4.

2001: Played in 14 games, starting 13, in his first full season as the starter at LT... Also opened both playoff contests... Was inactive for one regular-season game and dressed for the other, though he did not play... Played a central role as Green Bay allowed the third-fewest sacks in the NFL (22) and the least by a Packers team in 27 years (17 in 1974) at that time... Vs. Washington (Sept. 24): Held Hall of Famer Bruce Smith without a sack in Monday night victory... Vs. Baltimore (Oct. 14): Despite playing with a left hamstring strain suffered a week earlier at Tampa Bay, shut out DE Michael McCrary, one of the AFC's top pass rushers, in triumph over the defending Super Bowl champions... Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 4): Sprained his left ankle early in the game, forcing him to be inactive for the ensuing contest, at Chicago (Nov. 11)... At Detroit (Nov. 22): Returned to the field, in a reserve capacity, for Thanksgiving Day battle, rotating in for Barry Stokes in the first half before taking the majority of snaps after halftime... At Jacksonville (Dec. 3): Returned to the starting lineup...

Vs. Minnesota (Dec. 30): Picked up a big block of LB Jim Nelson on Donald Driver's 31-yard TD run on a reverse, giving the Packers a 7-3 advantage late in the first half of eventual 24-13 win.

2000: Moved into the starting lineup at LT in the seventh game of his rookie season, taking over for Wahle... Played so well down the stretch against some of the NFL's best pass rushers that he drew serious consideration for all-rookie honors... Helped Green Bay average 117.3 yards rushing per game over the final 10 contests — a 39-yard improvement over the 78.3 yards per game the Packers put forth in the first six weeks when he wasn't starting... Saw action in 13 games, starting the last 10... Saw his rookie season get off to a slow start when he suffered a mild sprain of his right MCL during one-on-one pass-blocking drills in practice Aug. 16, causing him to miss the Packers' final two preseason games and to be inactive for the first two regular-season contests (vs. New York Jets, at Buffalo)... Dressed, but did not play, vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 17)... At Arizona (Sept. 24): Made his NFL debut, seeing late-game action at LT in a 29-3 win... At Detroit (Oct. 8): Played the majority of the second half at LT after Wahle went out due to a calf strain, holding up well against DE Tracy Scroggins, who had generated 1½ sacks and significant pressure before Clifton got onto the field... Vs. San Francisco (Oct. 15): Made his first NFL start, opening up at LT. Along with Tauscher, gave Green Bay its first pair of starting rookie tackles in 48 years (Tom Johnson-Bob Dees, Nov. 16, 1952, at N.Y. Giants)... At Miami (Oct. 29): Held his own against Taylor, whose 14½ sacks ended up second in the AFC, in his initial significant challenge since becoming a starter... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 12): Held DE Marcus Jones (fourth in the NFC with 13 sacks) without a sack, and prevented him from making even a single tackle... At Minnesota (Dec. 17): Shut down DT John Randle in upset victory over Vikings inside the noisy Metrodome... 2000 Draft: Selected in the second round (44th overall), and was the fifth OL picked in the draft. First OL drafted by the Packers out of the University of Tennessee since T Jim Haslam in 1953. At the time, was the highest selection used on a player from UT in team history (Justin Harrell, 16th overall in 2007). One of nine Volunteers drafted in 2000.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter (1996-99) who began his collegiate career at RT before spending his final three

Seventh NFL Season
Seventh Packers Season

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 207 • Born: August 16, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 93/93 • Acquired: D2a-05

CAREER: Talented, athletic defender has become one of the top playmakers in the league at the safety position... Selected to the Pro Bowl for the third straight season in 2010, becoming the first Packers safety since LeRoy Butler (2006-08) to receive that recognition in three consecutive seasons... Joined Baltimore's Ed Reed and Arizona's Adrian Wilson as the only safeties in the NFL to be named to the Pro Bowl each of the last three seasons... Also earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press for the third straight season in 2010... Ranks second among all NFL players (Reed, 558) with 439 interception return yards since 2008, and his 17 interceptions over that span rank tied for second among safeties behind only Reed's 20... Tied for the lead among NFL safeties with three INT returns for touchdowns since '08... Has missed just three games due to injury in six seasons (all in 2007, knee)... Has posted 488 tackles (379 solo), 21 interceptions and 82 passes defended during his career... Started all 16 games and all four playoff contests at free safety in 2010, posting 75 tackles (64 solo), four interceptions, 17 passes defended and a fumble recovery... Helped the Packers rank No. 5 in pass defense and No. 5 in overall defense... Took on increased responsibilities as a signal caller in '09 in new defensive coordinator Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme, and started all 16 games at FS... Finished second on the team with six INTs, tied for fifth in the league... That followed a 2008 campaign that saw him intercept a career-best seven passes, nearly tripling his previous career total, and return three of them for TDs in earning his first Pro Bowl berth, the first Packers safety to earn the honor since Darren Sharper in 2002... Became the first NFL safety to run back three INTs for TDs in a season since Kansas City's Lloyd Burruss in 1986, and tied CB Herb Adderley (1965) for the single-season franchise record in the category (Woodson also tied the mark in 2009)... Also led the NFL in INT return yards with 295 in '08, the sixth-best single-season mark in NFL history, which also topped Bobby Dillon's previous single-season franchise mark of 244... Is tied with Johnny (Blood) McNally for No. 5 on the Packers' all-time list for INT returns for TDs with four, needing one to tie Sharper and Dillon for third... Showed the first true glimpse of his game-changing ability in the 2006 regular-season finale at Chicago, when he intercepted two passes and returned one for a TD in Green Bay's resounding victory over the eventual NFC champion Bears... In 2007, remained reliable and productive, but did not turn in those big plays in part due to a knee injury that forced him to miss the first and only three games of his career, plus a nagging back issue that he played through repeatedly in 2008... Upon drafting Collins, GM Ted Thompson assigned the rookie No. 36, last worn by four-time Pro Bowler Butler; Thompson told Butler he wouldn't give out the number to just any player, tabbing Collins worthy of the honor... Collins answered by earning the Packers' 2005 Defensive Rookie of the Year award... Took a little more than a week of his rookie training camp to gain his bearings, then grabbed onto the starter's role at free safety and never relinquished it... Turned heads prior to the 2005 draft with a 40-inch vertical leap... Was the first of two second-round choices by Green Bay in the 2005 draft (51st overall and 12th defensive back), the Packers utilizing the pick acquired from New Orleans for CB Mike McKenzie in October 2004... Led the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference in

AT A GLANCE

- Selected to the Pro Bowl for the third straight season in 2010, becoming the first Packers safety since LeRoy Butler (1996-98) to earn the honor in three consecutive seasons.
- Ranks second in the league with 439 interception return yards since 2008, and is tied for second among NFL safeties with 17 interceptions over that span.
- Returned three INTs for TDs in 2008, becoming the first NFL safety to do so since Kansas City's Lloyd Burruss in 1986. His 295 INT return yards in '08 led the NFL and broke the franchise record (Bobby Dillon, 244 in 1956).
- Has missed just three games in six seasons (all in 2007, knee injury) since being drafted in the second round in 2005.
- Honored by the Packers as the team's 2005 Defensive Rookie of the Year, and earned a spot on the prestigious All-Rookie team announced by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America.
- Became the first Packers rookie to start a regular-season opener at safety since Chuck Cecil in 1988.
- Upon drafting Collins, GM Ted Thompson assigned the rookie No. 36, last worn by four-time Pro Bowler Butler; Thompson told Butler he wouldn't give out the number to just any player, tabbing Collins worthy of the honor.
- Only the second Bethune-Cookman athlete ever to play for the Packers, joining offensive tackle Steve Collier, who saw action for Green Bay in 1987.

interceptions each of his last two seasons in college, earning all-league honors both years and successfully filling the void as Bethune-Cookman's playmaker after three-time Division I-AA All-American CB Rashean Mathis departed for the NFL (Jaguars)... Also was a third-team Division I-AA All-America pick as a senior... Is only the second Bethune-Cookman athlete ever to play for the Packers, joining T Steve Collier, who suited up for Green Bay in 1987.

2010 SEASON: Became the first Green Bay safety since Butler (1996-98) to be selected to the Pro Bowl in three straight seasons... Was named a starter for the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career, but did not play in the game since the Packers were preparing for Super Bowl XLV... Earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press for the third straight season... Named All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly... Started all 16 games at FS for the fifth time in his career and opened all four games in the post-season... Posted 75 tackles (64 solo), four interceptions, 17 passes defended and a fumble recovery... Added six tackles on special teams and a fumble recovery for a TD... Recorded 13 tackles (12 solo), an INT and six passes defended in the postseason... Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Recorded a season-high nine tackles (all solo), his highest regular-season total since posting 11 vs. Houston (Dec. 7, 2008)... Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Matched his season high with nine tackles (eight solo) and recorded an INT in the fourth quarter to help preserve the Packers' 28-24 lead. Jumped over the shoulder of WR Percy Harvin to pick off a QB Brett Favre pass before falling to the turf with 9:18 left; Green Bay took over at its own 23... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Registered four tackles (three solo) and a QB pressure, but his biggest play of the day came on special teams. Picked up the ball after CB/S Jarrett Bush ripped it from the arms of KR Bryan McCann and returned the fumble 26 yards for a TD. The score was the fifth of his career, but the first on special teams and the first off a fumble return... Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Posted four solo stops and an INT, making a diving pick of a QB Troy Smith pass intended for TE Vernon Davis in the fourth quarter... At New England (Dec. 19): Lined up wide on the opening kickoff and recovered a surprise onside kick by K Mason Crosby at the Green Bay 47; Packers would drive 40 yards in 11 plays for a FG. Injured his ribs in the second quarter; had X-rays and did not return... Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Despite being listed as questionable all week with the rib injury, played every defensive snap and recorded five tackles (three solo), an INT, a fumble recovery and a pass defended. Late in the third quarter with Green Bay holding a 31-17 lead, recovered a fumble that was forced when LB Clay Matthews raced from behind and punched the ball out from the arms of RB Brandon Jacobs. Pounced on the ball at the Green Bay 27 after it was tipped back by LB Desmond Bishop to keep it from going out of bounds. Intercepted a QB Eli Manning pass intended for WR Mario Manningham in the fourth quarter... Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Posted the game-clinching INT in the closing seconds to seal a postseason berth for the Packers. With the Packers leading 10-3, picked off QB Jay Cutler at the Green Bay 11 with 20 seconds remaining. On second down at the Green Bay 32, Cutler overthrew WR Devin Hester in the middle of the field; Collins returned the INT 24 yards before falling to the turf at the Packers' 35 with 10 seconds left... Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Posted a game-changing interception when he picked off QB Ben Roethlisberger in the opening quarter. Was lined up single-high behind the middle of the formation, but broke to his right and streaked toward the sideline to pick off the pass that fell well short of its intended target, WR Mike Wallace. Intercepted the pass just in front of the Pittsburgh sideline at the Steelers' 37 and weaved through several offensive players before leaping forward at the 3-yard line into the end zone. The turnover marked the first postseason INT of his career as Collins joined Adderley as the only players in franchise history to return an INT for a TD in a Super Bowl. Was treated for cramps at halftime but did not miss any game action. Played a critical role in keeping the defensive backfield together in the second half in the absence of veteran CB Charles Woodson (collarbone) and nickel CB Sam Shields (shoulder). Finished with five tackles (four solo) and a pass defended.

2009: Earned Pro Bowl recognition for the second straight season and also earned second-team All-Pro honors from AP for the second straight year... Started every game at FS as well as the team's playoff contest... Posted 54 tackles (45 solo), six INTs, a sack, a fumble recovery and 16 passes defended... The six INTs ranked second on the team and tied for fifth in the league... On the field for 916-of-996 defensive snaps (92.0 percent), good for second on the team behind only Woodson... Added six tackles on special teams and a fumble recovery on a kickoff return... Was selected by his teammates as the winner of the Ed Block Courage Award... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Intercepted Jay Cutler's pass deep down the middle intended for TE Desmond Clark in the first quarter and returned the pick 31 yards to the Green Bay 43. Finished with three tackles (all solo) and two passes defended... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Posted season-high seven tackles (six solo) in less than half a game as he left midway through the second quarter with a clavicle sprain and did not return... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Recovered DE Brian Robison's fumble on a kickoff return midway through the third quarter at the Vikings' 41; Packers turned the field position into points with a TE Spencer Havner TD reception... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Picked off rookie QB Josh Freeman's deep pass intended for WR Maurice Stovall at the Green Bay 41 and returned it 13 yards. Stopped RB Cadillac Williams for a 1-yard loss on a first-quarter run, one of four tackles (all solo) he made on the afternoon... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Posted the first sack of his career when he came off the right edge to bring QB Tony Romo down for a 1-yard loss on a third-and-3 on the Cowboys' opening drive. Tied for the team lead with two passes defended... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Intercepted QB Alex Smith's pass intended for TE Vernon Davis at the San Francisco 21 early in the fourth quarter and returned the pick 10 yards to set up a Ryan Grant TD run four plays later. Finished with a team-leading three passes defended... At Detroit (Nov. 26): Recorded five tackles (three solo) and an INT. Stopped a Detroit drive late in the first quarter when he picked off QB Matthew Stafford's pass intended for TE Will Heller on third down, doing a nice job to keep both feet in bounds near the sideline at the Lions' 26... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted the first defensive fumble recovery of his career when he scooped up RB Ray Rice's fumble (forced by DE Johnny Jolly) at the Green Bay 15 on the Ravens' opening drive; returned fumble 4 yards. On Ravens' next possession, intercepted QB Joe Flacco's deep pass intended for WR Derrick Mason on a flea-flicker and returned the pick 25 yards to Green Bay's 48... At Chicago (Dec. 13): With Packers trailing 14-13 early in the fourth quarter, picked off Cutler's pass intended for WR Johnny Knox on the left sideline at the Chicago 42. Returned the pick 31 yards down the sideline to the Bears' 11, and Grant scored two plays later on a 1-yard TD for the winning score. Became the first Packer since DB John Symank in 1961 to post an INT in four straight games... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Led the team with 11 tackles (10 solo), including two for loss. Brought RB Beanie Wells down for a 5-yard loss on a run off left end late in the first quarter, and stopped Wells again for a 3-yard loss in the second quarter on a run off the right side... Pro Bowl (Jan. 31): Started at FS and posted four tackles (three solo).

2008: Named Pro Bowl starter to become the first Packers safety to receive that honor since Sharper in 2002... Earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association... Started every game at FS and ranked second on the team with 99 tackles (77 solo), the second-highest season total of his career... Tied for NFC lead with teammate Woodson with career-high seven INTs... Tied for second in the NFL in INTs with three others, trailing only Reed (9)... Only player in NFL to return three INTs for TDs in 2008, becoming the first NFL safety to accomplish the feat since Kansas City's Burruss in 1986... Tied Adderley (1965) for team single-season record with the three INT returns for scores... Led league with 295 INT return yards, which is sixth-most in a single season in NFL history and tops in Green Bay history, besting Dillon's mark (244 in 1956)... Along with Woodson, became only the second tandem in franchise history to each post 165-plus INT return yards in a season (Symank/Dillon, 1957)... Along with Woodson and Tramon Williams, became first Packers trio to each post five INTs in a season since 1996 (Eugene Robinson, Doug Evans, Butler)...Second on the team with a career-high 18 passes defended...On the field for 986 of 1,050 (93.9 percent) defensive snaps, which ranked third on the team...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted second TD of his career when he intercepted QB Jon Kitna with just over two minutes remaining and returned the pick 42 yards for the score...Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Intercepted a Romo pass toward end of first quarter in the end zone, and returned it 61 yards. Posted eight tackles and two passes defended on the night, but left game in third quarter with a bruised back and did not return...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Posted INT in third straight game when he picked off QB Brian Griese's pass intended for WR Antonio Bryant in third quarter. Made eight tackles and added two passes defended, but left game in the third quarter after reinjuring back...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Recorded career-high 13 tackles, including stop of RB Jerious Norwood for a 2-yard loss on a reception from QB Matt Ryan in the second quarter...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Posted team-high 10 tackles, plus forced a fumble by RB Julius Jones on 1-yard run in third quarter that went out of bounds...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Recorded career-high fourth INT on the season when he picked off QB Peyton Manning's pass that went off the hands of WR Reggie Wayne. Weaved 62 yards with the pick for a TD, his career long for an INT return. On the next series, broke up a pass in the end zone intended for WR Marvin Harrison...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Picked off QB Gus Frerotte's deep pass over the middle to TE Visanthe Shiancoe and returned the INT 59 yards for a TD, his third score of the season...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Recorded 11 tackles, a career-best third game on the season with double-digit tackles, before leaving game late in fourth quarter after sustaining shin injury making a tackle of FB Vonta Leach on the sideline...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Picked off QB Kyle Orton's pass intended for WR Devin Hester at the Green Bay 11 early in the fourth quarter and returned the INT 28 yards. Led team with four passes defended to match his career high, breaking up two Orton passes that were near-INTs...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Recorded three tackles, an INT and tied for the team lead with two passes defended. Picked off QB Dan Orlovsky's deep pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson late in the fourth quarter at the goal line and returned it 61 yards to the Lions' 39, but was credited with 37 yards because of a block-in-the-back penalty...Pro Bowl (Feb. 8): Started at FS and made one solo tackle and two special teams tackles in NFC's 30-21 victory.

2007: Started 13 games, plus both playoff contests, and was inactive (knee) for three games...Made 62 tackles (45 solo), plus six passes defended...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Suffered knee injury after making a second-quarter, TD-saving tackle on RB Adrian Peterson; missed parts of two defensive series, but returned to play the entire second half. Finished second on the team with a season-high eight tackles (three solo)...Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Made seven tackles (six solo), with one pass defended. In the fourth quarter, leaped and got his hand on a Griese throw, tipping the pass into the hands of LB Brady Poppinga for the INT...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made two solo tackles and one pass defended before leaving the game in the third quarter with a knee injury; did not return and missed the next three contests...Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Posted five tackles (four solo) and one pass defended. In the first quarter, stopped RB Justin Fargas for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-1.

2006: Started all 16 games at FS and finished third on the team with 16 passes defended -- surpassing the nine he totaled as a 2005 rookie -- and finished fifth on the team and second among Packers DBs with a career-high 102 tackles (82 solo)...Also picked off three passes, returning one for his first NFL TD, forced a fumble, and notched one special teams tackle...Saw action in 999 of the team's defensive plays (95.7 percent)...His versatility allowed him to play corner in the team's dime package...Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17): Deflected a Drew Brees pass into the arms of CB Al Harris; also shifted to CB in the dime package, and on two third downs -- including late in the game with the Packers trailing by a TD -- stopped RB Reggie Bush on dump-off passes to force punts...At Detroit (Sept. 24): Led the team with a career-high four passes defended. In the fourth quarter on a crucial Lions third-and-1, took down RB Kevin Jones from behind for a 1-yard loss (DT Corey Williams sacked Kitna on fourth down to change possession); then, on the last play of the game -- a Hail Mary attempt by Kitna -- got up to knock the ball down, preserving a 31-24 win...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Made his first INT of the season and second of his career, diving for a Smith pass intended for Davis; Green Bay took a 24-13 lead two plays later on a 68-yard Donald Driver catch-and-run...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Posted a career-high two INTs. In first quarter, stepped in front of a QB Rex Grossman pass intended for TE Desmond Clark and returned it 55 yards for his first NFL TD; in the fourth quarter, intercepted a Griese throw on third-and-13 on what turned out to be Chicago's final offensive play.

2005: Promising second-round draft pick who started all 16 games at FS, earning a spot on the prestigious All-Rookie team announced by PFW/PFWA...Finished fourth on the team with 96 tackles (66 solo)...Also ranked third with nine passes defended, including one INT, and forced a fumble...Began working with the first-team defense prior to the first pre-season game and did not look back, becoming an important contributor to the NFL's top-ranked passing defense...Added 10 stops on special teams and secured each of the team's two opponent onside kick attempts, extinguishing potential rallies in wins over Atlanta and Seattle...At Detroit (Sept. 11): Posted two solo tackles in his first NFL game and start, becoming the first Packers rookie to start a regular-season opener at safety since Chuck Cecil in 1988; Cecil, a fourth-round pick out of Arizona, lined up in the backfield Sept. 4, 1988, a 34-7 loss to QB Jim Everett and the L.A. Rams in Lindy Infante's first contest as Packers coach...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Made seven tackles (three solo) and forced one fumble with a jarring hit on TE Ernie Conwell that DE Kenny Peterson returned 8 yards, leading to a three-play TD drive...At Cincinnati (Oct. 30): Notched six tackles (four solo) and a then career-high three passes defended; delivered a highlight-reel hit on WR Chad Johnson to knock the ball

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 245 • Born: November 4, 1985 • NFL Games Played/Started: 16/1 • Acquired: FA-'09

CAREER: Backup tight end known for his rugged blocking on both offense and special teams who made the Packers' final roster out of training camp last season despite playing with a cast to protect an injured wrist...Healthy during the regular season, contributed minimally in the passing game with just four receptions for 61 yards before scoring his first pro touchdown on a 7-yard pass in the NFC Wild Card playoff in Philadelphia, the Packers' first score of the 2010 postseason...Also was a major contributor on special teams both as a blocker and cover man, tying for second on the team with 12 coverage tackles...Originally joined the Packers as a practice-squad signee for the final five weeks of the 2009 season and then was signed to a reserve/future contract following the playoffs...Entered the NFL as a non-drafted free agent with Kansas City in '09, spending the entire offseason and training camp with the Chiefs before being waived in the final roster reduction...Spent the first three weeks of the 2009 season on the Chiefs' practice squad and then was released...A three-year starter at tight end for Miami (Ohio)...Is one of only two players from Miami (Ohio) to play in a game for the Packers, joining E Clive Rush (1953).

2010 SEASON: Played in all 16 games as a backup tight end with one start, and played in all four postseason games...Caught four passes for 61 yards (15.3 avg.) in the regular season and added two catches for 8 yards (4.0 avg.) in the playoffs, including a 7-yard TD, his first score as a pro...A regular on special teams all season, tied for second on the team with 12 coverage tackles, adding four more in the postseason, one in each game...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Recorded two special teams tackles in his NFL debut...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Again posted two coverage tackles and was awarded a game ball on special teams by the coaching staff...At Washington (Oct. 10): With injuries to TEs Jermichael Finley and Donald Lee, made the first reception of his career, a 3-yard grab in the fourth quarter...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Had a career-long 33-yard reception on the Packers' first drive to help set up a 46-yard Mason Crosby field goal...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Got his first NFL start and helped set up a field goal with a 21-yard catch on the Packers' first drive of the second half, following a fumble recovery by S Atari Bigby. Also had a career-high three tackles on special teams...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Recorded a special teams tackle of Devin Hester after a 16-yard punt return, and threw a block to help spring CB Tramon Williams for a 41-yard punt return in the third quarter, setting up a field goal to

- First signed by Green Bay to the practice squad on Dec. 1, 2009, then made the final roster out of training camp in 2010.
- His lone pro touchdown was the first of the 2010 postseason for the Packers, on a 7-yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers at Philadelphia in NFC Wild Card contest.
- Originally entered NFL with Kansas City as non-drafted free agent from Miami (Ohio), beginning the 2009 season on the Chiefs' practice squad.
- Became just the second player from Miami (Ohio) to play in a game for the Packers, joining E Clive Rush (1953).
- Was a four-year letterman and a three-year starter for the RedHawks.

tie the game at 3...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Opened the scoring with a 7-yard play-action TD grab late in the first quarter, his first pro score, to cap a 10-play, 68-yard drive...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Was a key blocker in the running game and in pass protection, and caught a 1-yard pass in the fourth quarter. Also had a tackle on punt coverage and drew a critical penalty on the final kickoff of the game, a personal foul after the whistle on LB Keyaron Fox. The 13-yard infraction backed the Steelers up to their own 13-yard line to start their final drive.

2009: Spent training camp with Kansas City and appeared in all four preseason games, catching two passes for 19 yards (9.5 avg.) and recording a tackle on special teams...Was waived in the final roster reduction on Sept. 6 and signed to the Chiefs' practice squad the next day...Spent three weeks on the practice squad and was released on Sept. 29...Was signed to the Packers' practice squad on Dec. 1, spending the final five weeks of the regular season and playoffs there...2009 Draft: Signed with Kansas City as a non-drafted free agent on May 8.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and three-year starter at TE for Miami (Ohio), appeared in 48 games, starting 29 and totaling 40 catches for 329 yards and two TDs...Was also a consistent contributor to the team's various special teams units and recorded 38 special teams tackles...Earned a B.S. in secondary education...Senior season (2008): Played in 12 games with nine starts, collecting 10 catches for 64 yards (6.4 avg.) and also adding five special teams tackles...Junior season (2007): Appeared in 13 games

KICKER • COLORADO

Fifth NFL Season
Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 207 • Born: September 3, 1984 • NFL Games Played/Started: 64/0 • Acquired: D6c-07

CAREER: Kicker known for his strong leg and level head has surpassed the 100-point mark in each of his four seasons in Green Bay, one of only two players in team history (Ryan Longwell, 1997-2004) to accomplish that feat...His 509 career points are the second most in league history by a player in his first four seasons, trailing only New England K Stephen Gostkowski (513 points from 2006-09)...By hitting the career 500-point mark in his 63rd game, became the second fastest to 500 points in team history behind only Hall of Fame RB Paul Hornung (60 games)...Ranked fifth in the NFC and 11th in the NFL in scoring among kickers with 112 points in 2010, connecting on 22-of-28 field goals (78.6 percent)...Good on 10-of-14 field goals from 40 yards and out, a career-high 71.4 percent from that range... Scored 129 points in 2009 to push his three-year total to 397, an NFL record for a player in his first three seasons and the second most in the league from 2007-09 behind Gostkowski (410)...Posted a career-best 17 touchbacks in 2008, the most by a Packers kicker since Chester Marcol's 28 in 1972 and the most since kickoffs were moved back to the 30-yard line in 1994...Overall in four seasons has made 107-of-137 field goals (78.1 percent) and 188-of-189 PATs (99.5 percent), his lone miss coming at St. Louis in 2009 (Sept. 27) and breaking a string of 100 straight (108 including playoffs) to begin his pro career...That miss ended a string of 168 consecutive PATs overall dating back to his sophomore season in college at Colorado, with his previous miss coming on Nov. 6, 2004, at Kansas.

His decorated rookie year began by winning the kicking job from incumbent Dave Rayner during 2007 training camp as a sixth-round draft pick...Captured the league scoring title with 141 points, becoming the first rookie to lead the NFL since Chicago K Kevin Butler in 1985...Finished just three points shy of tying Butler's NFL record for points in a season by a rookie kicker (144)...Also set franchise records for points in a season by a kicker, surpassing Longwell's 131 points in 2000, and for points by a rookie, joining Marcol (1972), Chris Jacke (1989) and Longwell (1997) as the only kickers in Packers history to score more than 100 points as a rookie...His 141 points in 2007 rank third behind Hornung (176 in 1960, 146 in 1961) on the team's single-season scoring list...Also earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November, when he made 12-of-15 field goals over a five-game stretch, including five from 45 yards or longer...Booted a 53-yard FG and a 42-yard game winner in his first professional contest, vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9, 2007), and his season took off from there, earning recognition on the Dallas Morning News All-Rookie team...A good athlete who has made 15 tackles on special teams in his career and could serve as emergency punter if needed...In college, already had proven his kicking prowess was not simply a product of kicking in the mountain air of Colorado, having hit a 58-yard field goal at Miami in 2005, the longest field goal at "sea level" in NCAA Division I-A history without a tee...The only players in football history, college or pro, to kick longer field goals at sea level without a tee were a pair of New Orleans Saints - Tom Dempsey (63 vs. Detroit in 1970) and Morten Andersen (60 vs. Chicago in 1991)...Established a total of 31 game, season and career records

- His 509 career points are the second most in NFL history by a player in his first four seasons, behind only New England K Stephen Gostkowski (513 points from 2006-09).
- By hitting the career 500-point mark in his 63rd career game (Week 16 vs. N.Y. Giants), became the second fastest to 500 points in team history behind Hall of Fame RB Paul Hornung (60 games).
- Drilled a franchise-record 56-yard field goal at Philadelphia in Week 1 last season, earning NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his performance.
- Captured the league scoring title with 141 points in 2007, becoming the first rookie to do so since Chicago K Kevin Butler in 1985 and setting Green Bay records for points by a kicker, and by a rookie (any position), in a single season.
- Established a total of 31 game, season and career records at Colorado. His field goals made, attempted and percentage also set Big 12 Conference records.
- Made a 58-yard FG at Miami in 2005, the longest field goal at sea level in NCAA Division I-A history without a tee. Had a 65-yard FG attempt fall less than a yard short in 2006 vs. Iowa State.
- Had made 100 consecutive PATs as a pro, and 168 overall dating back to his sophomore season in college, when he missed one in 2009 at St. Louis (Sept. 27). His previous PAT miss came at Kansas on Nov. 6, 2004.

at Colorado, where he holds the all-time records for points scored (307), field goals made (66) and attempted (88), extra points made (109) and attempted (117), field goal percentage (75.0) and longest field goal made (60 yards)...His field goals made, attempted and percentage also set Big 12 Conference career marks...Earned various first-team All-American honors his final two seasons and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award his final three years.

2010 SEASON: Led the team in scoring for the fourth straight season with 112 points...The point total ranked No. 5 in the NFC and No. 11 in the NFL among kickers...Cleared the 100-point plateau for the fourth straight season, connecting on 22-of-28 field goals (78.6 percent) and all 46 of his extra-point attempts...Was 10-of-14 (71.4 percent) from 40 yards and out, a career-high percentage from that range...Successfully converted an inside kick and registered three tackles on special teams...Good on 3-of-4 field-goal attempts and all 16 extra points in the postseason, with his 25 points ranking tied for No. 2 in franchise history for a single postseason behind only Jacke's 26 in 1996...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Opened the season by etching his name in the record books, drilling a franchise-record 56-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. The 56-yarder was the longest in the NFC all season and ranks No. 2 in Lincoln Financial Field history behind only David Akers' 57-yarder in 2003, the stadium's inaugural season. Also good from 49 yards out earlier in the second quarter as part of a performance that earned him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, the first time he had received the award since taking home the honor for his NFL debut vs. Philadelphia in '07. Was the first time in his career that he posted two field goals of 49-plus yards in a game...At Washington (Oct. 10): Nailed a 52-yard field goal in the second quarter, his 10th career FG from 50 yards or more. With the game tied at 13 with seven seconds remaining in regulation, his 53-yard FG attempt hit the left upright...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Was responsible for all of the points in a defensive battle, connecting on field goals of 20, 41 and 40 yards in the 9-0 win...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Scored 10 points as he converted 2-of-3 field goals and all four extra points. The contest marked the 21st double-digit scoring game of his career...At New England (Dec. 19): Opened the game with a perfectly executed onside kick on the opening kickoff. Sprayed the ball wide to his right as S Nick Collins recovered it near the sideline at the Green Bay 47. Combined with his successful attempt at Arizona in the 2009 Wild Card contest, the play was his second straight conversion on an onside kick. The Packers drove 40 yards in 11 plays following the onside to set up his 31-yard FG...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Was good on all six extra points and his lone FG attempt to eclipse the 500-point mark for his career. By doing so in his 63rd game, became the second fastest in team history to 500 points behind only Hornung (60 games)...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Matched the team postseason record held by Jacke (vs. Carolina, Jan. 12, 1997) with 12 points. Good on field goals from 43 and 32 yards out along with six extra points...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Made all four of his PATs and ended the scoring with a 23-yard FG with 2:07 remaining to push the Packers' lead to 31-25. Credited with a special teams tackle after pushing WR Antonio Brown out of bounds on the opening kickoff.

2009: Led team with 129 points, the third-highest single-season point total without a TD in team history...Connected on 27-of-36 FG attempts (75.0 percent) and 48-of-49 PATs (98.0 percent)...Ranked fourth among NFL kickers in scoring and tied for sixth in FGs made...Posted 12 touchbacks on kickoffs and two tackles on special teams...Vs.

Chicago (Sept. 13): Made 2-of-3 FG attempts, including seventh 50-plus-yard FG of his career when he drilled a season-long 52-yarder in the second quarter...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Connected on 45-yard FG late in the fourth quarter, with onside kick on the ensuing play recovered by CB Tramon Williams, the first successful onside attempt by the Packers since Dec. 3, 2006...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Posted 12 points, connecting on all three FG attempts (48, 38, 25), but missed the first PAT of his career early in the fourth quarter, snapping a streak of 100 consecutive made, the fourth-longest streak in team history...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Matched his career high with four FGs, making kicks of 46, 28, 31 and 26 yards, and posted season-high 14 points...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): With all of them coming in the first half, matched career high with three touchbacks on kickoffs (also at Detroit, Sept. 14, 2008; vs. San Diego, Sept. 23, 2007)...Seattle (Dec. 27): Scored 12 points (2 FG, 6 PAT), which included matching his season-long FG with 52-yarder in the fourth quarter, the eighth 50-yarder of his career...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Perfectly executed an onside kick midway through the third quarter, the first by a Packers kicker in the postseason since Josh Bidwell (at St. Louis, Jan. 20, 2002). With the Packers trailing 31-17, his one-bounce kickoff was recovered in the air by CB Brandon Underwood at Green Bay's 43; the offense utilized the field position by scoring a TD in eight plays to narrow the Cardinals' lead to 31-24. Matched his own team playoff record with six PATs (vs. Seattle, Jan. 12, 2008) and made 1-of-2 FGs, connecting on 20-yarder as time expired in first half but missing 54-yard kick wide right early in the second quarter. Added a special teams tackle.

2008: Playing in every game, tied for sixth in the NFC and tied for seventh in the NFL among kickers with 127 points...Tied for third in the NFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with 17 touchbacks, the most by a Packers kicker since 1972 (Marcol, 28) and the most since kickoffs were moved back to the 30-yard line in 1994...Connected on 27-of-34 FG attempts (79.4 percent) and all 46 PATs...Registered four special teams tackles...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Connected on 50-yard FG in third quarter, but had 43-yard kick in second quarter wiped out by holding penalty and missed ensuing 53-yarder...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Made FGs of 47 and 40 yards and posted two touchbacks, but with the Packers trailing 28-27, his 52-yard FG attempt sailed wide right with 26 seconds remaining...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Matched then career-long kick with 53-yard FG right before halftime to put Packers up 17-3 and added FGs from 33 and 45 in the fourth quarter, giving him his first game of the season and fourth career with two 45-plus-yard FGs...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Made 28-yard FG in the fourth quarter, but his 38-yarder with under 30 seconds remaining and score tied at 17 was blocked...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Attempted 69-yard FG on a free kick at the end of the first half with no time left on the clock that fell a couple of yards short.

2007: Played in all 16 games, plus both playoff contests, making 31-of-39 FG attempts (79.5 percent) and all 48 PAT tries in the regular season, and going 2-for-2 on FGs and 8-for-8 on PATs during postseason...Beat out incumbent Rayner for kicking duties in the preseason and went on to capture the league scoring title with 141 points, the first rookie to do so in 22 years, and earned All-Rookie honors from the Dallas Morning News...Also posted 14 touchbacks, good for third in the NFC and sixth in the league; at the time that was the most by a Green Bay kicker in 16 years (Jacke, 15 in 1991)...Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in November when he made 12-of-15 FGs over a five-game stretch, including five from 45 yards or longer...Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Hit a 53-yard FG and a game-winning 42-yarder with two seconds left in his first professional contest to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player in league history to kick a 50-plus-yard FG and a game-winning FG in the final minute of his first NFL game. Scored his first NFL point on a PAT following a Tracy White TD on a muffed punt fumble recovery. His first career FG came from 53 yards in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 10-0 lead; also converted a 37-yard FG in the third quarter to tie the score at 13...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made 4-of-5 FG attempts (48, 36, 32, 45), plus all three PATs, for a career-high 15 points. His 45-yard conversion gave Green Bay a 26-22 fourth-quarter lead in the eventual 33-22 win...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Made all four FG attempts (44, 50, 25 and 46 yards) and all three PATs, plus two touchbacks, earning him Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors as he matched his career high with 15 points...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Made FGs of 33 and 35 yards, plus all four PATs. In the fourth quarter, kicked a 35-yard FG, his last points of the season that allowed him to take the scoring title from New England WR Randy Moss...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Made a career-best six PAT tries...2007 Draft: The third of Green Bay's three consecutive sixth-round picks (193rd overall), the third K selected. Was the 16th player from Colorado drafted by the Packers and first since DT Darius Holland (D3a-95).

COLLEGE: Established a total of 31 game, season and career records at Colorado, where he holds the all-time records for points scored (307), FGs made (66) and attempted (88), PATs made (109) and attempted (117), FG percentage (75.0) and longest FG made (60 yards)...His FGs made, attempted and percentage also set Big 12 Conference career marks...Earned various first-team All-America honors his final two seasons and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award his final three years, finishing runner-up after superb 2005 campaign...Hit a 58-yard FG at Miami (Sept. 24) that season, the longest FG at "sea level" in NCAA Division I-A history without a tee, and one of four 50-plus FGs he made on the road that year...Made 10-of-14 FGs from 50-plus his sophomore and junior seasons combined before falling off that pace as a senior when he missed seven of nine from 50-plus, including attempts from 63 (vs. Montana State) and 65 (vs. Iowa State), the latter falling less than a yard short...Made two FGs of 50-plus in one game three times in his career...Missed only two PATs over his final three years in college, making 78 of 80, including 60 straight to conclude career...Noted for his booming kickoffs as well, on 203 career kickoffs recorded 138 touchbacks, including 88 that went through the end zone...Majored in communication...Senior season (2006): Was an All-American first-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, Pro Football Weekly and the Walter Camp Foundation, adding third-team honors from The Associated Press...All-Big 12 Conference first-team choice for the third consecutive year, only the seventh player in school history to achieve that...Scored 76 points on 19-of-28 FGs and 19-of-19 PATs...Six of his misses were on long-range attempts (three from 50-59 yards, three from past 60 yards)...Only 15 of his 43 kickoffs were returned, with 11 of 27 touchbacks out of the end zone...The opposition's average starting point after kickoffs was the 22-yard line...Tried first and only punt of his career in season opener vs. Montana St. (Sept. 2), good for 43 yards...Converted a 40-yard FG in second quarter vs. Colorado St. (Sept. 9), his 49th FG, to surpass Jeremy Aldrich for the most FGs in a CU career...With two FGs and one PAT at Missouri (Sept. 30), became school's all-time leading scorer, besting previous record holder RB Eric Bieniemy (254 points)...Closed his career by becoming the first Colorado placekicker to play in the Senior Bowl, where he helped the North to a 27-0 win with nine points on three PATs and two FGs of 38 and 21 yards...Junior season (2005): Became the first Colorado placekicker to earn consensus All-American first-team honors (AP, the Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News, The NFL Draft Report, SI.com, Walter Camp and Rivals.com)...Runner-up for the Lou Groza Award by just six points to Oregon State's Alexis Serna...Unanimous All-Big 12 first-team choice and named Special Teams Player of the Year by the league's coaches...Led the team in scoring with 94 points, converting all 31 PATs and 21-of-28 FGs...Was 5-of-7 from beyond 50 yards, with four of the five made ones coming on the road, and 8-of-11 from 40 to 49 yards...Also led the nation in FGs made from 50 yards or more for the second straight year, and led the nation in average distance per FG made at 41.2 yards...Only 18 of his 61 kickoffs were returned, with 33 of his 43 touchbacks out of the end zone...Earned Big 12 Player of the Week honors four times (vs. Colorado State, at Miami, at Kansas State and Missouri), joining Texas Tech QB Kliff Kingsbury (2002) as the only other Big 12 player to receive the honor at least four times in a season...Opened the season vs. Colorado State on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3) by booting a 48-yard FG to tie the score at 21 with 2:32 left and then hitting the first of two game-winning kicks in his career, a 47-yarder with just four seconds left...Had the other game-winner at Kansas State (Oct. 29), a 50-yarder with six seconds left in swirling winds for a 23-20 victory; that came after already making a 52-yard kick in the second quarter...Sophomore season (2004): Named a unanimous All-Big 12 first-team selection and semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award...Earned second-team All-American accolades from The NFL Draft Report and Rivals.com, adding honorable mention from Sports Illustrated...Led the NCAA in FGs made from 50-plus yards with six (topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza winner, who had five), and connected on 23-of-29 FGs overall (19-of-23 regular sea-

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE, PACKERS HISTORY

Phil Bengtson, Vince Lombardi's hand-picked replacement, might have dealt with more pressure in 1970 than anyone who's ever coached the Packers. That season, his third and final as Green Bay head coach, ended at 6-8, with losses in four of his last five games (all on the road). What's more, Bengtson faced the toughest schedule ever thrown at the Packers. The toughest schedules in team history, based on opponent records at the end of that season:

	W	L	Pct	Packers Finish	Notable opponents
1970	113	74	.604	6-8-0, tied for third, division	Super Bowl V champion Colts (twice), NFC champion Cowboys
1921	21	14	.600	3-2-1, tied for sixth, league	League champion Chicago Staleys (9-1-1) in season finale
1933	84	57	.596	5-7-1, third in division	Both NFL title participants (Bears & Giants) twice
1926	79	55	.590	7-3-3, fifth in league	14-1-2 league champion Frankford Yellow Jackets
1953	82	58	.586	2-9-1, sixth in conference	10-2 NFL champion Lions (twice), 11-1 Browns
1957	81	63	.563	3-9-0, sixth in conference	Only one team with eventual losing record: Bears (5-7, twice)
1954	77	60	.562	4-8-0, fifth in conference	9-2-1 conference champion Lions (twice)
1935	70	57	.551	8-4-0, second in division	9-3 Giants, 7-3-2 NFL champion Lions (twice)
1975	107	89	.546	4-10-0, tied for third, div.	12-2 Vikings (twice), 12-2 Rams, Super Bowl champion Steelers
1958	76	64	.543	1-10-1, sixth in conference	NFL champion Colts (9-3, twice); Rams (8-4, twice)

NOTE — Like league standings, ties are not figured in opponents' winning percentage from 1921-71

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 308 • Born: July 19, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 13/0 • Acquired: FA-10

CAREER: Versatile backup at all three interior offensive line positions who returned for a second stint with the Packers in Week 17 of 2010 and was on the roster throughout the postseason...Originally came to the Packers as a non-drafted rookie in 2009, the only one to make the opening-day roster that year, and appeared in 13 games as a reserve and special teamer...Was waived in the final roster reduction following training camp in 2010 and then claimed by Seattle, where he spent the first four weeks of the season...Was inactive for every game before being released by the Seahawks...Came to the NFL after a four-year career at Idaho State that saw him play all five positions across the offensive line and set a school record with 44 career starts up front...Finished his college career as a left tackle, earning team MVP honors as a senior, but has worked as an interior lineman in the pros...Became just the second player from Idaho State to play in a game for the Packers, joining LB Tom Toner (1973, 75-77).

2010 SEASON: Waived by the Packers in the final cut-down following training camp on Sept. 4 and was claimed by Seattle...Spent the first month of the season with the Seahawks, but was inactive for all four games before being released on Oct. 5...Re-signed by the Packers on Dec. 31 after rookie G/T Marshall Newhouse was placed on injured reserve (back) and was on the roster for Week 17 and the entire postseason, though he was inactive for every game.

2009: Played in 13 games, plus the Wild Card contest at Arizona, seeing time primarily on special teams...Saw time from scrimmage in two games, at LG and C, and was a regular on the FG, PAT and kickoff-return teams...Was the only non-drafted rookie to make the Packers' opening-day roster...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made NFL debut, seeing time on PATs and FGs...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Saw first career action from scrimmage, coming in briefly at LG in second quarter when Daryn Colledge injured his ankle...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted first career kickoff return when he fielded a pooch kick at the Green Bay 30 and returned it 5 yards. Fumbled the ball, but teammate Desmond Bishop recovered...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Saw most extensive action of his career on offense, playing C for Scott Wells (rest) for the entire fourth quarter...2009 Draft: Signed by Green Bay as a non-drafted free agent on May 1.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterwinner who set an Idaho State school record for the most starts ever by an offensive lineman, opening 44 games (including the final 36 of his career) at various positions across the offensive front for the Bengals...Appeared at all five positions on the offensive line during his career, earning honorable mention all-con-

AT A GLANCE

- Re-joined the Packers in Week 17 of 2010 after being released at the end of training camp.
- Only non-drafted rookie to make the Packers' opening-day roster in 2009.
- Backed up all three interior offensive line positions and was a contributor on special teams in '09.
- Set an Idaho State record with 44 starts on the offensive line, playing all five positions in his college career, including the last two years at left tackle.
- Became just the second player from Idaho State to play in a game for the Packers, joining LB Tom Toner (1973, 75-77).

ference honors each year...Spent his final two seasons at LT...Earned a B.S. in sports management...Senior season (2008): Started all 12 games at LT, earning team MVP honors after being a critical cog in an offense that averaged 370.8 yards per game...Nearly scored a TD in the season finale vs. Sacramento State (Nov. 22), catching a 5-yard pass on a trick play inside the red zone that set up a Bengals score two plays later...Was given the ISU Lifter of the Year Award at the team's annual football banquet following the season...Junior season (2007): Started 11 games at LT for a unit that averaged 384.7 yards of total offense per game...Sophomore season (2006): Started all 11 games, five at LG, five at RT and one at blocking TE...Red-shirt freshman season (2005): Saw his first action, starting 10 games at LG...Started the first eight games of the season, missed contest vs. Portland State (Nov. 5) with an injury, and then started the final two games, beginning a streak of starts that would carry him through the balance of his career.

PACKERS THE BEST IN THE POSTSEASON

On the heels of 13 playoff appearances in the last 18 years, including three trips to the Super Bowl and a victory in last year's game, the Packers now own the best postseason winning percentage in National Football League history. They have won 29 of 45 playoff games since their first-ever postseason contest — the 1936 NFL championship, a 21-6 victory over the Boston Redskins. The standings:

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 194 • Born: February 2, 1975 • NFL Games Played/Started: 176/139 • Acquired: D7B-99

CAREER: A consistently productive pro whose name appears throughout the franchise record books, is now on the verge of perhaps the most prestigious one for a receiver...Enters 2011 with 9,615 receiving yards, needing just 42 to surpass James Lofton (9,656) as Green Bay's all-time leader in the category...Climbed past Don Hutson (7,991) and Sterling Sharpe (8,134) into second place in 2009 with his sixth straight 1,000-yard season and seventh overall, extending two franchise marks...Also assumed the top spot in team history for receptions ahead of Sharpe (595) with a 70-catch season in 2009, and enters the 2011 campaign with 698 career receptions...With two more catches, will become the 33rd player in NFL history to hit the 700-reception mark for his career...Despite battling a quad injury in 2010, finished second on the team with 51 catches and fourth on the squad with 565 receiving yards...Was credited with his fourth career Pro Bowl selection in 2010 since he would have been named to the all-star squad as an injury replacement for Eagles WR DeSean Jackson had the Packers not been preparing for Super Bowl XLV...His ninth season of 50-plus catches in 2010 added to his team record, topping Lofton and Sharpe (seven each)...Holds the Lambeau Field records for receptions (333) and receiving yards (4,601)...Saw his franchise-record streak of 133 games with at least one reception (139 including playoffs) come to an end in 2010 vs. Minnesota in Week 7...With 53 career TD receptions, ranks No. 4 in team history behind only Hutson (99), Sharpe (65) and Antonio Freeman (57); 36 of those came from Brett Favre, putting Favre and Driver third among Green Bay touchdown combinations...His 54 career TDs (53 receiving, 1 rushing) make him one of just 10 players in team history with 50 touchdowns...Teamed with Greg Jennings in '09 as the Packers posted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers for only the fifth time in team history; Driver has contributed to three of those, also teaming with Jennings in '08 and Javon Walker in '04...Has 22 career 100-yard receiving games, good for fourth in team history and two shy of No. 3 Hutson (24)...Also ranks third all-time in yards from scrimmage with 9,832, needing just 70 yards to move past Lofton (9,901) for the No. 2 spot...Added 14 receptions in the 2010 playoffs to give him 46 career postseason catches, good for second place in team annals behind only Freeman (47)...With 630 career receiving yards in the playoffs, ranks third in franchise history behind Freeman (748) and Robert Brooks (651).

Wants to play until he's 40, and just may do that with the tremendous care he takes of his body...Signed a contract extension in August 2010 that could enable him to retire with the only team he has played for...With 176 games played, ranks seventh in franchise history and would move up to third with another full 16-game season...Impressive, uninterrupted run of success began in 2004, when he first approached age 30, with the first of three straight years setting personal highs in receptions and yards...That year, teamed with Walker to register the Packers' best season by a receiving duo in both combined receptions (173) and combined receiving yards (2,590); yardage total ranked second in the NFL that year behind the Rams' Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce

AT A GLANCE

- Ranks first on the franchise's all-time list for receptions with 698 and ranks second in team history with 9,615 career yards, needing just 42 more yards to surpass James Lofton (9,656).
- Has caught 50 or more passes in a season a franchise-best nine times, topping Lofton and Sterling Sharpe (seven each).
- All-time leader in receptions (333) and receiving yards (4,601) at Lambeau Field.
- Extended two team records in 2009 with his seventh 1,000-yard season and sixth straight. Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne was the only other player in the league to have a 1,000-yard season each of those six years (2004-09).
- One of the NFL's most decorated collegiate track athletes (high jump, decathlon, long jump, triple jump), won his conference's Athlete of the Year award three straight years. Likely could have qualified for 2000 Sydney Olympics in high jump had he concentrated on track.
- Overcoming countless obstacles growing up has inspired him to become one of the team's most involved players in giving back to the community. In 2000, he and his wife created the Donald Driver Foundation (www.donalddriverfoundation.com), which offers assistance to homeless mothers and underprivileged children as well as scholarships to high school students in three states. In addition, has made more than 500 appearances since 1999, from schools to youth football fields to churches, delivering motivational speeches or offering assistance.

(2,664)...Stepped forward again in 2005 when injuries decimated the Packers at the skill positions and was the team's lone reliable playmaker for the duration of the season, earning the team's MVP award for the second time (also 2002)...Three-year stretch of personal bests culminated in 92 catches for 1,295 yards in 2006 to earn his second Pro Bowl appearance...Those totals ranked third and second in the NFC, respectively; both were fifth in the NFL in 2006, and his career-high 191-yard performance at Minnesota (Nov. 12) was the best single-game total by an NFC receiver on the season...Continued since then with three more 1,000-yard seasons from 2007-09, including a third Pro Bowl nod in '07, and was one of only two receivers in the league (along with Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne) to go over 1,000 yards each of those six years (2004-09)...Remains a legitimate big-play threat, posting 64 receptions of 25-plus yards since 2004, which ranks No. 5 in the league over that span behind only Terrell Owens (72), Larry Fitzgerald (71), Steve Smith (69) and Wayne (69)...Also ranks fifth in the league with 7,410 receiving yards since 2004, trailing only Wayne (8,849), Fitzgerald (8,204), Andre Johnson (8,188) and Chad Ochocinco (7,933)...All this from a seventh-round draft choice in 1999 who initially carved out a roster spot by regularly making phenomenal catches in his first training camp, putting on display the tremendous athleticism that made him a one-time Olympic hopeful in the high jump (7 feet, 6½ inches was his top mark)...Broke through as the team's No. 3 receiver for much of 2000, when he replaced an injured Corey Bradford, and became the lowest-drafted Packers Pro Bowler in 19 years in 2002...Now as a veteran and team leader, sets an example for Green Bay's younger receivers, both on the field and off, of what it takes to be successful, and credits predecessors Freeman and Brooks for helping him develop his leadership skills.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in 15 games and started all of them, missing his first game due to injury since Sept. 14, 2003 (vs. Detroit), when he was inactive due to a quad injury vs. Dallas in Week 9...Despite missing that contest and being hampered by the injury in other games, finished No. 2 on the team with 51 receptions, his franchise-record ninth 50-catch season...Finished fourth on the team with 565 receiving yards (11.1 avg.) and tied for fourth with four TDs...Was credited with his fourth career Pro Bowl selection in 2010 since he would have been named to the all-star squad as an injury replacement for Jackson had the Packers not been preparing for Super Bowl XLV...Played in all four playoff contests with two starts, and finished third on the team with 14 receptions for 169 yards (12.1 avg.)...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Caught a season-high nine passes for 61 yards (6.8 avg.), his highest reception total since hauling in 10 vs. Detroit (Nov. 22, 2007)...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Posted three catches for a season-high 89 yards (29.7 avg.) and a TD. His 29-yard scoring grab on Green Bay's opening drive was actually intended for TE Jermichael Finley, but the veteran WR curled underneath Finley's route and made a diving catch while the TE pulled up and out of his way. Also hauled in a 61-yard pass in the second quarter that set up a 17-yard TD pass to Jennings on the next play...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Did not have a reception, snapping his franchise-record streak of 133 consecutive games (139 including playoffs) with a reception...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Left the game with a quadriceps injury in the second quarter and did not return. Had originally sustained the injury in Week 5 at Washington...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Inactive due to injury for the first time since Sept. 14, 2003, vs. Detroit (neck)...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Returned to action after a one-game absence and posted four grabs for 31 yards (7.8 avg.)...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): After being hampered by the quad injury for several weeks, returned to form with four catches for 73 yards, highlighted by a season-long 61-yard catch-and-run for a TD in the third quarter that was one of the finest plays of his career. Hauled in an Aaron Rodgers pass near the San Francisco 40, then spun away from a tackle attempt by S Reggie Smith near the 25. Once he got away from Smith, shook off a hit up high from S Dashon Goldson. Made a cut near the sideline at the 10 to elude CB Nate Clements before plowing through Clements, Goldson and LB Ahmad Brooks near the pylon to get into the end zone...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Recorded a team-high five catches for 56 yards (11.2 avg.). Caught two passes for 26 yards on a third-quarter TD drive, including a 20-yard dart from Rodgers to the Philadelphia 49...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Hauled in six passes for 76 yards (12.7 avg.). Took a short pass over the middle for 24 yards early in the second quarter on a drive that would result in a 1-yard TD plunge from RB John Kuhn...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Started as part of a four-WR set and posted two catches for 28 yards (14.0 avg.) before suffering an ankle injury in the second quarter and watching the rest of the game from the sideline in a walking boot. Long catch of 24 yards came on Green Bay's opening drive after LB James Farrior jumped into the neutral zone and the Packers had a free play. Ran vertically from the right slot, getting inside position to haul in the Rodgers pass in front of CB Anthony Madison. Injury was sustained with 10:15 to play in the first half following a 4-yard grab when his ankle got tangled amidst a tackle attempt by Farrior.

2009: Started all 16 games for the fourth time in the last five years, and led the team with 70 receptions and six TD catches...Also started playoff contest...Finished second on the team with 1,061 receiving yards, his sixth straight 1,000-yard season and seventh overall, extending two team records...Ranked ninth in the NFC in receiving yards...Ranked tied for ninth in the NFL with five receptions of 40-plus yards...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Caught four passes for 39 yards (9.8 avg.), with a 14-yard reception in the first quarter moving him past Hutson (7,991) and over 8,000 career yards for the No. 3 spot on the team's career receiving yardage list...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led team with four catches for 95 yards (23.8 avg.) and a TD, including a spectacular one-handed catch in the second quarter, pulling in 46-yard pass from Rodgers with his left hand while being interfered with by CB Bradley Fletcher; pinned the ball against his shoulder pads and helmet as he fell to the turf. Also caught 21-yard TD pass on the left sideline late in the second quarter, and with 13-yard reception on first drive, moved past Sharpe (8,134) for second in franchise history for receiving yards...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Caught four passes for 55 yards (13.8 avg.) as his final catch of the night, a 10-yarder late in the fourth quarter, tied Sharpe for the franchise's all-time mark in receptions with 595...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): On the Packers' second series, caught a quick hitch at the line of scrimmage and picked up 5 yards for his 596th career reception, surpassing Sharpe to become the franchise's all-time receptions leader. Added an impressive one-handed grab late in the third quarter as he hauled in a 37-yard pass from Rodgers with his left hand despite being interfered with by CB Demarcus Faggins. Finished the afternoon with team-leading seven catches (including his 600th career) for team-high 107 yards (15.3 avg.), the 21st 100-yard game of his career, moving him ahead of Freeman for sole possession of fourth place in team annals...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Led team with 84

AMONG THE NFL'S BEST

For six consecutive seasons between 2004-09, Donald Driver had at least 1,000 receiving yards, joining Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne as the only NFL players to post six consecutive 1,000-yard seasons over that span.

- Driver had 1,061 receiving yards in 2009, his seventh overall 1,000-yard campaign, extending his own franchise record.
- Already the record holder for receptions and receiving yards at Lambeau Field, Driver surpassed Sterling Sharpe (595) on Oct. 18, 2009, on the team's all-time receptions list. He enters play in 2011 with 698 career catches.
- With the receptions mark in hand, Driver is now primed to become the franchise's all-time receiving yardage leader early in 2011. He needs just 42 yards to surpass No. 1 James Lofton (9,656) on the team's all-time list.
- Driver's numbers over the past seven seasons (2004-10) are comparable to the game's best:

Name	Yards	Receptions	Name	Yards	Receptions
Reggie Wayne	8,849	643	Santana Moss	6,980	487
Larry Fitzgerald	8,204	613	Anquan Boldin	6,980	549
Andre Johnson	8,188	607	Derrick Mason	6,945	567
Chad Ochocinco	7,933	564	Tony Gonzalez	6,816	601

receiving yards on just two catches (42.0 avg.), highlighted by his 71-yard TD reception in the second quarter. With S Abram Elam coming on a blitz, Rodgers found Driver with a quick pass at the Cleveland 35 and Driver did the rest, fighting off CB Eric Wright for the final 20 yards of the 71-yard score...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Tied for team lead with four catches for 50 yards, with game-long 24-yard reception over the middle at the end of the first half setting up Mason Crosby's 48-yard FG as time expired, the only points scored by either team in the first half...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Led team with a season-high 142 yards and a TD on seven receptions (20.3 avg.), the best yardage total by a Packer for the regular season. Got behind S Marvin White late in the first quarter for a 68-yard reception on third down that put the ball at the Detroit 7; TE Donald Lee caught a TD pass the next play. Early in the second half, beat CB William James deep down the middle for a 45-yard catch to the Lions' 45; drive was capped off with a 7-yard TD catch by Driver in the middle of the end zone. The 45-yard grab was his 50th reception of the year, which gave him a team-record eight 50-catch seasons in his career. The last time he had two catches of 45-plus yards in a game was vs. Houston (45 and 59) on Dec. 7, 2008...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted three receptions for 31 yards (10.3 avg.) and a TD, the 50th of his career (49 receiving, 1 rushing), making him just the 10th player in franchise history to reach the mark. The 8-yard score came just before halftime as he caught a quick pass from Rodgers and made CB Dmonique Foxworth miss...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season on the first play of the game, picking up 14 yards on a hitch. On his second catch of the day, a 7-yard grab on the next series, went over the 9,000-yard mark for his career. Led the team with six receptions for 65 yards (10.8 avg.), with five of the six grabs going for first downs...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Caught four passes for 43 yards (10.8 avg.), including 28-yard grab in the fourth quarter. Caught the pass at the Arizona 15, made a nice move to make S Adrian Wilson miss, and took it down to the Cardinals' 1 to set up a John Kuhn TD run on the next play that tied the game at 38.

2008: Started all 16 games and ranked second on the team with 74 receptions for 1,012 yards (13.7 avg.) and five TDs...Ranked 13th in the NFC in receptions and tied for third in the conference with 25 catches on third down, including four of his five TD receptions...Tied for fifth in the NFL with six receptions of 40-plus yards, a career high...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Became eighth player in team history with 40 career TD receptions on a 44-yard grab in the second quarter, making the catch over CB Brent Grimes and S Erik Coleman...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Became all-time leader in receiving yards at Lambeau Field with 24-yard grab in second quarter, passing Freeman's career record of 3,477 yards. Passed Lofton for No. 2 on the all-time franchise list for receptions with 3-yard catch three plays later, giving him 532 for his career...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): With his 5-yard TD catch in the second quarter, tied Sharpe's team record of 103 consecutive games with a catch. Matched season high with seven catches for season-best 136 yards...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Broke Sharpe's record for consecutive games with a catch on his 11-yard grab from Rodgers in the first quarter, giving him a reception in 104 straight games...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Led team with six catches for 111 yards (18.5 avg.), including a 71-yard TD pass from Rodgers, the longest pass play by the Packers on the season. Ran a stutter-and-go route on CB Leigh Bodden to get open deep down the right sideline. The TD put him over 1,000 yards on the season for a franchise-record sixth time. Provided key blocks on RB DeShawn Wynn's 73-yard TD run in the first quarter, the longest run by the Packers on the year.

2007: In his ninth season, was one of four 2007 Packers Pro Bowl selections...Played in first 15 games of the season with 14 starts, did not play Dec. 30 vs. Detroit (coach's decision), and started both playoff contests...Led the team with 82 receptions for 1,048 yards, with two TDs, moving into third on the team's all-time receptions list with 503 – surpassing Freeman (431), Dowler (448) and Hutson (488) – and fourth on the yards list with 6,977, eclipsing Freeman (6,651) and Dowler (6,918)...In the preseason, suffered a sprained foot fighting for extra yards in the second quarter vs. Jacksonville (Aug. 23) and did not play in the team's preseason finale at Tennessee (Aug. 30)...Returned Sept. 2 on a limited basis and was back to full participation by the end of the week...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Posted a game-high 126 receiving yards on six catches (21.0 avg.), with one TD, his first 100-yard receiving game of the season and 17th of his career. Made his first reception in the second quarter, a 16-yard gain on third-and-3. The catch moved him into first place on Lambeau Field's all-time receptions list at 214, topping Freeman...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Led the team with five catches for 99 yards (19.8 avg.), including a 44-yard, one-handed grab between two defenders; Crosby kicked a 32-yard FG four plays later to put Green Bay up 16-14...At Detroit (Nov. 22): Recorded season highs with 10 catches for 147 yards (14.7 avg.)...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Led the team with five receptions for 80 yards (16.0 avg.). On the Packers' first offensive play of the fourth quarter, caught a 7-yard pass to give Favre the NFL record for most passing yards in a career...At Chicago (Dec. 23): Recorded his 500th career catch...Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Had a team-high five catches for 141 yards (28.2 avg.) and one TD. In the second quarter, caught a long pass and outran three defenders down the right sideline on his way to a 90-yard TD, the fourth-longest postseason TD in NFL history and longest in Green Bay playoff history...Pro Bowl (Feb. 10): Had two catches for 31 yards (15.5 avg.).

2006: After signing a contract extension in the offseason, answered with his second career Pro Bowl selection and the best statistical season of his career...Started all 16 games for the third time in his career and led the team with 92 receptions and 1,295 receiving yards – both career highs – and eight TDs, including an 82-yard score at Minnesota (Nov. 12) and a 68-yarder at San Francisco (Dec. 10)...Added seven carries for 16 yards (2.3 avg.) on the season...His 1,295 overall receiving yards were second in the NFC and fifth in the league...His 92 catches ranked third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL, and he became the first Packers receiver to finish in the league's top 5 since Freeman also finished fifth in 1998...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 10): Had a game-high seven receptions for 96 yards (13.7 avg.), moving into third place in all-time receiving yards at Lambeau, ahead of Sharpe (2,309)...Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17): Playing in his 100th professional contest, accumulated 153 yards on eight catches (19.1 avg.) and surpassed 5,000 career yards from scrimmage on a 16-yard reverse...At Detroit (Sept. 24): Surpassed McGee for sixth on the franchise's all-time receptions list; also delivered the key assist on Jennings' 75-yard TD reception, screening CB Dre Bly for several yards, allowing Jennings to score up the right sideline for Favre's 400th TD pass...Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8): Caught three passes, to move into second place for career receptions at Lambeau, eclipsing Lofton (178)...At Miami (Oct. 22): Had a game-high 10 catches for 93 yards (9.3 avg.), becoming the seventh player in team history with 5,000 career receiving yards and the 11th Packer with 30 TD receptions; caught a 34-yard TD in the third quarter, diving between two defenders to put Green Bay up 20-10 (reversed after a Packers replay challenge, the play originally was ruled incomplete). Later in 34-24 triumph, on a back-breaking fourth-quarter TD drive, ran an end-around for 6 yards to convert a fourth-and-1...At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Established a career high with 191 yards on six receptions (31.8 avg.); caught three passes for 69 yards on a game-opening FG drive, then just before halftime caught a short pass over the middle and blazed by a group of defenders for an 82-yard score – the Packers' longest 2006 play – giving Green Bay a lead it would not relinquish. In the third quarter, took a lateral from Jennings and ran for 30 yards, setting up another FG. His 191-yard performance was the best single-game total by an NFC receiver in 2006...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Went over 1,000 yards receiving on the season and recorded his 400th career catch and 16th career 100-yard game; caught a game-high nine passes for 160 yards (17.8 avg.) and one TD, making a long catch down the right sideline, breaking an ankle tackle and running past a group of defenders for a 68-yard score to give Green Bay a 24-13 advantage...Pro Bowl (Feb. 10): Had three catches for 38 yards (12.7 avg.); also finished fifth in the Best Hands competition in the Pro Bowl Skills Challenge, won by Cincinnati's Chad Ochocinco.

missed only one game...At Minnesota (Nov. 2): Had a career-long 45-yard run to set up an early FG...At San Diego (Dec. 14): Enjoyed his top performance of the season as he pulled in eight passes for 112 yards – the Packers' first 100-yard receiving effort of the season – and a 7-yard TD just before halftime to give Green Bay a 17-3 advantage...At Oakland (Dec. 22): Keyed the Packers' final TD with a season-long 41-yard reception; he caught the ball between two defenders, over his shoulder, falling backward toward the sideline...Vs. Seattle (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 4): Posted his best effort of the playoffs to date, pulling in six passes for 66 yards, including a leaping, 23-yard catch between two defenders to set up a FG just before halftime.

2002: Developed into one of the league's most explosive playmakers in his fourth NFL season...Won the starting SE position, vacated when Schroeder was allowed to leave in free agency, with a strong preseason performance...Was one of Green Bay's most consistent performers in training-camp practices, edging Robert Ferguson and Charles Lee, among others, to become a full-time starter for the first time as a pro...Earning his first Pro Bowl trip, he became the lowest-drafted Packers player (seventh round) to participate in the Pro Bowl since Larry McCarran (12th round) in 1983 (Don Majkowski, 10th round, was chosen for the game in 1989, but did not play)...Led the Packers in receptions (70, 14th in the NFC), receiving yards (1,064, 10th in NFC) and TD receptions (nine, second in NFC) – all three figures eclipsing his three-year NFL totals entering the 2002 season...Had more catches (70) in his first year as a starter than any of the top 10 WRs in Packers history had in their initial season in the starting lineup...Became the eighth 1,000-yard receiver in Packers history – and the first drafted in the seventh round or later – at San Francisco (Dec. 15) when he reached the plateau for the first time as a pro...Enjoyed the fifth-highest yards-per-catch average in the NFC (15.2) and tied for fourth in the NFC in third-down receptions (25)...Also rushed eight times for 70 yards...Had three 100-yard receiving days and a pair of 80-plus-yard TD catches over the course of the season...Was the Packers' finalist for the 2002 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award...Vs. Carolina (Sept. 29): Posted the first two-TD game of his career in 17-14 victory. Caught 31-yard TD pass from TE Bubba Franks late in first half, and with 4:10 remaining pulled in the eventual game-winning score – a high bullet from Favre that he snared near the 10-yard line before darting into the end zone...At Chicago (Oct. 7): Enjoyed his first career 100-yard effort in Monday night win, making four receptions for 120 yards (30.0 avg.), including a career-long 85-yard catch to open the scoring (tied for the longest play from scrimmage in the NFC in 2002)...

Vs. Detroit (Nov. 10): Posted his top performance of the season, catching a career-high 11 passes for 130 yards (11.8 avg.). The 11 catches were the most by a Green Bay player in six years (Don Beebe, 11, Oct. 14, 1996, vs. 49ers)...At Minnesota (Nov. 17): Caught four passes for 121 yards (30.3 avg.), including a nifty, 84-yard catch-and-run up the left sideline to tie the game at 21 early in the fourth quarter...Vs. Atlanta (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 4): Turned in memorable and gutsy playoff effort, starting and playing through painful shoulder injury suffered a week earlier at the Jets. Aggravated the injury early vs. the Falcons but still willed himself to return to the contest. Caught Green Bay's lone TD – a 14-yard strike from Favre early in the third quarter.

2001: Turned in standout preseason to cement his place as one of Packers' top pass catchers off the bench...Played in 13 regular-season games, starting twice when Green Bay opened with multiple WRs; he was inactive for the other three contests...Made 13 catches for 167 yards (12.8 avg.) and one TD...Also had three rushing attempts for 38 yards and one TD, along with tackles on special teams...Vs. Baltimore (Oct. 14): Matched his season high with three receptions for a season-best 69 yards, including a 37-yarder across the middle to set up the TD that gave Green Bay a 24-10 lead late in the third quarter...Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 4): Made a block of the Buccaneers' David Gibson to help spring Allen Rossum's game-winning, 55-yard punt return in 21-20 victory...Inactive for games at Chicago (Nov. 11), vs. Atlanta (Nov. 18) and at Detroit (Nov. 22) due to after-effects of quad contusion suffered against the Ravens...Returned to action in Monday night contest at Jacksonville (Dec. 3)...Vs. San Francisco (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 13): Made a pair of critical third-down receptions during fourth quarter of 25-15 playoff victory. Leapt high to pull down 14-yard catch early in FG drive that put Green Bay ahead, 18-15; later hauled in a 12-yard pass deep in S.F. territory (the Packers scored a TD one play later for their final points).

2000: Served as the Packers' No. 3 receiver for much of year with Bradford sidelined by multiple injuries...Played in all 16 games for the first time, starting twice...Enjoyed an impressive 15.3-yard average per catch as he caught 21 passes (sixth on team) for 322 yards (15.3 avg.) and one TD...At Buffalo (Sept. 10): Pulled in a season-long 49-yard grab...Vs. Chicago (Oct. 1): Started first career game and caught three passes for 43 yards (14.3 avg.). Suffered hip contusion on a key, fourth-quarter reception in Bears' territory...At Detroit (Oct. 8): Scored on a two-point conversion in the third quarter...Vs. San Francisco (Oct. 15): Made a key downfield block on Freeman's 67-yard TD reception to open the scoring; he later drew a third-down pass interference in the end zone to set up the Packers' final TD in eventual 31-28 victory...At Carolina (Nov. 27): Caught 32-yard TD pass from Favre in Monday night game, tying the score at 14 late in the first half...Vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 24): Started for an inactive Freeman and picked up 4 yards on his first NFL carry.

1999: Saw action in six games as a rookie, primarily on special teams; he was inactive for nine contests and did not play in the other...Considered a long shot to make the team, he consistently impressed the coaching staff during training camp, meriting a roster spot...Made three receptions for 31 yards and one TD...Inactive for the first eight games...At Dallas (Nov. 14): Made his NFL debut, playing as the fourth receiver and on special teams...Vs. Detroit (Nov. 21): Came in as the No. 3 receiver with Freeman sidelined by a concussion...Vs. Carolina (Dec. 12): Made his first NFL catch a memorable one, pulling in an 8-yard TD pass from Favre...1999 Draft: Was the second of two seventh-round draft choices (213th overall) by Green Bay, a pick obtained from Chicago in 1998 for return specialist Glyn Milburn.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter and three-time letterman (1996-98) at Alcorn State...Coached in college by Johnny Thomas, who once tutored Jerry Rice at Mississippi Valley State, and said Driver had Rice's maturity...Multi-talented, was a member of the Braves' track team all four years (1996-99)...Earned all-conference honors in both sports his senior year...Made 88 career receptions for 1,933 yards (22.0 avg.) and 17 TDs...Earned B.S. degree in accounting...Senior season (1998): Earned second-team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference honors when he led the Braves in receptions (55), receiving yards (1,128) and scoring (60 points)...Posted six 100-yard receiving efforts among 11 games played...Established career highs in catches (11) and yards receiving (173) at Prairie View A&M (Oct. 10)...Junior season (1997): Averaged 26.5 yards per reception in his first season as a starter...Led team with 556 receiving yards on 21 catches, six of which went for TDs...Caught a career-long 81-yard TD vs. Mississippi Valley State (Nov. 8)...Sophomore season (1996): In first season as football letterman, caught 12 passes for 249 yards (20.8 avg.) and a TD...Track and field: Possessor of world-class ability in the high jump as a track athlete, he also participated in the decathlon, long jump and triple jump...Was named as the outstanding field performer in the SWAC, honoring both indoor and outdoor seasons, three straight years (1996-98)...Qualified for the 1996 Olympic Field Trials in the high jump with a leap of 7 feet, 6½ inches (ranked No. 1 in the nation that year), accomplished at the 37th annual Pelican Relays...Was the 1996 SWAC champion (indoor and outdoor) in the long jump, triple jump and decathlon, finishing second in the high jump...Was the 1997 SWAC champion (indoor and outdoor) in the long jump and triple jump, again coming in second in the high jump...Also was the '97 SWAC (outdoor) champ in the decathlon...Qualified for the 1997 NCAA Championships in the long jump with a leap of 25 feet, 5 inches...Was the 1998 SWAC (indoor) champion in the long jump (25-5), triple jump (50-2) and high jump (7-2)...Was the 1999 SWAC (indoor) champion in the long jump (25-0) and triple jump (51-3); he came in third in the high jump.

PERSONAL: Given name Donald Jerome Driver...Born in Houston...Married to Betina, whom he met at Alcorn State and married in 2000; the couple has two children, son, Cristian, 8, and daughter, Christina, 6, and are expecting a baby girl this September...As a youngster, nicknamed "Quicke" by his parents, who grew tired of chasing him around the house, and because he was a quick learner...

High school: Lettered four times each in track, football, basketball and baseball at Milby High in Houston...Played WR and DB, and returned punts and kickoffs...Honorable mention all-state in football...The middle child in a five-sibling family, which lived for a time during his early teens out of a U-Haul truck after a collection agency confiscated the family's possessions...He also spent multiple holidays without parents and slept several nights in motel rooms his mother, Faye Gray, purchased with food stamps...Also remembers several times when his mom skipped meals while working at night...Moved in with his grandmother, Betty Lofton, who encouraged him to go to church, at age 14...Motivated toward football by college films of his father, Marvin, a QB who earned a Texas A&M scholarship, and likely would've gone pro but gave up NFL dreams to support his mom after his own father's death (Donald's grandfather)...

Community involvement: Overcoming incredible trials has inspired Driver to become one of the Packers' most involved players in the community...Has made more than 500 appearances during his NFL career and in 2007 received a JB Award for community service, named for CBS' NFL Today host James Brown and given to a select group of players for their individual contributions to their communities...Named Packers' Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year in 2002, in recognition of his extensive work in the community...Also was chosen by Sporting News as one of the NFL's "Good Guys" in its July 5, 2004, issue...In 2000, created the Donald Driver Foundation (www.donaldriverfoundation.com), with the motto "Strong Hands, Strong Minds, Loving Hearts"...Run by his mother, the organization offers assistance to homeless mothers and underprivileged children...Since its inception, the foundation has helped at least 17 families in the Houston and Green Bay areas by purchasing homes or providing other housing or mortgage assistance...The foundation also provides 10 scholarships worth $1,000 each, annually, to students in Texas, Mississippi and Wisconsin, and has funded several computer labs for inner-city youth centers...During the foundation's big fundraising time in June, hosts the annual Donald Driver Golf Classic at courses in both Texas and Wisconsin, hosts the Celebrity 9-Ball Shootout at Slick Willie's Family Pool Hall in Houston, and also hosts the annual Donald Driver Football Camp in three locations: Houston, Milwaukee and Cleveland, Miss. ...These camps are free for children between the ages of 7-17...Also ran drills at an Oneida Nation football clinic in July 2005 and has conducted or helped out at football camps in Green Bay and De Pere in recent years...In summer 2008 he took over the tradition of hosting the annual Packers offense vs. defense charity softball game with the proceeds going to support the Donald Driver Foundation...The game raised an estimated $125,000 from 2008-09, and in 2010, 7,162 tickets were sold for the game, a high since Driver took over as the host...In summer 2006, participated in the inaugural Packers Tailgate Tour, visiting four Wisconsin cities as well as other impromptu stops to meet and chat with fans from all over the state...Has been a frequent speaker at Green Bay-area schools, addressing the importance of fitness and making good decisions in life...Has been involved with "Junior Power Pack," the Packers' fan club for kids, local Pop Warner football, and the Brown County Association for Retarded Citizens (now ASPIRO)...Appeared in a national United Way commercial on behalf of the NFL and Packers, which started in the 2003 season...Received the Community Service Award from the Green Bay Chamber of Commerce in August 2001, in recognition of his community involvement...Earned the Professional Achievement Award at the sixth annual Lee Remmel Sports Awards Banquet in April 2003 and was the recipient of the 2010 Red Smith Award for professional achievement, an honor given annually to an individual who contributes to sports on or off the field in the state of Wisconsin...Last year, also rang bells for The Salvation Army and signed autographs for donations in a competition against the Minnesota Vikings' defensive line...Additionally has given time and money to the Milwaukee Juvenile Detention Center, the PALS program, Children's Miracle Network and the Calvary Baptist Church Scholarship...Has taken part in the Brett Favre Celebrity Softball Game as well as Edgar Bennett's Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon to benefit the Angel Fund for Children with Cancer...Joined Michelle Obama and a dozen other celebrities at the NEA's Read Across America Event at the Library of Congress in March 2011...Hobbies/interests: Is part-owner of two Chevrolet/Buick car dealerships in eastern Wisconsin...Nearing completion of a master's degree in computer science...Hobbies include reading novels and spending time with his family...Splits residence between De Pere, Wis., and Flower Mound, Texas.

Fourth NFL Season
Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 247 • Born: March 26, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 32/16 • Acquired: D3-08

CAREER: A still-developing star who in 2010 looked poised to build on his breakout sophomore campaign of '09 before a knee injury ended his season in Week 5...Through four games last season, led the Packers in receiving yards (301) and per-catch average (14.3) and had already posted two 100-yard games to tie Paul Coffman's club record for tight ends in a single season...The 301 receiving yards through Week 4 ranked second among NFL tight ends behind only San Diego's Antonio Gates (386)...Injured his knee attempting to tackle Washington safety Kareem Moore, who had recovered fellow TE Donald Lee's fumble on the Packers' second snap from scrimmage at FedExField...The injury required surgery and landed him on injured reserve...Became a favorite target of QB Aaron Rodgers as the big-play flashes from the end of his rookie season carried over to his second year...Despite missing three midseason games due to a knee injury, had one of the most productive seasons by a tight end in team history in '09 with 55 catches for 676 yards and five touchdowns, adding six catches for a team playoff-record 159 yards in the NFC Wild Card game at Arizona...Finished just one shy of Coffman's single-season franchise-best 56 catches by a TE in 1979, tying for second on the list with Coffman (1981) and Jackie Harris (1992)...The 676 yards were the fifth most by a Packers TE and the most since Mark Chmura's 679 in 1995...Had seven or more receptions in three games to set a new team record, and had at least six catches four times in the regular season to match Coffman's '79 output...His eight 50-yard games did top Coffman's franchise mark of seven ('81, '83)...Upon returning from injury in Week 11, ranked third in the league among TEs in receptions with 37, trailing only Dallas' Jason Witten (45) and Atlanta's Tony Gonzalez (39)...His playoff performance broke the previous team high of 148 yards by WR John Jefferson (Jan. 8, 1983, vs. St. Louis) and was No. 2 in NFL playoff history by a TE behind only San Diego's Kellen Winslow (166 yards, Jan. 2, 1982, vs. Miami)...Has three-year career totals of 82 receptions for 1,051 yards (12.8 avg.) and seven TDs...Ranks second to Coffman (six) among Green Bay TEs for most career 100-yard games with three...Is particularly dangerous around the goal line, as four of his TD catches have come on short fade routes over smaller, overmatched defenders...Also possesses explosive capabilities with 18 career catches of 20-plus yards (plus three more in playoffs), including a 62-yard TD in 2009, the longest reception by a Green Bay tight end in 16 years...Third-round draft pick in 2008 who showed that big-play ability with two receptions of 25-plus yards in the final two weeks of his rookie season, when he was the youngest player on Green Bay's roster...Came to the NFL after playing only two seasons at the University of Texas, where he caught 76 passes for 947 yards in just 26 games...Ranks third in school history in receptions by a TE and sixth in receiving yardage, despite playing only two years...Earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches as a sophomore and honorable mention Freshman All-America recognition from Sporting News.

2010 SEASON: Started the first five games, but lasted just two snaps in the fifth game when he injured his knee and was lost for the season...Through four contests, led

AT A GLANCE

- In 2010, led the team in receiving yards (301) and per-catch average (14.3) through four games before going down for the season with a knee injury on the second offensive snap at Washington in Week 5.
- In breakout 2009 campaign, posted second-most catches in a single season by a Green Bay tight end (55) and fifth-most yards (676), despite missing three games with a knee injury.
- Finished '09 with Green Bay playoff-record 159 receiving yards in NFC Wild Card loss at Arizona, the second-most productive game by a tight end in NFL postseason history behind San Diego's Kellen Winslow (166 yards, Jan. 2, 1982, vs. Miami).
- Also in '09, tied regular-season, single-game franchise marks for yards (128, Week 4 at Minnesota) and receptions (nine, Week 15 at Pittsburgh) by a tight end. Again matched the reception mark in 2010 with nine at Chicago in Week 3.
- Ranks third in University of Texas history for career receptions by a tight end with 76, despite playing only two seasons.
- Became first Packers draftee from the University of Texas since 1991, and was the highest pick used on a TE by the Packers since Bubba Frank was selected in the first round (14th overall) in 2000.

the Packers in receiving yards (301) and per-catch average (14.3), as seven of his 21 receptions went for 20-plus yards...Had already tied Coffman's 1979 single-season team mark for TEs with two 100-yard games, and his yardage total ranked second in the league behind Gates (386) among all TEs through four games...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Had four catches for 47 yards (11.8 avg.), with three receptions picking up first downs...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Had four catches for 103 yards, including receptions of 34, 32 and 22 yards. The 25.8-yard average was the second-best single-game outing in team history by a TE (min. four receptions), trailing only Coffman's 30.5-yard mark on four catches at Chicago on Dec. 18, 1983...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Tied his career high and the franchise mark for TEs with nine receptions, and posted his second straight 100-yard game (115) to join Coffman in '79 as the only TEs in club history to achieve the feat. His third regular-season 100-yard game put him second to Coffman's six in the team record books for TEs. Had catches of 28, 26 and 20 yards to give him seven receptions of 20-plus in just three games...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Had four catches for 36 yards (9.0 avg.), including a 13-yard TD that Rodgers fired through a tight window over the middle for a 14-0 lead...At Washington (Oct. 10): Injured his knee attempting to tackle Redskins S Moore, who had recovered Lee's fumble on the second snap of the game. Left the game, was inactive the following week and placed on injured reserve Oct. 18.

2009: Played in 13 games with nine starts and ranked third on the team with career bests of 55 catches and 676 yards (12.6 avg.) despite missing three games due to injury...Tied for second on the team with a career-high five TD catches...Reception total was one shy of Coffman's single-season team record for a TE ('79), tying him with Coffman ('81) and Harris ('92) for No. 2...Yardage total was fifth most by a Green Bay TE and most since Chmura's 679 in '95... Set a team record for a TE with seven or more receptions in three games, matched Coffman ('79) with six or more catches four times, and had eight 50-yard games to top Coffman's mark of seven ('81, '83)...After returning from knee injury in Week 11, ranked third in the league among TEs with 37 receptions in that seven-game span, trailing only Dallas' Witten (45) and Atlanta's Gonzalez (39)...Inactive for games vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1), at Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) and vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) with sprained knee sustained at Cleveland in Week 7...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Led the team with six catches for a career-best 128 yards (21.3 avg.), tying the single-game franchise mark for a TE; Harris posted the same number vs. Denver on Oct. 10, 1993. Broke open down the right sideline and caught a 62-yard TD pass from Rodgers, making a move to elude S Tyrell Johnson. The catch was the longest of his career and the longest reception by a Packers TE since Harris' 66-yarder in the '93 game against the Broncos...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Caught a 16-yard pass over the middle on the Packers' opening drive, but sustained a sprained left knee on the play and did not return...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Returned from knee injury and caught seven passes for 54 yards (7.7 avg.), including 20-yard catch-and-run down the right sideline on the first drive of the game. Also made a key catch on Packers' final drive when he picked up 5 yards on sideline pass on a third-and-4 with the Packers trying to hold onto a six-point lead...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Started and caught three passes for 25 yards, absorbing a huge hit from Lions S Louis Delmas over the middle in the second quarter that drew an unnecessary roughness flag, and returned on the very next play to catch a 9-yard pass down to the Lions' 8 that helped set up a 20-yard Mason Crosby FG...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Started and posted seven receptions for 79 yards (11.3 avg.) and two TDs, the first multi-TD game of his career. First TD catch came in the second quarter when he out-jumped S Tom Zbikowski on a fade route for a 2-yard score. Also had a 29-yard catch down the seam and a 14-yard grab on the drive to help set up the TD. Left game early in the third quarter after reinjuring his knee, but returned later in the quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, caught pass from a scrambling Rodgers inside the 5, ran over Zbikowski and extended the ball past the goal line for 19-yard TD as LB Ray Lewis attempted to bring him down...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Started and led the team with a career-high nine catches for 74 yards (8.2 avg.), matching the single-game franchise mark for receptions held by three other TEs. Had five receptions of 10-plus yards, including 11-yard TD grab early in the fourth quarter when he went up over S Ryan Clark to haul in jump-ball pass from Rodgers in the corner of the end zone to narrow Pittsburgh's lead to 24-21...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Finished second on the team with 80 receiving yards on three catches, including grabs of 28 and 38 yards. The 26.7-yard average was a career high and tied for fourth in franchise history by a TE (min. three receptions)...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Led the team with a team playoff-record 159 yards receiving on six receptions (26.5 avg.), breaking the previous high of 148 yards set by Jefferson (Jan. 8, 1983, vs. St. Louis). His yardage total was also No. 2 in NFL playoff history by a TE behind only Winslow (166 yards, Jan. 2, 1982), and his 26.5-yard average was a league playoff record for TEs (min. five receptions). Late in the first half, caught a 44-yard pass down the right sideline to Arizona's 26 despite being interfered with by CB Bryant McFadden; the catch set up a Crosby FG as time expired in the opening half. Picked up 23 yards on third-quarter catch down the left sideline to the Cardinals' 21 that helped set up a Jordy Nelson TD catch three plays later. Had 38-yard catch-and-run down the left sideline early in the fourth quarter to Arizona's 29 that helped set up a John Kuhn 1-yard TD run two plays later, tying the game at 38.

2008: Played in 14 games, second most among the team's rookies (Nelson, 16), with one start...Caught six passes for 74 yards (12.3 avg.) and one TD...Recorded six special teams tackles, the most among Packers rookies...On the field for 54.9 percent of special teams plays, which ranked fourth on the team and first among rookies...Inactive for opening two games, vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8) and at Detroit (Sept. 14) as a healthy scratch...Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Made NFL debut, seeing time on special teams and getting some snaps on offense...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Registered first career special teams tackle when he brought down Dexter Jackson on third-quarter kickoff return...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Caught first NFL pass when he hauled in 6-yard reception from Rodgers in the second quarter...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Posted a career-high three special teams tackles...Vs. QUARTERBACK • LOUISIANA STATE

Fourth NFL Season
Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 225 • Born: June 20, 1985 • NFL Games Played/Started: 29/1 • Acquired: D7a-08

CAREER: Will handle backup-quarterback duties for the fourth straight season after seeing the most significant action of his career in 2010, highlighted by his first pro start...Had the confidence of the coaching staff to step in whenever he was needed, and he rewarded that faith with a standout performance in Week 15 at New England...With Aaron Rodgers inactive for the first time in his career as a starter (concussion), got the starting nod against an 11-2 Patriots team that entered the game with a league-high 15-game winning streak at home...Completed 24-of-37 passes for 251 yards and three touchdowns with one interception for a 100.2 passer rating in Green Bay's 31-27 loss, one that came down to the Packers' final drive in the closing seconds...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 100.2 passer rating was the highest by an NFL quarterback making his first career start against a team with a 10-2 record or better since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger...It was the first time the Packers started a QB other than Rodgers or Brett Favre since Sept. 20, 1992, when Don Majkowski got the opening nod against Cincinnati at Lambeau Field...Also became the first Packers QB to throw three TD passes in his first career start since Anthony Dilweg posted the same number vs. the Los Angeles Rams on Sept. 9, 1990...Appeared in seven games in all during the regular season, also seeing significant time in Week 14 at Detroit after Rodgers sustained a concussion in the second quarter...Completed 40-of-66 passes (60.6 percent) for 433 yards, three TDs and two INTs for an 82.4 passer rating...Played in five games at QB in relief of Rodgers in 2009 after seeing action in three contests in his first season, as one of only six rookie quarterbacks in the NFL to throw a pass in 2008...Also served as team's holder in separate stints from 2008-09...For his career, has completed 49-of-83 passes (59.0 percent) for 497 yards, three TDs and two INTs for a 73.2 rating...Offseason improvement in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's quarterback school helped him hold onto No. 2 job in 2009 despite very limited preseason action due to shoulder injury...Got the most extensive playing time to that point of his career in Week 16 vs. Seattle, playing the entire fourth quarter and completing 4-of-6 passes for 36 yards, including career-long 17-yarder to convert a third-and-12 and help set up a field goal...Entered rookie training camp in '08 as No. 3 quarterback behind Rodgers and fellow rookie Brian Brohm, but solid play throughout the preseason (27-of-42, 209 yards, 3 TDs, no INTs, 100.2 rating) earned him the nod as the backup...Down 23-15 in preseason finale vs. Tennessee (Aug. 28), with 2:19 to go, led offense on 85-yard scoring drive that was capped off

AT A GLANCE

- Served as the No. 2 quarterback each of the last three seasons, and held for field goals and extra points in separate stints in 2008-09 as well.
- Started his first pro game in 2010 at New England (11-2) in Week 15, and his 100.2 passer rating in the contest was the highest by any NFL quarterback making his first career start against a team with a 10-2 record or better since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- Also became the first Packers QB to throw three TD passes in his first career start since Anthony Dilweg posted the same number vs. the Los Angeles Rams on Sept. 9, 1990.
- Was one of only six rookie quarterbacks in the NFL to throw a pass in 2008.
- Capped LSU career by leading the Tigers to the 2007 BCS National Championship with a 38-24 win over Ohio State and earned Offensive MVP honors in the game.
- Finished college career with an 11-2 record as LSU's starting quarterback.
- His 31 career touchdown passes rank tied for sixth in school history despite serving as the Tigers' starting quarterback for just one season.

with a 22-yard TD pass as time expired...On the drive, also scrambled for a 21-yard pickup, completed a 20-yard pass, and connected on a two-point conversion attempt to tie the game, but receiver was unable to get both feet in bounds as the Packers came up short...Made NFL debut in Week 4 at Tampa Bay in '08 when Rodgers left the game with a shoulder injury...Played two series against the Buccaneers and completed 2-of-5 passes for 6 yards, his only passing attempts of the season...Was drafted in the seventh round after he finished off his college career at LSU by leading the Tigers to the 2007 BCS National Championship over Ohio State and earned Offensive MVP honors in the game...Had backed up future NFL draft picks JaMarcus Russell and Matt Mauck during his first three years before getting his chance to start as a senior...Finished career with an 11-2 record as a starter for the Tigers...Despite serving as the starter for just one season, still managed to throw for 3,096 yards and 31 TDs during his career.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in seven games with one start, completing 40-of-66 passes (60.6 percent) for 433 yards, three TDs and two INTs (82.4 rating)...Active, but did not play in the other nine regular-season contests... Played in one postseason contest, serving as the No. 2 QB in the other three but not seeing any action...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Threw a pass on a fake field goal from the Minnesota 37 in the second quarter. Quickly went from holder to a shotgun formation, and his long pass to TE Andrew Quarless appeared to be on target but went incomplete after Quarless stumbled en route to the ball...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Entered the game in relief of Rodgers with 6:37 remaining and the Packers leading 31-3. Led the offense on a 10-play drive that eventually stalled at the Minnesota 33 with 24 seconds remaining. Completed his lone attempt, a 5-yard pass to WR Jordy Nelson, and also scrambled around right end for a 5-yard gain...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Saw the most extended playing time of his career to that point as he entered the game for Rodgers (concussion) with 1:12 remaining in the first half. Connected on 15-of-26 passes (57.7 percent) for 177 yards with an INT (62.5 rating). Led the Packers to a FG on the opening drive of the second half, finding Quarless for a 20-yard gain on the possession. Engineered an 81-yard march on the next series by completing 4-of-6 passes for 67 yards before he was intercepted by LB DeAndre Levy on a pass intended for WR Donald Driver in the end zone. On Green Bay's final drive, found WR James Jones for an 18-yard gain to convert a third-and-11, and followed that up with a 14-yard screen to RB Dimitri Nance and a 9-yard toss to WR Greg Jennings. On fourth-and-1 at the Detroit 31, overthrew Jennings on a deep pass down the left sideline as the Packers lost, 7-3...At New England (Dec. 19): Making his first career start in one of the toughest environments in the NFL, completed 24-of-37 passes (64.9 percent) for 251 yards and three TDs with one INT (100.2 rating) against the 11-2 Patriots. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 100.2 passer rating was the highest by any NFL quarterback making his first career start against a team with a 10-2 record or better since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Became the first Packers QB to throw three TD passes in his first career start since Dilweg posted the same number vs. the L.A. Rams (Sept. 9, 1990). Was the first QB besides Rodgers or Favre to start a game since Majkowski (vs. Cincinnati, Sept. 20, 1992). Completed passes to 10 different receivers. Found Jones for a 66-yard TD on the stop-and-go route on the first play of the second quarter, the first TD pass of his NFL career and the longest TD pass by a Packers QB on his first career scoring throw since Babe Parilli in 1952 (90 yards). Pushed the lead to 17-7 with a 1-yard TD strike to Jennings in the second quarter. Engineered a 13-play, 69-yard drive in the third quarter that was capped off with a 6-yard TD pass to RB John Kuhn...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): In his postseason debut, entered the game with 5:32 remaining and the Packers leading 45-21. Handed the ball off five times on a drive that would result in a 32-yard Mason Crosby FG.

2009: Served as No. 2 QB for the second straight season...Played in 15 games, handling holding duties for FGs and PATs in the first 13 games and seeing time at QB in five contests, completing 7-of-12 passes for 58 yards with one INT...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Saw first action at QB on the season when he relieved Rodgers with just under nine minutes remaining. Completed 1-of-2 passes, connecting with Jennings for a 12-yard completion...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Took final snap of the game and completed a 3-yard pass to TE Donald Lee...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Took final three offensive snaps, handing the ball off to RB Brandon Jackson each time...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Saw most extensive action of career, coming in for Rodgers for final snap of the third quarter and playing the entire fourth quarter. Completed 4-of-6 passes for 36 yards. Scrambled to his right and found Nelson on the sideline for a career-long 17-yard gain to convert a third-and-12 and set up a fourth-quarter FG...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Played the entire fourth quarter, completing 1-of-3 passes for 7 yards with one INT.

2008: Played in seven games, three of them at QB and the last four games at holder...Completed 2-of-5 passes for 6 yards...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Took first NFL snaps with two kneel downs to end game in 48-25 win...Vs. Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Played two series in the fourth quarter after Rodgers was sidelined with a shoulder injury. Completed 2-of-5 passes for 6 yards. First career completion came on 3-yard pass to Jackson late in the fourth quarter...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Held on PATs for the first time in his pro career, holding for Crosby's three kicks...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Rushed for 6 yards and a first down to the Chicago 31 on a fake punt as he took a direct snap from LS Brett Goode and found a hole on the right side on a fourth-and-2 play in the second quarter. The first down kept drive alive that was capped off with a Jennings TD catch...2008 Draft: The Packers' first of two seventh-round draft choices (209th overall), and was the 12th QB taken. Selected with pick from Minnesota acquired along with the Vikings' fifth-round pick (150) for Green Bay's fifth-round pick (137). Was the second QB selected by the Packers in the '08 draft, joining second-round pick Brohm; the last time the team selected two signal-callers in the same draft was in 1989 when the Packers took Dilweg in the third round and Jeff Graham in the fourth round.

SUCCESS IN DECEMBER

While the regular season tally might show a modest 3-2 December for the Packers in 2010, it must be noted that each of the victories came at Lambeau Field where the team has proven to be a difficult beat once the weather has turned in recent years. Head Coach Mike McCarthy has continued the tradition of December success in Green Bay, compiling a 10-2 home record and a 15-8 mark overall in the regular season's final month.

• Since 2000, Green Bay owns the league's third-best record Dec. 1 and later (including January):

INSTANT REPLAY

For the 2011 season, the NFL will continue to employ a system of Referee Replay Review to aid officiating.

Prior to the two-minute warning of each half, a Coaches' Challenge System will be in effect. After the two-minute warning, and throughout any overtime period, a Referee Review will be initiated by a Replay Assistant from a Replay Booth.

The following procedures will be used:

REVIEWS BY REFEREE: All Replay Reviews will be conducted by the Referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering official(s), prior to review. A decision will be reversed only when the Referee has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

COACHES' CHALLENGE: In each game, a team will be permitted two challenges that will initiate Referee Replay reviews, except for scoring plays, after the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period. Each challenge will require the use of a team timeout. If a challenge is upheld, the timeout will be restored to the challenging team. If both challenges are upheld, a third challenge will be awarded to the challenging team. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its timeouts.

REPLAY ASSISTANT'S REQUEST FOR REVIEW: After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any review will be initiated by a Replay Assistant.

There is no limit to the number of reviews that may be initiated by the Replay Assistant. His ability to initiate a review will be unrelated to the number of timeouts that either team has remaining, and no timeout will be charged for any review initiated by the Replay Assistant.

TIME LIMIT: Each review will be a maximum of 60 seconds in length, timed from when the Referee begins his review of the replay at the field-level monitor.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS

The Replay System will cover the following play situations only:

A) PLAYS GOVERNED BY SIDELINE, GOAL LINE, END ZONE, END LINE, AND GOAL POSTS:

1. Scoring plays, including a runner breaking the plane of the goal line.
2. Pass complete/incomplete/intercepted at sideline, goal line, end zone and end line.
3. Runner/receiver in or out of bounds.
4. Recovery of loose ball in or out of bounds.
5. A field goal or try attempt when it is lower than the top of the uprights.

B) PASSING PLAYS:

1. Pass ruled complete/incomplete/intercepted in the field of play.
2. Touching of a forward pass by an ineligible receiver.
3. Touching of a forward pass by a defensive player.
4. Quarterback (Passer) forward pass or fumble.
5. Illegal forward pass beyond line of scrimmage.
6. Illegal forward pass after change of possession.
7. Forward or backward pass thrown from behind line of scrimmage.

C) OTHER REVIEWABLE PLAYS:

1. Runner ruled not down by defensive contact.
2. Runner ruled down by defensive contact and there is a recovery by defense.
3. Forward progress with respect to first down.
4. Touching of a kick.
5. Number of players on the field.
6. Recovery of loose ball in the field of play, including those ruled to have hit sideline.
7. A field goal or try attempt when it is lower than the top of the uprights.
8. Illegal forward handoff.

LAMBEAU'S TWIN FLAGS

The twin American flags above Lambeau Field enter their eighth season in 2011. The impressively sized flags, 15 feet by 25 feet, were raised May 28, 2004, on Memorial Day weekend that year.

Located on top of the stadium's indoor club seats on the north end of the facility, the flags are the culmination of the desire to improve Lambeau Field's honoring of America, an effort first discussed in Fall 2003, at the end of the stadium's 32-month renovation.

"Once the Lambeau Field redevelopment project was complete and we had our first games in the stadium, we realized the old flag and flagpole appeared a bit small compared to the larger size of the new facility," said then-Packers CEO Bob Harlan.

"We needed something more prominent to appropriately honor our country and decided to upgrade that component of the stadium. We also heard from a few fans that they had trouble locating the flag during the anthem, so this will definitely help in that area, too.

"The new, larger flags are a great way to honor America and the timing worked out for it to be done for Memorial Day weekend."

The flags are positioned atop 72-foot high flagpoles which are stationed on top of the northeast and northwest corners of the stadium, above the club seats. All told, the flags are flying at 180 feet above ground.

Once the plans were set, the team worked with Kocken and Associates, of De Pere, Wis., on the design and engineering of the project. A major challenge of the design was ensuring both the structure and the flagpoles themselves could withstand the extreme wind load from the two large flags at that height.

Physical preparation for the new flagpoles began months prior with structural work, including reinforcing the area above the ceiling and on the roof with additional steel and concrete to support the extra load.

The two flags fly 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and are illuminated by spotlights at night.

CAREER: A virtual unknown when he was acquired by the Packers prior to the start of the 2007 regular season, had begun cementing his status as one of the most productive backs in team history when a severe ankle injury in the 2010 opener at Philadelphia ended his season after just one game...The injury, which occurred when Grant was tackled awkwardly following an 18-yard gain in the second quarter, required surgery and landed him on injured reserve, ending his streak of 48 consecutive games played (51 including playoffs)...Had posted back-to-back 1,200-yard rushing seasons in 2008-09, only the third player in team history to do so (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Jim Taylor, 1961-62) and one of only four backs in the league to accomplish the feat over those two years along with Minnesota's Adrian Peterson, the New York Jets' Thomas Jones and Tennessee's Chris Johnson...With 3,457 career rushing yards, ranks ninth in team history and needs 255 yards to move past Paul Hornung (3,711) for No. 8; to crack the franchise's top five, needs only 481 yards (No. 5 Dorsey Levens, 3,937)...Surpassed 3,000 yards rushing in just 41 games with the Packers, the third fastest to do so in team history (Green, 37; John Brockington, 40), despite only rushing six times for 27 yards in his first five games with Green Bay...Has a dozen 100-yard games in his time as the starter, which puts him fourth in franchise history, one away from tying Brockington for third...Followed up his 1,203-yard rushing season in 2008 with a 1,253-yard output in 2009, totals that rank eighth and sixth, respectively, on the team's single-season list...Ranked third in the NFC and seventh in the NFL in rushing yards in '09, adding a career-best 197 receiving yards as well for 1,450 yards from scrimmage...His 11 rushing TDs in 2009 made him one of only four backs in team history with at least eight rushing TDs in two different seasons (he also had eight in 2007), joining Taylor, Green and Hornung...Heading into 2011, carries a career-long streak of 299 rushes without a fumble, with his last fumble on a running play coming in the '08 season finale vs. Detroit...That streak ranks second in the NFL among current ones behind only San Francisco's Brian Westbrook (359)...His only fumble on any play over that stretch came on a pass reception (Week 2, 2009, vs. Cincinnati).

Straight-ahead runner with forward lean whose one-cut style clearly fit the offense's zone-blocking scheme from the moment he stepped in as the feature back midway through '07...From the time he took over in Week 8 at Denver in 2007 through the end of the '09 season, rushed for 3,385 yards, the second-most in the NFL over that span behind only Peterson (3,814)...Maintained his consecutive-games streak despite a hamstring injury that slowed him down in the early stages of the '08 season...Still became only the fourth player in team annals to top the 1,200-yard mark in a season, doing so that year on 312 attempts, the fourth-highest single-season total in team history...One of five players in the NFL to post at least 300 rushes in '08...Carried the ball slightly less in '09 (282) and boosted his per-carry average by one-half yard, from 3.9 to 4.4...Still hasn't matched his 5.1 yards per carry from '07, when he took over for an injured DeShawn Wynn (shoulder) in

- Set to return from a season-ending ankle injury suffered in the 2010 season opener at Philadelphia, which ended a streak of 48 consecutive games played (51 including playoffs).
- Topped 1,200 rushing yards in both 2008 and 2009, only the third back in team history to do so in consecutive years (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Jim Taylor, 1961-62) and one of only four backs in the NFL to do so those years (Adrian Peterson, Thomas Jones, Chris Johnson).
- Stepped in for an injured DeShawn Wynn (shoulder) in second quarter of '07 Monday night game at Denver (Oct. 29), and over the next 2½ seasons compiled 3,385 rushing yards; No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only Peterson.
- Has a career-long streak of 299 carries without a fumble, with his last fumble on a rushing play coming in the third quarter of the 2008 season finale vs. Detroit. His lone fumble in 2009 came on a pass reception (Week 2 vs. Cincinnati).
- Surpassed 3,000 yards rushing in just 41 games with the Packers, the third fastest to do so in team history (Green, 37; John Brockington, 40), despite only rushing six times for 27 yards in his first five games with Green Bay.
- Set Packers' playoff records with 201 yards on the ground and three rushing touchdowns in 42-20 NFC Divisional playoff win over Seattle (Jan. 12, 2008), after fumbling twice in the first minute-plus to help stake Seahawks to 14-0 lead.
- Acquired Sept. 1, 2007, from the N.Y. Giants in exchange for a sixth-round draft choice in 2008.
- A four-year letterman at Notre Dame, became the 13th running back in school history to top the 2,000-yard mark.

second quarter of Monday night game at Denver (Oct. 29), and went on to post the Packers' first 100-yard rushing performance of the season and four more by the end of the regular season...Nearly eclipsed 1,000 yards, finishing with 956 and eight TDs on 188 attempts, in barely more than half a season as the primary ballcarrier...Authored tremendous performance in 42-20 NFC Divisional playoff win vs. Seattle (Jan. 12), setting Green Bay postseason records for rushing yards (201) and rushing TDs (three), all after fumbling twice in the first minute-plus of the game to help the Seahawks take an early 14-0 lead...Including playoffs, rushed for 1,159 yards and 11 TDs in the final 12 games of the season...His 929 yards from Week 8 through the end of regular season ranked second only to San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson (947) during that stretch...Deceptive breakaway speed also produced 11 runs of 20 yards or more in regular season, one every 17.1 attempts, the best rate in the NFL and well ahead of the runner-up, Minnesota's Peterson, who had one every 18.3 carries...Acquired by the Packers in a trade with the New York Giants for a sixth-round draft choice on Sept. 1, 2007...Enjoyed a strong preseason in 2007 with the Giants, rushing for 90 yards on 18 carries (5.0 avg.), but was likely the odd man out in a crowded backfield...Missed all of 2006 rehabilitating a severe hand injury, which occurred when he slipped on a wet floor and his left arm went through a glass table at a party...In addition to bleeding profusely, the injury affected the tendon, the ulnar nerve and an artery, causing him to lose all feeling in the hand...Surgery was required and during rehab he was forced to learn how to hold a fork and spoon again...Spent all of '06 on the Giants' non-football injury reserve list...Originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Giants out of Notre Dame, where he became the 13th running back in school history to top 2,000 yards...Released in the final roster cutdown and signed to the Giants' practice squad on Sept. 4, 2005, where he spent the entire '05 season.

2010 SEASON: Started the season opener but suffered an ankle injury that required surgery, and was placed on injured reserve two days later...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Carried eight times for 45 yards (5.6 avg.), his final carry an 18-yard burst with 6:07 left in the second quarter. Tackled awkwardly, injuring his ankle, and did not take another snap on the season, ending a streak of 48 consecutive games played (51 including playoffs). Ran his streak of consecutive carries without a fumble to 299, dating back to the '08 season finale.

2009: Named a Pro Bowl alternate...Started all 16 games, plus the playoff contest, and led the team with a career-high 1,253 rushing yards and a career-best 11 TDs on 282 carries (4.4 avg.)...Ranked third in the NFC and seventh in the NFL in rushing yards...Also had 25 receptions for a career-high 197 yards (7.9 avg.)...Finished fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 1,450...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Rushed for 99 yards on 26 carries (3.8 avg.), including a 17-yard run and 50 yards total in the fourth quarter...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Registered 51 yards on 11 carries (4.6 avg.) and a career-high 50 receiving yards on four receptions, including two screen passes that picked up 13 and 20 yards, respectively...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Recorded 90 yards on 24 carries (3.8 avg.), including 62 on 11 attempts (5.6 avg.) in the fourth quarter, which featured a 22-yard run...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted the second-best regular-season performance of his career with season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Broke off a 37-yard run down the right sideline in the fourth quarter down to the Cleveland 5 that set up a James Jones TD reception on the next play. The big gain was his longest run since a 57-yarder in the '08 season opener vs. Minnesota. Posted six runs of 8-plus yards, and 100 yards on 15 carries (6.7 avg.) in the second half, only the second time in his career that he went over 100 yards in a half (105 on 13 carries vs. Chicago, first half, Nov. 16, 2008)...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Picked up 129 yards rushing on 21 carries (6.1 avg.) along with a 1-yard TD early in the fourth quarter, moving past Eddie Lee Ivey for 11th place on team's all-time rushing yardage list. His two runs of 20-plus yards were a season high. First one was a 26-yarder on opening drive to help set up a Mason Crosby FG. Second one came on final drive of the game as the Packers were looking to run out the clock with a 30-24 lead; on first down from the Green Bay 20, was stopped on run up the middle at the line, but bounced it outside to the left for a 21-yard gain...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Rushed for 137 yards and two TDs on 20 carries, a 6.9-yard average that ranks as his career high for a game with 20 carries or more, and the two TDs matched his career best (at Dallas, Nov. 29, 2007). Scored on the Packers' first offensive play, finding a hole on the left side and taking the ball 62 yards for the TD as he outran CB Charles Tillman. The score was his longest run since a 66-yard TD at Chicago (Dec. 23, 2007), and it was the first time the Packers had scored on their opening play since Antonio Freeman's 80-yard TD catch vs. San Francisco (Nov. 1, 1998). Hit the 1,000-yard mark for the season on his second carry of the afternoon, a 7-yard pickup, and moved into the No. 10 spot on the Packers' career rushing list on his 17-yard run in the fourth quarter, surpassing Donny Anderson (3,165)...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Had a season-low eight carries for 37 yards (4.6 avg.) and a TD. Found a hole on the left side and took it down the sideline for a 24-yard TD run midway through the fourth quarter, outrunning S Tyrone Carter to give the Packers their first lead of the day at 28-27...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Led team with 97 yards and two TDs on 16 carries (6.1 avg.), his third career two-TD game. With just over five minutes remaining in the first half, broke off a 56-yard TD run up the middle, making S Deon Grant miss at the second level before taking it the rest of the way for the score. Also scored on a 3-yard run in the first quarter, diving for the pylon in the right corner of the end zone. On his final two carries of the afternoon, moved past his position coach, Edgar Bennett (3,353), for the No. 9 spot on the franchise's all-time rushing list with a 5-yard gain, and then hit the 1,200-yard mark for a second straight season with a 3-yard gain on the last play of the third quarter...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Carried the ball 11 times for 64 yards (5.8 avg.), including a 20-yard run off left tackle in the second quarter down to the Cardinals' 7; Rodgers scored five plays later on 1-yard sneak. Added two receptions for 18 yards.

2008: Played in every game with 14 starts and led team with 1,203 yards on 312 carries (3.9 avg.) despite battling a hamstring injury early in the season...Became only the fourth player in franchise history to rush for 1,200 yards in a season, and posted four 100-yard rushing games...His 312 attempts rank fourth for a single season in team history, and he was one of only five players in the NFL to carry the ball 300 times in '08...Ranked sixth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL in rushing yardage...Both of his non-starts, at Tennessee (Nov. 2) and at Minnesota (Nov. 9), came when team opened up with three WRs and two TEs...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Led the team with 92 rushing yards on just 12 carries (7.7 avg.), including a 57-yard run in the fourth quarter down to Minnesota's 2-yard line. The run set up Rodgers' QB sneak for a TD to give Green

BACK-TO-BACK 1,200-YARD SEASONS

- After suffering an ankle injury just eight carries into the season opener, Ryan Grant was shelved for the remainder of the 2010 campaign. In the preceding 2008 and 2009 seasons, Grant joined Ahman Green (2001-03) and Jim Taylor (1961-62) as the only players in franchise history to eclipse the 1,200-yard rushing plateau in back-to-back years.
- The only other NFL players to post back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons in 2008-09 were Chris Johnson (TEN), Thomas Jones (NYJ) and Adrian Peterson (MIN).
- Faced with mounting injuries in the backfield, the Packers turned to Grant in Week 8 of 2007 at Denver. He responded with his first career 100-yard game and has been the team's starter ever since. A look at the numbers across the league from Week 8 of 2007 through the end of the 2009 season:

Player	Yards	Rushing TDs
Adrian Peterson, MIN	3,814	35
Ryan Grant, GB	3,385	23
Thomas Jones, NYJ	3,346	28
Chris Johnson, TEN	3,234	23
Steven Jackson, StL	3,227	16

Bay a 24-12 lead, and the carry also put Grant over 1,000 yards for his career...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Rushed for 90 yards on a career-high 33 carries, which is tied for second most in franchise history. It was the first time in his career that he carried the ball 30 or more times in a game...

Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Posted 105 yards on 31 carries (3.4 avg.), giving him back-to-back games with 30-plus carries as he became only the second player in team history to do so (Levens, 1997). Scored first TD of the season on an 11-yard run off left tackle in the second quarter...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Rushed for a season-high 145 yards on 25 carries for a season-high 5.8 avg. (min. 20 attempts). Posted 35-yard run on his second carry of the game, his second-longest rush of the season. Also had runs of 18 and 22 yards to give him three carries of 15-plus yards for the first time on the season...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Posted 106 yards on 19 carries (5.6 avg.), including two runs of 20-plus yards. Along with Wynn (106), became only the second Packers running-back tandem since 1985 to each rush for 100 yards in the same game.

2007: Spent training camp and preseason with N.Y. Giants and was acquired in a trade following training camp... Played in 15 of 16 regular-season games with seven starts, and started both playoff contests...Posted five 100-yard games and led team with 188 attempts for 956 yards (5.1 avg.) and eight TDs; also had 30 catches for 145 yards (4.8 avg.)...Established postseason team records for rushing yards (201) and rushing TDs (3) vs. Seattle in the Divisional round (Jan. 12)...Since his insertion into the lineup in Week 8 at Denver, which came when Wynn left in second quarter with a shoulder injury, totaled 929 rushing yards; only San Diego's Tomlinson (947) had more rushing yards over season's final 10 weeks...Had 11 rushes of 20-plus yards in the regular season. No running back in the NFL averaged more 20-yard runs than Grant (every 17.1 attempts); Minnesota's Peterson, ranked No. 2, had one every 18.3 carries...Finished the regular season with a rushing TD in six straight games, tied for the second-longest streak in team history (Terrell Middleton, 1978) and one behind the franchise mark (Hornung, 7, 1960)...At N.Y. Giants (Sept. 16): Saw his first action as a Packer against his former team, playing on special teams and sparingly on offense. In the second quarter, caught a short screen pass — his first catch with Green Bay — and turned it into a 21-yard gain, spinning past a defender and sprinting up the left sideline...At Denver (Oct. 29): Became the Packers' first 100-yard rusher of '07 as he picked up 104 yards on 22 carries (4.7 avg.) despite not getting his first carry until the second quarter; took over as Green Bay's primary RB when Wynn left with a shoulder injury. Declared the starter by Head Coach Mike McCarthy after the game...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Won FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week for his performance against the Vikings as he rushed for 119 yards, plus his first career TD, on 19 carries (6.3 avg.). On Green Bay's opening drive, took a toss right and scored a 30-yard TD, spinning out of an arm tackle on the second level...At Dallas (Nov. 29): Rushed 14 times for 94 yards (6.7 avg.) and two TDs, the first multiple-TD game of his career. In the first quarter, found a small opening off right guard and sprinted for a 62-yard TD. Added a 1-yard plunge in the third, narrowing Dallas' lead to 27-24...Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Set regular-season career high with 156 yards on (then) career-high 29 carries (5.4 avg.), adding a TD; named FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week...At Chicago (Dec. 23): Picked up 100 yards and one TD on 14 carries (7.1 avg.). In the second quarter, went off right tackle for a career-long 66-yard TD, the Packers' only score of the contest...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): After losing fumbles on the Packers' first two drives, rebounded to rush for 201 yards and three TDs, on 27 carries (7.4 avg.). His 201 rushing yards set a franchise postseason record and ranked seventh on the all-time NFL postseason list. His three rushing scores also established a new franchise playoff record and tied him for second in NFL single-game postseason annals. His 18 points place him tied for second with Sterling Sharpe (3 TDs, at Detroit, Jan. 3, 1994) for most points in a Green Bay postseason game.

2006: Spent the season on the non-football injury reserve list after injuring his hand in the offseason.

2005: Carried the ball twice and caught one pass in pre-season action with the Giants...Released in the final roster cut on Sept. 3...Re-signed to the Giants' practice squad on Sept. 4, where he spent the entire '05 season...2005 Draft: Originally signed with the Giants as a non-drafted free agent on May 6.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman for the Irish, became the 13th RB in school history to top the 2,000-yard mark... Also competed on the Irish track and field team...Finished his career with 2,220 rushing yards and 18 TDs...Earned degrees in sociology and computer science...Senior season (2004): Played in nine games and started each one as he rushed for 515 yards and five TDs...Earned the Team Captain award at the conclusion of the season...Junior season (2003): Played in all 12 games, starting the first five...Split time with Julius Jones, who returned from academic probation...Finished the season with 510 yards and three TDs on 143 carries...All three scores came at Stanford (Nov. 29), where he rushed for 84 yards on 14 carries...Sophomore season (2002): Became the starter at RB and enjoyed a breakout campaign, becoming only the seventh back in school annals to top the 1,000-yard mark...Rushed for 1,085 yards and nine TDs...Tallied his first career 100-yard effort in an upset win vs. No. 7 Michigan (Sept. 14) when he rushed for 132 yards and two TDs on 28 carries...Rushed for 190 yards and a score on 30 carries at Air Force (Oct. 19)...Freshman season (2001): Played five games in a reserve role as a true freshman...Carried the ball 29 times for 110 yards and one TD.

PERSONAL: Given name Ryan Brett Grant...Born in Nyack, N.Y. ...Single...Brother, Netic, is the lead singer of the rock band Game Rebellion...High school: A three-sport athlete at Don Bosco Prep in Ramsey, N.J., was a member of the football, basketball and track teams...Honored by USA Today as the 2000 New Jersey Player of the Year as a senior...Rushed for 1,963 yards and 26 TDs on offense and tallied 61 tackles and seven INTs on defense in leading the team to an 11-1 record and an appearance in the state championship game...Rated as the top prospect in New Jersey and the Northeast's offensive player of the year by SuperPrep...Standout player on the hardwood and was timed at 10.7 seconds in the 100-meter dash in spring track...Community involvement: In November 2009, paid a special, surprise visit to an 11-year-old Packers fan from Milwaukee named Ryan Luxem with an advanced stage of leukemia. The two formed a bond, and the boy died a month later. Grant helped establish a scholarship fund in the boy's name (Ryan 4 Ryan) that he and teammates have raised money for, with one key event being Grant's attending the prom at the high school where the boy's mother is a teacher...Is involved with the Heaven House charity of a Milwaukee family that has provided foster care to numerous Wisconsin youths...Is working with the family on the construction of a house and has raised additional funds via the Ryan Grant Giving Challenge...Helped refurbish the Green Bay West H.S. football field as part of Home Depot Neighborhood MVP Program in '07...Played an Xbox game against a soldier overseas in the annual "Pros vs. GI Joes"

HOWARD GREEN

NOSE TACKLE • LOUISIANA STATE

Seventh NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 340 • Born: January 12, 1979 • NFL Games Played/Started: 60/15 • Acquired: W-10 (NYJ)

CAREER: Midseason waiver-wire acquisition became a solid contributor on the defensive line in 2010...Claimed by the Packers off waivers from the N.Y. Jets on Oct. 27, he was thrust into action just four days later against his former team in Green Bay's 9-0 victory over the Jets at New Meadowlands Stadium...Played a total of nine contests with the Packers in 2010 with three starts, the most games he had opened since he started a career-high 12 with New Orleans in 2010...Saw time primarily at end, working on both sides of the line in the 3-4 scheme...Had familiarity with several members of the team's coaching staff, including Head Coach Mike McCarthy, who served as the offensive coordinator in New Orleans when Green played for the Saints in 2003-04...Entered the league as a sixth-round draft choice of the Houston Texans in 2002 out of Louisiana State when defensive coordinator Dom Capers was the head coach in Houston...Has appeared in 60 games during his career with five different teams...Played for Baltimore (2002), New Orleans (2003-04), Seattle (2007-08) and the New York Jets (2009-10) before being claimed by the Packers...Got the most extensive playing time of his career with the Saints in '04...Was out of football for two seasons after that but re-surfaced with Seattle in 2007...For his career, has 138 tackles (58 solo), a sack, two forced fumbles, a pass defended and a blocked field goal...Also has played in seven postseason games, two each with the Seahawks (2007) and Jets (2009) and three with the Packers (2010).

2010: Played in nine games with three starts after he was claimed off waivers from the Jets on Oct. 27...Registered 17 tackles (four solo) and a forced fumble...Started all three playoff contests he was active for, including Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh, and recorded five tackles (one solo)...Inactive (healthy scratch) for NFC Wild Card contest at Philadelphia (Jan. 9)...Signed as a free agent with Washington on April 19 but was released by the Redskins in the final roster reduction on Sept. 4...Re-signed with the Jets on Sept. 15 and played in two games, recording one tackle and one forced fumble...Released by the Jets on Oct. 26 and claimed off waivers by the Packers the next day...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Was pressed into action after participating in only one full practice. Had a strong showing as he registered four assisted tackles and a forced fumble in 34 snaps. Early in the fourth quarter, penetrated the backfield to disrupt an exchange between RB LaDainian Tomlinson and WR Jerricho Cotchery on a reverse, resulting in an 8-yard loss after Cotchery recovered the ball. Credited with a forced fumble on the play...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): His

- Claimed by Packers off waivers from the N.Y. Jets on Oct. 27, and played against his former team just four days later in Green Bay's 9-0 win at New Meadowlands Stadium.
- Appeared in nine contests for Green Bay in 2010, starting three, the most games he had opened since he started a career-high 12 with New Orleans in 2004.
- Hit the arm of QB Ben Roethlisberger on a first-quarter pass in Super Bowl XLV, forcing him to badly underthrow WR Mike Wallace as S Nick Collins intercepted the pass and returned it 37 yards for a TD.
- Has appeared in 60 career games with five different teams.
- Entered the league as a sixth-round choice of the Houston Texans in 2002 when current defensive coordinator Dom Capers was the head coach in Houston.

presence as a reserve DE proved to be valuable once again when veteran DE Ryan Pickett re-injured his ankle in the second quarter. Part of a defense that limited the Cowboys to just 39 rushing yards on 14 carries (2.8 avg.)...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Started at DT as Packers opened up with four defensive linemen, his first start since 2004. Recorded an assisted tackle...At New England (Dec. 19): Started at RDE and posted two assisted tackles while dividing time with C.J. Wilson in place of an injured Cullen Jenkins (calf)...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Started at RDE for the second straight week and posted a season-high three tackles (two solo)...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Matched season high with three tackles (two solo)...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started at RDE, the first postseason start of his career, and recorded two tackles (one solo). Helped limit Pro Bowl RB Michael Turner to just 39 yards, which matched a season low, on 10 carries...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Started at DT as the defense opened with its "Hippo" personnel that featured four down linemen. Finished with two assisted tackles and a game-changing QB hit. With the Steelers backed up to their own 7-yard line late in the first quarter, bull-rushed LG Chris Kemoatu into the backfield, disengaging from the block to slap the right arm of QB Ben Roethlisberger during his follow-through. The hit forced Roethlisberger to badly underthrow a go-route to WR Mike Wallace into the arms of S Nick Collins, who picked off the pass and weaved through Steelers defenders for a 37-yard TD return and a 14-0 lead.

THE USS GREEN BAY

The U.S. Navy on July 15, 2006, christened a 684-foot warship, and dubbed it the USS Green Bay at a shipyard in the New Orleans area.

Constructed in Avondale, La., at a shipyard owned by Northrop Grumman, it is the second Navy vessel to be called the Green Bay, following a small gunboat that patrolled the seas during the Vietnam era.

The newest Green Bay, used to carry troops for rapid deployment, launch and recovery, will become a significant part of the U.S. amphibious fleet.

Former Green Bay Packers quarterback Bart Starr appeared in a video that was played at the July 15, 2006 christening ceremony. And Nancy Croy, principal at Green Bay's Lombardi Middle School — named after Starr's legendary coach Vince Lombardi — traveled to attend the christening as part of the school's relationship with the Navy.

Members of the Packers' front office, including President and CEO Mark Murphy, toured the ship in November 2008 during the team's road trip to New Orleans for a game against the Saints.

Commissioned Jan. 24, 2009, it can carry 360 Navy sailors and as many as 800 Marines. Assigned to the U.S. Pacific Fleet, the ship's home port is at the naval base in San Diego, Calif.

SPENCER HAVNER

TIGHT END • UCLA

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 250 • Born: February 2, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 26/1 • Acquired: FA-10

CAREER: A former reserve linebacker turned tight end known for his versatility and special-teams contributions... Was released in the final roster cutdown in 2010 but re-signed with the team in November... After being released by the Packers on Sept. 4, was claimed off waivers the next day by Detroit and went on to appear in five contests with the Lions as a reserve linebacker and special-teams contributor... Played in one game for Green Bay in 2010 before a hamstring injury ended his season... Began cross-training at TE and LB in the spring of 2009 during OTAs and then practiced on both sides of the ball that summer during training camp before settling into a backup tight-end role while maintaining his special-teams duties... Was the surprise performer in '09 during fellow tight end Jermichael Finley's absence due to a knee injury, catching four touchdown passes over a stretch of four games in his first significant playing time on the offensive side... Caught seven passes for 112 yards in the regular season and added a fifth TD catch in the playoffs, all while also ranking third on the team with 20 special teams tackles... Persevered through multiple stunts on the team's practice squad over a three-year span (2006-08) to land a spot on the active roster for final four games of 2008, playing exclusively on special teams... Registered three coverage tackles and downed two punts inside the opponent's 10-yard line during his brief regular-season action... Former captain and four-year starter in college at UCLA was originally signed by Washington as a non-drafted free agent in 2006... Was waived in the team's final roster reduction and signed to Green Bay's practice squad in early October... Was released by Packers following both 2007 and 2008 training camps, eventually getting re-signed to the team's practice squad both years; was finally signed to active roster for the first time in December 2008... Finished college career as UCLA's third-leading tackler all-time, with 402 stops, set a school record with four defensive touchdowns (three interceptions, one fumble recovery), and blocked three kicks on special teams.

2010: Played in a total of six games on the season, five with Detroit and one with Green Bay... Registered six tackles (four solo) on defense for the Lions, adding three stops on special teams... Waived by Packers in final roster cutdown on Sept. 3, but was claimed by Detroit the following day... Was placed on injured reserve (hamstring) by Detroit on Oct. 15 and reached an injury settlement with the club on Oct. 21... Was re-signed by Green Bay on Nov. 12... Inactive for game at Minnesota (Nov. 21)... Played on special teams at Atlanta (Nov. 28), but re-injured his hamstring on the final play of the first quarter while covering a kickoff... Was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 30.

AT A GLANCE

- Last name is pronounced HAY-ver.
- Appeared in five games with Detroit and one contest with Green Bay in 2010.
- Converted linebacker who began cross-training at tight end last spring and went on to catch four touchdown passes in '09 regular season, all while fellow tight end Jermichael Finley was out with a knee injury.
- Spent three separate stints on Packers' practice squad before being signed to active roster in December 2008.
- Former team captain and four-year starter at UCLA, finished his college career ranked third in school history in tackles.

2009: Played in all 16 games with one start at TE... Tied for fourth on the team with four TD receptions... Caught seven passes for 112 yards (16.0 avg.)... Ranked third on the team with 20 special teams tackles, participating in 69.6 percent of the team's special teams plays, third most on the team... Began cross-training at TE during OTAs, becoming first two-way player during Mike McCarthy's tenure... Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Caught the first pass of his career when he pulled in a 21-yard reception over the middle from QB Aaron Rodgers in the first quarter. The catch came on third down and kept a drive alive that was capped off with a TD catch by WR Donald Driver... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Made a tackle of RB Aaron Brown for a 1-yard loss on a fake punt by Detroit in second quarter; P Nick Harris went under center on fourth-and-3 and pitched the ball to Brown, who was brought down by Havner at the Green Bay 44. Also caught a 9-yard pass over the middle down to Detroit's 12 in the third quarter and added a tackle on special teams... At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted the first TD reception of his career on career-long 45-yard grab in the second quarter. With the Packers facing a third-and-1 at the Cleveland 45, caught a pass from Rodgers at the 40 and took it down the right sideline for the score, breaking a tackle by S Abram Elam at the 20 and diving to the pylon to beat S Brodney Pool. On ensuing kickoff, ran down the field to make tackle of WR Joshua Cribbs, one of team-best two special teams tackles. Added a 14-yard reception in the fourth quarter to give him a career-high two receptions for career-best 59 yards... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Caught two passes for 21 yards, with both going for TDs as he became the first Packers TE since Donald Lee (Nov. 11-18, 2007) to record three TDs in a two-game span. Both TDs came on third-down passes, from 16 and 5 yards, respectively... At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Had first kickoff returns of career with two for 26 yards (13.0 avg.) as he fielded two short kicks... Vs. Dallas

THE GOALPOSTS

From the Rule Book: "In the plane of each end line, there shall be a centrally placed horizontal crossbar 18 feet 6 inches in length, the top face of which is 10 feet above the ground. The goal is the vertical plane extending indefinitely above the crossbar and between the lines indicated by the outer edges of the goal posts. All goal posts will be the single-standard type, offset from the end line and bright gold in color. The uprights will extend 30 feet above the crossbar and will be no less than 3 inches and no more than 4 inches in diameter. An orange-colored ribbon 4 inches by 42 inches is to be attached to the top of each post."

History: The NFL moved its goal posts from the goal line to the end line prior to the 1974 season. In 1966, the year after Don Chandler's controversial field goal sent a Packers-Colts playoff game into overtime, the league raised the height of the goal posts to "a minimum 20 feet above the crossbar."

Career record includes postseason games. From 1921-71, tie games were not included in winning percentage.

Did you know...Most historians credit the Packers as the first football team to film games and practice, something as important to today's game as the ball itself. The routine, carried on by Vince Lombardi (above), first began in 1923, when Otto Stiller used a hand-powered camera to film games atop the Bellevue Park grandstand.

Sixth Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 247 • Born: January 6, 1984 • NFL Games Played/Started: 80/77 • Acquired: D1-06

CAREER: Productive, assignment-sure defender entering his sixth season, having played in all 80 games with 77 starts in his first five years following selection as a top-five draft pick...Has either led the team in tackles or finished second in each of his seasons in Green Bay...Has posted 626 tackles (444 solo), nine sacks, eight interceptions, 29 passes defended, two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries during his career...Has registered 100-plus tackles in four of his five seasons in Green Bay...Joined G Daryn Colledge as the only Packers to play in every game from 2006-10...Was released by the team on March 2, 2011, but was quickly re-signed to a new contract the following day...Had one of his best seasons in 2010 as he took on a bigger role than in past years, serving as the lead communicator between the coaches and the huddle in the absence of LB Nick Barnett, who missed the final 12 games with a wrist injury...Served as the "Buck" linebacker in Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme for the second straight season...With injuries to Barnett and veteran LB Brandon Chillar, rarely came off the field in 2010, even on passing downs...Led the team with 134 tackles (97 solo) and posted a career-high three interceptions, which tied him for the NFL lead among linebackers...Was named a Pro Bowl alternate, but was credited with his first career selection because he would have been added to the all-star roster as an emergency replacement had the Packers not been preparing for Super Bowl XLV...Tied Keith Bulluck for the most INTs by a linebacker over the past two seasons with five...Despite seeing his snap count go down in '09 compared to his first four seasons because of the Packers' frequent use of sub-packages, was one of only 10 linebackers in the NFL to post at least 85 tackles, two interceptions, and a sack...In 2008, played through chest and groin injuries to lead the Packers in tackles for the second time in his career after moving from weak-side to middle linebacker the second half of the season to replace the injured Barnett...His team-leading 155 tackles in 2006 were the second most ever recorded by a Packers' rookie (Rich Wingo, 166 in 1979), and his 112 solo tackles ranked third in the league...Finished third in The Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year voting and earned a spot on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team...Also named the team's Defensive Rookie of the Year...The first linebacker taken in the 2006 draft after being a consensus All-American each of his final two seasons at Ohio State...One of only two linebackers taken among the top five selections over a period of nine NFL drafts (1998-2006), joined LaVar Arrington (No. 2 overall, 2000) in an exclusive group...Followed the likes of Lawrence Taylor (1981), Derrick Thomas (1989), Junior Seau (1990) and Willie McGinest (1994) as one of only 27 linebackers drafted in the top five since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970...Despite fielding a few attractive offers to move from the No. 5 position, GM Ted Thompson kept the pick, and the player he had targeted with that selection from the beginning was still there...When Thompson (a former linebacker himself) drafted Hawk, unlike most of the other high-profile selections, the linebacker wasn't dressed in a suit at Radio City Music Hall to shake hands and pose with Commissioner Paul Tagliabue on national television...Instead, the humble

AT A GLANCE

- Has either led the team or finished second in tackles in each of his five seasons in Green Bay.
- Hasn't missed a game in his career, playing in all 80 contests with 77 starts. The only two non-starts came in both Minnesota games in '09 and the season opener in 2010 at Philadelphia when Packers opened in their nickel defense.
- Tied for No. 1 among NFL linebackers in 2010 with a career-high three interceptions, and is tied for No. 1 with five interceptions over the past two seasons.
- Led the team in tackles as a rookie in 2006 with 155, second most ever recorded by a Green Bay rookie (Rich Wingo, 166 in 1979). His 112 solo stops were third best in the NFL among all players that year.
- Finished third in NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting and earned a spot on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team.
- First linebacker drafted in the top five of the NFL Draft since Washington chose LaVar Arrington No. 2 overall in 2000.
- A consensus All-American both as a junior (2004) and senior (2005), earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in each of his three seasons as a starter. Also captured the 2005 Lombardi Award, given annually to the nation's top lineman or linebacker.
- Nicknamed "A.J." by his parents, fans of legendary Indy car driver A.J. Foyt.
- Grew his hair long in 2005 as a tribute to the late Pat Tillman, the former NFL player who lost his life with the U.S. Army while serving in Afghanistan.

All-American had declined the league's invitation in order to share the moment with his friends and extended family in his native Ohio...That move was no surprise to those who knew him, because humility had defined Hawk since his days at Centerville (Ohio) High School, when he instructed his parents not to cheer for him and he never wore his high school varsity jackets to avoid coming across as "big-time"...In college, was always at his best in the Buckeyes' biggest games...In just one game against eventual national champion Texas in 2005, induced QB Vince Young into two and nearly three turnovers with an interception, fumble recovery, sack, and another forced fumble...Twice started in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl (2003, '05 seasons) and each time earned the contest's defensive MVP honors; also played as a reserve in the Fiesta Bowl, when Ohio State claimed the national championship for the 2002 season...Didn't expect to be drafted by the Packers, but along with his family hoped Green Bay would be his destination because it most resembled his Midwest roots, a smaller town with ardent fans and outstanding tradition, like Columbus, Ohio.

2010 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the fifth straight season, opening 15 contests at BLB...Led the team with 134 tackles (97 solo), the second-highest total of his career behind only his 155 stops as a rookie in '06...Registered six double-digit tackle games...Posted a career-best three INTs and matched his career high with nine passes defended...The three INTs tied him for No. 1 among LBs in the league...Was named a Pro Bowl alternate, but was credited with his first career selection because he would have been added to the all-star roster as an emergency replacement had the Packers not been preparing for Super Bowl XLV...Started all four playoff games and ranked No. 3 on the team with 23 tackles (15 solo) while adding two passes defended...Was voted one of the defensive captains by his teammates for the postseason...His only non-start of the season came in the opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) when he was limited to special teams with the defense playing sub-packages the entire game...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Turned in a solid effort with 12 tackles (all solo) and an INT. His pick stopped a Detroit scoring threat at the Green Bay 10 when he intercepted QB Shaun Hill's short pass over the middle intended for RB Jahvid Best...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Tied for the team lead with a season-high 16 tackles (10 solo), the most since he recorded a career-high 20 stops at Seattle (Nov. 27, 2006) as a rookie...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Picked off a QB Brett Favre pass intended for WR Bernard Berrian on third down in the third quarter at the Green Bay 38; returned the INT 21 yards to the Minnesota 41. The turnover set up a WR Greg Jennings 14-yard TD catch five plays later to put the Packers up 21-17. Finished with a team-high 13 tackles (10 solo)...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Tied for the team lead with eight tackles (seven solo), recording two stops for a loss, along with a pair of QB hits and a fumble recovery. Recovered a RB Toby Gerhart fumble early in the second quarter that was forced by CB Charles Woodson...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Tied for the team lead with 12 tackles (eight solo), including one for a loss with a pass defended...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Recorded seven tackles (four solo) and an INT. His career-high third pick came with just over two minutes remaining when he intercepted QB Eli Manning's pass over the middle intended for RB Ahmad Bradshaw at the Green Bay 23...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Posted 13 tackles (11 solo), a half-sack and a pass defended. Teamed with DE Jarius Wynn to sack QB Jay Cutler for a 9-yard loss early in the second quarter on third down...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Led the team with 10 tackles (seven solo), his postseason career high. Played all 66 snaps...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Took every snap and ranked third on the defense with seven tackles (six solo) and two passes defended. Came on a blitz late in the first half to make a leaping deflection of a QB Ben Roethlisberger pass at the line of scrimmage, quickly turning around to nearly intercept the pass. Also came on a blitz on second down on the Steelers' final drive to flush Roethlisberger out of the pocket as he threw the ball away. The Steelers turned it over on downs two plays later, sealing the win for Green Bay.

2009: Played in all 16 games with 14 starts at BLB...His only non-starts came in both Minnesota games when the defense opened in nickel...Also played in playoff game...Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate...Finished second on the team with 87 tackles (70 solo) and led Green Bay's LBs with two INTs, which matched his career high...Added a sack, four passes defended, and two tackles on special teams...

At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led team with season-high 11 tackles (seven solo)...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Had his streak of 51 consecutive games started snapped when team opened in nickel. Posted four tackles (two solo)...

At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Led the defense with 10 tackles (eight solo), including a season-high three tackles for loss. Stopped RB Jamal Lewis for losses of 1 and 2 yards on runs, and brought QB Derek Anderson down for a 2-yard loss on a fumbled snap...

At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Saw most significant action of the season to that point, playing in both the base defense and the nickel with Chillar (hand) sidelined. Posted his first sack of the season when he brought down QB Josh Freeman for a 7-yard loss at the Tampa Bay 3 midway through the second quarter. Finished afternoon with six tackles (five solo)...

At Detroit (Nov. 26): Tied for team lead with 10 tackles (eight solo), including a stop of RB Kevin Smith for a 1-yard loss on third-quarter run...

Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Led the team with seven tackles (five solo) and posted his first INT in more than two years. With the Packers up 24-14 midway through the fourth quarter, ran down the seam with TE Todd Heap and made leading INT at the Green Bay 47; returned the pick 13 yards to Baltimore's 40 to help set up a 32-yard Mason Crosby FG...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Intercepted QB Matt Hasselbeck's third-down pass in the right flat on Seattle's opening drive at Green Bay's 36, and returned the pick a career-long 29 yards. Added five tackles (all solo)...

At Arizona (Jan. 3): Tied for the team lead with seven tackles (six solo), including a stop of RB Beanie Wells for a 1-yard loss on run in the second quarter...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Didn't start as defense opened in nickel, and recorded two solo tackles.

2008: Started every game for the third straight season, playing through chest and groin injuries...Had nine starts at WLB and final seven at MLB, where he replaced the injured Barnett...Led team with 121 tackles (84 solo)...Led LBs and was tied for second on the team with three sacks...On the field for 869-of-1,050 (82.8 percent) defensive plays, most among the team's LBs...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started at WLB and led the team with season-high 12 tackles after missing final three preseason games with chest injury suffered in preseason opener vs. Cincinnati (Aug. 11). Wore a shoulder harness to help protect the injury...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted first two-sack game of his career and tied for team lead with seven tackles. On second sack, leaped over attempted block by Smith and brought down QB Jon Kitna...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Posted four tackles and broke up a pass intended for TE Jerryam Stevens in the end zone on third down to limit the Bucs to a FG. Left game briefly in second half with groin injury but continued to start despite being limited in practice the next two weeks...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Saw limited time and did not post any tackles for first time in career as team primarily used nickel package...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Started first career game at MLB in place of an injured Barnett and led team with 12 tackles, matching his season high...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Started at MLB and tied for team high with 10 tackles, including sack of David Garrard for an 8-yard loss early in the fourth quarter...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Started seventh straight game at MLB and surpassed 400-tackle mark for his career with eight stops.

2007: Started all 16 games (plus both playoff contests) at WLB and finished second on the team with 129 tackles (81 solo), adding one sack, one fumble recovery, one forced fumble, one INT and four passes defended...Played 92.2 percent of the defensive snaps...Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Made nine tackles (six solo), plus one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. In the first quarter, stripped the ball away from TE Chris Cooley (recovered by Cooley), and in the fourth quarter, dove on a RB Clinton Portis fumble that was knocked out by S Atari Bigby...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made his first INT of the year and third of his career, stepping in front of a pass intended for RB Priest Holmes and then fighting for 10 return yards...At Dallas (Nov. 29): Had a team- and season-high 14 tackles (eight solo), with three tackles for loss. In the second quarter, stuffed RB Marion Barber for minus-1 yard. On consecutive pass plays in the third quarter, took down TE Jason Witten for a 1-yard loss and Barber for a loss of 3...Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Made nine tackles (four solo), with one sack, bringing down Manning on fourth-and-8 near the end of the first half.

2006: Started all 16 games and led the team with 155 tackles (112 solo), second most ever recorded by a Packers rookie (Wingo, 166 tackles in 1979), and led LBs with 3½ sacks...Among all NFL players, only Houston LB DeMeco Ryans (126) and Chicago LB Lance Briggs (117) had more solo stops...Also notched a pair of INTs among nine passes defended, forced a fumble and recovered two others...Was on the field for 995 snaps, or 95.3 percent; the Packers thus utilized the nickel package more than time...Finished third in The Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year voting...Named to the prestigious Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team and won Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors twice (Weeks 7 and 10)...At Detroit (Sept. 24): Recorded his first NFL sack, dropping Kitna in the fourth quarter...At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Teamed with Aaron Kampman to sack QB Donovan McNabb; earlier, recovered a fumble inside the Packers' 5-yard line (forced by Woodson)...At Miami (Oct. 22): Made a team-high 16 tackles (13 solo), plus broke up a pass and sacked QB Joey Harrington, forcing the Dolphins to settle for a FG...At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Assisted on two sacks (1.0 total) and posted 17 tackles (11 solo), plus his first career forced fumble. With DT Cullen Jenkins, sacked Brad Johnson for a 10-yard loss, getting to Johnson first by shedding two blocks by Vikings RBs. In the fourth quarter, sacked Johnson again with Barnett, leading to another punt...At Seattle (Nov. 27): Had a career-best 20 tackles (16 solo)...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Made his first career INT, stepping in front of an Alex Smith throw to TE Vernon Davis in the end zone, returning it 25 yards...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Snared a third-down Brian Griese pass in the third quarter for his second INT...2006 Draft: Selected fifth overall in the first round and joined Vinnie Clark (1991) and John Brockington (1971) in Packers history as first-round selections from Ohio State...Became the first LB taken in the top five by the Packers since Fred Carr (5th) in 1968.

COLLEGE: Played in 51 games at Ohio State with 38 starts, collecting 394 tackles (196 solo), 41 stops for loss, 15½ sacks, seven INTs, 13 passes broken up, two fumbles recovered and three forced fumbles; also returned both a blocked punt and INT for TDs...A three-year starter (2003-05), earned first-team All-Big Ten honors each of those seasons...Available for every play during his college career, started his final 37 contests in consecutive fashion...Earned B.A. degree in criminology...Senior season (2005): Earned consensus All-America honors for the second straight year and won the Lombardi Award, given annually to college football's most outstanding lineman or linebacker...Also finished as a finalist for the Bednarik, Lott and Butkus awards...The Big Ten's preseason and postseason defensive player of the year and without question college football's premier LB, also garnered defensive MVP at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl...Started all 12 games and led the team in tackles for a third consecutive year, racking up 121 stops (69 solo); also posted team-leading totals in tackles for loss (16½) and sacks (9½) while adding one INT, three passes broken up, one fumble recovery and two forced fumbles...Paced a unit that led the nation in rushing defense (73.42 yards per game) and finished fifth in total defense (281.73)...In heartbreaking, early-season home loss to No. 2 Texas (Sept. 10), posted 12 tackles, picked off a third-down pass by Young to set up a FG, recovered Young's fumble on the ensuing drive, and forced a late-game fumble from Young which the QB recovered; recalls the 25-22 setback as one of his most disappointing college memories...Notched season-high 19 tackles, one short of his collegiate best, vs. No. 16 Michigan State (Oct. 15) and posted a sack and forced fumble, plus returned a blocked punt 8 yards for a TD, vs. No. 25 Northwestern (Nov. 12)...Closed his collegiate career by helping OSU to 34-20 win over No. 6 Notre Dame in Tostitos Fiesta Bowl (Jan. 2); had 12 tackles (nine solo), 3½ stops for loss and a pair of sacks – both times dropping Brady Quinn, his future brother-in-law...Junior season (2004): Entered as media's preseason Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year...Started all 12 contests, collecting a collegiate-high 141 tackles (62 solo), en route to consensus All-America honors (Sporting News, AP, Walter Camp, Football Writers)...Also totaled eight tackles for loss, one sack, five passes broken up and a pair of INTs, while recovering one fumble and forcing another...In nine games, led the team in tackles, and had at least nine tackles in all 11 regular-season contests...Notched an astonishing 49 tackles over a three-game stretch, with 14 stops (four solo) at Northwestern (Oct. 2), a career-best 20 tackles (eight solo) – becoming the first OSU player since LB Chris Spielman in 1986 to reach that single-game mark – vs. No. 15 Wisconsin (Oct. 9), and 15 stops (eight solo) at Iowa (Oct. 16)...His acrobatic INT at Michigan State (Nov. 6) halted the Spartans' final drive with OSU clinging to a 25-19 lead in eventual 32-19 triumph...Sophomore season (2003): Emerged as defensive pillar for defending national champions, leading team with 106 tackles (52 solo), earning first-team All-Big Ten honors in his initial season as a starter...Started all 13 games, finishing with 13 tackles for loss, four sacks, five passes broken up and two INTs...In 44-38 triumph vs. No. 24 North Carolina State (Sept. 13), returned an INT 55 yards to set up a field goal and posted 12 tackles (six solo), including two for loss; was in on the game-ending tackle at the Wolfpack goal line, sealing the Buckeyes' triple-OT win...Influential in 35-28 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl victory over No. 8 Kansas State (Jan. 1), captured defensive MVP honors with 10 tackles (six solo) and 1½ stops for loss...Freshman season (2002): Saw consistent playing time as key reserve in Ohio State's road to 14-0, national championship season...

Backing up WLB Cie Grant, notched 26 stops (13 solo), 3½ tackles for loss, an assisted sack and two INTs, one of which he returned 34 yards for a TD vs. Kent State (Sept. 7)...In his first career start, a 13-7 win vs. No. 18 Penn State (Oct. 26), his INT ended the Lions' initial possession...Combined on his first career sack vs. Wisconsin (Oct. 19) and picked up one tackle for loss in a thrilling, 14-9 win vs. Michigan (Nov. 23), clinching an invitation to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl national championship vs. Miami, Fla. (Jan. 3).

PERSONAL: Given name Aaron James Hawk...Nicknamed "A.J." by his parents since birth, after legendary Indy car driver A.J. Foyt...Born in Kettering, Ohio...Married the former Laura Quinn, whose brother Brady was a 2007 first-round pick by the Cleveland Browns and currently plays for the Denver Broncos...The couple wed prior to his first NFL training camp in a civil ceremony, then had a more traditional wedding ceremony in March 2007...They welcomed the birth of their daughter, Lennon Noel, in December 2010...Brother, Ryan, played QB for the Birmingham Steeldogs of Arena Football "2" and played in college at Ohio University...High school: Lettered four years at Centerville (Ohio) High School, playing MLB, RB and QB...Also handled punting chores for two seasons, and served as placekicker as a senior...Rated as the nation's No. 30 MLB by Rivals.com, finished with 585 career tackles, including 142 as a freshman starter...Averaged better than 40 yards per punt as a senior...Didn't attract great national attention mostly due to a knee injury that sidelined him much of his final season, limiting him to only 82 tackles...Also earned a pair of letters (as a freshman and sophomore) playing point guard on the Centerville basketball team...Community involvement: Joined the winning child at Valley View Elementary School for "Take a Player to School" in 2009...Was also chosen by local McKinley Elementary student for "Take a Player to School" day and spoke to students about health and fitness in '08...Also visited with local elementary students the past three years

WIDE RECEIVER • WESTERN MICHIGAN

PRO BOWLS: 1
2010Sixth NFL Season
Sixth Packers Season

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 198 • Born: September 21, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 75/68 • Acquired: D2B-06

CAREER: Sixth-year wideout whose accomplishments continue to put him among the elite in franchise history... This past season, earned his first Pro Bowl bid and became just the fifth player in team annals to post three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, joining James Lofton, Sterling Sharpe, Antonio Freeman and teammate Donald Driver... Showed how dominant a player he can be in 2010, compiling 761 receiving yards and eight touchdowns over a seven-game stretch after the passing game lost TE Jermichael Finley to a season-ending knee injury in Week 5... Went on to post 1,082 receiving yards from Week 6 through the end of the regular season, a 98.4-yards-per-game average that ranked No. 1 in the NFL over that span... Also caught 12 TD passes in a season for the second time, becoming just the fourth player in team history to do so, joining Sharpe, Freeman and Billy Howton... Continued to dominate in the postseason, catching 21 passes for 303 yards and two TDs, with the yardage total leading the league and ranking second in franchise history for a single postseason behind Freeman (308 yards, 1997)... The 21 catches are tied with WR Jordy Nelson (2010) for the most in team history in a single postseason... Has pushed his career postseason totals to 36 catches for 518 yards (14.4 avg.) and five TDs in seven games, with three 100-yard outputs... Now ranks in the top 10 in franchise history in every significant receiving category: his 5,222 yards are 10th, 360 yards from moving into eighth; his 322 receptions are tied for ninth with TE Paul Coffman, 29 away from moving into seventh; and his 40 TD catches are tied for eighth with Boyd Dowler, four away from moving into seventh... Eclipsed 5,000 career yards in his 74th game, fourth fastest in team annals to do so behind Howton (67), Sharpe (72) and Lofton (73)... Among the most recognized big-play receivers in the game today, his 27 catches of 40-plus yards over the past four years lead the NFL, while his 56 career receptions of 25-plus yards lead the league since 2006... Of his 40 career TD receptions, 16 have been at least 40 yards in length, and four are at least 80 yards, setting a franchise record and tying for most among active NFL players with Baltimore WR Lee Evans... His career average of 31.5 yards per touchdown catch ranks second in the NFL among active players (min. 20 TD receptions) behind Minnesota WR Bernard Berrian (34.0)... His 3,670 receiving yards over the past three seasons rank fourth in the league over that span behind Andre Johnson, Roddy White and Reggie Wayne, while his 37 touchdown catches over the past four seasons also rank fourth behind Randy Moss, Larry Fitzgerald and Terrell Owens... Has caught a pass in 74 of 75 games played with the Packers (81 of 82 including playoffs) and has 19 career 100-yard games (22 including playoffs).

Over the 2008-09 seasons, teamed with Driver to account for two of the five times the Packers have had a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in the same season... Prior to '09, signed a contract extension with the Packers after posting career highs in catches (80) and receiving yards (1,292) in '08 on his way to being named first alternate for the Pro Bowl... Became only the sixth WR in team history to catch 80 passes in a season... Enjoyed his breakout year in '07,

AT A GLANCE

- One of just five receivers in team history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons and one of only four to catch 12 touchdown passes in two different years.
- Ranks in the top 10 in franchise history in receiving yards (10th, 5,222), receptions (11th, 322) and touchdown catches (11th, 40).
- Leads the NFL with 27 catches of 40-plus yards over the past four seasons, and his career 31.5-yard average per TD reception ranks second among active players (min. 20 TD catches).
- His 3,670 receiving yards over the past three seasons and his 37 TD receptions over the past four years both rank fourth in the league over those spans.
- Has caught a pass in 74 of 75 games played for the Packers (81 of 82 including playoffs).
- Posted career highs in receptions (80) and receiving yards (1,292) in 2008 and nearly matched those totals in 2010 (76-1,265) as he earned his first Pro Bowl bid.
- Caught Brett Favre's 400th, 420th and 421st TD passes in 2006-07 as the future Hall of Fame QB chased, matched and surpassed Dan Marino's career record for TD passes.
- Led the nation in receptions per game (8.91) in his 2005 senior season at Western Michigan.
- Became the first Mid-American Conference player to earn league MVP and Offensive Player of the Year recognition in the same season since Randy Moss of Marshall did so in 1997.
- Attended the same high school (Kalamazoo Central) as N.Y. Yankees superstar Derek Jeter; joins Jeter and former NFL RB T.J. Duckett as three of the top athletes ever to come out of Kalamazoo, Mich.

when he hauled in 12 TD passes in just 13 games, with six of those scores coming from 40-plus yards, including one of the most memorable plays of the year, an 82-yard TD pass from Brett Favre on the first snap of overtime to win a Monday night game in Denver... In addition, posted the go-ahead TD on big plays late in the fourth quarter of games vs. San Diego and at Kansas City, caught a TD pass in five straight games (Weeks 11-15, the club's longest streak of the decade), and had two TD grabs in his first playoff game, vs. Seattle in the NFC Divisional round... Over his first two seasons, caught Favre's 400th, 420th and 421st TD passes as the Hall of Fame-bound QB chased, matched and surpassed Dan Marino's all-time NFL record... Also on the receiving end of Aaron Rodgers' first career TD pass, which came in 2007 at Dallas... A second-round draft pick in 2006 who made a strong first impression as a rookie, earning a starting job... Put up impressive first-year numbers (45 catches, 632 yards, 3 TDs) to earn recognition on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team despite being slowed from the sixth game through the end of the year by an ankle injury... Was the second of two second-round draft choices by Green Bay in the '06 draft (52nd overall), the Packers using a pick obtained in a draft-day trade-down of 16 spots with the Patriots... Was the fourth WR selected, behind Santonio Holmes (25th by Pittsburgh), Chad Jackson (36th by New England) and Sinorice Moss (44th by the N.Y. Giants)... Finished his Western Michigan career ranked first in school history in receptions (238), TD catches (39) and all-purpose yards (5,093) while finishing second in career receiving yards (3,539), just 60 behind record-holder Steve Neal...Became just the 11th player in NCAA Division I history to record three career 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2003-05)...Burst onto the national scene with his record-breaking senior year, when he set school records for receptions (98), receiving yards (1,259) and receiving TDs (14-tie), along with leading the country in most receptions per game (8.91)...Also became the first Mid-American Conference player to garner league MVP and Offensive Player of the Year recognition in the same year since Randy Moss (Marshall, 1997)...Received All-America recognition as well...One of only five Western Michigan players to be drafted in the first two rounds, joining DB Louis Delmas (2009, second round, Lions), DE Jason Babin (2004, first round, Texans), LB John Offerdahl (1986, second round, Dolphins) and DL Bob Rowe (1967, second round, Cardinals)...Also was the first WR drafted in the first 100 seasons (1906-2005) of the WMU program.

2010 SEASON: In earning his first Pro Bowl bid, started all 16 games and posted his third straight 1,000-yard season with 76 catches for 1,265 yards and 12 TDs...Tied for first in the NFC and second in the NFL in TD catches, ranked fourth in the league in yardage, and tallied a career-high five 100-yard games for a third straight year...Went on a torrid stretch over the last 11 games following Finley's season-ending knee injury, hauling in 62 passes for 1,082 yards (17.5 avg.) and nine TDs; his average of 98.4 yards per game over that span led the league...Ranked 18th in the NFL in catches for the year, but his 16.6-yard average per catch ranked second in the league among players with 65 or more grabs...Added 21 receptions for 303 yards (14.4 avg.) and two TDs in the postseason, the yardage total leading the league and ranking No. 2 in franchise history for a single postseason behind Freeman's 308 yards in 1997...Joined teammate Nelson for the team's single-playoff mark with 21 catches as they became the first WR teammate tandem in league history to each register 20 receptions in the same postseason...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Surpassed 4,000 career receiving yards with five catches for 82 yards (16.4 avg.), including a 32-yard TD and a spectacular, leaping one-handed grab for a 16-yard gain on a third down in the second quarter, leading to a Driver TD five plays later...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Posted six catches for 133 yards (22.2 avg.), including a career-long 86-yard TD in the first quarter (also a career-long for Rodgers), topping the 83-yard TD at Pittsburgh in '09 (Dec. 20). Long TD was his fourth career of 80-plus yards, setting a franchise record. Also caught a 20-yard pass on fourth-and-7 on a late fourth-quarter drive that led to the tying TD with 13 seconds left...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his first career three-TD game, catching seven passes for 152 yards (21.7 avg.) and joining Freeman and Javon Walker as the only players in club history to have at least seven catches, 150 receiving yards and three TDs in the same game. Outing marked his fifth straight game with at least six catches, the longest streak of his career and longest by a Green Bay player since Sharpe (12 games, 1993). TD receptions were 11, 46 and 22 yards, the first Packers player with three TD catches in a game since Walker (at Indianapolis, Sept. 26, 2004)...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Notched a third straight 100-yard game for the second time in his career (Weeks 2-4, 2008) with six catches for 122 yards (20.3 avg.) and two TDs, including two big plays – a 57-yard TD and a 48-yard catch-and-run to set up his own 1-yard TD...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Caught seven passes for 142 yards (20.3 avg.) for his fifth 100-yard game of the season and 19th career. Also went over 5,000 career receiving yards in his 74th game, the fourth fastest in team history to do so behind Howton (67), Sharpe (72) and Lofton (73), and teamed with Nelson (124 yards) to give the Packers their first pair of 100-yard receivers in the same game since Jennings and Driver vs. Detroit (Dec. 28, 2008). Followed a 33-yard grab by Driver with a 36-yard fingertip grab, fully outstretched, down to the 1-yard line to set up a TE Donald Lee TD for a 31-17 lead...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Had a team-high 97 yards on four catches (24.3 avg.), highlighted by a 46-yard reception early in the fourth quarter to Chicago's 1-yard line; Rodgers found TE Donald Lee on the next play for a 1-yard TD pass for what proved to be the game-winning points in the playoff berth-clinching win...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Caught eight passes for 101 yards (12.7 avg.), rebounding from a fumble following his first reception of the game to catch five more passes for 58 yards in the first half, all on TD drives...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Had eight catches for 130 yards, with five receptions of at least 20 yards to break his own team postseason record, including grabs of 22 and 26 yards on the first two plays from scrimmage to begin an 84-yard TD drive...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Became the third Packers player and 15th in league history to record multiple TD catches in a Super Bowl by hauling in scoring passes of 21 and 8 yards on his way to four receptions for 64 yards (16.0 avg.) in all. First TD came over the middle on a bullet throw from Rodgers, who threaded the pass between safeties Ryan Clark and Troy Polamalu, with Jennings taking a big hit from Polamalu at the goal line but hanging on. Second TD came on a short corner fade, a play Jennings had been saying on the sideline would be open. Perhaps his biggest catch came in the fourth quarter, on third-and-10 from the Green Bay 25 with the Packers leading just 28-25; barely got a step on CB Ike Taylor as he snatched a laser from Rodgers over the middle for 31 yards, helping set up a FG for the game's final points.

2009: Played in all 16 games for the second straight year with 13 starts and led the team with 1,113 receiving yards on 68 catches (16.4 avg.)...Was tied for fourth on the team with four TD catches and tied career best with five 100-yard games...Added a fifth TD, and sixth 100-yard game, with season-best 130 yards in playoffs...Ranked tied for seventh in the NFL with six receptions of 40-plus yards and was sixth in the NFC in receiving yards...Was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team for making significant contributions with little fanfare...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Started and led team with 106 yards on six receptions (17.7 avg.), beating CB Nathan Vasher on a post route for a 50-yard score with just over a minute remaining (and catching the two-point conversion pass), to give Packers the 21-15 win...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Did not catch a pass for the first time in his career, snapping a streak of 44 consecutive games with a reception...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Posted two receptions for 103 yards (51.5 avg.) – a 50-yarder deep down the right sideline on a third-down play in the second quarter to set up Driver's 21-yard TD on the next play (putting Jennings over 3,000 career yards), and a 53-yarder over CB Ronald Bartell on the first play of the fourth quarter, leading to Rodgers' TD run four plays later...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Started and led the team with a season-high 126 yards on five catches (25.2 avg.), the biggest a 64-yard TD in the second quarter, when he caught a pass over the middle about 10 yards downfield and made a nifty move to elude S Dashon Goldson and CB Tarell Brown at the San Francisco 45. Also caught a 37-yard pass down the left sideline to set up a Mason Crosby FG and went over the 100-yard mark in first half with four receptions for 121 yards, a career high for an opening half...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Led the team with 118 receiving yards on five receptions (23.6 avg.), including the (then) longest catch of his career, an 83-yard TD on third down in the first quarter when he caught pass over the middle near midfield and shook off tackle attempt by S Tyrone Carter. That marked his third career TD catch of 80-plus yards, tying him for first in franchise history with Driver, Howton and Carroll Dale...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and led the team with four catches for 111 yards (27.8 avg.). The 27.8-yard average matched his career best (min. four receptions), tying his six-catch, 167-yard performance at Detroit on Sept. 14, 2008. Beat CB Kelly

AN ESTABLISHED THREAT

Over the past four seasons, Greg Jennings has emerged as one of the NFL's brightest young stars at receiver. His numbers in touchdowns, receiving yards and average yards per catch from 2007-10 all rank in the league's top 10. His lower ranking in total receptions proves he is one of the game's most dangerous "big-play" wideouts.

Jennings down left sideline on deep pass that picked up 40 yards late in the first quarter to put him over 1,000 yards for the season. On the next play, caught hitch from Rodgers, made CBs Marcus Trufant and Josh Wilson miss, and took it 24 yards down to Seattle's 3; RB Ryan Grant scored on the next play. Also caught pass over the middle on third down that he took 38 yards to the Seattle 10 with under two minutes remaining in the first half to help set up a 29-yard Crosby FG...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and led the team with eight receptions for 130 yards (16.3 avg.) and a TD. His four catches of 20-plus yards set a (then) team postseason record. Posted 35-yard catch-and-run in the third quarter, stumbling at the Arizona 20 before getting back up and running down to the Cardinals' 3. Three plays later, made spectacular one-handed grab with his left hand on back-shoulder throw from Rodgers for 6-yard TD. Made leaping 22-yard grab over CB Bryant McFadden in the fourth quarter at Arizona's 25, showing great body control to get both feet in bounds; Packers scored four plays later on TE Spencer Havner TD catch to even the score at 45.

2008: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career, including a career-high 15 starts...Led the team with a career-high 80 receptions for a career-best 1,292 yards (16.2 avg.)...Named first alternate for Pro Bowl...Ranked seventh in the NFC in catches and sixth in the NFL in receiving yardage...Led the NFL with eight receptions of 40-plus yards and tied for second in the league with 21 catches of 20-plus yards...Led the team with nine TD catches and posted a career-high five 100-yard receiving games on the season...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted career-high 167 receiving yards on six receptions (27.8 avg.), including a 60-yard TD catch and a 62-yarder, the first time in his career that he posted two receptions of 60-plus yards in a game...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Posted the third two-TD game of his career and his third straight 100-yard game. Caught six passes for 109 yards (18.2 avg.), including a 25-yard score in the first quarter and a 48-yard TD in the third quarter...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Led team with 84 yards receiving on five catches (16.8 avg.), including a 45-yard TD over CB Marcus Trufant in the third quarter to break a

THE LAMBEAU LEAP

LeRoy Butler's spontaneous gesture after scoring a 1993 touchdown has turned into the team's most prominent modern tradition, emulated by many other NFL players. It also symbolizes the team's unique relationship with its fans. No doubt, the initial Lambeau Leap will go down as one of the most memorable moments of Butler's 12-year career.

Butler's leap took place late in a frigid game vs. the Los Angeles Raiders, Dec. 26, 1993, at Lambeau Field. The touchdown gave the Packers a commanding fourth-quarter lead, en route to a 28-0 shutout that clinched a playoff berth, their first of six consecutive postseason trips.

Chronology of the play:

- QB Vince Evans completes second-down swing pass to RB Randy Jordan, who takes ball to Raiders' 40-yard line.
- Butler forces fumble, recovered by Reggie White at Raiders' 35.
- White returns ball 10 yards before lateralizing to Butler, who covers the remaining 25 yards into the end zone and leaps into arms of fans in south bleachers.

10-10 tie...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Only game of season he did not start as team opened up with just one WR. Caught career-best eight passes for the second straight week and third time on the season, for 91 yards (11.4 avg.). Reached the 1,000-yard plateau in a season for the first time in his career on a 15-yard grab in the third quarter...

Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Had two receptions for 74 yards (37.0 avg.), including a season-long 63-yarder down to the Houston 6 in the third quarter to set up a Grant TD run on the next play...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Caught five passes for 101 yards (20.2 avg.). Teamed up with Driver as each posted 100 yards receiving in the game, the first Packers tandem to do so since Jennings and WR James Jones each topped the 100-yard mark at Denver on Oct. 29, 2007.

2007: Started 13 games and was inactive for three, making 53 catches for 920 yards (17.4 avg.) and a team-high 12 TDs, the most by a Green Bay receiver since Walker's 12 in 2004...Added seven catches for 85 yards (12.1 avg.) and two TDs in two postseason games...Tied for seventh in the NFL and third in the NFC in scoring for non-kickers with 72 points...His 17.4-yard average per catch ranked fourth in the NFL, and his streak of five straight games with a TD catch (Weeks 11-15) was the Packers' longest since Freeman's five-game streak in 1998-99...Injured a hamstring during a Week 1 practice (Sept. 5) and did not play in the team's first two games...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Returned to practice on Sept. 20 and caught four passes for 82 yards (20.5 avg.) against the Chargers, including a 57-yard TD that tied Favre with Marino for the NFL record of 420 TD passes; with the Chargers up 21-17 late in the fourth quarter, caught a short slant and sprinted across the middle of the field for the score in the eventual 31-24 victory...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Caught Favre's NFL record-setting 421st TD pass, a 16-yard score on another slant pass in the first quarter that gave the Packers a 7-0 lead...At Denver (Oct. 29): Caught six passes for a (then) career-high 141 yards (23.5 avg.) and a game-winning 82-yard score in OT. It marked the third 100-yard performance of his career and pushed him past 1,000 career receiving yards. On the opening play of the extra period, caught a Favre pass in stride down the left sideline and took it to the end zone to give Green Bay a 19-13 victory...At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made three grabs for 85 yards (28.3 avg.). Caught a 60-yard TD with 3:05 left in the game, lining up where the TE normally is, and then blowing past LB Donnie Edwards and catching the pass in stride; the score gave Green Bay a 23-22 lead in the eventual 33-22 win...At Dallas (Nov. 29): Caught five passes for a team-high 87 yards (17.4 avg.) and one TD. In the second quarter, caught a short pass from Rodgers and spun away from defender for an 11-yard TD; the play marked Rodgers' first career TD pass...Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Caught two passes for 100 yards (50.0 avg.). In the third quarter, caught a long pass down the right sideline and strolled his way into the end zone for an 80-yard TD...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Caught a team-high six passes for 71 yards (11.8 avg.) and two TDs. In the first quarter, caught a 14-yard pass to start a drive and a 15-yard TD catch to finish the series. Caught his second TD in the second quarter, a 2-yard grab on a fade route that gave Green Bay a 21-14 lead.

2006: Played in 14 games with 11 starts and was inactive twice, a late scratch on both occasions...Ranked third on the team with 45 catches, for 632 receiving yards (14.0 avg.), and finished second with three TD receptions...Also returned five punts for 29 yards (5.8 avg.) and made three stops on special teams...An attention-grabber since his arrival in Green Bay, got better each week during the first half of the season, then saw his numbers decline after a Week 7 ankle injury...Named to the prestigious Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team...Led the NFL in the preseason with 328 receiving yards, on 12 catches, with one TD...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 10): Entered the regular season as a starter but made his NFL debut, vs. the Bears, as a reserve when the Packers opened with two TEs; notched his first reception on the second-to-last play of the game, for 5 yards...Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17): Made his first career start and posted season-high six receptions for 67 yards (11.2 avg.). On the Packers' fifth play from scrimmage, a third-and-7, juiced CB Mike McKenzie at the line of scrimmage and sprinted down the right sideline, catching a 22-yard pass from Favre in stride for the rookie's first NFL score...At Detroit (Sept. 24): Posted his first 100-yard game, catching three passes for 101 yards (33.7 avg.), which marked the most by a Packers rookie since Sharpe had 137 (on seven catches), Sept. 25, 1988, vs. Chicago at Lambeau Field. In the first quarter, caught a short pass and took off for a 75-yard score, stiff-arming CB Dré Bly for the final yards on Favre's 400th career TD pass. With the long TD play, became only the third NFL player since 1990 to make a TD reception of at least 75 yards with in the first three games of his NFL career, joining WR Derrick Alexander (Cleveland, 81 yards, Sept. 18, 1994) and WR Braylon Edwards (Cleveland, 80 yards, Sept. 18, 2005). Earned Diet Pepsi NFL Offensive Rookie of the Week honors for the performance...At Miami (Oct. 22): Made one catch, a tough, 14-yard grab, but suffered an ankle injury on the play and was out the duration of the contest and the next game vs. Arizona (Oct. 29)...At Buffalo (Nov. 5): Returned from injury and caught five passes for 69 yards (13.8 avg.), including a team-long 25-yarder in the second quarter; left in the fourth quarter, however, after aggravating his ankle injury...At Seattle (Nov. 27): Caught six passes, matching his season high, for 50 yards (8.3 avg.)...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Missed game to be with his wife, who gave birth to their first child earlier that day...2006 Draft: Was the second of two second-round draft choices by Green Bay (52nd overall), a pick obtained in a draft-day trade down of 16 spots with the Patriots. The fourth WR selected, behind Pittsburgh's Holmes (25th), New England's Jackson (36th) and the N.Y. Giants' Moss (44th). Was the first Western Michigan athlete to be chosen in the NFL Draft since DE Babin went late in the first round to Houston in 2004; he joined Babin, DL Rowe (1967, second round, Cardinals) and LB Offerdahl (1986, second round, Dolphins) as the school's only players to go in the first two rounds, with DB Delmas (2009, second round, Lions) since added to the group. Also was the first WR drafted in the first 100 seasons (1906-2005) of the WMU program.

COLLEGE: Finished his career at Western Michigan as the school's all-time leader in receptions (238), TD catches (39) and all-purpose yards (5,093), and ranked second in receiving yards (3,539), behind Neal's 3,599. Remains first in TDs but is second in all other categories now. Became just the 11th player in NCAA Division I history to record three career 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2003-05). His 238 career receptions tied him for third on the all-time list of the MAC (is now tied for ninth), his 3,539 receiving yards ranked fourth (now seventh), and his 39 TD receptions remain second in the MAC record books, exceeded only by the 47 of Marshall's Darius Watts. Recorded 18 career 100-yard receiving games. Also returned 41 kickoffs for 921 yards (22.5 avg.) and 49 punts for 541 yards (11.0) with two TDs. Senior season (2005): Led the nation with an average of 8.91 receptions per game, while also ranking second in the country in yards receiving per game (114.45), trailing only Oregon State's Mike

Hass (139.27)...Established WMU single-season marks for receptions with 98 – 21 better than the prior record – and yards with 1,259 (both totals now rank second in school history), and tied his own mark for TD receptions, which still stands (14, also done in 2003)...Additionally, rushed 10 times for 50 yards (5.0 avg.), returned 20 punts for 172 yards (8.6 avg.), ran back two kickoffs for 20 yards and threw a TD pass...Was a third-team All-America pick of The Associated Press, while also garnering second-team recognition from Sports Illustrated...Received the MAC's Vern Smith Leadership Award, given annually to the league's most valuable player, and was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year...Became the first conference player to receive both honors in the same season since Moss in '97...Led the MAC in both receptions and receiving yards, while tying two others for the league lead in TD catches...Posted a career-best seven 100-yard receiving games, and for the second consecutive year had a TD reception in six straight contests...Started all 11 games, having at least six catches in all but one contest (four vs. Kent State on Oct. 29)...Made 11 receptions in 60-57, five-OT loss to Ball State (Oct. 8) – the longest game in MAC history – for a career-high 244 yards (22.2 avg.) and a school-record four TDs (breaking the prior mark of three, done on five other occasions including once by himself in 2003)...Junior season (2004): Led the Broncos in receiving for the

FULLBACK • LOUISIANA STATE

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 263 • Born: September 30, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 20/4 • Acquired: D5a-09

CAREER: Big, bruising fullback will look to continue his development after appearing in 11 games with four starts in his second season...Caught three passes for 26 yards during the regular season and added five tackles on special teams...Also started two postseason contests...As a rookie in 2009, played in nine games as a reserve fullback behind veterans Korey Hall and John Kuhn...Used primarily as a lead blocker on running plays, touching the ball just twice with two receptions for 4 yards...Also played on special teams, but only sparingly...Selected by the Packers with their first of two fifth-round selections (145th overall, 11th running back) out of LSU, where he cleared the way for an 1,100-yard rusher each of his final two seasons, just the second time in school history that the Tigers had different running backs rush for 1,100 yards in consecutive seasons...Was a teammate of Packers quarterback Matt Flynn for three seasons with the Tigers, including their 2007 BCS National Championship year...Originally came to LSU as a highly recruited linebacker before moving to fullback prior to his sophomore season...Became the highest draft selection the Packers used on a fullback since Najeh Davenport was chosen in the fourth round (No. 135 overall) in 2002.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in a career-high 11 games with four starts, also a career best...Caught three passes for 26 yards (8.7 avg.), also career highs...Registered a career-best five tackles on special teams...Appeared in three postseason contests with two starts, posting one reception for 3 yards...Inactive for five games during the regular season, three as a healthy scratch and for two (vs. Detroit, Oct. 3; at Washington, Oct. 10) with an injured knee...Also inactive for Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh (healthy scratch)...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Started the first game of his career and had a career-long catch for 11 yards, moving the chains for a first down on the opening drive...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Started for the second straight week and helped the offense not allow a sack...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Returned to action after missing previous two contests due to a glute injury. Partially blocked a Brandon Fields punt in the second quarter, leading to just a 29-yard kick...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Recorded a career-high two tackles on special teams...At New England (Dec. 19): Had a career-high two receptions for 15 yards (7.5 avg.), including an 11-yard grab early in the fourth quarter that matched his career long. Blocking helped offense record 143 rushing yards on 38 carries (3.8 avg.)...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Opened the game and helped RB James Starks rush for a franchise postseason rookie-record 123 yards on 23 carries (5.3 avg.). Also had a 4-yard reception in the second quarter, hauling in a short flip from QB Aaron Rodgers on a third-and-2 to keep an eventual TD drive alive that would put Green Bay ahead, 14-0...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Started and helped block for a rushing attack that posted 120 yards on 32 carries (3.8 avg.).

2009: Played in nine games, seeing time at FB and on special teams, and caught two passes for 4 yards...Inactive for the first four contests of the season, plus three others over the season's second half, and the playoff game...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Made NFL debut, and helped block for

- Started the first four games of his career in 2010 and appeared in 11 contests.
- Had a career-high three receptions for 26 yards last season, along with five tackles on special teams.
- Blocked for an 1,100-yard rusher each of his final two seasons at LSU, only the second time in school history that the Tigers had a different running back post more than 1,100 yards in consecutive seasons.
- Teammate of Packers quarterback Matt Flynn for three seasons at LSU, including 2007 campaign that was capped off with a BCS National Championship win over Ohio State.
- Friend and teammate since junior high of defensive end Tyson Jackson, who was drafted No. 3 overall by Kansas City in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Ryan Grant's 90 yards on 24 carries (3.8 avg.), including 68 yards in the fourth quarter...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Saw time at FB and helped clear the way for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.), the second-best regular-season performance of Grant's career. Helped the team post a season-high 202 yards on 41 carries (4.9 avg.) and recorded his first career reception, a pass in the right flat from QB Aaron Rodgers in the third quarter that went for no gain...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Juggled pass catch in the flat but hung on for 4-yard gain late in the first quarter...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Helped block for Packers' 170 rushing yards on 32 carries (5.3 avg.), their second-highest output of the season...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Helped clear holes for Grant to rush for 129 yards on 21 carries (6.1 avg.)...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Threw nice block on LB Will Herring to help clear the way for Grant's 56-yard TD run up the middle in the second quarter...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Cleared out LB Gerald Hayes to open a hole on the right side on Grant's 1-yard TD run on the Packers' opening drive...2009 Draft: Selected with the first of two fifth-round selections (145th overall, 11th RB). Highest selection the Packers used on a FB since Davenport was picked in the fourth round (No. 135 overall) in 2002. The last time Green Bay drafted a FB from LSU came in 1962 when Earl Gros was selected in the first round with the 14th overall pick.

COLLEGE: Played in 40 games during his LSU career, starting 15...Carried the ball 16 times for 34 yards (2.1 avg.) and five TDs, along with five catches for 54 yards (10.8 avg.)...Teammate of Flynn for three seasons with the Tigers...Came to LSU as a highly recruited LB before moving to FB prior to his sophomore season...Cleared the way for an 1,100-yard rusher each of his final two seasons, just the second time in school history that the Tigers had different RBs rush for 1,100 yards in consecutive seasons, with Charles Scott's 1,174 in 2008 and Jacob Hester's 1,103 in '07...The Tigers had 12 games with 200-plus rushing yards in 2007-08...Graduated in December 2008 with a degree in general studies...Senior season (2008): Played in all 13 games for the Tigers with 10 starts...Rushed for 28 yards and three TDs on 14 carries (2.0 avg.)...Also caught two passes for 33 yards (16.5 avg.)...Cleared holes for Scott

CAREER: Athletic outside linebacker expected to compete once again for the starting spot opposite Clay Matthews...Had the job through the latter stages of 2009 and the early portion of 2010 until a shoulder injury ended his season after playing in just six games with five starts...Initially injured the shoulder during training camp and began the season playing with a harness, but aggravated the injury in Week 7 vs. Minnesota and was placed on injured reserve...Took over the starting job in '09 during Week 12 of his rookie season after veteran Aaron Kampman sustained a season-ending knee injury the previous game...Started seven games and became only the fifth Packer (since 1982) to record four sacks as a rookie, with all of them coming in the final five games...Was one of only six NFL rookies in 2009 to post four or more sacks, joined in that group by teammate Matthews...With his seven starts in '09, tied Patriots WR Julian Edelman for the most games started by a 2009 seventh-round draft choice...Made impact early in the season on special teams, posting three tackles twice in his first three games...Rookie campaign got off to a slow start after he injured his back just before the start of training camp during conditioning test...Spent time on the physically unable to perform list before returning to practice and playing in final three preseason contests...Over his two seasons, has played in 20 games with 12 starts and posted 68 tackles (43 solo) with four sacks...Brought familiarity with the 3-4 scheme from his time at Colorado, where he was a three-year starter who played in every game during his career...Earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from both The Associated Press and the conference's coaches as a senior...Also named CU's co-defensive player of the year in '08...Showed his pass-rushing ability by leading the team in sacks with seven during his senior campaign...Moved into the starting lineup as a sophomore after playing in every game as a redshirt freshman...Was a teammate of kicker Mason Crosby for two seasons with the Buffaloes.

2010 SEASON: Played in six games with five starts, tallying 37 tackles (20 solo) plus three special teams tackles...Dealt with a right shoulder injury, initially sustained in training camp, by wearing a harness to play, but aggravated the injury in Week 7 vs. Minnesota and was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 27...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): After missing the final three preseason games, started the opener and was on the field for 57 snaps, registering five tackles (four solo)...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Tied for second on the team with nine tackles (four solo). Injured his left knee in the first half but did return...At Chicago (Sept.

AT A GLANCE

- Is coming off a shoulder injury that limited him to just six games in 2010.
- Played in 14 games with seven starts as a rookie, taking over the starting LOLB position in Week 12 vs. Detroit after Aaron Kampman sustained a season-ending knee injury in the previous game.
- Became only the fifth Packer (since 1982) to record four sacks as a rookie in 2009.
- Was one of only six NFL rookies in 2009 to post four or more sacks, and was joined in that group by teammate Clay Matthews.
- Tied Patriots WR Julian Edelman for most games started by a 2009 seventh-round draft choice.
- Earned his degree in economics at Colorado and is just four classes shy of another degree in astrophysics.

27): Inactive with a knee injury...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Did not start and played sparingly on defense after returning from knee injury, recording one assisted tackle...At Washington (Oct. 10): Returned to starting lineup and had six tackles (three solo), along with career-high four QB hits...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Started and took more snaps than any other OLB with Matthews inactive (hamstring) and Brady Poppinga sidelined in the first half with a knee injury. Had two tackles for loss among six stops (three solo), one when he drilled RB Ronnie Brown 5 yards behind the line of scrimmage on a third-down run to force a punt in the second quarter. Also chased WR Brian Hartline down from behind for a 3-yard loss on a third-quarter run...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Started and had his most productive game, with a career-high 10 tackles (six solo) and a key QB hit, wrapping up Brett Favre just as he released the ball to help force an INT by LB A.J. Hawk. Aggravated his right shoulder injury during the game and was placed on injured reserve three days later.

2009: Played in 14 games with seven starts at LOLB, and started team's playoff contest...Posted 31 tackles (23 solo), four sacks, 11 QB hits and eight special teams tackles...Tied for third on the team with the four sacks, and became just the fifth rookie in team history (since 1982) to register four or more sacks...Was also one of only six NFL rookies to record four sacks in '09...Inactive for the first two games of the season as a healthy scratch...Began training camp on physically unable to perform list after COLLEGE: Three-year starter at OLB who played in all 50 games during his career...Posted 252 tackles (157 solo), 9½ sacks, 22 tackles for loss, seven passes defended and two forced fumbles during his four seasons...Was a teammate of Crosby for two seasons with the Buffaloes...Graduated in December 2008 with a degree in economics and is just six credits shy of another degree in astrophysics...Senior season (2008): Started all 12 games, earning honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from both The Associated Press and the conference's coaches...Named CU's co-defensive player of the year, as selected by the team's coaches...Led the team with a career-high 14 tackles for loss and a career-best seven sacks to go along with 78 tackles...Also led the team with 14 QB hurries and forced two fumbles...Named CU's defensive player of the week for his performance vs. Kansas State (Oct. 18) as he posted four tackles, a forced fumble, and the second-most QB hurries in a single game in school history with seven...Finished his career with nine tackles, three for loss, and two sacks at Nebraska (Nov. 28)...Junior season (2007): Started all 13 games and recorded a career-high 82 tackles (52 solo), six for loss and two sacks...Matched

SUPER BOWL XLV: MOST-WATCHED TELEVISION PROGRAM OF ALL TIME

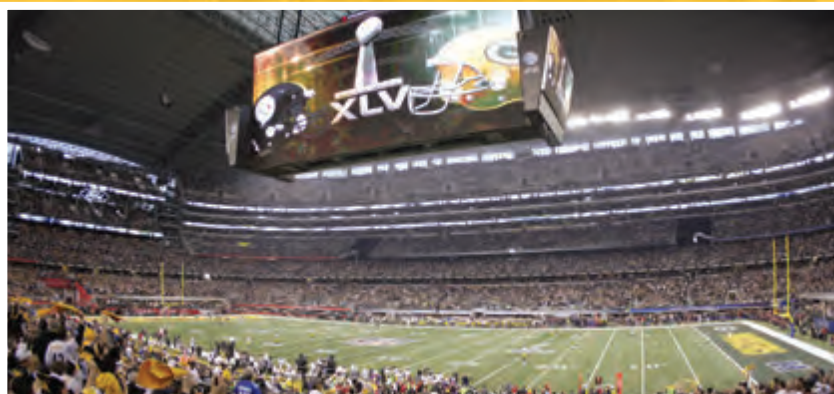

The Packers' 31-25 defeat of the AFC's Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV was historic for several reasons. For the franchise, it marked a fourth Super Bowl title and record 13th world championship.

For the FOX television network, it marked a record outing for viewership. According to The Nielsen Company, Super Bowl XLV drew a total audience of 162.9 viewers nationally, making it the most-watched show in United States television history, and it wasn't even close. That total surpassed the record from the previous year's Indianapolis Colts-New Orleans Saints Super Bowl XLIV by approximately 9.5 million viewers.

The game averaged 111 million viewers and was the fourth consecutive record-setting audience for the Super Bowl. In terms of total audience, Super Bowls account for the 20 most-watched programs in television history.

A look at the top 5 most-watched television programs of all time:

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 208 • Born: March 31, 1984 • NFL Games Played/Started: 58/17 • Acquired: D3a-07

CAREER: Fifth-year receiver posted the most productive season of his career in 2010...Caught a career-high 50 passes for a career-best 679 yards on the season, matching his career high with five TD catches to rank second on the team...Came on down the stretch as he hauled in 31 passes for 395 yards (12.7 avg.) and four TDs over the final eight games...Posted two 100-yard receiving games in 2010, a career high...Tied for the team lead in the post-season with two TD catches...In 2009, bounced back from an injury-plagued '08 season to catch a career-high five touchdown passes, plus another in the playoffs...Two of the touchdowns in '09 were from 74 and 47 yards, his longest receptions since a 79-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football as a rookie...Frustrating second season began when he sprained his right knee in a preseason game at Denver and struggled to stay healthy for any extended period for the remainder of the year...Did show flashes of his abilities down the stretch, catching half of his 20 receptions during the final four games of 2008, including a career-high 132-yard receiving game at Jacksonville in Week 15, the third-highest yardage output total by a Green Bay receiver on the season...As a rookie in 2007, quickly earned No. 3 receiver job and held it the entire season...Posted one of the top pass-catching seasons in Green Bay annals for a rookie, with his 47 catches and 676 yards both ranking fourth in club history...Reception total trailed only Sterling Sharpe (55, 1988), Billy Howton (53, 1952) and RB Gerry Ellis (48, 1980) in team's rookie record book, while yardage total trailed only Howton (1,231), James Lofton (818, 1978) and Sharpe (791)...His totals also ranked third among all 2007 NFL rookies behind Kansas City's Dwayne Bowe (70-995) and Detroit's Calvin Johnson (48-756)...Also caught two TD passes, including the 79-yarder in Denver in Week 8, the longest TD catch by a Green Bay rookie in 53 years (Max McGee, 82 yards, 1954)...For his career, has played in 58 games with 17 starts and has caught 149 passes for 2,069 yards (13.9 avg.) and 13 TDs...Sure-handedness and run-after-the-catch ability drew attention in college at San Jose State, where he played 44 games (21 starts) and caught 126 passes for 1,496 yards (11.2 avg.) and 12 TDs...Finished his career ranked third in receptions and 11th in yards in school history and now ranks sixth and 15th, respectively, in those categories...Posted one of the best receiving seasons in school history as a senior in 2006, catching 70 passes for 893 yards (12.8 avg.) and 10 TDs...Voiced on draft day how excited he was to be selected, having come from very humble beginnings...At times he and his mother moved around to different homeless shelters, sometimes going to bed hungry and getting by however they could...In high school, in order to help his mother get back on her feet, moved in with his paternal grandmother, who forced him to take special education classes during his early high school years to keep up academically...Was a three-sport star at Gunderson H.S. (San Jose) who played QB on the football team, an early sign of the various ways his athletic talents would be utilized on his hometown college football squad.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in all 16 games for the third time in his career with two starts...Registered career-high

AT A GLANCE

- Posted career highs in catches (50) and receiving yards (679) in 2010 while matching his career best with five TD catches.
- Was especially productive in the second half of the season, recording 31 catches for 395 yards and four TDs over the final eight games.
- Held the No. 3 receiver spot his entire rookie season in 2007, catching 47 passes for 676 yards and two TDs, including a 79-yarder on Monday Night Football at Denver, the longest TD catch by a Green Bay rookie since Max McGee's 82-yarder in 1954.
- His first-year totals rank fourth all-time among Green Bay rookies.
- Finished his career at San Jose State ranked third all-time in receptions with 126.
- Moved around to different homeless shelters as a child before moving in with his grandmother in high school.

Buffalo (Sept. 19): Caught three passes for 32 yards (10.7 avg.), including a 30-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter. Broke off a route against CB Terrence McGee near the 10-yard line, hauling in a perfect back-shoulder throw to head into the end zone untouched...At Washington (Oct. 10): Led the team with 65 yards receiving on four grabs (16.3 avg.), including a 35-yard catch down the sideline over S LaRon Landry in the first quarter...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): After being shut out the week before vs. Miami, bounced back with a team-high 107 yards receiving on four catches (26.8 avg.). On the Packers' first TD drive, hauled in a short pass before going 45 yards down the sideline to the Minnesota 1 to set up a RB Brandon Jackson TD run...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Caught a career-high eight passes for 123 yards (15.4 avg.) and a TD, a 10-yard score that gave the Packers a commanding 35-7 lead. Set up Green Bay's second TD, a 2-yard run by Jackson, with consecutive receptions of 22 and 31 yards in the second quarter...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Hauled in three passes for 51 yards (17.0 avg.) and a TD. The scoring grab came with five seconds remaining in the first half as he brought the pass in with his right hand and got both feet in bounds to put the Packers up 17-3 at the break...At New England (Dec. 19): Led the team with five receptions for 95 yards (19.0 avg.). On the first play of the second quarter, ran a perfect stop-and-go route to beat All-Pro CB Devin McCourty down the right sideline for a 66-yard TD from QB Matt Flynn...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted 75 yards receiving and a TD on four grabs (18.8 avg.). With 42 seconds left in the first half, made a leaping 20-yard TD catch in the right corner of the end zone over CB Brent Grimes to give the Packers a 21-14 lead they would never relinquish...Vs. in a four-WR set and finished second on the team with a career postseason-high five catches for 50 yards. His long catch of 21 yards came on the Packers' final drive when he caught a back-shoulder pass from QB Aaron Rodgers along the right sideline against CB William Gay. The grab gave the offense a fresh set of downs, allowing it to burn an additional 2:45 off the clock before a 23-yard FG by Mason Crosby extended the lead to 31-25.

2009: Played in all 16 games with three starts and made 32 catches for 440 yards (13.8 avg.)...Finished tied for second on the team with career-high five TD catches, adding a sixth TD in the postseason...Was fifth on the team in receptions and fourth in yards...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): On opening drive of the game, hauled in pass deep down the right sideline from Rodgers at the Detroit 15, made a nice cutback move on S Marquand Manuel at the 10, and took it in for the 47-yard TD, the third-longest TD reception of his career...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Caught a 5-yard TD pass in the fourth quarter, coming back on the ball to beat CB Eric Wright for the score near the left sideline of the end zone...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): On Packers' second play, beat CB Elbert Mack down the right sideline for a 74-yard TD, the second-longest of his career. Rodgers found him near midfield, and Jones took it the rest of the way for Green Bay's longest opening-drive TD since WR Antonio Freeman's 80-yard TD reception on Nov. 1, 1998, vs. San Francisco. Finished game with season-high four receptions for 103 yards (25.3 avg.), also a season high, the third 100-yard game of his career...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Matched season high with four catches for 22 yards (5.5 avg.), including 5-yard catch near the sideline on a third-and-3 at the end of the first half to help set up a Crosby 27-yard FG...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Matched season high with four receptions for 35 yards (8.8 avg.). Late in third quarter, caught pass from Rodgers over the middle at the Detroit 10 before taking it the rest of the way for the 21-yard score...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted his third straight four-catch game, gaining 44 yards, including 15 yards on short pass over the middle to convert a third-and-11 on Green Bay's opening drive; the catch helped set up Crosby's 28-yard FG...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Caught two passes for 36 yards (18.0 avg.), including 24-yard TD that put Packers up 36-30 with just over two minutes remaining. On third-and-10, made a move inside to fake out CB Joe Burnett, broke outside and caught pass from Rodgers near the 10 before taking it in for the score...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted 50 receiving yards and a

TD on three catches (16.7 avg.). On a fourth-and-5 early in the fourth quarter, made catch near the right sideline at Arizona's 25, spun away from CB Bryant McFadden, and took it the rest of the way for a 30-yard TD.

2008: Played in 10 games with two starts, and ranked sixth on the team with 20 receptions for 274 yards (13.7 avg.) and a TD...One of only three players, along with Greg Jennings and Donald Driver, to post a 100-yard receiving game on the season...Inactive for six games, five of them due to sprained right knee originally suffered in preseason game at Denver (Aug. 22)...Also was in and out of three other contests after banging knee during play...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Made season debut as he started and finished with four receptions for 29 yards (7.3 avg.). Caught a 9-yard TD pass from Rodgers in the first quarter to put the Packers up 7-0...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Caught four passes for a career-high 132 yards (33.0 avg.), the third-highest yardage output by a Packers receiver on the season, including receptions of 46, 40 and 34 yards. On the 40-yard grab in the second quarter, made a juggling catch on the sideline and absorbed a big hit from S Reggie Nelson at the Jacksonville 10.

2007: Played in all 16 games with nine starts, and appeared in both playoff contests...Started the first two games of the season as the No. 2 WR, then played as No. 3 for the next 12 games, after Jennings (hamstring) returned to the lineup; started other games in multiple-WR sets, plus the regular-season finale with both Driver and Jennings inactive...Finished fourth on the team with 47 catches for 676 yards – both totals good for third in the league among rookies, behind Kansas City's Bowe (70-995) and Detroit's Johnson (48-756) – and two TDs...Reception and yardage totals also rank fourth in club history for a rookie...Finished the preseason tied for first in the NFL with 21 receptions and his 233 receiving yards ranked third, with two TDs...Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): In his first NFL game, started as the No. 2 WR and caught four passes for 29 yards (7.3 avg.), including two 8-yard grabs on back-to-back plays...At N.Y. Giants (Sept. 16): Started and caught four passes for 75 yards (18.8 avg.). In the second quarter, beat CB Corey Webster down the left sideline and caught a pass for a game-long 46 yards...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Caught a (then) career-high six passes for 79 yards (13.2 avg.), serving as the No. 3 WR with the return of Jennings. Posted receptions of 22 and 26 yards in the first quarter...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): With the

MODERN INSTANT REPLAY "CHALLENGE" SYSTEM, BY THE NUMBERS

After being first introduced in 1999 as a Referee Replay Review to aid officiating, the instant replay system was extended on a one-year basis in 2000 before being approved for the next three years through 2003. It was later extended on a five-year basis in March 2004, and then finally installed permanently in March 2007.

Plays can either be reviewed by an on-site NFL replay assistant or on behalf of a coaches' challenge. The following is a look at the results of instant replay over the past 12 regular seasons:

FULLBACK • SHIPPENSBURG

Sixth NFL Season
Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 250 • Born: September 9, 1982 • NFL Games Played/Started: 71/12 • Acquired: W-07 (Pit)

CAREER: A sure-handed fullback who had developed into a consistent performer in his first three seasons in Green Bay took on a more significant role on offense in 2010...With starting RB Ryan Grant lost for the season due to an ankle injury sustained in Week 1, he saw increased playing time at running back and posted or matched career highs in every offensive category...Rushed for 281 yards on 84 carries (3.3 avg.) and four TDs, along with 15 receptions for 97 yards (6.5 avg.) and two scores...His career-high six total TDs ranked second on the team to only WR Greg Jennings (12)...Emerging as one of Green Bay's primary threats out of the backfield, particularly in short-yardage situations as he converted 10-of-12 opportunities (83.3 percent) on third-and-1 or fourth-and-1...The only player on the team to have a rushing TD and a receiving score each of the past three seasons, he is the first Packer to accomplish that feat since RB Ahman Green (2002-04)...Had developed into a legitimate goal-line threat on offense the previous two seasons, having scored six touchdowns (two rushing, four receiving) on 27 total touches in 2008-09...Helped block for Grant's back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons during that time, as Grant became only the third back in team history to accomplish the feat...Has played in 62 of 64 games with the Packers (69 of 71 including playoffs), and had a 54-game playing streak (45 in Green Bay) snapped when he was inactive in 2009 at Pittsburgh in Week 15...Also has been a key contributor on special teams, posting 41 coverage tackles for the Packers the past four seasons, with 47 in his career...Was claimed off waivers from Pittsburgh in September 2007...Played in nine games for the Steelers in 2006...Had been on Pittsburgh's practice squad at the end of the 2005 season and the first half of 2006 prior to that...Originally signed by the Steelers as a non-drafted free agent out of Shippensburg, where he set 27 school records and four Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) records...School records included 4,685 yards rushing on 910 carries (5.1 avg.), 26 games with at least 100 yards rushing, 53 touchdowns and 5,300 all-purpose yards.

2010 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the third time in his four seasons in Green Bay, starting two contests...With Grant lost for the season due to a Week 1 ankle injury, saw the most significant action of his career carrying the ball...Responded by setting or matching his career high in every major offensive category, posting 281 yards and four TDs on 84 attempts (3.3 avg.), along with 15 catches for 97 yards (6.4 avg.) and two TDs...His 281 rushing yards ranked No. 3 on the team...With a career-high six total TDs, ranked No. 2 on the team behind only Jennings (12)...Converted 10-of-12 opportunities on third-and-1 or fourth-and-1, an 83.3 percentage that ranked No. 3 in the NFL among players with 10 attempts...Appeared in all four postseason games with one start, catching six passes for 53 yards (8.8 avg.) and a TD with 8 rushing yards and a score on six carries...Added seven special teams tackles in the regular season and four more in the playoffs...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Led the team with 36 yards on nine carries (4.0 avg.)...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Started at RB for the first time in his career. Rushed for 31 yards on six carries (5.2 avg.) and caught two passes for 20 yards (10.0 avg.). Had

- Last name is pronounced KOON.
- Has played in 62 of 64 games (69 of 71 including playoffs) during his four seasons in Green Bay.
- Set or matched his career high in every offensive category in 2010.
- Only player on the team to have a rushing and receiving touchdown each of the past three seasons, and is the first Packer to achieve that feat since RB Ahman Green (2002-04).
- Converted 10-of-12 opportunities on third-and-1 or fourth-and-1 in 2010, an 83.3 percentage that ranked No. 3 in the NFL among players with 10 attempts.
- Finished his career at Shippensburg with 27 school records, including career rushing yards (4,685), carries (910), touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,300) and 100-yard rushing games (26).
- In 2003, was the NCAA Division II co-leader in scoring with 22 total touchdowns (21 rushing, 1 receiving), a single-season school record.

a career-long 18-yard run in the fourth quarter to set up a TD run by QB Aaron Rodgers...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Picked up 39 yards on nine carries (4.3 avg.), with 34 of those yards coming on seven carries on the final possession of the contest as the Packers ran out the final 6:32 in the win...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Turned in a career day with 50 yards on 13 carries (3.8 avg.), including a 17-yard pickup. Was particularly effective in the first half when he gained 33 yards on seven attempts (4.7 avg.)...At New England (Dec. 19): In what Head Coach Mike McCarthy called the finest game of his career, caught three passes for 27 yards (9.0 avg.) and a TD and rushed for 21 yards on six carries (3.5 avg.). Converted a third-and-10 late in the second quarter, hurdling over S Patrick Chung after a short reception for a 12-yard gain down to the New England 3. Two plays later, QB Matt Flynn found WR Greg Jennings for a 1-yard TD. In the third quarter, caught a swing pass from Flynn and made a cut inside to elude CB Kyle Arrington and LB Rob Ninkovich to score a 6-yard TD...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Started at FB and posted a career-high three TDs, two rushing and one receiving. Was awarded two game balls for the performance, one for offense and another for his play on special teams, the first time McCarthy remembered doing so in his tenure. Had 22 yards on six carries (3.7 avg.) with two scores and a pair of receptions for 7 yards and another TD. Scored or gained a first down on six of his eight touches. Added a career-high four tackles on special teams...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Caught three passes for 33 yards (11.0 avg.), with two of the receptions helping set up TDs. The first, a 9-yard gain to the Philadelphia 7 on a swing pass in the first quarter, set up a TD catch by TE Tom Crabtree on the next play. Had a 16-yard reception in the third quarter, taking a screen to the Philadelphia 9 on a drive that was eventually capped off with a 16-yard TD catch by RB Brandon Jackson...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started at FB, scoring on a 1-yard run in the first quarter and on a 7-yard reception in the third quarter. Became the first Packer to post a rushing TD and a receiving TD in a playoff game since WR James Lofton did so at Dallas on Jan. 16, 1983...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Saw action on offense and special teams, but did not record any statistics. Served as the offense's lone back in protection on a number of shotgun plays to help Rodgers throw for 304 yards and three TDs.

2009: Played in 14 games with six starts...Scored TDs on 20 percent (3-of-15) of his offensive touches, rushed eight times for 18 yards (2.3 avg.) and caught seven passes for 47 yards (6.7 avg.)...Also played in playoff contest and added another rushing TD...Helped block for Grant's second straight 1,200-yard season...One of only two players (Jackson) on the team to post a rushing and receiving TD on the season...Also registered 11 tackles on special teams...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Started, rushed for a TD and caught a TD pass, becoming the first Packers FB to do both in a game since William Henderson (Nov. 29, 1998, vs. Philadelphia). Scored from 1 yard out on a dive play in the second quarter and caught a play-action pass in the right flat from Rodgers in the fourth quarter and took it in for the 10-yard score...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Caught a 1-yard TD pass from Rodgers in the left flat, his second TD reception of the season, matching his career high. Also helped block for Grant's 90 yards on 24 carries and added two tackles on special teams...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Helped clear the way for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5) avg., the second-best regular-season performance of Grant's career, and helped team post a season-high 202 yards on 41 carries (4.9 avg.)...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Posted career-best 22 yards receiving on two receptions, including a season-long 14-yard grab over the middle in the fourth quarter, his longest reception as a Packer. Also had two carries for 7 yards and a tackle on special teams...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Saw time on special teams, playing with club cast on broken hand sustained previous week vs. Dallas...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Started and helped clear the way for Grant's 137 rushing yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.). Made key block on LB Hunter Hillenmeyer on Grant's 62-yard TD run off left tackle on the offense's first play...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Inactive for the first time in his career, ending streak of 54 straight games played (45 in Green Bay)...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Scored on a 1-yard plunge early in the fourth quarter to even the game at 38. Threw key block on LB Karlos Dansby on a fourth-and-1 play in the third quarter, allowing Green to pick up 4 yards off right tackle.

2008: Played in every game for the second straight season with three starts...Caught four passes for 21 yards and two TDs, along with 10 rushing yards and a TD on eight carries...Tied for fifth on the team with a career-high 12 special teams tackles...Converted 4-of-5 rushing attempts on third-and-1 for the season...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started his first game of the season and helped team rush for 104 yards on 23 carries, serving as primary FB for third straight game...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Scored first TD of his career on a 1-yard reception from Rodgers in the fourth quarter to put Packers up 24-10...At New Orleans (Nov. 24): Posted first career rushing TD on 1-yard plunge in the first quarter to put Green Bay up 7-0...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Led team with a career-high three special teams tackles, and helped clear the way for team's 145 rushing yards on 29 carries (5.0 avg.)...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Started his second straight game in place of an injured Hall and had season-long 13-yard reception on first-quarter catch...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Caught a 5-yard TD pass midway through the fourth quarter to put the Packers up 24-14. Blocked for Grant and RB DeShawn Wynn as they each rushed for 106 yards to become only the second Packers tandem to rush for 100-plus yards in a game since 1985.

2007: Claimed off waivers Sept. 2 from Pittsburgh, and played in all 16 games, getting all the reps at FB during the last two games of the regular season with Hall out due to a hip injury...Also played in both playoff contests...Gained more playing time from scrimmage in the second half of the season, particularly in run formations...Recorded 11 tackles on special teams...Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Played on special teams in debut with the Packers, coming

THE FLEDGLING LEGEND RECEIVES ITS NAME

RELEASE TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1965 PM.....GREEN BAY, WIS.

Green Bay City Stadium will officially become Lambeau Field Saturday night, September 11 before the St. Louis Cardinals game.

Dedication ceremonies will begin at 7:45 with Green Bay Mayor Donald Tilleman making the formal dedication. Don Lambeau, son of the Packer founder, will acknowledge the naming of the stadium in honor of his father.

Don Hutson, player, coach and long time friend of Lambeau, will give the dedication speech.

There will also be remarks by Dominic Olejniczak, president of the Packers and by Clarence Nier, Stadium Commission president.

Earl L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder of the Packers and a pioneer of the National Football League, was head coach, general manager and vice president of the team for 33 years. He died June 1 of this year.

Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 318 • Born: September 20, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 28/3 • Acquired: D4-09

CAREER: Versatile third-year lineman expected to compete for time at tackle or guard in 2011...Provided depth at tackle and guard in 2010 while also appearing on defense as an emergency lineman...Missed all of OTAs and minicamp in 2010 due to offseason wrist surgery...Played three positions at different times during an impressive rookie season, working all of training camp at left guard and then starting games at both tackle spots during the year – on the left side when Clifton was injured and on the right side in a temporary rotation with Mark Tauscher...Became the first Packers rookie to start consecutive games at left tackle since Clifton in 2000...Possesses a prototypical offensive lineman's frame and impressed the coaching staff with his readiness to play at multiple positions, as well as special teams, as a rookie...Came to Green Bay as a fourth-round draft choice, No. 109 overall, from Eastern Michigan...Started his final two seasons in college at left tackle, after converting from defensive lineman and originally starting at right tackle upon moving to the offensive side...Showed his ability to play guard at the Texas vs. The Nation all-star contest following his final college season...Any doubts about his level of competition, coming from the Mid-American Conference, were eased by going head-to-head each of his final three years with Northern Illinois DE Larry English, the first-round draft pick of the San Diego Chargers in '09 (No. 16 overall)...Became Green Bay's third draft pick from Eastern Michigan and first since LB Dave Pureifory in 1972 (D6b, 142).

2010 SEASON: Played in the final 12 regular-season games and all four postseason contests, primarily on special teams...Also saw limited action as an emergency defensive lineman...Was inactive (healthy scratch) for the first four games of the season...Entered training camp having missed all of OTAs and minicamp following wrist surgery in April...At Washington (Oct. 10): Made his season debut, appearing on special teams...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Saw action on defense in short-yardage situations and also played on special teams...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Saw limited time on defense for the second straight week with the defensive line depleted by injuries, recording an assisted tackle in four snaps...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Again called upon for limited reps on defense because of injuries...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Played the final eight minutes of the game at LT in place of Clifton with the Packers holding a 45-7 lead...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Took over at LG for the second half for Jason Spitz, who had entered the game in the first quarter following an injury to starter Daryn Colledge (knee)...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Served as an extra lineman in goal-line situations and played on special teams...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Took over at LT for three series in the first half for starter Clifton, who left the game with a neck stinger before returning to action.

2009: Played in all 16 games with three starts, opening games at both tackle positions, and also played on special teams and in playoff contest...Saw time primarily at LG during preseason...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made his debut from scrimmage when he came in at LT for

- Served as reserve at tackle and guard in his second season while also seeing limited action on defense as an emergency lineman in short-yardage situations.
- Played three different positions up front during his rookie campaign, starting games at both tackle spots and becoming the first Packers rookie to start consecutive games at left tackle since Chad Clifton in 2000.
- Began his college career as a defensive lineman, but converted to the offensive line as a sophomore and started 36 straight games (10 at RT, 26 at LT) over his final three years.
- Went head-to-head three straight years with Northern Illinois DE Larry English, the first-round draft pick (No. 16 overall) of the San Diego Chargers in 2009.
- Was just the third draft pick in franchise history from Eastern Michigan, and the first in 37 years (LB Dave Pureifory, 1972).

Colledge for one play in the third quarter when Colledge's shoe came off and he had to leave the game...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Came in at LT for most of the fourth quarter after Colledge, playing there for an injured Clifton (ankle), left with a knee injury...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Filled in at LT for Clifton for the entire fourth quarter after Clifton reinjured his ankle late in the third...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Started first game of NFL career, opening at LT in place of Clifton (ankle). Part of a line that did not allow a sack of QB Aaron Rodgers and blocked for RB Ryan Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Team's 202 rushing yards were also a season best...Vs. Minnesota (11/1): Started second straight game at LT, becoming the first Packers rookie to do so since Clifton did it as a rookie in 2000...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Started his third game of the season, and his first as a pro at RT, helping block for Grant's 79 yards on 19 carries (4.2 avg.)...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Rotated in at RT with Tauscher, playing three series...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Rotated in at RT for Tauscher for one series in the first half, then took over at LT on second drive of the second half for Clifton (hamstring). Played the remainder of the game there and helped allow just one sack of Rodgers on his way to 348 yards passing and three TDs...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Saw time on special teams after missing two days of practice due to concussion sustained in Dec. 3 practice...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Came in for Clifton (rest) at LT on final play of third quarter and played the entire fourth quarter there...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Played entire fourth quarter at LT for Clifton (rest) for the second straight week...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Played LT for most of the fourth quarter and overtime, coming in for Clifton (ankle) with just under 11 minutes remaining in regulation...2009 Draft: Taken by the Packers in the fourth round, No. 109 overall, the team's first pick after the first round. Became Green Bay's third draft pick from Eastern Michigan and first since Pureifory in 1972 (D6b, 142).

COLLEGE: Originally came to Eastern Michigan as a defensive lineman and played one season there before successfully converting to the offensive side and starting

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- 2009 Selected by Green Bay Packers in fourth round (109th overall) in '09 Draft, April 26...Signed first contract, July 7.

WHERE TITLETOWN MEETS TINSELTOWN

The 2008 release of Leatherheads, starring George Clooney and Renee Zellweger, was inspired by the tales of Johnny "Blood" McNally, who spent seven seasons in Green Bay. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Johnny "Blood" led the Packers to four championships (1929, '30, '31 and '36).

- Actor Matthew McConaughey's father was drafted by the Packers. The team selected James (Jim) McConaughey, an end, out of the University of Houston in the 27th round (319th overall) of the '53 draft. The elder McConaughey didn't see action in a league game.
- Alan Autry, who played Captain Bubba Skinner in the hit series In the Heat of the Night, also was drafted by Green Bay. GM/Head Coach Bart Starr drafted him in the 12th round (296th overall) of the 1975 draft. During training camp, Autry met director Robert Altman, who would give him a small part in the 1978 film Remember My Name. Autry's legal name was Carlos Brown (including his 1975-76 Packers tenure) until 1981, when he changed it while filming Southern Comfort, after meeting his biological father. Autry now owns a production company, and produced and starred in his first full-length film, The Legend of Jake Kincaid.
- The Packers were the subject of a 1937 MGM/UA movie, Pigskin Champions (left, Don Hutson and Arnie Herber collect autographs from one of their "co-stars," Pete Smith, while in Hollywood).

• Brett Favre made a cameo in the comedy There's Something About Mary (Cameron Diaz, Ben Stiller), as Mary's mysterious boyfriend.

• Gary Knaflc, Lambeau Field's former P.A. announcer who also caught the game-winning touchdown in the stadium's inaugural game, was an actor as well. Using the screen name Gary Kincaid, he had roles in Palm Springs Weekend (1963) among other films.

• Ray Nitschke had roles in The Longest Yard (1974), starring Burt Reynolds, and Head (1968).

• Offensive lineman Matt Willig appeared in all 16 games for the Packers during the 1998 season. Since his playing career ended in 2005, Willig has become a successful actor, having appeared in a number of popular television shows including Dexter, Chuck and Cold Case, and has also landed a handful of roles in various films.

• Current Packers wide receiver Greg Jennings showed his versatility when he made a guest appearance on the CBS television series Criminal Minds in May 2010. Jennings' brief speaking role saw him play a Behavioral Analysis Unit technician.

MISC.

PACKERS IN THE COLLEGE ALL-STAR GAME, VS. NFL ALL-STARS

- From 1934-73 and 1975-76, the NFL participated in the annual Chicago College All-Star Game. The charitable contest, played during the preseason in either July or August, pitted the defending NFL champion against a group of standout collegiate players. An NFL players' strike cancelled the '74 matchup.
- Soldier Field, even when the Bears were playing at Wrigley Field, served as the event's stage for all but two years. Dwyane Stadium in Evanston, Ill., hosted the game in 1943 and '44.

- Nearly every prominent Packers player, whether as a collegian, as a pro, or both, played in the game. The Packers actually lost their first contest, in 1937, when Slingin' Sammy Baugh and the collegians shut out Green Bay, 6-0. Legend suggests the Packers chalked up the embarrassing loss to shiny new uniforms, ordered by Curly Lambeau, which didn't "breathe" in the August humidity.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200 • Born: March 16, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 16/0 • Acquired: FA-10

CAREER: Earned roster spot after winning training-camp battle with Chris Bryan and went on to have one of the most productive seasons by a Packers punter in recent memory...Posted a 37.6-yard net average in 2010, which matched the best mark by a Green Bay punter since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007)...Placed 25 punts inside the 20 on the season, the most by a Packer since Josh Bidwell registered 26 in 2002...Was especially productive over the final nine games of the regular season, ranking No. 3 in the NFL in net average (39.9), No. 9 in gross average (44.2), and tied for No. 4 in punts inside the 20 (20) over that span...Despite having spent his collegiate career in the milder conditions of the Southeastern Conference, was effective in cold weather at Lambeau Field during the team's stretch run...Recorded a 36.8-yard net average and a 42.3 gross average in three December/January games at Lambeau...Carried his production into the playoffs as he tied the franchise playoff record (since 1976) with five punts inside the 20 at Chicago in the NFC Championship Game, matching the previous mark set by Craig Hentrich at San Francisco (Jan. 11, 1998)...Also served as holder for field goals and placements in 2010...Signed with the Packers on Jan. 14, 2010...Battled the Australian Bryan for the punting position during training camp, earning the job with a strong showing in the Family Night scrimmage as well as his 41.5-yard gross average and 38.0-yard net on four punts during the preseason...Entered the NFL as a non-drafted free agent with the Colts in 2009...Went through the offseason program and the early portion of training camp before being released on Aug. 11...A four-year letterman at Kentucky, improved his punting average in each season...Finished his collegiate career with the third-highest gross punting average in school history (40.2)...Was a first-team All-SEC selection by both the media and the league's coaches as a senior in 2008 when he posted a career-high 45.2-yard gross average...Named UK's Special Teams Player of the Year as a junior and senior...Graduated as an all-state football player, all-state soccer player, all-region baseball player and four-year letterman in basketball at Murray (Ky.) High School.

2010 SEASON: Handled all punting duties during the regular season, registering a 43.9-yard gross average and a 37.6-yard net average...His net average tied the best mark by a Packers punter (since 1976), matching Ryan's net average in 2007...Also served as the holder for all placements

AT A GLANCE

- Posted a 37.6-yard net average in 2010, which matched the best mark by a Packers punter since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007).
- Placed 25 punts inside the 20-yard line on the season, the most by a Green Bay punter since Josh Bidwell recorded 26 in 2002.
- In the NFC Championship Game at Chicago, tied the franchise playoff record (since 1976) with five punts inside the 20, matching Craig Hentrich's mark set on Jan. 11, 1998, at San Francisco.
- A first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection by both the media and the league's coaches as a senior at Kentucky after posting a career-high 45.2-yard average on his 53 punts, the second-highest single-season mark in school history.
- Was an all-state football player, all-state soccer player, all-region baseball player and four-year letterman in basketball at Murray (Ky.) High School.

and field goals...Dropped 25 punts inside the 20 on the season, the most by a Green Bay punter since Hentrich's 26 in 2002...After getting off to a slow start, was one of the most effective punters in the league over the second half of the season...Ranked No. 3 in the NFL in net average (39.9), No. 9 in gross average (44.2), and tied for No. 4 in punts inside the 20 (20) over the final nine contests...Posted a 40.2-yard gross average and a 34.7-yard net average on 18 punts in the postseason...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Posted a 41.5-yard average with an average net of 38.0 on four punts in his NFL debut. Helped limit WR DeSean Jackson to just 14 yards on a pair of returns...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Punted twice for a 45.0-yard average, placing one inside the 20. Had a long of 51 and a net average of 38.5...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Dropped five punts inside the 20, tying David Beverly (vs. Chicago, Oct. 28, 1978) for the single-game franchise record (since 1976) on his way to earning NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Became just the second punter in franchise history to receive that recognition, joining Hentrich (Week 11, 1994, vs. N.Y. Jets). Despite punting eight times on the afternoon, the Jets did not record any punt-return yardage, the first time the Packers had allowed no return yards since vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 16, 2003). The Jets' best starting field position following a punt was their own 23, which proved critical in the Packers' 9-0 victory...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Posted

WHAT'S NEW AT PACKERSTRAININGCAMP.COM

The Packers in 2005 launched a new website, www.packerstrainingcamp.com, an online location designed to assist Packers fans as they make plans to visit their favorite team's training sessions each summer.

A vacation-planning resource, the site features a practice schedule as well as information on other Lambeau Field attractions, including the Packers Experience, the Packers Hall of Fame, Stadium Tours, the Packers Pro Shop and dining options.

A key feature of the site is the daily practice schedule, which includes any up-to-the-minute changes that may occur. Other links include information on directions, parking and player interaction sessions.

Another important link takes viewers to the Greater Green Bay Convention & Visitor's Bureau website, which features important information on accommodations, as well as other Green Bay summer activities, places of interest, dining options and airport and rental car information.

a 49.5-yard gross average and a 47.5-yard net average on two punts. Dropped both kicks inside the 20... At Detroit (Dec. 12): Posted career highs (min. four attempts) with a 50.5-yard gross avg. and a net avg. of 43.4. Placed three punts inside the 20 and booted a career-long 62-yarder in the first quarter. Became the first punter in franchise history to post a 50-yard average in a game with eight or more attempts. Posted four 50-yard punts on the afternoon, becoming the first to do so since Ryan recorded the same number at Minnesota (Nov. 12, 2006)... Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): With a playoff berth on the line, had a strong showing in challenging conditions against the league's best return man in Devin Hester. Dropped four of his eight punts inside the 20 and recorded a 36.6-yard net avg. Limited Hester to just two returns, with neither going beyond the Chicago 30. Repeatedly pinned the Bears deep in their own territory, highlighted by two kicks in the fourth quarter that were downed at the Chicago 3 and 2, respectively. Combined with his effort at the N.Y. Jets in Week 8, became the first punter in franchise history to post four-plus punts inside the 20 in two games in a season... At Atlanta (Jan. 15): Was limited to holding on PATs and FGs. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Packers did not punt during a postseason contest... At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): A key contributor in the victory, punting eight times with a gross avg. of 41.8 and a net avg. of 34.5. Limited Hester to a 5.3-yard return avg. and a long return of 11 yards on three returns. His 65-yard punt in the third quarter was a franchise postseason record. Biggest punt came with 3:07 remaining and the Packers holding a 21-14 lead. From the Green Bay 24, drilled a 58-yard punt to the Chicago 18 that Hester returned 11 yards before being brought down by CB Brandon Underwood at the Bears' 29 for a 47-yard net... Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Punted six times, registering a 40.5-yard gross avg. and a 36.3-yard net avg. Helped limit the Steelers to just 5 total punt return yards.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman who appeared in 50 games during his career at Kentucky, improving his punting average in each season and also handling the team's kickoff duties and serving as the holder on placements... Finished his career with the third-highest gross punting average in school history (40.2) after raising his average almost 10 yards from his freshman to his senior year... Earned a B.S. in economics and was named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA following both the 2007 and 2008 seasons... Senior season (2008): A first-team All-SEC selection by both the media and the league's coaches after playing in all 13 games and posting a career-high 45.2-yard average on his 53 punts, the second-highest single-season mark in school history... Named UK's Special Teams Player of the Year... Dropped 13 of his punts inside the 20-yard line and placed second in the SEC with 23 touchbacks as the team's primary kickoff man... Was also the recipient of the program's Jerry Claiborne Award, given annually to the player who best exemplifies academic success and displays a team-oriented attitude throughout the season... Junior season (2007): Earned the first of his two consecutive UK Special Teams Player of the Year awards, averaging 39.8 yards on his 50 punts, landing a career-best 16 of them inside the 20, and also leading the SEC with 23 touchbacks on kickoffs... Sophomore season (2006): Averaged 39.2 yards on 50 punts, downing 13 of them inside the 20, and enjoyed his first full season of kickoff responsibilities, seeing 12 of them downed for touchbacks... Also engineered two successful fake punts his sophomore year that ultimately led to TD drives for the Wildcats, the first coming on a 17-yard rush vs. South Carolina (Oct. 7) and the other on a 10-yard pass vs. Clemson in the Music City Bowl (Dec. 29)... Freshman season (2005): Played in 11 games as a true freshman and punted a career-high 54 times for a 36.4-yard average.

CAREER: Athletic outside linebacker has quickly emerged as one of the premier players at his position in the NFL...Became the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-72) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first two seasons in the NFL...Named first team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010, the first Green Bay linebacker to earn that honor since Tim Harris in 1989...Finished second to Pittsburgh's Troy Polamalu in the AP's Defensive Player of the Year voting...Was named NFL Defensive MVP by Pro Football Weekly, and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year recognition from Sporting News and NFC Defensive Player of the Year honors the Committee of 101...Finished fourth in the NFL with 13½ sacks in 2010, adding a career-high 83 tackles (55 solo)...Helped the Packers rank tied for No. 2 in the NFL with 47 sacks as a team, Green Bay's highest finish in the category since sacks began to be recorded as a team stat in 1963...Moved around in defensive coordinator Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme, but lined up primarily at LOLB...Became the first Packer (since 1982) to record a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the league...Is tied for third in the NFL with 23½ sacks since '09...His 17 sacks in his first 20 games were the most by an NFL player to start a career, topping the previous mark of 16½ set by San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (1986, 1988) and the N.Y. Jets' John Abraham (2000-01)...Is the only NFL player since sacks became official in 1982 to register double-digit sack totals and a defensive TD in each of his first two seasons in the league...Became first Packer to record back-to-back three-sack games when he did so in Weeks 1-2 in 2010...Added a franchise single-postseason record 3½ sacks in the 2010 playoffs, and his career playoff total of 4½ sacks already ranks No. 2 in team history behind Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (eight)...Became first Packer to record a sack in each of his first three playoff contests...Burst onto the scene in 2009 with a franchise rookie-record 10 sacks on his way to being named to the Pro Bowl...Became first Packers rookie since WR James Lofton in 1978 to be selected to the all-star game...Selected to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team, earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors twice (Weeks 6 and 10), and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week once (Week 13)...Finished third in the AP's NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting...Posted three two-sack games on the season, a franchise rookie record...Rookie campaign got off to a slow start when a hamstring injury sidelined him for the first three preseason games, but went on to play in all 16 games and the team's playoff contest...Started for the first time at ROLB in Week 4 at Minnesota, a spot he held for the rest of the season...Has played in 31 games with 28 starts in two seasons, registering 141 tackles (97 solo), 23½ sacks, an interception, 10 passes defended, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

Known for his versatility, intelligence and high motor on the field coming out of USC, became the first player GM Ted Thompson moved up into the first round to select in the 10 drafts he had run to that point (five each with Seattle and Green Bay)...The Packers acquired the pick from the

- Became the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-72) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- Named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010, the first Green Bay LB to earn that honor since Tim Harris in 1989. Finished second to Pittsburgh safety Troy Polamalu in the AP's Defensive Player of the Year voting.
- Is the only Packer (since 1982) to record a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the league.
- Selected to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team in 2009 when he posted a franchise rookie-record 10 sacks.
- Came to Southern California as a walk-on linebacker in 2004 and finished his career by earning second-team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior in 2008.
- Father, Clay Jr., played linebacker for 19 seasons in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns (1978-93) and Atlanta Falcons (1994-96), and his grandfather, Clay Sr., played defensive end for four seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (1950, 53-55).
- When Clay took the field for the first time with the Packers in the '09 opener, the Matthews family became only the second one with three generations of NFL players, joining the Pynes (George Pyne Jr., George Pyne III and Jim Pyne).

Patriots, along with a fifth-round pick (No. 162 overall), in exchange for Green Bay's second-round choice (No. 41 overall) and two third-round selections (Nos. 73 and 83)...Former walk-on went on to play in four straight Rose Bowls and the 2009 Senior Bowl...Finished his career with 96 tackles, including 5½ sacks and 13½ tackles for loss in 50 games played with 10 starts...Earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior, and was part of a defense that included fellow first-round pick LB Brian Cushing (Houston) and second-round selection LB Rey Maualuga (Cincinnati)...Played in all 13 games with 10 starts as a senior in '08, opening up the final 10 games of the season as a stand-up defensive end on the right side...Contributed primarily on special teams in his first three seasons, and won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award each of his final three seasons with the Trojans...Came to Southern California as a walk-on in 2004 after drawing scant Division I interest out of Agoura High in Agoura Hills, Calif...Earned first-team All-California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) honors at linebacker as a senior in 2003...Didn't start until his senior season, weighing just 166 pounds as a junior before a growth spurt prior to his final year of high school...Comes from a long line of football players in his family...Grandfather, Clay Sr., played DE for the San Francisco 49ers for four seasons (1950, 53-55), and father, Clay Jr., played LB for 19 seasons with the Cleveland Browns (1978-93) and Atlanta Falcons (1994-96)...When he took the field for the first time with the Packers in the '09 season opener, the Matthews family became only the second one with three generations of NFL players, joining the Pynes (George Pyne Jr., George Pyne III and Jim Pyne)...Uncle, Bruce, who was a teammate of Thompson's for two seasons (1983-84) with the Houston Oilers, played 19 seasons (1983-2001) with the Oilers/Tennessee Titans and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007...Became the first LB ever selected out of Southern California by Green Bay in the first round.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in 15 games, starting all of those at LOLB, along with four starts there in the post-season...Selected as a Pro Bowl starter, becoming the first Packer since Brockington (1971-72) to be named to the all-star game in each of his first two seasons in the NFL...Named first team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010, the first Green Bay linebacker to earn that honor since Harris in 1989...Finished second to Polamalu in the AP's Defensive Player of the Year voting...Was named NFL Defensive MVP by Pro Football Weekly, and also earned NFC Defensive Player of the Year recognition from Sporting News and the Committee of 101...Earned All-NFC recognition from Pro Football Weekly...Led the team with 13½ sacks, which ranked No. 2 in the NFC and No. 4 in the NFL...Posted a career-high 83 tackles (55 solo), good for fourth on the team, and led the team with 40 QB hits...Added his first career INT, which he returned for a TD, four passes defended and two forced fumbles...Led the defense with 3½ sacks in the playoffs, a franchise record for a single postseason...Added 20 tackles (18 solo), a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and a pass defended...Didn't play at all during the preseason due to a left hamstring injury sustained in the Family Night Scrimmage on Aug. 7...A re-aggravation of that injury would force him to miss the Week 6 contest vs. Miami...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Led the team with a career-high three sacks and a career-best nine tackles (eight solo). Added four QB hits, a forced fumble and a pass defended. Dropped QB Kevin Kolb for an 8-yard loss on the Eagles' third play, and sacked the QB once more in the second quarter, forcing a fumble that went out of bounds on third down; Kolb sustained a concussion on the play. Added a sack of QB Michael Vick in the third quarter, and then on a fourth-and-1 on the final drive of the game, dove to wrap up Vick for no gain with assistance from LBs Nick Barnett and Brad Jones to preserve the 27-20 win...vs. Buffalo (Sept.

19): Posted his second straight three-sack game, becoming the first player in team history (since 1982) to do so. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the performance, which included seven tackles (four solo). Set a team record for the most sacks in the first two games of a season with six. Dropped QB Trent Edwards for a 13-yard loss on third down of the Bills' opening possession, and added two more sacks in the second half to total 33 yards in losses, the most by a Packer since White's 35 yards on two sacks vs. Minnesota (Oct. 22, 1995)...vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Posted four tackles (two solo), including two for a loss, a sack and a QB hit. Dropped QB Shaun Hill for a 4-yard sack in the second quarter and drilled WR Bryant Johnson for a 3-yard loss on a fourth-quarter screen pass...At Washington (Oct. 10): Recorded six tackles (five solo), 1½ sacks, six QB hits and a pass defended, but injured his left hamstring late in the third quarter and did not return. Split a 7-yard sack with NT B.J. Raji in the second quarter and dropped QB Donovan McNabb for a 2-yard loss on the Redskins' next possession...vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Tested his injured hamstring in pregame warm-ups after not practicing all week, but was inactive for the first time in his career...vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Returned to action, playing every snap and registering six tackles (one solo), two QB hits and a pressure...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Posted five tackles (four solo), a sack, three QB hits and two pressures. Recorded a 6-yard sack of former college teammate Mark Sanchez late in the fourth quarter on third down, using a spin move inside to beat veteran T Damien Woody...vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time on the season with five tackles (three solo), a sack, three QB hits and a 62-yard TD return on his first career interception. Dropped QB Jon Kitna for an 8-yard loss early in the second quarter, giving him 10½ sacks on the season to become the first player in team history to record 10-plus sacks in each of his first two seasons. In the fourth quarter, intercepted a Kitna pass near the line after it was tipped by LB A.J. Hawk and returned it 62 yards for a TD. With the score, became first player in NFL history to post a double-digit sack total and a defensive score in each of his first two seasons in the league...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Recorded five tackles (four solo), a sack, two QB hits and a pressure. Sack came on the Vikings' opening drive when he was the first defender to touch a sliding Brett Favre for a 1-yard loss...Vs.

N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Had six tackles (five solo), including one for a loss, two QB hits, three QB pressures and a forced fumble. With Green Bay holding a 31-17 lead late in the third quarter, hustled down the field after a 21-yard run by RB Brandon Jacobs to punch the ball from his arms near the sideline, a fumble that was recovered by S Nick Collins at the Green Bay 27...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Recorded four tackles (three solo), a sack and two QB hurries. Sacked QB Jay Cutler for a 6-yard loss in the fourth quarter, giving him 13½ sacks for the season, the most since DE Aaron Kampman's 15½ in 2006...

At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Posted three tackles (all solo), a sack and four QB hits. Sacked Vick for a 12-yard loss early in the second quarter to force a punt. On a third-and-1 at the Green Bay 16 early in the fourth quarter, dropped RB LeSean McCoy for no gain to force a FG attempt that was missed by David Akers...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Registered a playoff career-high two sacks, along with five tackles (four solo), two QB hits and a fumble recovery. Became the first Packer since Kampman (at Philadelphia, Jan. 11, 2004) to post two sacks in a playoff game. Brought down QB Matt Ryan for a 4-yard loss on the Falcons' second possession, and sacked him once more for a 9-yard loss late in the first half. Recovered a Ryan fumble in the fourth quarter...

At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Recorded a postseason career-high eight tackles (six solo), two QB hits and a half-sack. Split a 5-yard sack of Cutler with DE Cullen Jenkins in the first quarter to force a punt...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Despite not recording at least a half-sack for the first time in his play-off career, made arguably the game's most impactful play. On the first play of the fourth quarter, after diagnosing a run to his side, instructed DE Ryan Pickett to force the play to the outside. Slipped behind a block attempt by TE David Johnson to meet RB Rashard Mendenhall, hitting him high on his right side, almost directly on the ball. Jarred the ball loose before finishing the hit by taking Mendenhall to the ground. LB Desmond Bishop recovered the ball at the Green Bay 38 and rumbled 7 yards before being tackled. The Packers cashed in on the turnover with an 8-yard TD pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Greg Jennings eight plays later, extending their lead to 28-17, ultimately the difference in the game. Finished the contest with four tackles (all solo), including one for a loss, two QB hits and a pass defended.

2009: Played in all 16 games with 13 starts at ROLB, and started the team's playoff contest...Was named to the Pro Bowl, becoming the first Packers rookie since Lofton in 1978 to earn the recognition...Was also selected to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team...Finished third in AP Defensive Rookie of the Year voting...Led the team with 10 sacks, the most by a Packers rookie in franchise history since stat became official in 1982...Became only the second Green Bay rookie to lead the team in sacks (Harris, 1986)...His 10 sacks ranked second in the NFL among rookies behind only Washington's Brian Orakpo (11.0)...Led the team with three fumble recoveries, which led all NFL rookies, including one he returned for a TD...Registered 58 tackles (42 solo), a forced fumble, six passes defended, and a team-leading 35 QB hits...Sidelined for first three preseason games due to an injured hamstring that he aggravated in Aug. 6 night practice...Originally suffered hamstring injury during USC Pro Day and aggravated in May during OTAs...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Posted the first sack of his career when he brought down QB Carson Palmer for a 9-yard loss in the second quarter...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Started the first game of his career, opening at ROLB as team came out in nickel package. Late in the second quarter, stripped Pro Bowl RB Adrian Peterson of the ball on a rushing play and went untouched down the right sideline for a 42-yard TD; the score was the longest fumble return for a TD by a Packers rookie in franchise history...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Started for the first time in Green Bay's base defense at ROLB, and posted a season-high two sacks, the first Green Bay rookie to do so since Vonnie Holliday (Nov. 15, 1998, at N.Y. Giants). Added five tackles (four solo), and was in on two stops for a loss. Earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors, voted on by fans at NFL.com, for his performance...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Recovered two fumbles to become the first Packers rookie to do so in a game since DB Val Joe Walker on Nov. 26, 1953, at Detroit. Second one came on a CB Charles Woodson sack/forced fumble of QB Tony Romo; scooped ball up at the Dallas 7 and returned 4 yards to the 3 to set up a Rodgers TD pass to TE Spencer Hawner three plays later. Also posted sack of Romo in the second quarter when he beat veteran LT Flozell Adams, and matched career high with four QB hits. Earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors for the performance...At Baltimore (Dec. 7): Matched his career-high with two sacks and added six tackles (all solo) and three QB hits on his way to earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week recognition...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Recorded a season-high eight tackles (six solo), two sacks, three QB hits, two pressures and a tackle for loss. Became first rookie in team history to post three two-sack games in a season, and it gave him a sack in four straight games, a team rookie record...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Led team with a career-high seven QB hits and added four pressures...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Led the LBs with seven tackles (five solo) and added three QB hits and two pressures. Beat LT Jeremy Bridges off the edge to sack QB Kurt Warner on first-quarter flea-flicker; also forced a fumble on the sack, but Bridges recovered. With the Packers trailing 17-0 early in the second quarter and the Cardinals ening again, recovered fumble by WR Larry Fitzgerald that was forced by Woodson at the Arizona 19; returned the fumble 29 yards out to Green Bay's 48. Became first NFL rookie in playoff history (since sacks became a stat in 1982) to record a sack, a forced fumble and a defensive fumble recovery in the same game. ...2009 Draft: Drafted by the Packers with the second of two first-round picks (No. 26 overall), the first time Green Bay had two selections in the first round since 1993. Became the first player Thompson moved up into the first round to select in the 10 drafts he had run to that point (five each with Seattle and Green Bay). Was the third LB selected in the first round by the Packers in the last seven drafts, joining Barnett (2003) and Hawk (2006). Became the first LB ever selected out of Southern California by Green Bay in the first round.

NEW OVERTIME RULES APPROVED PRIOR TO 2010 SEASON

PRESEASON AND REGULAR SEASON

The sudden-death system of determining the winner shall prevail when the score is tied at the end of the regulation playing time of preseason and regular-season NFL games. The team scoring first during overtime play shall be the winner and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by the Referee for a palpably unfair act.

- At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will continue for one 15-minute period or until there is a score. Each team has two timeouts. General timing provisions that apply for the fourth quarter will prevail. Try is not attempted if touchdown scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

POSTSEASON

NFL owners voted to install a modified sudden-death system in the postseason. The system guarantees each team a possession or the opportunity to possess, unless the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession.

- At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.

- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by the Referee for a palpably unfair act. Each team has three timeouts per half and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Try is not attempted if touchdown scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts, or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

their efforts. Lambeau pointed out that Green Bay, with its emphasis on passing, was the place for Hutson in pro football. He stressed that Brooklyn, under Paul Schissler, relied on a ground attack, featuring power plays and that Hutson, at 185 pounds, would not fit in with the Dodgers' pattern of play.

Hutson was unveiled in Green Bay on Sept. 22, 1935, taking a starting position at left end against the Bears. The visitors kicked off and Herber carried back to the 17. On the first play, Herber drifted back to pass. The Bears, familiar with previous Green Bay pass patterns, converged on the most likely receiver, Johnny Blood. The rookie left end was ignored.

Herber let go from the Packer 6 and Hutson pulled in the toss at midfield. Challenging him was the Bears' fastest back, Beattie Feathers. Hutson sped on, eluded a futile, frantic lunge by Feathers, and crossed the goal for the game's only touchdown.

HUTSON SETTLES ON THE BAY

1962 Lambeau Field program feature, by Steve Boda Jr.

Green Bay has always had that special somebody, either on the field or in the background, offering inspiration or carrying on the tradition for the City of the Bay that is unique in the annals of professional sports.

And yet, the Packers come perilously close to being denied one of their most popular on-the-field performers. Instead of catching passes and acquiring immortality in Green Bay, Don Hutson might well have been relegated to obscurity in, of all places, Brooklyn.

By 1935, the Packers and Green Bay had fought side by side through one crisis after another, adversity and discouragement. A proud and determined community rallied time and again to save ITS football team from the brink of disaster and forfeiture of a coveted franchise. Then came the formation of Green Bay Packers, Inc., and the Packers belonged to Green Bay and Green Bay belonged to the Packers.

It was also a time to reward the faithful Packers by laying the foundation for an overdue championship. After sweeping to three titles in succession in 1929-30-31, the Packers had slipped from contention and the vaunted Bears were now the kingpins of the West.

In the early 1930s, Coach Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau found it necessary to replenish his forces as one by one, he, Verne Lewellen, Jug Earp, Lavvie Dilweg, Red Dunn, Tom Nash and other stalwarts wrote the final chapter on their active playing careers.

Lambeau was carefully grooming a hometown product to step on the firing line and resume the aerial attacks so brilliantly conducted through the years by the Packers coach himself, Lewellen and Dunn. He was Arnie Herber and his passing arm lacked nothing...except targets.

For years Lambeau was a familiar figure at the workouts of the Rose Bowl game participants and the December of 1934 found him at his favorite haunts in Pasadena. As he watched Alabama prepare for Stanford, his eyes were riveted on a lean and lanky Crimson Tide end.

Don Hutson was not merely fast, he was blinding fast. In addition to his combination of speed and agility, he had an uncanny ability to estimate the speed of a pass in flight, just the exact instant it was going to arrive at a given point. He could run in one direction with an opponent trailing him, while the pass he eventually was to receive was thrown in another; then, like a flash he would turn and invariably get to the point where the ball and he were to arrive, and he caught by sure hands.

But landing this target for the accurate-throwing Herber was another matter.

Hutson frankly admitted to the Packers coach that John (Shipwreck) Kelly of the football Brooklyn Dodgers had approached him and he had a tentative agreement to sign with Kelly.

Both Lambeau and Kelly redoubled

PACKERS CHEERLEADERS

The Green Bay Packers once had official cheerleaders, but after the 1988 season the decision was made not to reinstate them. While some Packers fans supported the official cheerleaders, many were opposed or indifferent, at best.

Helping the Packers make the decision to discontinue the program was a television news poll in which fans were generally split over whether they wanted the program to continue.

Bob Harlan, then the Packers' executive vice president of administration, was quoted in an official release Feb. 7, 1989, saying: "In general terms, the poll disclosed there were as many fans who expressed opposition to the return of the cheerleaders as there were those in favor of restoring them. On that basis, we felt the appropriate decision at this time would be to continue without them."

At this time, there are no plans to return to official cheerleaders.

For several years, the team has used cheering squads from two local schools, St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis., and the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. Compared to other stadiums, though, they are not as much a part of the gameday experience at Lambeau Field.

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 294 • Born: June 26, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 2/0 • Acquired: D2-10

CAREER: Strong, promising defensive end and inside pass rusher who will look to come back from an injury-riddled rookie season that limited him to just two games... In that small sample of playing time, showed tremendous potential by recording five tackles, a sack and a forced fumble... Was initially sidelined by an abdominal injury that kept him out of the first three games... Injured his right shoulder in Week 5 and was eventually placed on injured reserve... Made the transition to end after starting his last two seasons at Purdue as left defensive tackle... Earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors from the media as a senior when he finished second on the team with 5½ sacks and third with 11½ tackles for loss... Posted several team weightlifting records at Purdue, including a 510-pound bench press and a 615-pound squat... Father, Michael, was a two-time all-conference DT at Weber State under current Texas-El Paso head coach Mike Price... Father also went to training camp with the N.Y. Giants in 1988... Drafted by the Packers in the second round (No. 56 overall), the first Purdue player drafted by the Packers since RB Edwin Watson (seventh round, 1998) and the highest taken by Green Bay since G/LB Tom Bettis in 1955 (fifth overall pick)... Was the highest-drafted defensive player from Purdue since OLB Anthony Spencer was selected 26th overall by Dallas in 2007.

2010 SEASON: Due to injuries, played in just two games as a reserve end and nickel pass rusher, recording five tackles (two solo), a sack and a forced fumble... Missed the first three games with an abdominal injury, made his NFL debut in Week 4, and then the following week injured his right shoulder and was placed on injured reserve Oct. 26... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): In first NFL action, played 26 snaps on defense and caused a turnover with a hit 3 yards in the backfield on Lions RB Jahvid Best, forcing a fumble that DE Ryan Pickett recovered. The turnover lead to a TE Jermichael Finley TD reception that put the Packers ahead to stay, 14-7... At Washington (Oct. 10): After Pickett left with a sprained ankle on the first series, played 53 snaps and had five tackles (two solo), including a sack of QB Donovan McNabb for a 9-yard loss in the third quarter. Also was stout against the run, helping the defense hold the Redskins to just 51 rushing yards on 21 carries (2.4 avg.), with a long of 8... 2010 Draft: Taken in the second round (No. 56 overall), the first Purdue player drafted by the Packers since RB Watson (seventh round, 1998) and the highest taken by Green Bay since G/LB Bettis in 1955 (fifth overall pick). Also the highest-drafted defensive player

CAREER: Steady performer will look to build off his most productive season as well as one of the best postseason performances by a wide receiver in franchise history... Played in all 16 regular-season games for the first time in his career and posted career highs in catches (45) and receiving yards (582)...His output surged over the final 12 games as he hauled in 39 passes for 529 yards, with all six of his 25-yard grabs coming over that span...Posted the finest performance of his career in Super Bowl XLV with nine catches for 140 yards and a TD in the win over Pittsburgh... Became just the fourth receiver in Super Bowl history with nine-plus receptions for at least 140 yards and a TD, joining Washington's Ricky Sanders (XXII), San Francisco's Jerry Rice (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIX) and New England's Deion Branch (XXXVIII)...Tied WR Greg Jennings for the team lead with a league-high 21 catches in the playoffs, which topped WRs Robert Brooks (1995) and Antonio Freeman (1997) for the franchise postseason mark...The tandem became the first WR teammate duo in NFL history to each post 20 receptions in the same postseason...Continued to serve as one of the team's kickoff returners in 2010, posting a team-high 22.5-yard average on 22 returns...Has posted a kick return of 45-plus yards in each of his three seasons in Green Bay, becoming the first Green Bay player to do so since Corey Harris (1992-94)...Has played in all but three games during his career, alternating as a No. 3 or 4 wideout with James Jones, and is recognized for his downfield blocking skills...Put up similar numbers in his first two seasons, totaling 55 receptions for 686 yards and four touchdowns in 2008-09, plus an additional touchdown in the postseason...Also has served as team's primary return man at times due to injuries to others, and posted more than 1,000 all-purpose yards each of the past two seasons...In 2008, was the only Green Bay rookie to play in every game, and became the lone rookie in franchise history to post 30-plus catches and a 45-plus yard kick return...For his career, has 100 receptions for 1,268 yards (12.7 avg.) and six TDs...Has a 23.1-yard average on 58 career kickoff returns...After starting his college career as a walk-on safety at Kansas State, went on to become one of the most prolific receivers in school history...Finished career second in school history with 206 receptions for 2,822 yards, trailing only Kevin Lockett (1993-96), who caught 217 passes for 3,032 yards and went on to be selected in the second round by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1997... Became only the fifth player in school history to surpass the 2,000-yard career receiving mark...As a senior, posted school records for receptions (122) and receiving yards (1,606) on his way to earning consensus All-America honors...Was one of three finalists for the Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the top receiver in the country...His 122 receptions broke the Big 12 Conference record for catches in a season by a senior...Ranked second in the country and in the Big 12 in receptions and yardage, trailing only Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree (134-1,962)...Set school single-game yardage mark at Iowa State in '07 with 214 yards and also single-game reception record vs. Missouri State and Fresno State with 15 receptions in each contest...Showed his versatility by returning two of his six career punt returns

AT A GLANCE

- Led the team with nine receptions for 140 yards and a TD in the Super Bowl XLV win over Pittsburgh, becoming just the fourth NFL wide receiver ever to post nine catches for 140 yards and a score in a Super Bowl.
- Posted career highs in receptions (45) and receiving yards (582) in 2010.
- Totaled more than 1,000 all-purpose yards in 2009, with 320 yards receiving, 635 yards on kickoff returns, and 90 yards on punt returns.
- Played in every game in 2008, the only Packers rookie to appear in every contest, and became only rookie in team history to post 30-plus catches and a 45-plus yard kick return in his debut season.
- Consensus All-America selection at Kansas State and one of three finalists for the Biletnikoff Award in 2007.
- Went from being a walk-on safety as a freshman in 2003 to posting the most prolific single season in Kansas State history with 122 receptions for 1,606 yards in '07.

vert a third down. The catch helped set up Mason Crosby's second FG, a 41-yarder that put Green Bay up 6-0 with just under four minutes left... At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Matched his career high in receptions with five for 61 yards (12.2 avg.), including a 10-yard bullet on fourth down from Rodgers with 56 seconds remaining that tied the game at 17. Roamed in and out of coverage in the back of the end zone while Rodgers bought time with his feet. Got just enough separation from S Thomas DeCoud to haul in the pass on the left side of the end zone, getting both feet down before getting drilled out of bounds by DeCoud... Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Caught four passes for a career-high 124 yards (31.0 avg.), highlighted by a career-long 80-yard reception for a TD in the first quarter. Beat S Antrel Rolle down the middle of the field and streaked into the end zone. Set up another TD in the fourth quarter when he went up over CB Corey Webster to haul in a 38-yard pass to the Green Bay 1; RB John Kuhn scored on the next play... At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started and posted eight receptions for 79 yards (9.9 avg.) and a TD. Four of the grabs came on third down to pick up first downs, including an 8-yard catch to the Atlanta 8 that converted a third-and-3. Punctuated that drive with a 6-yard TD reception... At Chicago (Jan. 23, NFC Championship): Started and had four catches for 67 yards (16.8 avg.). Had a 22-yard grab on the opening drive to put the ball at the Chicago 2; two plays later, Rodgers took it in on a bootleg for a 1-yard TD... Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Led the team with nine receptions for 140 yards (15.6 avg.), career highs in both categories, and a TD. Became just the fourth receiver in Super Bowl history with nine-plus receptions for at least 140 yards and a TD, joining Sanders (XXII), Rice (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIX) and Branch (XXXVIII). The nine catches tied RB Edgar Bennett (at Dal., Jan. 16, 1994) and Freeman (vs. Den., Jan. 25, 1998) for the most by a Packer in the postseason and tied the third-highest total by any NFL player in a Super Bowl. His yardage total was the most by an individual in any of the franchise's five Super Bowl appearances and was the fourth-highest single-game total in team post-season history. Scored his TD from 29 yards out on a third-and-1 on the offense's second drive of the game when he ran a go route along the right sideline against CB William Gay. Used an outside release and then separated just enough to get past Gay, jumping up to haul the ball in at the 3-yard line before falling into the end zone for a 7-0 lead. His game-long 38-yard catch came on the first drive of the fourth quarter on third-and-10 from the Pittsburgh 40. Lined up wide right as the lone receiver in a four-WR set, and ran a deep in route against S Ryan Clark. Caught the ball at the 28 before cutting across the field and up the left sideline, evading defenders until being forced out of bounds at the 2 by S Troy Polamalu. Two plays later, Rodgers found Jennings for an 8-yard TD and a 28-17 lead.

2009: Played in 13 games and posted 22 receptions for 320 yards (14.5 avg.) and two TDs...Also returned 25 kickoffs for a 25.4-yard average and 17 punts for a 5.3-yard average...His kick-return average ranked sixth in the NFC and 11th in the NFL...Inactive at Cleveland (Oct. 25), vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1) and at Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) with knee injury sustained vs. Detroit (Oct. 18)... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Handled kick- and punt-return duties with CB Will Blackmon sidelined due to an injury and posted 46-yard kick return on opening kickoff, bouncing it out to the left sideline to the Green Bay 49... At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Posted three receptions for 46 yards (15.3 avg.), with all three catches going for first downs, including 24-yarder down the left sideline in the third quarter... At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Caught three passes for 47 yards (15.7 avg.), including a short pass over the middle in the fourth quarter that he took 33 yards for a TD... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Returned one kickoff for 29 yards, but sustained a sprained knee on his first punt return of the game, a muffed catch that he recovered at the Green Bay 22; injury sidelined him for the remainder of the game and the next three contests... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Returned from knee injury and posted season-high four receptions for 32 yards (8.0 avg.). Caught 7-yard pass in the flat early in the fourth quarter on third-and-6 at the Dallas 8; QB Aaron Rodgers scored on a sneak on the next play to put Green Bay up 10-0... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Caught three passes for 21 yards (7.0 avg.), including a 7-yard TD late in the first half on a hitch where he made CB Tarell Brown miss at the line... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Returned opening kickoff 38 yards out to the Green Bay 43 to help set up a 28-yard Mason Crosby FG... At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Caught four passes for a career-high 71 yards (17.8 avg.). Made a nice adjustment to come back and catch a 27-yard pass down the right sideline with CB William Gay covering, then on the next play made a nice block down the field on CB Ike Taylor on RB Ryan Grant's 24-yard TD run. Also had a 24-yard reception down the sideline late in the first half... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): With Matt Flynn at QB, drew 36-yard pass-interference penalty on CB Marcus Truitt in fourth quarter down to the Seattle 7 that set up a RB Ahman Green TD run two plays later... At Arizona (Jan. 3): Posted the longest catch of his career to that point when he beat CB Michael Adams deep down the middle and made a leaping 51-yard grab at Arizona's 1-yard line; Rodgers took it in for a TD on a QB sneak on the next play. Returned three kickoffs for a 29.7-yard average, highlighted by a career-long 54-yard return late in the fourth quarter. Became first Packer since AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to post a 50-plus yard reception and a 50-plus yard kickoff return in the same game... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Caught an 11-yard TD pass late in the third quarter, making the grab at Arizona's 5 from a scrambling Rodgers and then beating CB Bryant McFadden to the end zone.

2008: Played in every game with two starts, the only rookie on the roster to appear in every contest...Finished fourth on the team with 33 receptions for 366 yards (11.1 avg.) and two TDs...Also returned 11 kickoffs for 208 yards (18.9 avg.)...Was named Packers Hall of Fame Team Rookie of the Year...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Caught first NFL pass, a 29-yard TD reception from Rodgers in the second quarter...Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Established career high with four receptions for 42 yards (10.5 avg.), all of them coming in the second half. Would match reception total twice in the next three games...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Started first career game as Packers opened up in three-WR set and had two catches for 34 yards. Posted 40-yard kickoff return in the second quarter...Vs. Houston (Dec. 2): Made three catches for 25 yards (8.3 avg.), including a 9-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 21...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Returned opening kickoff 45 yards, a season-long...2008 Draft: Selected in the second round (36th overall), the third WR taken. The choice was obtained from the N.Y. Jets, along with a fourth-round selection (113th overall), in exchange for Green Bay's first-round pick (30th overall). Only the third player from Kansas State ever selected by the Packers, and the highest selection since HB Veryl Switzer (fourth overall) in 1954. Became first top-40 selection from KSU in the draft since CB Terence Newman was selected fifth overall by the Dallas Cowboys in 2003.

COLLEGE: Utilized the work ethic he learned on the family farm growing up as he went from being a walk-on safety as a freshman in 2003 to posting the most prolific single season in Kansas State history with 122 receptions for 1,606 yards in 2007 on his way to earning consensus All-America honors...Finished career second in school history with 206 receptions for 2,822 yards, trailing only Lockett, who caught 217 passes for 3,032 yards and went on to be selected in the second round by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1997...Became just the fifth player in school history to eclipse the 2,000-yard career receiving mark and tied Quincy Morgan's school record for 100-yard receiving games with 10...Showed his versatility by returning two of his six career punt returns for TDs, an 89-yarder and a 92-yarder, and threw two passes as a senior, both for TDs...Made the switch to WR in the spring of 2005, and made an immediate impact as he led the team in receptions, yards and receiving TDs as a sophomore... Majored in social science...Senior season (2007): A consensus All-American who was named to nine first-team All-America squads...Swept first-team All-Big 12 honors from The Associated Press, the league's coaches, Rivals.com, the Kansas City Star and the Waco Tribune-Herald...One of three finalists for the Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the top receiver in the nation...Also earned honorable mention recognition from the league's coaches as a punt/kick returner despite returning just five punts on the season...Started all 12 games and posted school single-season records with 122 receptions for 1,606 yards (13.2 avg.)...Registered a school-record eight 100-yard receiving games...Caught eight or more passes in 10 of 12 games and 10 or more passes six times...Ranked second in the Big 12 and nationally in receptions and yardage...Was one of just two receivers in the country to record 1,600 yards receiving, joining Crabtree of Texas Tech...Returned five punts for 264 yards (52.8 avg.) and two TDs...Broke his own school single-game receiving yardage record set earlier in the season with 214 yards on 14 grabs (15.3 avg.) at Iowa State (Nov. 3)...Tied his own single-game record for receptions with 15 catches for 165 yards (11.0 avg.) and a TD at Fresno State (Nov. 24) in the final game of his career...Junior season (2006): Played in all 13 games with nine starts despite battling a knee injury all season long...Still managed to lead the Wildcats in both recep-

In Green Bay, where the local time is always 1963, the citizens worship their Packers with religious fervor, and Lambeau Field is their ageless cathedral. The benches are aluminum, the grass (when not iced over) is resplendent, and the fans are rabid but realistic without being rude. No wonder Packers players leap into the stands after scoring touchdowns. On a truly cold day you can feel the spirit of Vince Lombardi — even if you can't feel your toes.

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 319 • Born: September 29, 1988 • NFL Games Played/Started: 0/0 • Acquired: D5B-10

CAREER: Second-year man is expected to provide depth at both tackle and guard in 2011...Didn't see any game action as a rookie in 2010, listed as a gameday inactive for the first 14 contests of the season...Sustained a back injury in practice on Dec. 22 and was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 30...Played in all four preseason games, seeing time on the left side at tackle and guard...Was selected by the Packers with the final pick of the fifth round (169th overall), a compensatory choice awarded to the team for the loss of DT Colin Cole...Started every game but one at left tackle in his final three seasons for the Horned Frogs...Played in the East-West Shrine Game following his senior season, where he appeared at multiple spots along the offensive line in practices and during the game...As a senior, was a member of a TCU team that posted the first school's first undefeated regular season in 71 years as well as its first-ever BCS bowl bid, an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl vs. Boise State...It was also the first 12-0 campaign in school annals...In his final season, was part of an offense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring (38.3 points per game), total offense (456.7 yards per game), and rushing (239.5 yards per game)...Earned first-team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a senior after earning second-team recognition as a junior and honorable mention as a sophomore...Played in all 52 games during his college career, starting 38 of 39 games in his final three seasons...Appeared in a bowl game each of his four seasons at TCU...Made his presence felt immediately with the Horned Frogs as he played in 13 games in '06, the only true freshman on the roster to appear on offense...Earned first-team all-district 10-5A honors as a senior offensive tackle at Lake Highlands High in Dallas, Texas...Comes from a football family, with his father, John, having been a part of three Cotton Bowl teams at the University of Houston as a running back...His cousin, Robert Newhouse, played fullback for the Dallas Cowboys for 12 seasons (1972-83), and ranks fifth on the franchise's all-time rushing list.

2010 SEASON: Was inactive as a healthy scratch for the first 14 games before sustaining a back injury in practice on Dec. 22...Inactive vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26) before being placed on injured reserve on Dec. 31...2010 Draft: Was selected by the Packers with the final pick of the fifth round (No. 169 overall) with a compensatory choice awarded to the team. Was the first offensive lineman to be drafted by Green Bay out of TCU since T Charles Wrenn (14th round) in 1953.

COLLEGE: Played in all 52 games during his college career, starting every game but one at left tackle in his final three seasons for the Horned Frogs...Appeared in a bowl game each of his four seasons at TCU...As a senior, was a member of a TCU team that posted the school's first undefeated regular season in 71 years as well as its first-ever BCS bowl bid, an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl vs. Boise State...Earned his degree in advertising and public relations, with a minor in art...Senior season (2009): Played in all 13 games with 12 starts at LT and earned first-team All-MWC honors...Named a third-team

- Gameday inactive (healthy scratch) for the first 14 contests before sustaining a back injury in Dec. 22 practice. Was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 31.
- A three-year starter at left tackle for the Horned Frogs, he earned first-team All-Mountain West honors as a senior.
- As a senior, was a member of a TCU squad that posted the school's first undefeated regular season (12-0) in 71 years as well as its first-ever BCS bowl game appearance.
- Part of a Horned Frogs offense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring (38.3 points per game), total offense (456.7 yards per game), and rushing (239.5 yards per game) in 2009.

Sixth NFL Season
Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 203 • Born: February 24, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 53/12 • Acquired: FA-10

CAREER: A reserve safety and special-teams contributor during his first three seasons in Green Bay (2006-08), stepped into a starting role at strong safety in 2010 and made the most of the opportunity, posting career highs in every major statistical category...Took over as the starter in Week 5 at Washington following rookie Morgan Burnett's season-ending knee injury sustained in Week 4 vs. Detroit... Appeared in 14 games with a career-high 11 starts, registering career bests in tackles (64), interceptions (two) and passes defended (seven)...Ranked second on the team in the postseason with 26 tackles (23 solo), including a team-high 10 tackles in Super Bowl XLV...Returned to Green Bay in 2010 after spending the second half of the 2009 season with Atlanta...Went to training camp with the Packers in 2009, but sustained a knee injury in Aug. 20 night practice that sent him to injured reserve on Sept. 6...Reached an injury settlement with the team on Sept. 10, before eventually signing with Atlanta as a free agent on Nov. 4...Appeared in two games for the Falcons on special teams...Began his Packers career as a waiver pickup...Originally drafted in the fifth round in 2006 by the N.Y. Giants, was released in the final roster reduction despite one preseason interception and claimed off waivers by the Packers just before the start of the 2006 season...Saw his most action on defense to that point in 2008, getting his first and only pro start in Week 5 vs. Atlanta and posting a career-high six tackles on his way to 19 for the season with two passes defended...Had career-best 11 special teams tackles in 2007, including two forced fumbles on kickoffs...Has played in 53 career games with 12 starts and has recorded 85 tackles (50 solo), two interceptions and nine passes defended...Has added 29 tackles on special teams...A four-year starter at Alabama who played in a total of 50 games for the Crimson Tide, starting 45, at strong safety, right and left cornerback and nickel back, finishing his career with 210 tackles (163 solo), nine INTs, five fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles and 24 passes defended...Played his last two years primarily at strong safety and ranks tied for second in Alabama history with two INT returns for TDs, behind only Antonio Langham (3, 1990-93), and fifth with 214 interception return yards.

2010 SEASON: Played in 14 games with a career-high 11 starts and appeared in all four postseason contests with two starts...Registered a career-best 64 tackles (50 solo) along with career highs in interceptions (two) and passes defended (seven)...Led the secondary with 26 tackles (23 solo) in the postseason, good for No. 2 on the team behind only LB Desmond Bishop (30)...Posted six tackles on special teams with three more stops in the playoffs...Inactive for games at Chicago (Sept. 27) and vs. Detroit (Oct. 3) with a quad injury...At Washington (Oct. 10): Opened the game at SS, only the second start of his career, and posted five tackles (one solo) and a pass defended...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Led the secondary with a career-high 11 tackles (10 solo)...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Played every snap and recorded eight tackles (seven solo), a pass defended and a tackle for loss. On the Vikings' opening drive, dropped WR Percy Harvin for a 3-yard loss on a third-down screen pass, forcing a punt...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Turned in one of his best performances of the - Stepped into the starting strong safety spot following rookie Morgan Burnett's season-ending knee injury in Week 4 and recorded career highs in every major statistical category.

- Ranked second on the team in the postseason with 26 tackles (23 solo), including a team-high 10 tackles in Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh.
- Returned to Green Bay after spending the second half of the 2009 season with the Atlanta Falcons.
- Recorded 20 tackles and two forced fumbles on special teams from 2007-08.
- Originally a fifth-round draft choice by the N.Y. Giants in 2006, was claimed off waivers by the Packers one week before the start of the regular season.
- Played four seasons at Alabama at multiple positions in the defensive backfield, recording 210 tackles and nine interceptions.
- As a senior at Plano (Texas) East High School, was used mostly at tailback and accumulated six 100-yard games and 1,500 all-purpose yards.
- Grandfather is a former head of state of the West African republic of Ghana.

season, notching a pair of passes defended and tying FS Nick Collins for the lead in the secondary with five tackles (all solo)...Had key pass break-ups on consecutive Jets possessions late in the fourth quarter with the Packers protecting a 6-0 lead...Slapped the ball away from WR Jericho Cotchery on fourth-and-8 at the Green Bay 35 with 4:12 to play and then dislodged the ball from Cotchery's grasp with a strong hit to the back on second-and-5 with 3:13 left...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Posted nine tackles (six solo) and the first interception of his career. Picked off QB Drew Stanton early in the second quarter, intercepting a deep pass down the sideline that was intended for TE Tony Scheffler...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Recorded five tackles (three solo) and two passes defended, including a third-quarter INT in the end zone. With the Packers trailing 3-0 and the Bears appearing to be on the verge of increasing their lead after an Aaron Rodgers INT on the Packers' first offensive play of the second half, he picked off QB Jay Cutler's pass that was intended for WR Johnny Knox on third-and-19 from the Green Bay 24...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started and had six tackles (five solo), helping the defense limit the Falcons to just 194 total yards...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Did not start as the defense opened with an extra lineman, but played 63 snaps and led the team with 10 tackles (nine solo). Helped direct a secondary that played without CBs Charles Woodson (collarbone) and Sam Shields (shoulder) for almost the entire second half.

2009: Appeared in two games for Atlanta on special teams and posted one tackle...Inactive for six contests and did not play at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 22)...Signed with the Falcons as a free agent on Nov. 4...Went to training camp with the Packers, but sustained knee injury during Aug. 20 night practice that sidelined him for the final three preseason contests...

Was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 6, but was waived/injury settlement on Sept. 10...Inactive for final two games of the season with the Falcons due to a hamstring injury...Vs. New Orleans (Dec. 13): Made Falcons debut vs. New Orleans, seeing time on special teams...At N.Y. Jets (Dec. 20): Registered a tackle on special teams.

2008: Played in 13 games with one start...Registered 19 tackles and two passes defended along with nine stops on special teams...Was inactive for opening two games as he continued to recover from hamstring injury sustained in training camp practice Aug. 5...Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Made season debut, replacing Collins (back injury) in the second half and registering three tackles...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started first NFL game at SS with Atari Bigby (hamstring) and Aaron Rouse (knee) both sidelined with injuries and recorded a career-high six tackles...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Played at SS the entire second half after Rouse left game with head injury and posted four tackles...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Saw limited time in second half at safety and broke up a pass. Also tied for team lead with season-high two special teams tackles...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Matched season high with two special teams tackles...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Again matched season high with two special teams stops...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Came in during second quarter at SS when Rouse left the game with a knee injury and played the remainder of the game there. Posted three tackles and a pass defended, and recorded two tackles on special teams for the fourth time on the year.

2007: Started training camp low on the depth chart and emerged as the No. 2 SS...Played in all 16 games (plus both playoff contests), primarily on special teams, making 11 coverage stops and forcing two fumbles on kickoff returns...Also had two tackles from scrimmage...At N.Y. Giants (Sept. 16): On a fourth-quarter kickoff, jarred the ball loose from KR Ahmad Bradshaw; LB Tracy White recovered and the Packers scored a TD on the ensuing drive, giving Green Bay a 28-13 lead in the eventual 35-13 victory...At Detroit (Nov. 22): Replaced Rouse at FS in second half after Rouse left the game with a knee injury, and made two solo tackles, the first stops of his career...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Forced KR Derek Stanley to fumble (recovered by the Rams)...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Made three special teams tackles.

2006: The Giants' fifth-round pick in 2006, was claimed off waivers by the Packers on Sept. 3...Played in eight games, exclusively on special teams, and was inactive for eight contests...Had a pair of special teams tackles...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Ran down Brandon Williams after a 25-yard punt return...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Pushed WR Bernard Berrian out of bounds after a 7-yard punt return...2006 Draft: Taken in the fifth round by the N.Y. Giants (158th overall, 30th DB taken)...In four preseason contests with the Giants, notched five tackles and an INT that he returned 19 yards vs. the N.Y. Jets (Aug. 25). Was waived in the Giants' final preseason roster reduction and claimed by the Packers the next day.

COLLEGE: Played in a total of 50 games at various positions in the secondary at Alabama, starting 45 and finishing his career with 210 tackles (163 solo), nine INTs (returning two for TDs), five fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles and 24 passes defended...Holds an undergraduate degree in marketing and a master's degree in financial planning...Senior season (2005): Playing his second consecutive year at SS, recorded 43 tackles (28 solo, three for loss), two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and five passes defended...Was a preseason first-team All-America selection by The NFL Draft Report and a preseason second-team All-Southeastern Conference pick by the league's coaches...Recorded a season-high six tackles vs. Arkansas (Sept. 24) and at Mississippi (Oct. 15)...Closed his career with three tackles and a pass defended against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl (Jan. 2)...Junior season (2004): Shifted to SS after two years playing CB and started every game...Ranked fifth on the team with 51 tackles (34 solo, two for loss) and had one pass defended and one INT...Played a major role on a defense that ranked first in the SEC and second in the country in yards allowed (245.5 per game), and first in the country in passing yards allowed (113.1)...Secondary allowed only nine TD recep-

ALL-TIME PACKERS PLAYERS FROM UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON (39)

Like a college team, the Packers historically have drawn well from their own backyard, obtaining 39 players via "in-state recruiting" from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, a 150-mile drive from Lambeau Field. In fact, only two other schools - Notre Dame (52) and Minnesota (44) - have produced more Packers players.

Following is a list of those who've played in a game for both the Wisconsin Badgers and Green Bay Packers:

DEFENSIVE END • OHIO STATE

11th NFL Season
Sixth Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 340 • Born: October 8, 1979 • NFL Games Played/Started: 148/126 • Acquired: UFA-06 (StL)

CAREER: Begins his 11th NFL season and sixth in Green Bay as a primary run-stuffer and unsung leader on the defensive line...Unselfishly made the transition to left defensive end after serving as the starting nose tackle in 2009, the first year of defensive coordinator Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme...Played in 14 games with 12 starts last season, finishing with 53 tackles (27 solo), a sack, a fumble recovery and a pass defended...Sidelined for two games because of an ankle injury, but returned to play the final seven games and all four postseason contests...Began working at LDE last offseason with 2009 first-round pick B.J. Raji moving into the starting role at NT...Was a key part of the Packers' No. 1-ranked rushing defense in '09 (team-record 83.3 yards allowed per game), the first time in franchise annals that Green Bay led the league in run defense...Part of a defense that held opponents to under 90 net rushing yards a league-high 12 times on the season, also a franchise record...Was designated as the team's franchise player on Feb. 24, 2010, but agreed to a contract extension with the Packers on March 12, 2010...Though many of his contributions don't always show up on the stat sheet, does have 336 tackles (173 solo) in 73 regular-season games in Green Bay over five seasons, posting five or more tackles 36 times (39 including play-offs)...Now has 744 tackles (368 solo) with 9½ sacks and 31 passes defended for his career...Battled through hamstring and triceps injuries to start every game in '08 and has played in 148 of a possible 160 regular-season games during his career...Has missed just seven contests due to injury...Prior to Week 16 of 2007, had not missed a game since midway through his rookie season, and had not missed a start since Week 4 of 2003...Took over DT Grady Jackson's old starting job after signing as an unrestricted free agent on March 17, 2006, coming over from St. Louis, where he spent his first five seasons and was a first-round draft choice (29th overall) in 2001, turning pro after his junior year at Ohio State...Came to Green Bay off his best NFL season statistically in 2005 in which he led all of the league's defensive linemen with 115 tackles, 10 more than runner-up Aaron Kampman...Having appeared in seven playoff games with the Packers, has the experience of playing in 13 postseason contests, including Super Bowl XXXVI while a rookie with St. Louis and Super Bowl XLV last season with Green Bay.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in 14 games with 12 starts at LDE, making the transition to end after working at NT in '09...Registered 53 tackles (27 solo), a sack, a pass defended and a fumble recovery...Started all four post-season contests and led the defensive line with 14 tackles (five solo) in the playoffs...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Posted four tackles (two solo), seeing significant action as one of only three healthy defensive linemen for the bulk of the game...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Recorded four tackles (one solo), a QB hit and a pass defended. Helped limit the Bears to just 77 yards rushing, with 37 of those yards coming on three scrambles by QB Jay Cutler...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Registered four tackles (three solo) and a fumble recovery, falling on RB Jahvid Best's fumble forced by DE Mike Neal in the second quarter. The turnover led to a TE

- Has played in 148 of a possible 160 regular-season games during his 10-year career, missing just seven contests due to injury.
- Key component of Packers' No. 1-ranked rushing defense in 2009 (franchise-record 83.3 yards allowed per game), the first time in team history that Green Bay led the league in that category.
- On Monday Night Football in Denver in 2007, his heads-up tackle of QB Jay Cutler on a draw play at the 4-yard line in the final seconds of the fourth quarter forced the Broncos to kick a game-tying FG. One snap into overtime, Brett Favre hit Greg Jennings for an 82-yard TD for the Green Bay win.
- A first-round draft choice (29th overall) in 2001 who turned pro after his junior year at Ohio State, and became a starter in his second season in St. Louis.
- Came to Green Bay off a career year in 2005, when he led all NFL defensive linemen with 115 tackles, 10 more than former Packers linemate and runner-up Aaron Kampman.
- An All-American at Zephyrhills (Fla.) High School who did not stay close to home like older brother Booker, who played at Miami (Fla.).

Jermichael Finley TD catch three plays later. The fumble recovery was his first since his first season in Green Bay (at Chicago, Dec. 31, 2006)...At Washington (Oct. 10): Started, but sustained a sprained ankle on the Redskins' second play from scrimmage. Did not return, and was inactive the following week vs. Miami (Oct. 17)...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Returned to the starting lineup, but aggravated the injury seven plays into the game and did not return. Sidelined once more the next week at the N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31) and re-aggravated the ankle again vs. Dallas (Nov. 7)...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): After bye week, returned to the field and had a pair of tackles (one solo)...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Posted five tackles (three solo), including a stop of RB Anthony Dixon for a 2-yard loss in the second quarter to force a punt two plays later...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Recorded a season-high 10 tackles (seven solo), his highest total since posting a career-high 12 at Seattle (11/27/06). Forced QB Drew Stanton out of bounds for a 2-yard sack late in the first half...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Registered five tackles (one solo) as the defense limited the Giants to just 90 yards on 21 carries, one of only three times on the season that New York didn't rush for 100 yards...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Recorded five tackles (two solo) as the unit limited the Bears to just 83 yards rushing and a 7.7 conversion rate (1-of-13) on third down...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Finished with four tackles (two solo) while also having a hand in one of the game's biggest plays with the Steelers trailing 21-17 but in Green Bay territory. On the first play of the fourth quarter, slipped inside of pulling C Doug Legursky and dove into RB Rashard Mendenhall's left hip. LB Clay Matthews converged on the right side, jarring the ball loose, and the fumble was recovered by LB Desmond Bishop. The Packers would score a TD eight plays later to extend their lead to 28-17.

2009: Played in 13 games with nine starts at NT; only non-starts came when team opened up in nickel...Also played in team's playoff contest...Part of top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (a franchise-best 83.3 yards per game), the first time in franchise history that the team was No. 1 against the run...Posted 47 tackles (25 solo) and a pass defended...Inactive for three games late in the season due to a hamstring injury...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led line with six tackles (two solo), including a stop of RB Steven Jackson for a 2-yard loss on first-quarter run...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Didn't start as team opened in nickel, but led the defensive line with season-high seven tackles (six solo). Helped limit Pro Bowl RB Adrian Peterson to just 55 yards on 25 carries (2.2 avg.)...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Led the line with seven tackles (five solo) to match his career high. Along with LB A.J. Hawk, stopped Peterson for a 1-yard loss on fourth-and-1 from Green Bay's 7 midway through the second quarter...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted four tackles (two solo) and a QB hit, but sustained a hamstring injury with under nine minutes remaining in the game and did not return. Injury would go on to sideline him for three of final four regular-season games...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Didn't start as team opened in nickel, but registered two tackles (one solo).

2008: Started all 16 games for the fourth time in the last five seasons, opening up every game at LDT...Was third on the defensive line with 81 tackles (38 solo), the sixth time in his career he posted 80-plus stops...Tied for lead on the line with five passes defended...Posted 1½ sacks, his most in a single season as a Packer...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Returned to starting lineup after missing entire preseason with hamstring injury suffered just prior to the start of training camp...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Led defensive line with seven tackles (four solo), including a stop of RB Michael Turner for a 3-yard loss in the first quarter...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Registered three tackles (one solo), but left game midway through third quarter with triceps injury and did not return...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started after being limited all week in practice with triceps injury, which required a harness for protection during game. Registered three tackles (one solo) and batted down a QB Peyton Manning pass on third down in the second quarter to force a Colts punt...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Finished second on the defensive line with seven tackles (five solo), registered his first sack of the season when he brought down QB Kerry Collins for a 4-yard loss early in the third quarter, and batted down a Collins pass intended for TE Bo Scaife in overtime...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Tied for lead on defensive line with season-high nine tackles (two solo)...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Shared a sack of QB Kyle Orton in the third quarter with DE Michael Montgomery for a 4-yard loss on a third down. Tied for lead on defensive line with seven tackles (five solo).

2007: Started 14 games, plus both playoff contests, recording 63 tackles (38 solo), with one sack and one pass defended...Inactive for final two regular-season games with a groin injury, snapping a string of 74 consecutive starts (77 including playoffs) dating back to early 2003 and 101 straight games played (107 including playoffs) dating back to midway through his rookie season...Didn't even miss the preseason opener, having arrived in Pittsburgh (Aug. 11) the morning of the game following the birth of his son, Ryan Jr. ...At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Made his first sack of the season and first as a Packer, felling QB Kelly Holcomb for a 6-yard loss in fourth quarter; made a season-high seven total tackles (six solo)...At Denver (Oct. 29): With time running out, stopped Cutler for no gain at the Green Bay 4-yard line on a QB draw. Denver was forced to kick a FG that tied the score 13-13 and led to an OT period; QB Brett Favre connected with WR Greg Jennings on the first play for an 82-yard score and the victory...At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Made six tackles (one solo) but missed a good part of the second half after suffering a groin injury and then missed the next two games...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Returned to starting lineup for postseason and made six tackles (four solo), including stop of RB Shaun Alexander for a 1-yard loss in third quarter.

2006: An unrestricted free agent signed from St. Louis, started all 16 games in his first year with the Packers and was often called by coaches the most consistent defensive lineman...Collected 92 tackles (45 solo), one fumble recovery and a career-best seven passes defended...Was held to fewer than five tackles just four times all season and had six or more on eight occasions...At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Played in spite of an ankle injury suffered the week prior at Detroit...At Seattle (Nov. 27): Tied a regular-season career high with 12 tackles (six solo), including three for loss. Also helped to end the Seahawks' first possession by tipping a pass that was intercepted by CB Charles Woodson, setting up a Packers TD...Vs. N.Y. Jets (Dec. 3): Combined with LB Nick Barnett to stop RB Cedric Houston for minus-1 yard; on the next play, nearly intercepted a pass, his sixth pass breakup of the year...At Chicago (Dec. 31): Recovered a QB Rex Grossman fumble, his first career fumble recovery.

2005: Assembled the finest season statistically in his NFL career in his final year in St. Louis...Started all 16 games for a second straight season and posted a career-high 115 tackles (61 solo), which led all NFL defensive linemen...Also tied his career high with two sacks...At Arizona (Sept. 18): Joined with DE Leonard Little to share a fourth-quarter sack of QB Kurt Warner...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 23): Led team in tackles with 11 (five solo)...Vs. Jacksonville (Oct. 30): Led team in tackles for second straight week with nine (six solo) and shared a sack of QB Byron Leftwich with LB Chris Claiborne...At Houston (Nov. 27): Got a sack of his own, dropping QB David Carr on a key third down to force the Texans to settle for a FG in the Rams' eventual 33-27 win...Vs. Washington (Dec. 4): Tied career high with 12 tackles (six solo).

HISTORY OF THE SACK STATISTIC

In 1947, the NFL implemented a new team statistic, yards lost attempting to pass. The new category allowed the league to separate gross yards passing from net yards, to more accurately reflect a team's passing performance. Net passing yards included yards lost by backs tackled on passing plays.

In 1963, Seymour Siwoff, president of the league's official statistical company, the Elias Sports Bureau, made a suggestion. Recognizing the "yards lost attempting to pass" figure needed a complement, he argued for a new category: number of times losing yards attempting to pass. The league agreed, and one of the NFL's top executives, Jim Kensil, first coined the term "Sack," which is a dark-ages word, meaning to plunder a captured town. Kensil, who handled NFL public relations among other responsibilities, popularized the term in his stories and publicity materials.

In 1982, convinced by member team PR directors (many of whom were convinced by their players), Elias and the NFL agreed to make individual sacks an official number. New rules were written, such as only two players can share in a sack.

Today, it's arguably the game's most popular defensive stat. Siwoff, whose bureau also tracks official numbers for MLB, the NBA and the NHL, still has the final word on every challenged sack, spending Tuesday or Wednesday in the film room at the league office.

CAREER: Promising young tight end who had to take on a larger role than anticipated as a rookie when Jermaine Kearse was lost for the season to a knee injury in the fifth game...Produced two 50-yard receiving games and finished his rookie season with 21 catches for 238 yards (11.3 avg.) and a TD, adding five catches for 46 yards in the postseason...Athletically, is viewed in the Finley mold; though not as big as his position mate, is seen as a potential downfield threat and a difficult matchup should he continue to develop...Left Penn State as the school's all-time leader in receptions for a tight end, with 87, and as one of only three tight ends in school history to top 1,000 career receiving yards, with 1,146...Overcame some off-the-field issues early in his college career, nearly losing his scholarship prior to his junior season...Served a two-game suspension as a sophomore in 2007 for an underage drinking incident and then the following spring was involved in another drinking incident, including a DUI charge, that led to head coach Joe Paterno nearly dismissing him from the team...Went to Paterno's house the night after the DUI charge to plead his case, vowing to give up drinking and change his lifestyle, and Paterno gave him another chance...Was taken with the first of Green Bay's two fifth-round picks in 2010, the 154th overall selection and the 11th tight end selected...Became the first Penn State player drafted by the Packers since 2001 (CB Bhawoh Jue, third round) and the first Penn State TE drafted in team history.

2010 SEASON: Played in 13 games with three starts and posted 21 receptions for 238 yards (11.3 avg.) and a TD, plus one special teams tackle...Added five catches for 46 yards (9.2 avg.) in the postseason, playing in all four games with one start...Inactive for the season's first two games and also missed one game due to a shoulder injury (vs. Dallas, Week 9)...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Made his NFL debut, playing on special teams and on offense...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Made his first career start as Packers opened in two-TE set...At Washington (Oct. 10): Pressed into action after injuries to Finley and Donald Lee, had four catches for 51 yards (12.8 avg.), including two grabs of 9 and 21 yards on the final drive of regulation, setting up a late FG attempt...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Had a career-long 23-yard catch in the second quarter...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Caught two passes for 16 yards (8.0 avg.), including his first career TD, a juggling 9-yard catch in the back of the end zone...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Left the game with an injured shoulder and missed the following contest...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Returned from shoulder injury and the bye week to make one key catch, a 14-yarder with 38 seconds left in the second quarter on a TD drive just before halftime that extended Green Bay's lead to 17-3...At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Started and had three catches for 35 yards (11.7 avg.), including two catches for 11 and 19 yards on the 16-play, 90-yard drive that tied the game late in the fourth quarter...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Bounced back from an early fumble after a 12-yard reception to lead the team with career highs of five catches and 62 yards (12.4 avg.), including grabs of 20 and 11 yards from QB

- Finished his rookie regular season with 21 catches for 238 yards (11.3 avg.) and a TD.
- Posted career highs in Week 14 at Detroit with five receptions for 62 yards, the yardage total the most by a Green Bay rookie TE since Ron Kramer's 68 yards at Detroit on Nov. 27, 1958.
- Holds the Penn State records for receptions by a tight end in a career (87) and single season (41 in 2009).
- Ranks second in school history for receiving yards by a tight end with 1,146.
- First Penn State tight end to be drafted by Green Bay.
- Finished his college career with a Penn State bowl-record eight receptions in Capital One Bowl vs. LSU (Jan. 1) and then caught game-winning TD pass in final seconds of East-West Shrine Game.

Matt Flynn on the opening drive of the second half for a FG. Yardage total was the most for a Green Bay rookie TE since Ron Kramer's 68 yards at Detroit on Nov. 27, 1958...At New England (Dec. 19): Drew a 15-yard unnecessary-roughness penalty on a helmet-to-helmet hit from Patriots CB Devin McCourty and rebounded to catch a 10-yard pass three plays later, leading to a TD...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Caught two passes for 27 yards (13.5 avg.), his postseason highs, including a 15-yarder on the Packers' first play from scrimmage...2010 Draft: Selected with the first of Green Bay's two fifth-round picks, 154th overall and the 11th TE...Became the first Penn State player drafted by the Packers since 2001 (Jue, third round) and the first Penn State TE drafted in team history.

COLLEGE: Finished his career as Penn State's all-time leader in receptions among tight ends...In 49 career games, including 29 starts, caught 87 passes to break the previous school record for a TE held by Ted Kwalick (1966-68)...Totaled 1,146 yards for a 13.2-yard average and eight TDs...His yardage total makes him one of only three TEs in school history to top 1,000 career receiving yards, and he ranks second in school history behind Kwalick's 1,343...He also fell two TDs short of Kwalick's career mark of 10...Graduated in December 2009 with a degree in telecommunications...Senior season (2009): Concluded his collegiate career with by far his best year, nearly doubling his career totals for both receptions and yards coming in...Won the starting job and started all 13 games, catching 41 passes for 536 yards (13.1 avg.) and three TDs for the Big Ten's second-ranked offense...Was the only Penn State player to catch a pass in every game and caught at least three passes in eight contests...Earned honorable mention All-Big Ten and was named to the John Mackey Award midseason watch list...His 41 catches broke the school's single-season record for a TE held by Tony Stewart (38 in 2000) and his 536 yards were the most by a Penn State TE since 1977 (Mickey Shuler Sr., 600)...Was a standout during East-West Shrine Game practices and caught the winning TD pass in the game with six seconds left, lifting the East to a 13-10 win...At Michigan (Oct. 24), caught two passes for career-high 91 yards and a TD – a career-long 60-yard catch-and-run, the second-longest pass play on the season by the Nittany Lions and the longest completion to a Penn State TE in six years. Tied his career high with two TDs on four receptions for 62 yards at Michigan State (Nov. 21). Caught a 29-yard TD for the game's first score and added a 14-yard TD on a pass from WR Curtis Drake for a 14-7 lead in eventual 42-14 triumph...In the Capital One Bowl in Orlando vs. LSU (Jan. 1), broke the school record for receptions in a bowl game with career-high eight catches for 88 yards in 19-17 victory. The previous record of seven had been held by three players – David Daniels (1990 Blockbuster), Bobby Engram (1994 Citrus) and Stewart (1999 Outback)...Junior season (2008): Played in 12 of 13 games, with one start, serving a one-game suspension vs. Oregon State (Sept. 6) for a violation of team rules...Lost his starting job to Mickey Shuler Jr. and caught just 11 passes for 117 yards (10.6 avg.) and one TD...Recorded season highs with four receptions for 50 yards vs. Temple (Sept. 20)...In the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., vs. USC (Jan. 1), caught two passes for 22 yards...Sophomore season (2007): Started seven of 11 games played, catching 14 passes for 205 yards (14.6 avg.) and two TDs, with five receptions going for 20 yards or longer...Sat out the season's first two games vs. Florida International (Sept. 1) and vs. Notre Dame (Sept. 8) for a team rules violation...Made season debut vs. Buffalo (Sept. 15) with two receptions, both for TDs, of 21 and 4 yards...Posted season highs with three receptions for 48 yards vs. Iowa (Oct. 6) and had season-long reception of 30 yards to set up a TD vs. Ohio State (Oct. 27)...Freshman season (2006): Earned freshman All-Big Ten honors from Sporting News, playing in 13 games with eight starts and catching 21 passes for 288 yards (13.7 avg.) and two TDs...Fifteen receptions came in the season's final five games...Recorded his first two collegiate receptions, for 12 yards, vs. Youngstown State (Sept. 16)...Established regular-season career high with five receptions for 62 yards at Wisconsin (Nov. 4)...Caught four passes for season-high 87 yards and his first collegiate TD, a 17-yarder vs. Michigan State (Nov. 18)...In Outback Bowl in Tampa vs. Tennessee (Jan. 1), caught a 2-yard TD pass late in first half of 20-10 victory.

THE LOMBARDI SWEEP & ITS COMPANION PLAYS

Vince Lombardi was convinced that defenses had become so sophisticated that it was time for the offense to go back to the basics – to avoid frills and to carry out fundamentals well. These principles were borne out in his Green Bay sweep (top), with either Paul Hornung (5) or Jim Taylor (31) carrying the ball, following pulling guards Fuzzy Thurston (63) and Jerry Kramer (64) in a devastating end run.

The weak-side slant (lower left) and the companion play it set up (lower right) became the heart of the Packers' offense after defenses found ways to stop the sweep. Taylor "ran to daylight" wherever he found it.

CAREER: Emerged as one of the top players in the league at his position in just his second season, his first year playing nose tackle on a full-time basis...Led all NFL nose tackles with 6½ sacks, the most recorded by a NT since Minnesota's Ken Clarke posted seven in 1990 (according to STATS LLC)...Was the only Green Bay defensive lineman to open every game in 2010, with his career-high 66 tackles (36 solo) pacing the line...Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate and was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team, which honors unheralded players in the league...Earned All-NFC honors from Pro Football Weekly...Added 12 tackles, a sack, two passes defended and an interception in the postseason, highlighted by an 18-yard INT return for a score at Chicago in the NFC Championship Game that put Green Bay up 21-7 in the eventual 21-14 victory...Played in 14 games with one start as a rookie in '09, seeing most of his time at both end spots and as a down lineman in nickel...Saw increased time at NT down the stretch when veteran starter Ryan Pickett battled a hamstring injury...Named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team, becoming the first Green Bay defensive lineman to earn the recognition since DE Vonnie Holliday in 1998...Was part of a defensive-line rotation that helped the Packers lead the NFL in run defense for the first time in franchise history, allowing a team-record 83.3 yards per game...Rookie campaign got off to a slow start when he didn't sign a contract until Aug. 14, which caused him to miss the first two weeks of practice...Sprained his ankle in the preseason finale at Tennessee (Sept. 3), which sidelined him for the first two regular-season games...Was a three-year starter at Boston College who anchored one of the nation's top run defenses in 2008...Made an impact as soon as he arrived at BC, working his way into the defensive-tackle rotation as a true freshman and becoming a full-time starter his sophomore and junior seasons...Had to sit out the 2007 campaign, finding out the night before the season opener he was academically ineligible due to a clerical error by an academic advisor in calculating his credits...Spent that season honing his skills and technique on the scout team, working against the first string on a daily basis...Returned to the field for his senior campaign in 2008 and made it his best year, earning first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference as well as various All-America honors, and concluding with a trip to the Senior Bowl...Leading a defense that ranked seventh in the nation in run defense, allowing 91.2 yards per game on the ground, was tops on his team with 16 tackles for loss, including eight sacks, the first defensive tackle to lead Boston College in sacks in 23 years...For his career, played in 49 games with 37 starts and recorded 105 tackles (59 solo), 12½ sacks, 32½ tackles for loss, one forced fumble and nine passes broken up...Perhaps most impressive is that nearly one-third (32½ of 105, 31 percent) of his tackles were behind the line of scrimmage...Came to Boston College as an all-state performer from Westwood Regional High in Washington Township, N.J., where he grew up the son of two Pentecostal ministers.

2010 SEASON: Started all 16 contests at NT, the only Packer on the defensive line to open every game...Paced the line with a career-high 66 tackles (36 solo), and his

- Last name is pronounced RAH-jee.
- Led all NFL nose tackles with 6½ sacks in 2010, the most recorded by a nose tackle since Minnesota's Ken Clarke posted seven in 1990 (according to STATS LLC).
- With an 18-yard INT return for a touchdown at Chicago in the NFC Championship Game, became the first defensive lineman in franchise playoff history to post an INT for a score and the first NFL defensive lineman to do so in the postseason since Jacksonville's Clyde Simmons (Dec. 28, 1996).
- Named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team in 2009, the first Packers defensive lineman to be selected since DE Vonnie Holliday in 1998.
- A first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 2008, when he became the first Boston College DT to lead his team in sacks (eight) in 23 years.
- Nearly one-third (32½ of 105, 31 percent) of his tackles in college were behind the line of scrimmage.

career-best 6½ sacks led all NFL nose tackles...Four of his sacks came in the final five regular-season contests...Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate and was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team, which salutes unheralded players...Earned All-NFC recognition from Pro Football Weekly...Also started all four playoff games and posted 12 tackles (six solo), a sack, two passes defended and an INT returned for a TD...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): With the Packers down to three healthy defensive linemen, led the group with 58 snaps. Posted three solo stops and a sack, coming up big on back-to-back plays in the second quarter. Stuffed a run by FB Leonard Weaver for no gain, and then followed that up by beating RG Nick Cole to the inside and fighting off C Jamaal Jackson to drop QB Kevin Kolb for a 9-yard loss...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Recorded two tackles (one solo), a sack, a QB hit and a pressure. Threw QB Shaun Hill to the turf for a 9-yard sack on Detroit's first play from scrimmage...At Washington (Oct. 10): Registered six tackles (three solo) and a half-sack, combining with LB Clay Matthews in the second quarter to dump QB Donovan McNabb for a 7-yard loss. Helped the defense limit the Redskins to just 51 rushing yards on 21 carries (2.4 avg.)...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Posted a career-high eight tackles (seven solo) and a pass defended...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): New Jersey native played in his home state for the first time, helping limit RBs LaDainian Tomlinson and Shonn Greene to just 76 yards on 22 carries (3.5 avg.). Was matched up with three-time Pro Bowl C Nick Mangold and forced him into committing two penalties...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Recorded four tackles (two solo), a sack, a QB hit and a pressure. Crashed through a pair of blockers to sack QB Troy Smith for a 6-yard loss in the fourth quarter...At New England (Dec. 19): Turned in one of the finest games of his career in a return to the region where he played as a collegian. Posted six tackles (five solo), a career-best two sacks, two QB hits and a pressure in Sunday night contest. Used an upfield rush to walk Pro Bowl G Logan Mankins back before shedding him to sack QB Tom Brady for a 7-yard loss in the first quarter. On a third-and-9 late in the third quarter, shot between Mankins and C Dan Koppen before overpowering RB Danny Woodhead en route to sacking Brady for a 10-yard loss...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Registered four tackles (three solo), a sack, a QB hit and two pressures. Brought QB Eli Manning down for a 5-yard loss in the third quarter...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted two tackles (one solo), a sack, a QB hit and a pressure, helping limit Pro Bowl RB Michael Turner to just 39 yards on 10 carries (3.9 avg.). Appeared on offense for the first time as part of "Elephant" goal-line formation that also featured an extra lineman, T/G T.J. Lang. Lined up in the backfield next to FB Quinn Johnson and in front of RB John Kuhn, clearing out the right side as he blocked LB Mike Peterson to clear a hole for Kuhn to score on a 1-yard run. Early in the fourth quarter, used an outside rush to blow past LG Justin Blalock and wrapped up QB Matt Ryan, his former college teammate, for a 10-yard sack, his first career sack in the post-season...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Made perhaps the game's biggest play in the fourth quarter, intercepting QB Caleb Hanie and rumbling 18 yards for a TD to give Green Bay a 21-7 lead in eventual 21-14 win. With less than seven minutes remaining, dropped into coverage out of a dime-personnel grouping as CB Sam Shields blitzed from the outside. Stepped in front of a short pass intended for RB Matt Forte and sprinted to the end zone, beating Hanie across the goal line for the TD that proved to be the difference in the game. Became the first defensive lineman in franchise playoff history to post an INT for a score and the first NFL defensive lineman to do so since Jacksonville's Clyde Simmons (Dec. 28, 1996). Also posted three tackles (two solo), four QB hits and two QB pressures...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Played nearly twice as many snaps as any other defensive lineman, appearing on 60 plays. Credited with two assisted tackles, four pressures and a QB hit, as he created a consistent disruption on the middle of the pocket for QB Ben Roethlisberger.

2009: Played in 14 games with one start, seeing most of his time at both end spots and as a down lineman in nickel...Also appeared in team's playoff contest...Named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team...Saw increased time at NT in the final four games of the season with Pickett battling a hamstring injury...Registered 36 tackles (24 solo) and a sack on the season...Part of top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (a franchise-record 83.3 yards per game), the first time in team history that the Packers finished No. 1 in the league against the run...Inactive for first two games of the season, vs. Chicago (Sept. 13) and vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20), due to sprained ankle sustained in preseason finale at Tennessee (Sept. 3)...

Signed with the team Aug. 14 after missing the first two weeks of camp, and practiced for the first time on Aug. 17...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made NFL debut, seeing time at LDE, and posted an assisted tackle...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Saw time at end and as a down lineman, and recorded a season-high four tackles (two solo)...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Combined with Matthews to bring RB Kevin Smith down for a 1-yard loss on a fourth-and-1 run late in the first quarter. Saw limited action before tweaking his ankle in the third quarter, and did not return (coach's decision)...

Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22):

Posted first career sack, bringing down QB Alex Smith for a 1-yard loss early in the second quarter...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Registered three tackles (two solo), including one for a loss. Broke through up the middle to put a huge hit on Smith for a 4-yard loss in the second quarter. Posted his first career pass defended, batting down a QB Matthew Stafford pass later in the quarter...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Saw most significant action of the season at NT with Pickett inactive (hamstring), and posted two solo tackles and a QB pressure...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Didn't start as team opened in nickel, but played his most snaps of the season as he worked at NT and as a down lineman in nickel. Matched season high with four tackles (one solo) and added a QB pressure...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started the first game of his career, opening at NT in place of an injured Pickett (hamstring). Recorded three tackles (two solo), including a stop of RB Julius Jones for a 4-yard loss late in the third quarter...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Registered an assisted tackle...2009 Draft: Selected with the No. 9 overall pick, just the franchise's third top-10 draft selection in the previous 17 years. Became the 15th player drafted by the Packers out of Boston College and the second in four years, joining CB Will Blackmon (2006, D4b). Also joined OL Bob Hyland as a fellow BC product selected with the No. 9 overall pick by the Packers (1967). Became only the second BC defensive player selected in the top 10, joining DE Mike Mamula (1995, Philadelphia, No. 7 overall).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter for the Eagles, posted 105 tackles (59 solo), 12½ sacks, 32½ tackles for loss, and nine passes defended during his career...Nearly one-third of his tackles (32½ of 105, 31 percent) were behind the line of scrimmage...Graduated with a degree in sociology...Senior season (2008): Was named first-team All-ACC, totaling a team-high eight sacks and 16 tackles for loss among 42 total tackles (22 solo) while starting all 13 games...Also batted down five passes...Received several All-American honors – second team by Rivals.com, third team by The Associated Press and Scout.com, and honorable mention from Pro Football Weekly and SI.com...Became the first DT to lead the Eagles in sacks since Mike Ruth in 1985...Received the Mary M. and William H. Sullivan Jr. '37 scholarship...Led a defense that ranked seventh in the nation in run defense, allowing just 91.2 yards per game on the ground...Posted two sacks on back-to-back plays at Wake Forest (Nov. 22)...Finished his career with five tackles (tying his career high of four solo), including three for loss, one sack and one deflected pass in Music City Bowl vs. Vanderbilt (Dec. 31)...Redshirt season (2007): Redshirted due to academic ineligibility...On the eve of the season opener, found out about a clerical error by an academic advisor in the calculation of his credits...Spent the season practicing on the scout team...Junior season (2006): Started all 12 games and received second-team All-ACC honors...Posted 23 tackles (16 solo), 8½ tackles for loss, three sacks, one forced fumble and three batted passes...Sophomore season (2005): Started all 12 games and recorded 27 tackles (20 solo), 6½ tackles for loss, 1½ sacks and one batted pass...Established collegiate high of six tackles (three solo), including one tackle for loss, vs. Wake Forest (Oct. 15)...Freshman season (2004): Worked his way into the DT rotation as a true freshman and posted 13 tackles (six solo) with 1½ tackles for loss.

PERSONAL: Given name Busari Raji Jr. ...Last name is pronounced RAH-jee...Nicknamed B.J. ...Born in New York City...Single...Brother, Corey, played basketball at Boston College and is expected to play professionally overseas...Parents, Mamie and Busari Sr., are Pentecostal ministers...

QUARTERBACK • CALIFORNIA

Seventh NFL Season
Seventh Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 225 • Born: December 2, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 54/47 • Acquired: D1-05

CAREER: Mature, confident quarterback has emerged as one of the best in the league at his position, and capped off his third season as a starter by leading the Packers to a world championship...Became only the fourth QB in NFL history to throw for 300 yards/three TDs in a Super Bowl on his way to winning game MVP honors for Green Bay's 31-25 win over Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLV...Threw for 304 yards and three TDs against the Steelers on 24-of-39 passing, his fourth game with a 110-plus passer rating in five playoff starts...That tied him for third in NFL history behind only Joe Montana (six in 23 starts) and Brett Favre (five in 24 starts)...Threw for 1,094 yards in the 2010 postseason, good for No. 2 in NFL history behind only Arizona's Kurt Warner (1,147 in 2008)...His 10 combined passing TDs in his first three playoff starts set an NFL record, eclipsing the previous mark of nine held by Jeff George, Daryle Lamonica and Dan Marino...Fell just 78 yards short of his third straight 4,000-yard passing season in 2010 despite missing one game (Week 15 at New England) and more than half of another (Week 14 at Detroit) due to a concussion...With 3,922 passing yards last season, brought his three-year total as a starter to 12,394, which ranks No. 2 in NFL history behind only Warner (12,612, 1999-2001) for the most passing yards by a QB in his first three seasons as a starter...Despite missing time due to the concussion, finished in the top 10 in nearly every significant passing category, checking in at No. 3 in passer rating (101.2), No. 7 in yards (3,922), tied for No. 6 in TDs (28) and No. 2 in 25-yard passes (40)...Became the first quarterback in team history to post a 100-plus passer rating in back-to-back seasons (2009-10)...Enters the 2011 season with a career passer rating of 98.4, which ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 1,500 attempts)...Posted a streak of 181 passes without an interception in 2010, the second-longest streak in team history behind only Bart Starr's mark of 294 (1964-65)...In 47 career regular-season starts, has posted 14 games with 300-plus passing yards, 26 without an interception and 25 with a 100-plus passer rating...Threw 70 TD passes in his first 40 starts, a franchise record...Has a career postseason passer rating of 112.6, completing 118-of-174 passes for 1,517 yards, 13 TDs and three INTs...The 67.8 completion percentage in the playoffs ranks No. 2 in NFL history (min. 100 attempts) behind only Erik Kramer (70.0)...Completed 312-of-475 passes during the regular season in 2010, a 65.7 completion percentage that ranks No. 2 in team history behind only Brett Favre's 66.5 mark in 2007...His career completion percentage of 64.4 ranks No. 1 in franchise annals...Finished third among NFL quarterbacks with a career-high 356 rushing yards in 2010 and added four TDs...Became the first QB to post four-plus rushing TDs in three straight seasons since Minnesota's Daunte Culpepper (2000-03) accomplished the feat in four straight seasons and only the second in team history (Tobin Rote, 1954-56)...Since '09, he ranks No. 2 among QBs in rushing yards (672), No. 2 in rushing TDs (nine) and No. 1 in 10-yard runs (30)...Ranks No. 1 among all QBs with a 116.0 passer rating on third down since '09, throwing 25 TDs to just five INTs...In 2009, became the first quarterback in NFL history to surpass 4,000 yards passing in each of his first two seasons as a starter, and his 4,434 yards in '09 nearly broke Green Bay's

AT A GLANCE

- His career passer rating of 98.4 ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 1,500 attempts).
- Became only the fourth QB in NFL history to throw for 300 yards/three TDs in a Super Bowl, taking home game MVP honors for Green Bay's win over Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLV.
- Posted 12,394 passing yards from 2008-10, which ranks No. 2 in league history behind only Kurt Warner (12,612, 1999-2001) for the most passing yards by a QB in his first three seasons as a starter.
- In 47 regular-season starts, has posted 14 games with 300-plus passing yards, 26 without an interception and 25 with a 100-plus passer rating.
- Set an NFL postseason record with 10 TD passes in his first three playoff starts, eclipsing the previous mark of nine held by Jeff George, Daryle Lamonica and Dan Marino.
- Became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons (2008-09) as a starter.
- In 2009, nearly broke the franchise's single-season record with 4,434 passing yards, falling just short of Lynn Dickey's 1984 mark of 4,458.
- Is one of eight quarterbacks drafted by the Packers in the first round and was the first since Rich Campbell, also from California, was selected in 1981; became just the second player from California (Campbell) taken in the first round by Green Bay as well.
- Went 17-5 as a starter at Cal, taking over in Week 5 of the 2003 season.

single-season mark set by Lynn Dickey 25 years prior (4,458)...Capped his second season with a memorable playoff debut, breaking Dickey's single-game postseason mark for passing yards with a career-best 423 in the NFC Wild Card playoff at Arizona (Jan. 10), and tying team playoff records for completions (28) and TD passes (four)...His 1.29 interception percentage in 2009 was the best in the league, and that figure, along with his 103.2 passer rating in '09, were both second best for a single season in team history behind Starr's 1966 campaign (105.0 rating, 1.20 INT percentage)...Has thrown just 31 INTs in his three seasons as a starter, a 2.0 INT percentage that leads the league over that span among QBs with 40-plus starts...Was the league's top-rated quarterback on third down in 2009 with 133.5 rating, featuring league highs of 1,710 yards and 14 touchdowns, with no interceptions...In '09, became first NFL quarterback ever to throw 30 or more TDs, seven or fewer INTs and rush for five or more TDs in the same season...Joined Steve Young (San Francisco, 1998) as the only QBs in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards and 30 TDs and rush for 300 yards and five scores in the same season...Is the only quarterback in franchise history other than Favre to post back-to-back 4,000-yard campaigns.

Took over as the starter in 2008 after waiting patiently for three years for his opportunity behind Favre, and showed why the team had placed its trust in him to lead the Packers' offense...Started every game while playing through a sprained right shoulder suffered in Week 4 at Tampa Bay... Was limited for several weeks in practice because of the injury but never missed a start, taking more than 99 percent of the team's snaps on the season...Secured his position as one of the team leaders for years to come when he signed a long-term contract extension with the Packers on Oct. 31, 2008...Spent his first three seasons learning under Favre as his backup while continuing to grow as a leader in his own right, particularly during the team's offseason program...Participated in Mike McCarthy's offseason QB school three consecutive years while handling his share of reps leading the No. 1 offense during OTAs and other workouts...Posted his most noteworthy performance to that point in relief of Favre in '07, in a showdown of two 10-1 teams in Dallas that saw Favre knocked out of the game with shoulder and elbow injuries...With Packers trailing 27-10, Rodgers directed two touchdown drives to pull the Packers within three points early in the fourth quarter, finishing with noteworthy numbers (18-of-26, 201 yards, one TD, no INTs, 104.8 rating) despite the 37-27 defeat...Rated by Packers personnel as one of the top players in the 2005 NFL Draft, slipped all the way to Green Bay's No. 24 slot...Was the second quarterback taken after Alex Smith (49ers) at No. 1...Was the eighth quarterback drafted by the Packers in the first round and the first since Rich Campbell, also from the University of California, was selected in 1981; became just the second player from Cal (joining Campbell) taken by Green Bay in the first round as well...Passed on his final year of eligibility and was considered one of the top quarterback prospects in the country with numerous football observers rating him as the No. 1 pick in the draft...Was a two-year starter (2003-04) for Cal after playing the 2002 season at Butte College, a junior college near Chico, Calif. ...Finished 17-5 as the Bears' field general, leading the school in 2004 to its best season in more than a half century in just his second campaign at the Division I level...Rodgers' journey to the pros is a compelling story, beginning with scant Division I recruitment after two highly successful prep seasons; he was perhaps not big enough or located in an area not often recruited by the big schools...He opted to enroll at nearby Butte College and promptly led the Roadrunners to a 10-1 record and a No. 2 national JUCO ranking...Along came Cal coach Jeff Tedford, who noticed Rodgers while watching video of a teammate, TE Garrett Cross (who later, too, became a Cal Golden Bear, and then a Green Bay Packer)...After watching him practice and feeling confident in his ability to thrive in Berkeley, Tedford offered Rodgers a scholarship and launched the beginning of two immensely successful seasons...Was a major component of a 2004 Cal campaign that saw the team reach its highest national ranking (No. 4) since 1952, produce its best regular-season record (10-1) in 54 years and record the most conference wins (seven) in 55 years...Took over as the starter in the fifth game of the 2003 season and went on to fire 43 touchdowns with only 13 interceptions over the course of his career and finish with a 150.27 career passing efficiency mark, the best in school history...Authored 10 career passing games of 250-plus yards.

2010 SEASON: Started 15 contests, missing one game with a concussion, and was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl...Completed 312-of-475 passes (65.7 percent) for 3,922 yards, 28 TDs and 11 INTs for a 101.2 rating as he became the first QB in franchise history to post a 100-plus passer rating in back-to-back seasons...The rating ranks third in team annals behind only Starr's mark of 105.0 in 1966 and his own mark of 103.2 in '09...Ranked third in the NFL in passer rating, seventh in yards, tied for sixth in TDs and second in 25-yard passes (40)...Was named FedEx Air NFL Player of the Year and NFC Offensive Player of the Month for December/January and twice earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors (Weeks 13 and 16)...Finished third among NFL QBs with a career-high 356 rushing yards on 64 carries (5.6 avg.), the most by a Green Bay signal-caller since Don Majkowski posted 358 in 1989...Tied for the team lead with four rushing TDs, his third straight campaign with four-plus rushing TDs as he became the first Packers QB since Rote (1954-56) to do so...Ranked No. 1 in the NFL (min. 100 attempts) with a 104.5 passer rating against the blitz, completing 111-of-167 attempts (66.5 percent) for 1,503 yards and 11 TDs with five INTs...Registered a 110-plus passer rating in four consecutive games (Week 9, Weeks 11-13) to become the first NFL QB since the 1970 merger to post four straight 110-plus rating games in back-to-back seasons (Weeks 3-4, 6-7 in 2009)...Spread the ball around, with Greg Jennings (76), Donald Driver (51) and James Jones (50) becoming the first wide-receiver trio in team history to each catch 50 passes in the same season...Posted a 109.8 passer rating in four postseason contests, completing 90-of-132 passes (68.2 percent) for 1,094 yards and nine TDs with two INTs...The yardage total ranks second in NFL history for a single postseason behind only Warner (1,147 in 2008), while the TD total is tied for No. 3 in league annals behind only Montana (1989) and Warner (2008), who each threw 11 TDs...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Connected on 12-of-17 passes for 181 yards and three TDs with a pair of INTs for a 105.3 rating. For the second time in his career, posted a perfect 158.3 passer rating in the first half (at Cleveland, Oct. 25, 2009) as he completed 8-of-9 attempts for 131 yards and three scores...At Washington (Oct. 10): Had 27 completions on a season-high 46 attempts for 293 yards and a TD with one INT. TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG THE GAME'S BEST

Now firmly entrenched in his role as the face of the franchise, QB Aaron Rodgers has gone from solid first-year starter to Pro Bowl starter to Super Bowl MVP and is widely regarded as one of the game's top signal callers.

- For his career, he has completed 1,038-of-1,611 passes (64.4 percent) for 12,723 yards and 87 touchdowns against only 32 interceptions for a 98.4 passer rating. The rating ranks No. 1 in NFL history for the regular season (min. 1,500 attempts).
- Rodgers became the first player in NFL history to post 4,000 yards passing in each of his first two seasons as a starter and fell just shy of the mark in 2010 with 3,922 yards. His three-year total of 12,394 ranks No. 2 in league history by a quarterback in his first three seasons as a starter behind only Kurt Warner's 12,612 yards from 1999-2001.
- He took care of the ball again in his third season as the starter, throwing only 11 interceptions in 475 attempts. His career interception percentage of 2.0 ranks No. 1 in NFL history among QBs with more than 1,500 attempts.
- Although seemingly difficult to envision from a statistical standpoint, Rodgers in fact elevated his play during the team's march through the 2010 postseason. His 1,094 passing yards in the four playoff games was the second-highest total in league history behind Warner's 1,147 in 2008 and his nine TD passes ranked third for a single postseason.
- Rodgers threw three TD passes in both the 2010 Wild Card and Divisional playoff contests, which followed up his four-TD effort the previous year in the 2009 Wild Card playoffs. Those efforts made him the first QB in NFL postseason history to throw for three-plus TDs in his first three playoff starts.
- Additionally, Rodgers posted ratings of 121.4, 122.5 and 136.8 in those games, becoming the first player in NFL postseason history to register 120-plus passer ratings in each of his first three playoff starts. Even more impressively, no quarterback has ever eclipsed the 120-rating plateau in even his first two playoff starts.

by DE Jeremy Jarmon on a throw that was picked off by S LaRon Landry at the Green Bay 39; the turnover led to Washington's game-winning FG...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Missed some practice time during the week due to the concussion, but returned to make his 38th straight start. Finished with 313 yards on 18-of-33 passing with a TD and an INT. Threw a career-long 86-yard TD pass to Jennings late in the first quarter, the longest completion by a Green Bay QB since Favre's 99-yard scoring strike to WR Robert Brooks at Chicago on Sept. 11, 1995. On the final possession of regulation, engineered a 69-yard drive that he capped off with a sneak up the middle on fourth-and-goal from the 1 to send the game into OT...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Registered a 131.5 passer rating on 27-of-34 passing for 289 yards and three TDs. Also rushed for 41 yards on five carries (8.2 avg.), including a season-long 27-yard run on the Packers' first TD drive. Completed 16-of-18 passes to six different receivers for 174 yards and a pair of TDs in the first half as Green Bay built a 28-7 lead...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Threw a regular-season career-high four TD passes, connecting on 22-of-31 passes for 301 yards for a season-high 141.3 passer rating. Three of his scoring throws went to Jennings, while he added a 3-yard TD pass to Jones with five seconds left in the first half...At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Completed 26-of-35 attempts for 344 yards and a TD while adding a season-high 51 rushing yards and a TD on a career-high 12 carries. Completed passes to eight different receivers, with Jennings, Jones and WR Jordy Nelson each posting five grabs. Engineered a 16-play, 90-yard drive late in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 17, operating out of the no-huddle for most of the drive. Found Jones for an 18-yard gain on a shovel pass to convert a fourth-and-1, and four plays later, found Nelson with a 10-yard bullet in the corner of the end zone to even the score...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors as he completed 21-of-30 passes for 298 yards and three TDs for a 135.1 passer rating. It was his fourth straight contest with a 110-plus passer rating as he became the first NFL QB since the 1970 merger to accomplish that feat in consecutive seasons. Didn't throw an INT for the fifth straight game, the first Packers QB to do so since Starr in 1966. Had a pair of TD passes over 55 yards for the first time in his career, connecting with Jennings for a 57-yard score in the second quarter and with Driver on a 61-yard TD in the third quarter that saw the veteran WR break several tackles on his way to the end zone...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Threw for 46 yards on 7-of-11 passing before departing due to a concussion. With just over three minutes remaining in the first half, scrambled for an 18-yard gain to the Green Bay 43 but took hits from S Amari Spivey and LB Landon Johnson, with his head hitting the turf. Took three more snaps before being replaced by Matt Flynn for the remainder of the game. Prior to his exit, saw his career-long streak of 181 attempts without an INT come to an end when a deep pass in the first quarter bounced out of Jennings' arms and into Spivey's. It was his first INT since his final throw of the first half vs. Minnesota in Week 7, a streak of 181 passes that put him at No. 2 in the team record books behind only Starr (294, 1964-65)...At New England (Dec. 19): Inactive due to the concussion, which snapped a streak of 45 consecutive starts that was the fourth-longest streak in the league among active QBs at that point...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Returned to action and turned in one of the best outings of his career on his way to earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Threw for a regular-season career-high 404 yards on 25-of-37 passing while matching his career high with four TD passes. His yardage total was the most by a Green Bay QB in the regular season since Dickey's 418-yard game vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 12, 1980), and it was the first 400-yard, four-TD, zero-INT performance in franchise annals. It also marked the 10th time in his career that he threw three-plus TDs and zero INTs in a game, the most in NFL history by a QB within three seasons of his first start (Warner, nine, 1999-2001). Led the Packers to 515 total yards, the most since the team posted 548 at Oakland (Dec. 22, 2003). Big play was an 80-yard TD pass to Nelson in the second quarter as he became the first Packers QB to throw 80-yard TDs to two different players in a season since Starr in '66...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Led the Packers to his first postseason win with an efficient 18-of-27 outing for 180 yards and three TDs (122.5 rating). With seven TD passes in his first two postseason starts (four in '09 Wild Card game at Arizona), set an NFL record, topping the previous mark of six TDs held by five other QBs...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Had one of the finest playoff games by a QB in NFL playoff history, connecting on 31-of-36 passes for 366 yards and three TDs. His 136.8 passer rating was the highest in league postseason history among QBs with 35-plus attempts. The 31 completions and 86.1 completion percentage were franchise single-game postseason records, and the completion percentage ranks No. 1 in NFL history for QBs with 35-plus attempts. Scored on a 7-yard TD run and consistently avoided pressure to throw with accuracy outside the pocket. Became the first QB in NFL playoff history to throw for 350 yards, three TDs, zero INTs and rush for a TD in a game. Jennings, Nelson, Driver and Jones all had at least 75 yards receiving, the first four in NFL postseason history to do so. Completed all 10 of his third-down passing attempts for 151 yards. Helped lead the Packers to a franchise postseason-record 48 points. Combined with the 45-point outing at Arizona in the 2009 Wild Card contest, the Packers became the first team in NFL history to record 45 points in a game in consecutive postseasons. Those two games are the highest-scoring performances in team playoff annals. His three TD passes gave him 10 in his first three postseason starts, the most in NFL history as he surpassed George, Lamonica and Marino (nine each). Along with his 121.4 rating at Arizona in the '09 playoffs and his 122.5 rating at Philadelphia the week before, became the first QB in NFL history to register a 120-plus rating in each of his first three postseason starts. Also became the first QB in NFL postseason history to throw for three-plus TDs in each of his first three playoff starts...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Completed 17-of-30 passes for 244 yards, including seven completions of 20-plus yards. Rushed for 39 yards on seven carries (5.6 avg.), including a 1-yard TD on a bootleg run on the opening series. Was picked off twice in the contest, but made one of the key plays in the game following one of the INTs. Was intercepted by LB Brian Urlacher on third-and-goal at the Chicago 6 in the third quarter, but tripped up Urlacher, who otherwise had an open field, with a sliding tackle after a 39-yard return. Green Bay's defense would force a punt three plays later...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Closed out his torrid postseason by earning Super Bowl MVP honors with a masterful performance in the world championship game. Completed 24-of-39 passes for 304 yards and three TDs. Joined Montana, Young and Jake Delhomme as the only QBs to throw for 300 yards and three scores in a Super Bowl. First TD pass came on a perfectly placed throw to Nelson for a 29-yard score. Threaded a pass into the hands of Jennings for a 21-yard TD in the second quarter with S Ryan Clark just missing the ball and S Troy Polamalu's hard shot from behind failing to knock it free from the WR's arms. Found Jennings once more in the back right corner of the end zone in the third quarter to extend the lead to 28-17. Perhaps his best throw of the game came on the Packers' clock-killing drive late in the fourth quarter. On third-and-10 from the Green Bay 25, fired the ball to Jennings down the seam just beyond the outstretched arms of CB Ike Taylor as he hit the WR in stride for a 31-yard gain and a new set of downs. The drive burned 5:19 off the clock and set up a 23-yard Mason Crosby FG to extend the lead to 31-25, forcing Pittsburgh to drive for a TD instead of a game-tying FG.

2009 SEASON: Selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career...Started every game for the second straight season and completed 350-of-541 passes (64.7 percent) for 4,434 yards, 30 TDs and seven INTs for a 103.2 rating, which ranked fourth in the NFL and second in team history behind Starr's 105.0 in 1966...Ranked fourth in the league in passing yards, fourth in TD passes and first in INT percentage (1.29), the latter mark second in team history to Starr's 1.20 in '66 as Rodgers posted 12 games without an INT to break Starr's franchise mark of 11 in 1964...Nearly broke Dickey's single-season team record for passing yards set in 1984 (4,458) while joining Favre (1998-99) as the only QBs in team history to post back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons and joining Dickey and Favre as the only Green Bay QBs to hit 30 TDs in one season...Had a 133.5 rating on third down, which led the league and was the highest since Warner (137.3) in 1999; third-down production included an NFL-best 14 TDs, no INTs, and a league-high 1,710 yards, the most yards by an NFL QB since the stat began to be kept in 1991...Tied for NFL lead (with Donovan McNabb and Tony Romo) with 17 completions of 40-plus yards...Was tied for second in the league (with Romo and Drew Brees) with 39 completions of 25-plus yards, trailing only Eli Manning's 42...Rushed for 316 yards and five TDs on 58 carries (5.4 avg.), the second-most yards by any QB in 2009 (David Garrard, 323) and the most runs of 10-plus yards with 14...His five rushing TDs were the most since Majkowski posted the same number in '89...Became the first QB in NFL history to throw 30 or more TDs, seven or fewer INTs, and rush for five TDs in the same season...Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Month honors for October...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Completed 17-of-28 passes for 184 yards, with his lone TD a game-winning 50-yarder to Jennings on a post route with just over a minute remaining...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Along with 261 yards on 21-of-39 passing, rushed for 43 yards on four carries, including three runs of 10-plus yards.

His 43 yards were the most by a Packers QB since Favre posted 49 on the ground on Dec. 20, 1998, vs. Tennessee...

At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Completed 137-of-223 passes for 269 yards, two TDs (plus a rushing TD) and no INTs for a 126.9 rating, the third-highest rating of his career. Posted three completions of 40-plus yards, a 46-yarder to Driver and passes of 50 and 53 yards to Jennings. Added 38 rushing yards to become first Packers QB since Majkowski (Sept. 23-Sept. 30, 1990) to rush for 35-plus yards in consecutive games...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Threw for a regular-season career-high 384 yards on 26-of-37 passing for a 110.6 rating. Connected with TE Jermichael Finley on a 62-yard TD pass in the first quarter and on a 33-yard TD with Nelson in the fourth. Was intercepted for the first time on the season when CB Antoine Winfield picked off his pass intended for Jennings on the right sideline at the Minnesota 23 early in the second quarter; the INT snapped a career-best streak of 159 passing attempts without one, then the third longest in team history behind Starr (294 in 1964-65) and Favre (163 in 2001-02)...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Completed 29-of-37 passes for 358 yards, two TDs and one INT for a 113.7 rating, giving him two career firsts – back-to-back games with 350-plus yards and three straight contests with a 110.0 rating or better. His 78.3 completion percentage was the second-best single-game performance in team history (min. 35 attempts), trailing only Favre's 79.5 percent on 31-of-39 passing at Minnesota on Nov. 21, 1998...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Completed 15-of-20 passes for 246 yards, three TDs and no INTs for a 155.4 passer rating, the best single-game rating in franchise history (min. 20 attempts). TDs went to TE Spencer Havner (45 yards), Driver (71 yards) and Jones (5 yards), and his fourth straight game with a 110.0-plus passer rating made him only the second QB in team history to accomplish the feat in the same season (Starr, Sept. 18-Oct. 9, 1966)...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Connected on 26-of-41 attempts for 287 yards, three TDs (two to Havner, one to Jennings) and no INTs for a 108.5 rating. Also posted a career-high 52 yards rushing on five attempts (10.4 avg.), including a career-long 35-yarder down the right sideline to the Minnesota 15 that set up the Jennings TD pass three plays later...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Posted 344 yards passing and a career-high 32 completions on 44 attempts with two TDs and no INTs for a 108.0 rating. Threw for 274 yards in the first half alone, his career-high yardage mark for any half in the regular season. Second-quarter scores went to Jennings on 64-yard catch-and-run over the middle and to Nelson on 7-yard hitch. Added a 2-yard sneak on third-and-1 at midfield with just over two minutes remaining to clinch the win...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Threw for 348 yards and three TDs on 28-of-39 passing for a 124.7 rating. Completed four passes of 25-plus yards, including throws of 68 and 45 yards to Driver that set up two of the scores...Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Connected on 26-of-40 passes for 263 yards and three TDs (two to Finley) with two INTs. Set up 8-yard TD strike to Driver just before halftime with 23-yard scramble up the middle...At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Threw for 383 yards and three TDs with no INTs on 26-of-48 passing for a 101.3 rating. The 383 yards were just one yard shy of his career high in Week 4 at Minnesota, and the 48 attempts without an INT were most in a single game in team history. Connected on career-long pass when he found Jennings over the middle for an 83-yard TD early in the first quarter, adding scoring tosses of 11 yards to Finley and 24 yards to Jones, plus a career-long 15-yard TD run of his own. On third down, was 8-of-13 for 217 yards and three TDs for 145.0 rating...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Completed 12-of-23 passes for 237 yards, a TD and no INTs for a 103.0 rating in three quarters of play as the Packers clinched a playoff berth. Score came on 13-yard screen to RB Brandon Jackson. Added big gains of 40 and 38 yards to Jennings and 38 yards to Finley...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Threw for 235 yards and a TD on 21-of-26 passing in three quarters of play. His 80.8 completion percentage was a career high for a game with 25 or more attempts...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted team playoff-record 423 yards and four TDs on 28-of-42 passing with one INT for a 121.4 rating. The four TD passes matched a franchise playoff mark held by Starr (at Dallas, Jan. 1, 1967) and Dickey (vs. St. Louis, Jan. 8, 1983). The yardage total is tied for No. 5 in NFL playoff history, and his 319 yards passing after halftime set an NFL playoff record, eclipsing the previous mark of 274 yards set by Miami's Dan Marino (at Buffalo, Dec. 30, 1995). Became one of only six QBs in the Super Bowl era to throw for 400 yards/4 TDs in a postseason game, and one of only two signal callers to post 400 yards/4 TDs and a rushing TD in a playoff game (Peyton Manning, vs. Denver, Jan. 9, 2005). Completed six passes of 25-plus yards as he helped team come back from 21-point deficit in the second half to tie the game, with the longest score coming on 30-yarder to Jones on fourth-and-5 early in the fourth quarter...Pro Bowl (Jan. 31): Started for the NFC and completed 15-of-19 passes for 197 yards with two TDs and no INTs for 145.0 rating. Scoring tosses went to Carolina WR Steve Smith (48 yards) and Philadelphia WR DeSean Jackson (7 yards) in leading NFC to 17-14 lead in second quarter of eventual 41-34 defeat.

2008: Becoming the first QB other than Favre to start a Packers game since Majkowski (Sept. 20, 1992), started all 16 games and ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL with a 93.8 passer rating...Completed 341-of-536 passes (63.6 percent) for 4,038 yards, 28 TDs and 13 INTs...Under center for 1,039-of-1,049 (99.1 percent) offensive plays...Ranked fourth in the league in both TD passes and passing yards...Became just the fourth QB in team history to surpass 4,000 yards in one season (Favre, Dickey, Majkowski) and only the second in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards in the first season that he started a game (Warner, St. Louis, 1999)...Third in the NFL with a 105.8 passer rating on third down, including 14 TDs, which trailed only Philip Rivers' 15...Completed 16 passes of 40-plus yards, tied for first in the NFL with Drew Brees...Tied for fifth in the league with 48 completions of 20-plus yards...Third on the team with 207 rushing yards on 56 carries (3.7 avg.) and tied for the team lead with four rushing TDs...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started first NFL game and completed 18-of-22 passes for 178 yards and a TD with no INTs. His 81.8 completion percentage ranks as the second-best mark in league history by a QB in his first start (min. 20 attempts), behind only former Jacksonville QB Rob Johnson's 83.3 percentage (20-of-24) in 1997. Scored first career rushing TD on 1-yard plunge in the fourth quarter to give Green Bay a 24-12 lead...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted first 300-yard passing day in NFL and threw three TD passes. Connected on 24-of-38 passes for 328 yards...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Sprained his right shoulder in third quarter on 7-yard scramble as he dove to extend the ball for a first down. On next series, hit Jennings for a 48-yard TD pass, but then sat out the following series with the injury. Returned for one more series late in the fourth quarter before exiting the game for good. Finished the afternoon 14-of-27 for 165 yards and two TDs, but had a string of 157 consecutive passes without an INT snapped, the fourth-longest streak in team history...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started despite being limited all week in practice as he recovered from sprained right shoulder. Recorded the second 300-yard passing game of his pro career as he connected on 25-of-37 passes for 313 yards and three TDs...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Completed 22-of-41 passes for 314 yards, one TD and one INT, the third 300-yard passing game of his career. Connected on a career-high six passes of 20-plus yards...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Connected on 29-of-45 passes for 298 yards and three TDs. Completed passes to nine different players, which tied a season high...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Completed 21-of-31 passes for 308 yards and three TDs for a season-high 132.2 passer rating, and matched season best with three TD passes. With Lions having just scored a TD to narrow Green Bay's lead to 24-21, connected on season-long pass when he found Driver deep down the right sideline midway through the fourth quarter for a 71-yard score. The pass also put him over the 4,000-yard mark for the season.

2007: Serving as Favre's backup for the third straight season, appeared in two regular-season games and completed 20-of-28 passes (71.4 percent) for 218 yards with one TD and no INTs for a 106.0 rating, plus seven rushes for 29 yards...Put together his best preseason as a pro, completing 37-of-59 passes (62.7 percent) with three TDs in four appearances...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Saw his first action of the regular season, entering with 3:56 remaining and completing both of his passes for 17 yards, including a 15-yarder to Jones on his first throw...At Dallas (Nov. 29): Was inserted into the game in the second quarter after Favre suffered elbow and shoulder injuries. Completed 18-of-26 passes for 201 yards and one TD for a 104.8 passer rating, plus had five rushes for 30 yards. On the Packers' final drive of the first half, found Jennings for a 43-yard catch-and-run and connected with him again on an 11-yard TD (Rodgers' first TD pass as a pro). In the third quarter, led a 12-play, 69-yard drive that finished with a 1-yard Ryan Grant TD plunge; on the series, completed all six passes for 61 yards, including throws of 22 and 17 yards. In the fourth, led the team's final scoring drive that culminated in a 52-yard Crosby FG...Injured a hamstring the following week in practice and was inactive for the final four regular-season games before recovering to serve as Favre's backup in the postseason...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Played the final series of playoff game, but did not attempt a pass.

2006: Served as the No. 2 QB for the team's first 10 games, playing in two contests...Dressed but did not play in the other eight games...In the preseason, served as the No. 2 QB for all four games...Completed 22-of-38 passes for 323 yards and three TDs, including an 85-yard pass to Jennings, vs. Atlanta (Aug. 19)...Before sustaining a season-ending broken foot in Week 11, had taken 36 regular-season offensive snaps and completed 6-of-15 passes (40.0 percent) for 46 yards, with no TDs or INTs, for a 48.2 rating...At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Made his season debut in place of an injured Favre (neck/head); nearly engineered a TD drive on the last series of the game, completing 2-of-3 passes for 14 yards, but the Packers were held out of the end zone on a goal-line stand...Vs. New England (Nov. 19): Saw the most extensive action of his career to date when he was inserted into the lineup for an injured Favre (elbow), and played the last two offensive snaps of the first half and the entire second half. Completed 4-of-12 passes and had a 6-yard scramble on a third-and-6. Played the second half with a foot injury he sustained toward the start of the third quarter; post-game tests revealed a fracture that caused him to miss the rest of the season. Placed on injured reserve Nov. 21.

2005: Saw action in three games as a rookie; he was active but did not play in the 13 other contests...Completed 9-of-16 attempts (56.3 percent) for 65 yards, with one INT, and a 39.8 passer rating...Also credited with two rushes for 7 yards, including a kneel-down on the season's final snap, after Favre was given a curtain call...Got an extended look in the preseason opener vs. San Diego (Aug. 11), replacing Favre; endured a malfunctioning helmet radio, four offensive penalties and two sacks, and as a result the coaching staff didn't get a great look at him in his rainy preseason debut...Struggled as the No. 2 QB the following week at Buffalo (Aug. 20), going 4-for-9, for 21 yards, with one sack and an INT; with his two best plays were carries (22, 9 yards)...Despite a rough preseason, including another INT vs. New England (Aug. 26), Favre said his 1991 rookie debut with Atlanta was worse...Ended preseason on a good note, though, at Tennessee (Sept. 1); orchestrated an important scoring drive, converting two third downs, before hitting TE Ben Steele on a 12-yard TD...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Made his NFL debut in 52-3 win. Entered on the Packers' initial series of the fourth quarter and completed his lone attempt, his first career pass, to FB Vonta Leach for no gain...At Baltimore (Dec. 19): Got his most extensive playing time in 48-3 Monday night loss. Came off the bench toward the end of the third quarter and finished the contest, going 8-for-15 with one INT, plus one carry for 8 yards...Vs. Seattle (Jan. 1): Took the game's final kneel-down, his only play, after replacing Favre, who had started the drive...2005 Draft: Selected by the Packers in the first round with the No. 24 overall pick. Was the second QB taken after Alex Smith (49ers) at No. 1, the eighth QB drafted by the Packers in the first round and the first since Campbell, also from Cal, in 1981. Also joined Campbell as the only Cal players drafted by Green Bay in round one.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter and letterman at California, went 424-for-665 (63.8 percent) for 5,469 yards, with 43 TDs and 13 INTs while playing in 25 games with 22 starts...His 150.3 career passer rating and 1.95 INT percentage are both tops in school history...Threw for 250-plus yards 10 times and had 160 rushes for 336 yards and eight TDs...Majorred in American Studies...Junior season (2004): Started all 12 games for the Bears, including the Holiday Bowl vs. Texas Tech (Dec. 30)...Finished with 209 completions in 316 attempts (66.1 percent) for 2,566 yards and 24 TDs, with eight INTs...Led an offense that ranked first in the conference in passing efficiency (167.39, fourth nationally), total offense (494.7 ypg, fifth), scoring offense (37.3 ppg, sixth) and rushing offense (260 ypg, fifth)...Offense was second-highest scoring in team history...Named first-team All-Pacific-10, and received honorable mention All-America honors from The Associated Press, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Sports Illustrated.com...Also was a second-team Pac-10 All-Academic choice...Was one of 15 players to receive letters from the Heisman Trophy Committee in November, and was named to the watch lists for the Walter Camp Foundation Player of the Year Award, the Maxwell Award and the Davey O'Brien Award...Served as team co-captain and was chosen as Cal's co-Offensive MVP...Finished second in the conference in passing efficiency (154.4), behind Southern California's Matt Leinart (now with Arizona); the efficiency mark ranked eighth among all NCAA passers in 2004 and was the second-best achievement in Cal annals (164.5, Dave Barr, 1993)...Fired three or more TDs four times on the season...Completed a single-game school-record 23 consecutive passes at USC (Oct. 9) to tie an NCAA mark, running his school-record stride to 26 straight completions dating back to previous game at Oregon State (Oct. 2). Finished USC game 29-of-34 for 85.3 percent, another school record...Sophomore season (2003): Upon transferring from Butte College, played in three of the Golden Bears' first four games before taking over as the starter in Game 5 at Illinois (Sept. 20), leading Cal to a 7-3 record as a starter...Authored one of the finest quarterback seasons of any sophomore in Pac-10 history, throwing for 2,903 yards and 19 TDs, with only five INTs, on 215-of-349 passing (61.6 percent)...The passing yardage total ranked second on Cal's all-time list (now third) and his INT percentage of 1.43 set a school record (breaking old mark of 1.69 set by Gary Graumann in 1977)...Additionally, his passer efficiency rating (146.6) ranks fourth in school annals, and with 210 yards rushing, his 3,113 total yards ranks second...Registered 300 or more yards through the air five times, tying Pat Barnes' school record...Authored two major INT-free streaks: the first came as he started his Cal career with 98 straight passes without an INT, the second came later in the season as he threw 105 times without a pick, ending at Oregon (Nov. 8)...Over the last five games of the season, completed 68.2 percent of his passes (105 of 154) for 1,596 yards (319.1 ypg), 12 TDs and two INTs...Was clutch in the school's final two contests, throwing for 348 yards vs. Washington (Nov. 15) and 359 at Stanford (Nov. 22), both must-wins in order for Cal to clinch its first bowl berth since 1996...In the Stanford contest, registered 414 yards of total offense (359 passing, 55 rushing) to record the highest total in the 106-year history of the "Big Game"; it was the fourth-highest total offense output in team history...Stretched streak of 300-yard passing games to three in Insight Bowl vs. Virginia Tech (Dec. 26), throwing for collegiate-high 394 in 52-49 win and putting up 424 yards of total offense, third best in school annals...Served as one of two offensive team captains...Freshman season (2002): During his one year at Butte College, near Chico, Calif., led the Roadrunners to a 10-1 record, a NorCal Conference championship and a No. 2 national ranking...Passed for 2,408 yards and 28 TDs, with only four INTs, on 164 completions in 265 attempts (61.9 percent)...Also carried 101 times for 294 yards and seven TDs...Earned third-team All-America mention from J.C. Grid-Wire, in addition to NorCal Conference and region MVP honors...Voted MVP in Holiday Bowl victory over San Joaquin Delta (Junior College) with a 251-yard, two-TD pass performance...SuperPrep listed him in JuCo 100, ranking him 41st among all junior college players nationally.

CORNERBACK • MIAMI

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 184 • Born: December 8, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 14/6 • Acquired: FA-10

CAREER: Speedster who made a major impact as a non-drafted rookie, earning the defense's nickel cornerback job despite playing the position only one year in college...With the exception of two missed games due to injury, held the nickel job throughout the regular season and playoffs, recording two interceptions in the regular season and two more in the NFC Championship at Chicago, the final one sealing the conference title in the game's final minute and sending the Packers to the Super Bowl...Also contributed as a return man and punt-team gunner, utilizing the blazing speed that made him a productive receiver and special teamer his first three seasons at Miami...Made the transition to cornerback as a senior and progressed rapidly as a rookie under the tutelage of position coach Joe Whitt Jr., who considered him a potential high draft pick based on raw talent alone...Was awarded with Miami's Most Improved Player Award as a senior and was voted the team's Special Teams Player of the Year as a junior after bursting on the scene as a collegian with the most pass receptions by a Hurricane freshman since Reggie Wayne nine years prior.

2010 SEASON: Played in 14 games with six starts, missing two early-season games with a calf injury...Also played in all four postseason games with two starts...In the regular season, posted 27 tackles (22 solo) with two INTs and nine passes defended, and returned 21 kickoffs for 452 yards (21.5 avg.) with a long of 49...Added 13 tackles (eight solo) with two INTs, one sack a forced fumble and five passes defended in the playoffs...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Started in first NFL game at nickel CB and teamed with S Morgan Burnett to become the first Packers rookie DB tandem to open the season since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Returned to the lineup after missing previous two games with a calf injury and had four tackles (three solo) and a pass defended...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Notched his first INT with a leaping, one-handed grab of QB Jon Kitna's deep sideline throw intended for WR Miles Austin. Also took over as kickoff returner to open the second half and posted a season-long 49-yard return, starting from 6 yards deep in the end zone...At New England (Dec. 19): Had a 45-yard kickoff return among six attempts for 128 yards total (21.3 avg.)...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Started as the Packers opened in nickel and recorded three tackles (all solo) and two passes defended, one a superb play on a deep ball to WR Jeremy Maclin that he knocked away just as the ball hit the receiver's hands...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Turned in his biggest performance of the year with four tackles (all solo), a sack, a forced fumble and two INTs. Used as a surprise blitzer, sacked QB Jay Cutler for an 8-yard loss late in the first half, forcing a fumble that Bears RB Matt Forte recovered. Later, in the fourth quarter, came on a blitz from QB Caleb Hanie's blind side, forcing a bad throw that was intercepted and returned for a TD by NT B.J. Raji. His two INTs came at nearly the same spot on the field, the first a leaping pick on Cutler's deep ball to WR Johnny Knox just before halftime, keeping the Bears scoreless at the time. The second came with Hanie facing fourth-and-5 from the Green Bay 29, as Shields undercut Knox for the game-clinching INT with 37 seconds left. Became

- As a non-drafted free agent, earned nickel cornerback job as a rookie despite playing defensive back just one season in college.
- Matched his regular-season total with two interceptions in the NFC Championship at Chicago, becoming just the fifth player in franchise history with two interceptions in a playoff game.
- Also in that game, became the first NFL rookie (since 1982) to record two INTs and a sack in a postseason contest.
- Played primarily wide receiver and special teams his first three seasons at Miami.

just the fifth player in franchise history to record two INTs in a playoff game, and became the first NFL rookie (since 1982, when sacks became official) to record two INTs and a sack in a postseason contest...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Had two tackles (one solo) but sustained a shoulder injury during the second quarter and was used sparingly the rest of the way...2010 Draft: Signed by Green Bay as a non-drafted free agent on April 30.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman for the Hurricanes who played his first three seasons at WR before moving to CB for his senior campaign...Also showed his talents as a return man and special-teams player...Caught 75 passes for 971 yards (12.9 avg.) and seven TDs as a receiver in his career...Earned his degree in liberal arts and ran track one year, as a sophomore...Senior season (2009): Started 10 of 12 games at CB and ranked sixth on the team with 41 tackles...Registered six tackles in win vs. Georgia Tech (Sept. 17)...Posted career-high seven tackles, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble at Wake Forest (Oct. 31)...Had an 84-yard kickoff return vs. Wisconsin (Dec. 29) in the Champs Sports Bowl that set up Miami's first TD...Was awarded the Nick Chickillo Most Improved Player Award at the team's annual awards banquet...Junior season (2008): Played in all 13 games as either a WR or a gunner on special teams...Voted UM's Special Teams Player of the Year...Posted 11 receptions for 124 yards (11.3 avg.)...Made a season-high three catches for 32 yards at Virginia (Nov. 1), including a crucial third-down catch for 13 yards that kept Miami's game-tying 95-yard drive alive in the OT win...Sophomore season (2007): Started five of the 10 games he played in, posting 27 receptions for 346 yards (12.8 avg.) and three TDs...Posted career-high 117 receiving yards on six catches, including a 51-yard grab, vs. Texas A&M (Sept. 20)...Led the team with five receptions for 80 yards and a TD at North Carolina (Oct. 6)...Hauled in a team-best six receptions for 81 yards at Virginia Tech (Nov. 17)...Freshman season (2006): Played in all 13 games with seven starts as a true freshman in 2006...Named honorable mention Freshman All-America by Sporting News...Posted 37 receptions (third on the team) for 501 yards (second) and four TDs (tied for team lead)...His 37 catches were the most by a Miami true freshman since Reggie Wayne caught 48 passes in 1997...Made his first start in a three-WR formation at Louisville (Sept. 16) and caught three passes for 63 yards, including a 49-yarder... Recorded his first career TD when he hauled in a 37-yard TD pass from S Lovon Ponder on a trick play vs. North Carolina (Oct. 7)...Caught six passes for 88 yards and two TDs at Duke (Oct. 21), the only multi-TD game of his career...Started in the MPC Computers Bowl vs. Nevada (Dec. 31) and had his first 100-yard game as a Hurricane, leading the team with four receptions for 101 yards. Caught a 78-yard TD pass that proved to be the winning score in the bowl game and marked the team's longest pass of the season...Was selected to the 2006 Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Football Team.

PERSONAL: Given name Samuel George Shields III... Born in Sarasota, Fla. ...Single...Has a 4-year-old daughter, Samyla...High school: One of the nation's top recruits at WR coming out of Booker High in Sarasota, Fla., he was rated the No. 17 WR by Rivals.com and No. 9 by ESPN.com...Caught 67 passes for 1,201 yards (17.9 avg.) and 22 TDs as a senior, leading his school to the Class 3A state championship game...Of his 67 receptions, 44 went for either TDs or first downs...Also returned two punts for TDs and averaged 44 yards per kickoff return...Was rated No. 16 on the Orlando Sentinel Florida Top 100 list, and was ranked the No. 5 WR on the Florida Times-Union Super 75...Also lettered twice in baseball and track and field...Community involvement: Participated in the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon, which raises money for a cancer-related charity...Hobbies/interests: Lists Michael Jordan as his favorite athlete and House of Payne as his favorite TV show...Residence: Miami.

Fourth NFL Season
Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 318 • Born: June 16, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 43/34 • Acquired: D4B-08

CAREER: Strong, stout lineman enters his fourth season as one of the top players at his position in the league...In his second season as a starter in 2010, was named the Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and was also selected as a Pro Bowl alternate...According to STATS LLC, did not allow a sack all season and was flagged for holding only one time...Is the only Packer on either side of the ball to not miss a snap over the past two seasons...Is the only member of the offensive line to start every game at the same spot over the past two seasons, opening all 32 contests at right guard...Known best for his run-blocking, was a key cog in RB Ryan Grant's career-best 1,253-yard season in 2009, the sixth-best single-season rushing output in team history...Likely would have started at RG as a rookie in 2008 if not for a preseason knee injury, which limited him to 11 games of duty primarily on extra points and field goals...Did start twice as a rookie, once at Tennessee in Week 9 when the line was forced to shuffle due to T Chad Clifton's illness, and again in the regular-season finale...Came to Green Bay as a fourth-round draft pick out of Central Florida, where he was part of a remarkable turnaround...Played for an 0-11 team as a true freshman and capped his career by helping lead the Golden Knights to their first conference championship in school history as a senior with a 7-1 record in conference (10-4 overall)...Played in 50 games with 43 starts during his collegiate career, joining classmate Keith Shologan as the only players in the program's history to appear in 50 career games...Blocked for RB Kevin Smith, a third-round choice by Detroit, as he rushed for 2,567 yards in 2007, just 62 yards short of breaking Barry Sanders' NCAA single-season rushing record (2,628) set in 1988...Named first-team All-Conference USA by the league's coaches and media in 2007...Showed his versatility at UCF by starting at both guard spots and at right tackle during his career...Teammate of former Packers S Atari Bigby for one season and Dolphins WR Brandon Marshall for two seasons at UCF.

2010 SEASON: Started all 16 games as well as all four postseason contests at RG...Named NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate...Part of a unit that ranked No. 9 in the NFL in overall offense and No. 5 in the league in passing...According to STATS LLC, did not allow a sack all season and was flagged for holding only one time...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Part of a protection unit that did not allow a sack as the offense engineered six scoring drives in a 34-7 win...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Part of a line that did not allow a sack for the second straight week and also saw limited action as a defensive lineman in goal-line situations for the first time in his career...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Was often matched up with DT Ndamukong Suh, the 2010 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year, and limited him to just three tackles on the afternoon...Vs. Washington (Oct. 10): Blocked for team's season-high 157 yards on just 17 carries (9.2 avg.), the first time in franchise history that the Packers rushed for more than 150 yards on fewer than 20 attempts in a regular-season game. On the first play of the team's

- Last name is pronounced SITT-en.
- Was named 2010 Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.
- Is the only Packer on either side of the ball to not miss a snap over the past two seasons.
- Was slated to start at right guard as a rookie if not for a preseason knee injury.
- Capped off college career by helping lead Central Florida to its first conference championship in school history, and helped the Knights' offense set single-season school records for points (501) and rushing yards (3,287) as a senior.

second possession, teamed with RT Bryan Bulaga to block DE Adam Carriker, sealing off the left side of the defensive front to provide a crease for RB Brandon Jackson to break a career-long 71 yard run. The run was the longest by a Green Bay RB since DeShawn Wynn's 73-yard TD vs. Detroit (Dec. 28, 2008)...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Helped the offense put up 31 points and 20 first downs. Had a memorable play in the second half when his helmet was knocked off by DT Letroy Guion in pass protection. Sustained the block as QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings downfield for what the receiver turned into a 46-yard TD that put the Packers ahead 24-3...At New England (Dec. 19): Part of a line that helped the Packers post 143 yards on 38 carries and control the clock for a season-high 40:48...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Against a Giants defense that entered the game ranked No. 2 in the NFL, part of an offense that recorded 27 first downs and 515 yards. The yardage total was the most by the Packers since a 548-yard outing at Oakland (Dec. 22, 2003)...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Blocked for RB James Starks, who posted 123 yards on 23 carries (5.3 avg.), the most by a rookie in franchise postseason history...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Part of a stellar day for the offense with the unit recording 28 first downs and 442 net yards...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Helped provide a consistent pocket and time for Rodgers to throw for 304 yards and three TDs en route to the QB earning Super Bowl MVP honors. On Rodgers' game-long 38-yard completion to WR Jordy Nelson early in the fourth quarter, stood up to a bull rush from Pro Bowl LB LaMarr Woodley, who blitzed to the inside. The play set up an 8-yard TD pass from Rodgers to Jennings two plays later to extend Green Bay's lead to 28-17.

2009: Started all 16 games at RG, the only Packers offensive lineman to open every game at one spot...Part of line that blocked for Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total yards...Won starting RG position in training camp...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense. Part of line that protected Rodgers on his way to 358 passing yards, giving him back-to-back games with 350-plus yards for the first time in his career...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers all afternoon and blocked for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Team's 202 yards on the ground was also a season best...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Helped block for Packers' 170 rushing yards on 32 carries (5.3 avg.), the team's second-best yardage output on the season...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Blocked for Grant's 79 yards on 19 carries (4.2 avg.) and helped limit Pro Bowl NT Jay Ratliff to two tackles and no sacks...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Helped offense put up season-best 484 total yards, including 129 yards on 21 carries (6.1 avg.) from Grant. Part of line that did not allow any sacks of Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards in the opening half, his career high for any half in the regular season...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Helped clear the way for Grant's 137 yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.); an average that was Grant's career high for a game with at least 20 carries...Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and helped block for team's 153 rushing yards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.). It was the first time the Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England. Also helped protect Rodgers as he was sacked only one time. Threw key block down the field on S Josh Wilson on screen pass in first quarter that RB Brandon Jackson took for a 13-yard TD, and got to the second level to block LB Leroy Hill on Grant's 56-yard TD run in the second quarter...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and helped offense post team playoff-record 493 total yards, including franchise-best 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

2008: Played in 11 games with two starts...Inactive for first three games due to sprained knee sustained in preseason at Denver (Aug. 22)...Aside from his two starts, primarily saw time on PATs and FGs, along with some spot duty at RG...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Made NFL debut, seeing time on PATs and FGs...At Tennessee

(Nov. 2): Started first career NFL game, opening at RG with the offensive line shuffling due to Clifton's absence (illness)...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Came in at RG late in the second quarter when C Scott Wells left with a concussion and Jason Spitz moved over to Wells' spot. Helped block for Jackson's season-high 80 yards on 11 carries...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Started at RG with Spitz shifting over to LG and Daryn Colledge starting at RT. Blocked for team's season-high 211 rushing yards, and helped pave the way for RBs Grant and Wynn to each post 106 yards rushing, only the second time since 1985 that a Packers RB tandem each rushed for 100-plus yards in the same game...2008 Draft: Selected by the Packers with their second fourth-round selection (135th overall, 22nd OL), a free agency compensatory pick. Became only the second draft pick from Central Florida in franchise history, joining WR Charles Lee, who was taken in the seventh round in 2000. Only the second offensive lineman from UCF ever drafted, joining C Mike Mabry, selected in the seventh round by Baltimore in 2003.

COLLEGE: Played in 50 games with 43 starts, joining classmate Shologan as the only players in the program's history to appear in 50 career games...Majorled in criminal justice...Senior season (2007): Started all 14 games and named first-team All-Conference USA by the league's coaches and media...Capped off career by helping to lead UCF to its first conference championship in school history...Helped the Knights' offense set school records for points (501) and rushing yards (3,287) in a season...Blocked for Smith as he recorded the second-best rushing yardage total in NCAA history with 2,567 yards, trailing only Sanders' 2,628 yards in 1988...Smith set a major college record with 450 rushing attempts, topping the mark of 405 carries by Marcus Allen at Southern California in 1981...Was part of a line that helped Smith post 100-yard games 13 times on the year, including six 200-plus-yard games...Started games at RT and both G spots dur-

NFL BROADCASTING POLICIES

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

- Franchised Market — Television market (ADI or DMA) that has an NFL franchise (i.e., Buffalo, N.Y., or Phoenix, Ariz.).
- Secondary Blackout Market — Television market in the home territory (with station(s) having signal penetration to within 75 miles of the game site) of an NFL franchise that is subject to blackout restrictions.
- Early Game — Game with kickoff at 12:02 p.m. CT.
- Late Game — Game with kickoff at 3:05 or 3:15 p.m. CT.

BLACKOUT POLICY

To ensure an NFL club's ability to sell all of its game tickets, and to make televised games more attractive to viewers through the presence of sellout crowds, the following policy is observed by the NFL:

For a home game to be aired locally in the franchised market and in any secondary blackout market(s), the game must be sold out 72 hours in advance of kickoff. If the game is not a sellout by the 72-hour cutoff, both the home franchised market and the secondary markets of the carrying network will air an alternate game.

NUMBER OF GAMES IN A MARKET

With regard to the number of NFL games seen in a particular market on a Sunday afternoon, there are three situations.

- An NFL franchised market (i.e., New York, Chicago, Dallas, etc.) — On a week when the NFL team (or teams) in a market is on the ROAD Sunday, Monday or Thursday night, or Saturday afternoon, the market will receive three Sunday afternoon games: Two telecasts by the network with the doubleheader week and one game by the network with the single-game week. When an NFL team in the market is playing at HOME on Sunday afternoon, the market will receive two games: One game on FOX and one game on CBS, regardless of which network has the doubleheader week. That is, unless 1) the home team's assigned telecaster that day (CBS or FOX) also is on the doubleheader network and 2) the game is sold out 72 hours in advance. In that case, the three games would be the home team's and two other games in the remaining early or late window.
- All other television markets (including secondary blackout markets) — Network affiliates in these markets will receive three games on Sunday afternoon, two on the doubleheader network (one early and one late) and one game on the single-game network (either early or late).

SELECTION OF GAMES TO BE TELECAST REGIONALLY

By network contract, all team road games must be telecast back to that team's home territory (franchised market and secondary blackout markets). Other than this requirement, the televising network is the sole selector of which game(s) will be aired in all markets.

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 218 • Born: February 25, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 3/0 • Acquired: D6-10

CAREER: Limited to just three games during the regular season as he worked his way back from a hamstring injury, but burst onto the scene with impressive performances in a postseason run by Green Bay that culminated with a win in Super Bowl XLV...After rushing for 101 yards on 29 carries in three regular-season contests, set a franchise rookie postseason record with 123 yards on 23 carries (5.3 avg.) in the NFC Wild Card win at Philadelphia...Would finish the postseason with a league-high 315 rushing yards, third most ever by a rookie RB in the postseason behind only Washington's Timmy Smith (342 in 1987) and Baltimore's Jamal Lewis (338 in 2000)...Posted 73 yards on 18 carries in his NFL debut vs. San Francisco in Week 13, the highest yardage total by a Green Bay rookie RB in his first game since Ralph Earhart had 78 in his debut at Boston (Sept. 17, 1948)...Originally injured his hamstring during OTAs in May, and spent the entire preseason and the first nine regular-season games on the physically unable to perform list...That injury came on the heels of him missing his entire senior campaign at the University at Buffalo due to a shoulder injury...The shoulder injury that forced him to miss his senior season likely led to him falling to the sixth round of the 2010 NFL Draft...Was chosen by the Packers with the 193rd overall pick, the 13th running back taken in the draft and the first player ever drafted out of Buffalo by Green Bay...Finished his career as Buffalo's all-time leader in rushing yards (3,140), rushing touchdowns (34) and points scored (222) despite missing that final year...Became the first player in school history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons (2007-08) and the first running back drafted into the NFL from his school...Was recruited as a quarterback, converted to cornerback during his redshirt season in 2005 and then became a part-time starter at running back in 2006...After a 1,000-yard season as a full-time starter in 2007, had his most decorated year as a junior in 2008, when he set single-season school records for carries (272), rushing yards (1,333), all-purpose yards (1,694) and points scored (102), all of which helped to put him on preseason All-America and Doak Walker Award watch lists heading into his senior 2009 campaign...A shoulder injury limited him in spring drills, though, and after trying to play through it, opted for season-ending surgery in August to repair a torn labrum.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in just three regular-season contests as he worked his way back from a hamstring injury, but started all four postseason games...Rushed for 101 yards on 29 carries (3.5 avg.) and caught two passes for 15 yards (7.5 avg.) during the regular season...Led the NFL with 315 rushing yards on 81 carries (3.9 avg.) in the playoffs, the third-highest postseason total by a rookie behind only Smith (342 in '87) and Lewis (338 in '00)...Returned two kickoffs for 25 yards (12.5 avg.) during the regular season and five for 70 yards (14.0 avg.) in the postseason...Originally sustained hamstring injury during OTAs in May, and was placed on active/PUP at the start of training camp...Later transferred to reserve/PUP at the first roster reduction on Aug. 31, where he would stay for the first nine games...Activated from reserve/PUP on Nov. 9...Was inactive for two games following his activation plus another two

- Led the NFL with 315 rushing yards in the 2010 postseason, third most ever by a rookie RB in the postseason behind only Washington's Timmy Smith (342 in 1987) and Baltimore's Jamal Lewis (338 in 2000).
- Rushed for 123 yards at Philadelphia in an NFC Wild Card contest, the most by a Green Bay rookie in franchise postseason history.
- Posted 73 yards on 18 carries in his NFL debut vs. San Francisco in Week 13, the highest yardage total by a Green Bay rookie RB in his first game since Ralph Earhart had 78 in his debut at Boston (Sept. 17, 1948).
- In three years, became the University at Buffalo's all-time leader in rushing yards (3,140), rushing TDs (34) and points scored (222). Missed his senior season due to a shoulder injury that required surgery.
- Set single-season school records for carries (272), rushing yards (1,333), points scored (102) and all-purpose yards (1,694) in 2008 despite missing two-plus games with injuries.
- Became first running back drafted into the NFL from his school and the first player drafted by the Packers out of Buffalo.

contests in December...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Served as the backup to RB Brandon Jackson and responded with 73 yards on 18 carries (4.1 avg.). Yardage total was the most by a Green Bay rookie RB in his debut since Earhart's 78 at Boston (Sept. 17, 1948)...Carried the ball nine times for 35 yards on a 17-play, 74-yard drive in the fourth quarter that milked 8:35 off the clock. Shook loose for a 16-yard gain by bouncing out around the right end...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): After being inactive (healthy scratch) the previous two games, returned to the active roster and posted 20 yards on five carries (4.0 avg.) along with two catches for 15 yards (7.5 avg.)...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Posted the top rushing total by a Packer rookie in franchise playoff history, racking up 123 yards on 23 carries (5.3 avg.). The yardage total was the third highest in team postseason annals behind only Ryan Grant (201, vs. Seattle, Jan. 12, 2008) and Ahman Green (156, at Philadelphia, Jan. 11, 2004). His game-long run came on his first carry of the contest, a 27-yard run to the Philadelphia 41 out of the two-fulback "Bone" formation on the Packers' first possession. Pounded out 32 yards on five rushes on the Packers' final scoring drive, an 11-play march that took 6:17 off the clock and culminated with Jackson's 16-yard catch and run on a screen pass that pushed the lead to 21-10 with 7:33 remaining in the third quarter...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Rushed for 66 yards on 25 carries (2.6 avg.), providing enough of a rushing threat to set up the Packers' 366-yard passing day...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Continued to provide a consistent rushing threat for the Packers' balanced attack, posting 74 yards on 22 carries (3.4 avg.). Scored the first TD of his career on a 4-yard run early in the second quarter to put Green Bay ahead 14-0. Picked up 55 of his yards on 12 carries in the first half...Vs. Pittsburgh RB (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Became the first rookie RB to start the Super Bowl since Indianapolis' Joseph Addai in 2006. Carried 11 times for 52 yards (4.7 avg.), providing a consistent complement to an Aaron Rodgers-led passing attack. His impressive average per carry came against the league's No. 1-ranked rushing defense in the regular season, a unit that allowed opponents a 3.0-yard average. Had a game-long run of 14 yards on the final possession of the game, a drive that burned 5:19 off the game clock and ended with a 23-yard Mason Crosby FG to push Green Bay's lead to 31-25...2010 NFL Draft: Drafted by the Packers in the sixth round (No. 193 overall), the 13th running back taken in the draft and the first player ever drafted out of Buffalo by Green Bay.

COLLEGE: Finished his career at the University at Buffalo's all-time leader in rushing yards (3,140), rushing touchdowns (34) and points scored (222) despite missing his senior campaign due to a shoulder injury...Played 36 games in three seasons, rushing 698 times for 3,140 yards (4.5 avg.) with 34 TDs, adding 127 receptions for 898 yards (7.1 avg.) and three more scores...Reception total ranks seventh on the school's all-time list...His 3,140 yards broke the previous record of 3,103 held by Anthony Swan (1994-97), his 34 rushing TDs broke the previous record of 29 by Lee Jones (1965-67) and his 222 points topped the previous record of 184 by Alan Bell (1989-92)...His 12 100-yard rushing games fell one shy of Swan's mark, and his 698 carries are also second to Swan (812) in school annals...One of only four players in school history to generate more than 4,000 all-purpose yards, finishing with 4,045...Had his most decorated year as a junior in 2008, when he set single-season school records for carries (272), rushing yards (1,333), all-purpose yards (1,694) and points scored (102)...Graduated with a degree in sociology...Senior season (2009): Sat out the entire season after undergoing surgery on his shoulder in August...Was limited by the shoulder injury during spring camp in March, tried to play through it and aggravated the problem, which turned out to be a torn labrum...Began the year as a preseason All-America and All-Mid-American Conference selection and was on the Doak Walker Award watch list as one of the nation's top running backs...Junior season (2008): Despite missing two-plus games with injuries, set single-season school records with 1,333 rushing yards on 272 carries (4.9 avg.)...Yardage total topped O.D. Underwood's 1,189 yards in 1986, while the attempts topped his own mark from the previous season...Earned honorable mention All-America from The NFL Draft Report and was named first-team All-MAC by the league's coaches and media...Ranked third in the MAC and 15th in the nation in rushing with 111.1 yards per game, topping 100 six times, one shy of the single-season school record held by Swan (1996) and Underwood (1986)...Rushed for 16 TDs, tying a school record first set by Jones in 1966...Scored at least one TD in each of the final nine games and multiple TDs in four straight...Added a TD receiving, as he ranked second on the team with 52 receptions for 361 yards (6.9 avg.)...Also set school records for points scored (102) and all-purpose yards (1,694), beating Jones' point total of 96 (1966) and Andre Forde's yardage mark of 1,556 (2002)...Earned MAC East Division Offensive Player of the Week honors with 30 carries for season-high 185 yards and two TDs at Ohio (Oct. 28), one a 56-yarder in the fourth quarter to clinch the win...Sophomore season (2007): Earned All-MAC second-team honors for the second straight year with 251 carries (a single-season school record he would break the following year) for 1,103 yards (4.4 avg.) and 12 TDs...Added 41 receptions for 311 yards (7.6 avg.) and two more TDs...Named MAC East Offensive Player of the Week with 183 yards rushing on career-high 36 carries with two TDs, including a 72-yarder, vs. Ohio (Oct. 4)...Named MAC East Offensive Player of the Week for the second straight week with career-high 231 yards and three TDs on 34 carries vs. Toledo (Oct. 13), earning an ESPN "helmet sticker" on the network's day-end wrap-up show. The 231 yards rank third on the school's all-time single-game list, behind 266 from Bell (vs. Duquesne, 1991) and 232 from Underwood (vs. Rochester, 1986)...Redshirt freshman season (2006): Moved from CB to RB and started six of 12 games played, leading the team in rushing with 704 yards and six TDs on 175 carries (4.0 avg.), good for second-team All-MAC honors...Finished second on the team with 34 catches for 226 yards (6.7 avg.)...Ran for season-high 162 yards and three TDs on 24 carries vs. Kent State (Nov. 4) to earn MAC East Player of the Week honors.

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 200 • Born: June 21, 1985 • NFL Games Played/Started: 22/1 • Acquired: D7b-08 (FA-08)

CAREER: Reserve wide receiver and special-teams contributor bounced back from reconstructive knee surgery in 2009 to appear in all 16 games in 2010...Saw increased action at WR during the latter portion of the season and caught six passes for 72 yards in '10...Registered seven tackles on special teams during the regular season and posted an additional seven stops during the postseason, which was tied with CB/S Jarrett Bush for the team lead in the playoffs...Played in six games in 2009, mostly on special teams, and made an impact by stopping a Chicago Bears fake punt in the season opener and posting three coverage tackles against Detroit in Week 6...One week later, suffered a season-ending knee injury covering a kickoff in Cleveland (Oct. 25)...After rehabilitating the injury, was back on the field for training camp and appeared in all four preseason contests in 2010...Originally a seventh-round draft choice out of San Diego State in 2008 by the Packers, did not make the 53-man roster as a rookie and spent the entire season on the practice squad...Honed his body physically and his skills fundamentally while learning how to play on special teams in the offseason, efforts that paid off when he made the team following the 2009 training camp...A second-team All-Mountain West Conference selection, had nearly 1,000 receiving yards as a senior at San Diego State, including a 224-yard, three-TD game...Comes from an athletic family, as his father Steve was a first-round draft choice of the Houston Astros in 1982.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in all 16 games for the first time in his career, including one start, and played in all four postseason contests...Recorded a career-high seven special teams tackles and posted an additional seven stops during the postseason, which was tied for first on the team with Bush...Caught six passes for 72 yards (12.0 avg.), with all of the receptions coming in the final nine games...Successfully rehabbed in time for training camp, appearing in all four preseason contests...Closed out the preseason with a six-catch, 130-yard performance at Kansas City (Sept. 2)...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): With veteran WR Donald Driver departing the game due to a quad injury, saw extended action on offense. Made his first career catch in the second quarter, a 12-yard pickup...At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Saw significant playing time with offense utilizing five-wide receiver sets and a no-huddle offense. Recorded career highs with two catches for 40 yards (20.0 avg.), including a 31-yard gain on a slant in the second quarter when he split CB Brent Grimes and S Thomas DeCoud after a short reception...At New England (Dec. 19): Started the first game of his career with the team opening in a five-WR set. Had one reception for 6 yards, hauling in a quick flip from QB Matt Flynn in the fourth quarter...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted a pair of tackles on special teams...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Saw action on offense, but made his mark on special teams with a team-high four tackles. Helped to limit the Steelers to an 18.5-yard average on their six kickoff returns and a mere 1.3-yard average on four punt returns. Took over as one of the gunners on the punt-coverage unit after injuries pressed Bush into action on defense. Helped force a fair catch by WR Antwaan Randle El inside the Pittsburgh

- Played in all 16 games in 2010, recording seven special teams tackles and catching six passes for 72 yards.
- Tied for the team lead in the postseason with seven stops on special teams, including a team-high four in Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh.
- Limited to just six games in 2009 after sustaining season-ending knee injury at Cleveland (Oct. 25).
- A seventh-round draft choice out of San Diego State in 2008, spent entire rookie season on the practice squad.
- Had six receptions for 224 yards and three TDs vs. Portland State during senior season in college.
- Father, Steve, was a first-round selection of the Houston Astros in 1982 and played outfield in their minor-league system.

20 midway through the third quarter and also defeated a double team to knock WR Antonio Brown out of bounds for a 1-yard loss later in the quarter.

2009: Played in the first six games, seeing time primarily on special teams...Posted four stops on special teams...Placed on injured reserve with knee injury on Oct. 27 and underwent surgery on Nov. 5...Beat out veteran WR Ruvell Martin in training camp for the fifth WR spot after spending entire '08 season on Green Bay's practice squad...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Made key play in NFL debut when he brought down RB Garrett Wolfe for just a 4-yard gain on a fake punt in the fourth quarter with the Packers trailing 12-10. Wolfe took a direct snap on fourth-and-11 and took it up the middle, but was tackled by Swain at the Green Bay 30 to set up go-ahead FG...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Played on special teams and also saw first action of the season at WR with Greg Jennings and James Jones both sidelined briefly with injuries...At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Posted a tackle on special teams...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Tied for team lead with career-high three special teams tackles. Also saw some action in four-WR sets after Jordy Nelson left the game due to injury...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Saw time as fourth WR and on special teams, but sustained season-ending knee injury covering a kickoff in the second quarter.

2008: In the preseason, made five catches for 28 yards and returned two punts for 10 yards...Was released in the final roster reduction on Aug. 30 and signed to the practice squad the next day...Spent the entire season on the practice squad...2008 Draft: A seventh-round draft choice out of San Diego State, the second of the Packers' two seventh-round selections. Was taken 217th overall and was the 30th WR chosen. Chosen with pick acquired from St. Louis along with the Rams' fifth-round pick (137) for Green Bay's fourth-round choice (128).

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and two-year starter at San Diego State, played in 44 games with 26 starts over the course of four seasons...Totaled 135 catches for 1,893 yards (14.0 avg.) and eight TDs...Majored in social science...Senior season (2007): Earned second-team All-MWC honors after starting all 12 games and setting ca-

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 191 • Born: June 24, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 23/0 • Acquired: D6b-09

CAREER: Looking to work his way back up the depth chart, the speedy, long-armed defender will vie for more playing time in his third season at safety after contributing primarily on special teams and at cornerback over his first two years...Was in position to be the team's nickel cornerback in 2010, but a preseason shoulder injury sidelined him until Week 3 of the regular season, and he was used strictly on special teams thereafter...Has compiled 20 tackles on special teams while playing in 23 games over his two seasons, including nine coverage stops in '09 to lead all Packers rookies...Has posted two special teams tackles in five different games in his career (six including postseason)...Saw some time at dime back late in his rookie season, and recorded five tackles (all solo) and a pass defended...Overcame academic difficulties early in his college career that led to a lost scholarship at Ohio State by transferring to Cincinnati and paying his own way, turning in a standout final collegiate season with the Bearcats...Playing both cornerback and safety when injuries in the secondary dictated the need, was named first-team All-Big East at safety, finishing with four interceptions and earning Cincinnati's Special Teams Player of the Year honor...A nationally ranked recruit out of Hamilton (Ohio) High School, originally went to Ohio State, where older brother, E.J., lettered three years as a cornerback (2002-04)...Redshirted his first year and suffered a season-ending shoulder injury in the season opener the following season...Played sparingly in eight games as a redshirt sophomore in 2006 before losing his scholarship to academic troubles...Transferred to Cincinnati and sat out 2007 before returning to the field in '08, when he helped lead the Bearcats to the FedEx Orange Bowl...Played in the East-West Shrine Game, one of six Bearcats to accept a postseason all-star invitation that year.

2010 SEASON: Played in 12 games, all on special teams, and ranked fourth on the team with 11 tackles...Posted a coverage stop in eight of those 12 contests...Added three special teams tackles in the postseason...Was competing for the nickel CB job in training camp and for a while had the inside track, but injured his shoulder in the preseason vs. Indianapolis (Aug. 26) and was inactive for the first two regular-season contests...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Posted two special teams tackles, matching his career high, for the first of three times in the regular season...At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Tied season and career high with two coverage tackles...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Had two special teams tackles for the third time on the year as the Giants averaged just 18.6 yards on eight kickoff returns and 4.3 yards on three punt returns...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Had two tackles on punt coverage, one a stop of Devin Hester after an 11-yard return. The tackle, coming after a 58-yard punt, pinned the Bears at their own 29 with 2:53 left as the Packers were protecting a 21-14 lead. Downed a 32-yard Tim Masthay punt at the Chicago 3 in the first quarter.

2009: Played in 11 games, mostly on special teams, and led the team's rookies with nine special teams stops...Posted five tackles (all solo) and a pass defended on defense...Healthy scratch for first four games of the season,

"FULLBACK IS THE POSITION I FEEL I CAN PLAY BETTER."

November 19, 1957

Dear Mr. Vainisi,

Reference to your letter dated November 11, 1957.

I am very much interested in playing professional football. Football is a great sport and I enjoy playing it. Yes, I would be interested in playing with the Green Bay Packers. My military status is 1A Category 4. Yes, I will be able to play pro ball before entering the service. I prefer playing in either the United States or Canada. Fullback is the position I feel I can play better.

Sincerely,
Jim Taylor
Baton Rouge, La

CAREER: Midseason free-agent acquisition played a vital role on the defense in the second half of the season as well as the playoffs...Saw the most significant action of his career with the Packers down the stretch in 2010 after contributing primarily on special teams in 28 games with Kansas City and Miami from 2008-10...Appeared in nine contests for Green Bay with a career-high two starts at ROLB opposite Clay Matthews, posting career highs in every significant defensive category...Recorded the finest performance of his career in the Packers' playoff berth-clinching 10-3 win over division rival Chicago in the season finale...Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the showing as he registered a career-high 16 tackles and a career-best three sacks...Went on to start the first three postseason games before an ankle injury sustained in the NFC Championship at Chicago sidelined him for Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh...Signed with the Packers as a free agent on Oct. 27...Had been with Miami for 2010 training camp before being released in the final roster cutdown on Sept. 4...Was re-signed by the Dolphins on Sept. 13, appearing in two games for them before being released again on Sept. 28...A converted college DE who was drafted as an OLB by the Cowboys in 2008, he was released by Dallas in the final roster reduction before being claimed off waivers by Kansas City...Went on to play in nine games for the Chiefs and six more for the Dolphins after being released by Kansas City...Appeared in 11 games with Miami in 2009...Posted 23 tackles on special teams in his first two NFL seasons with Kansas City and Miami...A two-time All-Sun Belt Conference selection at Middle Tennessee State, he finished his career as the school's all-time sack leader with 22½ and set the school's single season mark with 11½ as a junior in 2006.

2010: Played in the final nine regular-season games for Green Bay with a career-high two starts after joining the team as a free agent on Oct. 27...Saw his most significant action on defense at ROLB in the final month in place of injured rookie Frank Zombo (knee)...Registered career highs in every major defensive category, posting 31 tackles (19 solo), three sacks and a pass defended...Added four tackles on special teams...Started the opening three postseason contests before being sidelined with an ankle injury for Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh...Posted 15 tackles (nine solo), a sack and a forced fumble in the playoffs...Spent training camp with the Dolphins but was waived on Sept. 4...Was re-signed on Sept. 13 and played in two games – at Minnesota (Sept. 19) and vs. N.Y. Jets (Sept. 26) – but did not record any statistics, and was released again on Sept. 28...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Despite having signed only five days earlier, was active and saw limited action at ROLB in the nickel package. Also appeared on special teams, recording one tackle on kickoff coverage...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Saw his most extensive time on defense to that point after Zombo left the game with a knee injury in the second half. Played 17 snaps and registered two solo tackles...At New England (Dec. 19): With Zombo sidelined, earned his first career start and led the team with nine tackles (four solo)...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Despite being limited in practice during the week with a quadriceps

- Signed by the Packers as a free agent on Oct. 27, went on to appear in nine games with two starts along with another three starts in the postseason.
- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his Week 17 performance vs. Chicago when he recorded a career-high three sacks and a career-best 16 tackles.
- Originally a sixth-round draft choice by the Dallas Cowboys in 2008, he played in a total of 28 games for Kansas City and Miami from 2008-10.
- Earned first-team All-Sun Belt honors as a junior and senior at Middle Tennessee State.
- Set Middle Tennessee State's career record for sacks with 22½ and single-season mark with 11½ in 2006.

injury, played 28 snaps on defense and recorded two solo tackles...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Led the team with career highs in sacks (three) and tackles (16) on his way to earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. In the second quarter, beat LT Frank Omiyale on third-and-goal from the 4 to bring QB Jay Cutler down for an 8-yard loss and force the Bears to settle for a FG. His other two sacks came on the same third-quarter drive, beating Omiyale on first down to bring Cutler down for a loss of 9 yards and then coming on a delayed blitz between center and right guard on third-and-15 to sack Cutler for an 11-yard loss. Became the first NFL player to have his first career sack come as part of a three-sack game since Cleveland LB Andra Davis (four sacks, at Kansas City, Nov. 9, 2003)...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Started and registered a team-high eight tackles (five solo). Also posted a sack, a QB hit and a forced fumble. On the Eagles' first possession, brought QB Michael Vick down for a sack as he attempted to scramble out of the pocket, forcing a punt. On Philadelphia's next series, tackled RB LeSean McCoy on third-and-9 and forced a fumble that was recovered by T Winston Justice, again forcing a punt. Teamed with LB A.J. Hawk to bring heavy pressure on Vick's incomplete pass on a two-point conversion attempt late in the game with the Packers leading 21-16...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started and recorded four tackles (two solo), three QB hits and a pair of QB pressures...At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Got the start and registered three tackles (two solo) and two QB hits before leaving with an ankle injury in the third quarter...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Inactive after being limited by the ankle injury in practice the week leading up to the game.

2009: Played in 11 games for the Dolphins and recorded eight special teams tackles...Inactive for five contests...Vs. Buffalo (Oct. 4): Registered a season-high three tackles on special teams.

2008: Joined the Cowboys as a sixth-round draft pick in April but was released in the final roster reduction on Aug. 30...Claimed off waivers the next day by Kansas City and played in nine games for the Chiefs...Recorded 10 special

NFC Wild Card Playoff; NFC Divisional Playoff; NFC Championship; Super Bowl XLV, North Texas

PLAYOFF SITE PRIORITIES

WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAMES

- Two Wild Card teams (division non-champions with best two records) from each conference and the division champions with the third- and fourth-best record in each conference will enter the first round of the playoffs.
- The division champion with the third-best record will play host to the Wild Card team with the second-best record.
- The division champion with the fourth-best record will play host to the Wild Card team with the best record.
- There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAMES

- In each conference, the two division champions with the highest won-lost-tied percentage during the regular season will play host to the Wild Card winners.
- The division champion with the best record in each conference is assured of playing the lowest-seeded Wild Card survivor.
- There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

- The home teams will be the surviving playoff winners with the best won-lost-tied percentage during the regular season.
- A Wild Card team cannot play host unless two Wild Card teams are in the game, in which case the Wild Card team that was seeded the highest in the first round of the playoffs will be the home team.

CAREER: Eighth-year center who continued his stronghold on the starting job with a solid 2010 that teammates and coaches called perhaps his best year...Earned All-NFC recognition from Pro Football Weekly last season... In 2009, moved back into starting lineup in Week 3 when injuries forced the line to reshuffle, and hasn't relinquished the job...Enters 2011 having started 30 straight games (35 including playoffs)...For his career, has played in 95 games with 84 starts, including 72 starts at center over the past five seasons...Is responsible for designating the majority of the blocking assignments at the line of scrimmage and has been credited for some of the offense's success in hostile, noisy road environments...Was a key blocker in Ryan Grant's back-to-back 1,200-yard rushing seasons, making Grant only the third running back in team history to accomplish the feat...Known for his textbook technique and explosive strength, was named the starting center in spring 2006 and started all 16 games that year for the first time as a pro... Missed only two snaps all season (when his shoe came off), playing a team-high 99.8 percent of the offensive snaps... Rewarded with a five-year contract extension in November 2006...Adjusted well to the Packers' zone-blocking scheme in '06, having performed in a similar system in college, and has always been adept at using leverage from his days as an accomplished wrestler...First earned playing time and displayed his potential with his versatility his first two seasons...In 2004 and 2005, went from a rookie seventh-round draft pick to the practice squad to a part-time starter at two positions – center (four games) and left guard (eight games)...Was not accustomed to the LG spot in game action, but filled in there in '05 when the coaching staff opted to change personnel at midseason...Helped boost the Packers' running game that year, particularly the fortunes of Samkon Gado, who posted all three of his 100-yard rushing efforts with Wells in the starting lineup...Selected in the 2004 NFL Draft with a seventh-round compensatory pick; was waived at the end of training camp, only to be re-signed two days later to the practice squad...Was signed to the active roster three weeks later when Mike Flanagan was placed on injured reserve...Ended up playing five games as a rookie, starting two at center for an injured Grey Ruegamer...A fixture at the University of Tennessee, started 49 straight games (all at center), at the time the third-longest streak in college football history for an offensive lineman...Initially felt slighted he was drafted so late, but has used it as motivation to get where he is today.

2010 SEASON: Started all 16 games at C plus all four postseason contests...Part of an offense that ranked No. 9 in the league in total yards, the fifth straight year the offense has ranked in the top 10...Helped the offense average 384.6 yards in five road dome games (including playoffs), generally considered the toughest environments in which to operate...Earned All-NFC honors from Pro Football Weekly...At Chicago (Sept. 27): Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack for the second straight week...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Helped the line not allow a sack for the third time on the season...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Helped direct a productive day for the offense in its first road dome game, as the team compiled 20 first downs and 374

AT A GLANCE

- Earned All-NFC recognition from Pro Football Weekly in 2010, starting all 16 games for the first time since 2006.
- In 2009, moved back into starting role in Week 3 due to injury reshuffling and hasn't relinquished it, starting 30 straight games (35 including playoffs).
- Over his first two seasons, went from rookie seventh-round pick to the practice squad to part-time starter at center (four games) and left guard (eight games).
- Consecutive start streak of 49 games at Tennessee was the third longest in college football history among offensive linemen.
- As a prep at Brentwood (Tenn.) Academy, was ranked as the No. 1 heavyweight wrestler in the nation.

net yards...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Helped the offense rack up 136 rushing yards, 410 net yards and a time of possession of 37:11...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Part of one of the offense's most impressive performances, which included 27 first downs, 515 net yards and a time of possession of 37:01...At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Part of an offensive line that paved the way for RB James Starks to rush for 123 yards, a club postseason rookie record. Got out in front of RB Brandon Jackson to throw a key block on a screen pass that went for a 16-yard TD in the third quarter...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Helped direct the offense's best game yet in a road dome, with the unit totaling 28 first downs, 442 net yards, a time of possession of 38:19 and a franchise postseason-record 48 points...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Responsible for line calls and pressure pick-ups against the Steelers' dynamic blitz scheme, and threw several key blocks against members of Pittsburgh's front line. Held his ground against five-time Pro Bowl NT Casey Hampton to create a throwing lane for QB Aaron Rodgers' 21-yard TD pass to WR Greg Jennings in the second quarter. Later adjusted to block DE Ziggy Hood on a crucial third-and-10 in the fourth quarter, allowing for Rodgers' 31-yard strike to Jennings, and on the next snap, walled off Hampton on Starks' game-long 14-yard run, leading to a field goal for the game's final points.

2009: Played in 15 games with 14 starts at C, also starting the Wild Card contest...Did not play in the season opener but took over at C in Week 2 when LT Chad Clifton went out with an ankle injury and line shuffled, with Spitz moving to LG...Remained at C for the rest of the season as Spitz eventually went on injured reserve with a back injury...Part of a line that blocked for Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and a member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total yards...Helped the Packers become the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Came in at C on the Packers' second play of the third quarter after Clifton (ankle) left the game...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Started at C with line reshuffling due to Clifton injury. Blocked for Grant's 99 yards on 26 carries, including 50 yards in the fourth quarter, and part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers in the final three quarters... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Started at C in place of an injured Spitz (back) and helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense. Part of a line that protected Rodgers on his way to 358 passing yards, giving him back-to-back games with 350-plus yards for the first time in his career...

At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers and blocked for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Team's 202 yards on the ground were also a season best... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Helped limit Pro Bowl NT Jay Ratliff to two tackles and no sacks... Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Started after missing some practice time during the week due to concussion sustained against the Cowboys. Helped offense put up season-best 484 total yards, including 129 yards on 21 carries (6.1 avg.) from Grant. Part of a line that did not allow any sacks of Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards, his career high for any half in the regular season...

At Detroit (Nov. 26): Started after not practicing all week due to a knee injury sustained against the 49ers. Part of a line that allowed just one sack of Rodgers and helped him throw for 348 yards and three TDs... At Chicago (Dec. 13): Started and helped clear the way for Grant's 137 yards on 20 carries (6.9 avg.). Grant's career-high average for a game with at least 20 carries. Sealed NT Marcus Harrison on Grant's 62-yard TD run off left tackle on Packers' opening play... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and helped block for team's 153 rushing yards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.). It was the first time the Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England. Also helped protect Rodgers as he was sacked only one time, and cleared DT Colin Cole to create a hole on Grant's 56-yard TD run... At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and helped offense post team playoff-record 493 total yards, including franchise-best 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

2008: Started 13 games and blocked for Grant's (then) career-high 1,203 rushing yards, which ranks as the eighth-highest single-season mark in franchise history... Was inactive for the first two games with back/trunk injury... Originally injured trunk muscle in Aug. 1 night practice, and re-aggravated injury in preseason game at San Francisco (Aug. 16)... Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Practiced all week and was active for the game, but did not play... At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Started his first game of the season... Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started after being limited during week with chest injury sustained in Oct. 15 practice, and was part of a line that did not allow a sack and blocked for Grant's 105 rushing yards... Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Helped pave the way for team's 200 rushing yards, including season-high 145 from Grant... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Started, but left the game in the second quarter with an ankle injury and did not return. Helped clear the way for RB DeShawn Wynn's 73-yard TD run in the first quarter, the team's longest run of the season.

2007: Played in 14 games with 13 starts, and started both playoff contests... Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Was poked in the eye on a third-quarter running play and did not return. Further examination revealed a fractured eye socket, forcing him to miss the next game vs. Washington (Oct. 14)...

At Denver (Oct. 29): After the bye, missed game with an unrelated sinus infection... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Returned to starting lineup and was part of a line that helped Green Bay amass a season-high 488 yards, and held the Vikings without a sack... At Detroit (Nov. 22): Helped pave the way for 481 yards of total offense and 101 yards rushing for Grant; offense did not allow a sack... Vs. Oakland (Dec. 9): Was part of an offense that totaled 455 yards and 179 rushing yards (156 from Grant) and held the Raiders' defense to zero sacks... Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Helped the team rush for 217 yards, 113 coming from Jackson, his first 100-yard rushing performance of the season... Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Was part of an offensive line that assisted Grant to 201 yards and three rushing TDs, both Packers playoff records.

2006: A full-time starter for the first time, started all 16 games and played a team-high 99.8 percent of offensive snaps (1,115 of 1,117), missing just two plays in Week 15 when his shoe came off... Adjusted as well as any lineman to the team's new zone-blocking scheme, having played in a similar system at the University of Tennessee... His consistency was rewarded with a five-year contract extension, which he signed on Nov. 6... Played every snap on an offensive line that didn't allow a sack from the fourth quarter vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17) to the second quarter vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8); the streak covered 108 passing plays and included a shutout at Philadelphia (Oct. 2) against the Eagles' attacking defense... At Miami (Oct. 22): Part of an offensive line that helped the team gain 155 yards rushing, including 118 from RB Ahman Green. On Green's 70-yard TD run, made a key block, pinning DT Keith Traylor inside... Vs. Arizona (Oct. 29): Helped the offense amass 203 yards on the ground (383 total) including 100-yard performances from both Green (106) and Vernand Morency (101), the first time since 1985 the Packers had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game... At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Part of an offensive line that did not give up a sack, helping QB Brett Favre throw for a season-high 347 yards and two TDs.

2005: Played in all 16 games with 10 starts... Started twice at C for Flanagan (sports hernia), and eight games at LG... Saw action exclusively on special teams in four contests... Received plenty of pre-season reps with the first unit, filling in for Flanagan, who was held out of afternoon practices early in camp following 2004 knee surgery... Began practicing at guard Aug. 13 to improve his versatility, and played well enough there to become a dark horse in the derby for a starting job... Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Started at C for Flanagan in 52-3 win after playing most of the game the previous week at Carolina (Oct. 3) when Flanagan left with the injury...At Atlanta (Nov. 13): In an attempt to improve the running game, coaches started him at LG, and he held the job for the remainder of the season. Was part of an offense in Falcons contest that produced the team's first 100-yard rusher, Gado...At Philadelphia (Nov. 27): Started and helped pave the way for Gado's 111 rushing yards, only three days after he and his wife lost their unborn twins in a personal tragedy...vs. Detroit (Dec. 11): Was part of an offensive line in 16-13 win that helped produce 330 total yards, including Gado's 171 on the ground, the franchise's rookie rushing record.

CAREER: Former non-drafted free agent and practice-squad player has developed into one of the top players at his position in the league...Posted the finest season of his career in 2010, his first as a full-time starter in Green Bay's base defense as he opened all 16 contests at right cornerback...Recorded career highs in tackles (63), interceptions (six) and passes defended (23) as he led the team in INTs and passes defended...Named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl, he was selected to the all-star game as an injury replacement for Eagles CB Asante Samuel, but did not play in the game since the Packers were preparing for Super Bowl XLV...Tied the franchise single-postseason record with three more interceptions in the playoffs, including one for a touchdown, and his nine combined interceptions on the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL...Showed his versatility by handling punt-return duties in 2010, posting an 8.0-yard average on 41 returns...He is one of just three players whose career began since 1970 to post a 90-yard punt return and interception and kickoff returns of 65 yards in a career, joining Adam Jones and Lemar Parrish...Served as the nickel back in 2008-09, but also started parts of each season at right cornerback when veteran Al Harris missed time due to injuries, opening 19 games over that span...Moved into the starting lineup in Week 12 in '09 when Harris went down with a season-ending knee injury, and went on to lead the team with a career-high 22 passes defended...Posted career-high 11 special teams tackles in '09...Got his first extensive starting experience in 2008, opening nine games in place of both Harris (spleen injury) and CB Charles Woodson (temporary move to safety)...His five interceptions in '08 – three coming in consecutive games while starting for Harris – ranked third on the team and were his most in any single season to that point, college or pro...Along with teammates Woodson and Nick Collins, became first Packers trio to each post five or more interceptions in a season since 1996 (S Eugene Robinson, S LeRoy Butler, CB Doug Evans)...In 64 career games (all consecutive), he has started 36 contests and posted 168 tackles (138 solo) with 16 interceptions, 63 passes defended, two sacks, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries...Is the only non-drafted free agent in the NFL to record four or more interceptions each of the past three seasons, and his 15 interceptions from 2008-2010 rank tied for No. 6 in the NFL...Released by Houston as a non-drafted rookie following training camp in 2006, joined the Packers' practice squad for the final five weeks of that season...Became the surprise of camp in 2007, landing a spot on the 53-man roster with a strong preseason and by season's end had established himself as the team's No. 3 cornerback and top kick returner...That year, got his first NFL interception and scored his first pro touchdown, returning a pooch punt out of field-goal formation 94 yards for a score vs. Carolina (Nov. 18)...Remains a solid contributor on special teams with 28 career coverage tackles, including one on Thanksgiving Day 2007 in Detroit that saved a touchdown...A first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection at Louisiana Tech, had seven career INTs and led the nation in passes defended (19) as a senior in 2005.

AT A GLANCE

- First name is pronounced trah-MAHN.
- Ranked No. 1 in the NFL with a combined nine interceptions (six in regular season, three in postseason) in 2010.
- Posted career highs in tackles (63), interceptions (six) and passes defended (23) on his way to being selected to the Pro Bowl in 2010 as an injury replacement.
- With three interceptions during the 2010 playoffs, tied Joe Laws (1944) and Craig Newsome (1996) for the franchise single-postseason record.
- In Week 5 at Washington, he became the first player in franchise history to post a 50-yard punt return (52 yards) and a 60-yard INT return (64 yards) in the same game.
- Is the only non-drafted free agent in the NFL to post four or more interceptions each of the last three seasons. His 15 interceptions over that span rank tied for No. 6 in the NFL.
- Led the nation with 19 passes defended in 2005 as a senior at Louisiana Tech.

2010 SEASON: Started all 16 contests for the first time in his career, opening each game at RCB...Recorded career highs in tackles (63), interceptions (six), passes defended (23) and fumble recoveries (two)...Led the team in INTs and passes defended, and his regular-season INT total ranked tied for No. 5 in the NFL...Added a sack, two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble...Named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl, he was selected to the all-star game as an injury replacement for Samuel...Earned All-NFC recognition from Pro Football Weekly...Handled punt-return duties for the Packers, posting an 8.0-yard average on 41 returns...Started all four postseason games as he led the league with three interceptions, including one returned for a TD, during the playoffs...Became the first NFL player since the N.Y. Giants' R.W. McQuarters (2007) to post three INTs in a postseason...Also led the defense with eight passes defended in the postseason...
At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Recorded a season-high three passes defended (matched in Week 4 vs. Detroit) and recovered a fumble by RB Eldra Buckley in the third quarter that was forced by Woodson...
At Chicago (Sept. 27): Led the team with seven tackles (all solo) and added a sack. Early in the second quarter, timed his blitz perfectly to come through untouched as he dropped QB Jay Cutler for a 5-yard loss...
At Washington (Oct. 10): Posted his first INT of the season, picking off QB Donovan McNabb on the final play of regulation at the Green Bay 3. Weaved through traffic before finally being tripped up at the Washington 33 for a 64-yard return, the second longest of his career. Registered a 52-yard punt return in the second quarter, also the second longest of his career, as he joined CB Deion Sanders (Sept. 21, 1998) and CB Darrent Williams (Sept. 13, 2005) as the only NFL players since the merger to record an INT return of 60-plus yards and a punt return of 50-plus yards in the same game...
Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Recorded seven tackles (all solo), including one for a loss, along with an INT. Picked off QB

Chad Henne's pass intended for WR Brandon Marshall at the Green Bay 14 late in the first quarter to halt a Miami scoring opportunity... At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Turned in a stellar all-around performance, posting five tackles (all solo), an INT, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and two passes defended. It was the first time in his career that he posted an INT, a forced fumble and a recovery in the same game... At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Registered three tackles (two solo), an INT and two passes defended. With the Packers leading 10-3 late in the first half, halted a promising Minnesota drive by stepping in front of WR Percy Harvin on a slant at the Green Bay 18 to pick off QB Brett Favre. The INT gave the offense the ball with just over a minute remaining, enough time for them to march for a quick TD and a 17-3 halftime lead... Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Posted his career-high sixth INT of the season, cutting in front of WR Hakeem Nicks at the Green Bay 47 in the first quarter to intercept QB Eli Manning... At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Made the game's defining play, leaping to intercept QB Michael Vick's pass intended for WR Riley Cooper in the end zone with 33 seconds remaining to clinch the victory. Did not bite on a Vick pump fake, running step for step on a go-route to the end zone. Turned to find the ball and used his leaping ability to secure the pick against the 6-foot-3-inch Cooper. Finished the game with a team-high three passes defended and three tackles (two solo)... At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted one of the most electrifying performances of the postseason, intercepting passes on back-to-back possessions in the second quarter. First made a leaping INT of QB Matt Ryan in the end zone on third-and-21 in front of WR Michael Jenkins, who lost his footing on the play. On the following drive, made what was arguably the key play of the game with a 70-yard INT return for a touchdown in the closing seconds of the first half to extend Green Bay's lead to 28-14 at the break. With 10 seconds remaining, Atlanta called a timeout with the ball at the Green Bay 35 and attempted to pick up more yardage to move into FG range. Ryan threw toward the sideline to WR Roddy White, but Williams jumped inside the route to intercept the pass in stride, sverving past a couple of Falcons on his way to the end zone. The INT return was the second longest in franchise postseason history, trailing only S George Teague's 101-yarder at Detroit (Jan. 8, 1994). Became just the fourth player in team history to record multiple INTs in a playoff game... Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Finished with six tackles (three solo) and a team-high three passes de-fensed, including one that sealed the game on fourth down on Pittsburgh's final drive. On the final play, a fourth-and-5 from the Pittsburgh 33, perfectly read a curl route by WR Mike Wallace and jumped with the explosive receiver, knocking the ball away to secure the world title.

2009: Played in all 16 games, plus playoff contest, with 10 starts... Was nickel back for first 10 contests before moving into starting RCB spot in Week 12 due to Harris' season-ending knee injury... Led the team with 22 passes defended... Posted 42 tackles (29 solo), four INTs and a sack... Added a career-high 11 tackles on special teams, which was tied for fourth on the team... Had a 10.4-yard average on 13 punt returns and also returned two kickoffs for 26 yards (13.0 avg.)... First player in franchise history to post an INT return of 65 yards (67 vs. Chicago, Sept. 13) and a punt return of 45 yards (45 vs. Detroit, Oct. 18) in the same season... On the field for 767-of-996 (77.0 percent) defensive plays... Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Intercepted Cutler's pass deep down the middle intended for WR Johnny Knox in the second quarter at Green Bay's 32 and returned the pick 67 yards to Chicago's 1 to set up a Ryan Grant TD run on the next play; the 67-yard return was his career long and the season long by a Packer. Tied a (then) career high with three passes defended and also tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles... Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Filling in for injured WR Jordy Nelson, returned a Nick Harris punt 45 yards in the second quarter, the longest punt return of the season by a Packer... Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Started as team opened in nickel and registered a season-high six tackles (five solo) and two passes defended. Tied for the team lead with two special teams stops... Vs. Detroit (Nov. 26): Moved into starting lineup at RCB in place of an injured Harris (knee), his first start of the season in the base defense, and remained there for the rest of the season. Posted four tackles (three solo) and an INT, picking off QB Matthew Stafford's deep pass intended for WR Dennis Northcutt at the Green Bay 40... Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Recorded a career-high four passes defended, including an INT. With the Ravens at Green Bay's 3 in the fourth quarter trailing 24-14, made a leaping INT of QB Joe Flacco's pass in the end zone in front of WR Demetrius Williams... At Chicago (Dec. 13): Posted the first sack of his career when he brought down Cutler for an 8-yard loss on the Bears' final series. With Green Bay trailing 14-13 early in the fourth quarter, also had a key pressure when he came on a corner blitz and got in Cutler's face to force a bad throw to the left

NICKNAME ORIGIN

In the Green Bay Press-Gazette on Aug. 29, 1919, two weeks before the team's first organized game, sports editor and Packers co-founder George Calhoun first publicly identified the team as the "Indian Packers."

Curly Lambeau received $500 from his employer, the Indian Packing Co., for uniforms and equipment, and for use of the company's lot for practice. In exchange, Lambeau and Calhoun agreed to call the team "Packers." Early fans, many of whom were working-class citizens, immediately embraced the name, widely publicized by Calhoun.

Calhoun also called them simply "Indians" briefly in 1919, but that moniker seemed to fold with the company, soon purchased — along with the team — by Acme Packing Co. In 1921, the team's first season in what is now the NFL, its owners had "Acme Packers" put on the jersey, setting the name in stone.

While "Packers" has served as the primary nickname since the team's embryonic stages, fans and sportswriters also have called them the Big Blue Blues, or the Bays. Lambeau in 1922 applied with the name "Blues," but public opinion quickly vetoed him.

A packer is someone who works at a packing house, an establishment for slaughtering, processing and packing livestock into meat, meat products and byproducts. "Green Bay Packers" is the longest-standing team name in NFL history.

Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started and posted a career-high 10 tackles along with an INT in second straight game, a one-handed catch with his right hand on a pass from QB Matt Ryan intended for TE Ben Hartstock in the end zone. Score was 17-10 at the time and the Packers' offense moved down the field for tying TD following the pick...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Started third straight game and posted INT in third consecutive contest when he picked off QB Charlie Frye's deep pass intended for WR Koren Robinson down the left sideline...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started and posted six tackles. Broke up QB Peyton Manning's pass intended for WR Anthony Gonzalez on the first play of the second half and forced a fumble on TE Dallas Clark's reception late in the fourth quarter that went out of bounds at the Green Bay 1...At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Returned to nickel back spot with Harris coming back from injury...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Intercepted QB

Gus Frerotte's pass over the middle intended for WR Bernard Berrian with just under 30 seconds remaining in the first half and returned the pick 19 yards to the Minnesota 40, which helped set up Mason Crosby's 47-yard FG as time expired in the half to narrow the Vikings' lead to 14-10...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Played extensively as nickel back as secondary allowed just four receptions by Bears WRs. Also matched season high with two stops on special teams...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Started at LCB with Woodson shifting to SS because of injuries. Made four tackles and forced a fumble by WR Muhsin Muhammad on a 44-yard reception on the first play of the game that Woodson recovered at the Green Bay 19...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started at LCB and posted six tackles, intercepting QB Matt Schaub's pass intended for WR André Davis in the second quarter and recovering TE Owen Daniels' fumble at the Green Bay 3 earlier in the period. Also recorded a career-high three passes defended...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Started at nickel back when Woodson returned to customary LCB spot.

2007: Former practice-squad player earned a surprise roster spot with a solid preseason...Played in all 16 contests, plus both playoff games, with one start, rotating as a nickel and dime back and posting 11 tackles (10 solo) with one INT among four passes defended...Also had a team-leading 30 kickoff returns for 684 yards (22.8 avg.), plus six punt returns for 118 yards (19.7 avg.) and a TD, and seven special teams tackles...Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Had a career-high six kickoff returns for 173 yards; five of six returns went for 20 yards-or-more, including a career-long 65-yarder in the third quarter that set up a FG...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Made his first two career special teams tackles...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 18): Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week when he scored his first career TD on a first-quarter punt return. K John Kasay punted out of field-goal formation; Williams fielded the punt off the bounce and returned it 94 yards down the right sideline for a score and 7-0 Green Bay lead...At Detroit (Nov. 22): Played extensively as an extra DB when Woodson left the game in the second quarter with a toe injury; broke up two passes, both on third down to WR Calvin Johnson to force punts, and made two solo tackles, the first of his career. Also had two special teams tackles, one in the second quarter, chasing down KR Aveion Cason from behind and making a TD-saving tackle; the Lions kicked a FG on the ensuing drive...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Made his first career start with the team opening in "nickel"; made a (then) career-high five tackles (four solo) and his first career INT, catching a QB Jon Kitna pass tipped by DE Cullen Jenkins and returning it 22 yards...Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Broke up a third-and-12 pass in second quarter intended for WR David Tyree, forcing a FG attempt. In third quarter, ran a kickoff back 49 yards to the Giants' 39-yard line; the drive ended with a TE Donald Lee TD catch.

2006: Spent training camp with the Houston Texans before his release on Sept. 3...Signed to the Green Bay practice squad on Nov. 29, where he spent the final five weeks of the season...2006 Draft: Signed as a non-drafted free agent with Houston on May 8.

PLANE PIONEERS

The Packers in 1940 became the first NFL team to fly to a road game. Fearing an air disaster would wipe out the entire team, the NFL forced the Packers to split the squad, and fly on two DC-3's (at right, Coach Curly Lambeau posed with half his team and their plane at Austin Straubel Field before a road trip in the early 1940s).

In those days, many fans turned out to see the humongous plane, more than the team. Players also took out life insurance policies. Al Carmichael and Howie Ferguson, for instance, each took out $50,000 policies, making each other the beneficiary. Players dined on food such as cocktail-grilled sirloin.

DEFENSIVE END • EAST CAROLINA

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 290 • Born: March 30, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 15/2 • Acquired: D7-10

CAREER: Second-year man will look to compete for increased playing time on the line in 2011...Originally expected to contribute primarily on special teams as a rookie as the team's sixth defensive lineman, but was thrust into more significant action after a knee injury ended the season of DE Justin Harrell and when veteran DEs Ryan Pickett and Cullen Jenkins both missed time with injuries of their own...Appeared in 15 games with two starts, recording 21 tackles (12 solo) and a sack...Played in all four playoff contests as well, getting the starting nod in Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh as part of the defense's "Hippo" package that employs four linemen...A productive pass-rushing end in East Carolina's 4-3 scheme, made the transition to DE in the Packers' 3-4 defense...Selected by the Packers in the seventh round (No. 230 overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft, the first player ever selected by Green Bay out of East Carolina...Four-year starter for the Pirates who finished career with 192 tackles, including 45½ for loss, and 27 sacks...Was named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year as a junior and senior by Sporting News...Played in all 54 games during his time at ECU, starting 37 straight contests to close out his career...As a senior, earned selection to the Ted Hendricks (nation's top defensive end), 40th Annual Rotary Lombardi (nation's top lineman), and Bronko Nagurski (nation's best defensive player) Award watch lists...Posted career highs in tackles (70), sacks (10½) and tackles for loss (18½) as a junior on his way to earning C-USA Player of the Year honors from ESPN.com...Earned second-team All-C-USA honors from the league's coaches as a sophomore when he started nine games and finished sixth in the conference with seven sacks...Contributed right away to the Pirates as he was named to conference's All-Freshman team by the media...Was a two-time all-area selection at Northside High (Belhaven, N.C.)...Initially enrolled at ECU in the fall of 2005, but officially joined the program in the spring of 2006 after completing NCAA eligibility requirements...Went on to be named to the ECU Athletic Director's Honor Roll three times.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in 15 games with two starts and finished the season with 21 tackles (12 solo), six QB hits and a sack...Played in all four postseason contests

AT A GLANCE

- Saw significant time as a rookie in 2010 with injuries along the line, posting 21 tackles and a sack in 15 games.
- Started Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh with the defense employing a fourth lineman as part of its "Hippo" package.
- Named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year by Sporting News each of his final two seasons at East Carolina, and was a two-time first-team all-conference selection (2008-09).
- Played in all 54 games during his time at ECU, starting 37 straight contests to close out his career.
- Became first player from East Carolina to be drafted by the Packers.
- Earned his B.A. in communications in May 2009, and was a three-time selection to the ECU Athletic Director's Honor Roll after eligibility qualifying issues delayed the start of his career.

with one start, recording six tackles (five solo) and a sack...Inactive (healthy scratch) for season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12)...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Made pro debut, recording an assisted tackle and a QB hit...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Started the first game of his career at LDE in place of Pickett, who was inactive due to an ankle injury. Played 28 snaps and registered four tackles (two solo)...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): After Jenkins sustained a calf injury in pregame warm-ups, unexpectedly became a key member of the defensive front. Participated in 40 plays and recorded career highs in tackles (nine) and solo stops (five). Drilled QB Brett Favre in the third quarter as he stepped up to throw to WR Randy Moss, and the veteran QB's pass went right into the arms of LB Desmond Bishop, who returned the pick 32 yards for a TD and a 28-17 lead that the Packers wouldn't relinquish...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Started at LDE and posted three tackles (two solo), including one for a loss and a QB hit...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Posted his first career sack when he brought QB Jon Kitna down for a 1-yard loss as time expired. Finished with three tackles (two solo) and a QB hit...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Played 20 snaps as part of a defensive-line ro-

MULTIPLE 100-YARD RUSHERS IN SAME GAME

In the 2008 regular-season finale, two Packers topped 100 yards rushing, a feat which has been accomplished only twice by the team in the past 24 seasons. Ryan Grant (106) and DeShawn Wynn (106 yards) became the fifth pair in Packers history to accomplish the feat.

- Multiple Packers players with 100 yards rushing in the same game:

CAREER: Polished veteran and team leader earned his third straight and seventh career Pro Bowl bid in 2010, one year after his best individual season in 2009, when he won NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press...This past season, in winning his first Super Bowl title in 13 decorated seasons in the NFL, established new career highs in tackles (115) and forced fumbles (five), and became the first player in league history to return an interception for a touchdown in five straight seasons...Now has 10 career interceptions returned for touchdowns, third on the NFL's all-time list behind only Rod Woodson (12) and Darren Sharper (11)...Eight of those are with Green Bay, which constitute a franchise record, as do his nine defensive touchdowns (one fumble return)...Utilized by defensive coordinator Dom Capers in a variety of positions in the defensive backfield, is also a playmaker against the run, with nine forced fumbles over the past two seasons, tied for fourth in the league over that span and tied for first among defensive backs...His seven sacks since 2008 lead all NFL defensive backs...In '09, became only the second Packer to win the league's top defensive award (DE Reggie White, 1998) and the oldest defensive back to do so...His three interceptions for touchdowns in '09 tied the single-season team mark also held by S Nick Collins and CB Herb Adderley, and his career-high nine interceptions on the year tied him for the league lead and put him alongside CB Bobby Dillon (1953-57) as the only Packers to intercept seven or more passes in three different seasons...Since signing with the Packers as their prized unrestricted free agent in 2006, has posted 30 interceptions, more than half of his career total of 47 and third most in the NFL over that span...Is the only player in league history (since 1982) to post seven INTs and two sacks in back-to-back seasons (2008-09)...His first of three straight Pro Bowl bids with the Packers in 2008 was his first Pro Bowl nod since four straight to begin his career (1998-2001) with Oakland...His first season in Green Bay was his best statistically to that point, setting career highs with eight interceptions and 26 passes defended in '06...Followed that up with four INTs and two TDs (one on a fumble return) in '07, and then tied for the NFC lead with teammate Collins by picking off seven passes (returning two for scores) and tallying a career-high three sacks in '08, despite playing most of it with a broken toe...With 169 INT return yards in '08, joined Collins to form the second tandem in franchise history to each post 165-plus interception return yards in a season (John Symank/Dillon, 1957).

Drafted fourth overall in 1998 by Oakland, was voted to the Pro Bowl his first four years in the league (1998-2001) and earned first-team All-Pro honors on three occasions – in 1999 from AP, in 2000 from Sports Illustrated and in 2001 from Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly...Was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by AP in 1998 as well, when his five INTs and 21 passes defended established career bests not topped until coming to the Packers...Signed with Green Bay on May 1, 2006, and became the sixth Heisman Trophy winner to play for the Packers, joining (chronologically) B Bruce

- In 2010, earned third straight and seventh career Pro Bowl bid, won first Super Bowl in his 13 seasons in the NFL, and returned his 10th interception for a touchdown to move into the No. 3 spot in league history.
- Named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press in 2009, becoming only the second Packer to win the award (DE Reggie White, 1998) and the oldest defensive back to earn the honor.
- In '09, posted a career-high nine interceptions, and earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors three times. Became first defensive player in the NFL to win a monthly award three times in the same season.
- Holds the franchise record with nine defensive TDs (eight INTs, one fumble return), eclipsing CB Herb Adderley and S Darren Sharper (seven each) in '09 for the team mark.
- Has posted seven or more interceptions in three of his five seasons with the Packers, joining CB Bobby Dillon as the only players in franchise annals to intercept seven-plus passes in a season three times.
- Was voted the 1997 Heisman Trophy recipient, becoming the first predominantly defensive player to win the award given annually to the top collegiate player. He is the sixth Heisman Trophy winner to play for the Packers, joining a group that includes Paul Hornung, Ty Detmer and another former University of Michigan standout, Desmond Howard.
- His big-game experience includes two Super Bowls, four conference championship games, eight other NFL playoff contests, three collegiate bowl games including the 1998 Rose Bowl (vs. Washington State) for the co-national championship, and three matchups with collegiate archival Ohio State.
- Made a $2 million donation to the new University of Michigan C.S. Mott Children's Hospital and Women's Hospital, which was announced on Thanksgiving Day in 2009.

Smith (1945-48), B Paul Hornung (1957-62, 1964-66), QB Ty Detmer (1992-95), WR Desmond Howard (1996, 1999) and QB Danny Wuerffel (2000)...Possesses a host of experience on "grand" stages, among them three collegiate bowl games on a nationally ranked Michigan team, including a 1998 Rose Bowl victory over Washington State to sew up the co-national championship; three Michigan-Ohio State games in the annual battle between two of the country's fiercest rivals; plus 14 NFL postseason contests, including two Super Bowls (XLV, XXXVII) and four conference title games (2007, 2010 in NFC; 2000, 2002 in AFC)...Has shown incredible toughness and desire to play by overcoming various injuries to start 78 of 80 games the last five seasons and was honored by teammates with the 2010 Ed Block Courage Award...When necessary, will let his body recover by observing practices during the middle of the week, returning to the field for the final workout by week's end – or perhaps even skipping that, as his broken toe in '08 forced him to do for several weeks – and still playing at a high level in the game...Before a broken leg made him miss 10 games in 2005, had missed just 12 NFL games in his career and has played in 13 or more regular-season games in 11 of 13 seasons as a pro, following a collegiate career that included 34 straight games at Michigan after becoming a starter in the second game of his true freshman season (1995)...Now has at least one INT in 13 consecutive NFL seasons and has totaled 861 tackles (709 solo), including 13½ sacks and 27 forced fumbles; 47 INTs among 176 passes defended; nine fumble recoveries (with one TD return); a blocked FG attempt; two receptions for 27 yards; and 87 punt returns for 708 yards (8.1 avg).

2010 SEASON: Earned his third straight Pro Bowl bid and seventh overall and was named second-team All-Pro by AP...Ranked third on the team with career highs in tackles with 115 (79 solo) and led the defense in forced fumbles with five...Also recorded 13 passes defended, two sacks, a fumble recovery and two INTs, including one returned for a TD...The INT-TD was the 10th of his career, moving him into third place on the NFL's all-time list, behind only Rod Woodson (12) and Sharper (11). It was also his eighth with Green Bay, eclipsing Adderley's franchise mark, and his ninth defensive TD with the Packers, extending his franchise record...Voted by teammates as the recipient of the 2010 Ed Block Courage Award...Started all 16 games, plus all four postseason contests, leaving only the Super Bowl due to injury when he broke his collarbone in the second quarter...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Nearly had his first INT of the season, but the play was overturned by replay. On the Eagles' first drive of the second half, forced a fumble by RB Eldra Buckley that CB Tramon Williams recovered, leading to a 62-yard TD drive...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week as he posted a career-high 14 tackles (11 solo), three passes defended, and an INT returned for a TD, becoming the first player in league history to return an INT for a TD in five straight seasons, and the first to do so in three straight seasons against the same team. Made the diving INT of QB Shaun Hill's pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson, got to his feet and raced 48 yards with a convoy of blockers before diving into the end zone. Also made three crucial plays on the Lions' final drive, dropping RB Jahvid Best for a 1-yard gain and breaking up consecutive passes to Johnson to force a punt from the Green Bay 37. The Packers ran out the remaining 6:32 on the clock for the 28-26 win...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Recorded four tackles (three solo) and an INT among two passes defended. Got his INT with 10:34 left in the game, stealing the ball away from TE Dustin Keller as both players fell to the turf, and the turnover set up a FG drive for a 6-0 lead...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Among five tackles (four solo), had two for loss, a sack and a forced fumble. Dumped QB Jon Kitna for a 3-yard sack and, on consecutive plays, stopped WR Dez Bryant for a 2-yard loss on a screen pass and RB Marion Barber for a 1-yard loss on a draw...At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Forced a fumble for the second straight game, stripping RB Toby Gerhart after a short reception. LB A.J. Hawk recovered at the Green Bay 35, preventing the Vikings from adding to their 3-0 lead...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): On a direct snap on third-and-2, stripped RB Ahmad Bradshaw in the third quarter for his career-best fifth forced fumble of the season. The fumble was recovered by S Atari Bigby and set up a FG drive for a 24-14 lead...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Among eight tackles (five solo), sacked QB Jay Cutler for an 8-yard loss one play before LB Clay Matthews sacked Cutler again, forcing a key punt in the fourth quarter...At Atlanta (Jan. 15): Recorded his first career playoff sack, dropping QB Matt Ryan for a 7-yard loss one play before Williams snagged an INT in the end zone to thwart a potential Falcons scoring drive late in the second quarter...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Started his second career Super Bowl, but did not get to finish it, breaking his collarbone while diving to break up a deep pass to WR Mike Wallace near the sideline late in the first half. Stayed in the game for one more play but then went to the locker room before halftime and watched the remainder of the game from the sidelines. Before the injury, dropped RB Rashard Mendenhall for a 3-yard loss on a second-quarter run.

2009: Named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by AP, becoming only the second Packer to ever win the award (White, 1998)...Became the oldest DB to earn the honor and the first CB since Deion Sanders in 1994...Also won NFL Defensive Player of the Year from Sporting News...Named first-team All-Pro by AP, Pro Football Weekly, Sporting News and Sports Illustrated...Voted as top DB in the league by NFL Alumni...Selected to the Pro Bowl for the sixth time, and was named a starter for the second straight season...Named 2009 NFC Defensive Player of the Year by the Kansas City Committee of 101, a national committee of 101 sportswriters and sportscasters who cover the NFL...Started all 16 games at LCB, plus the playoff contest, and led the team with a career-high nine INTs, which tied for the NFL lead...Tied for the NFL lead with a career-high three INT returns for TDs...His 179 INT return yards were also a career high and ranked third in the NFL...Led the team with four forced fumbles...Also posted two sacks, which was tied for second in the league among DBs...Led the secondary with a career-high 81 tackles (63 solo) and was second on the team with 21 passes defended...Became only the fourth player in NFL history (since 1982) to post nine INTs and two sacks in the same season...Named NFC Defensive Player of the Month three times (Sept., Nov., Dec./Jan.), the first player on that side of the ball to earn the monthly award three times in the same season...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Intercepted QB Carson Palmer twice, his fourth career multi-INT game and his third in Green Bay. Second INT came in the second quarter when he jumped Palmer's short pass in the right flat intended for TE Daniel Coats and took it 37 yards for a TD. Finished with a team-high 11 tackles (10 solo), matching his (then) single-game best as a Packer...At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Stepped in front of WR Danny Amendola on crossing route over the middle to intercept QB Kyle Boller's pass in the fourth quarter at the Rams' 26. Led secondary with 10 tackles (eight solo), giving him back-to-back games with double-digit tackles for the first time in his career...At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted 40th career INT when he picked off QB Derek Anderson's pass intended for WR Brian Robiskie on the right sideline in the second quarter; returned INT 25 yards down to the Browns' 15 to set up a RB Ryan Grant TD run. Early in the third quarter, stripped WR Joshua Cribbs after he caught a 3-yard pass, and LB Brandon Chillar recovered at the Packers' 48...Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Led team with 10 tackles and had a hand in each of the Packers' three takeaways. Stripped WR Roy Williams after he picked up 42 yards on second-quarter reception, and Matthews recovered. With Packers leading 10-0 in the fourth quarter, came through untouched for a blind-side sack/forced fumble of QB Tony Romo at Dallas' 25, Matthews recovered at the 7, and returned to the 3 to set up another TD. With just over six minutes remaining and the Cowboys at Green Bay's 1 for first-and-goal, jumped Romo's pass in the flat intended for TE Jason Witten. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance...At Detroit (Nov. 26): Recorded one of the finest all-around performances of his career with five tackles (all solo), a sack, two INTs, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, a season-high four passes defended, and an INT return for a TD. Became the first NFL player since sacks became an official stat in 1982 to record a sack, two INTs, an INT return for a TD and a fumble recovery in the same game. On Lions' first drive of the second half, passed off WR Calvin Johnson and came underneath to intercept QB Matthew Stafford's pass intended for WR Bryant Johnson, making a diving grab to make the catch. With just under four minutes remaining in the game, jumped pass intended for Calvin Johnson and returned the INT 38 yards for the score. On next series, stripped TE Casey FitzSimmons on reception and recovered the fumble at the Detroit 41. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors...At Chicago (Dec. 13): Posted four tackles (two solo) and a team-high three passes defended, including an INT when he picked off Cutler's underthrown deep pass intended for WR Devin Aromashodu late in the first quarter...At Arizona (Jan. 3): Posted his ninth INT of the season, a career high, jumping a slant route by WR Larry Fitzgerald in the second quarter to pick off a QB Matt Leinart pass. Spun away and took the ball down the left sideline, leaping for the end zone on a 45-yard TD return. The defensive score was the eighth of his Packers career, a new franchise record, and third INT score of the season, which matched the team record...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): With Packers trailing 17-0 early in the second quarter and the Cardinals threatening to score again, stripped Fitzgerald after he made a short catch over the middle at Arizona's 16; Matthews recovered, taking the ball out to Green Bay's 48. Finished game with seven tackles (all solo).

2008: Named Pro Bowl starter, earning his first trip to Hawaii since 2001 and fifth of his career (DNP - toe)... Also named second-team All-Pro by AP and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA...Started all 16 games, 13 at LCB and three at SS despite playing most of the season with a fractured toe sustained in season opener, an injury that kept him off the practice field entirely for several weeks... Tied with teammate Collins for NFC lead with seven INTs, the second-highest total in a season during his career... Tied for second in the NFL in INTs, trailing only Baltimore's Ed Reed (9)...Tied for second in the league with two INTs for TD and set a (then) career high with 169 INT return yards, joining Collins to become only the second tandem in franchise history to each post 165-plus INT return yards in a season (Symank/Dillon, '57)...Along with Collins and Williams, became first Packers trio to each post five INTs in a season since '96 (S Eugene Robinson, S LeRoy Butler, CB Doug Evans)...Registered 79 tackles, which matched his (then) career high, and added a forced fumble and a fumble recovery...Led team with 20 passes defended...Led secondary with a career-high three sacks...On the field for 1,024 of 1,050 (97.5 percent) defensive plays, which led the team, and was named the Packers Hall of Fame Team MVP for the season...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Recorded the third two-INT game of his career after missing entire week of practice with fractured toe sustained in previous week's game vs. Minnesota, and tied career high with five passes defended. Picked off Kitna with Green Bay leading 27-25 with just over five minutes remaining to set up

RB Brandon Jackson's TD run. Picked Kitna off again two plays later, this time returning the INT 41 yards for the TD...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Amidst seven tackles and three passes defended, picked off QB Brian Griese's short dump-off pass intended for RB Warrick Dunn early in the fourth quarter and returned the INT 62 yards for a TD...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Jumped route to pick off QB Charlie Frye's pass intended for TE John Carlson in fourth quarter. Also posted his second sack as a Packer and first since 2006 when he brought Frye down for a 5-yard loss toward the end of the first quarter...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Jumped in front of QB Gus Frerotte's pass intended for WR Bobby Wade in the second quarter for an INT, which he returned 9 yards to the Minnesota 48. Packers utilized field position for drive that was capped off with a 1-yard TD run from Grant...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Made four tackles and sacked QB Kyle Orton for an 8-yard loss in the third quarter as secondary allowed just four receptions by Bears wide receivers...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Started first game as a Packer at SS due to injuries at the position, and recorded nine tackles. Recovered fumble by WR Muhsin Muhammad forced by Williams at the Green Bay 19 on the first play from scrimmage, and forced a fumble on RB Jonathan Stewart's 43-yard run down to the Green Bay 3, but it was recovered by Panthers G Travarre Wharton. It was the first time in Woodson's career that he forced a fumble and recovered one in the same game...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started second straight game at SS and registered a season-high 11 tackles, his highest single-game total as a Packer to that point. Also had two passes defended, including a breakup of a QB Matt Schaub pass deep to WR Andre Johnson in the first quarter...At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Started at SS and posted six tackles and a sack, his third of the season, a career high, bringing down QB David Garrard for a 1-yard loss in the third quarter...At Chicago (Dec. 22): Moved back to starting LCB spot and intercepted Orton's short pass intended for RB Adrian Peterson at the Green Bay 48 late in the third quarter, returning the pick 22 yards. Posted four tackles, including a stop of RB Matt Forte for a 1-yard loss in OT...Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Recorded his seventh INT on the year, picking off QB Dan Orlovsky's overthrown pass intended for Calvin

Johnson on a slant in the first quarter. Returned the INT 23 yards to the Detroit 41.

2007: Started 14 of 16 games and was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl...Missed one game due to a toe injury and another to rest up for the playoffs, when he started both contests... Posted 64 tackles (54 solo) with four INTs among 10 passes defended, plus a fumble recovery... Returned one INT and one fumble for scores, the Packers' only defensive TDs on the season... Also had a team-high 33 punt returns for 268 yards (8.1 avg.)... Was named to the 2007 All-Interview team by NFL.com's Vic Carucci... vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors and was voted GMC Defensive Player of the Week; recorded five tackles (four solo), with an INT and a fumble return for a TD. In the second quarter, intercepted a pass that deflected off the hands of WR Santana Moss, wrestling the ball away from WR Antwaan Randle El. In the third quarter, DT Corey Williams stripped Moss on an end-around play; Woodson picked up the fumble and ran for a 57-yard, game-winning TD in 17-14 triumph... At Kansas City (Nov. 4): In the fourth quarter, picked off a QB Damon Huard pass intended for WR Sammie Parker and returned it 46 yards for a TD, the final score of the game in the 33-22 win. Earlier in the quarter, had a 27-yard punt return that set up a 45-yard FG for a 26-22 advantage. Also tackled RB Larry Johnson for a 1-yard loss in the third quarter... vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): With the Vikings in the red zone in the fourth quarter, picked off a QB Brooks Bollinger pass at the Green Bay 2-yard line, helping to preserve an eventual 34-0 Green Bay win, the franchise's first-ever shutout of Vikings... At Detroit (Nov. 22): Left the game with a toe injury, suffered during a first-quarter 34-yard punt return that was seemingly one block away from a score. Did not return to the contest and missed the next game at Dallas (Nov. 29)... vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Sat out to rest up for the playoffs, and went on to post six solo tackles and three passes defended in the two postseason contests.

2006: Experienced what some might call a rebirth of his career, coming to Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent and producing statistically his best season to that point... Despite battling a painful shoulder injury much of the season, started all 16 contests at LCB and led the team in both

INTs (eight) and passes defended (26), each a career best that topped his previous highs of five INTs and 21 passes defended as a rookie in 1998 with Oakland... His 26 passes broken up were the third-most ever recorded by a Packers player, behind Harris (28 in 2004) and Evans (27 in 1995)... The eight INTs tied for first in the NFC and tied for third in the league, yet he was snubbed in Pro Bowl voting... Also served as his team's primary punt returner for the first time since winning the Heisman Trophy at Michigan in 1997, returning 41 punts for 363 yards (8.9 avg.) to easily eclipse the 12 NFL returns he had entering 2006... At Miami (Oct. 22): Led the team with four passes defended. Picked off a QB Joey Harrington pass that bounced off the hands of TE Randy McMichael and ran it back 23 yards for a TD, his third career score, but first since a 22-yard return of a QB Elvis Grbac INT, Nov. 28, 1999, vs. Kansas City (with Oakland); earlier in the game, came on a corner blitz and sacked Harrington, forcing a punt... At Seattle (Nov. 27): Notched the second two-INT game of his career (also at Chicago, Oct. 5, 2003), and with three passes defended eclipsed 100 for his career. On the Seahawks' first drive, intercepted a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass deflected by DT Ryan Pickett to set up the Packers' first TD. Notched his second Hasselbeck INT in the second quarter, stepping in front of a short pass intended for WR Deion Branch... At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Had a career-long 40-yard punt return, setting up a fourth-quarter FG that iced the contest, plus his first kickoff return since his days at Michigan, when he had all three in his collegiate days in one game, a home loss to Penn State (Nov. 16, 1996). Also pounced on a RB Frank Gore fumble (his fifth career fumble recovery but his first since Nov. 28, 2004, in an Oakland win at Denver)... vs. Detroit (Dec. 17): Recorded a (then) career-high sixth INT, picking off a Kitna pass intended for WR Mike Furrey... vs. Minnesota (Dec. 21): Made his seventh INT of the year, picking off a QB Tarvaris Jackson throw intended for WR Travis Taylor, returning it 14 yards; also had seven punt returns – tying for the second most in franchise history – for 48 yards, including a game-high 18-yard return... At Chicago (Dec. 31): Picked off a second-quarter QB Rex Grossman pass for his eighth INT of the year and his seventh individual takeaway over a six-game stretch.

2005: Started the Raiders' first six games of the year before suffering a broken leg that sidelined him for the balance of the season...Was inactive for the subsequent nine contests before Oakland placed him on injured reserve Dec. 29...Finished with 31 tackles (27 solo), one INT among four passes defended, one forced fumble and three punt returns for 20 yards...Vs. Kansas City (Sept. 18): Opened at FS, his only start of the season not at CB, and had a season-high two passes defended plus a forced fumble by Parker near midfield with five minutes left, positioning Oakland for a potential go-ahead TD...Vs. Dallas (Oct. 2): Had a second-quarter INT of QB Drew Bledsoe, plus five tackles...Vs. Buffalo (Oct. 23): Fractured his right lower leg late in the second quarter when he tackled RB Willis McGahee at the end of a 4-yard run.

2004: Played in Oakland's first 13 games, starting 12, before being inactive for the final three contests due to a right knee injury...Had a (then) career-high 2½ sacks among 74 total tackles (59 solo)...Also broke up nine passes, including one INT, forced a pair of fumbles, recovered another fumble and returned one punt for 4 yards...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Sacked Bledsoe for the first of two early-season sacks...Vs. Tampa Bay (Sept. 26): Got a sack for the second straight week, this one against QB Brad Johnson, forcing a fumble in the process...At Houston (Oct. 3): Had a season-high four passes defended, along with 10 tackles to lead all defenders...At Carolina (Nov. 7): Played in a reserve capacity due to a hip problem...At Denver (Nov. 28): Recovered a RB Reuben Droughns fumble on the opening possession of the second half that led to a quick Raiders TD in a 25-24 triumph...Vs. Kansas City (Dec. 5): Made a career-best (and game-high) 13 tackles, including 12 solo. Also intercepted QB Trent Green inside Oakland territory in the second quarter to set up a Raiders TD.

2003: Started the Raiders' first 15 games at CB, staying healthy throughout the year...Recorded 70 tackles (56 solo), including one sack and one forced fumble...Also made three INTs among eight passes defended and recovered one fumble...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 14): Ended Bengals' final threat with INT of Kitna in 23-20 victory...At Chicago (Oct. 5): Contributed two second-quarter turnovers leading to a pair of Raiders FGs, recovering a fumble by TE Desmond Clark and returning an INT of QB Kordell Stewart 51 yards in final minute of first half. Later picked off Stewart on the Bears' initial drive of the second half, giving him his first two-INT game as a professional...At Cleveland (Oct. 12): Forced a RB William Green fumble on the game's opening possession, leading to a TD which ended up being the Raiders' only points of the afternoon...Vs. N.Y. Jets (Nov. 9): Posted season-best eight tackles...Vs. Denver (Nov. 30): Matched that tackle total and added a sack of QB Jake Plummer...At San Diego (Dec. 28): Was a healthy inactive.

2002: Saw his season interrupted by injury for the first time as a professional, playing eight regular-season games with seven starts...Was inactive for the other eight league contests due to shoulder and leg injuries...Started all three of Oakland's postseason games, including Super Bowl XXXVII...Had a team- and career-high four forced fumbles...Also made one INT among four passes defended, recovered one fumble and posted 37 tackles...Vs. Seattle (Sept. 8): Matched career best with two forced fumbles (also Dec. 16, 2000, at Seattle) among a team-high eight tackles in season-opening victory...At Pittsburgh (Sept. 15): Had a hand in a pair of fourth-quarter turnovers – forcing a WR Hines Ward fumble and intercepting Stewart – in 30-17 win...Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 3): Returned to starting lineup after missing five games with a right shoulder injury and made eight stops, recovering an early RB Garrison Hearst fumble...At Denver (Nov. 11): Had season-best nine tackles in 34-10, Monday night triumph...Vs. N.Y. Jets (AFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Returned to start after right leg injury left him inactive for three of final four regular-season games (playing as first-half sub in the other). Tied for team high with three passes defended and had six tackles...Vs. Tennessee (AFC Championship, Jan. 19): Shared club lead with eight tackles...Vs. Tampa Bay (Super Bowl XXXVII, Jan. 26): Had eight tackles and intercepted Johnson on third play, leading to a FG that gave Oakland the first points in eventual 48-21 defeat.

2001: Played in all 16 regular-season games for a fourth straight season, making 15 starts at CB...Also started both of the Raiders' playoff contests...Finished second on the team in passes defended with 11, he also weighed in with 53 tackles, two sacks, one INT, one forced fumble and one blocked FG...Additionally, returned punts for the first time as a professional, averaging 11.8 yards on four returns for 47 yards...In just his fourth NFL season, was voted to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, though he did not play in the all-star contest due to turf toe...Also was named to the All-Pro teams of Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly, along with the All-AFC squad of Football News...At Kansas City (Sept. 9): Intercepted Green in season-opening, 27-24 victory...Vs. Seattle (Sept. 30): Recorded the first two sacks of his pro career among a season-high eight tackles, dropping Hasselbeck twice in a 38-14 victory...Vs. Dallas (Oct. 7): Blocked a 41-yard FG try by Tim Seder just before halftime of 28-21 win...At N.Y. Giants (Nov. 25): Forced a FB Greg Comella fumble to blunt an early Giants drive into Oakland territory, among six stops, in eventual 28-10 victory...At Denver (Dec. 30): Did not start regular-season finale due to stomach illness, though he did see action...Vs. N.Y. Jets (AFC Wild Card, Jan. 12): Posted seven stops plus a pair of passes defended...At New England (AFC Divisional,

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

In 1978, the Baltimore Colts started an effort to raise funds for abused children and conceived an award they named after their longtime trainer, the late Ed Block. In 1984, the award was taken league-wide to honor one player from each team who, in the eyes of his teammates, best exemplifies and displays courage. Below are the Packers winners, as voted by their teammates, from 1984-2010:

1984	Ron Cassidy	1993	Johnny Holland	2002	Kabeer Bجا-Biamila
1985	Ezra Johnson	1994	George Teague	2003	Gilbert Brown
1986	Karl Swanke	1995	Reggie White	2004	Marco Rivera
1987	Keith Uecker	1996	Brett Favre	2005	Donald Driver
1988	Mark Murphy	1997	Robert Brooks	2006	Jon Ryan
1989	Herman Fontenot	1998	Craig Newsome	2007	Chris Francis
1990	Perry Kemp	1999	Earl Dotson	2008	Mark Tauscher
1991	Val Sikaheha	2000	Josh Bidwell	2009	Nick Collins
1992	Tootie Robbins	2001	Santana Dotson	2010	Charles Woodson

Jan. 19): Made five tackles and knocked down a pass as Raiders suffered 16-13, OT loss in snowy contest. Provided hit on QB Tom Brady that knocked ball loose late in fourth quarter, leading to future enforcement of the "tuck" rule.

2000: Led the Raiders in INTs (four), passes defended (13) and forced fumbles (three) while starting all 16 regular-season games for the third straight year...Also started in both Oakland postseason contests...Finished second on the team in tackles with a (then) career-high 79, recovered one fumble and caught one pass for 8 yards...Chosen to his third consecutive Pro Bowl...Was named to the All-Pro team of SI along with earning second-team honors from AP...Also was an All-AFC pick of Football News...Vs. San Diego (Sept. 3): Intercepted QB Ryan Leaf in the season opener...At New Orleans (Nov. 19): Picked off the first NFL pass attempt of QB Aaron Brooks, leading to an Oakland TD, in 31-22 victory. Also recorded six solo stops and a season-high three passes defended...At Seattle (Dec. 16): Forced a pair of fumbles to establish a career high, including one by Seahawks RB Ricky Watters late in the game, among five tackles. Also intercepted Kitna to stop another Seattle drive...Vs. Miami (AFC Divisional, Jan. 6): Posted three tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup in 27-0 shutout; his second-quarter recovery of a RB Lamar Smith fumble inside Miami territory led to a TD that put the Raiders up 20-0...Vs. Baltimore (AFC Championship, Jan. 14): Contributed a pair of stops and knocked down a pass in loss.

1999: Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season...Earned a second straight Pro Bowl appearance, making his first career start...Also was a consensus All-Pro pick (AP, PFW/PFWA)...Finished fourth on the team in tackles with 61, while additionally ranking second among Raiders with 15 passes defended...Vs. San Diego (Nov. 14): Saw action on the offensive side of the ball for the first time as a pro when he lined up at WR, making one reception for 19 yards (from QB Rich Gannon)...Vs. Kansas City (Nov. 28): Returned his lone INT of the year 15 yards for a TD in see-saw battle, picking off Grbac in the third quarter for Oakland's final points...Vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 19): Recovered a second-quarter fumble to set up a score in blowout victory.

1998: Became the first rookie DB to start all 16 games for the Raiders in 27 years (last was Jack Tatum at S in 1971)...Tied CB Eric Allen for the team lead in INTs with five (also tied for 10th in the AFC), among a club-high 22 passes defended...His INT total was the most by a Raiders rookie since DB Charles Phillips' six in 1975...Also paced the secondary – and was third among all Oakland defenders – with 64 tackles, along with contributing two forced fumbles...Was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by AP, PFW, and Football Digest, and earned NFL Rookie of the Month honors for December...Also was voted to his first Pro Bowl and was an all-rookie selection of PFW/PFWA...At Kansas City (Sept. 6): Forced a fumble among a season-high seven tackles in NFL debut...At Dallas (Sept. 27): Picked off QB Jason Garrett deep in Raiders' territory for first pro INT during third quarter of 13-12 victory...At Arizona (Oct. 4): His 46-yard INT return for a TD (of the Cardinals' Plummer) – his first NFL score – gave Oakland a 16-14 lead it would not relinquish in 23-20 triumph...At San Diego (Dec. 20): Knocked down a career-high five passes, along with three tackles and a late INT of QB Craig Whelihan, in 17-10 victory...1998 Draft: Was the fourth player selected overall, by the Oakland Raiders, the highest DB ever selected out of Michigan.

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter and letterman (1995-97) at the University of Michigan...Became a starter beginning with the second game of his true freshman season, going on to play in 34 straight games for the Wolverines before turning pro after his junior year...Twice was named Chevrolet Defensive Player of the Year and an All-America selection (1996-97)...Chosen All-Big Ten all three years of his career...Led the Wolverines in INTs for three straight seasons, finishing his collegiate career with 18...Totalled 30 passes broken up...A multi-faceted player, made spot contributions on offense as a receiver and on special teams as a return man with 44 career punt returns...Junior season (1997): Voted the Heisman Trophy recipient, becoming the first predominantly defensive player to win the award presented annually to the top collegiate player...Also named conference Defensive Player of the Year, finishing second in the nation in INTs with eight...A consensus All-American who was voted MVP of Michigan's co-national championship squad...Also earned recognition as Walter Camp Player of the Year, the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's best DB, the Bronko Nagurski Award as the top collegiate defensive player and Sporting News Player of the Year...Had 36 punt returns for 301 yards (8.4 avg.), including 78-yard TD in 20-14 triumph over No. 4 Ohio State (Nov. 22), upping the Wolverines' mark to 11-0 en route to their perfect 12-0 season and being voted national champion by AP...Sophomore season (1996): Posted a (then) school-record 15 passes broken up among five INTs, earning first of back-to-back Chevrolet Defensive Player of the Year and All-America honors...Freshman season (1995): Picked off five passes and earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year recognition, as well as first of three straight All-Big Ten selections.

CAREER: Versatile lineman will look to compete for more time in Green Bay's rotation in his third season...Saw action primarily as a down lineman in nickel package in his first two seasons, and also contributed on special teams...Appeared in nine games for the Packers in 2010, posting career highs in tackles (nine) and sacks (1½)...Was waived by the team in the final roster cutdown on Sept. 4, but was re-signed on Sept. 14 after DE Justin Harrell was lost for the season due to a knee injury sustained in the opener at Philadelphia...Played in 11 contests as a rookie in '09...Was drafted by Green Bay with the first of two sixth-round picks in the 2009 NFL Draft...Saw time primarily at defensive end at Georgia but also slid inside to play tackle in certain packages...Played two seasons for the Bulldogs after beginning his career at Georgia Military College...Posted his most productive performances in the final two games of his college career, recording a career-high six tackles in the '08 regular-season finale vs. Georgia Tech, and following that up with four tackles and a career-high two sacks in Georgia's Capital One Bowl win vs. Michigan State...Appeared in all 13 games as a junior for the Bulldogs after enrolling at school in January 2007...Earned second-team National Junior College Athletic Association honors in 2006 at Georgia Military College...Voted team captain and defensive MVP that season...Led the team with eight tackles for loss, and also posted two sacks, four forced fumbles and a fumble recovery...Started all 11 games as a freshman for a defense that ranked No. 2 in the country...Earned first-team all-state honors as a defensive lineman his senior season of high school after earning first-team all-state honors the previous season at offensive tackle.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in nine games, registering career highs in tackles (nine) and sacks (1½)...Also played in three playoff contests and recorded a solo tackle...Was released by the team in the final roster cutdown on Sept. 4, but was re-signed just 10 days later after Harrell sustained the season-ending knee injury in the opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12)...Inactive for six contests and the NFC title game at Chicago (healthy scratch)...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Appeared in his first game of the season and recorded an

- Has played in 20 games in his two seasons in Green Bay, posting career highs in tackles (nine) and sacks (1½) in 2010.
- He and his wife, Martavia, welcomed the birth of their son, Jarius Jr., the morning of Super Bowl XLV.
- Had his best performances in his final two games at Georgia, posting a career-high six tackles in season finale vs. Georgia Tech, and a career-high two sacks in Capital One Bowl win against Michigan State.
- Named second-team National Junior College Athletic Association All-American following his sophomore season at Georgia Military College.
- Cousin, RB Garrison Hearst, was a consensus All-American choice at Georgia and was selected No. 3 overall by the Phoenix Cardinals in the 1993 NFL Draft.
- Lists former Packers DE Reggie White as one of his favorite athletes.

assisted tackle...Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): With starting DE Cullen Jenkins sidelined due to a calf injury sustained in pregame warm-ups, played a more significant role than anyone expected as he played 36 snaps. Posted three tackles (two solo) and the first sack of his career with the Packers down to just three healthy defensive linemen. His sack of Brett Favre came in the fourth quarter when he fought through two blockers to dump the QB for a 6-yard loss with 1:12 remaining. It was the first time Green Bay had sacked Favre in three meetings, and the sack moved Minnesota back to the Green Bay 41 as the Packers clung to a 28-24 lead...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Participated in 21 plays and notched a pair of tackles (one solo)...Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Teamed with LB A.J. Hawk to post the Packers' first sack of the contest as the tandem brought down QB Jay Cutler for a 9-yard loss late in the first quarter. The sack forced a punt on a Chicago drive that had reached the Green Bay 36. Added two tackles (one solo), two QB hits and a pair of pressures...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Played 12 snaps and registered a QB hit and a pressure...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Active, but appeared only on special teams. Spent

LINEBACKER • CENTRAL MICHIGAN

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 254 • Born: March 5, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 13/8 • Acquired: FA-10

CAREER: Came to the Packers as a non-drafted free agent and ended up starting eight regular-season contests as well as Super Bowl XLV opposite Pro Bowler Clay Matthews...Successfully made the transition from a 4-3 defensive end in college to outside linebacker in Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme...With season-ending injuries to opening-day starter Brad Jones (shoulder) and veteran Brady Poppinga (knee), went on to start eight contests, including six straight in the second half of the season before he was sidelined himself for the final three regular-season games and the first three postseason contests with a knee injury...Led all Green Bay rookies and finished No. 6 on the team with 67 tackles (45 solo), along with four sacks, good for No. 4 on the team...His 67 tackles were the most by a Green Bay rookie since LB A.J. Hawk led the team in the category in 2006 (155)...The four sacks were good for No. 3 among NFC rookies behind only a pair of first-round selections, Detroit's Ndamukong Suh (10) and the N.Y. Giants' Jason Pierre-Paul (4½)...Was one of three non-drafted rookies to make the opening-day roster in 2010, joining C/G Nick McDonald and CB Sam Shields...Locked up a roster spot with an impressive showing in the preseason as he led the defense in tackles (18), solo tackles (12) and sacks (two)...A four-year letterman at Central Michigan, he played in all 55 games during his four seasons with 39 starts...Earned All-Mid-American Conference first-team honors as a junior and senior...Finished career ranked second in school history with 25½ sacks, trailing only DE Dan Bazuin (35½, 2003-06), who was a second-round draft pick of the Bears in 2007...Was a three-time CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine All-District IV second-team selection, and earned Academic All-MAC honors twice during his career.

2010 SEASON: Appeared in 13 games with eight starts...Led all Green Bay rookies and finished No. 6 on the team with 67 tackles (45 solo), along with four sacks, good for No. 4 on the team...His 67 tackles were the most by a Green Bay rookie since LB A.J. Hawk led the team in the category in 2006 (155)...The four sacks were good for No. 3 among NFC rookies behind only a pair of first-round selections, Suh (10) and Pierre-Paul (4½)...Locked up a roster spot with an impressive showing in the preseason as he led the defense in tackles (18), solo tackles (12) and sacks (two)...Had a sack/forced fumble of Peyton Manning vs. Indianapolis in preseason contest (Aug. 26), one that was returned by LB Robert Francois to the Colts' 2 to set up a Green Bay TD...Missed the final three regular-season games and the first three postseason contests due to a knee injury sustained at Detroit in Week 14...At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Only appeared in four plays from scrimmage in his NFL debut, but brought down QB Michael Vick for an 8-yard sack in the fourth quarter. Became the first Packers rookie to record a sack in his first game since DE Jamal Reynolds did so in his debut at Jacksonville (Dec. 3, 2001)...At Chicago (Sept. 27): With Jones sidelined (knee), started the first game of his career and posted four tackles (three solo) and a sack. The sack came on the third play from scrimmage as he brought down QB Jay Cutler for a 10-yard loss...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Started at ROLB for the second straight week in place of Jones and registered

- Finished third among rookies in the NFC with four sacks, trailing only a pair of first-round picks, Detroit's Ndamukong Suh (10) and the N.Y. Giants' Jason Pierre-Paul (4½).
- Led Green Bay rookies and finished No. 6 on the team with 67 tackles (45 solo), appearing in 13 games with eight starts.
- Recorded a sack of QB Ben Roethlisberger in Super Bowl XLV to become the first non-drafted rookie to register a sack in a Super Bowl since it became an official statistic in 1982.
- Was one of three non-drafted rookies to make the opening-day roster in 2010, joining C/G Nick McDonald and CB Sam Shields.
- With a sack of QB Michael Vick in the season opener at Philadelphia, he became the first Packers rookie to record a sack in his first game since DE Jamal Reynolds did so in his debut at Jacksonville (Dec. 3, 2001).
- Finished Central Michigan career ranked second in school history with 25½ sacks, trailing only DE Dan Bazuin (35½, 2003-06), who was a second-round draft pick of the Bears in 2007.

six tackles (four solo), including one for a loss...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Played extensively in the second half after Poppinga left the game with a knee injury and posted seven tackles (four solo)...At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Started and recorded nine tackles (five solo), a QB hit, a pressure, and his first career forced fumble. Caused the fumble in the second quarter, stripping WR Brad Smith as he ran out of the "Wildcat" formation; the fumble was recovered by CB Tramon Williams at the Green Bay 29...At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Put together perhaps his finest all-around performance of the season, posting a career-high 11 tackles (eight solo), a tackle for a loss, a sack, a QB hit and a forced fumble. Dropped QB Matt Ryan for an 11-yard sack in the first quarter to force a Falcons punt. Helped force another punt in the fourth quarter, wrapping up RB Gartrell Johnson after a short reception and punching the ball from his arms for a fumble that went out of bounds on third down...Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Sacked QB Troy Smith for a 5-yard loss on third down in the fourth quarter to force a 49ers punt. Added five tackles (four solo), a tackle for loss, a QB hit and a pressure...At Detroit (Dec. 12): Sustained an injury to his right knee in the second half and did not return, but posted six tackles (two solo) in the return to his home state before departing...Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Returned to action after missing the previous six games and started at ROLB in place of an injured Erik Walden (ankle). Finished the game with six tackles (all solo), including two for loss, and posted Green Bay's only sack of QB Ben Roethlisberger. On the third-quarter sack, lined up at LOLB and used an up-field rush, going into the chest of veteran RT Flozell Adams. Spun back into the inside and up into the front of the pocket to bring Roethlisberger down for a 2-yard loss. Became the first non-drafted rookie to post a sack in a Super Bowl since the statistic became an official one in 1982. Posted another tackle for loss when he shed a block from LT Jonathan Scott on the second play of the game to drop RB Rashard Mendenhall for a 4-yard loss...2010 NFL Draft: Signed by Green Bay on April 30 as a non-drafted free agent.

Drafted: First Round

Overall: 32nd

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 321 • Born: April 23, 1989 • High School Hometown: Caledonia, Miss.

CAREER: One of the most accomplished offensive linemen in Mississippi State history, was selected by the Packers in the first round with the No. 32 overall selection... Was a first-team All-America selection by CBSsports.com and Rivals.com in 2010 and earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors from the coaches and the media... Earned second-team All-America honors from The Associated Press, Scout.com, SI.com, Walter Camp and Phil Steele... Became the first player in school history to be named to seven different All-America teams in the same season... His accomplishments were not limited to the field as he was one of 16 players in the nation to be named a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete... Was also a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, an honor awarded to a college football player with the best combination of academics, community service, and on-field performance that is commonly referred to as the "Academic Heisman"... Played in 47 career games for the Bulldogs with 35 starts at tackle, working his way into the offensive-line rotation as a true freshman in '07... Named the SEC's Offensive Lineman of the Week four times as a senior as he helped pave the way for a MSU rushing attack that finished second in the conference and 16th in the nation at 215.8 yards per game... As a junior, helped MSU lead the conference and finish 13th in the nation in rushing offense (227.6)... Broke into the starting lineup as a sophomore after rotating in at right tackle as a true freshman... Was heavily recruited coming out of Caledonia (Miss.) High... Rated the No. 13 offensive tackle prospect in the nation by Rivals.com, and was named to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution's Super Southern 100, one of only 16 offensive linemen to be recognized... Was a first-team all-state selection as a senior, and also posted 79 tackles and six sacks as a defensive lineman... Started all four years in high school... Became the first Mississippi State offensive lineman in school history to be drafted in the first round, and was the first Bulldog since 1996 (WR Eric Moulds, Buffalo) to be selected in the first round... Joined Iowa's Bryan Bulaga (2010) as only the second offensive tackle to be selected in the first round by Green Bay in the past 14 drafts... Was the first player drafted by the Packers from Mississippi State since DB Henry Monroe was selected in the seventh round in 1979... Earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in August 2010 and took post-graduate classes focusing on financial risk management, insurance and financial planning in the fall semester in 2010.

2010: Started all 13 games at left tackle for the Bulldogs, earning All-America recognition from seven different services, the most ever by an MSU player... Was a first-team All-America choice by CBSsports.com and Rivals.com, while earning second-team recognition from AP, Scout.com, SI.com, Walter Camp, and Phil Steele... Named first-team All-SEC by the coaches and media... Named the conference's Offensive Lineman of the Week four times on the season... Voted a team captain... Helped the Bulldogs finish second in the conference and 16th in the nation in rushing offense with an average of 215.8 yards per game... Helped MSU rush for over 200 yards eight times on the season, part of a ground game that featured three different 500-

THE COMPENSATORY SYSTEM

The Packers were awarded one compensatory draft selection from the league in 2011, a fourth-round choice. Since the first compensatories were awarded in 1994, only the Ravens (31), Cowboys (29) and Eagles (29) have received more than the Packers (26). Green Bay's last compensatory choice was in 2011, CB Davon House.

Under terms of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement, a team losing more or better compensatory free agents than it acquires in a year is eligible to receive compensatory draft picks.

The number of picks a team receives equals the net loss of compensatory free agents up to a maximum of four. The 32 compensatory choices announced every March supplement the original choices in the seven rounds of the NFL Draft.

Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Not every free agent lost or signed by a club is covered by this formula.

Teams are no longer allowed to trade compensatories, although they were during the early years of the system. Because of that clause, the Packers acquired two compensatory choices in 1994 from San Francisco. In other words, Green Bay has actually drafted 28 compensatory players, but the league only has awarded the team 26.

THE COIN TOSS

- The toss of the coin will take place within three minutes of kickoff in center of field. The toss will be called by the visiting captain before the coin is flipped. The winner may choose one of three privileges:
 - Receive or kick
 - Goal his team will defend
 - Defer choice to start of second half
- Immediately prior to the start of the second half, the captains of both teams must inform the officials of their respective choices. The loser of the original coin toss gets first choice, unless the coin toss winner elected to defer.

RYAN TAYLOR

TIGHT END • NORTH CAROLINA

Drafted: Seventh Round (a)

Overall: 218th

(11th tight end selected)

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 254 • Born: November 16, 1987 • High School Hometown: Winston-Salem, N.C.

CAREER: An all-way player early in his college career as a tight end, linebacker and special-teams contributor who emerged as his team's primary threat at tight end in 2010... Set a North Carolina school record for receptions in one season by a TE with 36 last season... Took on a larger role in the offense after fellow TE Zack Panielto was lost at mid-season to an injury, and established new career highs for receptions and yards in each of his final three collegiate games... Was also a special teams captain for two seasons at North Carolina, in 2008 and 2010, the two years sandwiched around the 2009 season he lost due to a knee injury... Drafted by the Packers with the first of two seventh-round picks, the 218th overall selection and the 11th TE taken... Became the first player drafted by the Packers from North Carolina since DT Vonnie Holliday (first round, 1998)... Interestingly, his position coach at North Carolina during his freshman 2006 season was John Gutekunst, father of Packers scout Brian Gutekunst, and his position coach his final two college seasons was Allen Mogridge, who also was Packers RB James Starks' position coach for his freshman season in 2006 at Buffalo... Majored in communications.

AT A GLANCE

- Set a North Carolina single-season school record for receptions by a tight end with 36 in 2010.
- Established career highs for receptions and yards in each of his final three collegiate games, capping his career with nine catches for 85 yards in the Music City Bowl vs. Tennessee.
- Played on offense (TE), defense (LB) and special teams in the same game, vs. North Carolina State in 2008.
- Was special teams captain for the Tar Heels for two seasons (2008, 2010), having missed the 2009 season due to a knee injury.

2010: A special-teams captain for a second time, developed into a valuable contributor at H-back and then became the offense's primary threat at TE when Panielto was lost to an injury at midseason... With a strong finish to his career, during which he established personal highs for receptions and yards in each of his last three games, set a school record for most receptions in a season by a TE with 36, for 330 yards (9.2 avg.) and two TDs... At Rutgers (Sept. 25): Had three catches for 16 yards (5.3 avg.), including a 6-yard TD for his first career score... Vs. William &

DRAFT-ORDER TIES

Draft-order ties are resolved by the cumulative record of each team's opponents. The team with the weaker opponents receives drafting priority. Within a tied segment, non-playoff clubs are given priority over playoff clubs. For the teams that do make the postseason, there will be a reseeding based on how far they go in the playoffs. The losers of the wild-card contests will be seeded 21-24 based on their records. The losers of the divisional games will be slotted 25-28, and teams losing in the conference championship games will be picks No. 29 and No. 30. The Super Bowl loser will pick 31st, with the Super Bowl winner picking last at No. 32.

IMPOSTER

During the 1923 season, the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a major story announcing the Packers had signed Jack "Dollie" Gray, an end who'd received All-America honors at Princeton.

According to participation charts kept by George Calhoun, Gray started his only game played — a 24-3 loss to the Racine Legion at Bellevue Park.

Made suspicious by Gray's performance, Curly Lambeau checked the player's background, only to discover he was an imposter. Lambeau quickly gave the player — whoever he was — his walking papers.

However, because he did play in a game, the Packers still list him on their all-time roster.

LONGEST OPPONENT WINNING STREAKS BROKEN BY PACKERS

On Jan. 1, 2006, Green Bay ended Seattle's 11-game winning streak. Previously, the longest streak Green Bay had ever halted was a 10-game run by the Lions, at Detroit on Nov. 25, 1934, a 3-0 final. Prior to that Seattle contest, the longest streak snapped at Lambeau Field was Denver's nine-game run in 1996.

TITLETOWN: GREEN BAY, WIS.

Jack Yuenger first dubbed Green Bay "Titeltown" after the team's 1961 NFL championship, a 37-0 triumph over the New York Giants. Yuenger, Green Bay Press-Gazette advertising manager, printed the city's new nickname on celebratory signs for fan distribution. The '61 title, the Packers' sixth of an NFL-record 13 world championships — and first under Vince Lombardi — was earned in Green Bay, the first championship game ever played in the city.

ROOKIES VS. FIRST-YEAR PLAYERS

Rookies are players in their first year of pro football who have not been on another pro football team's roster for any regular-season or postseason games. First-year players are those who have played in other pro sports leagues (Arena Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on an NFL team's active, inactive or reserve list fewer than six games.

The rule originated when Lawrence McCutcheon, drafted by the L.A. Rams in 1972, played only three games his "rookie" season, then rushed for 1,097 yards in 1973. Today, due to McCutcheon and because rosters began expanding around the 1970 NFL-AFL merger (reserve lists formalized, etc.), that year is considered the beginning of the rookie rule. So today, for records purposes, the Packers use 1970 as a separator. From 1921-69, anyone who had yet to play three league games was generally considered a rookie.

A player will be credited with a year of NFL experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured List, or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform List — six games on a combination of any of these lists. Rookies are players in their first year of professional football who have not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. Players who have played in other professional sports leagues (Canadian Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on the above lists for fewer than six games are listed as first-year NFL players ("1").

GREEN BAY 27, PHILADELPHIA 20

Lincoln Financial Field, Sunday, Sept. 12, 2010. Attendance: 69,144. Time: 3:17. Weather: 69° F, Humidity: 72 percent, Wind: SSE 4 mph

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Aaron Rodgers threw a pair of touchdown passes, Mason Crosby kicked a team-record 56-yard field goal and the Packers beat Philadelphia 27-20.

The score was almost an afterthought because Kevin Kolb struggled and Michael Vick was so impressive in his first extended action during meaningful minutes in nearly four years. With Kolb sidelined by a concussion, Vick threw for 175 yards, ran for 103 and resembled the guy who went to three Pro Bowls in six seasons with Atlanta.

Vick's last NFL start came on Dec. 31, 2006, in Philadelphia. He missed the next two seasons while serving an 18-month sentence in federal prison for his role in a dogfighting operation. Vick signed a two-year contract with the Eagles last summer, and saw limited action mostly in a variation of the wildcat formation.

He finally got his chance, and made the most of it.

The Packers (1-0) were a popular preseason pick to reach the Super Bowl, and they began their quest for a 13th NFL title with a tough win in a hostile environment.

After a slow start, the Packers got going late in the second quarter and scored on three straight possessions.

Ryan Grant ran 13, 8 and 18 yards to spark an 86-yard drive. Greg Jennings kept it going with a leaping, one-handed catch for a 16-yard gain on third-and-9. Rodgers then tossed a 6-yard TD pass to Donald Driver to give the Packers a 10-3 lead.

Kolb was injured in the second quarter when he was tackled from behind by Clay Matthews. The team originally said he had a jaw injury and he returned for a series, completing two short passes.

GREEN BAY (AP) — Aaron Rodgers already shouldered plenty of pressure with the Green Bay Packers before losing starting running back Ryan Grant to a season-ending ankle injury last week.

He is even picking up the slack in the running game, too.

Rodgers ran for a touchdown and threw for two more scores and didn't commit a turnover in Green Bay's 34-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sunday.

The quarterback certainly has a lot more options by air and the Packers (2-0) appear ready to rely on that until they can figure out how to mount a significant running attack again without Grant, their back-to-back 1,200-yard runner.

Jermichael Finley and Donald Driver caught four passes each, while Greg Jennings and James Jones added three more receptions apiece. Packers linebacker Clay Matthews sacked Trent Edwards three times to give him six this season and Green Bay forced two interceptions. Edwards finished 11-of-18 for 102 yards for a passer rating of 37.0, more than two points lower than if all 18 of his passes fell incomplete.

Buffalo didn't gain a yard in the first quarter and only looked in rhythm momentarily when Fred Jackson scored on a 3-yard run to cap an 80-yard drive early in the second quarter to cut Green Bay's lead to 13-7.

Rodgers then threw a touchdown pass to Driver on third-and-goal from the 7 and scored again late in the third quarter with a 9-yard scramble that had his teammates laughing when he had a hard time leaping into the stands to celebrate with fans.

Rodgers capped his day by hitting Jones with a 30-yard TD pass to make it 34-7.

CHICAGO 20, GREEN BAY 17

Soldier Field, Monday, Sept. 27, 2010. Attendance: 62,179. Time: 3:04. Weather: 56° F, Humidity: 75 percent, Wind: E 6 mph

CHICAGO (AP)—Robbie Gould kicked a 19-yard field goal with 4 seconds left after Brian Urlacher forced a fumble in the closing minutes, and Chicago took advantage of a Green Bay team-record 18 penalties to beat the Packers 20-17 on Monday night.

Packers receiver James Jones lost a fumble on a hit by Urlacher before Green Bay's Morgan Burnett was called for pass interference on Earl Bennett, setting up the winning kick.

Jay Cutler threw for 221 yards for the Bears (3-0), who kept insisting they were contenders through a sloppy preseason and less-than-inspiring opening win over Detroit. Since then, they turned heads with a win at Dallas last week and opened some more eyes against Green Bay—with lots of help from the Packers.

Urlacher jarred the ball out of Jones' hands after he caught a pass from Aaron Rodgers near midfield. Tim Jennings recovered, giving Chicago the ball on the Packers' 46 with 2:18 remaining.

Soon after, another penalty cost the Packers (2-1) in a big way.

On second down at the 33, Cutler tried to hit Bennett deep along the right sideline and Burnett interfered with him, wiping out an interception by Nick Collins and putting the ball at the 9. Three plays later, Chicago walked away with a wild win and the only undefeated record in the NFC.

Devin Hester delivered his first touchdown return in three years when he ran back a punt 62 yards in the fourth quarter, giving the Bears a short-lived 14-10 lead.

Rodgers threw for 316 yards and a touchdown and scored on a 3-yard run that gave the Packers 17-14 lead in the fourth quarter. Jermichael Finley had nine catches for 115 yards, but the sloppiness simply caught up with the Packers in the end.

MISC.

GREEN BAY (AP) — As far as Aaron Rodgers is concerned, the Green Bay Packers offense is at its best when using multiple-receiver shotgun formations to spread out opposing defenses.

So when the offense went scoreless in the second half and the Packers barely held on for a 28-26 victory over Detroit on Sunday, Rodgers saw his team not playing to its main strength.

Rodgers threw for 181 yards and three touchdowns. But he also threw a pair of interceptions for the Packers, who were coming off a sloppy performance in a loss at Chicago on Monday night.

If Sunday's game didn't feel like a satisfying win for Green Bay, it also didn't feel like anything approaching a moral victory for Detroit (0-4). It was the franchise's 20th straight loss to the Packers in Wisconsin, a streak that began in 1992 and includes a playoff loss.

The Lions showed that they're more dangerous than they have been in the recent past, but it still wasn't enough to win.

The Packers appeared ready to rout the Lions when Charles Woodson returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown and a 28-14 lead early in the third quarter. But the Packers' offense went silent in the second half while the Lions rallied for four straight Jason Hanson field goals to cut the lead to two points.

Had the Lions been able to finish any of those drives with a touchdown instead of a field goal, they might be celebrating a victory.

A last drive by the Packers ran out the final 6:32 of the clock as Green Bay rediscovered its running game at the best possible moment.

Detroit again was without injured quarterback Matthew Stafford, but backup Shaun Hill looked poised under center. He threw for 331 yards and two touchdowns to Calvin Johnson, helping to make the game close despite the Lions committing 13 penalties.

WASHINGTON 16, GREEN BAY 13 (OT)

FedExField, Sunday, Oct. 10, 2010. Attendance: 87,760. Time: 3:35. Weather: 72° F, Humidity: 46 percent, Wind: calm

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — For the fourth time in five weeks, Washington's game came down to the final play. On Sunday, it was Graham Gano's 33-yard field goal 6:54 into the extra period that made the difference, set up by LaRon Landry's diving interception of Aaron Rodgers at Green Bay's 39-yard line.

The Redskins trailed 13-3 entering the fourth quarter. They were outgained 209 yards to 24 in the first quarter. Seven of their first eight possessions ended in punts. Even once they made it 13-all on Gano's 45-yard kick with 1:07 left in regulation, the Redskins had to weather a Packers drive that ended with Mason Crosby hitting the left upright from 53 yards with 1 second left.

Two of Washington's games this season have gone to overtime—including a 30-27 loss to Houston in Week 2—and two ended on passes thrown into the end zone by the opponent on the last play of regulation—including a 17-12 victory at Philadelphia last weekend.

The Packers (3-2), meanwhile, are dealing with a long list of injuries.

By game's end, linebacker Clay Matthews was on the sideline, wearing a green Packers wool cap instead of a helmet, ice strapped to his injured left hamstring. Tight end Jeremiah Finley was leaning on a pair of metal crutches, keeping weight off his hurt knee.

Green Bay also had tight end Donald Lee (shoulder), defensive lineman Ryan Pickett (ankle), and safety Derrick Martin (knee) leave the game.

The Packers stumbled on one big sequence early: Already ahead 7-0 early in the second quarter, they had second-and-goal at Washington's 1 and came away with nothing. Rodgers' fourth-down pass to tight end Andrew Quarless was broken up in the end zone.

Later, Washington's defense—a 3-4 scheme that ranks last in the NFL in yards allowed—was stuffing the Packers repeatedly. Green Bay's last seven possessions resulted in four punts, two missed field goals and Rodgers' interception.

MISC.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Oct. 17, 2010. Attendance: 70,815. Time: 3:14. Weather: 57° F, Humidity: 45 percent, Wind: W 11 mph

GREEN BAY (AP) — The Miami Dolphins have found a key to being effective: pound the ball, keep every game close and play as far away from Sun Life Stadium as possible.

The Dolphins are 3-0 on the road this season, and 0-2 at home. Miami needed to grind out another game using three field goals—including the 44-yard game winner—by Dan Carpenter and a perfect TD screen by developing quarterback Chad Henne to topple what had been considered one of the NFL's elite teams before injuries set in.

The Packers can take solace in being just a game back in the NFC North chase despite injuries to eight starters, including five on defense.

Henne's nifty 22-yard TD pass to Anthony Fasano gave Miami a 20-13 lead with 5:20 left, and Fasano ran untouched to the end zone with tackle Jake Long bowling over the last would-be tackler as Henne laid flat on his back.

Aaron Rodgers, who was sacked five times including three by Cameron Wake, tied it with a 1-yard TD on fourth-and-goal with 13 seconds to go, but the Dolphins had one more answer in overtime.

After the teams' exchanged punts with the Dolphins getting the better end of that deal and taking over at their own 48, Miami went to Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown, who pounded the ball down to the Packers 26 before Carpenter hit the game winner on third down.

With so many injuries, Green Bay failed to get much pressure on Henne. Linebacker Clay Matthews, who has 8½ sacks, was out with a left hamstring injury and Nick Barnett (wrist) went on injured reserve on Friday.

Henne, with all the time he needed, finished 23-of-39 for 231 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Top receiver Brandon Marshall made 10 catches for 127 yards and just missed a 25-yard TD grab late in the first half.

GREEN BAY 28, MINNESOTA 24

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Oct. 24, 2010. Attendance: 71,107. Time: 3:01. Weather: 58° F, Humidity: 96 percent, Wind: S 4 mph

GREEN BAY (AP) — Brett Favre spent what seemed to be an eternity sitting at his locker, head in hands, searching for something before approaching the podium. He limped to the microphone, finally beaten by his former team for the first time.

In the waning moments trailing by four, it looked as though Favre would accomplish what he'd done so many times before in a Green Bay Packers uniform by leading an improbable comeback as he limped down the field.

He threw an apparent touchdown pass to Percy Harvin with 48 seconds left, and the 41-year-old quarterback—in his 291st consecutive start—jumped into the arms of backup tight end Jeff Dugan and got a huge hug from Tarvaris Jackson.

But officials reviewed a would-be Vikings touchdown for the third time in the game, and the call was again reversed by the officiating crew.

On fourth-and-15 at the 20, Favre threw incomplete trying to find Randy Moss in the back of the end zone, giving the Packers (4-3) their first win over Favre in their third try. Green Bay is tied with Chicago for the NFC North lead. Minnesota (2-4) is $\frac{1}{2}$ game back in third.

Favre, who finished 16-of-29 for 212 yards with a touchdown and three interceptions, hurt his surgically repaired left ankle early in the second half when Brad Jones pulled him down during his first pick. But a more costly one came when Desmond Bishop returned an ill-adviced pass 32 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 28-17 lead midway through the third quarter while Harvin stood wide open on the other side of the field.

While Minnesota had points taken off the board in the first half, Aaron Rodgers also struggled with early mistakes. He was 21-of-34 for 295 yards and two touchdowns, but threw two first-half interceptions in Vikings territory.

His streak of 173 attempts without an interception in the red zone to begin his career ended when Jared Allen jumped in front of a screen. Rodgers rebounded to throw TD passes to rookie Andrew Quarless and Greg Jennings that gave the Packers a 21-17 lead they wouldn't relinquish.

New Meadowlands Stadium, Sunday, Oct. 31, 2010. Attendance: 78,484. Time: 3:09. Weather: 57° F, Humidity: 41 percent, Wind: NW 15-22 mph

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP)—The New York Jets came in tied for the NFL's best record, had a five-game winning streak and were fresh off a bye week. And then came this: one big, ugly dud.

Mason Crosby kicked three field goals for Green Bay, and that was all the Packers needed as they held the Jets off the scoreboard for a 9-0 victory Sunday. Mark Sanchez and the Jets' offense couldn't get much of anything going with some costly misfires and drops on a windy day. Nick Folk missed a field goal, and punter Steve Weatherford failed to convert a fake on fourth-and-18 early in the game on a call overturned by a video replay.

Seven penalties and three turnovers didn't help the Jets, who were shut out for the first time since a 10-0 loss to Chicago on Nov. 19, 2006, at home. The Jets had a nice drive in the fourth quarter when Dustin Keller caught a pass, rolled and then had the ball grabbed out of his hands by Charles Woodson.

The Packers capitalized on the turnover as Crosby gave them a 6-0 lead with a 41-yard field goal with 6:36 remaining.

The Jets had another promising drive short-circuited in the second quarter when Tramon Williams ripped the ball out of Jerricho Cotchery's hands for an interception while the two were on the ground.

Even with all that, New York still had a chance to win in the closing minutes.

After turning the ball over on downs, the Jets held the Packers to a three-and-out and tried to finally get into the end zone trailing 6-0 with less than 4 minutes left.

Following a 5-yard run by LaDainian Tomlinson, Cotchery couldn't hold onto a long pass from Sanchez, who was sacked on the next play by Clay Matthews. Sanchez then threw incomplete to Braylon Edwards, and the Packers took over.

Crosby sealed it with a 40-yard field goal with 27 seconds left.

Aaron Rodgers, whom Head Coach Mike McCarthy said sprained an ankle during the game, finished 15-of-34 for 170 yards.

Despite missing several starters and losing wide receiver Donald Driver, who reaggravated a quadriceps injury in the first half, the Packers hung in against the Jets' tough defense.

GREEN BAY 45, DALLAS 7

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Nov. 7, 2010. Attendance: 70,913. Time: 2:57. Weather: 43° F, Humidity: 62 percent, Wind: S 3 mph

GREEN BAY (AP) — Every time it seemed as though the Dallas Cowboys hit their low point, Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers knocked them down another notch.

Rodgers threw for 289 yards and three touchdowns, Brandon Jackson scored twice and Green Bay routed the free-falling Cowboys 45-7 on Sunday night.

James Jones caught eight passes for 123 yards and a touchdown for the Packers (6-3), who have won three straight.

Green Bay's Clay Matthews added a final dose of embarrassment in the fourth quarter, picking off a pass from Jon Kitna and running it back 62 yards for a touchdown.

Dallas fell behind 28-0 late in the second quarter, giving up three long touchdown drives before fumbling away a kickoff that was returned for a TD by Nick Collins.

Meanwhile, the Packers continued to show how a team with Super Bowl expectations is supposed to handle a disappointing start to the season.

It was an impressive performance by Rodgers, who hadn't been playing up to his own high standards earlier this year.

Green Bay has won three in a row after opening 3-3, including an emotional Sunday night home win over Brett Favre and the Vikings followed by a 9-0 road shutout of the New York Jets last week. Beating the talented but troubled Cowboys gives the Packers another boost of momentum heading into their bye week.

HHH Metrodome, Sunday, Nov. 21, 2010. Attendance: 64,120. Time: 2:48. Weather: (indoors)

Rodgers went 22-for-31 for 301 yards, with three of his four touchdown passes going to Greg Jennings. He beat Favre for the second time this season and sent Green Bay to a 31-3 victory over melting-down Minnesota on Sunday.

The Packers (7-3) emerged fresh from their bye week and kept pace in the NFC North race with the Chicago Bears (7-3), ruining any realistic hope the Vikings (3-7) had left for another shot at the Super Bowl.

Traam Williams intercepted Favre to stop a long Vikings drive, and Rodgers took the Packers the other way for a touchdown to James Jones in the final minute of the first half to give the visitors a 17-3 lead.

The "Go Pack Go!" cry from the Wisconsin transplants and travelers grew louder as the game went on.

With 10 players and five starters lost for the season on injured reserve, plus a stiff second-half schedule featuring a trip to NFC-leading Atlanta next week, Head Coach Mike McCarthy and the Packers have plenty of work in front of them.

But the steam and swagger they regained in their 28-24 win over the Vikings on Oct. 24 is making them look more like the Super Bowl contender they were purported to be this summer.

ATLANTA 20, GREEN BAY 17

Georgia Dome, Sunday, Nov. 28, 2010. Attendance: 68,204. Time: 2:47. Weather: (indoors)

ATLANTA (AP) — The Falcons stayed atop the NFC when Matt Bryant kicked a 47-yard field goal with 9 seconds remaining Sunday for a 20-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers, one of the teams trying to chase down Atlanta in the conference standings.

Make no mistake. The Falcons (9-2) were very much aware of the possible ramifications this game might have beyond the regular season.

And Bryant had to make his winning kick twice.

The Packers called a timeout just before he knocked his first attempt right down the middle. No problem. The 35-year-old had already made two game-winning kicks this season, and No. 3 had plenty of distance as it hooked slightly but stayed several feet inside the left upright.

His do-over capped a game between playoff contenders that lived up to all the hype: a bruising defensive struggle filled with huge fourth-down plays and one very important kickoff return by Eric Weems.

After Aaron Rodgers threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jordy Nelson with 56 seconds remaining to tie the game for Green Bay (7-4), Weems broke loose up the middle and was dragged down by Matt Wilhelm with a flagrant facemask tackle. The Falcons took over at the Green Bay 49, Matt Ryan completed four straight short passes and Bryant made the winning kick.

The Falcons weren't concerned after Green Bay scored, especially with Ryan at quarterback. He completed 24-of-28 for 198 yards, including a 4-yarder to Tony Gonzalez for Atlanta's first TD.

Green Bay thought it had forced overtime when Rodgers directed a 16-play, 90-yard drive for the tying score. He improvised two huge plays on fourth down, beginning with a scrambling, backhanded flip of a pass to James Jones for an 18-yard gain on fourth-and-1 at the 21.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Dec. 5, 2010. Attendance: 70,575. Time: 3:08. Weather: 26° F, Humidity: 60 percent, Wind: NW 16 mph

GREEN BAY (AP) — Donald Driver woke up with a case of food poisoning on Sunday morning, blaming it on a bad batch of spicy chicken wings.

Then he gave the San Francisco 49ers' defense a play that was difficult to digest.

Driver left a string of befuddled 49ers' defenders in his dust on a rambling 61-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown in the third quarter, providing the most critical play in the Packers' 34-16 victory at Lambeau Field on Sunday.

As Driver and the team celebrated, the crowd counted out all the tackles he broke as the play was replayed on the stadium video screens.

Greg Jennings also caught six passes for 122 yards and a pair of touchdowns for the Packers (8-4), who picked up a critical victory as they make a push for the playoffs.

Aaron Rodgers was 21-of-30 for 298 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Vernon Davis had 126 yards receiving and a touchdown for the 49ers (4-8), who came into Sunday's game with playoff hopes despite their disappointing record.

It was a wintry day at Lambeau, with temperatures in the 20s and a stiff, steady 16-mph wind.

The conditions seemed to impede the Packers' passing game early as Rodgers was uncharacteristically off target, missing Driver in the end zone in the first quarter and failing to convert an open third-and-long throw in the second quarter because the ball bounced off a defender's helmet.

DETROIT 7, GREEN BAY 3

Ford Field, Sunday, Dec. 12, 2010. Attendance: 57,659. Time: 2:54. Weather: (indoors).

DETROIT (AP)—The Green Bay Packers looked lost without Aaron Rodgers. The Detroit Lions weren't much better, but they're used to playing without their starting quarterback.

Drew Stanton threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Will Heller midway through the fourth quarter, and the Lions held on for a 7-3 win over Green Bay on Sunday after knocking Rodgers out of the game late in the first half. Detroit snapped a 19-game losing streak against NFC North opponents despite an erratic performance from Stanton, who was starting because Matthew Stafford and Shaun Hill were both out with injuries.

This one was certainly ugly at times, especially during a scoreless first half. Rodgers left with a concussion toward the end of the second quarter, but the Packers (8-5) were already having their problems, having gone the entire first quarter without a first down.

Rodgers hasn't missed a game since taking over as Green Bay's starting quarterback in 2008, but he went to the sideline Sunday shortly after being hit on back-to-back plays. He was slow getting up after being hit by Amari Spivey and Landon Johnson at the end of an 18-yard scramble. Green Bay took a timeout, then Rodgers was sacked on the next play.

Rodgers stayed in for the rest of the drive before being replaced by Matt Flynn.

Even without their standout quarterback, the Packers took a 3-0 lead in the second half and had a chance to extend it when Flynn led a confidence-building drive deep into Detroit territory. But Flynn made one big mistake, throwing a short pass over the middle that was intercepted by DeAndre Levy in the end zone.

Later in the fourth quarter, the Lions won 80 yards in 12 plays, and Heller scored on a tight end screen with 7:55 remaining.

Stanton finished 10-of-22 for 117 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

Flynn, pressed into by far his most extensive duty of the season, went 15-of-26 for 177 yards. He did lead the Packers to the Detroit 31 late in the fourth quarter, but his long pass on fourth-and-1 fell incomplete.

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (AP) — Dan Connolly caught the squib kick and buried the ball in his gut, protecting it with both hands to prepare for a hit that never came.

He was eventually brought down at the 4 after rumbling 71 yards to set up the first of two straight touchdowns that helped the Patriots take the lead and beat the Packers 31-27 on Sunday night.

The Patriots had won consecutive blowouts—a combined score of 81-10 vs. the New York Jets and Chicago Bears—and seemed poised to add another after Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers was sidelined with his second concussion of the season. But backup Matt Flynn, in his first career start, threw three touchdown passes and had Green Bay driving at the end of the game.

On fourth-and-1 from the Patriots 15, Flynn was strip-sacked by linebacker Tully Banta-Cain, and Vince Wilfork fell on the ball with no time left to help New England (12-2) clinch its sixth straight win and match Atlanta for the NFL's best record.

Flynn completed 24-of-37 passes for 251 yards and three touchdowns. He had one interception, which was returned for a 36-yard touchdown by Patriots cornerback Kyle Arrington.

Connolly's 71-yard return, which set up Tom Brady's 2-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Hernandez, is believed to be the longest by an offensive lineman in NFL history. Records before 1976 are incomplete, according to STATS LLC, but the run by Connolly topped the 48-yard touchdown return by Atlanta's Mal Snider in 1969 that was thought to have been the longest ever.

GREEN BAY 45, N.Y. GIANTS 17

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Dec. 26, 2010. Attendance: 70,649. Time: 3:13. Weather: 25° F. Humidity: 74 percent. Wind: E 5 mph

GREEN BAY (AP) — The Green Bay Packers set up a season finale with a playoff berth on the line. The New York Giants were 800 miles away from home with a postseason shot nearly at long.

Aaron Rodgers returned from a concussion to throw for 404 yards and four touchdowns and the Packers routed the Giants 45-17 on Sunday while a blizzard blanketed New York, forcing them to spend the night in Wisconsin.

The facts are ugly for New York, which turned the ball over six times a week after squandering a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter in a devastating loss to Philadelphia.

A win over the Packers (9-6) would've clinched a playoff berth for New York.

Instead, the Giants were left looking at a bunch of messy scenarios that began working against them when New Orleans won Monday night.

Eli Manning threw for 301 yards and two touchdowns, but also had four interceptions a week after the Giants allowed the Eagles to score 28 points in the final 7½ minutes.

John Kuhn ran for two touchdowns and caught a pass for a score for the Packers, who will host division-rival Chicago in their final regular-season game next Sunday.

Greg Jennings caught seven passes for 142 yards for Green Bay in the first game the Giants played at Lambeau Field since winning the NFC title game here nearly three years ago.

Ahmad Bradshaw fumbled at midfield early in the third quarter, Brandon Jacobs lost one of his own and Manning threw three interceptions in the second half after his two first-half TD passes tied it at 14 before Kuhn's 8-yard touchdown run gave Green Bay a 21-14 halftime lead.

GREEN BAY (AP) — The Chicago Bears wanted to see where they stood in a hostile environment with the playoffs at stake. When they play in three weeks, it'll be their fans creating the raucous atmosphere.

Aaron Rodgers threw a touchdown pass and the Green Bay Packers clinched a playoff berth with a 10-3 victory over their division rivals to enter the postseason as a sixth seed.

The Packers know for sure they won't return to Lambeau Field this season. If Green Bay (10-6) beats the Eagles on Sunday, the Packers would next head to Atlanta to face the conference's No. 1 seed.

Green Bay trailed 3-0 at halftime in a game the Packers had to win to get into the postseason and were tied going into the fourth quarter, while Chicago continued playing all its starters.

Rodgers connected with his two most trusted receivers—Donald Driver for 21 yards and Greg Jennings for 46 yards—to move to the 1, where he found tight end Donald Lee for the touchdown with 12:42 left.

Rodgers finished with 229 yards, a touchdown and an interception as Green Bay made the postseason despite 15 players on injured reserve, including six starters.

Chicago had three possessions with a chance to tie, but only began moving on its final drive starting at its own 2 and crossing midfield on the 10th play. At the Packers 32 with 20 seconds left, Jay Cutler's pass sailed over the head of Devin Hester and was intercepted by Nick Collins.

Cutler was sacked six times, including three times by linebacker Erik Walden, who has had extended playing time because Green Bay is so thin at the position.

In the second half, the Packers squandered a first-and-goal chance at the 1, settling for a short field goal by Mason Crosby to tie it, but Green Bay wouldn't waste its next opportunity in the red zone, with Rodgers finding Lee for what was ultimately the difference in the game.

GREEN BAY 21, PHILADELPHIA 16

Lincoln Financial Field, Sunday, Jan. 9, 2011. Attendance: 69,144. Time: 3:02. Weather: 30°F, Humidity: 42 percent, Wind: WNW 18 mph

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Aaron Rodgers watched helplessly from the sideline, hoping the defense could get a big stop to preserve the win.

When Tramon Williams intercepted Michael Vick's pass in the end zone, Rodgers threw his hands up and pumped his fist. It was a low-key celebration by Brett Favre standards, but perhaps one that was fitting—Rodgers has finally shed the ghost of Favre.

He's building his own legacy with the Green Bay Packers, and now has his first playoff victory. Rodgers threw three touchdown passes while seldom-used rookie James Starks ran for 123 yards in a 21-16 Wild Card win over the Philadelphia Eagles on Sunday.

Rodgers was merely a spectator while Vick nearly led the Eagles back. But Williams picked off his throw intended for Riley Cooper with 33 seconds left to end it, sending the sixth-seeded Packers (11-6) to Atlanta (13-3) for a divisional playoff game next Saturday night.

Clay Matthews, Charles Woodson and Co. contained Vick for the most part. He threw for 292 yards and ran for 33 in his first playoff start since losing the 2005 NFC Championship Game on the same field as a member of the Atlanta Falcons.

This was the Packers' third straight win in an elimination game. They routed the Giants on Dec. 26 to stay alive in the playoff race, and beat Chicago last week to secure a berth.

The Eagles were the talk of the NFL after a sensational comeback win at the New York Giants on Dec. 19. But a stunning loss to lowly Minnesota on Dec. 28 cost the NFC East champions a chance at a first-round bye, and it seemed their Super Bowl hopes went down with that defeat.

Then again, the Eagles might have advanced if Pro Bowl kicker David Akers hadn't missed field goals of 41 and 34 yards.

The supposedly one-dimensional Packers found a running game by giving the ball to Starks. The sixth-round pick who played in just three games had 101 yards rushing all year. The Packers have had trouble running after Ryan Grant went down for the season in Week 1, but they exposed weaknesses in Philadelphia's defense.

ATLANTA (AP)—As Aaron Rodgers trotted off the field, savoring another playoff win, he was serenaded with chants of "Go, Pack, Go!"

This wasn't Lambeau Field, but it sure sounded like it.

Looking very much at home, Rodgers completed 31-of-36 for 366 yards and threw three touchdown passes, ran for another score, and led the Green Bay Packers to their second straight postseason road victory with a stunning 48-21 rout of the top-seeded Atlanta Falcons on Saturday night.

The Packers (13-6) will have to win one more on the road to complete their improbable run from sixth seed to the Super Bowl, but nothing looks out of the question the way Rodgers is playing. He'll lead Green Bay into the NFC Championship Game at Chicago next weekend.

Green Bay scored 35 consecutive points, including Tramon Williams' 70-yard interception return on the final play of the first half that left the Falcons (13-4) and a crowd of more than 69,000 in a state of shock as the teams headed to the locker room.

Matt Ryan, who beat out Rodgers for a spot in the Pro Bowl, had a miserable night. He also was picked off in the end zone, costing Atlanta another scoring chance early on that might've changed the complexion of the game, and lost a fumble attempting a simple sneak. In two career playoff games, "Matty Ice" is 0-2 with six turnovers and a safety.

The Falcons ran into the playoffs as the NFC's top-seeded team for only the second time in franchise history. The result was the same as it was during the 1980 season: one and done.

GREEN BAY 21, CHICAGO 14

CHICAGO (AP)—There was one Monster of the Midway in the NFC Championship Game and his name was Aaron Rodgers.

He wasn't even at his best and, still, he was better than the first, the second and the third quarterback used in vain by the Chicago Bears against their bitter rivals.

Rodgers ran for a score and made a TD-saving tackle in leading the Green Bay Packers into the Super Bowl with a bone-jarring 21-14 victory Sunday over Chicago.

Rodgers played well enough to keep the Bears off balance all afternoon, Green Bay punter Tim Masthay kept Devin Hester under wraps and the Packers' superb defense took care of the rest in knocking the Bears out of the playoffs.

It was the 182nd meeting in the league's most historic feud, and the stakes had never been bigger.

All day Cutler could do was watch, having left the game with a knee injury early in the third quarter. Even before the injury, Cutler was having trouble moving the ball. Worse, he was getting booed by the home fans. Primary backup Todd Collins replaced Cutler and was jeered even worse. Then little-known backup Caleb Hanie and the Bears (12-6) actually made it a game.

Chicago's third-string quarterback rallied the Bears for a touchdown drive to cut the lead to 14-7 after Chester Taylor's 1-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Hanie had a chance to tie the game after the Bears' defense finally got a few stops, but threw a ball straight to Packers defensive lineman B.J. Raji, who lumbered 18 yards into the end zone for a touchdown to give the Packers a 21-7 lead.

But Hanie wasn't finished. He threw a 35-yard touchdown pass to Earl Bennett to again cut the lead to seven points with 4:43 left.

The Bears forced a punt and got the ball back with under 3 minutes left. Hanie drove the Bears to the Green Bay 29-yard line, then threw a fourth-down interception to Sam Shields—the rookie's second of the game.

Rodgers proved ready for the biggest day of his brief but impressive career, even if his final stat line didn't look impressive after an ugly, hard-fought game.

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Aaron Rodgers at long last casts his own shadow. All it took was a Super Bowl victory for the Green Bay Packers. Capping one of the greatest postseasons for any quarterback, Rodgers led the Pack to their first NFL championship in 14 years Sunday, 31-25 over the Pittsburgh Steelers. They reclaimed the Vince Lombardi Trophy, named for their legendary coach who won the first two Super Bowls.

Rodgers, the game's MVP, thrilled his legion of Cheesehead fans with a spectacular six-game string that should finally erase the bitterness of the Brett Favre separation in Green Bay. After sitting for three long years before Favre left in 2008, Rodgers is now equal with Favre in Super Bowl wins, and he extended the Packers' record of NFL titles to 13, nine before the Super Bowl era.

The favored Packers managed to overcome key injuries, building a 21-3 lead, then hung on to become only the second No. 6 seed to win the championship. Coincidentally, the 2005 Steelers were the other.

Rodgers threw for 304 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown to Jordy Nelson, who had nine catches for 140 yards to make up for three big drops. Rodgers found Greg Jennings, normally his favorite target, for 21- and 8-yard scores.

Cornerback Charles Woodson was in so much pain from a broken left collarbone that he could barely address the team at halftime in the locker room.

Few teams have been as resourceful as these Packers, who couldn't wait to touch the trophy honoring their greatest coach — and their title. Several of them kissed it as Cowboys great Roger Staubach walked through a line of green and gold and up to the massive stage on the 50-yard line with the silver prize that is headed back to the NFL's smallest city.

Rodgers took the Packers to two late-season victories just to make the playoffs as a wild card. Then he guided them to wins at Philadelphia, Atlanta and archival Chicago before his biggest achievement — against a Pittsburgh team ranked second in defense.

JOHNNY BLOOD

In 1922 while in college at St. John's (Minn.), John McNally had the chance to pick up some extra cash playing pro ball for the Duluth Eskimos. Problem was, college players were not allowed on pro teams. In order to keep his eligibility, he needed an alias.

Allegedly, he and a teammate were strolling through Minneapolis and noticed a marquee on Hennepin Avenue advertising the movie Blood and Sand, starring Rudolph Valentino. McNally got his alias, dubbed his buddy "Sand," and lived the rest of his colorful life to its fullest.

Blood became the inspiration for the 2008 movie Leatherheads, starring George Clooney.

ENDING THE SEASON ON A HIGH NOTE

If history is any indicator, a Green Bay winning streak to end the regular season means good things for the coming season. In 2006, the Packers were one of four clubs to finish the regular season with four consecutive victories. It marked the third time this decade the club has ended the season with four consecutive wins, and each following season it has earned a playoff berth.

- Since the NFL implemented postseason play, the Packers on 10 occasions have closed a regular season with at least four wins. Green Bay has failed to reach the playoffs in the following season only twice — in 1940 and '42.

HERBER-TO-HUTSON: DID YOU KNOW?

The Packers' Arnie Herber became the NFL's first long-bomb passer, and he did it with unusually small hands. At Green Bay West High School, Herber learned he could improve his distance and accuracy by palming the ball, rather than using the laces. His most-favored target, the incomparable Don Hutson, had flat feet, and trainers had to tape them in a special way. That taping job gave Hutson a strange running motion, which totally stumped opponents, because his loping style disguised his true speed.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY ASSISTS PACKERS TO 1961 CHAMPIONSHIP

Vince Lombardi won an incredible nine straight postseason games, a streak he might not have launched without the help of President John F. Kennedy. The 1961 NFL championship took place during the Berlin Crisis, and the United States had called Ray Nitschke, Paul Hornung and Boyd Dowler into service. With Lombardi's persistence, Nitschke and Dowler obtained special weekend passes to play. Private Hornung, however, wasn't released until Lombardi called an old acquaintance, Kennedy.

"Paul Hornung isn't going to win the war on Sunday, but the football fans of this country deserve the two best teams on the field that day," Kennedy assured Lombardi, days before the game against the New York Giants.

The best team was Green Bay, by a 37-0 count, and after Kennedy released Hornung, the Golden Boy scored 19 points, an NFL title-game record.

The Berlin Crisis pitted the U.S. against East Germany for several months, until the East German government backed down. The crisis ended in the summer of 1962. Kennedy visited Berlin and delivered a famous speech before he died in 1963.

CARRIED OFF THE FIELD

The Packers played a major role in launching the football tradition of carrying a coach off the field after a significant victory. The Packers lifted Vince Lombardi after at least five games (believed to be an NFL record). His players carried him (1) after his first NFL victory, a 9-6 win in his Packers debut, in Green Bay, Sept. 27, 1959, vs. Chicago; (2) after his first NFL championship, a 37-0 win over the Giants in Green Bay, Dec. 31, 1961; (3) after his third NFL championship, a 23-12 win over the Browns in Green Bay, Jan. 2, 1966; (4) after his fourth NFL championship, a 34-27 win over the Cowboys at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Jan. 1, 1967; and (5) after his last game as Packers head coach, a 33-14 win over the Raiders in Super Bowl II at Miami's Orange Bowl, Jan. 14, 1968.

Nearly 30 years later, the Packers carried Mike Holmgren (below) off the field after a 35-21 win over New England in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

TWO GREAT DEFENSIVE BACKS, TWO GOOD EYES

Bobby Dillon and Irv Comp, two of the leading interceptors in Packers history, had only two good eyes between them. Dillon, the team's all-time career leader with 52 thefts, played with a glass eye after suffering an accident in childhood. Comp, who established the single-season franchise record with 10 interceptions in 1943, also was blind in one eye.

MEMORABLE VINCE LOMBARDI QUOTES

- There is no substitute for work; it is the price of success.
- Fatigue makes cowards of us all; high physical condition is vital to victory.
- Two or three plays in a game spell victory or defeat; you never know when that play is coming up.
- A winning football team must avoid mistakes with a passion; treat mistakes with a vengeance.
- The harder a man works, the harder it is to surrender.
- The goal line is the moment of truth; there is no room for a timid person there.
- Every play must be considered a game breaker.
- Physical pressure on an opponent is necessary; mental pressure will make him crack.
- Desire is a hate for your opponent.
- Football is a game of inches and inches make a champion.
- Defeat must be admitted before it is reality.
- If two teams are the same in physical ability, it is the team with pride that rakes in the chips.
- Desire is cold fury burning within a man.
- Every man must leave the field with the feeling that every spectator is convinced they have seen the best player in the country.
- Pride is what causes a winning team performance.
- Maybe winning isn't everything, but it sure comes way ahead of whatever is second.
- On the goal line, the defense must attack.
- Pursuit is an all-out effort on defense.
- Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall. If the defense is scattered all over the field, it means that they are either confused, tired, or without desire.
- Want it; desire it; earn it; take it.
- Anything is ours providing we're willing to pay the price.
- You must forget about being cautious or you are licked before you start.
- Mental attitude is 75 percent of winning.
- You need fear nothing as long as you are aggressive and keep going.
- Football desire is built on pride and effort forged by raw combat.
- We have been accused of playing mean, vicious, hungry football. It has been said we only play to win. How else is there to play?
- You never lose a game if your opponent doesn't score.
- Winning is a habit.
- Covering kicks is football's biggest test of courage.
- Good fellows are a dime a dozen; aggressive leaders are priceless.
- You must force things to happen; you must grab the initiative.
- You win games with aggressiveness and precise execution, not gimmicks.
- Desire is a constant thing.
- Confidence is contagious; so is a lack of confidence.
- Pursuit is the shortest course to the ball carrier and arriving there in bad humor.
- You will find the extent of a man's determination on the goal line.

NOTE: Total offense from 1932-49 includes lateral statistics, a category eliminated before the 1950 season. In 1947, the league began charting "yards lost attempting to pass." Passing figures from 1932-46 do not include this number. Totals from 1947-2006 are NET figures; passing totals from 1932-46 are GROSS figures. In 1963, Elias Sports Bureau and the NFL changed "yards lost attempting to pass" to "team sacks." In 1982, Elias officially began keeping individual sacks.

Non-league games are indicated by an asterisk (*). Beginning with 1921, the Packers' first season in the National Football League, non-league game results are not reflected in won-lost record, nor in seasonal totals of points for, points against and attendance. From 1920-71, tie games were not included in winning percentage. Overtime games are indicated by the "+" symbol. The Packers' league-high 13 NFL championship seasons are highlighted in gold.

VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Vince Lombardi Trophy, given annually to the Super Bowl champion, was renamed in honor of the former Packers coach shortly after his death in 1970, before Super Bowl V.

The gesture, made by commissioner Pete Rozelle, was arguably the greatest tribute in NFL history.

Each trophy, molded and customized every year, is sterling silver and takes 72 man-hours for Tiffany & Company to handcraft in Parsippany, N.J. Three concave sides form a pyramid, which supports a life-size, regulation football. The icon is 22 inches tall, weighs 7 pounds and is valued at more than $10,000. Former Tiffany V.P. of design Oscar Riedener first sketched the trophy on a napkin in 1966.

FOR THE RECORD

Founded as a town team in 1919, with Woodrow Wilson in the White House, the Green Bay Packers own a 664-524-36 regular-season record in their 90 NFL seasons (1912-2010) — a .559 winning percentage. They played independently from 1919-1920.

The Packers are 282-152-13 (.649) in Green Bay and were 105-61-3 (.631) in Milwaukee for an overall home mark of 387-213-16 (.644). The team played league games in Milwaukee annually from 1933-94.

On the road, Green Bay stands 277-311-20 (.471), a mark that includes two neutral-site contests.

Over their 92 years of existence, the Packers have played 1,651 games. The total includes the regular-season record and the league's best playoff mark, 29-16 (.644). The overall breakdown:

THIRTEEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships – 13 – than any other team in National Football League history.

- They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931), and 10 since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, 1967, 1996 and 2010).
- Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).
- In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1966, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1967, 33-14), as well as the most recent one (over Pittsburgh in 2010, 31-25).
- Since the league implemented a playoff system in 1933, the Packers have played in the NFL's deciding game 13 times (10 NFL title appearances from 1936-67, three Super Bowls after the 1970 merger). Only the Giants (18) have played for more titles.

SUPER BOWL I

GREEN BAY 35, KANSAS CITY 10

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Sunday, Jan. 15, 1967; Attendance: 61,946; Time: 2:37; Weather: 72° F; sunny, hazy

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's AFL champions, 35-10, behind Bart Starr, Max McGee and a key interception by All-Pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns. Wood set up the first, returning an interception 50 yards to the Chiefs' 5, with the Packers up only 14-10. Len Dawson's pass was intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, replacing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers' first series), after having caught only four passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores, one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter, the other on a 7-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' lone touchdown came on a 7-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr, the game's first MVP, completed 16-of-23 passes for 250 yards and two TDs. The aging McGee caught both scores, 37 yards in the first quarter and a 13-yard catch in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece — the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports at the time. The game was not a sellout; more than 30,000 seats remained empty.

SUPER BOWL II

GREEN BAY 33, OAKLAND 14

Miami Orange Bowl, Sunday, Jan. 14, 1968; Attendance: 75,546; Time: 2:34; Weather: 68° F; PC, 52% humidity, wind W 14 mph

Acquiring a third straight NFL championship two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning a second consecutive Super Bowl. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again earned the game's most valuable player as he completed 13-of-24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packers attack that was in control all the way after building a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and All-Pro cornerback Herb Adderley returned a Daryle Lamonica interception 60 yards for a touchdown.

Leading 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers got three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler before half. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game ended Vince Lombardi's nine-year reign as Packers coach. He won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedented in pro football history.

SUPER BOWL XXXI

GREEN BAY 35, NEW ENGLAND 21

Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, La., Sunday, Jan. 26, 1997; Attendance: 72,301; Time: 3:21; Weather: (indoors)

Using several momentum-turning big plays, the Packers held off resilient New England to capture their first world championship in 29 years. For Green Bay, the victory also marked its league-high 12th NFL championship as well as its third Super Bowl triumph.

The Packers jumped to an early 10-0 lead. Brett Favre, sensing a Patriots blitz, audibled on Green Bay's second play from scrimmage, hitting late-season pickup Andre Rison on a wide-open post pattern for a 54-yard touchdown pass. On the ensuing New England possession, Doug Evans intercepted Drew Bledsoe at the Patriots' 28, which led to a 37-yard field goal by Chris Jacke.

New England then was able to turn the tide in its favor, however, as Bledsoe took his club on two long drives for touchdowns. The first, which covered 79 yards and culminated in a short pass to Keith Byars, was aided by two long throws to Pats running backs and a 26-yard pass interference penalty. The second, starting at the New England 43, was spurred by a leaping, 44-yard reception by rookie Terry Glenn. When Ben Coates caught a 4-yard TD pass from Bledsoe, the Patriots momentarily had their only lead of the game and had completed the highest-scoring first quarter in Super Bowl history.

Green Bay rebounded to retake the lead when Favre, seeing Patriots' strong safety Lawyer Milloy at the line of scrimmage in tight coverage on Antonio Freeman, watched Freeman elude Milloy's "bump" and lofted a perfect aerial to Freeman along the right sideline. Freeman, able to outrun New England's late-arriving free safety, covered 81 yards for the longest reception in Super Bowl history at that time. After another Jacke field goal, Favre took advantage of a Mike Prior interception and escorted his troops on a nine-play, 74-yard march just before halftime which ended when, on a bootleg left, he lunged the ball over the goal line as he was rolling out of bounds.

Taking a 27-14 edge out of the locker room at halftime, Green Bay maintained that lead until late in the third quarter, when the Patriots' Curtis Martin made a magnificent 18-yard run up the middle of the Packers' defense to pull New England to within six points at 27-21.

That margin was short-lived, though, as Desmond Howard returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a back-breaking touchdown (the longest kick return in Super Bowl history), bursting through the center of the Packers' well-blocked wedge, then juking kicker Adam Vinatieri to bolt free. Howard, who had 244 total return yards in the game including key punt runbacks of 32 and 34 yards, was voted the game's most valuable player, becoming the first special teams player to be so honored. A subsequent, successful two-point conversion, where Favre found Mark Chmura along the back of the end zone, gave the Green and Gold an insurmountable two-touchdown lead.

The top-ranked Green Bay defense, which had four interceptions of Bledsoe, was led by Reggie White, who sacked the New England quarterback a Super Bowl-record three times, including twice in a row on the possession immediately following Howard's scoring return.

Favre, playing less than an hour from his hometown of Kiln, Miss., completed 14 of 27 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns without an interception, while his counterpart, Bledsoe, threw for 253 yards and two scores on 25-of-48 passing.

"This trophy...this is it. It was named after Vince Lombardi. You play in Green Bay. As important as it is to any other team and any other player, it means more to us.

"Back in July, we set our goals. And I'm so proud of you. You made every single goal. You earned it, you worked for it.

"And before we came out for the second half, what did you do? You locked arms. Do it right now, men. Do it right now.

"To the coaches, players, organization, trainers, equipment people, everybody, this trophy is for you, men. Everybody. Everyone had a say in it, everyone got it done. I'm proud of you."

SUPER BOWL XXXII

Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, Calif., Sunday, Jan. 25, 1998; Attendance: 68,912; Time: 3:25; Weather: 67° F sunny

Behind a dominating rushing performance by San Diego native Terrell Davis, four-time Super Bowl loser Denver garnered its first-ever victory in the NFL's title game to dethrone the reigning champion Packers in what some called "the best Super Bowl ever." In the process, the Broncos also ended a 13-game Super Bowl winning streak by the National Football Conference representative and sent Green Bay to its initial Super Bowl defeat after three triumphs.

Davis, named as the game's most valuable player, averaged 5.2 yards per carry as he rushed for 157 yards and three touchdowns, including the final, decisive score with less than two minutes remaining.

After the opening possession — a 76-yard scoring sequence by Green Bay — it appeared (falsely) that the game might turn into just another rout by the NFC against an overmatched AFC opponent. The Packers easily traversed the field, capping the drive with an arching, 22-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Antonio Freeman at the back of the end zone, Freeman tapping-dancing to get his feet down, and Green Bay had a 7-0 lead less than five minutes into the contest.

But the Broncos stormed back, scoring the first three times that they had the ball to commandeer a 17-7 advantage. After Davis went over from a yard out for Denver's initial points, the Broncos forced a pair of turnovers in Green Bay territory. First, Favre was intercepted when he prematurely unloaded a pass for Robert Brooks while under a heavy blitz, a miscue which resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by Broncos quarterback John Elway on a bootleg to the right. Then, after Favre fumbled when hit by Denver safety Steve Atwater on another blitz, the Broncos tacked on a long field goal by Jason Elam.

Green Bay mounted an impressive, 95-yard touchdown drive to consume the latter half of the second quarter and pull to within 17-14. Favre lofted a perfect aerial to tight end Mark Chmura in the back right corner of the end zone just 12 seconds before halftime, a pass which narrowly skirted the finger tips of a leaping defender.

Davis, who had missed the entire second quarter after experiencing migraine-headache symptoms, fumbled on the first play from scrimmage of the second half, an error which turned into a game-tying Ryan Longwell field goal only minutes later.

The Broncos went ahead again late in the third period, when Davis scored his second touchdown of the game to culminate a 92-yard, seven-plus minute drive. And when, on the ensuing kickoff, Freeman fumbled at his own 22, things looked dire for Green Bay as it stared at a potential two-touchdown deficit heading into the final quarter. But when the Broncos went for the jugular on their first play, free safety Eugene Robinson intercepted Elway in the end zone.

Favre completed three passes to Freeman on the ensuing Green Bay possession, including a 13-yard crossing route for the receiver's second touchdown, which knotted the score at 24 with 13½ minutes remaining. Freeman made nine receptions (for 126 yards) on the day to equal the club's all-time playoff record.

After the Packers failed to take advantage of one fourth-quarter drive which neared midfield, Denver ran the ball down their throat for the game's winning touchdown, a drive which covered 49 yards in only five plays — four on the ground. Davis strolled into the end zone untouched up the middle for a 31-24 lead with just 105 ticks of the clock left.

Still facing the relentless blitzing which had characterized the play of the Denver defense throughout the game, from his own 30-yard line Favre moved the Packers 39 yards down the field on four straight passes to Dorsey Levens to reach the Broncos' 31 with 42 seconds remaining.

But when his next three throws fell incomplete, including a fourth-down pass intended for Chmura which was knocked down by linebacker John Mobley, the game was Denver's, giving Elway a long-awaited Super Bowl victory after he personally had endured three losses. In the process, the Broncos became just the second wild-card team to capture a Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL XLV

Cowboys Stadium, Arlington, Texas, Sunday, Feb. 6, 2011; Attendance: 91,060; Time: 3:32; Weather: (indoors)

On the strength of a masterful passing display by quarterback Aaron Rodgers and a series of timely turnovers courtesy of an opportunistic defense, the resilient Packers laid claim to the franchise's fourth Super Bowl title in front of 91,060 fans at majestic Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Green Bay became just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl since the league adopted a 12-team format in 1990, and capped off their string of six consecutive elimination games by again overcoming the loss of key players to injuries, just as they had throughout the 2010 season.

Offensively, the Packers opened the game in a four-wide receiver set intent on spreading out Pittsburgh's attacking 3-4 defense and keeping their vaunted front seven off balance. After the teams traded punts early on, Rodgers led the Packers on an 80-yard scoring drive on the unit's second possession. The quarterback completed 5-of-6 attempts for 63 yards on the series, perfectly placing a 29-yard touchdown in the hands of receiver Jordy Nelson along the right sideline for the game's opening score.

And it wouldn't be long before the Packers built on their early lead.

On the first play of the Steelers' ensuing possession, defensive lineman Howard Green bull-rushed his way into the Pittsburgh pocket, batting the arm of quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, whose deep pass down the left sideline fell well short and into the arms of converging Packers safety Nick Collins at the Pittsburgh 37. After securing the interception, Collins weaved his way through would-be tacklers and went airborne at the 3, diving into the end zone to give Green Bay a commanding 14-0 lead with 3:20 remaining in the opening quarter.

After surrendering a 33-yard field goal that made the score 14-3, the Packers defense was the beneficiary of a Roethlisberger mistake on Pittsburgh's next possession when cornerback Jarrett Bush jumped in front of a crossing route intended for receiver Mike Wallace and came down with the interception at the Green Bay 47.

Despite receiving news that veteran stalwart receiver Donald Driver would not return to the game due to an ankle injury, Rodgers and the offense wasted little time taking advantage of the extra possession and the field position that accompanied it. They needed only four plays to cross the goal line, doing so when Rodgers made another of his pinpoint throws, a 21-yard dart to wide receiver Greg Jennings over the deep middle. The quarterback's pass eluded safety Ryan Clark, who had closed tightly on the route and made the score 21-3.

While the Driver injury was an unquestioned blow to the offense, the defense also suffered a seemingly devastating loss when cornerback Charles Woodson, a playoff captain and the team's leader throughout the postseason, sustained a broken collar bone on the second play of Pittsburgh's final drive of the first half.

Pittsburgh scored its first touchdown of the game five plays after the Woodson injury when Roethlisberger found Hines Ward in the back corner of the end zone from 8 yards out.

The Packers entered the locker room ahead 21-10, but were forced to regroup in the face of the injuries. Having gone through the painful process of placing 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, overcoming injuries was a familiar practice for these Packers.

That said, the Steelers built off of the momentum they carried into halftime and came out with a vengeance in the second half. Their first drive ended with an 8-yard touchdown run by Rashard Mendenhall that tightened the score to 21-17.

The Packers, meanwhile, sputtered offensively in the third quarter as Rodgers fell victim to drops and other miscues that inhibited his usual rhythm in the passing game.

With the Steelers driving deeper into Packers territory for the go-ahead score at the start of the fourth quarter, linebacker Clay Matthews made the kind of game-changing play that has defined his young career in Green Bay. On a second-down run to his side, he shot inside of a block by a tight end, and, in concert with defensive end Ryan Pickett, met Mendenhall in the backfield, jarring the ball loose. The fumble was recovered by linebacker Desmond Bishop, and momentum was shifted almost entirely back in the Packers' favor.

Eight plays later, Rodgers found Jennings for an 8-yard touchdown that again made it a two-score game, at 28-17.

Refusing to go quietly, Roethlisberger and the veteran Steelers responded immediately, putting together a seven-play drive of their own that culminated with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Wallace and a successful two-point conversion on an option pitch to wide receiver Antwan Randle El.

Leading by a narrow 28-25 margin, Rodgers and the offense took over with 7:29 remaining, looking to wind the clock down and put the game out of reach. On third-and-10 from their own 25, Rodgers made one of the most memorable throws in the history of the Super Bowl. The Steelers rushed only three, but even having eight players in coverage wasn't enough to keep Rodgers from connecting with Jennings down the seam for 31 yards, just beyond the fingertips of cornerback Ike Taylor, who had excellent coverage on the play.

The drive resulted in a 23-yard Mason Crosby field goal that extended the lead to 31-25, but also gave Pittsburgh and the dangerous Roethlisberger a chance to drive for the winning score with just under two minutes remaining.

The Packers' defense stood up to the challenge though, and Roethlisberger's fourth-down pass to Wallace was broken up by cornerback Tramon Williams.

After two kneel-downs by Rodgers, confetti showered the field and the Packers were champions of pro football for a record 13th time. League commissioner Roger Goodell and guest presenter Roger Staubach handed the Vince Lombardi Trophy to Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy, General Manager Ted Thompson and Head Coach Mike McCarthy on a celebratory platform at midfield.

Rodgers was awarded game most valuable player honors after completing 24-of-39 attempts for 304 yards and three touchdowns. He became just the fourth quarterback ever to throw for 300 yards and three TDs in a Super Bowl.

INTERCEPTION RETURNS A WINNING FORMULA IN THE SUPER BOWL

After Packers safety Nick Collins intercepted Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger at Pittsburgh's 37-yard line in front of the Steelers' bench late in the first quarter of Super Bowl XLV, he embarked on a return that would significantly turn the tide of momentum in Green Bay's favor. Collins weaved his way through a host of Steelers on his way to the end zone, going aerial at the 3-yard line and across the goal line to put the Packers ahead by a commanding 14-0 margin early in the game.

Green Bay went on to defeat Pittsburgh, 31-25, for what was the fourth Super Bowl title in the illustrious history of the franchise. Collins became the second Packer and 12th overall player in league history to return an interception for a touchdown in the Super Bowl, and, not surprisingly, teams who are the beneficiary of such critical plays are a perfect 11-0 in the big game.

Interestingly, in what is a testament to the evolution of the passing game, there were only four interception touchdowns in the first 20 Super Bowls, and after a 15-year drought, there have been nine in the last 10 world championship contests. A closer look at the 13 interception returns for touchdowns and the results of those games:

GREEN BAY PACKERS SUPER BOWL RINGS

First played January 15, 1967, at the Los Angeles Coliseum, the Super Bowl was initiated to match the champions of the then-rival American Football League and National Football League. With a dominating defeat of their counterpart, the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs, by a score of 35-10 in Super Bowl I, the Packers laid the foundation for what would become a tradition of Super Bowl success. Just a year later in Super Bowl II, the Packers emerged with an equally impressive 33-14 conquest of the AFL's Oakland Raiders. Twenty-nine years later, Green Bay made its long-awaited return, appearing in Super Bowl XXXI and beating the New England Patriots 35-21, making the franchise a perfect three-for-three in the renowned title game. Similar to their first tour in the late 1960's, the Packers returned to the championship game the following year, but suffered defeat at the hands of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXII.

Ending a hiatus that lasted 13 years, the 2010 Packers fought their way to North Texas for a Super Bowl XLV showdown with the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers prevailed 31-25 in that contest, returning the famed Vince Lombardi Trophy to its rightful home in Green Bay.

In commemoration of the those triumphs, each time the Packers went through the process of developing and purchasing a unique, customized ring honoring those within the organization who had contributed to the team's ultimate success.

SUPER BOWL I CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Features: On one side is the NFL logo and shield; above the shield is a ribbon with the scores from the Packers' NFL Championship and Super Bowl victories, the first one reading, "Green Bay 34, Dallas 27" in the upper left and the second one, "Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10" in the upper right; below the shield was a crown with the three-word inscription, "Harmony, Courage, Valor"; on the other side is a ribbon for the person's name, a Green Bay Packers helmet and a football. The top of the ring has "WORLD CHAMPIONS" spanning the upper and "GREEN BAY PACKERS" spanning the lower with the words broken up by a "19" on the left and "66" on the right. Within the white gold insert in the center on the top is a 1.00 point full-cut brilliant diamond. As an interesting anecdote, it is said that the specific nature of the diamond being exactly 1.00 pt. stems from the extremely precise, detail-oriented head coach, Vince Lombardi. Full-cut brilliant diamonds can range in size from .93-1.07 points, but according to those involved with the design, Lombardi demanded that the diamonds all be exactly 1.00 pt. The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

SUPER BOWL II CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Lombardi, Skoronski, and Westland.

Features: On one side of the ring is a shield that holds within it a Green Bay Packers helmet and two crowns, one

SUPER BOWL XXXI CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Bob Harlan, the Packers' President and CEO, General Manager Ron Wolf, and Head Coach Mike Holmgren teamed with the organization's seven-member executive committee and worked in concert with Jostens representatives Gary Rotherham, John Scarpellini, and Charlie Anderson, a championship ring artist, to develop the idea.

Features: The center-top of the ring boasts a raised 'G' on a background of diamonds with the words 'World Champions' surrounding the logo. One shank (side) features the word "Packers" over the year "1996" above the word "Tradition," while the other shank includes the recipient's name, the Packers' logo on a helmet, the team's 1996-97 record (16-3) and the recipient's number or position with the team. The ring contains 115 diamonds totaling 235 points, or 2.35 karats. In a true testament to the expansion of not only the league's roster limits, but also the front office and board of directors, the team produced 165 of the actual championship rings.

In addition to the rings themselves, Jostens designed several different sketches for the Packers, including a women's ring for female staff and coaches' and players' wives. Each married player and coach received a women's ring for his spouse and any single players or coaches received a yellow "G" pendant with 87.5 points of diamonds in it.

SUPER BOWL XLV CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: An organization-led committee featuring Packers' President and CEO Mark Murphy, Executive Vice President and General Manager Ted Thompson, and Head Coach Mike McCarthy, along with Vice President of Football Administration Russ Ball and Vice President of Sales and Marketing Tim Connolly. The committee sought input from veteran players and then initiated the process once again with Jostens, producers of all four Packers' Super Bowl rings.

Features: As part of a recurring motif evident in several facets of the modern-day Packers franchise, the Super Bowl XLV championship ring matches first-rate quality with a thoughtful tribute to the organization's rich history and tradition. Presented to players, coaches and members of the organization at a ceremony inside the Lambeau Field Atrium in June 2011, the diamond-studded platinum ring celebrates both the memorable journey and victory in the franchise's fifth Super Bowl appearance, and also some of the historical elements that make the Packers one of the NFL's oldest and most storied teams.

Similar to the XXXI ring, the crest features a raised "G" logo, this time cast in 18-karat yellow gold and set atop a green stone tablet. The theme of paying homage to history is seen front and center as the "G" features 13 diamonds commemorating the team's record 13 world championships. Additionally, the crest is cornered on each end by four marquise-cut diamonds in the shape of footballs, representative of the four Super Bowl wins. Comprising the remaining face of the crest are 92 diamonds, recognizing the 92-year history of the organization.

On one shoulder, the player's last name is emblazoned above a replica engraving of Lambeau Field, beneath which is their jersey number with a circle around it. The encircled number is a tribute to the front of the uniform worn by the 1929 team, winners of the first world championship in franchise history.

The opposite shoulder is topped by the spelled out "PACKERS" logo above the Vince Lombardi Trophy, named, of course, in honor of the organization's legendary head coach. The coach's name is featured much like it is on the actual trophy, above the NFL shield, along with the letters "XLV."

The inside of the band features two separate inscriptions that make the piece particularly unique.

The first is a listing of scores from the four playoff wins with accompanying logos of the defeated opponents. The first three wins came on the road, as the Packers became just the third team in league history to accomplish the feat and just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl.

The other inscription commemorates the speech given to the team by veteran cornerback Charles Woodson in the locker room following the NFC Championship victory over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field. In the speech, Woodson, with one finger raised, encouraged his teammates to wholly unify for the coming two weeks that would lead them into Super Bowl XLV. His speech, and the major themes referenced within it, have been immortalized inside the ring with a large number "1" and the words, "Mind, Goal, Purpose and Heart" listed vertically next to the number.

The rings were weighed at a reported 116 grams and feature diamonds totaling 3.35 carats.

WOODSON GIVES "ONE" SPEECH FOR ALL TIME

The 2010 Packers became just the third team in NFL history to win three consecutive road playoff games, earning entry into Super Bowl XLV. A team that placed 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, they continued to defy the odds throughout the playoffs, en route to becoming just the second No. 6 seed to ever win the Super Bowl.

Late in the season and during the playoffs, cornerback Charles Woodson became the team's emotional leader by virtue of his customary excellent performance on the field and his steady guidance off of it. Following the Packers' 21-14 triumph over the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship game at Soldier Field, Woodson took to a celebratory platform in the locker room after the team's postgame prayer.

A 13-year veteran who had suffered defeat in Super Bowl XXXVII as a member of the Oakland Raiders, Woodson seized the opportunity to set the agenda for the two weeks that would precede Green Bay's matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers at Cowboys Stadium in North Texas.

Additionally, Woodson learned before the game that President Barack Obama had said publicly that he would attend the Super Bowl if the Bears were to advance. Knowing that the Super Bowl victor typically travels to the White House following the season, he was able to integrate that theme as well.

What followed is a speech that will forever exist in team lore and was eventually inscribed on the inner band of the team's Super Bowl championship rings:

"I want y'all to think about one thing...one...For two weeks, think about one. Let's be one mind, let's be one heartbeat, for one purpose, one goal, for one more game...one. Let's get it...And check this, if the President doesn't want to come watch us in the Super Bowl...Guess what? We'll go see him! Let's get a 'White House on three...One-Two-Three [collectively] 'WHITE HOUSE!'"

Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played at the Polo Grounds because George Preston Marshall, upset with Boston support, was shifting his Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C. In front of 29,545, Don Hutson caught a 48-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers never trailed. Green Bay's two second-half scores were set up, respectively, by a 52-yard pass from Herber to Johnny "Blood" McNally and when Lon Evans blocked a punt.

The Packers overcame an early 9-0 deficit, spawned by two blocked punts deep in their territory, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. Early in the second quarter, Green Bay began to close in when Arnie Herber capitalized on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 40-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants' margin to 9-7.

But the Giants converted a midfield fumble by Packers fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead. Green Bay trimmed the margin to two points before the half, when Clarke Hinkle crashed over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker.

During the opening minutes of the second half, the Packers took their only lead, when an Engebretsen field goal presented them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 23-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A (then) playoff-record 48,120 sat in on the proceedings.

1939 NFL Championship

Dec. 10 at State Fair Park, Milwaukee

The Packers gained long-awaited national respect with the first shutout in an NFL title game, 27-0. Despite bitter 35-mph winds, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in securing the team's fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, as the Giants missed on three field goal attempts. The Packers pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen, and a 31-yard TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws, set up by Laws' 30-yard punt return. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski. Green Bay intercepted the Giants six times and held them to only 164 total yards.

1941 Western Division Playoff

Dec. 14 at Wrigley Field, Chicago

In a playoff contest necessitated when the two teams finished the year 10-1, each having given the other its lone loss, the Packers fell victim to Chicago's offensive trio of George McAffee, Norm Standlee and Hugh Gallarneau in the 16-degree cold at Wrigley Field.

After the Bears fumbled the opening kickoff, Green Bay grabbed an early 7-0 lead, on Clarke Hinkle's 1-yard plunge. But Gallarneau's touchdown on an 81-yard punt return narrowed the gap to 7-6, before Chicago exploded for 24 second-quarter points to essentially settle the issue. The Bears rushed for 277 yards, including McAffee's team-record 119. Standlee ran for 79 and added two touchdowns.

The Bears also held Green Bay's prolific end, Don Hutson, to only one catch for 19 yards.

With peerless pass-catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged as the offensive hero in the Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, a 1-yard run on fourth-and-goal, and a 28-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the second. Meanwhile, Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a 1-yard plunge on the initial play of the fourth quarter, a drive which saw New York advance past its own 35-yard line for the first time in the game. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, set a (then) playoff record with three interceptions, and rushed for 74 yards on 13 carries.

Dec. 26 at Franklin Field, Philadelphia

The Packers couldn't hold a 13-10 fourth-quarter lead, yielding a late surge to the Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay had stopped Philadelphia at its own 4 late in the third quarter, then recaptured the lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. But on the ensuing kickoff, Dean's 58-yard return ignited the Eagles, and led to his game-winning touchdown with 5:21 remaining. Green Bay made a last-ditch effort, driving to the Eagles' 22, but on its final play, Philadelphia's Chuck Bednarik stopped Jim Taylor at the 8 as time expired.

The contest marked the Packers' first title game appearance in 16 years. It would also mark Vince Lombardi's only playoff loss.

Dec. 31 at *City Stadium, Green Bay

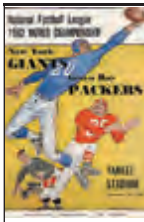

Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, tied a (then) playoff record with 19 points, keying the Packers' rout of the Giants in the first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A (then) team-record 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, proved a devastating complement, intercepting four passes and recovering one fumble, while limiting New York to six first downs and 130 total yards.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and Hank Gremminger, set up the team's second and third touchdowns, while the fumble recovery (by Forrest Gregg) led to Hornung's second field goal. Hornung's final FG came after Jesse Whittenton's interception.

Dec. 30 at Yankee Stadium, New York

In a raw, cyclonic setting (13-degree temperatures and 40-mile-per-hour winds), the Packers led the entire game, a primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke, the game's eventual MVP, proved the principal frustration to New York, seeking redemption for a shutout humiliation in the '61 title game. Early in the contest, Nitschke deflected a Giants pass, triggering an interception that blunted the drive at the Green Bay 10. The linebacker also recovered two fumbles, one that led to the Packers' only touchdown, and another that set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided the eventual margin.

The Giants' only TD came after blocking a Max McGee punt in the Green Bay end zone, midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor, engaged in a fierce battle with New York's Sam Huff, set a franchise playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

1965 Western Conference Championship

Dec. 26 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Don Chandler's game-winning field goal, at 13:39 of sudden death, ended the Packers' first-ever overtime game, and their only such playoff contest until 2003. His 25-yard kick sent Green Bay to the NFL championship, after both the Colts and Packers ended the regular season 10-3-1.

Chandler's first field goal, a game-tying 22-yarder with 1:58 left in regulation, remains controversial. Baltimore loyalists, led by coach Don Shula, claimed it sailed wide right. The kick, which flew high above the upright, actually triggered the league to extend the goal posts' height for the following season.

The Colts, playing without starting quarterback Johnny Unitas (knee) and his backup Gary Cuozzo (dislocated shoulder), used halfback Tom Matte as a fill-in. Matte completed only five passes, but did gain 57 yards rushing.

Baltimore held a 10-0 halftime lead, scoring 21 seconds into the game when linebacker Don Shinnick returned a Bill Anderson fumble 25 yards for a touchdown. Bart Starr, in pursuit, injured his ribs on the play, Green Bay's first from scrimmage.

Zeke Bratkowski replaced Starr for the balance of the afternoon, completing 22-of-39 passes for 248 yards. The Packers moved to within 10-7 in the third quarter when Paul Hornung scored on a 1-yard run, setting the stage for Chandler's heroics.

After four inches of snow softened the Lambeau surface, the Packers used their running game to rally past Cleveland, and a crowd of 50,777 celebrated the team's third championship in five years.

Paul Hornung (18-105) and Jim Taylor (27-96) amassed 201 yards rushing, helping the Packers overcome an early 9-7 deficit.

Packers defenders, meanwhile, allowed only 50 yards to Cleveland's Jim Brown, the league's leading rusher with 1,544 yards during the year.

In the third quarter, Bart Starr finally settled the see-saw battle, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play drive, ending when Hornung scored on a 13-yard sweep around the Browns' right perimeter. Kickers Don Chandler and Lou Groza booted five total field goals.

Bart Starr, in one of his finest hours, threw four touchdowns, and Tom Brown thwarted a last-minute Cowboys bid, leading Green Bay to its second straight title and fourth in six years.

With 28 seconds left, Brown stunned most of the 74,152 fans, when he intercepted Don Meredith's fourth-down pass in the end zone.

The Packers mounted a quick 14-0 lead, after Starr hit Elijah Pitts on a 21-yard touchdown, and rookie Jim Grabowski returned a fumble 18 yards for a score. But an explosive Dallas comeback cut the margin to 21-17 by halftime, and 21-20 after Danny Villanueva's third-quarter field goal. Starr then hit Boyd Dowler and Max McGee with 16- and 28-yard scoring passes, respectively, to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

Travis Williams scored two touchdowns, and the Packers weathered three early turnovers, downing the Rams in the first regularly scheduled conference playoff in NFL history.

After L.A. got on the board first with Roman Gabriel's 29-yard scoring pass to Bernie Casey, the Packers responded with 28 unanswered points in one of Milwaukee County Stadium's more memorable games.

Williams rushed for 88 yards on 18 carries, while Bart Starr threw for 222 yards with one touchdown and set a (then) team record by completing 73.9 percent of his passes (17-of-23). End Carroll Dale caught Starr's scoring toss, one of six catches for 109 yards. The Packers also sacked Gabriel five times, including 3½ by Henry Jordan.

Green Bay's victory kicked off a trio of postseason wins that included the legendary Ice Bowl NFL championship eight days later, and a second straight Super Bowl victory.

John Brockington, the Packers' 1,000-yard rusher, had to settle for 9 yards on 13 carries as the Redskins

Lynn Dickey culminated two long TD drives with passes to John Jefferson and James Lofton. The Packers then capitalized on a pair of St. Louis turnovers, converting each into Eddie Lee Ivey TDs.

Green Bay led 28-9 at half, and 41-9 in the fourth. Dickey (17-of-23, 260 yards, no interceptions) tied a team playoff record with four TD passes. Jefferson (six catches) set a (then) club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards, including a 60-yard TD reception. Bart Starr's game-winning touchdown, a 1-yard dive behind Jerry Kramer and Ken Bowman with 13 seconds remaining, clinched a third straight Green Bay championship and ended the "Ice Bowl."

Starr's score, on third down with no timeouts left, climaxed a 68-yard, 12-play drive which began with 4:50 on the clock. In all, 50,861 watched the coldest game in league annals. Kickoff temperature was 13 below zero and the wind chill was minus-46.

Like the year before, the Packers grabbed an early 14-0 advantage. But this time the Cowboys came back, gaining a 17-14 edge on the first play of the fourth quarter, when Lance Rentzel caught a 50-yard touchdown from halfback Dan Reeves. The contest was later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Starr's touchdown play, "35 wedge," called for Chuck Mercein to get the ball. No one expected Starr to keep it.
- Officially, the field's $80,000 heating system failed due to cold. Unofficially, some say, Vince Lombardi turned it off.
- The play before Starr's TD, Donny Anderson actually broke the plane, but Lee Roy Jordan knocked the ball from his hands, and Anderson had to retrieve it on the other side.
- Officials could not use whistles to stop play. They froze.

- The team canceled marching-band performances after noticing blood on a few of the musician's faces.
- Packers fans several times during the contest leaned over the front row to unplug the Cowboys' heated benches.
- After the game, several fans passed out soon after warming up. Their thawed systems finally registered the alcohol they'd consumed to keep warm during the game.
- One fan, an elderly gentleman, died due to exposure.

Dallas' late 74-yard touchdown drive ended all Green Bay comeback hopes, in front of 63,972 fans.

The Packers pulled to within four, 30-26, when Mark Lee returned a fourth-quarter interception 22 yards for a touchdown. Green Bay in the second half rolled up 363 yards total offense and outscored Dallas, 19-17. But despite a (then) team-record 466 overall yards, Green Bay couldn't overcome a slow start and a 20-7 halftime deficit.

Lynn Dickey threw for a (then) team playoff-record 332 yards (19-of-36). Split end James Lofton emerged with 109 yards on five receptions and spiced the Packers' second-half comeback by taking a reverse 71 yards for a TD, matching the NFL's longest postseason run from scrimmage (since broken).

The Cowboys' Dennis Thurman intercepted three passes, returning one 39 yards for a touchdown and another to end the Packers' last-gasp possession in the fourth quarter.

Brett Favre's 40-yard touchdown pass to Sterling Sharpe in the final minute gave Green Bay one of the most electrifying victories in its rich postseason history.

Favre's pass, a scrambling, across-the-body throw from extreme left to extreme right, found Sharpe wide open in the end zone with 55 seconds remaining. It capped a see-saw battle with the NFC Central Division champion Lions.

Earlier, rookie safety George Teague returned an Erik Kramer interception 101 yards for a touchdown, longest in NFL playoff annals, giving Green Bay a 21-17 lead. Sharpe (five catches, 101 yards) also made the record book, tying an NFL playoff mark with three touchdown receptions.

The Lions' Barry Sanders, returning from a knee injury, ignited the Silverdome crowd of 68,479 with 169 yards rushing.

The Cowboys' 17-point second-quarter surge overcame an early Packers lead and gave the eventual Super Bowl champions momentum they would not relinquish.

But the Packers held that momentum in the first quarter. They stopped Bill Bates short on a fourth-down fake punt, and capitalized on great field position to score the game's first points, a Chris Jacke field goal.

Brett Favre threw for 331 yards and Sterling Sharpe (six recep-

1994 NFL Wild Card Playoff

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Spurred by a classic defensive performance, the Packers outlasted Detroit in Green Bay's first home playoff game since 1982. Coordinator Fritz Shurmur held the NFL's leading rusher, Barry Sanders, to a career-low minus-1 yard, on 13 attempts, and limited the Lions collectively on the ground to minus-4 yards (a record that still stands today) — erasing a 31-year-old league playoff record.

Brett Favre directed several long drives, including a 76-yard excursion on the game's opening series, capped by a 3-yard touchdown run by Dorsey Levens. Green Bay, who controlled the ball for 37-plus minutes, played turnover-free throughout, entertaining the 58,125 fans. Chris Jacke added three field goals, including a Packers postseason-record 51-yarder.

The Lions pulled to within 13-10 in the fourth quarter, on Dave Krieg's 3-yard touchdown pass to Brett Perriman, and reached the Packers' 11-yard line on their final drive in the game's closing moments. But the Green Bay defense stiffened, recapturing the ball on downs, before Packers punter Craig Hentrich took an intentional safety to run out the day's final seven seconds.

The Packers couldn't overcome a 28-9 halftime deficit, and despite 327 yards of total offense, fell to Dallas' arsenal of offensive superstars in the NFC semifinals.

Trailing only 7-3 in the first quarter, the Packers pinned Dallas deep in its own territory. But Troy Aikman then connected with Alvin Harper on an (then) NFL playoff-record 94-yard touchdown pass. Aikman threw for 337 yards, and three Dallas receivers — Michael Irvin (111), Harper (108) and Jay Novacek (104) — had 100-yard days. Dallas backup Blair Thomas rushed for 70 yards and two scores after replacing Emmitt Smith, who left in the first quarter after aggravating a hamstring injury.

1995 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Utilizing a balanced offensive attack, including Edgar Bennett's (then) franchise playoff-record 108 rushing yards, Green Bay toppled the Falcons on a foggy, 30-degree afternoon. The Packers had earned their first NFC Central crown in 23 years.

Jeff George's 65-yard touchdown pass to Eric Metcalf gave Atlanta a 7-0 edge three minutes into the game and stunned the crowd of 60,453. But the Packers quickly regained control, scoring two first-quarter TDs.

Green Bay broke open the game midway through the second period, when rookie Antonio Freeman became the first Packers player to return a kick for a postseason touchdown, taking a punt back 76 yards. Then, with less than one minute left in the first half, Mark Chmura caught a 2-yard touchdown from Brett Favre, capping a 14-play, 85-yard drive, extending the lead to 27-10.

Favre's third TD toss — a perfect, lofting spiral to Dorsey Levens with just under eight minutes left — cemented the issue. Favre completed passes to nine receivers, while Bennett averaged 4.5 yards on the ground, with one TD, on 24 attempts.

PACKERS 27, SAN FRANCISCO 17

1995 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 6, 1996, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Physically menacing the 49ers offense, Green Bay shocked the defending Super Bowl champions and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time.

The victory, especially sweet for San Francisco native Mike Holmgren, marked the coach's first game against the club that launched his pro coaching career.

After the Niners blocked a field goal to end Green Bay's opening drive, the Packers defense set the tone for the rest of the game. On San Francisco's first play, Wayne Simmons drilled fullback Adam Walker on a screen pass, forcing a fumble that rookie Craig Newsome returned 31 yards for the day's first points. The Packers then mounted 62- and 72-yard scoring drives on their next two possessions; Brett Favre's touchdown passes to Keith Jackson and Mark Chmura, respectively, gave Green Bay a 21-0 second-quarter advantage.

Favre, the NFL's MVP, completed 21-of-28 passes (75 percent), while Jackson, whose two long receptions over the middle set up Packers scores, caught four for 101 yards. Robert Brooks' four catches totaled 103 yards.

The Packers defense forced four turnovers and battered Steve Young all afternoon, with three sacks and countless knockdowns, forcing him to attempt an NFL playoff-record 65 passes in a futile comeback bid. Meanwhile, San Francisco's receiver nonpareil, Jerry Rice, made 11 receptions but had few yards after the catch.

Green Bay posted the only road victory by an NFC team in the divisional playoffs from 1990-99.

DALLAS 38, PACKERS 27

1995 NFC Championship

Jan. 14, 1996, at Texas Stadium, Irving

Green Bay, one win from its first Super Bowl in 28 years, held a fourth-quarter lead before succumbing to the offensive firepower of the eventual league champions.

Emmitt Smith (35-150), behind his massive offensive line, rushed for three touchdowns, ending the Packers' season at Texas Stadium for the third straight year.

After the Packers converted a blocked punt into a field goal, Troy Aikman threw two TD passes to Michael Irvin. Brett Favre answered with two scores of his own — at the time a team postseason-record 73-yard pass to Robert Brooks and a Keith Jackson connection — to vault Green Bay into the lead, 17-14. Dallas added 10 points before halftime, though, to go up 24-17.

Green Bay got the second half's first 10 points, including Favre's 1-yard touchdown pass to Brooks, and held a 27-24 lead at the end of three quarters.

But Smith's talents glistened in the fourth quarter. His two rushing TDs — sandwiched around Larry Brown's drive-killing interception in Dallas territory — gave the Cowboys their third Super Bowl appearance in four years.

PACKERS 35, SAN FRANCISCO 14

1996 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 4, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Jump-started by their special teams, specifically two punt returns by Desmond Howard, the Packers took the first step toward an eventual berth in Super Bowl XXXI by eliminating the 49ers for a second straight year. With rain since early morning on a cold and dreary day, the field offered less-than-ideal footing, and deteriorated into a quagmire by game's end. Despite the weather, 60,787 spectators (three no-shows) still showed up.

After the 49ers went three-and-out on their first drive, Howard weaved his way through several defenders for a 71-yard touchdown just 2:15 into the game. Then, midway through the first quarter, Howard broke free on a second punt return, traveling 46 yards before San Francisco tripped him up at its 7. Moments later, Brett Favre hit Andre Rison on a 4-yard touchdown pass to give Green Bay a 14-0 advantage.

After an Edgar Bennett TD, the 49ers converted two Green Bay special-teams miscues into 14 points, bringing the game back within reach. First, a San Francisco punt bounced off Chris Hayes' leg and the 49ers recovered at the Green Bay 26, setting up a Terry Kirby touchdown catch. Then, when the Packers failed to field a short kickoff to open the second half, San Francisco recovered at the Green Bay 4, and, on the next play, Elvis Grbac's naked bootleg trimmed the Packers' lead to 21-14.

To their credit, the Packers stormed back on their next possession, going 72 yards in 12 plays, a drive capped when Antonio Freeman recovered Bennett's fumble in the end zone.

Neither team gained many yards in the sloppy conditions. Green Bay racked up only 210 yards, including a club postseason-low 71 passing. Bennett was the Packers' workhorse, running for 80 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries. Steve Young's broken ribs, suffered one week earlier, forced him out after two series and San Francisco managed just 196 total yards.

PACKERS 30, CAROLINA 13

1996 NFC Championship

Jan. 12, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers overcame two early deficits to defeat upstart Carolina and earn a berth to their first Super Bowl in 29 years, largely on the strength of Dorsey Levens' 205 yards of offense. It was the first title game in Green Bay since the legendary 1967 "Ice Bowl."

Not quite 10 minutes into the game, linebacker Sam Mills intercepted Brett Favre deep in Green Bay territory, setting up Kerry Collins' 3-yard TD toss to Howard Griffith.

On the first snap of the second quarter, Levens evened the score, out-jumping Carolina's Eric Davis at the right edge of the end zone on a 29-yard touchdown reception. The previous play, Levens had rushed for 35 yards on third-and-1.

Carolina converted a Favre fumble, near midfield, into a field goal, but the Packers stormed back with 10 points in the final minute of the first half. Favre connected with Antonio Freeman for a touchdown on a 6-yard fade with 48 seconds remaining, capping a 15-play, 71-yard drive. When the Panthers then attempted to move downfield, rookie Tyrone Williams made a diving interception at the Packers' 38, which Chris Jacke turned into a 31-yard field goal 10 seconds before halftime.

Late in the third quarter, Edgar Bennett strolled untouched through the middle on a 4-yard touchdown, giving Green Bay a 27-13 lead. Levens set up the score on the previous play, going 66 yards down the right sideline on a perfectly executed screen.

Green Bay put up 479 net yards, a (then) team playoff record. It churned out 201 rushing yards (99 on Bennett's 25 carries, 88 on 10 attempts by Levens). Levens also made five receptions for 117 yards, and Favre completed 19-of-29 for 292 yards.

While the weather certainly was cold — 3 degrees with a minus-17 wind chill — the storyline before the game was the field, ravaged against San Francisco the previous week, when rainy conditions turned it into a mud pit. The Packers installed an all-new surface days prior to the game, with sod trucked in from Maryland on more than two dozen semis.

The George S. Halas Trophy, symbolic of the National Football Conference Championship, was presented to President Bob Harlan, General Manager Ron Wolf and Head Coach Mike Holmgren in an on-field ceremony following the game.

PACKERS 21, TAMPA BAY 7

1997 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 4, 1998, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In a hard-fought, defensive struggle — much like their two earlier meetings during the regular season — the Packers' offensive superiority overwhelmed the Bucs on a gray day. Dorsey Levens' (then) team playoff-record 112 rushing yards helped Green Bay maintain control.

The Packers foiled three first-half field-goal opportunities. On the first, Bob Kuberski surged up the middle to block Michael Husted's 43-yard attempt. On the second, Keith McKenzie stuffed Tampa Bay's fake field goal for no gain. Then, on the third, Bucs long snapper Dave Moore sailed the ball over holder Steve Walsh's head.

After Kuberski's block, Brett Favre moved 67 yards for the team's first score, a touchdown pass to Mark Chmura. Rookie Ryan Longwell then hit two field goals, the second set up by a Tyrone Williams interception in Bucs territory.

Tampa Bay, making its first playoff appearance in 15 years, got its only points after intercepting Favre and driving 94 yards for a Mike Alstott touchdown. But the Packers kept the Bucs at arm's length, when Levens, who had 88 yards after halftime, punched in a short touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and Favre converted a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw.

Warren Sapp forced two fumbles and sacked Favre three times. The two combatants openly jawed throughout the contest in an intriguing sideshow.

PACKERS 23, SAN FRANCISCO 10

1997 NFC Championship

Jan. 11, 1998, at 3Com Park, San Francisco
Green Bay, in its third straight NFC Championship, never allowed the 49ers to get started and advanced to a second consecutive Super Bowl. In the process, the Packers purged San Francisco for a third straight year, the second time at 3Com.

From the outset, on a rain-swept afternoon, the Packers were able to pick on San Francisco's cornerbacks, moving 76 yards on their first possession.

Early in the second quarter, Eugene Robinson stepped in front of a Steve Young pass and weaved across the field 58 yards to the 49ers' 28. Two plays later, Antonio Freeman caught a short slant from Brett Favre, cut back against the grain and broke several tackles for a 27-yard touchdown, and a 10-0 Green Bay lead.

Late in the opening half, the 49ers had to settle for a field goal after three straight incompletions from the Green Bay 10. Then, in the waning seconds, Favre connected with Freeman on a 40-yard bomb, to set up the half's final play, Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal, against a difficult wind.

Longwell, who attended nearby Cal one season earlier and had been released by the 49ers just before training camp, added his third field goal midway through the fourth quarter, giving Green Bay a more comfortable 13-point lead.

The Packers' defense, which held San Francisco to just 33 rushing yards on 18 overall carries, sacked Young in the fourth quarter four times, twice by Keith McKenzie. When Green Bay sacked Young on fourth down at his own 11 with just under four minutes remaining, the Packers quickly capitalized, scoring after two Dorsey Levens runs.

Levens broke his own, week-old (then) franchise playoff record with 114 rushing yards — the first 100-yard effort allowed by the 49ers during the '97 season — and again did much of his work in the second half. Freeman totaled 107 yards on four catches, and punter Craig Hentrich helped Green Bay to handily win the field-position battle, depositing all five of his punts inside the 49ers' 20.

Following Levens' score, the Niners' Chuck Levy returned the kickoff 95 yards for San Francisco's lone touchdown, with 2:52 left in the game.

On the field after the game, with a smattering of fans remaining, the George S. Halas Trophy, representative of the National Football Conference Championship, was handed over to the rain-soaked trio of President Bob Harlan, General Manager Ron Wolf and Head Coach Mike Holmgren.

SAN FRANCISCO 30, PACKERS 27

1998 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 3, 1999, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Steve Young's touchdown pass to Terrell Owens, in between four defenders with three seconds remaining, ended the Packers' season. The 49ers ended their five-game Green Bay losing streak, a stretch that covered four years, including elimination from the 1995-97 playoffs. The Packers, in the postseason for a team-record sixth consecutive year, went winless in the playoffs for the first time in the span.

After a critical interception, Brett Favre got the ball at his own 11, trailing 23-20 with 4:19 left. His 47-yard bomb up the left sideline to rookie Corey Bradford put the Packers in scoring range at the 31. Then, four plays later, Favre saw the 49ers stack eight men at the line, audibled and found Antonio Freeman on a sprint-and-go pattern for a 15-yard TD and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 left.

But Young drove 76 yards in the final two minutes, culminating in his game-winning, 25-yard bullet to Owens, who had dropped several passes. Earlier during the controversial drive, rookie Scott McGarrahan appeared to strip Jerry Rice at the Green Bay 41, and Bernardo Harris recovered, but officials ruled Rice down.

Strong running games bolstered both teams. Garrison Hearst ran for 128 of the 49ers' 178 rushing yards, while Dorsey Levens broke his own (then) team playoff rushing mark with 116 yards. Greg Clark's two TD catches each came after Green Bay turnovers. Favre threw for 292 yards and two touchdowns, both to Freeman.

Two Packers icons — all-time sacks leader and future Hall of Famer Reggie White, and head coach Mike Holmgren — saw their Green Bay careers end. Holmgren, 84-42 overall in seven Packers seasons, became the Seahawks' executive VP of football operations/general manager and head coach five days later.

Jan. 13, 2002, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Brett Favre orchestrated four second-half scoring drives, while Mike McKenzie and Tyrone Williams collaborated on a game-turning fourth-quarter interception as Green Bay ended the 49ers' season, 25-15. The win improved Green Bay's all-time record in home postseason contests to 13-0, including 11-0 at Lambeau Field.

Before the 1970 merger expanded the playoff system, NFL teams tied atop their division were pitted in single games for rights to attend the league championship. The Packers played two such games, losing to the Bears in 1941 and defeating the Colts in 1965.

Favre lobbied with coaches at halftime to open up the passing game, then threw for 226 of his 269 yards in the final two quarters, steering Green Bay back from a 7-6 deficit. Led by Favre, Green Bay in the second half produced points on four of its first five possessions. The quarterback engineered marches of 72, 81, 49 and 93 yards, fighting off a 49ers rally that had tied the contest, 15-15, with 12 minutes left in regulation.

McKenzie halted an ominous Niners drive halfway through the fourth quarter. The cornerback batted an underthrown pass, like a volleyball, into the hands of a nearby Williams at the Packers' 7. McKenzie had broken up another potential Terrell Owens score earlier in the fourth. After the pick, the Packers drove 93 yards to extend their lead, on Ahman Green's 9-yard TD run.

Inspired by the return of injured starters Nate Wayne and Gilbert Brown, the Packers also held the league's No. 2 rushing offense to only 71 yards on the ground. Brown recorded his first sack since 1997 on the game's first play from scrimmage. Cletidus Hunt kept the Niners off the scoreboard early when he blocked a Jose Cortez field goal attempt in the second quarter.

ST. LOUIS 45, PACKERS 17

Jan. 20, 2002, at Dome at America's Center

St. Louis parlayed eight Green Bay turnovers into 35 points, and ended an outstanding Packers season, 45-17. The Packers suffered the largest margin of defeat in team postseason history.

Brett Favre, in his 16th career postseason game, matched an NFL playoff record with six interceptions. St. Louis returned three INTs for touchdowns, and four of the six picks were tipped either at the line of scrimmage or by the intended receiver. The timing of the first three interceptions combined to put the game out of reach.

Favre's initial interception, early in the first quarter, was a read miscommunication with Bill Schroeder, and Aeneas Williams raced 29 yards for the day's first points. Favre answered by marching 65 yards in five plays, getting a great effort from Antonio Freeman on a 22-yard TD pass, to tie the game, 7-7.

But with St. Louis up 14-7 in the second period, Kim Herring picked off Favre and returned it 45 yards to the Green Bay 4. Two plays later, Kurt Warner hit James Hodgins on a 4-yard pass to extend the Rams' lead.

The third interception, in the third quarter, all but sealed the win. Tommy Polley grabbed a pass deflected by Grant Wistrom and sprinted 34 yards for a TD, creating a 31-10 St. Louis advantage.

Lost in the eight turnovers, which doubled the Packers' previous 2001 season high, was a strong effort by the Green Bay defense, which limited the league's best offense to its lowest yardage in 21 games. The Packers gave up only two big plays — a 38-yard run by Marshall Faulk late in the first quarter and a 50-yard pass from Warner to Torrey Holt. Green Bay also held St. Louis to 13 first downs, its lowest total since the Rams began their offensive explosion in 1999.

The Packers saw a penalty nullify a 95-yard kickoff return, which would have cut the Rams' lead to 21-14 in the second quarter.

ATLANTA 27, PACKERS 7

2002 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 4, 2003, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Undaunted by the storied stadium where his own coach, Dan Reeves, lost in the "Ice Bowl" 35 years before, Michael Vick led Atlanta to a shocking upset before 65,358.

The Packers, the NFL's only 8-0 home team in 2002, had never lost a home playoff (13-0). Brett Favre was without Pro Bowl back Ahman Green (knee) and top receivers Donald Driver (shoulder) and Terry Glenn (concussion) in a futile second-half comeback attempt.

The NFC North champion Packers, who tied for the league's best record and just one week prior had a shot at the NFC home-field advantage, began their offseason much sooner than expected.

Green Bay, without top defender and Pro Bowl safety Darren Sharper (knee), even got a snowstorm but still couldn't corral any momentum. After a Vick touchdown pass gave the Falcons a quick 7-0 lead, Mark Simonneau beat the Packers' protection and blocked Josh Bidwell's punt near Green Bay's end zone. Artie Ulmer smothered the ball for another Atlanta touchdown. Then, Kevin McCadam pushed Tyrone Williams into Green Bay returner Eric Metcalf, and George Layne recovered the muffed punt. Four plays later, T.J. Duckett's TD made it 21-0. The fervent Falcons also stopped the Packers with a goal-line stand.

Favre, who had two interceptions and a fumble, hit Driver with a 14-yard touchdown on the first drive after halftime, but Driver re-injured his dislocated shoulder on the play. It was the 13th straight playoff game in which Favre threw a touchdown pass, tying Dan Marino's NFL record.

PACKERS 33, SEATTLE 27 (OT)2003 NFC Wild Card PlayoffJan. 4, 2004, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay*

Al Harris returned an interception 52 yards for an overtime touchdown to lift the Packers past the Seattle Seahawks, 33-27.

Harris scored the first defensive touchdown to win an overtime playoff in NFL history. Once he got to the end zone, his teammates tackled him, setting off a wild celebration. Harris answered with a lap around the stadium.

Seattle had tied it with 51 seconds remaining on Shaun Alexander's third 1-yard touchdown run. Then, Packers kicker Ryan Longwell was short on a 47-yard field goal attempt as regulation time expired. Seattle won the coin toss, and quarterback Matt Hasselbeck told the official, "We want the ball, and we're going to score." The Seahawks got the ball, but punted. After Seattle got the ball back, it was Harris who scored on the game's only turnover.

Favre, as usual, thrived in the cold. He set an NFL record by throwing for a touchdown in a 14th straight playoff game and rallied the Packers to a 27-20 lead.

Early on, the Seahawks — who lost 35-13 in Green Bay the prior October — shut down Ahman Green, who rushed for 1,883 yards in the regular season. But he came on late, particularly on short-yardage plays. After falling behind 20-13, Green Bay covered 60 yards in 12 plays. Green converted a fourth-and-1 from the 3 before surging into the end zone to tie it with 10:01 left.

Early in overtime, replay helped the Seahawks when Alex Bannister was ruled to have fumbled. But a video review overturned the call, to cascading boos. The game was even on key calls — and in just about every other way. In the first half, Hasselbeck tried to stop his passing motion and lost the ball at the Green Bay 17. Nick Barnett retrieved it and ran for a touchdown, but Seattle head coach Mike Holmgren challenged the call and won.

Javon Walker's 44-yard reception led to Favre's playoff TD record. His 23-yard laser found Bubba Franks at the goal line as defender Damien Robinson fell down. Favre, who threw for 319 yards, was tied with former Dolphins star Dan Marino for the record of 13 straight games.

Longwell's 27-yarder made it 13-6 at halftime, but Seattle tied it with a 75-yard drive to open the second half. Alexander ran in from the 1 on fourth down after left guard Steve Hutchinson caught a deflected pass on the previous play.

Favre moved into third place in career playoff completions (364) and touchdown passes (31), ahead of John Elway.

Brian Dawkins' overtime interception set up David Akers' winning field goal, but the Eagles really advanced to the NFC title game thanks to Donovan McNabb.

With the Eagles trailing 17-14 and 1:12 left in regulation, he breathed life into his team with a 28-yard completion to Freddie Mitchell on a fourth-and-26. That, in turn, led to a 37-yard field goal by Akers that sent the game into overtime. McNabb threw for 248 yards and two TDs, and rushed for 107 yards.

Duce Staley had two big runs — one for 22 on the Eagles' first play of their final regulation drive and another of 11 yards in overtime to help set up the winning field goal. Staley's contribution was especially needed with the Eagles missing all-purpose running back Brian Westbrook, who scored 13 touchdowns in the regular season but sat out with a torn triceps muscle.

The Packers (11-7) had won seven of their last eight, including three straight since Brett Favre's father died just before Christmas. Green Bay became the second NFL team to play consecutive overtime playoff games, joining the 1987 Browns.

The Packers led 14-7 at halftime, but the Eagles had the momentum after stopping Ahman Green on fourth down from the 1-yard line late in the second quarter.

Green Bay scored twice in the first quarter on passes of 40 and 17 yards from Favre to Robert Ferguson, the first set up by a McNabb fumble. The Eagles countered midway through the second quarter on McNabb's 7-yard TD pass to Staley. It came one play after a 45-yard completion from McNabb to Todd Pinkston. Philadelphia tied it early in the fourth quarter when McNabb scrambled out of trouble and found Pinkston just inside the right pylon from 12 yards out.

Favre's 44-yard pass to Javon Walker set up Ryan Longwell's 21-yard field goal that gave the Packers a 17-14 lead with 10:21 left in the fourth. Favre's 180 yards passing moved him ahead of Dan Marino into third place on the career playoff yardage list.

Green Bay posted eight sacks, a franchise postseason record.

MINNESOTA 31, PACKERS 172004 NFC Wild Card PlayoffJan. 9, 2005, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay*

Randy Moss caught two touchdown passes and the Vikings rolled to a 31-17 upset victory against the stunned Packers. Green Bay had swept the season series, including a last-second victory at the Metrodome two weeks prior to clinch the NFC North crown and the home field for this showdown at Lambeau Field.

Daunte Culpepper threw four touchdown passes and the Vikings picked off four Brett Favre passes.

Minnesota scored on its first three possessions, jumping out to a 17-0 lead in averaging two 34-31 losses to the Packers, who entered the playoffs as the NFC's hottest team.

The Packers lost Pro Bowl receiver Javon Walker and left tackle Chad Clifton to injuries, but pulled to 24-17 on Najeh Davenport's 1-yard plunge with 13:37 left. Then, two costly defensive penalties set up Culpepper's 34-yard touchdown toss to Moss, giving the Vikings a 14-point cushion with 10:18 remaining.

On the first series, Culpepper lofted the ball over Nick Barnett and Moe Williams broke a tackle, scampering 68 yards for a touchdown 1:40 into the game. After the Packers went three-and-out, the Vikings made it 14-0 on Moss's 20-yard TD catch. Antoine Winfield's interception on the next possession set up Morten Andersen's 35-yard field goal that made it 17-0.

The Packers pulled to 17-10 on Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal and Bubba Franks' 4-yard TD catch, and they caught a huge break when Andersen slipped on a 29-yard field goal attempt.

But Walker, who bruised his shin earlier in the second quarter and didn't play after halftime, changed his deep route and Brian Russell intercepted the pass, leading to a Nate Burleson score.

The Packers drove to the Vikings' 8, but Favre was whistled for an illegal forward pass when he scrambled and flung the ball to Walker in the end zone. Then, Longwell missed a 28-yarder.

Favre surpassed No. 2 Dan Marino and No. 3 John Elway on the all-time postseason completions and pass attempts lists, respectively. He also extended his NFL record with a TD pass in a 16th consecutive playoff game.

PACKERS 42, SEATTLE 20

2007 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 12, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In near white-out conditions that turned Lambeau into a "Winter Wonderland," the Packers overcame an early 14-0 deficit by scoring touchdowns on six consecutive possessions and easily advanced to their first NFC Championship since 1997.

Running back Ryan Grant fumbled twice in the game's first 69 seconds, setting up both of the Seahawks' early scores. But Grant bounced back to rush for 201 yards and three touchdowns, both franchise playoff records, while Brett Favre was an efficient 18-of-23 for 173 yards and three TDs. Favre's 78.26 completion percentage broke his own single-game Green Bay playoff record.

The Packers had erased the early 14-point deficit by the end of the first quarter with scoring drives of 64 and 69 yards and then took the lead for good early in the second quarter. On the period's opening play, Atari Bigby's big hit on Seattle tight end Marcus Pollard after a short reception jarred the ball loose, and Aaron Kampman recovered at the Seahawks' 18-yard line. Three plays later, Favre found Greg Jennings on a short 2-yard lob pass for the receiver's second TD of the game to make it 21-14.

The defense limited the Seahawks to just two field goals the rest of the way, and by game's end the Packers had amassed huge advantages in total yards (408-200) and time of possession (34:00 to 26:00).

Grant compiled his 201 yards in less than 3½ quarters, coming out of the game for good with 10 minutes left in the contest. He broke off four runs of 24 yards or longer on the day, including a memorable 43-yard scamper down the left sideline when the snowstorm was at its heaviest late in the third quarter.

2007 NFC Championship

Jan. 20, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

On a frigid Sunday evening that featured a game-time temperature of minus-1 and wind-chill of minus-23, Lawrence Tynes sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with a 47-yard field goal 2 minutes, 35 seconds into overtime.

The third-coldest contest in NFL championship game history was close throughout, with the Packers overcoming an early 6-0 deficit on a 90-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Donald Driver in the second quarter. It marked the longest play from scrimmage in Green Bay postseason annals.

A 20-yard reception by Driver, whose 141 receiving yards rank as the third most in franchise playoff history, set up a Mason Crosby field goal to give the Packers a 10-6 halftime advantage.

The two teams traded touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the third quarter, with Ahmad Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring run putting the Giants on top 20-17. Two plays into the fourth quarter, Favre's pass was intercepted by R.W. McQuarters near the goal line, but on the return Ryan Grant stripped the ball from McQuarters right into the hands of Mark Tauscher at the New York 19-yard line. The Packers capitalized with a game-tying field goal with 11:46 left.

The Giants had two chances to win the game in regulation, but Tynes missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards, the latter coming as time expired.

The Packers won the toss for overtime, but on the second play of the fifth period Favre's pass for Driver was intercepted by Corey Webster and returned to the Green Bay 34. Four plays later Tynes got a third shot at a game-winner and delivered.

2009 Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 10, 2010, at Univ. of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

In the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, the Packers fell to the Cardinals when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was sacked by Michael Adams and fumbled the ball into the arms of Karlos Dansby, who returned it 17 yards for the game-winning score just 1 minute, 18 seconds into overtime.

The shootout featured Green Bay playoff records of 493 total yards, 423 yards passing from Rodgers and 159 yards receiving from tight end Jermichael Finley. Rodgers also tied team postseason marks with four TD passes and 28 completions. Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better, though, going 29-of-33 for 379 yards and five TDs.

The Packers turned the ball over on two of their first three plays from scrimmage, and the Cardinals capitalized with two touchdowns. That lead was extended to 31-10 early in the third quarter before Green Bay rallied.

The Packers scored touchdowns on five consecutive second-half possessions to tie the game at 45, and the contest went to overtime when Arizona kicker Neil Rackers pulled a 34-yard field goal attempt wide left with nine seconds left in regulation.

Green Bay won the coin toss and got the ball to start the extra session, but on third-and-6 from their own 24, the Packers turned the ball over for a third and fatal time.

PACKERS 21, PHILADELPHIA 16

2010 Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 9, 2011, at Lincoln Financial Field

Trailing by five and looking at a first-and-10 from the Green Bay 27-yard line with 44 seconds remaining in the game, Eagles quarterback Michael Vick went for it all.

Fortunately for the Packers, Tramon Williams was ready.

Locked in coverage against wide receiver Riley Cooper, the cornerback turned and snatched the ball out of the air in the end zone, sealing the victory for Green Bay, and handing Aaron Rodgers the first postseason win of his career.

The Packers' quarterback was a efficient 18-of-27 passing for 180 yards and three touchdowns, and was aided by a newfound balance forged by the breakout performance of rookie running back James Starks.

Starks, a sixth-round pick who was beset by injuries and appeared in just three games during the regular season, set a franchise rookie postseason record with 123 yards on 23 carries, repeatedly gashing the Philadelphia defense.

The Packers' defense, led by Clay Matthews, Charles Woodson and a host of others, executed an aggressive game-plan designed to contain the explosive Vick. They held him to just 33 yards rushing, and Philadelphia's 16 points were the fewest surrendered by Green Bay in a road playoff game since the 1997 NFC Championship Game, the last time the franchise won on the road in the postseason.

PACKERS 48, ATLANTA 21

2010 Divisional Playoff

Jan. 15, 2011, at Georgia Dome

The Atlanta Falcons entered their Divisional Round match-up against the Packers with the No. 1 seed in the NFC, home-field advantage throughout the playoffs, and a well-rested, veteran team set to take the field in front of more than 69,000 fans inside the Georgia Dome.

Green Bay entered with Aaron Rodgers, Tramon Williams and the momentum of having won three consecutive elimination games, and that was all the Packers would need to keep their playoff journey alive.

Just six days after clinching the Wild Card win at Philadelphia with a leaping interception in the end zone late in the fourth quarter, Williams outdid himself in Atlanta. He intercepted Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Ryan twice, the second of which was a virtual backbreaker he returned 70 yards for a touchdown as time expired in the first half. The momentum-changing play extended Green Bay's lead to 28-14 and sucked the life out of what had been a charged home crowd.

While Williams stole the show on defense, Rodgers put on one of the greatest individual performances in NFL postseason history. In a display of passing precision seldom seen on such a big stage, he completed 31-of-36 passes for 366 yards and three touchdowns through the air, also adding one on the ground. His ability to escape pressure, extend plays, and deliver accurate throws downfield had the offense in rhythm from the opening gun, and had the Falcons defense searching for answers.

Throughout the game, the Packers compromised the identity Atlanta had established during their 13-3 regular season. The Falcons ranked No. 3 in the NFL in both time of possession and turnover margin during the regular season, but possessed the ball for only 21:41 and committed a total of four turnovers. They also boasted the NFC's leading rusher in standout back Michael Turner, but on this night, he was limited to just 39 yards, matching a season-low.

PACKERS 21, CHICAGO 14

Jan. 23, 2011, at Soldier Field

A touchdown-saving tackle by a quarterback, a pair of interceptions by an undrafted rookie, and an interception return for a touchdown by a nose tackle. An improbable script to be sure, but one that played out in the NFC Championship Game at Soldier Field.

In what appeared to be an illustration of him picking up where he'd left off the previous week at Atlanta, Aaron Rodgers led a pair of early scoring drives that staked Green Bay to a 14-0 halftime lead.

On the offense's first possession of the second half, Rodgers again led the unit inside the Chicago 10-yard line en route to what would seemingly be an insurmountable three-possession advantage. On third-and-goal, however, the quarterback was uncharacteristically intercepted at the 6 by veteran linebacker Brian Urlacher, who immediately embarked on a long return with most of the offensive players in his wake. Rodgers, the last man to beat, held his angle and dove at Urlacher's legs, tripping him up at the Chicago 45. The tackle ultimately kept the Bears off the scoreboard, as Chicago was forced to punt on the ensuing possession.

The Green Bay defense was once again outstanding in the early going, forcing five punts and an interception on Chicago's six first-half possessions. Rookie cornerback Sam Shields led the way by becoming the first rookie in NFL history to record a sack and an interception in a playoff game, accomplishing the feat on respective Bears possessions to close the first half.

Bears quarterback Jay Cutler was unable to move the ball with any regularity and also suffered a knee injury just before halftime. Following the first drive of the second half, he was replaced because of the injury by backup Todd Collins. The Packers defense quickly rendered Collins ineffective, and he was benched after two possessions in favor of seldom-used third-stringer Caleb Hanie.

To the surprise of many, Hanie led the Bears on a 67-yard scoring drive at the start of the fourth quarter, tightening Green Bay's lead to 14-7. Two possessions later, Chicago took over at its own 10 and on third-and-5, Hanie was intercepted by nose tackle B.J. Raji, who then lumbered 18 yards for an unlikely albeit memorable touchdown that pushed the score to 21-7.

Refusing to quit, Hanie and the Bears' offense responded quickly, driving 60 yards on four plays, and finishing with a 35-yard touchdown on a catch-and-run by wide receiver Earl Bennett.

After a quick three-and-out by Green Bay, the Bears used 12 plays to get the ball to the Packers' 29-yard line. On a fateful fourth-and-5, Hanie looked deep over the middle but was intercepted by Shields, his second of the game. Green Bay knelt down to run out the clock and the celebration ensued.

The Packers were presented the Halas Trophy inside the visitor's locker room and were set to begin preparations for the franchise's first Super Bowl appearance in 13 years, Super Bowl XLV at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

LAMBEAU FIELD

MISC.

PACKERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Green Bay Packers have 21 individuals in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, including Class of 2006 inductee Reggie White. The Packers' total is second only to that of the Chicago Bears, who have 27 enshrinees. The Washington Redskins (19) are next, followed by the New York Giants (18) and Pittsburgh Steelers (18).

In addition, five other players who played briefly for Green Bay — defensive end Len Ford, linebacker Ted Hendricks, guard/coach Walt Kiesling, kicker Jan Stenerud and safety Emlen Tunnell — have their busts displayed in the Hall of Fame. Biographies of the Packers' 21 HOF players follow:

Founder, player, head coach, vice president (1919-49)

Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only head coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '29, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and is one of only seven coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL (others are Don Shula, George Halas, Tom Landry, Chuck Noll, Marty Schottenheimer and Dan Reeves). Had coaching record of 212-106-21 (.667) with Packers. Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53). Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. Died June 1, 1965, at age of 67. Lambeau Field named in his honor, Sept. 11, 1965.

1963 — ROBERT (CAL) HUBBARD

Tackle (1929-33, 1935)

Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Pirates. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants — a massive 6-foot-5, 250-pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was an official NFL All-Pro choice in each of first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Selected to NFL's All-50-Year Team in 1970 and to All-Time Two-Way Team in 1994. Played college football three years at Centenary College in Louisiana and one final season at Geneva in Pennsylvania. Born Oct. 31, 1900, in Keytesville, Mo. Died Oct. 17, 1977, at age of 76.

1963 — DON HUTSON

End/Defensive Back (1935-45)

Made eighth-most touchdown receptions (99) in pro football history, an all-time NFL record until broken by Steve Largent in 1989. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving eight years and in scoring five seasons, both also lifetime marks. Also played defensive back and placekicker. Named to NFL's All-50-Year Team in 1970, later was selected to league's 75th Anniversary and All-Time Two-Way teams in 1994. Also holds league record for most points scored in one quarter (29). Played collegiately at Alabama. Named to four Pro Bowls. Born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Died June 26, 1997, at age of 84.

1963 — JOHNNY (BLOOD) McNALLY

Halfback (1929-33, 1935-36)

Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos, Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Pirates. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played a major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1929, '30 and '31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Going into 2011 season, still held 26th place in Packers lifetime scoring, over seven decades after departing Green Bay scene, with 230 points. Collegiate star at St. John's (Minn.). Born Nov. 27, 1903, in New Richmond, Wis. Died Nov. 28, 1985, at age of 82.

1964 — CLARKE HINKLE

Fullback (1932-41)

A member of the official NFL All-Pro team four times (1936, '37, '38, '41). Incredibly versatile, he was a tough, bruising runner, fine blocker, good receiver and excellent placekicker, as well as a shrewd, hard-hitting linebacker. Sixth-ranking rusher in Packers' history entering 2011 season with 3,860 yards on 1,171 carries. Was selected to NFL's All-Time Two-Way Team in 1994. Played college football at Bucknell. Named to three Pro Bowls. Born April 10, 1909, in Toronto, Ohio. Died Nov. 9, 1988, at age of 79.

1964 — MIKE MICHALSKE

Guard (1929-35, 1937)

Also played for New York football Yankees (1927-28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time official NFL All-Pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State. Born April 24, 1903, in Cleveland. Died Oct. 26, 1983, at age of 80.

1966 — ARNIE HERBER

Quarterback (1930-40)

Also played for New York Giants (1944-45). Pro football's first great long passer. Won three NFL passing titles (1932, '34, '36) and was All-Pro selection in 1932. Teamed with Don Hutson to form NFL's first feared passing combination in mid-'30s. Ranks sixth in Packers annals with 66 career touchdown passes over his 11 seasons. Tough, durable athlete and accomplished punter as well as great passer. A Green Bay native, he played college football at Regis University (Denver). Born April 2, 1910, in Green Bay. Died Oct. 14, 1969, at age of 59.

1971 — VINCE LOMBARDI

Head Coach and General Manager (1959-67), General Manager (1968)

Also assistant coach for New York Giants (1954-58) and head coach of Washington Redskins (1969). Directed Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 1965-66-67), a feat without parallel in pro football history. His 1966 and 1967 teams also made history by winning first two Super Bowls. Packers won nine of 10 playoff games, the last nine in consecutive fashion. Under his leadership, Green Bay compiled a 98-30-4 record, a glittering .766 winning percentage, as he never had a losing season. A guard, played his college football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite." Born June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Died Sept. 3, 1970, at age of 57.

1974 — TONY CANADEO

Became only the third 1,000-yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1949. Still ranks as No. 4 ground gainer in Packers annals entering 2011 season with 4,197 yards on 1,025 attempts, a 4.1 average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was an accomplished blocker, capable passer and good receiver, in addition to being a highly effective kick returner. Also played defensive back during early years of his career. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired nickname "Grey Ghost." Served Packers organization longer than any person in history, 59 years, including tenures on the executive committee and board of directors. Born May 5, 1919, in Chicago. Died Nov. 29, 2003, at age of 84.

1976 — JIM TAYLOR

Also played for New Orleans Saints (1967). Rushed for more than 1,000 yards five straight seasons (1960-64). Had ranked among NFL's top-20 rushers, with 8,597 yards over his 10 seasons, until displaced in 2003. Is Packers' second all-time leading ground gainer with 8,207 yards to his credit during his nine seasons in Green Bay. Had 26 career 100-yard rushing games, all in a Packers uniform (second most in team history). Played his college football at LSU. Named to five Pro Bowls. Born Sept. 20, 1935, in Baton Rouge, La.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME, GREEN BAY

The Packers Hall of Fame, which now has a new and expanded home in the Lambeau Field Atrium, owns a unique place in the history of professional football. Now in its 35th year, it was the first permanent hall of fame devoted to one team.

Founded by William L. Brault, a local loyalist and restaurateur with a deep appreciation for Packers history and tradition — as well as the intriguing vision for a team museum — it was formally dedicated on April 3, 1976, by then-President Gerald R. Ford. On Sept. 4, 2003, Bart Starr and Ron Wolf rededicated the Packers Hall of Fame, which moved into the Lambeau Field Atrium complete with a new design complemented by a variety of additional, state-of-the-art exhibits.

To date, 147 individuals — players, coaches and contributors — have been enshrined, including William Henderson, Frank Jonet and Marco Rivera, inducted during a ceremony in July 2011.

For the record, the Hall of Fame was informally launched by Brault in 1966 as a series of exhibits displayed in the concourse of the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena — exhibits that had to be removed each autumn to make room for the Green Bay Bobcats hockey team and its schedule. The annual induction banquets were subsequently launched in 1970 but the "Hall" did not become a permanent, year-round entity until 1976.

The Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Inc., is a corporation separate from the football team, organized and operated for purposes permitted for tax-exempt status under 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. All revenue is dedicated and invested only for such purposes. Donation of memorabilia is tax-deductible.

1977 — FORREST GREGG

Tackle (1956, 1958-70)

Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1971). Drafted in the second round (20th overall) in 1956. Was named All-Pro eight times (including All-Pro at both guard and tackle in 1965) and nine times to the Pro Bowl. Called by Vince Lombardi "the finest player I ever coached." Voted to NFL's 75th Anniversary Team in 1994. Held the Packers record for durability with 187 consecutive games played, until surpassed by Brett Favre in 2003. Head coach of Green Bay Packers, 1984-87. Also served as head coach of Cleveland Browns (1975-77) and Cincinnati Bengals (1980-83). Played college football at SMU. Born Oct. 18, 1933, in Birthright, Texas.

1977 — BART STARR

Quarterback (1956-71)

Drafted in 17th round in 1956. Became the winningest quarterback in football, directing the Packers to six Western Division titles, five world titles, including two Super Bowl victories, and earning MVP honors in Super Bowls I and II. Led the league in passing in 1962, 1964 and 1966, and was named to the Pro Bowl four times. Held Packers career record for most games played (196) until surpassed by Brett Favre in 2004. In 1972 he coached Packers' quarterbacks. Head coach of Green Bay Packers, 1975-83. He played college football at Alabama. Born Jan. 9, 1934, in Montgomery, Ala.

1978 — RAY NITSCHKE

Linebacker (1958-72)

Drafted in third round in 1958 after playing fullback at Illinois. Most Valuable Player in 1962 NFL title game vs. N.Y. Giants. Named to the NFL's All-50-Year and 75th Anniversary teams. All-Pro in 1964, 1965 and 1966; Pro Bowl selection in 1964. Played in third-most games (190) in Packers history. Had 25 career interceptions. Born Dec. 29, 1936, in Elmwood Park, Ill. Died March 8, 1998, at age of 61.

1980 — HERB ADDERLEY

Cornerback (1961-69)

Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1970-72). Packers' No. 1 draft choice (Michigan State) in 1961. Five-time All-Pro at cornerback. Played in five Pro Bowls, four of first six Super Bowls (two with Green Bay, two with Dallas). Had 48 career interceptions (39 with Packers); ran seven back for TDs (second in Green Bay history), including three in 1965. Born June 8, 1939, in Philadelphia.

1981 — WILLIE DAVIS

Defensive End (1960-69)

Also played for Cleveland (1958-59). A 15th-round draft choice, he came to Packers from Browns in 1960 trade. Became one of premier pass rushers in pro football history, earning All-Pro honors five times and selection to Pro Bowl five times. Holds all-time Packers record for career fumble recoveries (21). Helped Packers win five NFL titles during 1960s. Played college football at Grambling. Served on Packers' board of directors from 1994-2005. Born July 24, 1934, in Lisbon, La.

1981 — JIM RINGO

Center (1953-63)

Also played for Philadelphia (1964-67). Seventh-round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Went on to earn All-Pro honors eight times, seven with the Packers, and played in 10 Pro Bowls, seven with the Packers. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183), including 126 with Green Bay. Helped Packers win back-to-back NFL titles in 1961-62. Traded to Eagles in 1964. Born Nov. 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J. Died Nov. 19, 2007, at age of 75.

1986 — PAUL HORNUNG

Hallback (1957-62, 1964-66)

One of the most versatile players in pro football history, he won NFL scoring title three consecutive years (1959-60-61), setting league record of 176 points in 1960 (which stood 46 years until broken by LaDainian Tomlinson in 2006). Also shares second-highest single-game NFL playoff scoring record, 19 points. All-Pro selection two times and named to Pro Bowl twice. Averaged 4.2 yards per rush, caught 130 passes and kicked 66 field goals during nine-year career. Fourth-ranked scorer in Packers history entering 2011 season with 760 points. Bonus choice (first player selected overall) in 1957 NFL Draft. Played college football at Notre Dame, winning Heisman Trophy in 1956 (only player ever to win Heisman on a team with a losing record). Born Dec. 23, 1935, in Louisville, Ky.

1989 — WILLIE WOOD

Safety (1960-71)

Sent postcards to several NFL teams asking for a tryout coming out of USC in 1960. Went on to become recognized as a premier free safety, winning All-Pro honors nine straight years beginning in 1962. A Pro Bowl selection eight times, he also played in six NFL championship games, helping Packers win five titles. Starting free safety for Green Bay in Super Bowls I and II, broke open a close contest in third quarter of Super Bowl I, intercepting a Len Dawson pass and returning it 50 yards to the Chiefs' 5. Had 48 career interceptions. Won NFL title in 1962 with nine thefts. Also captured league punt-return crown in 1961 with 16.1-yard average. One of only 14 non-drafted free agents to make Hall of Fame. Born Dec. 23, 1936, in Washington, D.C.

1995 — HENRY JORDAN

Defensive Tackle (1959-69)

Also played for Cleveland (1957-58). Originally a fifth-round draft choice of Browns, came to Green Bay in 1959 trade. Named All-Pro five straight seasons (1960-64), he also was selected to play in the Pro Bowl four times. One of team's more colorful personalities, missed only two games in his first 12 seasons. Played in seven NFL title games (including 1957 with Cleveland), plus first two Super Bowls. Had 3.5 sacks in 1967 Western Conference championship win over Rams. Played college football at Virginia. Born Jan. 26, 1935, in Emporia, Va. Died Feb. 21, 1977, at age of 42.

2003 — JAMES LOFTON

Wide Receiver (1978-86)

Also played for L.A. Raiders (1987-88), Buffalo (1989-92), L.A. Rams (1993) and Philadelphia (1993). First Packers Hall of Famer without direct ties to either Curly Lambeau or Vince Lombardi. Made 530 catches in a Packers uniform, and remains team's all-time leader with 9,656 receiving yards entering 2011. Selected by Green Bay in first round (sixth player overall) of 1978 NFL Draft. A deep-threat receiver, possessed both speed and great hands. Recorded more than 50 receptions in a season nine times. First NFL player to score a touchdown in 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. In 16 seasons, caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards — an NFL yardage record at the time of his retirement. Named All-Pro four times (twice with Packers) and All-NFC three times (all with Packers). Selected to play in eight Pro Bowls, including his first seven years with Green Bay. Born July 5, 1956, in Fort Ord, Calif.

2006 — REGGIE WHITE

Defensive End (1993-98)

Also played for Philadelphia Eagles (1985-92) and Carolina Panthers (2000). In 15 NFL seasons, played 232 games. Nicknamed "Minister of Defense" while playing at the University of Tennessee, where he was a consensus All-American. After two seasons with the Memphis Showboats (USFL), selected by Eagles in first round (fourth overall) of 1984 Supplemental Draft. During eight seasons with Philadelphia, recorded more sacks (124) than games played (121). A landmark free agent, signed with Green Bay in 1993 and went on to post a then-franchise-record 68.5 sacks. At the time of retirement, his 198 sacks were an NFL record, as were his 12 seasons with 10-plus sacks. Only player to record 10 sacks in nine consecutive seasons. Was important contributor to Packers' two Super Bowl berths, adding a Super Bowl-record three sacks in XXXI victory over New England. NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and 1998. Elected to 13 straight Pro Bowls. Named All-Pro 13 of 15 seasons, including 10 as first-team selection. Born Dec. 19, 1961, in Chattanooga, Tenn. Died Dec. 26, 2004, at age of 43.

SELECTED AS STARTERS IN BOLD

NOTE: Game not held from 1943-49

PRO BOWL VOTING

- The NFL is the only pro sports league that combines all-star voting by fans, players and coaches.
- NFL players and coaches cast their Pro Bowl ballots usually in Week 15.
- Mike McCarthy and the PR department conduct voting, asking that players (1) not vote for their own teammates, and (2) offensive players & coaches vote for defensive players, and vice versa.
- The consensus ballots of fans, players and coaches each count one-third toward determining the 43-man AFC & NFC rosters.
- Fan voting is used to break any tie.
- The NFL became the first professional league to offer online voting, in 1995.
- According to the current Collective Bargaining Agreement, each Pro Bowl player on the winning team earns $40,000; each Pro Bowl player on the losing team earns $20,000.

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

- On Monday Night Football for an 19th consecutive season, the Packers make one appearance in 2011.
- The Packers own the NFC's longest MNF appearance streak — 19 seasons (1993-2011). In the NFL, only Denver (20, 1992-2011) now has a longer streak.
- Prior to the current 19-year string, Green Bay didn't appear for six straight years, 1987-92.
- Brett Favre and Robert Brooks own the MNF record for longest pass completion, a 99-yard touchdown strike at Chicago, Sept. 11, 1995 (Packers franchise record, tied NFL record).
- The Packers are 27-29-1 in the regular season on MNF.
- During a memorable Oct. 17, 1983, Redskins-Packers game, still the highest-scoring game in MNF history — Green Bay won a 48-47 track meet. Facing the defending Super Bowl champions, the Packers prevailed in a contest featuring 11 touchdowns, 11 extra points and six field goals. Jan Stenerud's 20-yard FG with 54 seconds left decided the issue. The contest also represented the highest-scoring game in the Packers' history, surpassing Green Bay's 52-35 loss at Detroit in 1951.

GREEN BAY'S 35 OVERTIME GAMES

- Green Bay continues to own the NFL record for most overtime games played in one season — five, in 1983.
- Green Bay has played 35 OT games (11-15-4 reg. season, 2-3 playoffs).
- The franchise's first overtime game came in the 1965 Western Conference playoff, a historic 13-10 victory over the Colts.
- The NFL adopted the overtime rule for league games after the '73 season.
- In addition to regular season and postseason, the Packers have played six overtime games in preseason.

REGULAR SEASON

Nov. 26, 1978—Green Bay 10, Minnesota 10, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Both teams have four possessions.

Sept. 23, 1979—Minnesota 27, Green Bay 21, at Minnesota. Vikings win toss. Kramer throws 50-yard touchdown pass to Rashad at 3:18.

Sept. 7, 1980—Green Bay 12, Chicago 6, at Green Bay. Bears win toss. Parsons punts and Nixon returns 16 yards. Five plays later, Marcol returns own blocked field goal attempt 24 yards for touchdown at 6:00.

Oct. 12, 1980—Green Bay 14, Tampa Bay 14, at Tampa Bay. Packers win toss. Teams trade punts twice. Lee returns second Tampa Bay punt to Green Bay 42. Dickey completes three passes to Buccaneers' 18, where Birney's 36-yard field goal attempt is wide right as time expires.

Dec. 19, 1982—Baltimore Colts 20, Green Bay 20, at Baltimore. Packers win toss. K.Anderson intercepts Dickey's first-down pass attempt. Miller's 44-yard field goal attempt blocked by G.Lewis. Teams trade punts before Stenerud's 47-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Teams trade punts again before time expires.

Sept. 4, 1983—Green Bay 41, Houston Oilers 38, at Houston. Packers win toss. Packers score on only OT possession, an 11-play, 59-yard march. Stenerud kicks 42-yard field goal at 5:55.

Oct. 23, 1983—Minnesota 20, Green Bay 17, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Scribner's punt downed on Vikings' 42. Ricardo kicks 32-yard field goal eight plays later at 5:05.

Nov. 20, 1983—Detroit 23, Green Bay 20, at Milwaukee. Packers win toss. Scribner punts and Jenkins returns 14 yards to Green Bay 45. Murray's 33-yard field goal attempt is wide left. Whitehurst's pass intercepted by Watkins and returned to Green Bay 27. Murray kicks 37-yard field goal four plays later at 8:30.

Nov. 27, 1983—Atlanta 47, Green Bay 41, at Atlanta. Packers win toss. K.Johnson returns interception 31 yards for touchdown at 2:13.

Dec. 12, 1983—Green Bay 12, Tampa Bay 9, at Tampa Bay. Packers win toss. Packers convert game's only OT series (11 plays, 65 yards) on Stenerud's 23-yard field goal at 4:07.

Sept. 30, 1984—Tampa Bay 30, Green Bay 27, at Tampa Bay. Packers win toss. Scribner punts 44 yards to Tampa Bay 2. Epps returns Garcia's punt 3 yards to Green Bay 27. Scribner's punt downed on Buccaneers' 33. Ariri kicks 46-yard field goal 11 plays later at 10:32.

Sept. 20, 1987—Green Bay 17, Denver 17, at Milwaukee. Packers win toss. Del Greco's 47-yard field goal attempt is short. Teams trade punts. Elway intercepted by Noble, who returns 10 yards to Green Bay 34. Davis fumbles on next play and Smith recovers. Two plays later, Karlis' 40-yard field goal attempt is wide left. Time expires two plays later.

Oct. 11, 1987—Detroit 19, Green Bay 16, at Green Bay. Lions win toss. Prindle's 42-yard field goal attempt is wide left. Packers punt downed on Detroit 17. Prindle kicks 31-yard field goal 16 plays later at 12:26.

Oct. 18, 1987—Green Bay 16, Philadelphia 10, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Hargrove scores on 7-yard run, capping game's only OT possession (10 plays) at 5:04.

Oct. 29, 1989—Green Bay 23, Detroit 20, at Milwaukee. Lions win toss. On first play, Murphy intercepts Peete and returns it 3 yards to Lions' 26. Jacke's 38-yard field goal seals the win at 2:14.

Nov. 3, 1991—New York Jets 19, Green Bay 16, at New York. Packers win toss. Green Bay drives to New York 24 where Jacke's 42-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Aguiar's punt is fumbled and recovered by New York at Packers' 23. Leahy kicks 37-yard field goal at 9:40.

Sept. 6, 1992—Minnesota 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Vikings win toss. After Minnesota punt, Packers take over at Green Bay 33. Majkowski is intercepted by Glenn at Vikings' 48. Teams trade punts. Packers punt a second time in overtime session with Vikings taking over at their 42. On second play, Allen runs 45 yards up middle to Packers' 11. One play later, Reveiz kicks 26-yard field goal at 10:20.

Oct. 20, 1994—Minnesota 13, Green Bay 10, at Minnesota. Vikings win toss. Minnesota drives 62 yards in eight plays: Reveiz kicks 27-yard field goal with 4:26 elapsed.

Dec. 10, 1995—Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10, at Tampa Bay. Buccaneers win toss. Tampa Bay drives 48 yards in seven plays: Husted kicks 47-yard field goal 3:46 into extra period.

Oct. 14, 1996—Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20, at Green Bay. 49ers win toss. After San Francisco fails to pick up first down, Packers take over at own 44. Green Bay covers only 21 yards in six plays to reach 49ers' 35. Jacke sends his 53-yard kick — the longest field goal to win an overtime game in NFL history — squarely down the middle at 3:41.

Nov. 6, 2000—Green Bay 26, Minnesota 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. After Schroeder's 22-yard reception gets Green Bay across midfield, Freeman makes miraculous catch while flat on his back at Vikings' 15, gets up and runs past stunned Minnesota defenders for 43-yard score with 3:39 elapsed, culminating 82-yard, seven-play drive.

Dec. 24, 2000—Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Rossum returns kickoff 29 yards to 38. Aided by Parker's 35 yards on five carries, Green Bay drives 58 yards to Buccaneers' 4. Longwell kicks 22-yard field goal with 6:31 elapsed.

Sept. 8, 2002—Green Bay 37, Atlanta 34, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Roughing the kicker penalty keeps Packers' first possession alive, but drive stalls at Atlanta 39. Green Bay holds Falcons to three-and-out, then marches 44 yards in seven plays (six carries and one 18-yard pass from Favre to Walker). Longwell kicks 34-yard field goal with 9:45 elapsed.

Monday, Nov. 6, 2000, 11:39 p.m., Vikings 20, Packers 20, Wayne Larrivee & Larry McCarren, Packers Radio Network...

Larrivee: Slot left, Freeman wide right, Green the lone back. Third down Packers, under a blitz...

McCarren: Here they come.

Larrivee: Favre pop fly to the right side, Freeman trying to adjust to it, and it's incomplete, nearly intercepted by Cris Dishman.

McCarren: Wait a second...

Larrivee: Wait a minute. Freeman picked it up. It bounced into his hands!

McCarren: It rebounded into his hands.

Larrivee: Touchdown!

McCarren: Touchdown. We win.

Larrivee: Packers win. I don't believe it.

McCarren: Wayne, it was meant to be. It was meant to be.

Larrivee: I can't believe it... Dishman thought that ball was on the ground. That ball stayed alive, Dishman tipped it and it looked like he broke it up. I thought the play was over. Freeman made the grab, took it into the end zone. Touchdown Packers! 43-yard touchdown and they win.

OVERTIME HISTORY

MISC.

Oct. 12, 2003—Kansas City 40, Green Bay 34, at Green Bay. Chiefs win toss. Kansas City drives 41 yards to Green Bay 30, where Hunt blocks Andersen's 48-yard field-goal attempt. On next play, Ahman Green blasts into Kansas City territory but fumbles, recovered by Kansas City at Chiefs' 49. Then, on ensuing play, Trent Green hits streaking Kennison for a 51-yard touchdown up right sideline with 8:50 left on the clock.

Dec. 11, 2005—Green Bay 16, Detroit 13, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Favre orchestrates 10-play, 56-yard drive, the only possession of the extra period. Packers enter Detroit territory after 15-yard unnecessary roughness call. Longwell nails 28-yard field goal with 9:47 left on the clock.

Oct. 29, 2007—Green Bay 19, Denver 13, at Denver. Packers win toss. On first snap, Favre heaves a pass off play-action deep down left sideline to Jennings, who has a step on Bly. Jennings catches pass in stride and strolls into end zone untouched for game-winning, 82-yard TD with just 16 seconds elapsed in extra period.

Nov. 2, 2008—Tennessee 19, Green Bay 16, at Tennessee. Titans win toss. On the only possession of overtime, Tennessee drives 55 yards on 10 plays to set up Bironas, who missed a 47-yard attempt at the end of regulation. This one, from 41 yards out, is good with 9:36 left on the clock.

Dec. 22, 2008—Chicago 20, Green Bay 17, at Chicago. Bears win toss. In frigid conditions, Chicago scores on the only possession of the extra frame after a seven-play, 47-yard drive. Long completions to Olsen and Forté set up Gould's 38-yard field goal at 3:32.

Oct. 10, 2010—Washington 16, Green Bay 13, at Washington. Packers win toss. Washington takes over at the Green Bay 39-yard line following an interception on the Packers' second possession of the extra period. Benefiting from two defensive penalties on a six-play drive, the Redskins make it to the Packers' 15, where Gano hits a 33-yard field goal for the win.

Oct. 17, 2010—Miami 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Dolphins win toss. Packers force overtime in consecutive weeks for the first time since 1987 with a 1-yard Rodgers TD run with :16 remaining in regulation. Miami assumes possession with good field position at their own 48-yard line on their second series of OT. Five runs and one pass move the ball to the Green Bay 26 where Carpenter converts a 44-yard field goal.

POSTSEASON

Dec. 26, 1965—Green Bay 13, Baltimore Colts 10, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Moore returns kickoff to Packers' 22. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 9 yards to Colts' 41. Gilburg punts and Wood makes fair catch at Packers' 21. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 1 yard to Colts' 41. Michaels misses 47-yard field goal. Bratkowski, in relief of Starr (injured on game's first play from scrimmage), orchestrates 10-play, 62-yard drive, including 18-yard passes to Anderson and Dale, to penetrate Colts' 20. Chandler's towering kick is good from 25 yards at 13:39. Packers in following week win first of three straight NFL championships (1965-67). Chandler's controversial first field goal, sending contest into OT, sails high above right upright. NFL raises goalposts following season.

Jan. 4, 2004—Green Bay 33, Seattle 27, at Green Bay. Seahawks win toss. Morris returns kickoff to 33. On third play, Hawthorne recovers Bannister fumble at Seattle 43, but Holmgren's replay challenge reverses call. Seahawks hold Packers to three-and-out, then drive to midfield. Packers win first NFL postseason overtime game decided by a defensive touchdown.

Jan. 11, 2004—Philadelphia 20, Green Bay 17, at Philadelphia. Eagles win toss. Thrash returns kickoff to 28. Packers hold Eagles to three-and-out on first possession. On first Green Bay snap, in the face of a heavy Philadelphia blitz, Favre and intended receiver Walker miscommunicate on deep pass, and Dawkins returns interception 35 yards to Packers' 34. Six plays later, Akers kicks 31-yard field goal. Packers become second team in NFL history to play consecutive overtime playoff games (1986 Cleveland Browns).

Jan. 20, 2008—New York Giants 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Robinson returns kickoff to 26. On second-and-8, Favre's pass for Driver intercepted by Webster and returned 9 yards to Green Bay 34-yard line. After two Bradshaw carries gain 5 yards, Manning throws incomplete on third down. Tynes, who missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards late in the fourth quarter, hits 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed.

Jan. 10, 2010—Arizona Cardinals 51, Green Bay 45, at Arizona. Packers win toss. On third-and-6 from Green Bay 24, Rodgers is sacked and stripped by Adams. Ball is knocked loose, deflecting off Rodgers' foot and into arms of Dansby, who returns fumble 17 yards for touchdown with 1:18 elapsed.

THE SHRINE GAME

- Green Bay plays host to the Arizona Cardinals Aug. 19 in the 62nd annual Upper Midwest Shrine Game, one of the NFL's longest team traditions.
- Each season, the Packers donate a percentage of the gate to the Shriners' Hospitals for Children.
- The Shriners' facilities provide specialized medical services, helping children with birth defects and other injuries, at absolutely no cost.
- To date, the series has raised more than $3.2 million for the Midwest Shrine's burn centers and hospitals for crippled children.

THE BISHOP'S CHARITIES GAME

- In 1961, the Diocese of Green Bay approached Vince Lombardi about playing a second charitable contest in Green Bay (the Shrine game was already a fixture in Milwaukee).
- Lombardi, a devout Catholic, agreed to the contest. The original contract gave the Packers, their opponent and the church each one-third of the gate receipts.
- During the 1970s, the Packers and the church changed the contract so the Diocese would receive a flat donation, rather than a percentage.
- For more than 30 years, the church handled much of the game's business-related tasks, including game program and advertising sales, using a network of volunteers covering 14 northeastern Wisconsin counties. The Packers assumed many of those tasks beginning in 1994.
- To date, the series has raised over $3.5 million.
- In 2011, the Packers host the Kansas City Chiefs on Sept. 1 in the 51st annual contest.

CHARITY GAMES

LANEBAU FIELD

MISC.

BIRTH OF A TEAM, AND A LEGEND

On Aug. 11, 1919, a score or more husky young athletes, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

Lambeau and Calhoun struck the initial spark a few weeks before, during a casual street-corner conversation. It was apparently a "Why not get up a football team?" remark, but once they were interested, they wasted no time.

First they talked Lambeau's employer — a wartime industry called the Indian Packing Company, where he worked as a shipping clerk for $250/month — into putting up money for jerseys.

Because the company provided jerseys and permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in, the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the Indian Packing Company had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

The first season the team won 10 and lost only one, against foes from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise (Aug. 27, 1921) in the new national pro football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and the team had to be forfeited at year's end.

This was the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250, including $50 of his own money. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

However, another storm late in the season, when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Kelleys, threatened to throw Lambeau further into debt. But A.B. Turnbull, Green Bay Press-Gazette general manager, advanced Lambeau the Duluth guarantee. He then lobbied town businessmen ("The Hungry Five") behind the team, and formed the Green Bay Football Corporation.

From those modest and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual worldwide recognition by winning more championships (13) over the intervening 80-plus years than any team in pro football.

These achievements, while representing a town of approximately 100,000 in competition with the country's largest markets, have endeared the Packers to the nation. The David vs. Goliath concept and the team's unique status as a publicly owned corporation have intrigued generations.

Calhoun

The Packers' colorful saga spans 90 years from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Lambeau, to the present day, which finds Mike McCarthy presiding as the team's 14th head coach.

THE IRON MAN ERA

With good financial backing, Lambeau picked up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who turned out to be "greats." In 1929, tiny Green Bay won the first of three straight national professional football championships, pacing stalwarts from New York and Chicago in league standings (the playoff system began in 1933). The 1929-31 title teams featured all-time pro greats like Red Dunn, Verne Levellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny (Blood) McNally, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. In many games, players would play for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD

Trouble flared again in 1934, when a fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict. After their insurance company went bankrupt, the Packers went into receivership and were just about to fold when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club.

About this time (1935), a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. He actually signed two contracts, with Green Bay and the Brooklyn Dodgers. But commissioner Joe Carr awarded Hutson to the Packers, because Green Bay's postmark was earlier.

From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. His arrival and corresponding attendance increases allowed the team to buy

EVENTS THAT LED TO THE PACKERS' BIRTH

- Lambeau family immigrates from Belgium to Northeast Wisconsin in 1870s.
- Earl "Curly" Lambeau, outstanding athlete at Green Bay East High School, enrolls at Notre Dame and makes varsity as freshman under Knute Rockne.
- Lambeau contracts severe tonsillitis after 1918 season and comes home. Told by doctor his tonsils can't come out until infection subsides, he misses 1919 spring semester, and eventually gives up collegiate career with Fighting Irish.
- George W. Calhoun, who'd covered Lambeau when he starred at East, bumps into him on street; the two strike up conversation, and decide to start team.
- Lambeau's employer, Green Bay's Indian Packing Company, donates $500 for blue and gold uniforms, and allows team to practice on company property.
- Acme Packing Company purchases assets of Indian Packing Company, including its fledgling team. Under Acme ownership, team enters new American Professional Football Association (renamed NFL in 1922).

MEN WHO INFLUENCED THE PACKERS' INFANCY

- George Whitney Calhoun, sports editor, Green Bay Press-Gazette; team manager, publicist and traveling secretary from 1919-47; used paper to personally target and recruit local athletes for first gathering in 1919, and to draw fans to game during financially shaky early seasons. Passed his hat along sidelines at Hagemeister Park to raise money for team.
- Earl "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first team captain; persuaded employers to purchase equipment and join American Professional Football Association (became NFL); starred as player from 1921-29; coached team for 31 seasons.
- Frank Peck, Lambeau's boss at Indian Packing Company, handed team $500 for first uniforms and equipment.
- John Clair, chairman, Acme Packing Company, bought team and Indian Packing Company in 1919; convinced by Lambeau to apply for franchise in new American Professional Football Association (NFL); forfeited financially unstable team after 1921 season.
- Don Murphy, Lambeau's friend; drove to Canton and 1922 league meeting with Lambeau, who wanted to re-enter league (NFL banished franchise for using active college players in 1921); upon arrival, Murphy sold his Marmion Roadster for $1,500, gave $200 to Lambeau to meet most of $250 re-entry fee (Lambeau chipped in $50 of own money), and used some of the rest to buy Green Bay train tickets. In return, Lambeau allowed Murphy to play in one game (he covered on season's first non-league kickoff at Duluth, Sept. 24).
- Andrew B. Turnbull, general manager, Green Bay Press-Gazette; first president of Packers corporation; kept team afloat in 1922, then rallied local businessmen to purchase stock and turn Packers into non-profit corporation in August 1923.

PACKERS STORY

MISC.

THE FIRST GAME

The Packers played independently from 1919-20. After joining the American Professional Football Association (renamed NFL in 1922), they played their first official league game Oct. 23, 1921, a 7-6 win over the Minneapolis Marines at Green Bay's Hagemeister Park.

With about six minutes left in the fourth quarter, the Marines muffed Cub Buck's punt, and Dave Hayes recovered at the Minneapolis 35. Three plays later, with the crowd chanting "Throw a forward," Curly Lambeau hit Buff Wagner for 18 yards. The franchise's first completion, the play set up Art Schmael's 4-yard touchdown run. Lambeau's extra point, with Buck holding, gave the Packers their first win.

Green Bay 0 0 0 7 — 7

itself out of receivership in 1935. With Herber and Cecil Isbell passing and Hutson catching anything they threw at him, despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944.

After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again declined. The disastrous pro football war, between the NFL and the new All-America Football Conference, brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. From 1946-48, the financially strapped Packers lost two of their three No. 1 draft choices to the AAFC, unable to bid with the rival league. Desperate for new income, the Packers held an old-timers' game and intra-squad scrimmage on Thanksgiving Day, 1949, and raised $50,000.

In the midst of the turbulent times, Lambeau lost an internal power struggle — which ultimately began when he used $25,000 to purchase Rockwood Lodge for training camp. Lambeau resigned, Jan. 31, 1950, ending his 31-year run in Green Bay, to become the Chicago Cardinals' head coach.

RONZANI REGIME

To replace Lambeau, the Packers hired Gene Ronzani of the Bears, the most significant step in yet another major reorganization and rebuilding effort. Nearly $125,000 was raised in a giant 1950 stock sale all over the state. Under Ronzani, Green Bay's best season was 1952; the Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the season's last weeks. In 1953, the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining.

Before he departed, though, Ronzani hired Jack Vainisi as full-time talent scout. Vainisi would receive credit for discovering the six Packers Hall of Famers drafted from 1953-58: C Jim Ringo, T Forrest Gregg, QB Bart Starr, HB Paul Hornung, FB Jim Taylor and LB Ray Nitschke.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER

The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne Levellen, all-time Packers great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into the college ranks, Green Bay named Lisle Blackburn, of Marquette University, its third coach. The Packers were 17-31 during Blackburn's four years (1954-57).

On April 3, 1956, voters approved a referendum to fund construction of a new stadium. The Packers dedicated the facility (renamed Lambeau Field in 1965) on Sept. 29, 1957.

MCLEAN MOVES UP

Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from being an outstanding coaching coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, the worst in Packers history, in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA

The Packers took their time after McLean's resignation choosing a new coach. Vainisi conducted Phase II of the 1959 draft by himself, as the team debated whether to hire a general manager as well as a coach, or one person for both positions. The search spanned from the CFL to the college ranks, and even included a GM application from Lambeau.

Vainisi

Olejniczak

On Jan. 28, when team president Dominic Olejniczak recommended to the committee a little-known New York Giants assistant, longtime committee member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?"

The committee, and the world, quickly found out. Within hours after his arrival on Feb. 2, Lombardi told the committee, "I want it understood that I am in complete command here." Two days later, the Packers officially gave Lombardi both titles.

In his first season, 1959, Lombardi went 7-5, winning unanimous Coach of the Year recognition. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division title, only to lose the NFL title game at Philadelphia. However, Lombardi rebounded to win world championships in 1961, '62, '65, '66 and '67.

SOLID FOOTBALL, SHAKY FINANCES, 1922-35

■ Packers use two active Notre Dame players in non-league game against Chicago Supremes after 1921 season. Upset at teams using illegal players, league makes example of Packers, strips Green Bay of team (Jan. 28, 1922). NFL owners reinstate Packers at Canton league meeting, after Lambeau apologizes, pays $250 franchise fee, making him team's new owner.

■ Fearing weather would scare fans in 1922, team purchases rain insurance for Oct. 8 Racine game; if official precipitation was at least .1 inches, insurance would pay Racine's guarantee; rained only .09 inches, game drew minimal attendance, and Packers were stuck with debt to opponent.

■ On Nov. 4, 1922, with team too poor for rain insurance and fearing another sparse turnout for next day's game with Columbus, Andrew Turnbull advances Lambeau funds to pay guarantee, then after season recruits local businessmen, turns Packers into nonprofit corporation in August 1923, and holds first stock sale, raising $5,000.

■ Small-town Packers gain national respect, defeating mighty Giants at Polo Grounds, 7-0, Nov. 18, 1928.

■ Lambeau signs Johnny Blood, Cal Hubbard and Mike Michalske before 1929 season, wins three straight NFL titles (1929-31).

■ Fan falls from bleachers, sues, court awards $5,000. Packers turn to their public-liability (mutual) insurance company, but it is a casualty of Great Depression; team needs additional $2,500 to settle with creditors.

■ Circuit Court Judge and Packers fan Henry Graess turns team into receivership of CPA Frank Jonet, Packers stockholder who allows team to be reorganized from Green Bay Football Corporation to Green Bay Packers, Inc.

■ President Lee Joannes organizes 1935 stock drive, raises $15,000, pays off all debts.

Blood

Hutson

His teams finished no lower than second from 1960-67 and became the standard of football excellence. In nine years, Lombardi went 98-30-4 (.766), including 9-1 in the postseason, winning his final nine playoff games.

BENGTSON PERIOD

Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head-coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to become coach/GM of the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-70, compiling a 20-21-1 record. He resigned in December 1970.

THE DEVINE DAYS

Dan Devine, one of the nation's most successful college coaches, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first year, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of 1973 and they slipped to 5-7-2. They continued their recession in 1974, going 6-8, and Devine resigned.

THE STARR TREK

The most successful field general in pro football history, winning five world championships from 1961-67, Bart Starr accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager, Dec. 24, 1974. Starr asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere... We will earn everything else."

Although he had a 4-10 record in 1975, the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the '75 season. He continued the resurgence in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning slate since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily dampened in 1979 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.

Rebounding strongly in 1981, they rallied from a disappointing 2-6 start to mount one of the most dramatic comebacks in team history, closing with a 6-2 rush (an 8-8 mark), one win shy of the playoffs.

The Packers continued the upsurge in 1982, when they qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1972 by going 5-3-1 during the strike-interrupted season. They then embellished that performance by routing St. Louis 41-16 in the first round of the NFL's Super Bowl Tournament, before bowing to Dallas (37-26) despite a record-setting, 466-yard offensive effort. Starr was relieved of his head-coaching duties Dec. 19, 1983, after the Packers finished the season 8-8 and missed the playoffs in the season's final week.

THE GREGG ERA

On Dec. 24, 1983, Forrest Gregg, a former Starr teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in football history, became the Packers' ninth head coach. Gregg had led Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season. Gregg, whose 19-6 Cincinnati record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football, received a five-year contract.

In taking over, he declared: "I took this job to lead a winning team. That will happen."

Gregg's prediction began to bear fruit in the second half of the 1984 season when the Packers rebounded from an injury-ridden 1-7 start to win seven of their last eight.

Because of injuries and other complications, however, 1985 followed the '84 script, the Packers getting off to a 3-6 start before mounting a strong finish to again close at 8-8, winning five of their last seven.

Gregg, convinced the time had come to rebuild a team that was 8-8 three straight years, and was "starting to get old," made sweeping personnel changes in 1986. The young Packers, their task complicated by injuries to key performers, got off to an 0-6 start, then began to mature in midseason and finished 4-12.

Following the 1987 season, when the club finished third in the NFC Central (5-9-1), Gregg resigned (Jan. 15, 1988) to become head coach at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University.

INFANTE SIGNS ON

Nineteen days later (Feb. 3), Cleveland Browns offensive coordinator Lindy Infante, recognized throughout the NFL as a brilliant innovator, signed a five-year contract. Plagued by turnovers and kicking problems, Infante's first team, in 1988, was 4-12, but left fans with hopes for the future by winning its last two games.

Building on that positive note, Infante in 1989 led the Packers to a 10-6 record — their best in 17 years — and within one game of the playoffs, spicing that turnaround with a league-record four one-point victories.

In 1990, subsequent high hopes for the team's first postseason berth in a non-strike year since 1972 evaporated when the Packers — with a contending, 6-5 record after 11 games — ended the year with five straight losses.

The Packers continued to decline in 1991 (4-12). New Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf dismissed Infante on Dec. 22. Green Bay had hired Wolf on Nov. 27, and gave him full football-operations authority.

FIRST QUARTERBACKS

The Green Bay Press-Gazette, in editions following the inaugural league game Oct. 23, 1921, vs. Minneapolis, listed Adolph Kliebhan as the first starting quarterback in team history. Kliebhan, however, played his only career league game that afternoon, and didn't see many plays.

While Kliebhan was the first starter, Curly Lambeau was really the team's first "field general." Lambeau would have started the Marines game had he not kept himself out after starting each of the four non-league contests. Lambeau threw both Packers passes that day. In fact, he started four of the team's remaining five games. (Art Schmael started the Packers' second game, vs. Rock Island Oct. 30, 1921; Lambeau started the last four.)

Toward the end of Lambeau's playing days, he turned mainly to Red Dunn. However, Arnie Herber, who played from 1930-40 and like Lambeau hailed from Green Bay, was the team's first pure passer. Don Hutson, credited with inventing pass patterns, formed the Herber-to-Hutson combination, which terrified opponents from 1935-40.

From Lambeau to Bart Starr, Brett Favre and Aaron Rodgers, more than 125 Packers have attempted a pass, many in the 1920s when the snap usually went to the half-back, who also called the cadence.

THE HOLMGREN ERA

Wolf named Mike Holmgren, offensive architect of San Francisco's four-time Super Bowl champions, to succeed Infante, Jan. 11, 1992. Holmgren, sought by five other clubs, got a five-year contract.

In his first season, 1992, the former USC field general directed the Packers to a 9-7 record and within sight of the playoffs. He became only the third Packers head coach with a winning record in his first season, punctuated by a six-game winning streak, the team's longest since 1965.

Holmgren took his team to the playoffs in 1993 — despite losing four starters to injury. Forging a second straight 9-7 record — against a considerably more demanding schedule — Green Bay got its first playoff berth in 10 years. In the first round, the Packers came from behind in the last minute to eliminate Detroit, 28-24. They then fell at Dallas, 27-17, in the divisional round.

In 1994, the Packers registered a third consecutive 9-7 mark and second straight playoff trip — the first time that had happened since the Tiltetown days of the '60s. Riding a three-game winning streak into the postseason, they parlayed a record defensive performance and a turnover-free offensive effort into a 16-12 victory over Detroit — their first home playoff game since the 1982 season — holding the incomparable Barry Sanders to minus-1 yard in 13 attempts. The Packers advanced without the services of All-Pro receiver Sterling Sharpe, whose neck injury, diagnosed after the regular-season finale, ended his brilliant Green Bay career. For the second straight year, the Packers' run ended in Dallas, 35-9.

Closing ranks with great results following Sharpe's loss, the 1995 Packers put together one of the hallmark seasons in their history. Winning six of their last seven games, they captured their first NFC Central Division crown since 1972, then made their best postseason showing in more than 28 years, forging all the way to the NFC Championship Game.

En route, they closed the regular season 11-5 — their best mark since the 1966 NFL championship club (12-2) — and followed by dispatching the Falcons, 37-20, in a first-round playoff at Lambeau Field. Building on that win, the Packers mounted one of the premier performances in their postseason history, formally dethroning the defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers in their own stadium, 3Com Park, 27-17. Again, however, dreams of a Super Bowl floundered in Dallas, 38-27, in the NFC title game, after the Packers led 27-24 at the end of three quarters.

Putting nearly three decades of disappointment emphatically behind, the Packers rewarded their long-patient faithful in 1996. Shunting aside eight of their first nine foes, they swept to a 13-3 record and their second straight division championship. Then, they captured their first NFL title since 1967, dispatching New England, 35-21, in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

Displaying impressive consistency on both sides of the ball, they documented their superiority, outscoring three opponents 100-48 in a postseason sweep. Appropriately, the first two wins were before their Lambeau loyalists — a 35-14 divisional triumph over the 49ers and a 30-13 win over the upstart Carolina Panthers in the NFC title game.

In winning a 12th NFL championship, extending their own league record, the Packers joined an elite group of teams with three or more Super Bowls (Dallas, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Oakland and Washington).

The Packers thus entered 1997 with an opportunity to win back-to-back Super Bowls for a second time — and came breathtakingly close to achieving their objective. Sweeping to a second consecutive 13-3 mark, tying a club record with 13 wins, they primed for the playoffs by ending the season with five straight wins. After a third consecutive division title, they launched their bid at Lambeau Field in workmanlike fashion, turning back Tampa Bay in the divisional playoff, 21-7. The win padded their all-time home-field postseason record to 12-0, extending the longest such winning streak in pro football history.

Forced to win on the road for a return to the ultimate game, the Packers smothered the 49ers on a soggy, rain-swept afternoon in San Francisco, 23-10. Garnering a berth in the Super Bowl, Green Bay held the Niners without an offensive touchdown.

In a see-saw affair, Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego found the Packers trailing Denver at halftime, 17-14. Hopes of a repeat were high, however, when quarterback Brett Favre engineered an 85-yard drive, knotting the contest, 24-24, early in the fourth quarter. But the Broncos later scored with only 1:45 remaining and a last-minute Packers drive fell short when Favre's pass for tight end Mark Chmura fell incomplete inside the Denver 20, with only 28 seconds left, sealing the Broncos' 31-24 win.

A third straight Super Bowl trip, a realistic goal at the outset, eluded the Packers in 1998, their 80th season. Historic accomplishment, however, did not, as they advanced to the playoffs for the sixth year in a row, a team record, while posting a seventh consecutive winning season. Green Bay overcame multiple injuries, including the loss of Pro Bowl running back Dorsey Levens (out nine games) and center Frank Winters (stretch run and postseason), each with a broken leg. They set another team record by stretching their Lambeau Field winning streak to 25 games — the second-longest in NFL history — before falling to the Minnesota Vikings Oct. 5. They finished 11-5, equaling another team standard by posting a double-digit victory total for the fourth consecutive year (11-5 in 1995, 13-3 in both 1996 and 1997). The only other time Green Bay had strung together four seasons of 10-plus wins was 67 years earlier — Lambeau's triple NFL champions of 1929-32 (12-0-1 in 1929, 10-3-1 in 1930, 12-2 in 1931 and 10-3-1 in 1932).

In the wake of these considerable achievements, the Packers' season came to a dramatic and painful end in an NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco, when a 27-23 lead abruptly dissolved into a 30-27 49ers victory. Steve Young's 25-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens sealed the game with just three seconds left.

Only five days later, Holmgren resigned to become head coach and director of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

ROUGH RHODE(S)

Moving swiftly, Wolf tabbed Ray Rhodes, former Eagles head coach and Green Bay defensive coordinator, as the Packers' 12th head coach, Jan. 11, 1999. The Packers launched 1999 under Rhodes in breathtaking fashion, winning three of the first four games in the last minute. Fate, however, suddenly stopped smiling as Green Bay (8-8) missed the playoffs for the first time since 1992, ending seven straight winning seasons. Saying the Packers lacked the needed toughness and fire, Wolf relieved Rhodes soon after the season finale.

THE SHERMAN TENURE

After searching more than two weeks, Wolf surprised many NFL observers by naming Mike Sherman as the Packers' 13th head coach, Jan. 18, 2000. Sherman in 2000 surmounted multiple injuries, including Favre's prolonged bout with elbow tendinitis, and finished 9-7, inches from the playoffs.

One month after a stirring finish — a four-game winning streak — Wolf retired as the team's executive vice president and general manager, Feb. 1, 2001, and President Bob Harlan quickly named Sherman to replace Wolf. Sherman became the first head coach with the GM title since Starr in 1980.

Wolf's impressive nine-year tenure included 101 total victories (including eight in the playoffs) and the NFL's best regular-season record (83-45) since the 1993 advent of free agency.

Now with full authority over football, Sherman answered in 2001 by returning the Packers to the playoffs, improving his winning percentage to .656 (21-11), best ever over a Packers coach's first two years. Behind Favre and explosive Ahman Green (1,981 yards from scrimmage), the Packers went 12-4, but couldn't grasp the division title, despite sweeping the division champion Bears. The Packers knocked off the Niners in a Wild Card playoff, but couldn't get past eventual NFC champion St. Louis.

In 2002, Green Bay overcame an injury-plagued season to tie for the league's best record at 12-4. Despite injured starters missing 63 combined games, the Packers clinched their division, the inaugural NFC North title, on Dec. 1. Favre finished two votes shy of a fourth MVP, and defensively, behind Pro Bowler Darren Sharper, the team ranked third in the NFL against the pass and led the league with 45 takeaways, six more than any other team. But Michael Vick and the Falcons became the first team ever to beat the Packers at home in the playoffs.

A return to the NFC Championship slipped painfully through the Packers' fingers in 2003. Donovan McNabb led the Eagles to a come-from-behind, 20-17 overtime win to end an emotional Packers run in the Divisional playoffs.

The loss snapped a memorable five-game winning streak. The stretch included changes to three of the most-revered records in Packers history (Gregg's 33-year-old consecutive-games streak, broken by Favre; Jim Taylor's 41-year-old season rushing record, Green; and Don Hutson's 58-year-old career scoring mark, Ryan Longwell). Green Bay captured an improbable division title in the last two minutes of the season, when Arizona upset Minnesota and the Lambeau Field crowd broke the news to the Packers.

Adding to the hallmark of Sherman's tenure, the Packers overcame a 1-4 start in 2004, the club's roughest since 1991, to finish 10-6 and win a third straight division title. The 9-2 stretch run featured four wins on last-second field goals by Longwell, including a 34-31 division-clinching win in Minnesota on Christmas Eve.

However, just two weeks later the same Vikings avenged the loss with a 31-17 win in a Wild Card playoff at Lambeau Field.

On Jan. 14, 2005, Harlan restructured the team's football operations, naming Ted Thompson general manager, with full authority over football decisions. Harlan said he based the decision on his belief in a preferred structure — separate individuals for the GM and head-coach positions.

Only 37 minutes into the 2005 regular season, the Packers lost leading receiver Javon Walker (knee). In the ensuing weeks, the team also lost starting halfback Green (quadricep) and several other key offensive performers, contributing to a 4-12 mark.

Following the season on Jan. 2, saying it was time for a new face to lead the team, Thompson dismissed Sherman.

THE PRESENT

Thompson underwent a grueling nine-day search to tab Mike McCarthy the franchise's 14th head coach (Jan. 12, 2006).

McCarthy guided the Packers to a resilient four-game winning streak to close his first season as head coach with an 8-8 record, keeping the team in contention for the playoffs until the final week-end of 2006, when mere percentage points dubbed the Giants the NFC's last postseason qualifier.

McCarthy was disappointed the Packers just missed the playoffs, particularly because the team was as healthy as it had been all season

A UNIQUE FRANCHISE

- No owner (last remaining publicly owned pro sports team, 4,750,937 shares, 112,120 stockholders, none of whom receive dividend on initial investment).
- Team plays in major sports' smallest TV market — 70th (New Orleans, 53, is closest).
- Packers have 13 playoff appearances in last 18 years, and won most NFL titles (13).
- Green Bay has 21 Pro Hall of Famers, second-most in league.
- Team has averted four financial collapses: 1921, 1922, 1934 and 1950, each time gaining monetary support from community.
- In a century of franchise movement, only 10 other pro sports teams — none in football — have held same moniker in same location longer (nine baseball, one hockey).
- Only two other pro sports venues have been in continuous use longer than Lambeau Field (1957) — Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1916).
- With season-ticket holders from all 50 states, as well as Washington, D.C., Canada, Japan and Australia, the team's waiting list has more than 78,000 names. People who were recently awarded season tickets put their names on the waiting list in the mid-1970s.
- Packers have most fans in league based on recent Harris polls, merchandise sales and website attraction. Plus, the team sells every available seat at Lambeau Field for intra-squad scrimmage, "Family Night."
- Before radio, when Packers played on the road, as many as 500 fans turned out at Legion Park to "watch" game on Playograph board (telegraph reports from press box re-created game on screen, complete with PA).
- Packers were first to open hall of fame and museum (1966).

and was playing its best football the last month. But the NFL's youngest club carried that momentum into 2007, winning its first four games and ultimately tying the franchise record for regular-season victories with a 13-3 mark. McCarthy also tied Sherman's team mark for the most wins by a head coach in his first two seasons (21).

With Joe Philbin taking over as offensive coordinator, Ryan Grant emerging at midseason as a feature back, and Favre enjoying a brilliant final season in Green Bay, the offense finished second in the league, its highest ranking since 1983.

Grant then posted franchise playoff records of 201 rushing yards and three touchdowns in a 42-20 snow-filled NFC playoff triumph over Seattle at Lambeau, but the club's quest for a fifth Super Bowl appearance came up agonizingly short.

In the third-coldest game in NFL championship history, with a temperature of minus-1 and wind chill of minus-23 at kickoff, Green Bay fell at home, 23-20, in overtime to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game.

In 2008, the torch was passed to Aaron Rodgers from Favre, who retired in March with virtually every significant NFL passing record, un-retired in July and was traded to the New York Jets during the first week of training camp. Rodgers became just the second quarterback in league history to pass for more than 4,000 yards in his first season as a starter, and the offense produced a 4,000-yard passer, 1,200-yard rusher (Grant) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver) for the first time in team history.

On defense, the team set a franchise record with seven touchdowns, including six on interception returns, leading to Pro Bowl berths for three-fourths of the starting secondary in Nick Collins, Charles Woodson and Al Harris. But that wasn't enough to overcome injuries and other shortcomings on that side of the ball, and with the team losing seven games by four points or less, the final 6-10 mark was just the franchise's second losing season dating back to 1992.

That led to a series of changes on the coaching staff, most of them on defense, as McCarthy hired Dom Capers as his new defensive coordinator to institute a switch to a 3-4 scheme. The players responded faster than most predicted in 2009, climbing all the way to No. 2 in the league in yards allowed and No. 1 against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for fewest rushing yards allowed per game (83.3).

That defensive prowess was highlighted by Woodson winning NFL Defensive Player of the Year, rookie Clay Matthews leading the team in sacks, and Collins joining both as Pro Bowl honorees. Combined with another dynamic season on offense – as the quartet of Rodgers, Grant, Jennings and Driver repeated their feat of the prior year and a new franchise record for points (461) was established – the Packers won seven of their final eight regular-season games to finish 11-5 and earn an NFC Wild Card playoff berth.

Rodgers earned his first Pro Bowl nod and made a memorable postseason debut, throwing for a Green Bay postseason-record 423 yards and record-tying four TDs as he rallied the Packers from a 21-point second-half deficit. Emerging tight end Jermichael Finley also set a team playoff mark with 159 yards receiving and tied a team postseason record with nine receptions.

Ultimately the Packers came up short, however, dropping a 51-45 overtime heartbreaker in Arizona, the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history. But the disappointment fueled a determination and the late-season surge sparked a genuine optimism heading into 2010.

That optimism led to high expectations, and the Packers became a popular preseason pick to represent the NFC in the Super Bowl. Boasting both a deep and maturing roster, and relative scheme continuity on both sides of the ball, prognosticators felt confident Green Bay was primed for a deep playoff run.

The team got out to a 3-1 start in the season's first quarter, but injuries to key players mounted, and that perceived roster strength would be put to the test. Grant, a back-to-back 1,200-yard rusher, was lost for the season in Week 1. Finley, the team's leading receiver entering Week 5, was also placed on injured reserve, as was linebacker Nick Barnett, who ranks No. 2 in franchise history in tackles. By season's end, the Packers would allocate 15 players to the season-ending injured list. In what was a true testament both to Thompson's assembly of the roster and also the coaching staff's tireless commitment to getting players ready to contribute, the Packers never blinked.

Rodgers led the offense by again throwing for nearly 4,000 yards and posting a quarterback rating of 101.2. Jennings picked up the slack in the absence of Finley, finishing with 1,265 yards and earning his first selection to the Pro Bowl. Defensively, the Packers again thrived under Capers' detailed instruction, ranking No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game. Matthews proved that his rookie campaign was no fluke and became a dominant pass rusher off the edge. Voted a Pro Bowl starter and consensus first-team All-Pro, he finished with 13.5 sacks and was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year by various publications. In the secondary, Woodson followed up his stellar 2009 run with another solid season, setting career highs in tackles and forced fumbles and becoming the team's emotional leader throughout. His counterpart at corner, Tramon Williams, emerged as a stand-out cover man and led the team with six interceptions, earning his first bid to the Pro Bowl, and was joined by Collins, who was chosen for the third consecutive year.

Despite the constant fluidity of the gameday lineup, the Packers hung tough in all 16 games. Their six losses came by a combined 20 points, and they became the first team since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to never trail a game by more than seven points over an entire season. They finished the regular season with a 10-6 record following consecutive home wins in the final two weeks, and secured the sixth and final seed in the NFC's playoff bracket.

Taking to the road for the NFC playoffs, the Packers started by bottling up the explosive Eagles' offensive attack and winning the opening-round Wild Card game at Philadelphia by a score of 21-16. The task wouldn't get any easier the following week as they traveled to Atlanta to take on the No. 1-seeded Falcons. After an initial back and forth, Green Bay exploded with a 28-point second quarter and never looked back. On the strength of a near-flawless display of quarterbacking by Rodgers, and two crucial interceptions by Williams, the Packers hammered the Falcons 48-21, the second-largest margin of victory in team postseason history.

For the NFC Championship, the Packers faced their division rival, the Chicago Bears, for a chance to return to the Super Bowl for the first time since the 1997 season. Despite the rich, 182-game history of the rivalry, the game marked just the second-ever meeting between the two teams in the postseason. On a 20-degree afternoon at Soldier Field, the Packers got out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter. The opportunistic defense forced three Chicago turnovers, highlighted by an improbable 18-yard interception return for a touchdown by Raji that put Green Bay ahead 21-7 late in the fourth quarter. Rookie cornerback Sam Shields sealed the 21-14 win on the Bears' final drive, making his second interception of the game to send the franchise to its fifth Super Bowl.

The Super Bowl pitted the Packers against the AFC champion Pittsburgh Steelers. In what was billed as a matchup between two renowned 3-4 defenses, it was the Green Bay offense, led once again by the exceptionally precise Rodgers, that was the difference. The Packers stormed out to a 21-3 lead in the first half, with two touchdowns coming off the arm of Rodgers and one on an interception return by Collins. Under circumstances reflective of the entire season, the Packers were forced to overcome injuries to veteran stalwarts Driver and Woodson, who were both ruled out of the game late in the second quarter. The Steelers fought their way back, but a forced fumble by Matthews at the start of the fourth quarter led to another Rodgers touchdown pass. Forcing a turnover on downs on Pittsburgh's final drive, the Packers won the franchise's fourth Super Bowl, 31-25.

In the months that followed the season, both Thompson and McCarthy were rewarded with multi-year contract extensions that will keep them in Green Bay for the foreseeable future.

With an unquestioned franchise quarterback, a nucleus of young veterans, and a roster even further bolstered by the return of injured players and a 10-man draft class, all eyes are set on the quest for another world title in 2011.

EARL LOUIS "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Somewhat by chance, Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun joined together in 1919 to form what is now the Green Bay Packers. Lambeau was an outstanding athlete at Green Bay East High School, and after enrolling at Notre Dame and making varsity under Knute Rockne, he was back in Green Bay after severe tonsillitis forced him to miss the spring semester.

Then, Lambeau ran into Calhoun, the sports editor of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who had covered Lambeau as a prep. The two got to talking and decided to start up a football team. On Aug. 11, 1919, Lambeau, Calhoun and a group of young athletes gathered in the editorial room of the old Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized the beginning of the Packers.

At the time, Lambeau was a shipping clerk for the Indian Packing Company, a wartime meat-packing industry in Green Bay. Because he somehow persuaded his boss, Frank Peck, to donate $500 of company money for team uniforms, the new squad had its name, "Packers."

Lambeau was a player and the team's first captain. And in their first season together, the Packers went 10-1 playing local foes.

In the meantime, the Indian Packing Company fell on hard times and was bought out by the Acme Packing Company. But in 1921, based on the success of the team, Lambeau persuaded Acme owners John and Emmitt Clair to back the Packers and apply for membership in the new American Professional Football Association (renamed the NFL in 1922). The Clairs agreed and on Aug. 27, 1921, the Packers became an official professional football franchise.

Not long after, poor finances and the illegal use of college players forced the team to be forfeited, but Lambeau bought it back at a league meeting in Canton, Ohio, for a franchise fee of $250, including $50 of his own money, in 1922.

Financial problems continued however, and with the team teetering on the brink of bankruptcy, Lambeau received aid from Andrew B. Turnbull, the general manager of the Press-Gazette, who forwarded money to Lambeau to help keep the team afloat in 1922, before rallying local businessmen to purchase stock and turn the Packers into a nonprofit organization in August 1923.

One of seven NFL coaches ever to win 200 games, Lambeau's 212-106-21 (.667) Green Bay record – including postseason – doesn't even include 1919 or 1920 before the team joined what is now the NFL. He guided the Packers to six world championships: 1929-31, 1936, 1939 and 1944.

The Packers didn't play an official postseason game until 1936 – their first three championships were decided by league standing until the playoff system was added in 1933 – when they defeated the Boston Redskins 21-6 for their fourth NFL title.

Green Bay was back in the title game in 1938, but fell to the New York Giants by the score of 23-17. In 1939, the Packers got their revenge, blanking the Giants 27-0 to win their fifth crown after a 9-2 campaign. And in 1944, the Packers won their sixth and final title under Lambeau, defeating the Giants 14-7.

Six Packers played under Lambeau en route to a spot in the Pro Hall of Fame: T Cal Hubbard (1929-33, 1935), HB Johnny "Blood" McNally (1929-33, 1935-36), FB Clarke Hinkle (1932-41), G Mike Michalske (1929-35, 1937), QB Arnie Herber (1930-40) and E Don Hutson (1935-45).

Lambeau's tenure as head coach included some pioneering developments: implementing daily practice (late 1920s), bringing Rockne's "secret weapon" of the forward pass to the pro game (1919), implementing pass patterns (1930s) and flying to road games (1940).

However, Lambeau's decision to purchase the Rockwood Lodge north of Green Bay at a price of $25,000 to make it the Packers' training facility didn't go over well with members of the executive committee and contributed to an internal power struggle that helped end his 31-year tenure with the team.

On Jan. 31, 1950, Lambeau resigned and was replaced by Gene Zank, who would coach the Packers until 1953. Lambeau finished his coaching career at the reins of the Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53).

Lambeau was 21 years old when he became player-captain of the Green Bay Packers in 1919. The Packers didn't join what is now the NFL until two years later, so his official Packers playing career ran from 1921-29.

Listed in Total Football at 5-foot-10, 187 pounds, he appeared on the roster as a halfback. But in those days, with the passing game in its infancy, the halfback received the snap from center, so in reality Lambeau was the Packers' first field general.

In Green Bay's first official league game, Oct. 23, 1921, Lambeau threw both of the Packers' two passes in a 7-6 win.

Earl Louis (Curly) Lambeau, born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay, Wis., died June 1, 1965, at the age of 67.

LAMBEAU AT A GLANCE

- Multi-sport star at Green Bay East High School, he essentially coached the football team as a senior in 1917; he allegedly knew more than the coach.
- Played one season, 1918, at Notre Dame, where he lined up in Knute Rockne's backfield next to George Gipp.
- Tonsillitis ended his short-lived college career, but the ailment led to a chance meeting with Green Bay Press-Gazette sports editor George Calhoun. Over beers, Lambeau and Calhoun consummated the establishment of the Green Bay Packers.
- During his playing days, stood nearly 5-foot-10 and weighed 187 pounds, one of the taller players in any NFL backfield; the team captain, he played tailback, blocking back, fullback and end.
- Innovated the forward pass in pro football and was the first coach to implement daily practice.
- Father, Marcel, during the 1920s served as construction foreman, supervising several expansions at Green Bay's Hagedorn Park and City Stadium.
- Pro Football Hall of Fame, charter class of 1963.
- One of seven NFL coaches to win 200 games.

DONALD MONTGOMERY HUTSON

Credited with inventing pass patterns, Don Hutson wasn't just the best receiver of his era, he's on the short list for greatest receiver of all time and is arguably the most outstanding player in Green Bay Packers history.

After a collegiate career at Alabama, Hutson came to the Packers in 1935 and began what would be an 11-season career. In that span, Hutson caught 99 touchdown passes, which was an NFL record until Steve Largent caught his 100th TD in 1989.

But if many of the 18 NFL records Hutson held at the time of his retirement have been rewritten since, over 60 years after he hung up his cleats and more than 40 years following his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, several of his NFL-leading standards remain intact.

Hutson led the league in receptions eight times, including five consecutive seasons (1936-37, 1939, 1941-45). He led the league in receiving yards seven times, including four consecutive seasons (1936, 1938-39, 1941-44). He led the league in touchdown receptions nine times, including five consecutive seasons (1935-38, 1940-44). All of those achievements remain NFL records.

Meanwhile, Hutson's four 200-yard receiving games are second only to Lance Alworth's five. And Hutson's two 200-yard games in one season, accomplished in 1942, is an achievement bettered by only Charley Hennigan (three in 1961).

In terms of the Packers' record book, Hutson not only holds the standard for receptions in a game (14, against the New York Giants, Nov. 22, 1942), he's also runner-up on that list (13, against the Cleveland Rams, Oct. 18, 1942).

And Hutson's four-touchdown receiving effort against the Detroit Lions, Oct. 7, 1945, is a feat twice matched by Sterling Sharpe, but never bettered. Nor is any Packers player close to Hutson's collection of six three-touchdown receiving games.

Hutson, who also kicked seven career field goals and 172 extra points, even remained the Packers' all-time leader with 823 points until Ryan Longwell surpassed him in 2003.

Standing 6-foot-1 and weighing 183 pounds, Hutson twice earned the NFL's Joe F. Carr Trophy as its most outstanding player, doing so in 1941 and 1942 (The Associated Press MVP award didn't come into existence until 1957). Hutson was a consensus All-Pro five times (1939, 1941-44).

But he wasn't just an offensive player. In addition to his receiving and kicking duties, like most players of that era Hutson also played defense.

A member of three NFL title teams (1936, 1939, 1944) in the first half of his career, Hutson was a favorite target of Arnie Herber, who was taking Curly Lambeau's passing game to new heights. Cecil Isbell and Irv Comp also enjoyed seasons throwing to Hutson.

But Hutson was dangerously close to spending his career away from the pass-happy Packers. Coming out of Alabama, Hutson actually agreed to contracts both with the Packers and the Brooklyn Dodgers, a run-oriented club. Both teams claimed Hutson as their own, but NFL President Joe Carr awarded Hutson to the Packers on the grounds that their contract with the speedy receiver was postmarked 17 minutes earlier.

As a rookie, Hutson received a weekly game check of $300. Green Bay had only two banks at the time, and with the nation hit hard by the Great Depression, both banks had to write him a weekly check of $150 to cover the salary.

It didn't take long for Hutson to make an impact. Making his first start in the second game of his career, Hutson's

HUTSON AT A GLANCE

- Changed the course of Packers history and, arguably, carried more influence than any player on how professional football is played.
- After seven weeks of dogged persistence, Curly Lambeau finally got the All-America receiver from Alabama to sign with Green Bay (one year before the first NFL Draft). However, Hutson also signed with the Brooklyn Dodgers, and both contracts were filed at the office of NFL President Joe Carr.
- Carr settled the hairy dispute with common sense. He awarded Hutson to the Packers because their contract had an earlier postmark. Without that providential decision, Green Bay's history would read much differently.
- Regarded as the greatest player of the 20th century by several experts, he owned world-class speed (9.5 in the 100-yard dash).
- George Halas devised several defenses specifically to corral Hutson. Halas generally conceded Hutson two touchdowns per game.
- Over 60 years after his retirement, still holds 10 NFL records: most seasons leading league in scoring (5); most points in one quarter (29); most seasons leading league in overall TDs (8); most consecutive seasons leading league in overall TDs (4, twice); most seasons leading league in receptions (8); most consecutive seasons leading league in receptions (5); most seasons leading league in receiving yards (7); most consecutive seasons leading league in receiving yards (4); most seasons leading league in receiving TDs (9); and most consecutive seasons leading league in receiving TDs (5).

first career reception went for an 83-yard touchdown from Herber on the first play of the game in a 7-0 win over the Chicago Bears (Sept. 22, 1935).

Hutson's legacy was preserved over a series of events. First, in 1951, Hutson's uniform number 14 became the first to be officially retired by the Packers. In 1970, Hutson was named to the NFL's All-50-Year Team. And in 1994, he was named to the NFL's All-Time Two-Way Team and 75th Anniversary Team.

Also in 1994, the Packers dedicated their state-of-the-art indoor practice facility in Hutson's name (July 18, 1994). Hutson was on hand for the dedication of the $4.7 million facility that includes 70- and 60-yard fields with 10-yard end zones.

Donald Montgomery Hutson, born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark., died June 26, 1997, at the age of 84.

MISC.

Nearly four decades after his death, Vince Lombardi remains one of the most recognizable sports figures of all time.

remains attached to some of the most famous quotes in American sports history.

In his career as head coach in Green Bay, Lombardi steered the Packers to five NFL Championships, including victories in Super Bowls I and II. He tallied a career record of 105-35-6 (regular and postseason combined), 98-30-4 in Green Bay.

And yet, Lombardi's name wasn't always so recognizable.

In early 1959, Green Bay was coming off a 1-10-1 season — the worst in team history. Winners of six NFL titles under Curly Lambeau, the team hadn't had a winning season since 1947.

Ray "Scooter" McLean, head coach in 1958, resigned after one season. Searching for McLean's replacement, Dominic Olejniczak — then the president of the organization — became interested in a Giants assistant coach.

To that point, Lombardi had never held a head-coaching position beyond the high-school level, so when Olejniczak recommended him to the Packers' executive committee, committee member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?" It didn't take long to find out.

On Feb. 2, 1959, Lombardi arrived and told the committee, "I want it understood that I am in complete command here." Technically he wasn't, not yet, but within two days of his arrival Olejniczak gave Lombardi not only the head-coaching job, but the vacant general-manager position as well.

Lombardi immediately changed the way the team looked, the way it played and especially how it thought. In 1959, he ordered that the Packers' uniforms be revamped. The resulting design was almost identical to the uniforms the team continues to wear today. In fact, the only major modification since was the addition of the "G" helmet logo, which was added in 1961 and has never left. The logo was designed by then-equipment manager Dad Braisher, at Lombardi's request.

Lombardi's offense was basic and methodical. Its most famous play, now often referred to as the "Lombardi sweep" or the "Packers sweep," consisted of Paul Hornung or Jim Taylor following pulling guards Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston. Lombardi was famous for his pursuit of perfection, often dedicating long hours of film study or practice to just one element of one play.

In his first team meeting after being named head coach and general manager, Lombardi made it clear just how determined he was to win. Looking into the eyes of players who just a season before had gone 1-10-1, Lombardi said, "I have never been on a losing team, gentlemen, and I do not intend to start now." True to his word, Lombardi never knew a losing season as a head coach.

His first season was a stunning success. He used many of the same players from that 1-10-1 team of 1958 and finished 7-5 in 1959, winning unanimous Coach of the Year honors. His first game was a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears in new City Stadium — later renamed Lambeau Field — and when it was over, the players carried their coach off the field in triumph.

In 1960, the Packers won the Western Conference title, going 8-4. That brought Lombardi to his first NFL Championship Game, which the Packers lost 17-13 to the Eagles at Franklin Field.

It didn't take long for Lombardi to earn redemption, however. In 1961, after an 11-3 season, the Packers demolished his former team, the Giants, 37-0, winning the team's first title since 1944.

His teams went on to capture four more NFL crowns: in 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Green Bay also won the first two Super Bowls after the 1966 and 1967 titles, respectively. In Lombardi's final game as Green Bay head coach, the Packers defeated Oakland 33-14 in Super Bowl II at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

But the Packers' 1967 season isn't remembered for that Super Bowl. Instead, the '67 campaign is remembered for the NFL Championship against Dallas, perhaps the most famous game in football history. Now commonly referred to as the "Ice Bowl," the Lambeau Field temperature at kickoff that day (Dec. 31, 1967) was minus-13, with the wind chill dipping to 46-below.

Lombardi had heating coils installed underneath the Lambeau Field turf prior to the season. But on a day when they were dearly needed, the coils malfunctioned or — some believe — were intentionally turned off. As a result, the field turned into a sheet of ice.

With 13 seconds left, Bart Starr's 1-yard touchdown plunge gave the Packers a come-from-behind 21-17 victory.

Lombardi retired as head coach after the season, but retained his general manager's duties for one more year.

Ultimately, Lombardi was bored being "out of action" and in 1969 accepted the head coaching position with the Washington Redskins, a team that hadn't had a winning season in 13 years. In Lombardi's first and only season in Washington, the Redskins went 7-5-2.

Shortly after Lombardi's 1970 death, before Super Bowl V, Commissioner Pete Rozelle made what remains arguably the greatest tribute in league history, naming the Super Bowl championship trophy the Vince Lombardi Trophy.

In August 2003, before the rededication of a renovated Lambeau Field, the Packers unveiled statues of Lombardi and team founder Curly Lambeau in what is now the Robert E. Harlan Plaza outside the Lambeau Field Atrium. Each statue is 14 feet high atop a 4-foot base and 2-foot steps.

Lombardi was named head coach of the Packers when he was 45 years old. Before coming to the Packers, he was an assistant coach with the New York Giants. Lombardi also coached at Army. As a player, he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite" as a guard at Fordham.

Perhaps the most famous quote commonly attributed to Lombardi wasn't even his own. Legendary actor John Wayne uttered the phrase "Winning isn't everything, it's the only thing!" in a 1953 film called Trouble Along the Way. Lombardi may have borrowed that phrase, but many of his other memorable quotes are believed to be his alone.

Vincent Thomas Lombardi, born June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y., died of cancer Sept. 3, 1970, at the age of 57.

PACKERS TIMELINE

►1919

- Packers founded at meetings in editorial room of Green Bay Press-Gazette (Aug. 11 and 14).

►1921

- J.E. Clair of Acme Packing Company granted American Professional Football Association franchise for Green Bay Packers (Aug. 27); league renamed NFL in 1922.
- Packers-Bears series launched at Chicago (Nov. 27); Packers lose 20-0 to Staleys, who changed name to Bears in 1922.

►1922

- Packers disciplined for using college players under assumed names; Clair turns franchise back to league (Jan. 28). Curly Lambeau promises to obey rules, uses $50 of own money to buy back franchise for $250.
- Bad weather, low attendance plague Packers, merchants raise $2,500, public nonprofit corporation set up under direction of A.B. Turnbull; Lambeau remains general manager, coach.

- Andrew B. Turnbull is elected first president of Green Bay Football Corporation (Aug. 23).

►1925

- Packers beat Bears for first time, 14-10, in fourth regular-season meeting (Sept. 27).
- City Stadium dedicated, 6,000 initial capacity (Sept. 20).

►1927

- Packers surprise "Big Town" skeptics, shut out football Yankees, 13-0, in first New York appearance (Oct. 23).

►1929

- Packers sign B. Johnny (Blood) McNally, T. Cal Hubbard, G. Mike Michalske, win first NFL title, posting 12-0-1 record.

►1930

- Packers win second straight NFL title (10-3-1).

►1931

- Packers capture third consecutive NFL championship, extending unbeaten streak to 22 games, finish 12-2-0.

►1932

- Packers just miss winning fourth straight title with 10-3-1 mark, Bears winning crown with 7-1-6 record because ties not counted in standings.

►1934

- Fan falls from stands at (old) City Stadium, sues Packers and wins $5,000 verdict. Insurance company goes out of business and Packers go into receivership, about to fold, but local Green Bay businessmen come to rescue, raise $15,000 in new capital and reorganize club.

►1935

- Don Hutson of Alabama, to become most-feared pass receiver in pro football history, signed by Packers.

►1936

- Packers make Russ Letlow, University of San Francisco guard, their No. 1 choice in first NFL Draft (Feb. 8).
- Packers win fourth NFL championship, first under playoff system. Post 11-1-1 record, defeating Boston Redskins for title at New York's Polo Grounds, 21-6, after George Preston Marshall moves game (Dec. 13).

►1938

- Packers win Western Division championship, lose to Giants in NFL title game at New York, 23-17 (Dec. 11).

►1939

- Packers repeat for Western Division title, rout Giants in title game at Milwaukee, 27-0 (Dec. 10).

►1941

- Packers tie Bears for Western Division title, fall to Bears in Chicago playoff, 33-14 (Dec. 14).

►1944

- Ted Fritsch scores both touchdowns, Packers beat Giants 14-7 at New York's Polo Grounds for sixth NFL title (Dec. 17).

►1945

- Don Hutson catches four TD passes, kicks five PATs in second quarter against Detroit at Milwaukee, sets all-time single-quarter scoring record (29 points), Packers win, 57-21 (Oct. 7).

►1949

- Packers play Thanksgiving intra-squad game at (old) City Stadium, raise $50,000 to stay afloat financially.

- Packers dip to all-time low under Curly Lambeau, 2-10-0 (they were 3-9-0 in 1948).

►1950

- Lambeau resigns to become vice president, head coach of Chicago Cardinals.
- Gene Ronzani, ex-Bears star, named head coach, vice president.
- Stock drive nets $118,000, puts team on sound financial base.
- "New" Packers introduce green uniforms.

►1953

- Packers debut in new Milwaukee County Stadium (Sept. 27).
- Ronzani resigns with two games remaining; Hugh Devore and Ray "Scooter" McLean named co-coaches.

►1954

- Lisle Blackburn, Marquette University coach, named third Packers coach.

►1957

- City Stadium (renamed Lambeau Field in 1965) completed just in time for season opener, dedicated (Sept. 29) with 21-17 victory over Bears.
- Packers post 3-9-0 mark following 4-8-0 in 1956, Blackburn resigns.

- Likable assistant Ray "Scooter" McLean promoted to head coach.
- Dominic Olejniczak elected seventh president of Green Bay Packers, Inc., April 28.
- McLean resigns after worst year in Packers history (1-10-1).

►1959

- Vince Lombardi, offensive assistant of New York Giants, named Packers' head coach and GM (Feb. 4).
- Packers post first winning season (7-5) in 12 years.

►1960

- Packers win Western Division crown, first since 1944, but lose to Eagles in NFL title game, 17-13 (Dec. 26).
- Paul Hornung scores 176 points, an NFL record until 2006.

►1961

- Packers rout N.Y. Giants, 37-0, for seventh NFL championship, first title game ever played in Green Bay (Dec. 31).

►1962

- Packers beat Giants at Yankee Stadium, 16-7, for second straight league crown (Dec. 30).

►1965

- E.L. "Curly" Lambeau, Packers' founder and first coach, dies at age 67 (June 1); stadium renamed Lambeau Field (Sept. 11).
- Packers defeat Baltimore Colts, 13-10, at Green Bay in sudden-death Western Conference playoff (first overtime in team history) on Don Chandler's 25-yard field goal at 13:39 of overtime (Dec. 26).
- After removing four inches of snow at Lambeau Field, Packers beat Cleveland Browns, 23-12, for ninth NFL title (Jan. 2, 1966).

14 TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS?

Until the league regularly scheduled postseason in 1933, NFL titles, including the Packers' first three crowns (1929-31), were decided by winning percentage in league standings.

However, the official league standings from 1921-71 did not recognize ties in figuring winning percentage (since 1972, ties have been considered half of a win).

That rule actually cost the Packers a fourth consecutive championship in 1932 (Green Bay is the only NFL team to win as many as three straight titles — 1929-31 and 1965-67).

The Chicago Bears (6-1-6) and Portsmouth Spartans (6-1-4) finished "tied" for first, ignoring their ties. The Bears won the title by defeating Portsmouth after the season, a game that counted in the final regular-season standings.

Several Packers fans use the 1932 championship to counter Bears supporters who say Don Majkowski threw an illegal TD pass to beat Chicago in the 1989 "Instant Replay" game.

PACKERS PATENTS

Football historians generally credit the Green Bay Packers with inventing several aspects common in today's game. The team is believed to be the first to...

- Implement daily practice (Curly Lambeau, 1920s).
- Innovate the forward pass into pro game (Lambeau used the "unsportsmanlike" play at will at East High School, then after only semester at Notre Dame in 1918 brought Knute Rockne's "secret weapon" to early NFL).
- Introduce a mascot at pro game (dog named Olive, because he liked to eat Durkee olives, 1919).
- Install a stadium public-address system (City Stadium, 1925; local radio shop owner Peter Platten installed speakers powered by six-volt wet-cell batteries; former Packers player Jim Coffeen was team's first PA announcer).
- Have cheerleaders on sidelines (several games in 1931, from Green Bay East and West high schools).
- Use pass patterns (Don Hutson, 1935, ran a deep post to catch first career pass, 83-yard TD vs. Bears, Sept. 22, 1935).
- Charter an airplane to fly to a road game (1940).
- Have "tailgating" fans (some evidence suggests it was introduced at Bellevue Park, 1923-24, but no doubt perfected in new City Stadium's spacious parking lots, 1957).

- The Don Hutson Center, Packers' new, $4.67 million indoor practice facility, is dedicated (July 18).
- Harlan announces that, beginning with the 1995 season, the Packers will leave Milwaukee and play their entire 10-game home schedule at Green Bay's Lambeau Field (Oct. 12).
- Packers end 62-year Milwaukee stay on winning note, beat Atlanta at County Stadium 21-17 (Dec. 18).
- Mounting 28-6 halftime lead, Packers top Tampa Bay 34-19, qualify for NFL playoffs for second year in a row. In process, close season with 9-7 record, thus posting third consecutive winning campaign for first time since 1965-67 (Dec. 24).
- Packers defeat Detroit in wild-card playoff, 16-12, recording franchise's 15th postseason win (Dec. 31).

Hutson

►1995

- Injured wide receiver Sterling Sharpe, Packers' career receptions leader, is released "with reluctance" (Feb. 28).
- Construction of 90 additional private boxes in Lambeau Field's north end zone is completed (August).
- Packers defeat Pittsburgh Steelers, 24-19, at Lambeau Field in regular-season finale (Dec. 24), clinch first NFC Central Division championship since 1972.
- Packers beat Falcons, 37-20, in first-round playoff game, maintain team's perfect (9-0) home playoff record (Dec. 31).

►1996

- Packers stun defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco, 27-17, in divisional playoff at 49ers' 3Com Park (Jan. 6).
- Treasurer John R. Underwood reports then-record organization profit of $5,440,628 at annual stockholders' meeting (May 29).
- Packers complete $4 million Lambeau Field project in August, installing second replay board and two new scoreboards to fully enclose stadium.
- The design of a stamp bearing likeness of former Packers coach Vince Lombardi is unveiled in Lambeau Field (Nov. 3).
- Packers clinch second consecutive NFC Central Division championship with 41-6 victory over Denver (Dec. 8).

►1997

- Packers vanquish 49ers, 35-14, in divisional playoff at Lambeau Field (Jan. 4).
- Packers beat Carolina Panthers in NFC Championship Game, 30-13, earn first Super Bowl trip since 1967 (Jan. 12).
- Packers defeat New England Patriots, 35-21, in Super Bowl XXXI at Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans (Jan. 26), claim 12th NFL title.
- With the wind chill registering a frigid 0 to 10 degrees below zero during a three-hour parade through the city, an estimated 200,000 enthusiastic fans welcome Packers home from Super Bowl victory. Another 60,000 jam Lambeau Field for official program hailing the world champions (Jan. 27).
- Packers extend contract of Wolf as executive vice president/general manager for three additional years, through 2002 (April 8).

- Treasurer John R. Underwood reports, at annual shareholders' meeting, then-record net income for Packers Corporation of $5,877,061 for fiscal 1996 (May 28).
- Work is completed on installation of new playing surface, including modern heating and irrigation systems, at Lambeau Field (June 15).
- Don Hutson, most feared pass receiver in pro football history, dies at age 84 (June 26).
- Packers establish own website, packers.com (July 23).
- Packers' two practice fields are named Clarke Hinkle Field and Ray Nitschke Field in honor of two of team's Pro Football Hall of Fame members, Wolf announces (July 24).
- Favre signs a seven-year contract, longest in Packers history, and one making him — at time of signing — highest-paid player in the history of pro football (July 25).
- Gross Avenue in Village of Ashwaubenon is renamed and dedicated as Holmgren Way in honor of Packers head coach (Aug. 17). Street, poetically, intersects Lombardi Avenue.
- At a special meeting, Packers' shareholders approve the issuance of additional stock for the first time since 1950 (Nov. 13), with offering of 400,000 shares at $200 per share.
- Packers' designated national clearing-house receives 55,000 phone calls concerning new stock issue within 24 hours following announcement of sale (Nov. 14).
- Packers clinch postseason berth for record fifth straight year (Dec. 1) with 27-11 victory over Minnesota Vikings.
- Packers capture third consecutive NFC Central Division title via 17-6 victory over Buccaneers in Tampa (Dec. 7), earn first-round bye in playoffs and right to host divisional playoff.

►1998

- Gaining berth in NFC Championship for third straight year, Packers defeat Tampa Bay, 21-7, in divisional playoff (Jan. 4).
- Packers earn second consecutive trip to the Super Bowl with 23-10 victory over 49ers at San Francisco in NFC Championship Game (Jan. 11).
- Last-minute drive falls short of tie, Packers lose to Denver Broncos, 31-24, in Super Bowl XXXII at San Diego (Jan. 25). Record, worldwide audience of 800 million, in 147 countries, views game on TV.
- More than 25,000 fans turn out in Lambeau Field to welcome Packers home from Super Bowl XXXII (Jan. 27).
- Legendary linebacker Ray Nitschke, a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, dies in Florida at age 61 (March 8).
- Harlan announces that stock sale, which ended March 16, yielded nearly 106,000 new shareholders, more than $24 million (March 17).
- With huge increase in number of "owners," Packers make corporate history, hold shareholders' meeting in Lambeau Field for first time (July 8). Record crowd of 18,707 attends. For the third consecutive year, treasurer John R. Underwood reports then-record net income for the Packers Corporation, $6,718,628 for fiscal 1997.
- Packers travel to Japan, the team's first trip overseas in its 80-year history, defeat Kansas City Chiefs, 27-24 in overtime, in American Bowl game at Tokyo Dome (Aug. 2).
- Packers extend regular-season, home-field winning streak to a club-record 25 games — the second-longest streak in NFL history — with 23-15 win over Tampa Bay (Sept. 13).
- Home-field winning streak ends at 25 against Minnesota, 37-24, on rainy Monday night (Oct. 5).
- Packers clinch playoff berth for team-record sixth consecutive year (Dec. 19).
- 1999
 - Favre engineers 89-yard drive to give Packers 27-23 lead with 1:56 left in NFC Wild Card playoff at San Francisco, but 49ers score with three seconds left to win 30-27 (Jan. 3).
 - Holmgren resigns to become executive vice president of football operations/general manager/head coach of Seattle Seahawks (Jan. 8).
 - Ray Rhodes, former Eagles head coach and ex-Green Bay defensive coordinator, named Packers' 12th head coach (Jan. 11).
 - John M. Jones named senior vice president of administration, succeeding Michael Reinfeldt (Feb. 10).

► 2003

- Team sustains first-ever home playoff loss, to Atlanta (Jan. 4).
- At annual shareholders meeting, treasurer John R. Underwood announces after-tax operating profit of $15.5 million for 2002-03 fiscal year, allowing team to build its corporate reserve fund to $58 million, the safety net for a publicly owned team without a billionaire owner (July 15).
- Spectacular 14-foot statues of Curly Lambeau and Vince Lombardi unveiled in plaza outside Atrium (Aug. 27).
- Team names same plaza after Robert E. Harlan (Sept. 2).
- Starr and Wolf dedicate stunning new Packers Hall of Fame (Sept. 4).
- Legendary players return to Green Bay, re-enact Starr's Ice Bowl sneak, in "Rebirth of a Legend" event (Sept. 6).
- Two middle-school students and a host of dignitaries, including Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, rededicate Lambeau Field at halftime of season opener. Vikings spoil day, 30-25 (Sept. 7).
- Running backs coach Sylvester Croom becomes the Southeastern Conference's first-ever black head football coach, taking over Mississippi State program (Dec. 2).

- Ahman Green breaks Jim Taylor's single-season franchise rushing mark, and Ryan Longwell breaks Hutson's Packers career scoring record, at San Diego (Dec. 14).
- At Oakland (Dec. 22), Favre authors finest career game, throwing for 399 yards and four TDs, in Monday night win, little more than 24 hours after his father's death.
- After winning seven of last nine to keep pace, Packers capitalize on miraculous Minnesota loss at Arizona, clinch last-minute playoff berth and NFC North title, with win vs. Denver (Dec. 28).

2004

- Al Harris' overtime interception return wins NFC Wild Card playoff vs. Seattle (Jan. 4).
- Inches from the NFC championship, Packers sustain heartbreaking, 20-17 overtime loss at Philadelphia (Jan. 11).
- Packers name Lee Rammel team historian (Feb. 19).
- Hatley, vice president of football operations, dies suddenly of heart failure (July 26).
- Corporate treasurer John R. Underwood announces after-tax operating profit of $20.8 million for 2003-04 fiscal year at annual shareholders' meeting (July 28). Team's then-record financial success, derived in part from the new Lambeau Field Atrium and an increase in stadium capacity of more than 7,000 over the prior year, ups corporation reserve fund to $84.5 million.
- John "Red" Cochran, who served the organization for 42 years as an assistant coach and scout – and still was scouting for the team – passes away at age 82 (Sept. 5).
- Packers clinch third straight NFC North title on last-second Longwell field goal, win at Minnesota, 34-31 (Dec. 24).
- White, who helped return glory to Tittletown during 1990s, passes away in North Carolina (Dec. 26). Packers fly contingent of roughly 50 to funeral services, apply "92" decal to helmets.

2005

- Minnesota Vikings, swept by the Packers in the regular season, turn Green Bay in Lambeau Field Wild Card playoff, 31-17 (Jan. 9).
- Harlan names Ted Thompson Executive Vice President, General Manager & Director of Football Operations, with full authority over football decisions. Sherman becomes Executive Vice President & Head Coach (Jan. 14).
- First annual Green Bay Packers Fan Fest in the Lambeau Field Atrium is an extraordinary success. Favre kicks off the weekend by officially announcing his return for a 15th season (March 11-13).
- The Packers and American Family Insurance announce a joint effort, through sales of a pink Packers Breast Cancer Cap, to promote breast cancer awareness, raise funds to support those afflicted and sustain research (July 7). With goal of $100,000, effort tops $1 million.
- At annual shareholders' meeting (July 27), Larry Weyers reports record $25.4 million profit from operations during 2004-05 fiscal year. Team also establishes the Packers Franchise Preservation Fund (PFPF), formerly the corporate reserve.
- Believed to be first time in broadcast history that an NFL practice is televised to a national audience, the Packers and Bills culminate two days of combined workouts with the annual Family Night scrimmage on NFL Network (Aug. 5).
- For just the fifth time in their rich history, the Packers retire a uniform number, the late Reggie White's No. 92 (Sept. 18).

- One day after a 23-17 win over Seattle finalizes the Packers' first losing season since 1991, GM Thompson dismisses Sherman (Jan. 2).
- After a thorough and exhaustive nine-day search, Thompson names Mike McCarthy the Packers' 14th head coach (Jan. 12).
- Lambeau Field hosts the Frozen Tundra Classic, a collegiate hockey game in which eventual national champion Wisconsin defeats Ohio State, 4-2. The event draws 40,890, a virtual sellout and the fourth-largest crowd ever to see an outdoor hockey game (Feb. 11).

- At team's quarterly Board meeting, Harlan formally becomes Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and Jones becomes President and Chief Operating Officer (May 31).
- Annual shareholders meeting moves back to Lambeau Field; treasurer Larry Weyers reports $18 million profit from operations during 2005-06 fiscal year, saying Packers have moved to franchise-high seventh place in NFL team revenue rankings (July 19)
- White, a perennial All-Pro and then the team's career sacks leader, becomes Packers' 21st representative in Pro Football Hall of Fame, receiving induction on first ballot (Aug. 5).

- Work begins on Lambeau Field's new playing surface, a project that will equip the hallowed ground with the latest technology, DD GrassMaster. A natural-grass surface, reinforced with man-made fibers, is installed on top of a new drainage and heating system (Jan. 10).
- Team promotes Vicki Vannieuwenhoven to vice president of finance and Jason Wied to vice president of administration/corporate counsel (April 3).
- Team announces plans to celebrate 50th anniversary of Lambeau Field, the NFL's longest-tenured facility. An anniversary logo is created to mark the occasion with plans to feature it prominently, including on uniforms and on the field (May 15).
- The Executive Committee announces that John Jones, president and COO, has taken a leave of absence for personal reasons (May 26).
- At team's quarterly meeting, the Board of Directors unanimously supports a move that will allow Bob Harlan, then Chairman of the Board, to serve as the Packers' principal executive officer despite having reached the mandatory retirement age, 70 (May 30).
- The Executive Committee formally accepts resignation of Jones, who cites health concerns as reason for departure. A search committee for a new President and CEO, consisting of members of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors, is formed (July 20).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $22 million profit for 2006-07 fiscal year and a $10 million boost to PFPF, now at $125.5 million (July 25).
- For the first time since Aug. 5, 1961, Packers hold training camp practice at City Stadium, with nearly 3,500 in attendance (July 31).
- Favre throws his 421st career touchdown pass in victory at Minnesota, breaking Dan Marino's NFL career record (Sept. 30).
- Packers clinch first NFC North title and playoff berth since 2004 with win over Oakland (Dec. 9).
- Board of Directors unanimously elects Mark H. Murphy as Packers' new President and CEO. Schedule is established for Harlan to remain as Chairman through end of football season, when he then becomes Chairman Emeritus and Murphy officially assumes role as top executive (Dec. 3).
- Team historian Lee Rammel announces his retirement, effective at the end of the calendar year, ending 62-year association with franchise as a sportswriter and member of front office (Dec. 12).

CHRONOLOGY

► 2008

- GM Thompson signed to new five-year contract (Jan. 7).
- Packers overcome early 14-point deficit to defeat Seattle, 42-20, in NFC Divisional playoff at snow-covered Lambeau (Jan. 12).
- In third-coldest game in league championship history, with minus-1 temperature and minus-23 wind chill at kickoff, quest for fifth Super Bowl berth comes up agonizingly short with 23-20 overtime loss to eventual champion New York Giants (Jan. 20).
- McCarthy signed to new five-year contract (Feb. 5).
- In awarding annual grants through Packers Foundation, franchise announces a comprehensive charity impact of more than $5 million in the past year (Feb. 19).
- Favre, owner of NFL career records for pass attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns, and the team's starting quarterback for the past 253 games (275 including playoffs), announces his retirement in a formal press conference at Lambeau Field (March 6).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $23.4 million profit for 2007-08 fiscal year and a $2 million boost to PFPF, now at $127.5 million (July 24).
- Favre un-retires and is reinstated to roster by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell (Aug. 4), then traded to New York Jets (Aug. 6).
- Aaron Rodgers becomes first quarterback other than Favre to start a Packers game since Sept. 27, 1992 (Sept. 8).

► 2009

- One week following conclusion of 6-10 season, McCarthy dismisses six assistant coaches (Jan. 5).
- Shawn Slocum promoted to special teams coordinator (Jan. 15), Dom Capers hired as new defensive coordinator (Jan. 19), and rest of coaching staff is filled out (Feb. 3).
- Packers select Boston College NT B.J. Raji with the No. 9 overall pick in the NFL Draft and trade up to select USC LB Clay Matthews at No. 26, the first time since 1993 the Packers bring in two first-round draft choices (April 25).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $4 million profit for 2008-09 fiscal year with PFPF remaining at $127.5 million (July 30).
- Packers dedicate renovated Nitschke Field as primary training-camp facility, welcoming overflow crowd of approximately 2,100 for first practice. Permanent bleachers are installed, and a portion of the new field is heated for late-season use (Aug. 1).
- Donald Driver breaks Sterling Sharpe's franchise record for career receptions (Oct. 18).
- Favre, now with Minnesota, plays first game against Green Bay (Oct. 5) and first game at Lambeau Field as member of visiting team (Nov. 1).
- Green breaks Taylor's franchise record for career rushing yards (Nov. 8).

► 2010

- Defense finishes season No. 1 in the NFL against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for rushing yards allowed per game. Offense sets franchise record for points in one season, surpassing 1996 Super Bowl-winning team (Jan. 3).

- In highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, Packers fall 51-45 in overtime at Arizona in NFC Wild Card playoff (Jan. 10).
- In awarding annual grants through Packers Foundation, franchise announces a comprehensive charity impact of more than $4 million in the past year (Feb. 22).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $5.2 million profit for 2009-10 fiscal year with PFPF remaining at $127.5 million (July 29).
- Five players are named to the Pro Bowl roster for the NFC (Dec. 28). After the addition of three alternates later in the process, the Packers are represented by eight players on the all-star team, the franchise's most since 1967.

- Packers win final two regular-season games to finish 2010 with a 10-6 record, securing the sixth and final playoff berth in the NFC. All six regular-season losses come by a combined 20 points, and Green Bay becomes the first team since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to not trail a game by more than seven points in an entire season.

► 2011

- Team opens playoffs on the road at hostile Philadelphia in the Wild Card round, containing the Eagles' explosive offense en route to a 21-16 victory, Rodgers' first playoff win as a starter (Jan. 9).
- The Packers travel to Atlanta to face the NFC's No. 1-seeded Falcons just six days later for Divisional matchup. Green Bay routs Atlanta by a score of 48-21, the second-largest margin of victory in team playoff history (Jan. 15).
- Packers complete their road playoff march by making the short trek to Chicago to face division-rival Bears in the NFC Championship Game (Jan. 23). Just the second postseason meeting in the history of the two franchises, the Packers win 21-14, punching their ticket to Super Bowl XLV in North Texas.
- In the organization's fifth-ever Super Bowl appearance, the Packers square off with the AFC's Pittsburgh Steelers at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas (Feb. 6).
- Rodgers throws for 304 yards and three scores, earning game MVP honors, and the defense forces three turnovers, including an interception return for a touchdown by safety Nick Collins late in the opening quarter. A fourth-down stop on the Steelers' final possession seals the 31-25 win and gives the franchise its record 13th world championship and fourth Super Bowl title.
- On the day following their return from Texas, the Packers are met by more than 56,000 fans inside the bowl at Lambeau Field for the team's "Return to Titletown" celebration. A frigid afternoon, temperatures range in the single digits with wind chills below zero (Feb. 8).
- Packers sign Thompson to multi-year contract extension to continue serving as executive vice president, general manager and director of football operations (Feb. 11).
- Packers sign McCarthy to multi-year contract extension to continue serving as the team's head coach (March 4).
- Team announces that it has begun installation of a new distributed sound system throughout Lambeau Field that will be operational in time for the 2011 season (April 27).

GREEN BAY'S FIVE RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

The Green Bay Packers will formally retire Brett Favre's No. 4 at a future date to be determined, according to club president/CEO Mark Murphy, which will mark only the sixth time in nine decades the franchise will formally remove a uniform number from circulation.

The last player who had his number retired was Reggie White, whose No. 92 was retired in the 2005 home opener. The gesture was not spurred by White's premature death in December 2004. In fact, then-Packers CEO Bob Harlan had met with White three months before he passed away and told him of the team's plans to retire the number during the '05 season. All retired numbers are displayed on the green façade of Lambeau Field's north end zone (pictured below).

Not including Favre, the five previous Packers players to have their number retired are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

There is no known evidence that Tony Canadeo, one of those five, was ever honored at a public ceremony; the club is believed to have retired his number sometime during or after the 1952 season. Some think the team retired his No. 3 on "Tony Canadeo Day," Nov. 23, 1952, against the Dallas Texans at (old) City Stadium. The future Hall of Famer that day scored two TDs in a 42-14 Packers win, but newspaper accounts don't mention the number retirement.

In research supplied by the Green Bay Press-Gazette, the team's four known number-retirement dates:

14	Don Hutson	12/02/51	vs. New York Yanks	City Stadium
15	Bart Starr	11/11/73	vs. St. Louis Cardinals	Lambeau Field
66	Ray Nitschke	12/04/83	vs. Chicago Bears	Lambeau Field
92	Reggie White	09/18/05	vs. Cleveland Browns	Lambeau Field

RETIRED NUMBERS

MISC.

SHAREHOLDER HISTORY & FINANCIAL HISTORY

Of all the reasons that make the Green Bay Packers and their story so incredible and unique, the most significant is simply this: The team is literally owned by its fans.

Presently, 112,205 people (representing 4,750,940 shares) can lay claim to a franchise ownership interest.

Shares of stock include voting rights, but the redemption price is minimal, no dividends are ever paid, the stock cannot appreciate in value, and there are no season-ticket privileges associated with stock ownership. No shareholder is allowed to own more than 200,000 shares, a safeguard to ensure that no one individual is able to assume control of the club.

The team has had three owners, all in its first four years, 1919-22. The first owner, Indian Packing Company, paid an unofficial purchase price of $500 to supply Curly Lambeau with uniforms and equipment. In turn, Lambeau and team manager George Calhoun called the club "Packers."

Shortly thereafter, Acme Packing Company bought Indian Packing Company and all its assets, including the fledgling team. In 1921, Lambeau convinced new owners John and Emmitt Clair to apply for membership in the new American Professional Football Association (early NFL).

With the team already headed for bankruptcy, the APFA revoked the franchise after Lambeau used illegal college players in a non-league game later that year. But before the 1922 season, Lambeau by himself reapplied and the league reinstated the Packers, with Lambeau as owner. When rain threatened to sink the team in 1922, A.B. Turnbull came to the rescue.

Turnbull, publisher of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, grocery man Lee Joannes, attorney Gerald Clifford and Dr. W. Webber Kelly cancelled Lambeau's $2,500 debt, then rallied the community behind the team. In August 1923, with more than 400 in attendance at a local Elks Club, the club was transformed into a nonprofit entity, the Green Bay Packers Corporation. The five men, including Lambeau, were nicknamed the Hungry Five.

There now have been four stock drives in the 91-year history of the team. The first stock sale, which took place at that 1923 meeting, saw local merchants raise $5,000 by selling

1,000 shares for $5 apiece, with a stipulation that the purchaser also had to buy at least six season tickets.

The second, in 1935, raised $15,000 after the corporation had gone into receivership. At that point, the nonprofit Green Bay Football Corporation was reorganized as the Green Bay Packers, Inc., the present company, with 300 shares of stock outstanding.

The third, in 1950, came on the heels of founder Curly Lambeau's 30-year dominion, when the club's officers arranged to amend the corporation's bylaws to permit the sale of up to 10,000 total shares of stock (opening up more than 9,500 shares for purchase), to limit the number of shares that any individual could own. The team also increased the number of directors from 15 to 25.

The response to the 1950 drive was inspiring, with people from all across Wisconsin, as well as former Green Bay residents living in other states, coming forward to buy the $25 shares of stock. Roughly $50,000 was raised in one 11-day period alone. Reportedly, one woman from a farm near Wrightstown, Wis., showed up at the team's offices with $25 worth of quarters in a match box. A total of about $118,000 was generated through this major stock sale, helping to put the Packers on a sound financial basis once again.

The fourth came late in 1997 and early in 1998. It added 105,989 new shareholders and raised more than $24 million, monies which were utilized for the Lambeau Field redevelopment project. Priced at $200 per share, fans bought 120,010 shares during the 17-week sale, which ended March 16, 1998.

With the NFL supporting the plan, the existing 1,940 shareholders overwhelmingly voted to amend the articles of the corporation on Nov. 13, 1997. The vote authorized the Packers to sell up to 1 million shares to raise funds for capital improvements, and received a 1,000-to-1 split on their original shares. Fans immediately were able to call a special toll-free number, or tap into the team's website for information on how to buy the 400,000 shares made available to the public.

EVENTS THAT HELPED TO STABILIZE PACKERS FINANCIALLY, 1922-66

- A.B. Turnbull's actions, 1922-23 — When rain threatened to keep fans away and bankrupt the Packers, Turnbull told Lambeau and George Calhoun to play their games and that he'd bail them out of debt. Turnbull then organized local investors, turned team into non-profit organization in 1923, and raised $1,000 in team's first stock drive.
- Court decision to appoint receiver, 1935 — After fan who fell from City Stadium bleachers sued Packers, team petitioned for friendly receiver, while litigation ran its course. Henry Graess, circuit court judge and Packers fan, appointed local accountant Frank Jonet as receiver. Despite Great Depression, Packers prospered during receivership (1934-37), thanks in part to growing popularity of NFL.
- Second stock drive, 1935 — President Lee Joannes raises $15,000 in "Save the Packers" stock drive, getting donations from firefighters, policemen, high-school students, housewives, civic leaders and other citizens.
- Joe Carr's sending Don Hutson to Green Bay, 1935 — College star signed two contracts, including one with Brooklyn football Dodgers. League President Joe Carr awarded Hutson to Packers because team's contract was postmarked earlier. Hutson, pivotal in timely 1936 world championship and greatest player in Green Bay history, helped team to climb out of court receivership.
- NFL's installation of college draft, 1936 — Kept small-market teams such as Packers competitive with big-city opponents.
- Lee Joannes donation, 1937 — Packers president paid $6,000 to settle case of fan who fell from stands in 1934, then convinced court to end receivership period.
- Decision to play games in Milwaukee, 1933 — Allowed Packers to tap larger market. As a result, the Packers now have one of the largest territories in sports (the NFL has traditionally given teams only 75-mile radius). By playing in both Green Bay and Milwaukee (1939-94), Packers thwarted any efforts to establish another competing pro football team there.
- Decision to invest in war bonds, 1940s — Money in reserve carried team despite losses of at least $25,000 in 1943 alone, as World War II depleted rosters.
- Intrasquad game, Thanksgiving, 1949 — Packers brought old-timers back, drawing 15,000 to City Stadium, earning $50,000.
- Third stock drive, 1950 — After Lambeau's departure, team raised nearly $118,000.
- Bert Bell's push for league-wide TV package, 1950s — With help from Congress, commissioner laid groundwork for CBS-TV deal that allowed all teams, large market and small market, to share revenue, eventually in place by the 1961 season. In 1966, Pete Rozelle signed first NFL TV package, with CBS and NBC, giving Packers more than $1 million (which allowed Vince Lombardi to sign Donny Anderson to the team's first long-term contract).

Jonet

The initial response to the recent stock offering was staggering. In the first 11 days, roughly one-third — or $7.8 million — of the total amount transacted was sold. Paid orders poured in at a rate of 3,500 per day during this early period, generating about $700,000 each day. The sale hit its high point during the first week of December as fans purchased shares as holiday gifts.

Shares of stock were purchased by citizens from all 50 states, in addition to fans in Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Over half (or roughly 64,300) of the new shares during the 1997-98 offering were bought by Wisconsin residents, followed by inhabitants of Illinois (9,600), Minnesota (4,300), California (3,700), Florida (2,900), Michigan (2,800), Texas (2,500) and Ohio (2,000).

Today, an annual meeting of shareholders is held in July. The event returned to Lambeau Field in 2006 after several thousand people were turned away from the 2005 meeting at the nearby Resch Center. As a means of running the corporation, a board of directors is elected by the stockholders. The board of directors in turn elect a seven-member Executive Committee (officers) of the corporation, consisting of a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary and three members-at-large. The president is the only officer who receives compensation. The balance of the committee is sitting gratis.

Shares of stock cannot be resold, except back to the team for a fraction of the original price. Limited transfer of shares (i.e., to heirs and relatives) is permissible.

Based on the original 'Articles of Incorporation for the (then) Green Bay Football Corporation' put into place in 1923, if the Packers franchise was sold, after the payment of all expenses, any remaining funds would go to the Sullivan-Wallen Post of the American Legion in order to build "a proper soldiers' memorial." This stipulation was enacted to ensure that the club remained in Green Bay and that there could never be any financial enhancement for the shareholder. The beneficiary was changed from the Sullivan-Wallen Post to the Green Bay Packers Foundation on the basis of a shareholder vote at the November 1997 meeting.

NOTABLE PACKERS FINANCIAL FIGURES, 1919-58

$16 Amount each player received after first season, 1919. Players divided up profits after last game, some of which came from George Calhoun's hat, passed along the sidelines like a church offering.

$500 Sum given to Curly Lambeau by Frank Peck, his boss at Indian Packing Company, for team's first uniforms.

$250 Amount NFL charged Lambeau before 1922 season for re-entry; league forfeited franchise after Lambeau used illegal college players in 1921 game vs. Chicago Supremes. Using $50 of own money, he got the rest from friend Don Murphy. After joining Lambeau on drive to Canton league meetings, Murphy sold his car (Marmon Roadster), gave Lambeau needed funds, then purchased tickets home. In exchange, Murphy got to play briefly in 1922 non-league opener...George Halas, despite rivalry, was instrumental in persuading league to allow Packers back...Following Green Bay reinstatement, using Packers as example, the NFL asked each club for $1,000 to guard against using college players.

$2,500 Deficit new owner Lambeau faced after rain-ravaged 1922 season. No games were ever rained out, but weather took its toll on home attendance. Following season, with help of A.B. Turnbull, Packers became publicly owned corporation, and new team leadership raised additional $1,000 in team's first stock offering.

$5,000 Verdict awarded to fan who fell from stands at City Stadium in 1934 and sued team. Packers' public-liability mutual insurance company was already going bankrupt, so team forced to pay $2,500 to company's creditors. Fan's fall sent Packers into receivership.

$15,000 New capital generated by Lee Joannes' 1935 stock drive, the second in team history.

$300 Don Hutson's weekly game check as rookie in 1935, one year before first college draft. In midst of Great Depression, city of Green Bay had only two banks. Both banks had to write Hutson a weekly check, each for $150.

$1,149 Share each player received for winning 1936 championship, after Boston Redskins owner George Preston Marshall moved the game to the Polo Grounds in New York.

$6,000 Amount Lee Joannes, president of Packers Corporation, loaned team to bail it out of receivership (settling the fan's damage judgment). Joannes held the Packers in his personal possession as security. According to Forbes in January 2005, the Packers are worth $756 million, up from $392 million in 2001.

$10,000 Amount team used to purchase Liberty war bonds, with profits from 1941 NFL playoff loss, 33-14 to Bears, one week after Pearl Harbor.

$25,000 Price paid by Lambeau to purchase Rockwood Lodge, on shores of the bay north of city, for team's new training facility. Move drew heavy criticism from Executive Committee.

$75,000 Amount paid by insurance company to Packers after Rockwood Lodge burned to ground in January 1950, shortly after Lambeau departed for Chicago Cardinals.

$118,000 Funds created by third Packers stock drive, in 1950.

$75,000 Price CBS paid Packers to televise 11 games each year from 1956-58. Teams in larger markets got much more money. Thanks to foundation laid by Commissioner Bert Bell and U.S. Congress, league in 1961 season instituted current policy of league-wide TV package, allowing Packers equal share, despite small market size.

ALL-TIME GREEN BAY UNIFORM NUMBERS

1925-2010

- ▶ With help from the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which provided game programs dating back to 1925 (when the team first printed uniform numbers), the Packers constructed this list.
- ▶ Players who wore multiple numbers during their Packers tenure are denoted with an asterisk (*).
- ▶ All players in this section are believed to have played in at least one league game in the corresponding number. Players who were listed on a numerical program roster but did not play that season were omitted.
- ▶ The team invites anyone who can provide further evidence, using the same criteria, to contact the public relations office.

Shield, Joe (QB), Trinity (Conn.)	1986

DID YOU KNOW...

In 1952, the National Football League established a system for numbering players, with a vague exemption for "nationally known players." A year later, such players as Otto Graham (60 to 14) changed their jerseys to conform to the system. According to the mandate, quarterbacks and kickers were numbered 1-19, running and defensive backs 20-49, centers and linebackers 50-59, defensive linemen, guards and tackles 60-79 and receivers 80-89. In March 2004, NFL owners voted to allow receivers to wear 10-19.

ALL-TIME UNIFORMS, HELMETS AND COLORS

gold pants.

<1921-22

1923-24: Plain, gold jersey with nine thin navy-blue stripes on each sleeve; gold leggings, dark gold pants.

1925-26: First recorded uniform numbers; dark gold shirts with wide navy-blue strip covering shoulder and collar, cut off at top of each arm; tall, gold leggings; light

1939>

During World War II, the team used three alternate jerseys (these two, and another white design), complementing the trademark blue uniform made famous by the incomparable Don Hutson (pictured in lower left column). The Packers wore white at home several times until the league signed major television contracts in the late 1950s.

1946-49>

1950: "We are the Green Bay Packers," said new coach Gene Ronzani, who solidified green into the color scheme. Old gold shirts with green numerals, green pants with bright gold stripe, gold socks with green stripes. Still used leather helmet.

1951-52>

Team also employed varying combinations of metallic gold uniform with green numbers, shiny green pants with gold stripe, or metallic gold pants with single green stripe, and green socks with two gold rings. Modern metallic gold helmet introduced.

1953: Brighter green shirts with same striping and thicker gold numbers; team continued to vary its combinations. The Packers also had available a white jersey, saving it mostly for late-season West Coast trips.

1954-57: Navy-blue jersey, with new three-stripe design in dirty mustard gold on sleeves, socks and helmets, and matching gold pants. For 1956 opener vs. Detroit, Packers break out green jersey with white pants and white helmets, but never wear again until '58. "TV numbers" on shoulder appear in '56 for first time. Team used its older green jerseys and gold pants (from the early '50s) in several road games. In 1957, Packers began consistently wearing white on road, for television.

1958: New coach Scooter McLean brings back same green uniforms used in 1956 opener (white pants, white helmet).

1927-28: Elaborate, jockey-like jerseys, with inverted triangle tracing clavicles, and 13 blue and gold vertical stripes from chest to stomach; faded blue canvas pants; gold socks with two blue stripes.

1931-33: Totally plain jerseys (dark navy-blue), large white numerals on back; gold pants; plain, dark navy-blue socks. In 1934, the team added to the scheme large, white numerals on the chest.

1935-36: Team introduced green, and changed jerseys during season; began with plain dark green jersey with gold numbers and green pants, then shifted to green-vested shirts with bright gold sleeves (from neck to wrist), numbers and pants, and tall, plain green socks.

<1937-49

Throwback jersey worn in 1994, NFL's 75th anniversary; modeled after late '30s uniform, satin-ched with cloth arms, gold pants, and two gold stripes on high navy socks; Packers also wore similar white uniforms (not necessarily only on road), with bright gold numbers and faded gold shoulders; in the late '40s, the team still used this design.

THIRD JERSEY IN 2010

In Week 13 of 2010, the Packers donned a third jersey and uniform for their showdown with the San Francisco 49ers. Originally unveiled to the public at Fan Fest in March 2010, the design served as a re-creation of the team's uniform from 1929, the year of Green Bay's first world championship.

The 1929 season marked the first of three consecutive titles, as the Packers recorded a 34-5-2 cumulative record in official league games from 1929-31. For the game, the jersey was navy blue with the number on the front inside a gold circle. The circle and number were enlarged a bit from their 1929 size to comply with NFL regulations regarding jersey numbers. An enlarged number was also on the back, with a nameplate above the number, another modification that wasn't present in 1929. The helmet was a solid brown color without a logo to best simulate the leather helmets worn during the era and the uniform pants were a tan color.

The 1929 team would have been proud of the performance put on by their modern-day counterparts against San Francisco, as the Packers defeated the 49ers by a score of 34-16.

NFL teams are allowed to have a third jersey that they can wear for up to three games per season (no more than two home games) over a five-year period. The re-creation of a historical jersey was a coordinated effort between the administration and the football operations headed by General Manager Ted Thompson. Working through the league, the team started the process roughly one year in advance of the announcement, wanting to focus on a historical jersey that had not been previously used in "throwback" games.

In 1994, the team wore 1937 uniforms as part of the NFL's 75th anniversary season. In their 2001 Thanksgiving game in Detroit, the Packers wore replicas of their 1939 uniforms.

UNIFORM HISTORY

MISC.

1959-60: New head coach Vince Lombardi revamps uniforms; basic design and colors (including dark forest green) are still in place today; early Lombardi scheme did not include helmet logo, and called for three-striped design on socks; all players were asked to wear same style cleats. In 1959 road games only, socks above striping were white (tops of socks have been green for all games since '60).

1961-65: Few changes, other than the team's first and only helmet logo, which made its debut in 1961; by 1965, most players were wearing five stripes on their socks.

1969: The Packers, with the rest of the league, wore a commemorative logo on top of their left shoulder, signifying the league's 50th anniversary.

1970: Conforming with league mandate, the Packers and the rest of the newly merged NFL applied names to the backs of jerseys.

1974: Majority of players began wearing white shoes.

1975: Three stripes (green-white-green) on pants grew noticeably wider, by more than an inch.

1980: Helmet facemask changed from gray to green.

1981: Socks lost gold and white striping; shifted to plain, solid green.

New head coach Forrest Gregg made the most changes to the uniform since Lombardi in 1959; team added logo to float on each sleeve's striping, uniform numbers to rest on each hip, and altered pants striping to include gold. "TV numbers" moved from arm to shoulder and a gold and white collar-enhanced neckline.

1988: The G remained on the sleeve, but the pants lost the uniform number. The team added a single gold ring to its socks.

1989: Pre-1984 striping (green-white-green) returned to pants; G logo disappeared from sleeves.

1991: Small NFL shield added to V of neck.

1992: Solid green socks returned.

1993: Packers displayed logo marking team's 75th anniversary, on upper left chest.

Team for first time since 1958 played as a unit with only three stripes on sleeve (shifting down from five stripes); NFL shield added to lower left thigh.

2002: "NFL Equipment" insignia replaced the NFL shield on the jersey neck and pants thigh.

2003: "Rebirth of a Legend" patch worn on chest for first game in rededicated Lambeau Field.

2007: "Lambeau Field 50th Anniversary" patch worn on chest for all home games.

PRACTICE SQUAD, 1989-2010

The NFL in 1989 created a five-player developmental squad. In 1990, the league changed the name to practice squad. Players can leave a practice squad for another team only if they join a 53-man roster of another NFL team. At the 2004 annual meeting, NFL owners decided to expand the squad from five to eight players. The 270 players who've spent time on Green Bay's developmental/practice squad:

EARNING THE HONOR

While the Packers achieved the ultimate team success on the field in 2010, winning the franchise's 13th world championship and fourth Super Bowl, there were also a number of individual accolades that accompanied the collective accomplishment.

When the initial voting for the Pro Bowl was released, five Green Bay players (T Chad Clifton, S Nick Collins, WR Greg Jennings, LB Clay Matthews and CB Charles Woodson) were named to the NFC's all-star team. Following the addition of three alternates (WR Donald Driver, LB A.J. Hawk, and CB Tramon Williams), the Packers list grew to eight players. The eight selections tied for the second most in team history and was the largest representation the organization had on the Pro Bowl roster since it sent nine in 1967.

Fortunately, though, none of last year's Packers selections ever appeared in the game (played Jan. 30, 2011), as they were preoccupied with preparations for the upcoming Super Bowl XLV on Feb. 6.

A look at the most-represented Packers teams in the Pro Bowl since its inception in 1951:

TEAM SONG

The 2011 season marks the 80th anniversary of the team's official song, "Go! You Packers Go!"

Originally composed by Eric Karl in 1931, the song still is played before every game at Lambeau Field, after introductions and before the national anthem.

Few people know that the famous modern-day chant, "Go, Pack, Go," shouted by fans in unison at home games, originated from Karl's composition. Karl's work came on the heels of Green Bay's three consecutive NFL championships (1929-31).

Capturing the spirit of the day, and the passion of fans in his home state, Karl enjoyed a successful composing career. He flourished on the vaudeville circuit, becoming a renowned and highly regarded lyricist and musical producer. A pioneer in the early days of radio, Karl also originated a nationally syndicated show, Down at Herman's.

During World War I, he produced a musical entitled Welcome Home, Sweet Home, to entertain troops of the 32nd Division. He also drafted political music. One of his jingles, Welcome Mr. Roosevelt, was used on the campaign trail to inspire voters to re-elect Franklin Delano Roosevelt to a second term.

Born in 1888 in Reedsburg, Wis., Karl passed away in 1973.

But his legacy lives on in his music, especially before every game at Lambeau Field.

The song's lyrics:

Hail, hail, the gang's all here to yell for you and keep you going in your winning ways

*Hail, hail, the gang's all here to tell you, too, that, win or lose,
we'll always sing your praises*

*Go, you Packers, go and get 'em
Go, you fighting fools, upset 'em
Smash their line with all your might
A touchdown, Packers, fight! Fight! Fight!*

*Fight on, you blue and gold, to glory
Win the game, the same old story*

Fight, you Packers, fight and bring the bacon home to old Green Bay

LAMBEAU FIELD

HALLOWED GROUND

One of the National Football League's most revered stadiums, Lambeau Field this year is hosting its 55th season of football.

A year-round destination venue to be enjoyed by Packers fans in a variety of ways on an everyday basis, it underwent a dramatic facelift that added a host of new amenities and attractions. The conclusion of the redevelopment project was marked by a rededication game, Sept. 7, 2003, against longtime divisional rival Minnesota.

Featuring the only true "retro" look in the entire league, the glorious tradition and history of the Packers is carried forward in the "like-new" Lambeau Field with its heart – the original seating bowl – saved. The same hallowed ground where many of the NFL's greatest moments have transpired continues to exist, a canvas where current players can paint their own memories in future years.

At the same time, the structure has been transformed from a football stadium that fans could use only 10 days during the season to a Packers cultural center that can be enjoyed throughout the year. Within the five-story Lambeau Field Atrium, located on the stadium's east side, is the 25,000-square-foot Packers Hall of Fame, corporate meeting and event facilities for 25 to 1,200 people, five different eating options highlighted by a one-of-a-kind brew pub (Curly's Pub) with interactive areas, and a larger Packers Pro Shop (see page 601-603 for a full listing of the Atrium dining, entertainment and retail options).

Just outside the Atrium in the Robert E. Harlan Plaza, named in honor of the former team CEO (1989-2007), are bronze statues of team founder Curly Lambeau and legendary coach Vince Lombardi. Sculpted by Julie Rotblatt-Amrany (Lombardi) and Omri Amrany (Lambeau) of Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany in Highland Park, Ill., at a cost of more than $400,000, each statue is 14 feet tall, atop three feet of steps and a four-foot base. Nearby the statues are several park benches – making the plaza area a great place to sit and soak up the majesty of Lambeau Field.

On gamedays, fans benefit from many of the same 21st-century amenities typically found in the shiny but sterile, newer facilities that have sprouted up across the country in recent years – everything from wider concourses (including a new, upper concourse) to enhanced concession areas to modernized and increased restroom facilities (particularly for female fans), to a club level for suite and club seat patrons.

The 32-month, $295 million redevelopment of Lambeau was completed on time – and on budget – with the Packers remaining in Green Bay to play all of their games throughout the process. Put into motion by a county-wide referendum that approved a half-cent sales tax increase on Sept. 12, 2000, the project was financed jointly by the city of Green Bay, county taxpayers, the Packers and the NFL.

The Packers' football facilities – a vital element in attracting players in today's ultra-competitive NFL – also were enhanced greatly by the stadium's redevelopment, debuting in time for the 2002 season. The centerpiece of these quarters is a breathtaking, 64-by-120-foot, football-shaped locker room with 64 stately wooden lockers. Another 25 lockers can be found in an adjoining, auxiliary locker room, to be utilized during training camp.

The new football facilities also feature a much larger training room with all of the latest therapy pools as well as a permanent X-ray machine, a new weight room, individual position meeting rooms with theatre-style seating, a 150-plus-seat team auditorium, a basketball court with a parquet wood floor, a racquetball court, a team dining room and a players' lounge.

Not forgetting the Packers' rich tradition and history at Lambeau Field, then-GM/Head Coach Mike Sherman requested three slabs of concrete that were located in the team's former field tunnel at the north end – which were walked over by many of the greatest players in club history – to be moved to the new tunnel in the southeast corner; the players began using it during the 2002 season. A nearby plaque recognizes the presence of the concrete from the old tunnel.

In July 2002, all of the team's administrative and football-operations offices also relocated to within the Lambeau Field Atrium on the stadium's east side.

Other benefits realized through the redevelopment project include a modern system of field lights that is more than eight times brighter than the previous stadium lights, and a new visiting-team locker room. Also, a larger, more comfortable and modern press box that can seat in excess of 250 media members for a playoff game – and positioned along the sidelines – debuted in 2002. In 2003, the press box was renamed

"The Lee Remmel Press Box" in honor of the former newspaper sportswriter, Packers public relations director and team historian. Remmel retired in 2007 after more than 60 years of close association with the organization.

The Packers continue to upgrade the stadium as well. This season, a distributed audio system that is designed to deliver sound more consistently and evenly throughout the stadium bowl will benefit fans. In 2012, new video boards

Opened in 1957, Lambeau Field had seen numerous smaller-scale changes through the years, including seven prior seating expansions and the addition of suites. But, as new stadiums rose throughout the NFL in the 1990s, Lambeau Field became outdated. As a publicly owned team, the Packers must generate a significant amount of income from their home to remain competitive. Challenges with capacity, as well as the need for updated suites plus more club seats, restrooms and concessions, made redevelopment a necessity.

Faced with these challenges, the organization went to work in October 1999, assembling a plan to protect 80 years of Packers history and ensure the club's continued viability. After several feasibility studies and overwhelming support for renovation, as opposed to building a new stadium, the redevelopment plan was dubbed the proper course of action. Unveiled in January 2000, the plan ultimately won voter approval that September with the hard work of people committed to preserving Green Bay's unique franchise.

"Our fans overwhelmingly asked us to save Lambeau Field," then-President and CEO Bob Harlan said. "This plan accomplishes that while giving the Packers an economic base to build for the future in Green Bay. We want this to be the No. 1 destination in Wisconsin. We're going to build a stadium that the rest of the National Football League wished it had."

Included in the redeveloped stadium are more than 11,600 additional seats, including roughly 6,000 more bowl seats, to increase Lambeau's capacity to 73,128. Over 4,000 of the new seats were available for use during the 2002 season with construction ongoing.

| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Increase in stadium capacity from 60,890 in 2001 to 73,128 presently. ■ The Packers are making available 4,000 tickets per game to Brown County residents 18 and over who do not hold season tickets; the program began in 2003. ■ The team was able to further reduce its season-ticket waiting list, which still contains more than 88,000 people; roughly 3,500 names have come off since 2001. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ 168 state-of-the-art private suites featuring increased square footage and high-end custom finishes. ■ Club seating increased from 1,920 indoor seats to approximately 3,000 indoor and 3,000 outdoor seats. ■ An exclusive club level can be accessed by private box and club seat holders on game day. Available to the general public during the year for functions. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Concession points of sale doubled (to almost 300). ■ Dramatic increase in women's restroom facilities (180 to 556); men's restrooms increased from 436 to 708. ■ Disabled seating increased from 56 to 733. ■ An upper concourse was added and existing concourses were widened. |

The block of new seats helped the Packers to remove almost 1,500 names from their season-ticket waiting list – which has more than 88,000 names on it – between both ticket packages. Additionally, Brown County residents without season tickets have a chance to purchase the remaining 4,000 new bowl tickets on a game-by-game basis; in 2010, 10,000 residents were randomly selected from a list and were able to purchase four tickets. Disabled-accessible seats also increased dramatically through the development project, rising from 56 to 733.

The main concourse – previously so narrow in some places that it had become a safety problem – also was expanded significantly. And, a new, upper concourse – complete with concession stands and restrooms – which increases the ease with which fans can move through the facility, fully debuted in 2003 with the project's completion after partial use in 2002.

Concession stands and restrooms have been greatly expanded as well, lessening the time fans are out of their seats. Concession points of sale increased to 281 on the main and upper concourses alone, up from 186. Availability of women's restrooms, far below meeting the needs of female fans in the old stadium, increased from 180 to 556. Men's restrooms now are at 708, up from 436.

The centerpiece of the redeveloped stadium is the Lambeau Field Atrium, a 366,000-square-foot, five-plus-story structure on the east side. MillerCoors, through a sponsorship deal announced in July 2002 that extends through the 2012 NFL season, is a partner with the Packers in the Atrium and is the sponsor of the area's main entrance gate. Welcoming fans is a glass wall, facing Lombardi Avenue, measuring over 180 feet long and 80 feet high.

The Lambeau Field Atrium with its many attractions creates an "entertainment district" at the legendary stadium, a concept pioneered at venues like Camden Yards in Baltimore and Progressive Field in Cleveland.

Revenue generated from the Packers Pro Shop, Packers Hall of Fame, Curly's Pub, the Atrium eateries, the Legends Club and special events, as well as other Atrium businesses, is essential to the Packers' long-term survival. In just the first year, with only the new Pro Shop open and several gate sponsorships sold, the Packers' NFL revenue ranking for the fiscal year 2002-03 jumped to 10th, up from 20th the prior year. The strong financial performance continued during the ensuing fiscal years as all elements of the redeveloped stadium are now online; the club's NFL revenue ranking has continued to be in the second quartile, allowing the team to continue delivering on its promise to the community and its fans – turning profitability into the preservation of the franchise and the stadium. The redevelopment's economic impact on the area has been positive as well; roughly 60 percent of the Packers' special events department's bookings come from outside Brown County, bringing in additional business to the Green Bay area. The Atrium already has events booked out to 2017.

Two offseason football-related events are popular attractions: Packers Draft Party and Packers Fan Fest. The former saw nearly 2,000 fans take to the Atrium for Large-scale stadium events have included the 'Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic' in February 2006, a Wisconsin Badgers-Ohio State Buckeyes matchup that drew 40,890 fans, the fifth-largest hockey crowd of all time. In June 2011, a Kenny Chesney concert attracted more than 45,000 music lovers to the stadium. The two events brought in $3 million and $5 million, respectively, to the local economy.

On the community front, the Atrium has hosted regular events. 'Spooktacular Fun,' a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities including the 'Haunted Concourse,' music, magic, miming, clowns and jugglers, takes place in October. In November, the Packers serve a Thanksgiving meal to more than 800 people. March sees the Atrium welcome 'Project LEAP!' (Lambeau's Exercise and Activity Playground) – a day focused on getting kids out of the house to enjoy non-strenuous physical activity. More than 15,000 residents enjoy the Atrium during these days.

The project's voter-approved financing came in the form of a half-cent sales tax in Brown County – where the Packers make their estimated $144 million annual economic impact – that supports over $160 million in bonding. The state of Wisconsin approved funding of an additional $9.1 million for stadium infrastructure improvements. The Packers, the city and the NFL contributed $125.9 million from a one-time seat user fee ($1,400 for seven-game "Green Package" ticket holders, $600 for three-game "Gold Package" ticket holders, in 2001), proceeds from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan. And, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

The Packers' contribution to the project ranked as the fifth highest in NFL history. Tommy Thompson, Wisconsin governor at the time, signed into law enabling legislation May 13, 2000, in a ceremony held on the playing field. Later, on Jan. 3, 2001, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Stadium District Board approved a new Lambeau Field lease agreement between the district, the Packers and the city of Green Bay; the lease's primary term runs for 30 years after the opening of the redeveloped stadium in 2003. A groundbreaking ceremony, involving then-Governor Scott McCallum, area dignitaries and Packers officials and players, subsequently was held on May 19, 2001.

The NFL's longest-tenured venue, Lambeau easily ranks as one of the most recognized and envied locales in all of sports, a fact recognized in 1999 when Sports Illustrated named it the eighth-best facility in the world to watch sports — and the lone NFL stadium to make the magazine's "Top 20" list. Additionally, SI.com in 2007 and 2008 rated Lambeau Field as the No. 1 stadium experience in the NFL, as did ESPN The Magazine in 2009 and 2011.

Even after the recent changes, Lambeau maintains its nostalgic and intimate feel with totally unobstructed sightlines. Permeated by history, tradition and mystique, the view from inside can be awe-inspiring.

Dedicated as City Stadium Sept. 29, 1957 – a day that saw Green Bay topple the hated Chicago Bears, 21-17 – ceremonies included Vice President Richard Nixon and NFL Commissioner Bert Bell. In 1965, the facility was renamed Lambeau Field following the death of E.L. "Curly" Lambeau, the Packers' founder and first coach.

Originally built at a cost of $960,000, an amount shared equally by the Packers Corporation and the city of Green Bay, the facility was financed by way of a bond issue that received 2-to-1 voter approval in a municipal referendum conducted April 3, 1956.

Located in southwest Green Bay, surrounded on three sides by the village of Ashwaubenon, Lambeau Field originally was built on farmland, purchased for $73,305. The stadium's original architect, Somerville Inc., favored the current site because it was sloped, making it perfect to build a bowl.

Lambeau Field, now in its 55th NFL season, is the longest continuously occupied stadium in the league – 10 years more than the next-closest venue, Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego at 45 years. In pro sports as a whole, only the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park (100 seasons) and the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field (98 seasons) have longer active homefield tenures.

Including the redevelopment, eight seating additions – all paid for by the Green Bay Packers, Inc. – have increased Lambeau's capacity from its original 32,150 to 38,669 in 1961, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,852 in 1965 and to 56,263 in 1970. Construction of 72 initial suites in 1985 moved capacity to 56,926, and a 1990 addition of 36 boxes and 1,920 theatre-style club seats changed the number to 59,543. The seventh seating addition, a $4.7 million project in 1995, put 90 more suites in the previously open north end zone, for the first time giving the stadium the feel of a complete bowl and upping capacity to 60,890.

Ultimately, the eighth addition bumped stadium seating capacity to 73,128. During the 2002 campaign, with work ongoing, capacity fluctuated between 65,290 and 66,110 as the season progressed.

In 2007, the Packers installed an entirely new playing surface, including a completely new drainage and heating system, bringing the latest technology in field management

ORIGINAL CONSTRUCTION

- Proposal: The Packers' Fred Leicht, who supervised the 1925 construction of City Stadium, in May 1955 submitted a proposal for a new, 32,000-seat facility.
- Referendum: Passed April 3, 1956 (11,575 to 4,893), while community leaders continued debate over a site.
- Site: In late April 1956, the Packers hired an engineering company to study proposed locations. The company in July 1956 recommended the corner of Highland (now Lombardi) Avenue and Ridge Road.
- Land: City Council purchased farmland owned by Victor and Florence Vannieuwenhoven in August 1956 for $73,305.
- Contract: Awarded early in 1957, with ground-breaking as soon as weather permitted.
- Time: No longer than nine months, in time for '57 opener.
- Cost: $960,000 in municipal bonds; the Packers Corporation paid $634,700 in interest and principal.

to the famous stadium. Chief to the new system is DD GrassMaster, a natural-grass surface reinforced with man-made fibers. All existing levels of the field were removed and the new system began with a clay sub-grade level, compacted and graded (with a .6 percent slope), including drain tile, irrigation pipe and thermostat wiring for the heating system. The second level consists of 5½ inches of pea gravel. On top of the gravel layer is 30-plus miles of ¾-inch tubing for the heating system which can maintain a root-zone temperature of 55-plus degrees to keep the ground from freezing during the season's latter months. Level three consists of 12 inches of root-zone sand and Kentucky bluegrass turf. DD GrassMaster's synthetic fibers are stitched into the surface, providing strength and stability to the field. Fibers extend approximately seven inches below the surface, are exposed approximately one inch above the surface, and are spaced every three-quarters of an inch. Approximately 20 million individual stitches make up the process. The slope equates to a crown of about 5½ inches on the new surface.

Also prominent within the stadium are the names of the 21 Packers players and coaches elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The Packers' 13 NFL Championship seasons (southeast corner) and five retired jersey numbers (north end zone) are on the facade as well.

THE LAMBEAU BOWL

One of Lambeau's special characteristics is its classic seating bowl, now exclusive to Green Bay. The bowl design, common in many traditional college football stadiums, remains virtually untouched following a $295-million stadium renovation. Did you know...

- The original architectural firm, Somerville Inc., favored the Lambeau construction site because it sloped, perfect for building a bowl.
- The bowl's outstanding sightlines are generally credited to Dick Gustafson, who worked closely with John Somerville during the design phase.
- Some of Gustafson's inspiration came from Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor, where he went to college.
- Despite seating more than 62,713 (including an additional 6,601 from the recent renovation), the bowl still offers the NFL's highest percentage of great seats. Somerville credits that intimacy to the fact that the stadium was the first in the world designed exclusively for pro football.
- The original stadium district instructed Somerville to design a facility that could easily expand, and allow for off-season construction projects to be completed by August.
- The first significant project came just one year after the stadium's opening campaign. Workers replaced the original wooden bleachers with aluminum benches before the 1958 season.

In December 2006, the facade's northeast corner became home to the name of Ron Wolf, the former Packers general manager (1991-2001). Bob Harlan, then CEO, had the name installed, in a new tradition, separate from the Pro Football Hall of Famers, so that Wolf could be recognized in a way that is befitting of his enormous legacy with the organization.

Lambeau Field is among the NFL's toughest places to play. Green Bay holds a 114-38 (.750) regular-season record at Lambeau since 1992, plus an 8-3 mark in the playoffs, for an overall record of 122-41 (.748). Even more imposing, the Packers have won 114 of their last 151 games in Green Bay (including the eight postseason victories), since Oct. 10, 1993.

In the midst of nearly four full seasons at home without a defeat – prior to a 1998 Monday night loss to Minnesota, their last setback at Lambeau had come in the 1995 season opener – the Packers established the NFL's second-longest home winning streak (25). Only the Miami Dolphins (1971-74) have won more consecutive regular-season home games (27).

Over the past two decades, prior to the start of the redevelopment project, the Packers organization itself had spent more than $50 million on improvements to the stadium, the previous club administration building and training facilities, including construction of the original indoor practice structure in 1982 and its replacement, the Don Hutson Center, in 1994 at a cost of nearly $4.7 million. Recent improvements include DD GrassMaster surfaces on practice fields, Clarke Hinkle Field (2006) and Ray Nitschke Field (2009). Nitschke Field also has a new seating facility for fans attending training-camp practices.

Lambeau Field now is owned by the city of Green Bay and the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District; retirement of the city's original $960,000 debt was celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978.

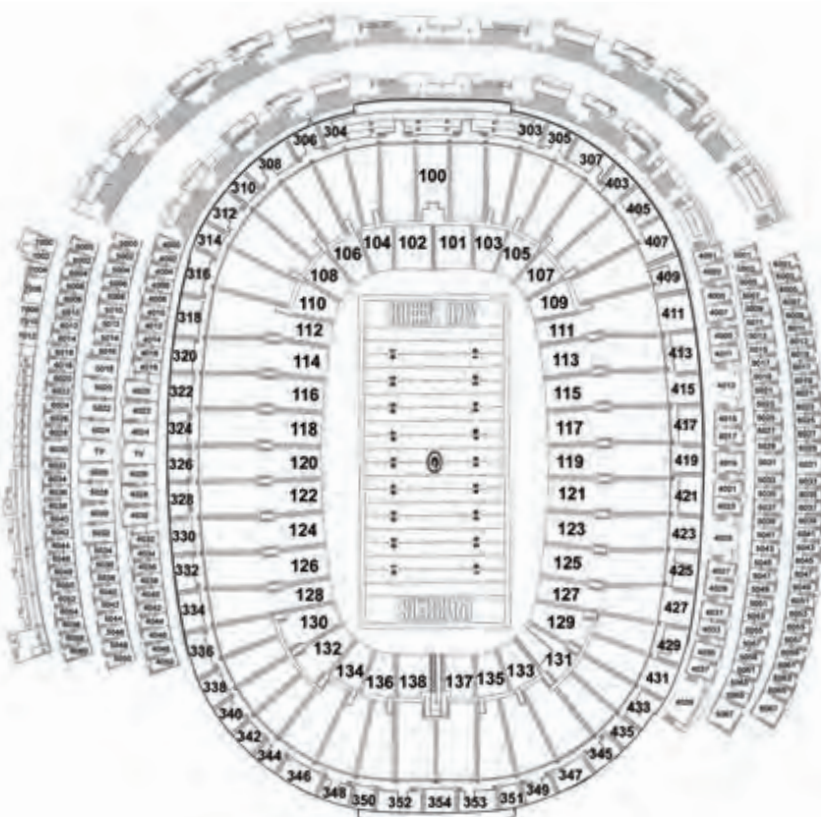

Sold out on a season-ticket basis since 1960 (293 consecutive games at the start of 2011, including playoffs) Lambeau was not the Packers' only regular-season home until 1995. The team maintained two separate ticket packages after moving all games to Green Bay, eliminating four annual dates at Milwaukee County Stadium.

"Gold" ticket holders (made up primarily of former Milwaukee season patrons) have a three-game package consisting of the annual Midwest Shrine preseason contest plus the second and fifth regular-season home games each year.

"Green" season customers (made up of original Green Bay ticket holders) have a seven-game package consisting of the annual Bishop's Charities preseason game and the remaining six regular-season contests.

OTHER HOMES OF THE PACKERS, 1919-94

THE SANDLOT YEARS

Inevitably, procedures at Packers games have come a long way since 1919-20, when the team subsisted on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. At that time, there were no ushers, cheerleaders, band or public address system, which hadn't yet been invented. There weren't even any seats, and admission was free.

From 1919-56, the Packers played their Green Bay games – including their first league contest – at virtually the same address. Their first home games were at Hagemeister Park, a vacant lot marked with a football gridiron, adjacent to East High.

There were no gates because there wasn't a fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street trolley and walked to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about 10 yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it, they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow up and down the field. By moving as play progressed, one always had a "50-yard line" location and was handy for any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting, the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that, too.

When the half ended, teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's halftime suggestion.

In 1920, the city built a section of stands – a small bleacher that held about 200 – giving the Packers their first justification for charging admission. The next year, a portable canvas fence was erected around the perimeter and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

BELLEVUE

When Hagemeister was dug up in 1923 to make way for a new East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds at the end of Main Street, Bellevue Park (left). Crowds of 4,000-5,000 stormed the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears. Green Bay was 9-2-1 in 12 league games at Bellevue from 1923-24. Eight of the nine Packers wins were shutouts, and the team won its last seven at the stadium, including a 5-0 home slate in '24. The lone tie was a scoreless affair in 1923.

THE PACKERS' SEVEN OTHER HOMES, 1919-94

GREEN BAY

- Hagemeister Park, 1919-22...Classic sandlot, near Baird and Walnut streets, adjacent to East River...East High School now occupies land.
- Bellevue Park, 1923-24 (below in '24)...Minor league baseball park, near Hagemeister Brewery, in 100-200 block of North Main Street.
- City Stadium, 1925-56 (pictured lower middle in 1946, and bottom in late 1920s)...Located behind East High School...Expanded several times to reach peak capacity of 24,500...Annually voted the NFL's best playing surface, because it sat just yards from the East River...EHS football team still uses downsized facility.

MILWAUKEE

- Borchert Field, 1933...Hosted one game...Minor league baseball park, home to NFL's Badgers from 1922-26...Located near Burleigh, Chambers and North Eighth streets...Torn down in 1954, it's now a children's playground.
- State Fair Park, 1934-51 (right inset in 1941)...Location: West Allis, Wis., near West Kearney, Greenfield, South 77th and South 84th streets, on Wisconsin State Fairgrounds.
- Marquette Stadium, 1952...Also housed Marquette football team.
- County Stadium, 1953-94 (far right in '94)...Home to baseball's Milwaukee Braves and Brewers...Off Interstate 94...Both benches were on east sideline...End zones ran north-south, from third base to right field...Demolished in 2000 to make parking lot for Miller Park.

CITY STADIUM

Bellevue obviously was inadequate and too far out, lacking about every amenity needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of City Stadium, behind the new high school.

The new facility was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but it was an immediate success (the Bears opener drew a record crowd of 5,389). It was a typical small-town park of its day (pictured at bottom), with wooden fences and stands on both sides between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines, the ultimate capacity of just over 25,000 was reached (inset at left, middle photo).

After World War II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League, to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased, it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. On Nov. 18, 1956, the Packers lost their final game at the stadium, to the 49ers. A new City Stadium, on Green Bay's west side, opened the following year (renamed Lambeau Field in 1965).

MILWAUKEE

The decision to play games in Milwaukee (including State Fair Park, above inset; and County Stadium, above right) played a key role in the Packers' survival. It allowed the team to tap a larger market and thwart any efforts to establish another competing pro football team there. The Packers played games in Milwaukee for 62 straight years (1933-94) until opting — mostly for financial reasons — to move all games to Green Bay beginning

LAMBEAU FIELD ATRIUM

Key to making Lambeau Field a year-round destination venue is the 366,000-square-foot Lambeau Field Atrium, more than five stories high on the east side of the stadium.

Included within the Lambeau Field Atrium are a number of dining, entertainment and retail options for Packers fans of all ages. Free wireless Internet access is available at the Atrium, too, for guests who want to bring along their laptop computers and log on to the Internet while visiting a restaurant or taking part in a corporate event or meeting.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME — Located one level below the main Lambeau Field Atrium floor, the Packers Hall of Fame is over 25,000 square feet of Packers artifacts and celebration of Green and Gold glory. A rebuilt office of legendary coach Vince Lombardi, a section featuring three rotating exhibits each year, and lockers of all 21 Packers in the Pro Football Hall of Fame are among the highlights of this unique space. A moving, 12-minute movie about the Packers, produced for the team by NFL Films, starts the Hall of Fame experience, which does not end until the visitor reaches the plaques of all 147 members of the Packers Hall of Fame and a display of the team's four Super Bowl trophies. A must-stop for fans, the Hall welcomed more than 97,000 visitors during the 2010-11 fiscal year.

Fans can sit behind Vince Lombardi's desk as they walk through history in the Packers Hall of Fame, a key stop in the Lambeau Field Atrium.

LAMBEAU FIELD STADIUM TOURS —

Highlighted by a walk through the team tunnel to the hallowed ground of Lambeau Field, stadium tours allow fans to experience the Packers' history-rich facility first hand and see several behind-the-scenes areas. Outstanding photo opportunities avail themselves throughout each tour. Tickets for the one-hour tours are sold on a first-come, first-served basis for each day's available tours. A popular attraction, more than 97,000 people took the stadium tour during the 2010-11 fiscal year.

Public access to the inside of Lambeau Field is available only through a tour. The stadium tour hotline is 920/569-7513, and schedules are online at www.lambeaufield.com.

The NFL's most popular stadium tour also appears on itineraries of most fans; many of them schedule Lambeau Field and Packers training camp as their family's summer vacation. Included on the tour is a stop at Paul Hornung's 1956 Heisman Trophy.

CURLY'S PUB — Offering a little bit of everything for everyone, this restaurant, sports bar and interactive area serves up a menu like no other. Green Bay favorites, creatively prepared and served at a very reasonable price, make this the place to come for the entire family. Watch any sporting event on the 138 monitors throughout Curly's. Get into the action with Curly's Game Zone with its custom football interactive games. Or simply sit back and watch all of the action — either on the Packers' practice fields or in the players parking lot.

ATRIUM EATERIES — Four locally based eateries located within the Lambeau Field Atrium will be open roughly 100 days per year for special events and on gamedays. They are:

FESTIVAL FOODS BOOMERANG CAFÉ — Subs, sandwiches and wraps are on the menu. Add a cup of homemade soup or one of many deli salads for a complete meal. The food is so good, it will have you coming back for more.

FESTIVAL FOODS TITLETOWN GRILL — Serving Festival Foods' own Festy Burgers and Dogs in addition to their signature barbecue beef sandwich, this eatery features the best in traditional Tiletown fare.

GOIN' DEEP PIZZA — This Italian eatery offers individual fresh-baked pizzas and creative pasta dishes.

MEAT PACKING COMPANY — A restaurant concept developed exclusively for Lambeau Field; overstuffed sandwiches, giant bratwursts and delicious desserts are featured on the menu.

SPECIAL EVENTS — Lambeau Field, through the Atrium floor, Legends Club, Miller Lite End Zone, Lee Rummel Press Box and Club 1919, is capable of handling every type of special event. From the many fine points that an elaborate corporate meeting requires to the extensive details of a wedding reception, the Special Events department (920/569-7515) can coordinate any function with catering provided by nationally known and award-winning Levy Restaurants. The Lambeau Field Atrium hosted more than 400 events — including several wedding receptions — during the 2010-11 fiscal year, welcoming more than 91,000 guests to the facility. Roughly 60 percent of the department's bookings come from outside Brown County.

Lambeau Field wedding receptions are common requests fielded by the Packers' special events department.

PACKERS PRO SHOP — Owned and operated by the Packers, the two-story Packers Pro Shop is nirvana for the Packers fan of any age, with over 2,000 individual items in stock. A unique place to simply visit, the Pro Shop has a refurbished 1957 Packers Chevy pickup on display, along with authentic helmets from all 32 NFL teams and framed, authentic jerseys from some of the team's Hall of Famers, among other things. The Packers Pro Shop is open year-round from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. weekdays, 9-6 on Saturdays and 10-5 on Sundays, with special hours for training camp, gamedays and holidays.

OTHER ATRIUM EVENTS

In addition to the dining, entertainment, retail and special-event options, the Lambeau Field Atrium hosts a number of football-themed events, as well as community gatherings and activities each year.

PACKERS FAN FEST — A two-day celebration of Packers football for the whole family, the unique event allows fans the chance to get up close and personal with their favorite Packers players, past and present, as well as coaching staff and front office personnel. More than 3,000 fans pack the Atrium to take in question-and-answer sessions, autograph and photo opportunities, football-related activities, a special kids' area and family fun. Among the highlights of the event is a tour through the Packers locker room, a destination that does not appear on the regular Lambeau Field Stadium Tour. Fan Fest did not take place in 2011, but is intended to return in the future.

PACKERS DRAFT PARTY — Hundreds of fans pack Curly's Pub in the Lambeau Field Atrium to take in the first night of the NFL Draft. Live coverage of the draft is on more than 100 monitors and the Packers' flagship radio station, Newsradio 620 WTMJ, is on hand to provide programming as well. Appearances by Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy, General Manager Ted Thompson, Head Coach Mike McCarthy and Packers players, as well as autograph sessions and door prizes, highlight the night as Packers fans get together to watch the draft, celebrate their team and get ready for the upcoming season.

COMMUNITY EVENTS — An obvious destination for football-related events and generally taking in Packers lore, the Lambeau Field Atrium also hosts a number of community events each year that draw thousands of people. Project LEAP! (Lambeau's Exercise and Activity Playground), a March event, focuses on getting kids out of the house to enjoy non-strenuous physical activity. Spooktacular Fun, held in October, is a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities, including sing-along music, magic, miming, clowns and jugglers. Each November, the Packers, in conjunction with area parishes, serve a Thanksgiving meal to more than 800 people. Festival of Lights, a December holiday-themed event that includes a visit from Santa Claus, cookie decorating, choirs and a 40-foot tree with 10,000 lights. In addition to those regular events, other gatherings are held from time to time, including a community send-off for Green Bay's 127th National Guard Unit in 2005 and 2009.

FROZEN TUNDRA HOCKEY CLASSIC — Lambeau Field and the Atrium took on a hockey flavor the weekend of Feb. 10-12, 2006, as the team hosted the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic, featuring the Wisconsin Badgers vs. the Ohio State Buckeyes. Among the week-end's highlights were a community skate (more than 3,000 participants took part, including guests from 18 different states), picture-taking with the Stanley Cup and Vince Lombardi Trophies, an autograph session with the Badgers hockey team, and youth hockey sessions. The action culminated with a 4-2 Badgers victory in front of 40,890 fans. The attendance marked the fourth-largest hockey crowd of all time. An economic boost to north-eastern Wisconsin, more than 1,300 hotel rooms were booked and the event brought in nearly $3 million to the local economy.

LZ LAMBEAU — Lambeau Field served as a “Welcome Home” weekend for Wisconsin’s Vietnam Veterans, Vietnam-era veterans and their families, May 20-22, 2010. Over the three days, 70,000 people took in speakers, exhibits, music and premiere segments from Wisconsin Public Television’s Wisconsin Vietnam War Stories documentary. Other events during the weekend included The Moving Wall. The Packers partnered with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, the Wisconsin Historical Society, Wisconsin Public Television and veterans’ organizations statewide.

KENNY CHESNEY CONCERT TOUR — On June 11, 2011, Lambeau Field hosted its first major concert since the redevelopment was completed in 2003. More than 45,000 fans packed the stadium to take in Kenny Chesney, along with the Zac Brown Band, Billy Currington and Uncle Kracker. The weekend saw an economic impact of nearly $5 million for the Green Bay area.

COMMON OPPONENTS WITHIN DIVISION

At the NFL Spring Meeting on May 22, 2001, in Rosemont, Ill., NFL owners unanimously approved realignment, coinciding with the Houston Texans' 2002 debut. The 32-team league calls for a harmonic scheduling rotation, in comparison with awkward formulas used in previous seasons. Each team within a division now plays 14 common opponents, as follows:

- Each team plays home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- Each team plays the four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (four games).
- Each team plays the four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (four games).
- Each team plays a pair of intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (two games); i.e., first-place teams in a division will play against the first-place teams from another division within the same conference, etc. (two games).

The NFL will again utilize "flexible scheduling" in 2011.*

Flexible scheduling moves will be announced at least 12 days before games in Weeks 10-15. In Week 17, the flexible scheduling move will be announced at least six days before the game. Flexible scheduling will ensure quality matchups on Sunday night in those weeks and give "surprise" teams a chance to play their way on to prime time.

PACKERS RADIO NETWORK

Wayne Larrivee and Larry McCarren enter their 13th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network in 2011. Though both are veteran broadcasters, the two were paired for the first time in 1999 to bring the color and excitement of Green Bay Packers football to fans throughout Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and three more-distant states.

Larrivee, who grew up as a fan of the Packers in his native Lee, Mass., enters his 34th consecutive year broadcasting NFL games, having joined Green Bay's broadcast team after 14 seasons as the radio voice of the Chicago Bears (1985-98) on WGN and WMAQ Radio in Chicago. Earlier, he had done play-by-play of Kansas City Chiefs games for seven years (1978-84) on KCMO Radio in Kansas City. Known for his thorough preparation and his moderated, yet enthusiastic, call of the action, Larrivee's more-recent credits also include play-by-play for Big Ten Conference football and basketball for ESPN Regional and Big Ten Network, co-host of the nationally syndicated Pro Football Weekly radio program the past 20 years, and Chicago Cubs baseball. He also served as play-by-play announcer of Chicago Bulls basketball on WGN-TV from 1991-2008 and for NCAA basketball on Westwood One/CBS Sports Radio.

Highly decorated, the 56-year-old Larrivee was named Illinois "Sportscaster of the Year" in 1997 and is a seven-time winner of the Silver Dome Award, presented by the Illinois Broadcasters Association, for best radio football play-by-play. He is also a four-time winner of a Midwest Emmy for Bulls basketball play-by-play. In May, he was honored as Communicator of the Year by the Wisconsin Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

A 1977 graduate of Emerson College in Boston, he was awarded the school's Alumni Achievement Award in June 2005. Larrivee also has done play-by-play of University of Iowa football, Quad Cities (Iowa) Angels minor league baseball, University of Missouri basketball and Kansas City Kings basketball.

McCarren first joined the team's broadcasts in 1995, working his first four seasons with Jim Irwin and Max McGee. Inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame in 1992, he also is a favorite among television viewers in northeast Wisconsin. Sports director at WFRV-TV in Green Bay since 1988, he additionally served previously as co-host of Inside 1265, the official television program of the Green Bay Packers. He has four times been voted Wisconsin "Sportscaster of the Year" (1994, 1996, 2002, 2007) by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

An iron man at center for the Packers for 12 seasons (1973-84), McCarren played in 162 consecutive games — the fourth-longest streak in team history — helping him earn the nickname "Rock." He was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1982 and '83. Earlier, he had been a co-captain at the University of Illinois as both a junior and senior. McCarren, 59, originally is from Park Forest, Ill.

Radio station WTMJ, which has been broadcasting the team's games since November 1929, continues its long-standing role as the flagship station of the Packers Radio Network. That designation continues into this century as the two parties announced an extension to their radio broadcast rights agreement in 2002.

The Packers Radio Network is made up of 52 stations in five states.

GREEN BAY PACKERS BROADCAST PARTNERS

The Green Bay Packers, Green Bay's WFRV-TV Channel 5, the CBS station that is part of the Viacom Television Stations Group, and Milwaukee's WTMJ-TV enter Year 9 of a comprehensive broadcasting partnership that runs through the 2011 season, providing year-round Packers programming, in addition to preseason games, to fans throughout Wisconsin and the Midwest.

Regarded as an NFL model for year-round brand extension, the partnership produces the most comprehensive and varied team programming in the club's 82-year broadcasting history.

The agreement also provides for outdoor billboard advertising and other media supporting Lambeau Field as a year-round destination venue for family entertainment, dining and Packers football excitement.

The Lambeau Field Atrium is the site of the Atrium Broadcast Center, a television studio that serves as a hub for regular on-site programming by WFRV-TV and WTMJ-TV, including news, sports and weather, throughout the year.

The broadcasting package includes:

- Televising, by CBS Sports and WFRV-TV in conjunction with Milwaukee's WTMJ-TV, Packers preseason games over a 10-station network throughout the state of Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, northeastern Minnesota and the Quad Cities in Iowa, with CBS network production, personnel and the latest network-quality technology.
- A top-notch broadcast team that includes CBS's Kevin Harlan calling the play-by-play with fellow CBS broadcaster Rich Gannon providing the analysis. WTMJ's Jessie Garcia serves as the sideline reporter and WFRV's Larry McCarren joins the crew for pre-game segments.
- An informative half-hour show prior to each preseason game.
- A half-hour preview show during training camp.
- A Packers Inside Lambeau show Thursday nights during the season, originating from Curly's Pub in the Lambeau Field Atrium, that includes player guests.

As well as a first-rate on-air broadcast lineup, the partnership boasts an excellent production team. CBS's Ross Schneiderman, a eight-time Emmy Award winner, serves as producer, and Suzanne Smith, a four-time Emmy Award-winning producer and director for CBS, works as director for the game telecasts.

In addition to WFRV-TV and WTMJ-TV, the games are televised over WKOW/ABC, Madison, Wis.; WAOW/ABC, Wausau/Rhineland, Wis.; WXOW/ABC, La Crosse, Wis.; WQOW/ABC, Eau Claire; WYOW/ABC, Eagle River, Wis.; WJMN/CBS, Marquette, Mich.; KQDS-TV/FOX, Duluth, Minn.; KLJB-TV/FOX and KGCW/CW, Quad Cities in Iowa.

Ancillary benefits afforded by the agreement are special programs about the Lambeau Field Atrium and the Packers Hall of Fame, plus the promotion of Lambeau Field and Brown County tourism on a regional basis through CBS/Liberty-owned TV stations in Chicago, Detroit and Minneapolis, in addition to Green Bay.

The partnership also provides the Packers an opportunity to salute Wisconsin's high school athletes through supporting messages during broadcasts of the WIAA basketball tournaments and other prep events.

PRESEASON BROADCAST TEAM

KEVIN HARLAN

Play-by-play announcer

Has called regular-season games for CBS Sports since 1998 after four years with FOX (1994-97) and is regarded as one of the finest at his trade in the country. Provides play-by-play for Monday Night Football games on Westwood One. A veteran broadcaster, also "voices" NCAA Tournament basketball games for CBS, as well as NBA games for TNT. Owns a unique perspective on Packers football, having been raised in Green Bay.

RICH GANNON

Color analyst

The 18-year NFL veteran and former league MVP enters his fourth year in the Packers' preseason television booth. He officially retired from football in 2005 and teamed with Harlan for CBS Sports NFL broadcasts.

LARRY MCCARREN

Pre-game analyst

Enjoyed a 12-year career at center in Green Bay (1973-84) and is a member of the Packers Hall of Fame. Is well known to Packers fans from his role as analyst on the Packers Radio Network, a position he's held since 1995. He also serves as co-host of The Mike McCarthy Show and previously co-hosted Inside 1265, the official television program of the Packers.

JESSIE GARCIA

Sideline reporter

A Wisconsin native and 16-year veteran of WTMJ, is familiar to Packers fans in the state through her outstanding coverage of the team. She co-hosts The Mike McCarthy Show with McCarren, and previously co-hosted Inside 1265, the official television program of the club. Prior to her tenure at WTMJ, she worked at WISC-TV in Madison, Wis. (1992-93).

NFL TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for post-season playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules (NOTE – tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs).

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

NOTE: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format.

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD CARD TEAM

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

- A. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
- B. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in the games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Strength of victory.
5. Strength of schedule.
6. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
7. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best net points in conference games.
9. Best net points in all games.
10. Best net touchdowns in all games.
11. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

1. Apply division tie-breaker to eliminate all but highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tie-breaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the Wild Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others).
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in conference games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2). In situations where three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tie-breaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tie-breakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tie-breaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
2. In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division titlists, apply Wild Card tie-breakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tie-breakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tie-breakers (if teams are from different divisions).

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES FOR SELECTION MEETING

1. Clubs not participating in the playoffs shall select in the first through 20th positions in reverse standings order.
2. The Super Bowl winner is last and Super Bowl loser is next-to-last.
3. The losers of the Conference Championship games shall select 29th and 30th based on won-lost-tied percentage.
4. The losers of the Divisional playoff games shall select 25th through 28th based on won-lost-tied percentage.
5. The losers of the Wild Card games shall select 21st through 24th based on won-lost-tied percentage.

If ties exist in any grouping except (2) above, such ties shall be broken by strength of schedule. If any ties cannot be broken by strength of schedule, the divisional or conference tie-breakers, if applicable, shall be applied. Any ties that still exist shall be broken by a coin flip.

MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

TED THOMPSON INTERVIEWS

- During training camp, General Manager Ted Thompson was available weekly for group interviews in the Media Auditorium. As needed, primary beat writers may continue to schedule one-on-one interviews at other times, over the telephone through Jeanne Bruette. All other requests should be directed to Jason Wahlers (920/569-7210).

MIKE MCCARTHY PRESS CONFERENCES

- During the regular season, Head Coach Mike McCarthy generally will be available in the Media Auditorium Monday (3 p.m.), Wednesday (1:35 p.m.), Thursday (1:30 p.m.), Friday (12:30 p.m.) and after home games.
- One-on-one interviews with McCarthy should be arranged through Jason Wahlers (920/569-7210).

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

- During the regular season, the locker room generally will be open on Monday (3-4 p.m.), Wednesday (1:40-2:25 p.m.), Thursday (1:40-2:25 p.m.), Friday (12:30-1:15 p.m.) and following games.
- At the conclusion of all games, the locker room will be opened following the NFL's standard "cooling off" period.
- Any requests to interview players other than at the aforementioned times should be directed to a member of the Packers' public relations department.

ASSISTANT COACH AVAILABILITY

All by request, through the P.R. department

- During the regular season, assistants generally will be available in person on Thursdays (offense and special teams) and Fridays (defense) in the hallway outside the locker room. The availability will be soon after practice on Thursday (1:45 p.m.) and Friday (12:45 p.m.). On Mondays, coordinators will be available in the hallway at 3:15 p.m., following Head Coach Mike McCarthy's press conference.
- Following games, Head Coach Mike McCarthy will be the only coach available to the media.
- Coordinators - Joe Philbin (offense, pictured at top), Dom Capers (defense, middle) and Shawn Slocum (special teams, bottom) - will continue to serve as primary spokesmen in their respective areas.
- However, position coaches are available for questions on specific players and the position group only. Broader interview topics need to be directed to the respective coordinator.
- Assistant coaches also are available for interviews on more personal subjects, such as Winston Moss on his NFL playing career.
- No assistant coach should be contacted directly by telephone (at his desk, home or on his cell phone), or by e-mail. All interviews must be arranged through the P.R. department.
- Sarah Quick (920/569-7213) serves as the primary contact for assistant coaches. In her absence, feel free to contact another member of the P.R. staff.

PRACTICE ACCESS & PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

- During the regular season, Wednesday-Friday practices will be open to state media who regularly cover the team for designated periods during the first half of each session, similar to previous seasons. Also as in prior years, photo opportunities will be limited to the beginning portions of practice.
- Regular-season practices will begin at 11:15 a.m. Wednesday and Thursday, and at 11 a.m. Friday.
- The team reserves the right to limit photography to certain periods for competitive reasons. This restriction applies to both training camp and regular-season practices.

ALL INFORMATION IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

CREDENTIALS

All credential requests should be directed to Sarah Quick, assistant director of public relations. Requests may be sent via e-mail (Sarah Quick; quicks@packers.com), FAX (920/569-7201) or U.S. mail (1265 Lombardi Avenue, Green Bay, WI 54304). Credentials will not be mailed, unless the requesting outlet provides a Federal Express or UPS number, and should be picked up in person at the Packers' public relations office, located on the third floor of the Lambeau Field Atrium. Credentials not obtained prior to game day will be left at Media Will Call on the west side of the stadium. The will call booth opens three hours prior to kickoff.

ONLINE CONTENT POLICY

According to the 2011 NFL non-game online content policy, accredited organizations may distribute online non-game audio and video content, including interviews, press conferences and team practices at NFL venues, acquired as a result of credentialed access ("Game Information") to games or club/league facilities provided that such distribution: is 90 seconds maximum per day (180 seconds in two-team markets - 90 seconds per team); may not be "archived" (i.e., made available for on-demand public access) for more than 24 hours; appears in an editorial context only (no sponsorship, merchandising or advertising integrated with or around the content); is not posted live, and is accompanied by links back to NFL.com and to the club website.

The 90-second limit does not include video/audio material that is comprised entirely of a credentialed media employee providing commentary or analysis ("Talking Head" reporting), including pre- or post-game stand-up material shot on the field or other facility location.

While a game is in progress, any forms of accounts of the game must be sufficiently time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., score updates with detail given only in quarterly game updates, fewer than 10 photographs during the game) so that the Accredited Organization's game coverage cannot be used as a substitute for, or otherwise approximate, authorized play-by-play accounts.

The Packers have their own social media and online content policies for practice reporting, which will be communicated by the public relations staff for both training camp and the regular season. Members of the media are encouraged to contact the public relations staff with any questions.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless on a specific assignment from an accredited organization. Credentials are not provided to "grips" due to on-field space limitations.

CONFERENCE CALLS

The Packers' public relations department will arrange a conference call with the head coach and a key player of the opposing team each week during the regular season. These conference calls will be made from the Media Workroom, and generally will be held on Wednesday.

TELEPHONES / INTERNET

Lambeau Field features complimentary wireless internet in the main press box. Please contact the public information department if you require assistance.

The general press room phone number is 920/569-7550. In the Lee Rummel Press Box at Lambeau Field, more than a dozen "co-op" phones are available to media throughout the box. If dedicated service is desired, please contact Don Raddatz of Northern Musicast seven to 10 days prior to the game at 920/739-8282 or by FAX at 920/739-4735. Instruments also may be obtained through Raddatz, upon request.

Dedicated internet service also may be ordered through Raddatz (920/739-8282) — on a game-by-game or full-season basis — for installation in either the Lee Rummel Press Box or in the downstairs Photo/Media Workrooms.

POOL REPORTER

As assigned by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA), the Green Bay pool reporter for the 2011 season is Tom Silverstein of the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

2011 MEDIA WALKING DIRECTIONS, LAMBEAU FIELD

FROM PRESS BOX TO LOCKER ROOMS

PACKERS LOCKER ROOM: Take press box elevator to Level M. Go right onto mezzanine, which you will follow around to the south end of the stadium until reaching Stair O. Take stairs down to bottom (field level, marked LL). Go through several doors, then cross field tunnel to reach Media Auditorium (post-game press conference area), which is on your immediate right. To reach locker room, continue to and through double doors marked Authorized Personnel Only. Locker room entrance is the second door on your right.

VISITING TEAM LOCKER ROOM: Take press box elevator to Level M. Go right onto mezzanine, which you will follow around to the south end of the stadium until reaching Stair O. Take stairs down to Floor 1 and go through door at left. Curve right, make a quick left, then go straight 15 yards and through a set of two doors. Entrance to Visiting Team Interview Room (1C16) will be on your left, about 50 yards down. To reach Visiting Team Locker Room, continue same path down corridor.

FROM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT

- Take press box elevator to Level 1. Exit to left out of lobby to parking lot.

PRESS GATE & WILL CALL INFORMATION

- Media credentialed for the Press Box should enter the stadium on the west (Ridge Road) side at the Associated Bank Gate. Upon entering stadium, take the elevator at immediate right to the Lee Rummel Press Box (Level 7).
- Field photographers and other media credentialed for field access should enter the stadium on the south end at the Media Workroom entrance.
- Media Will Call is located on the west side of stadium, facing Ridge Road, just to the left of Credentialed Media entrance at the Associated Bank Gate.
- Ticket will call is on the northeast corner of the stadium, near the Packers Pro Shop, which faces Lombardi Avenue.

LATE PRESS BOX EXIT

- Take press box elevator to Level 1. Exit to left out of lobby to parking lot. Once outside, turn left again, walking toward media parking lot, on southwest corner of stadium property.

LATE PARKING LOT EXIT

- To reach Lombardi Avenue from media parking lot, use nearest lot exit, turning right onto Ridge Road toward Lombardi.
